A letter from the Cochrane, Bureau and Company, accountants was read, in which they asked for an additional $150.00 for auditing the town books for the year 1951. After considering the matter, the council granted the increase, bringing the amount up the 500 per year.

A grant of $200 was made to the Mount Pleasant cemetery board. This will help the board complete payment for the new vault recently installed there.

Council adjourned after the passing of the pay sheet, and will meet next month on September 10, the regular meeting date of September 3 being a public holiday.

Three New Members Join Legion Branch

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 15 — (ENS) — The regular meeting of Branch 103 Canadian Legion, was held on Monday evening with a good attendance.

Three new comrades were admitted to membership, making a total of 162 paid-up members. There are a few members in arrears of dues, and Comrade Massie, treasurer of the Branch would like to see these paid before the next meeting, Sept. 10.

An invitation from the Ladies' Auxiliary to attend a social evening on Monday August 20, was accepted. The auxiliary was recently formed, and has been quite active.

Members were advised that tickets to the Canadian National Exhibition on Warriors' Day were available free of charge to Veterans and their families, and that these could be secured from Comrade Massie.

On Friday evening, a work party will be formed to clean up the Legion grounds, and all members have been asked to turn out and help in this effort.

Decoration Day was set for Sunday Sept. 9.

Too Many Apple Trees Grown In Nova Scotia

COBOURG, Aug. 15—(ENS)—Annual open house at the Dominion Experimental Station at Smithfield, drew a good crowd of apple growers from Northumberland county, from Bay of Quinte counties and one group from Norfolk. In the cool packing house, the crowd, away from the heat, was addressed by M. B. Davis of the Dominion Horticultural division, Ottawa.

Mr. Davis said that the experimental station at Kentville, in the Maritimes, had been encouraging quality and discouraging acreage. One-half the trees of this great apple-producing area are not needed. He discussed some of the more important varieties being grown in this part of the Dominion and then swung to a discussion on varieties in British Columbia. It was recommended that more attention be paid to the Bancroft and Sandow varieties in preference to adding to the acreage of McIntosh.

Professor H. Goble, provincial entomologist, OAC, placed special emphasis on the influence of mites which were hard to discern against the bronzing of the foliage. Professor C. Kelly of OAC drew attention to the fact that there had been 15 inches of rain this year as compared with eight inches in 1950. He expressed regret that a perfect spray plan was not available, but warned against using too many successive lime sulphur sprays.

Two Polio Cases Listed In Cobourg

COBOURG, Aug. 15—(ENS)—Two cases of polio are now listed in Cobourg. The first patient, an 11-year-old boy, is in an iron lung in the hospital at Toronto. The second case is a mild one with no paralysis. Another case of polio in Cavan township, makes a total of three in the Northumberland and Durham counties health unit area to date.

Tax Payments Total $65,465

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 15 — (ENS) — J. C. Birmingham, Campbellford tax collector announced to council Monday night that collections to date total $65,465.98. Discounts on prepayments amounted to $482.18, leaving about $32,390.79 in uncollected taxes. Mr. Birmingham says the overall picture looks good, and that collections are slightly above last year.

The total on the assessment roll is $98,240.24.

Impasse At Kaesong

Eight weeks ago next Saturday the first overtures for an armistice in Korea were made by Soviet U.N. delegate Jacob Malik. The following Saturday General Ridgway contacted Communist commanders in Korea by radio. From that day to this an armistice has been hanging-fire. The length of the negotiations is itself not a bad sign; the haggling is over terms, not principles, and the American-U.N. truce delegates have the upper hand. The Chinese delegation have softened their demands before the threat of American-U.N. power and the unyielding attitude of the U.N. negotiators.

• • •

This firm front, different from the rather wavering approach at the beginning of the negotiations, may be a part of planned policy to show the Communists that the West can be stubborn. So might the loud military talk be part of a policy to show strength. General Van Fleet, commander of the Eighth Army, said yesterday: "The military feels we would like to have the opportunity to meet the Communists if they attack. It would be a real clobber. I don't know of a better way to get it over faster. The enemy is hurting. He is in bad shape. He needs peace." One must allow for a certain amount of morale-boosting in this statement, to make his own soldiers feel confident and ready for more should the armistice talks fail. But the General's words must strike the hearts of the Chinese negotiators sharply. The military might against them is terrible and powerful.

• • •

U.N. negotiators are in a position to bargain strongly, but their strength must not blind them to the tragedy which would follow a failure of the talks. If there is no armistice, the war which nobody wants will be resumed with greater force than before, since both sides have been building up during the seven-week lull.

A New "Little Catechism" For Quebec

The "Little Catechism" plays an important role in elementary school instruction in Quebec. A new edition has been prepared by an episcopal commission named in 1942 by the Archbishops and Bishops of the ecclesiastical provinces of Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. The new manual comes into force in Quebec Roman Catholic state schools in September. The latest (June) issue of L'Enseignement Primaire (Primary Teaching), a magazine for French-Canadian teachers published by the Quebec Department of Public Instruction, summarizes the new items in the "Little Catechism," reporting many verbatim.

The new Little Catechism gives an insight into the attitudes which Quebec is religiously inculcating among primary school children. The 39th lesson, on the duties of inferiors and superiors, has a set of five questions and answers on "The Duties of Employees and Employers," which we translate as follows:

"541: What is God's fourth commandment ordained for employees? Answer: God's fourth commandment requires employees to respect the person and property of their employers, to work diligently and to observe their working contract.

"452: What is God's fourth commandment ordained for employers? Answer: God's fourth commandment requires employers to respect the person, the right of association and the working contract of their employees, to pay a family salary and to help them fulfill their religious duties.

"453: What ought employees and employers do to adjust their difficulties? Answer: They ought to use all honest and peaceful means which are at their disposal.

"454: What is the best means to assure justice and charity between employees and employers? Answer: To form Catholic associations or syndicates of employees and employers.

"455: When have employees and employers the right to suspend work to adjust their difficulties? Answer: In extremely serious cases, after having tried all other means."

The tenor of these terms of the new "Little Catechism" is not as remarkable as is their inclusion in a manual of elementary instruction. Children between the ages of six and twelve in Quebec schools are thus to be instructed formally on labour relations and on what their attitudes must be towards them. In what other province of Canada has this advanced stage of public instruction been reached, that children of tender years are told what they should think and do about the relations of employers to employees, and employees to their bosses?

These clauses are among 992 questions and answers in the new Canadian edition of the "Little Catechism," questions which deal with such profound matters as: that civil authority should be respected "because all authority comes from God"; and, that the State must respect "the superior rights of God and the Catholic Church, the rights of the family and of the human person; the rights of particular societies and the rights of other countries." Primary school authorities in Quebec are indeed careful that the youth of the province will be indoctrinated according to ecclesiastical views.

Money For Grass

Last week a farmer south of Peterborough brought a few head of cattle to the slaughter-house in the city and went home with a cheque for $4,000. Actually, there were ten head in the lot, averaging about 400 dollars each. This spring a farmer north of the city bought a second farm, better than the one he, his parents and grandparents had laboured for many decades to clear and improve. He bought it with one load of cattle he had raised last year, on his unimproved ranch land. Money for jam? Money for grass.

In view of such transactions it is astonishing that sons are still leaving the farm to get "easy" money in factories. In township after township in this district the men who are working the farm—and raking in the money—are aged 55, 60, 65 and 70. Younger men, their sons, have gone to town, there to earn "big" money in the factories. Wages of $1.20-$1.80 an hour look handsome. Perhaps they are; $1.20 an hour for a 44-hour week amounts to $52.80. But few factory workers can boast of returns like those of the farmer who last week sold ten head of cattle for $4,000. Why, the total annual wage of the factory worker earning $52.80 a week is well under $3,000 a year.

Yet farmer's sons continue to troop into the cities, these young men who have invaluable experience which city folk can never get. They pass up the experience and the opportunity on the family farm (or one of their own) which would allow them to raise a couple of dozen head of cattle a year almost incidentally to regular farm work and income.

A Blow At Double Parking

People who park double on our busy streets are a confounded nuisance, but usually there is little one can do but wait patiently or shout blasphemously. A New York lawyer and his wife have made a court issue of double parking, which may result in deterring double parkers all over the continent. The attorney and his wife parked against the curb on Park Avenue. When they returned an hour later they were unable to move because a doctor had double-parked his car beside theirs. They have asked for nominal damages of $25 for "discomfort and inconvenience," but have gone to court really to get a ruling on the civil liability of double-parkers.

Mr. Justice Wahl has ruled that the case be heard. He cited a recent decision of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals upholding the right of riders to travel on street cars and buses without being forced to listen to broadcasts. "If a 'captive audience' has the right to make known its plight and pray for relief, so may a 'captive automobilist.' He suggested that a motorist barred from moving his car by a double-parker might even sue to recover for false imprisonment.

We pass this tip along to our local drivers hemmed in for five or ten minutes by the jail walls of a double-parked car. Instead of suffering in silence or yelping in wrath (both are bad for ulcers), sue the double-parking gink for false imprisonment.

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Death came only a day after William Randolph Hearst, builder of a newspaper empire, sank into a comma," we read in another newspaper this morning. Some people are so vindictive that they can hardly wait for a big man to die before they belittle him.

Last Wednesday an American rocket shot up 135 miles above the earth and reached a speed of 4,100 miles an hour. Perhaps it is just as well, at the modern rate which things fly right out of this world, that the poet's plea for thought to have wings has not been fulfilled.

The Brantford Expositor notes: "War has always gone hardest on the children caught in its path. The Korean War has been no exception. It has left thousands of children homeless and has separated thousands more from their parents. However, two Canadian soldiers have helped bring a little sunshine into the lives of some of these unfortunate waifs by constructing a playground with teeter-totters, swings and a merry-go-round. This example might be profitably followed by a United Nations rehabilitation team." We suggest that the U.N. team could aptly confine itself to teeter-totters.

Soviet Repeats Peace Echo

By
W. N. EWER
(U.K. Information Office)

THIS Soviet proposal for a five-power peace pact between the U.S.A., the U.K., the Soviet Union, France and China is of course not new. It was first put forward by Vyshinsky last September in the United Nations Assembly. There it met with very little favour, and was rejected by a large majority in the political committee.

Indeed, it is a proposal which has little or nothing to commend it. "Peace Pact" is a vague phrase, and nothing has been said to explain exactly what it means. But it is very hard to imagine what the five could pledge themselves to in any "Peace Pact" that they have not already pledged themselves to in the Charter of the United Nations. And what good would it do to suggest that the obligations of the Charter need reaffirming? If they are valueless, of what value would a reaffirmation be? If they are binding and accepted why bother to repeat them?

PRESIDENT SHVERNIK in his letter to President Truman suggests that the five powers should "unite their efforts for the purpose of supporting international peace and security". But what else are they supposed to be doing in the Security Council? For what other purpose were they made permanent members of the Council?

The whole proposal seems, in fact, to be completely superfluous. Anything it would conceivably achieve can be and should be done in and through the machinery of U.N.O. If—for whatever reason—the five cannot co-operate in U.N.O., why imagine that they could do any more or any better outside?

There is also the unfortunate, but only too obvious fact, that at present any treaty between the five is a practical impossibility, for the simple fact that here is no Chinese Government recognized by all the other four. Britain and Russia recognize Peking; America and France recognize Formosa.

NOW the Russians are perfectly aware of all this, perfectly aware that this is not a practical proposal at all. Why then do they put it forward? Its history, I think, answers the question. When Vyshinsky first produced it last September he did not seem to attach any particular importance to it. It was just a paragraph in the middle of a resolution about disarmament and atomic weapons. He laid no stress on it in any of his long speeches. And when it, along with the rest of the resolution, had been rejected, he seemed to forget it and switched to a demand for periodical meetings of the Security Council.

Nor in the long months of negotiation about a four power meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers did the Russians, as far as I remember, once raise the subject of a five-power meeting or a Five-Power Pact. So far as diplomacy was concerned they seemed to have dropped the idea to which they had never attached any great importance.

BUT significantly, it did crop up again in the field of Communist propaganda. But still only at first in a very minor way. There was not a word about it in the Prague "peace appeal" in November. In December, it found a place in a preamble to the "nine point programme" of the Warsaw "peace conference". But it was not one of the points themselves. And I find hardly a reference to it in the voluminous articles of the Communist press about the nine points.

The change came suddenly in February. And it came on a sort of signal from no less a person than Stalin himself.

ON February 16th, Pravda published an interview with Stalin. It was mainly a violent attack on Mr. Attlee and the British government. But in the middle of it Stalin remarked that the rejection of the Soviet proposal for a peace pact was a proof of the "aggressive intentions of the reactionary governments".

Stalin himself had discovered a use for the almost forgotten idea. It could be used in evidence in the campaign against Britain and America. And from that moment it suddenly took first place in the Communist "peace" propaganda. A few days afterwards the Communist "World Peace Council" met in Berlin. It pushed the "nine points" into the background. The Five Power Pact was acclaimed as the key to peace. One British communist delegate hailed it as "an idea of simplicity and genius which will rally humanity. Who will oppose it but those who prefer war?"

✧ ✧ ✧

STALIN and his faithful acolytes thus rather naively reveal their real purpose. They are not really concerned with peace. They do not expect nor do they particularly want a Five-Power Pact. They want a new pretext for denouncing Mr. Truman and Mr. Attlee as warmongers. Any government which does not accept this proposal—and most governments have already turned it down as useless and impracticable—can be and will be accused of "aggressive intentions" of "preferring war". The "Peace Council's" appeal too made this purpose plain. Everybody who signs this special appeal—and it is one which anybody might sign cheerfully enough—after all why not have a peace pact—is also declaring that he will regard any government which refuses the pact plan as "guilty of aggressive intentions". How many of the thousands who have signed the document have noticed that? Communist canvassers are careful not to draw attention to it. They just say "it is in favour of peace". And people sign.

NOW evidently the Stalinist high command think the moment ripe for another step. So President Shvernik is made to send the proposal officially to President Truman. To avoid any risk there might be of its acceptance, plenty of acid is put into the letter. The Soviet government does not want it to be accepted. It is put forward again, this time with the maximum of publicity, in the hope and expectation that it will be rejected again.

And then this can be adduced as one more piece of evidence that the western powers "prefer war" and are planning war.

The Five-Power Pact proposal is in fact not the least a move to end the cold war. The tone of the rest of the Shvernik letter is proof enough of that. It is simply another move in the cold war: a Stalinian "idea of simplicity and genius" for a new Russian propaganda offensive.

"What a lasting impression some girls make."

STILL BLOCKING THE WAY

Peace Funds For War

(MONTREAL GAZETTE)

THE London Economist wonders whether the genuine peacelovers who attend the meetings and sign the petitions organized by the "British Peace Committee," which has its counterpart in Canada, the United States and practically all other countries, fully understand the nature of the international movement to which they are lending their support. The paper proceeds to provide some information about the present activities of the Chinese Peace Committee which has close links with its British and other sisters through the World Peace Council. These facts The Economist hoped might serve to enlighten the uninformed as to what this "Peace" movement really is.

Since early June, in the name of "Peace," the Chinese Peace Committee has devoted its nation-wide propaganda network and its considerable powers of suasion to securing contributions for the purchase of arms. Latest figures, proudly announced by Peking radio, show that more than 2,000 aircraft and 200 tanks and artillery guns can already be purchased with these contributions.

The peace promoting efforts of the committee do not stop there. It is also campaigning for greater support for the Chinese "volunteer units" in Korea; for the signing by individuals and groups of "patriotic pacts," pledging utmost effort in field, factory and school to keep the national armed forces supplied and to root out all opposition to the government. Another project is the recruitment of a quarter of a million boys and girls to enter military cadet schools.

An examination of this situation suggests the likelihood of moneys collected from Canadians through this organization being diverted to the suffering sister peace unit in China. And the next logical step would be the conversion of such monies into war equipment for the killing of Canadian boys serving with the United Nations Forces in Korea.

Never in history has the word "peace" been used to camouflage bloodthirsty aggression as is the case today. It is a fine word representing a state which every sane person in the world desires on a permanent basis. But it is being sullied and made suspect by those who are engaged in a ruthless scheme for world conquest.

Queen's Wants Iron Mine In The Harbour

(KINGSTON WHIG-STANDARD)

WE imagine it was a surprise to most Kingstonians to learn that Queen's University has applied to the Federal Department of Mines for mineral rights to Kingston Harbour.

There is fairly general appreciation of the value of the harbour throughout the city, but only in the sense that a harbour is normally valued. As far as we know, there has been scarcely a rumour outside university circles that the harbour might become valuable mining property. However, Principal Wallace has confirmed the report that the application had been filed, and said that it was based on surveys made by the geological department of the university.

There has been no announcement regarding the operations which might be expected to follow if Queen's is granted mineral rights in Kingston Harbour, but it seems reasonable to assume that some form of mining venture would eventually be undertaken.

Whether it would be experimental and educational, or commercial, or a combination of these, will be for the university to decide and announce if it secures the rights. Whatever the form, if the deposit is worked, the feature that will interest most people will be the fact that mining will be going on under the floor of the harbour.

There is nothing new about underwater mining or underwater tunnels, yet they nevertheless continue to fascinate people who are unaccustomed to them. We do not suppose the mining communities of Cape Breton are much impressed by the fact that men work underneath the Atlantic Ocean, but imaginative inland Canadians are somewhat awed by the thought of working under a rock roof, millions of tons of sea water, ships, fish, and the occupants of the ocean floor.

There are miners elsewhere in the world working under similar circumstances, as there are tunnel diggers, tunnel workers and tunnel users, while oil drillers have sunk their holes and erected their derricks in river, lake and tidewater.

The old prospectors' saying that "gold is where you find it" holds true today, and it applies as well to all mineral resources. It might also be said that when mineral deposits are found, it is highly probable to work them, wherever they are.

It may be necessary to alter an entire system of waterways, to drain a lake, or to tunnel underneath it; but if the mineral is needed badly enough, men will find a method of getting it out. Kingstonians will await with considerable interest to learn whether their harbour will be added to the world's list of underwater mining ventures.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite. (I Sam. 17: 58.)

And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonahan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.... And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dancing, to meet king Saul with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom? (I Sam. 18: 1, 4-8.)

And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David ....And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to theeward very good....And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain. (I Sam. 19: 1, 4, 6.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. (Rom. 12: 9.)

Letter To The Editor

PRAISE FOR HOSPITAL

Sir: For the past two weeks I have been confined to the Civic Hospital. Although not entirely bedridden my condition required constant attention.

I cannot speak too highly of the efficient attention and care received while there. Never once did I have to turn on my light and the meals were excellent.

The nurses, orderlies and staff were kind and courteous and I feel they deserve the highest praise for their proficiency.

Sincerely,
GEORGE BOREHAM.

BURLINGTON, Aug. 15 (CP)—Marjorie Alma Kelly, 23, tobacco farmer's daughter from Courtland, Ont., Tuesday night was picked as Miss Canada of 1951.

Sixteen other evening-gowned contestants each won $100 scholarships.

"I never really expected to win," confessed the slender brunette with blue-grey eyes after she was declared the winner by a panel of judges who included actress Sarah Churchill. The five-foot - two - and - one - half - inch beauty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly.

The judges were unanimous in their choice of the Norfolk County girl after they saw her parade in the pageant and heard her sing. She is a lyric dramatic soprano, graduate of Alma College in St. Thomas and a graduate in music of the University of Western Ontario at London.

As Miss Canada, she is eligible to compete at Atlantic City next month for the title of Miss America.

She said she will use the $1,000 Miss Canada contest prize to pursue voice studies in New York and Philadelphia.

Car Dives Into Ditch Boy Killed, 4 Injured

BROCKVILLE, Aug. 15 (CP)—Six-year-old Gary Lee Denny was killed Tuesday night when an automobile careened in and out of a ditch and crashed into a tree three miles west of here. Four adults in the car were severely injured.

They were Mrs. Charlotte Naratene, 37, driver of the car, and Frank De Lair, both of Alexandria Bay, NY; Sylvain Fortin, 26, and Andrew Rheaume, 19, both of Verdun.

The boy was the nephew of De Lair but the name of his parents or their hometown were not ascertained.

Police said the car, travelling east at "excessive speeds," smashed into a ditch on the south side of the highway. It bounded out of the ditch and continued along the shoulder of the road before crashing back into the ditch and hitting a tree.

Try Native Clay For Oil Drilling

PENSE, Sask. (CP). — Homedug Saskatchewan mud is being tried out here as a substitute for special oil-drilling clay imported from the United States.

Officials of the Sohio Petroleum Company and Standard Oil of Ohio tested the thick, gooey mud from St. Victor, Sask., in their drilling at Pense No. 1, halfway between Regina and Moose Jaw.

The clay which is used to carry cuttings to the surface, to seal off the drill-hole walls and lubricate the drill bit, is based on a Bentonite clay. Such clay, which makes a thick jelly-like solution in water but does not congeal when not in motion, was formerly imported from Wyoming and South Dakota.

Scientists at the Provincial Resources Utilization Laboratory prepared the local product, and say if it works at Pense it will be used throughout the province.

Toronto CGE-ers play the local UEW soccer squad at two Saturday aft in Morrow Park. The winner of this match goes against Hamilton Westinghouse in the provincial semi-final of Dominion Cup play, the Hams having ousted Brantford, CGE erasing Toronto Leafs, and UE taking Eastern Ontario honors. Several other clubs are also in process of knocking each other out of this competition. Most of the players are of Old Country experience, pro or amateur, and the Peterborough UEW crew has come up with the strongest local team yet—one standing an excellent chance of taking the Ontario title and going further. They are simply breezing through their Eastern Ontario Soccer League.

A busy half-week remaining for the Petes' senior ballsters. They have a toughie tonight in Oshawa, play Staffs in Toronto on the morrow, tackle Turk Broda's NHL All-Stars here Friday, and end their Viaduct Loop schedule with Croftons in Riverside on Saturday p.m. They've been plenty busy this semester, playing almost as many games some weeks as the major leaguers. So has Oshawa, the Merchants the other day finally getting a long enough break between games (loop and exhibition) to get their uniforms cleaned! Scribe Campbell says the Merchants will take the Petes in playoffs, as Dadson is the only twirler we have who can beat 'em. We'll just wait and see.

Kingsways Take Petes

The locals didn't look their best last e'en in dropping a 9-5 tilt to Toronto Kingsways. Got more hits than the winners but didn't make 'em count, and ran bases in peculiar fashion a few times. Joe Lowrey got by okay on the mound till the fifth, when he was shelled out, Gunner Whitehill finishing up. Ed should be pitching more this season, we think. Stan Courtney lasted the distance for the winners, who belted the apple hard and for extra bases with ducks on the pond. Joe Irvine hit a two-run homer into the river, and Frank Malloy had a triple and two singles. George Brabin led the losers with four for five, and Dick Golden got three nice ones. Bunny Maeson clouted a long triple and Andy Milne a two-bagger.

Down at Miller Bowl, the lacrosse-playing Petes concluded their hefty schedule with a neat 13-3 verdict o'er Brampton Excelsiors. Not much to it as the Crowe crowd built up an early lead and coasted home on it. The visitors were minus a few players and were never really in the hunt during the clean contest. Ike Hildebrand and Bob Thorpe had four scoring points apiece, Don Ashbee, Russ Slater, Harry Wipper getting two each, Jerry Fitzgerald three, and the rest being singles spread around. The Peterborough Timbermen await word on the start of the Eastern Canada playoffs.

Juniors Still Leading

Lou Vitarelli's junior Petes came through with a handy 13-3 OLA triumph in Mimico last gloaming and they need just two more wins in their next three tilts to clinch first place. One more victory will assure them of at least second slot and a crack at junior "A" playoffs, top two teams being so bracketed for the sawoffs. Niagara Falls come here Friday night and Toronto Maitlands are at Miller Bowl the next evening. Schedule winds up next Wednesday with Mimico in Peterborough. Last night's clash was a dandy, keen and clean, with Goalie Bill Nicholls outstanding to hold off the Mimico marksmen. His buddies played sound lacrosse, also, of practically senior calibre.

Lots of fun and fury at the Ashburnham Bowl last e'en, the girls' playoff being a humdinger all the way. It went 16 frames ere Westclox edged Marines 7-6, a bad throw letting in the winning run. Marines protested a calling of "time" by the umpire which halted a Marine runner, but a protest committee of H. Dormer, F. Maybee and J. McPhee tossed out the protest, claiming the ump was within his rights under Rule 95. It was swell ball by two fine squads, a beauty to win and a heartbreaker to drop. Westclox are now senior city champs and they go into PWSU intermediate "A" playdowns tonight at eight in the Bowl against Belleville. The men's joust was a one-sided win for Revoy's over Orphans on three-hit hurling by Haddy Eakins and some hard hitting by Blair Thomson, Bob Wyatt and several more. Their next semi-final is Thursday night at seven in the Bowl, with a doubleheader, if necessary.

Petes Beaten 9 to 5 By Kingsways

The Petes slipped another notch in their race to hold first place in the Viaduct Baseball League here last night as Toronto Kingsways took a 9-5 triumph before a slim crowd. The visitors counted a run each in the second and third innings before chasing lefthanded Joe Lowrey — who usually plays centre field—to the showers with a five-run outburst in the fifth. Gunner Ed Whitehill finished up in effective manner. Stan Courtney went the route for the visitors.

While the Petes outbid Kingsways 15 to 12, they didn't hit such timely blows at Kingsways, and twice tossed away runs by trying to steal bases, when well behind, and being thrown out. Extra-base hits paid off for the winners as Joe Irvine hit a two-run homer and two singles in five to drive in four, and Frank Malloy drove in two with a triple and two singles in five. Don Hall and Steve McLelland each clicked for two in five for the Toronto team.

Brabin Leads

George Brabin was the main sticker for the homesters with four in five appearances. Dick Golden had three in five, while Joe Stewart and Andy Milne each were good in four tries with two blows, one of Andy's being a double. He drove in three runs. Bunny Maeson smashed a long triple to left-centre. The visitors' fielding was a little better than that of the Petes, and they clicked for one double-play.

While Kingsways racked up an early lead, especially with five in the fifth to take a 7-1 margin at that time, the Petes battled back to make it close. They had the count whittled down to 7-5 going into the ninth when Kingsways came through with two singles and a double to clinch it with two more markers. The game was 15 minutes late starting when some of the Toronto players failed to arrive on time. Box score:

Fergus Subdues Athletics 13-7

By The Canadian Press.

Fergus Thistles Tuesday night finished their regular schedule of Ontario Lacrosse Senior League games with a victory.

They came from behind in their game at St. Catharines to defeat Athletics 13-7.

Fergus trailed St. Catharines 0-2 at the end of the first quarter but had tied the score at 4-4 by half-time. At the three-quarter mark Fergus led 7-5. Scoring for the Thistles was done by Don Smith with 3; Elmer Harris, Heck MacKenzie and Blackie Black with two apiece. Jim Halls, Jack Chambers, Don Campbell and Jack Foote each scored one.

For St. Catharines Tony D'Amico and Bill Bradshaw each netted two while Bill Nelson, Ted Howe, and Steve Oneschuk earned singles.

MUD-RUNNERS—Valerie Ball, left, and Will Hesketh proved superior mud-runners, and looked the part bouncing down in front for Britain in a meet with France at London's White City Stadium. Miss Ball screened France's Jean Cavelot, whom she barely edged in the 880 in 2 minutes, 17.8 seconds. Hesketh set a new British all-comers' record for six miles, 29 minutes, 13.8 seconds.

Junior Petes Take Win Over Mimico

MIMICO, Aug. 15. — Playing OLA junior lacrosse of playoff calibre — and showing as much form as many of the senior clubs —the Peterborough leaders of their group defeated Mimico juniors 11-5 here last night. It was a hard-fought fixture, but quite clean, the home squad drawing three of the four minor penalties handed out. The score would have been much closer but for some sensational net-minding by oalie Bill Nicholls of Peterborough in every quarter.

Coming back from a 2-1 deficit in the first chapter, the husky visitors gradually built up a lead to earn the decision, though Mimico was always in the game. The Peterborough scoring was well spread around as the team played sound lacrosse in all departments and made few mistakes. Niagara Falls is at Peterborough Friday and Maitlands there Saturday, two wins for Peterborough the rest of the week clinching first place for them. Teams:

Peterborough: Goal, Nicholls; defence, Groves and Nickel; centre, Powell; wings, Brioux and G. Robinson; rover, B. Robinson; alternates, Shearer, Burns, Morrissey, Heffernan, Batley, Farley, O'Reilly and Simmons.

2 Players Injured

TORONTO, Aug. 15 (CP). — Al Dekdebrun and Nick Volpe were injured in Sunday's football game between Toronto Argonauts and Hamilton Tiger-Cats in Buffalo. Dekdebrun, a pivot, may not make the Argos' trip west next weekend to play in Calgary and Winnipeg.

Dekdebrun suffered a torn cartilege in his side and a severely bruised elbow, Volpe a torn cartilege in the neck and a banged-up nose.

It is expected coach Frank Claire will name his 35-man squad after the 42 men on the club roster work out tonight.

Westclox Girls Gain Title In 16 Innings

Westclox edged Outboard Marines 7-6 in 16 innings at the Bowl last evening to capture the city senior championship of the Girls' Softball League and earn the right to advance into PWSU intermediate "A" playdowns, meeting Belleville at eight tonight here in the first of a best-of-three series. Return game or games will be in Belleville on Saturday. The win gave the Clockers possession again of the R. S. Cotton Trophy.

Several hundred fans cheered continuously during this thrilling tussle which went on and on before the Armour Hill maidens clicked in the 16th for the winning marker, B. Morrow smashing out a solid hit and scoring after two outs and an error, M. Hawthorne's out driving in the run. Marines had a narrow lead in three frames and again in the eighth but Westclox tied it in the ninth to force all the overtime. They were lucky to emerge victorious, but at the same time played heads-up ball, getting more hits and but one error to two for Outboards.

B. Morrow on her fielding and M. Owen on her batting, including a homer, starred for the Clockers. V. Page shone defensively for Marines and H. LaPointe led the batters. M. Hodson pitched solid ball and had 13 strikeouts, while E. Whittaker also went good, though not having so many go down swinging. A wild peg by the catcher was responsible for the winning counter. It was by far the best game seen in the league this season. There was some talk of a protest afterward, but the game stands as played. Teams:

Jockey Injured

SCARBOROUGH, Me., Aug. 15 (AP).—Thomas Martin, 18-year-old jockey from Hialeah, Fla., suffered a fractured skull Tuesday night in a spill during the second race at Scarborough Downs. Martin's mount, Celestria bolted through the fence 100 yards after the start of the six-furlong race. The horse was destroyed.

Orioles Down Chiefs 6-3

By The Associated Press.

Karl Drews, veteran right-hander with Baltimore Orioles, is one of the hardest working pitchers in the International League.

Drews, up in the majors previously with New York Yankees and St. Louis Browns, appears headed back to the big show, but this time with Philadelphia Phillies of the National League, who have a working agreement with the Orioles.

Drews made his 34th appearance for the sixth-place Orioles Tuesday night and just missed turning in his 19th complete game. He beat Syracuse Chiefs 6-3 on five hits for his 15th victory but was lifted in the ninth when he walked the first batter, pinch-hitter Augie Bergamo. Blix Donnelly retired the next three hitters.

Rochester's second place Red Wings ran their winning streak to eight games as knuckle-ball artist Bob Tiefenauer turned back Buffalo Bisons 9-1 on seven hits. Marty Tabacheck doubled home Frank Carswell with two out in the ninth for the lone Buffalo run. The Wings collected 14 hits with Don Richmond and Steve Bilko showing the way with three each.

The other teams were idle.

Revoy's Leading Semi-Final Against The O's

Revoy Motors took the third game of the best-of-five semi-final men's softball series against Orphans at the Bowl last night 25-0 behind the three-hit flinging of Haddy Eakins. The win gives Ken Guilfoyle's classy clubbers a 2-1 edge in the set with the fourth game slated for Thursday night.

Eakins struck out nine men, gave up but a single base on balls and allowed three singles, to avenge his last week's defeat against the same club. Meanwhile Revoys' bats smote the offerings of Terry Woods for five runs in the first frame on four solid hits including Thomson's homer with two aboard, to take a strong early lead. The Guilfoyle lads continued the onslaught in the second as Giardino's triple, a walk to Bigford, Spencer's triple and solid bingles by Wyatt and Taylar netted five more. Red Sullivan relieved Woods in the fifth but the motor boys had a field day under the arcs to aggregate 25 runs in eight frames for the most decisive win of the season to date.

Led the Way

Blair Thomson led in runs batted in with five. Bob Wyatt also homered and had four safeties in five tries. Spinner Spencer had three for six, batted in three and scored a pair, while Tony Giardino scored three and hit safely twice.

Despite the one-sided score the game produced much color. Harold Legrow was banished in the second by Umpire Smith for allegedly using too long a bat, and arguing the point too long. Tempers flared as Spencer crashed O'Donoghue at the plate in the third and Red Sullivan put on his usual colorful show.

Greensox Reach Round-Robin

LINDSAY, Aug. 15. — Sutton Greensox became the first of six teams to enter the Tri-County Baseball League championship round-robin series by defeating Port Perry Chiefs in the two straight games. Right-hander George Holburn bested southpaw Bill Harper twice, 3-1 and 9-2, to sweep the series.

Bobby Hassard smacked a grand slam home run as Stouffville Red Sox came from behind a six-run deficit to tie Sunderland Tigers, 9-9, in the other west section first-round series. Earl Cook's Red Sox took the opener, 7-2, and need a win or tie in the third game in Stouffville, Wednesday.

In the central group, Little Britain Bluebirds cinched second spot with a 6-3 win over Woodville and now open a two-out-of-three series with the Woods. Righthander Stewart Grills held the leading Sonya Braves to a 2-2 tie in the "A" series opener with hockey star Bill Shill hurling for the Braves. Second game goes on Thursday in Valentia.

Lindsay Walkwoods, winners in the East, meet the fourth-place Bobcaygeon Red Sox in the "A" series, while Cambray Cardinals oppose Frank Stukas' Fenelon Falls Indians in the "B" playdowns.

Utilities Triumph

Utilities yanked out a 4-2 Civic Softball League victory over Grant & Loucks last night in a fine fray staged in Armour Field. The losers pushed over both their runs in the first frame and held a lead till late in the contest when Utilities counted once in the sixth inning and three times in the seventh to capture the verdict. Some good pitching and fielding was seen in this scrap. Teams:

Grant & Loucks: Little, Treen, Smith, Goodfellow, Conroy, Harrison, Hancock, Harris, Robertson.

Utilities: Montogmery, Loucks, Payne, Dyer, Godfrey, Dundas, Runnalls, Phillips, Willshaw.

OLA Petes Finish Schedule With Win Over Brampton

The league - leading Petes wound up their OLA senior "A" schedule in Miller Bowl last night with a 13-3 victory over Brampton Excelsiors before a rather small crowd of fans. The Mayor and some of the council members were guests of the club at this tilt, and it turned out to be a fair fray, generally fast and clean, though one-sided most of the distance. The visitors were short several players.

The count was 4-0 in the first quarter, Don Crowe's crew had an 8-0 margin at the half, and they led 12-1 going into the closer fourth frame. The OLA champs had a definite edge on the Excelsiors, who are still battling for a favorable playoff spot, and dished up some smart passing and shooting at times, while their defensive work was good. Goalie Moon Wootton again played steady between the Peterborough pipes when tested.

Three Apiece

Leading marksmen for the Petes were Bobby Thorpe and Ike Hildebrand with three goals apiece, as two each were notched by Harry Wipper and Jerry Fitzgerald, singles going to Arn Dugan, Russ Slater and Don Ashbee. An assist apiece for the home squad went to Thorpe, Hildebrand, Ashbee, Fitzgerald, Slater, Dootch Vitarelli and Curly Mason. The whole crowd clicked neatly without extending themselves unduly after building up an early lead.

Gord Steele scored a pair for the Excelsiors, while Al Garbutt got the other. The visitors tried hard but ran out of steam early, playing a bit short-handed. They kept scrapping away, and did all their scoring in the latter part of the contest, counting a brace in the final quarter of the tussle. Teams:

Brampton: Goal, Arthurs; defence, Chard and Berney; centre, Ferri; wings, Steele and Gowland; alternates, Garbutt, Beatty, Sibbald, Blakely and Chapman.

Petes: Goal, Wootton; defence, Fitzgerald and O'Hearn; centre, Thorpe; Wings, Dugan and Ashbee; rover, Vitarelli; alternates, Wipper, Magee, Mason, Slater, Hildebrand, Creighton and Whitnell.

Referees, J. Murphy and C. Davidson.

MIXING business with pleasure is one of the things we do best . . . and spending pleasant hours above the clouds in a T.C.A. North Star en route to Ottawa and Montreal was our idea of breaking the summer doldrums recently. We didn't miss the opportunity of catching the Roughriders' practice while stopping over in the Capital, and from where we stood it's apparent that Bob Moran of Argonauts could be right when he called the 'Riders the team to beat in the Big Four! Also, we accidentally discovered a vital link in the saga of the great Ned Hanlan which can be put to better purpose—but first, let's look at the Roughriders.

Passing Scene

Since practice started on July 16th Ottawa's new coach Clem Crowe has shaken his team down to a strong combination of speed, kicking and passing. New quarterback import, Tom O'Malley, possesses the smoothest passing talent we've so far spotted this season. The Irishman seems to pitch with an effortless accuracy and hits his receivers like targets on a midway. If any criticism can be levelled it would be that O'Malley hits them too hard and almost too fast. However, the results will be up to the pass-receivers.

Clem Crowe considers that his half-line is much further advanced than the 'Rider line where the problem is lack of weight. And the new coach is casting around for a few heavyweights who can transport their bulk with dispatch.

With Howie Turner entering his fifth season in Canadian football, Ottawa's particular brand of 'native' talent shows to advantage as the tension is slowly relieved in the import department. And John Waggoner is now starting his fourth year in Big-4 competition so that he, too, will be considered a Canadian soon, thus making room for another legitimate import on the roster.

Bruce Cummings remains the Roughriders number one kicker, closely followed in both distance and power by O'Malley and Turner. This could be Cummings' big year.

Montreal-Number One

'Rider President Eddie Emerson surprised us slightly by picking Montreal Alouettes as the chief menace in this year's Big Four competition.

"With Trawick and Wagner off the import list and Ratterman and company well backed by a strong Canadian side, Hayman has little to worry about no matter how much he pretends to turn grey before your eyes," stated sceptic Emerson.

"Here, in Ottawa, we are painfully short of good native talent of Big-4 caliber. Unlike the Argos, our geographical location costs us many of the better Canadian college players and we are forced to depend too much on our imports," maintained Eddie.

Asked about this season's ticket sales in the Capital, President Emerson brightened up and remarked that business was booming . . . thanks to the city's general optimism, Clem Crowe, and the easy payment terms which the Ottawa club offers its subscribers.

Having listened for an hour, we picked Eddie Emerson as the man to beat in the Big Four.

Ned Hanlan's Boat

While visiting Ottawa we were surprised to learn from Mr. Keith Ferguson of the Ottawa Rowing Club that Ned Hanlan's rowing shell is resting in comparative obscurity, slung to the roof of the O.R.C.'s boathouse. Apparently the Ottawa Club would be more than pleased to present the seventy year old shell (still in excellent condition) to the Queen City, as a gift.

There was only one Ned Hanlan, and his rowing shell deserves a place of honour in his home town.

Cleveland Edges Tigers 6-5 In 10th Inning Win As Yankees Lash Senators

By RALPH RODEN, Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Brissie is the unheralded cog in Cleveland Indians' stirring drive for the American League pennant. Brissie is to the Indians what Joe Page was to New York Yankees in their successful 1947 and 1949 pennant campaigns. But unlike the former gay reliever of the bombers, Brissie hasn't drawn the headlines. Although Cleveland's "big four" of Bob Feller, Mike Garcia, Early Wynn and Bob Lemon have received most of the credit, Brissie has contributed handsomely to the 2½-game lead the Indians enjoy over the Yankees today.

The 27-year-old lefthander, severely wounded in Italy during the Second World War, pitched three scoreless innings in relief Tuesday to gain credit for the Tribe's 6-5 10-inning victory over Detroit Tigers.

Yanks Keep Pace

The Yankees kept pace by defeating Washington Senators 6-3. The third-place Boston Red Sox whipped Philadelphia Athletics 7-4.

In the National League, New York Giants turned back Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-2, Boston Braves beat Philadelphia 4-2, and Chicago Cubs edged St. Louis Cardinals 5-4. The rest of the clubs were idle.

Brissie, making his 34th appearance for the Indians, gained his third triumph. However, it was the 12th time he successfully bailed out a faltering starter. Brissie now has pitched 19½ consecutive scoreless innings.

Lemon started for the Indians against Detroit's Fred Hutchison. The Tigers knocked Lemon out with a three-run rally in the sixth. Brissie took over in the eighth and held the Tigers at bay the rest of the way. Jim Hegan singled home Harry Simpson from second base with two out in the 10th to break up the game. The victory was the Indians' 15th in 16 meetings with Detroit.

Three In Ninth

The Yanks scored three runs in the ninth with two out to down the Senators. Relief pitcher Bob Kuzava singled home the first run and Phil Rizzuto doubled the final two home.

Ted Williams drove home three runs on a pair of homers to lead the Red Sox to victory. The homers enabled Williams to wrest the league lead from the A's Gus Zernial, 25 to 24, and also boosted his RBI output to 100, tops in the majors. Mickey McDermott started for Boston but left in the sixth complaining of a pain in his left side. Chuck Stobbs and Walt Masterson finished up. The Sox pulled a triple play in the eighth.

Relief specialist George Spencer made his first start since May 15 and checked the Dodgers on six hits. The Giants sewed it up in the first scoring three runs on homers by Don Mueller and Whitey Lockman off Erv Palica. The victory was the Giants' first over the Dodgers in seven games.

Home runs by Ebba St. Claire and Sam Jethroe featured the Braves' triumph over Robin Roberts and the Phils. Rookie Chet Nichols scattered eight Philadelphia hits to bag his seventh victory.

Hank Sauer drove home all five Chicago runs in the Cubs' conquest of the Cards. Sauer blasted a two-run double and his 19th and 20th homers.

Turnabout Sets Speed Record

TORONTO, Aug. 15 — (CP) — Thorncliffe Raceway bolstered its claim to being the fastest harness racing track in Canada Tuesday when four more horses set new lifetime speed records for themselves. Five of Monday's winners set new lifetime marks for themselves.

Turnabout, owned by J. S. McIntyre of Peterborough lowered his lifetime record for the mile when he stepped the distance in 2:09 2/5 to win the sixth race. Turnabout paid off for a $2 straight mutuel ticket the handsome price of $19.50. It was the local owner's second win in two days, Elgin Silk having won for McIntyre on Monday.

Other horses which lowered their record Tuesday were: Tootsy Patch, owned by A. Henderson of Flesherton, Ont.; Bert Patch, Jr., owned by Hugh McLean, of Port Elgin; and Castle Brook, owned by Louis Mack, of Hamilton.

Merry England, owned by Dr. J. S. Ferguson, of Chatham, and Castle Brook, divided the spoils in the two division of the day's feature race.

The Goodwill Cup for two-year-old pacers, with a purse of $875, was staged as a betless race before the opening of the regular program. As expected, Bobby Herbert from the powerful Herbert Stable of London, spread-eagled his field and won in 2:12 without being extended. Johnnie G. finished second and Barbara Mac was third.

Finds People Have Forgotten How To Dance

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 15 (AP)—People are forgetting how to dance, declares bandleader Les Brown.

We were discussing the sad state of the band business, a flourishing industry a decade ago but now at a virtual standstill. Brown made this observation:

"It's discouraging when we go out and play a dance date with the band. We can draw a good crowd, but I'm amazed when I look over the dance floor. I would estimate that 80 per cent of the dancers can't even keep time. I have to look hard to find even fair dancers."

"Then I think of how it was back in 1936, when I started with my college band. I used to look out and see a whole floor of jitterbugs dancing with abandon. It was a gorgeous sight."

Brown sees little hope for the current, rhythmless generation unless some kind of dance revival takes place.

Reasons For Decline

The bandman cited these reasons for the decline of the music-making business:

1. The inflation of musicians' salaries during the lush war years. "Nearly every band had to break up or else cut salaries from 40 to 50 per cent. That meant reorganizing with less able players and the quality of the orchestras took a dive."
2. Bebop. "Overnight Dizzy Gillespie became a hero with his weird music. This soured the general public on swing as a whole, since they couldn't understand what bebop was all about."
3. Lack or originality. "Nobody came up with anything new."

Capsule review: "A Place In The Sun" is that Hollywood rarity, a true tragedy. Taken from Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy," is shows how a boy's ambition to make good gets him in bad. Despite its tragic ending, it is absorbing throughout, thanks to the inspired direction of George Stevens. He evokes from Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Shelly Winters the finest acting jobs of their careers. Grim but rewarding.

War Stricken Republic Of Korea Is Three Years Old

FOR 35 YEARS, Jap police ruled Korea with an iron hand.

JAPAN'S SURRENDER sped the birth of the Republic of Korea.

AUG. 15, 1948, seemed a happy day for Korea, for President Syngman Rhee and for Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

BUT THE RUSSIANS, leaving Korea, left their followers behind.

BUT THE REDS ATTACKED—The U.S. reacted quickly with arms and men. And Koreans started plodding the misery-road of war.

The Republic of Korea is three years old today, August 15, More than one-third of its short life has been spent in fighting Communist aggression. From 1910 to the end of World War II in 1945, Japanese police ruled Korea with an iron hand. After the Jap surrender, Korea was promised its independence. Aug. 15, 1948, seemed a happy day for Korea when Gen. MacArthur and President Syngman Rhee officiated at the formal birth of the new republic. But it was not to be. The Russians, in Korea to accept surrender of Japanese troops, made the 38th Parallel a political boundary, splitting the country. Later Russian - trained North Koreans set up a Red "People's Republic." Then, on June 25, 1950, they invaded South Korea. The U.S. and UN quickly came to the rescue ond stemmed the Red tide. But the war wrecked Korea. As the Republic starts its fourth year, the best it can look forward to is long years of rebuilding and rehabilitation.

WAR DEVASTATED THE COUNTRY—North and South Korea alike. It will take many years and much money to make the come-back.

Open Procurement Office In Canada To Aid Korea

By BILL BOSS

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 15. (CP)—The Korea Reconstruction Agency will open in Canada one of its 18 procurement offices. Agent-General J. Donald Kingsley has announced in Seoul. The office, likely to be in Ottawa or Montreal, may open in September, when a similar bureau is to open in London for buying in the United Kingdom.

It also has vacancies for a number of Canadians on its staff in Korea.

KRA is a United Nations arm, designed to take over the civil reconstruction of this devastated country once the operational situation permits.

Remains Responsible

Until KRA moves in, presumably when hostilities cease, the United States Eighth Army in Korea remains responsible for food and medical relief and short-term economic aid.

"In Korea we have been demonstrating that collective security under the United Nations, unlike the League of Nations, is a fact," Kingsley told a press conference.

"Now we shall also demonstrate not only to Korea, but to the world, that no single people is going to have to pay the price of collective security, that people who have had to suffer so heavily will not be abandoned by the rest. On the contrary we shall stand shoulder to shoulder with them in repairing the damage that has been occasioned."

A survey by the South Korean government, prepared at KRA's request, claimed total damage of $2,500,000,000 was caused. KRA's preliminary appraisal was $500,000,000 short of that.

Special Plans

Special planning is being made for industrial reconstruction, housing a vocational training program to stimulate the handicraft industries using raw materials available locally and education.

Immediate attention is being given to improving care of the 100,000 orphans in South Korea. KRA is going to buy fishing craft and refrigerators with which to rehabilitate the fishing industry, and import capital equipment with which to start a cement plant, an ice plant and production in steel tubing.

The real task will be to train Koreans to do the reconstruction themselves, guided by KRA's experts, who, however, also will "pitch in and get their own feet wet in the field when need be."

Canada, as one of the 43 contributing governments, has granted KRA $7,000,000 of the $220,000,000 so far received. The United States, which has authorized a grant of $173,000,000, and Canada are the only two states which have made grants in free currency for expenditure anywhere.

Britain and the other Commonwealth countries have agreed to release about £15,000,000 for spending in the sterling area.

Procurement will be in 29 countries and offices will be located in 18 of them. KRA's staff in Korea will number between 400 and 500, with appointments proportionately divided among the contributing states.

Has Own Teeth At 110 Years

JACQUET RIVER, N.B., Aug. 15 (CP)—Her own teeth at the age of 110 years—that's the proud boast of Mrs. Annie Firlotte, Jacquet River. Known as Restigouche county's' grand old lady, Mrs. Firlotte recently celebrated her 110th birthday.

Spry as anyone half her age, Mrs. Firlotte pays daily visit to the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. John Loubert, attends mass regularly, and takes occasional trips by car.

Living in the homestead with her are five generations of her family—a daughter, Mrs. Jane Firlotte; her granddaughter, Mrs. John Loubert, 50; her great-granddaughter, Mrs. Ruby Murphy and two great-great-grandchildren, Clare and Gwen. Her husband, James P. Firlotte, died 26 years ago at the age of 80.

Mrs. Firlotte's chief interest in life now is her knitting. She listens to news reports and radio programs, but still is anxious to move about and visit her neighbors.

In winter, when she leaves home to go to the store she must get down over high banks of snow. At her age this could be dangerous. But Mrs. Firlotte overcomes that without trouble. She perches on top of the bank and slides down to the road, gets up and starts off again without a hitch.

Frost Promises To Press Inquiry

TORONTO, Aug. 15 — (CP) — Premier Frost Tuesday promised "relentless pursuit" of gamblers and jockeys involved in "fixed" races on Ontario tracks.

He said he had personally issued instructions to every agency of the government to support the Ontario Racing Commission to "unearth the root, trunk and branches of the vicious gambling rings which have been operating on Ontario tracks."

Appas Tappas, Globe and Mail racing writer, said in a news story written for Wednesday's paper, that Toronto bookmakers were taken for $250,000 on fixed races run on various Ontario racetracks this year. He said the figure did not include money bet in the mutuels on the track or the money the fixes cost Buffalo and Hamilton bookies.

The commission, meanwhile, said nothing of its investigation into Canada's most sordid race track scandal in modern times. It did not meet Monday and chairman S. Tuper Bigelow said it was not certain whether it would hold a session today.

Girl, 4, Shot Accidentally By Brother

Haphazard Rifle Shot Wounds Girl; Bullet Entered Arm

A haphazard shot with a .22 caliber rifle wounded four-year-old Verda McDonald of Faraday township Tuesday night. The bullet missed the bone and passed through the fleshy part of the girl's right shoulder.

She was admitted to St. Joseph's hospital at 9:30 p.m. and her condition today is good.

The accidental shooting took place a few yards away from the family home, seven miles north of Coe Hill, at a camp for sawmill employees.

Took Rifle to Swamp

Verda's elder brother Alex, age 11, asked permission to take a .22 caliber rifle down to a swamp where he intended to do some shooting. His 15-year-old sister June—in charge of the family while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald, were away in Coe Hill—permitted him to take the gun and a quantity of shells.

He fired half a dozen or so at objects in the swamp and then loosed a single shot in the general direction of a tree, at a 90-degree angle from the house and 100 yards away.

Immediately after the shot he heard a cry and Verda came running out of some bushes near the base of the tree. A green-striped jersey helped to camouflage her when she was playing in the bushes.

The boy carried his wounded sister to the house, and a neighbor, Jerome Campbell, drove her to hospital in Peterborough.

OPP Constable John Hawkins, Bancroft, investigated.

GOOD MAIL DELIVERY

While the Post Office Department has been receiving many "bricks tossed at it" on account of poor delivery of mail one citizen came along with a bouquet today. On Sunday evening at 8.30 he posted a letter in a box in the northend of the city addressed to Baysville P. O., Lake of Bays Muskoka. The letter was received in Baysville, Monday afternoon less than 24 hours after it was dropped in letter box here.

New Market, Old Hall Show Deficit

Market Clerk Reports Ill Feeling Among Sellers, Buyers

Receipts from the new market on George St. were $201.30 from June 2 to Aug. 4, inclusive; and from the market hall $92.82, amouting to $294.12.

During that time cost of both, such as salaries and incidentals, was $617.26.

That leaves a deficit of $323.14 which has to come from the city treasury, and that means out of the pockets of the city taxpayers.

This statement is on file at the city hall for the information of the council from a report prepared by Harry Gabbutt, market clerk, at the request of City Clerk Outram.

Possibly it may be referred to at the proposed meeting of city and county council representatives "in respect to the operation of the farmers' market referring particularly to the report of the market clerk dated Aug. 8."

Ald. Hugh Waddell, chairman of the council's special market committee, was authorized to write the county for a conference.

Note of Humor

There is a note of dry, wry humor in Mr. Gabbutt's personal experience: "There is not the old friendly feeling (at the market), and that makes it hard going for us. There is considerable ill feeling among sellers and buyers. Both think something has been put over them.

"About 50 per cent of both buyers and sellers seem to think the market clerk is at least partly responsible."

Evidently Mr. Gabbutt has been taking the rap for the council. His comments continue: "Feeling among both buyers and sellers is that the new market will fold up as soon as the cold weather comes on.

"There is the usual seasonal rush of sellers with vegetables, berries, etc., on the outdoor market, and it is difficult to get them placed in an orderly fashion.

Sales Appear Good

"Sales appear to be good. I'd think about 75 per cent of previous years . It could be made into a good market space and have a steady crowd of buyers in about two years by letting them all get used to the new place, but facilities for shelter, storage and sanitation would have to be put in.

"The surface gravel works loose, and women complain about walking in it. Lacrosse bowl facilities will not be available when the weather turns cold, as the water will have to be turned off.

"There are several low spots. The worst is on the north selling line. When it rains, water lies there ankle deep, and customers and sellers are right in it."

While the George St. market property shows an operating loss of $300 for two months, equivalent to $1,800 in the red for the year, an adjoining lot is rented to Duffus motor sales at $250 a month, and it is about half the area of the market space.

It was not known at the city hall whether any of the county councillors are personally interested in the market, depending on it as an outlet for produce.

Presumably the recommendation of the property committee of the city council embodies a question whether the county is willing to make any financial investment in the setting up of permanent quarters on the George St. block.

Drunken Driving Charge Reduced Man Fined $50

Convicted on a charge of driving while his ability was impaired by alcohol, Charles O'Brien, 23, of Stewart St., was fined $50 and costs Tuesday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of drunken driving but was convicted by Magistrate E. R. Gee of Lindsay on the lesser charge.

Evidence indicated that O'Brien was driving south on George St., about 11:30 p.m. July 24. He failed to stop when two other cars stopped for the traffic light at Charlotte St., and he ran into the rear of a car driven by Marie Ballantyne, Rose Ave.

Constable Dennis Traynor said O'Brien was in a drunken condition. His speech was thick; his eyes were bleary; and he was in a dazed condition.

Damage to the Ballantyne car was estimated at nearly $50.

Asked For Blood Test

When brought to the station O'Brien asked for a blood test. It was taken by Dr. J. A. McNeill but the results were not brought out in court.

W. J. Arthur Fair, KC, counsel for O'Brien, argued that there was no evidence of drunken driving and Magistrate Gee reduced the charge.

Enters Written Pleas Of Guilty, Fined $45

Entering written pleas of guilty on charges of careless driving and failing to remain at the scene of an accident, Lewis H. Ingram, 56, of 1107 Clonsilla Ave., was Tuesday afternoon fined a total of $45.

Ingram was hospitalized after being severely injured when his car went out of control at Scott's Corners, six miles southwest of Peterborough on Highway 28, and crashed into a tree.

Provincial police laid the charges.

City Able To Be Selective In Choosing Industries To Start Here

Planning and Development Official Tells Council Peterborough Offers Ideal Location For Better Type of Industry

Peterborough can afford to be selective in its choice of new industries starting up here, F. J. Lyle, Ontario Department of Planning and Development, told a local group Tuesday night. Mr. Lyle, who is director of the trade and industry branch, was addressing an informal group of about 20 who were invited to the Kawartha Golf and Country Club as guests of the city manufacturers committee. Attending were Mayor Swanston, members of city council, representatives of the old industrial commission, chamber of commerce, and organized labor.

Mr. Lyle said Peterborough offers an ideal location for the better type of established industry. Top notch employers now want to settle in a city where their employees will be contented because they are offered ample opportunity for a "good life."

Makes Careful Survey

Before locating this type of industry makes a careful survey of the city. It checks on the stability of the municipal government, existing pattern of labor relations, recreational facilties offered and other opportunities an employee would have for healthy diversion.

Mr. Lyle complimented the city on not snapping up every new industry that wanted to settle here.

"Be aggressive but be selective" he reiterated.

He said the city already is unusually fortunate in having diversified industry. The trend in Peterborough should be to encourage the expansion of plants already here and wait for a good one before selecting a newcomer.

Trap Suspects At Roadblock Set By Police

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 15. — A long, fast chase by provincial police Tuesday ended with the arrest of Charles Bergen and Eugene Lavois, both of Toronto, on charges of breaking and entering and car theft.

Provincial Constable Donald Erskine of Campbellford headed for the Brighton district at full speed after reports of men breaking into cottages. A woman's scream frightened two men from William Whitthun's cottage, and the pair abandoned a car and took to the bush.

Constable Erskine immobilized the car by removing the distributor cap. Later, as he was joined by Cpl. William Lyle and Constable Orme Bowerman of Brighton, it was learned that attempts had been made to enter three boat-houses, and to steal a car owned by Everett Phillips. Unable to start their car, the men fled on foot. Later a car was stolen from a Brighton garage and headed out on No. 30 Highway.

Near Morganston police caught Bergen and Lavois at a roadblock.

TWO MASKINONGE one weighing 21 pounds, and the other 14 pounds have been caught recently in Buckhorn lake. Joseph Ewing Jr., LEFT of Pittsburgh pulled out this 45 inch 21 pounder from Lower Buckhorn while Frank P. Volgsladt, of Erie, Penn., RIGHT caught this 14 pounder in Upper Buckhorn. Both are summer visitors at Buckhorn Lodge.

To this tremendous bulk, add the fact that the bear is covered with a thick, water-proof coat, which is designed to protect him in the Arctic . . . it's a big job keeping him cool in our zoos. Fall '51 Highlights To Be Seen In First Display

First samples of the '51 fall fashion highlights are now to be seen on George St. The store window display was receiving the attention of every female passer-by on Tuesday and there was definite admiration for the new style points.

Flash pins and glittering stones enhanced three special occasion numbers. Two of these were black —which outdoes color in the autumn parade—and they both featured vestee effects. Velvet, the fabric with the "feel" of fall, filled in the waist-deep opening of a wool suit dress. Slim, after-five frock of taffeta was set off with neckline fill-in of white lace embedded with brilliants. Crepe in subtle plum shade showed the side pannier.

News in suits is the gathered hipline and it was shown in nubby beige wool. Irregular arrangement of buttons is the "note" on the new wool dress in autumn's favorite green. Example of the plaid which is again to be favored, was in a tailored suit, shown with a topcoat in rust-red deep-pile wool.

Domestic Bliss For Year and Day

One thousand people gathered in a marquee at Dunmow, Essex, over the week-end for the 1951 version of the centuries old Flitch Trial. The first trial was held in 1445. Twenty married couples faced the "Court", wishing to prove that they had lived in domestic bliss for a year and a day and compete for three 40-pound flitches of bacon awarded by the New Zealand National Pig Industry Council.

One of the three winning couples, who eloped to Gretna Green and married in 1939, claimed that far from quarrelling they had become more devoted with the years, despite wartime separations. Their secret? "Give and Take". — (U.K. Information Office.)

The Rev. A. E. MacKenzie, minister of the church, performed the ceremony. Music was played by Mr. Herolde Kitney, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, and solos were by Mrs. William Bush, soprano soloist of Metropolitan United Church, Toronto. She sang "O perfect love" and "Where e'er you walk."

Yellow and gold gladioli and wheat enhanced the newly decorated church interior and the chancel decoration was in cream, grey, leaf gold and blue.

The bride was escorted up the aisle by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Huffman, of Peterborough, and given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of romance blue lace over taffeta with net yoke. She wore a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet of lace with shoulder length circular veil of blue net and she carried talisman roses with blue cornflowers and ivy.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Charles Huffman, of Peterborough, who wore maple net over nile green taffeta with a net two-tier cape and mittens and a crownless hat was of pleated maple net. Her flowers were yellow roses, bronze baby 'mums and flame gladioli tips.

The groom's attendant was his brother, Mr. Harry Edmonson, and ushers were Messrs. Paul Shilton and Jack Spears.

Following a recention at the Guild Inn, No. 2 Highway, the couple left on a wedding trip to the New England States. The bride travelled in a grey and gold paper nylon dress with gold faille duster, brown velour hat, brown suede gloves, bag and shoes. She wore a corsage of gladioli in autumn tints.

Children May Be Born Generations After Father

EDINBURGH, Aug. 15 (AP)—A medical researcher predicted today science will make it possible for children to be born generations after their father's deaths.

Dr. A. S. Parkes of the National Institute of Medical Research, London, told the British association for the advancement of science about the work on keeping indefinitely the seed of man and animals and fowls.

"We have, therefore, to contemplate the possibility of an animal begetting progeny long after its death and therefore the addition of a quite fantastic weapon to the armory of the stockbreeder," he said.

"We have also to realize that a similar possibility will exist for man."

This idea, he said, "is one which will disturb deeply many who regard themselves as more than mere germ-plasm containers."

Human spermatazoa so far has shown itself more easily kept for indefinite periods than of other animals or fowl.

While Dr. Parkes did not say so, the work raises the possibility that the seed of great men—if they sohuld be willing—could be stored away in frozen compartments for generations. Then it could be artifically inseminated into a selected mother in the hope of producing a child with some of the father's characteristics.

Queen, Princess At Abbey Wedding Wear No Flowers

As demonstrated by H.M. The Queen and Princess Elizabeth when they attended recently the Westminster Abbey wedding of Lady Caroline Montagu-Douglas-Scott and Mr. Ian Heaworth Gilmour, jewellery in place of flowers for dress ornamentation is the new fashion trend.

The Queen and Princess both wore pearl necklets and jewelled lapel brooches in place of sprays, and the bride's misty white veil was held by a magnificent diamond and pearl tiara.

The trend for jewellery has been noted in many recent wedding receptions, debutante's Balls, and at Ascot, Henley and Lords. Clips and brooches, many with a floral motif, have been fashioned in a spray, others have been in gay designs of bouquets in a basket, or garlands round a twig, or entwined in gold mesh.

City Able

Cites Statistics

He cited statistics to back up the soundness of this policy.

Since the end of the Second World War 90 per cent of the industrial development in Ontario has been through the expansion of existing industry, and only 10 per cent through new industry. In 1950 total development was valued at $630,000,000.

And a breakdown of the new industries shows that 60 per cent are United States firms; 30 per cent Canadian firms; and 10 per cent British.

The trend now is for firms to settle in small cities that offer the amenities for prospective employees. And the firms are looking for lots of available land with no strings attached.

In reply to a question from Herbert Bradburn, Mr. Lyle suggested that the city would be well advised to have 500 acres available for sale. Multi-storey buildings are on the way out. Industries want plenty of space for one-storey construction.

One reason for the increased acreage, J. E. Girven said, was the need to find parking space for employees' cars.

Mr. Lyle complimented Chairman Ernest Braund and the manufacturers committee on realizing that all groups in the city have a stake in the industrial development of the city. He was pleased to see the two representatives of organized labor present—Lorne Bebee, Peterborough and District Labor Council (CIO-CCL), and George Wallace, president of Local 524, United Electrical Workers.

"The worst thing that a town can get in the eyes of outside industry is a bad labor reputation," said Mr. Lyle.

At the end of the informal meeting and question period Alderman Doug Miller invited everybody to the lacrosse game as guests of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club.

Woman Tolerates Treatment Of Son By Cruel Stepfather

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My first marriage ended in divorce because of another woman. My husband was given custody of one son, and I of the other. After a few years, I, to my sorrow, remarried. From the beginning my husband was hateful to my son, beating him, denying him friends, and even refusing to sit at the table if the boy was eating. We have now been married five years, and my son is working out of town but comes home weekends. As soon as he comes into the house, hubby packs his clothes and goes home to mamma. Would I be justified in divorcing him? Isn't my duty to my teenage son? A. R.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: After exposing your son to the execrable home atmosphere he's had for the past five years, it's about time you woke up and decided you had a "duty" towards him. Where was your sense of duty when you stand by and watched his stepfather beat him unmercifully for, as you say, trifles? What's the matter with the boy's own father that he doesn't take even so casual an interest in his child as to see that he's well-treated?

A Raw Deal

Your son certainly has had a raw deal from his parents. I hope God give him grace to live down the bad environment he has and make a decent life for himself. If he grows up to adulthood with any love or respect for you, you'll be most fortunate; it hasn't been earned.

There is no advice anyone can give you concerning your second husband. You must enjoy treatment you get at his hands or you wouldn't have taken it for five years.

DEAR MISS DIX: Can you say a word in your column for the women who have spare time now, after doing a job of raising a family and doing the million odd jobs that go with it?

My husband gets sarcastic because I have a few hours to myself in the afternoon. I'm 55 and in the early days of marriage had no leisure time—no diaper service, no baby-sitters, etc. My husband thinks all women should stay in an apron. I have five successful children out in the world and I deserve a little free time now.

ANSWER: And with all my heart, I say "Amen" to that! A woman who has spent arduous years rearing creditable children has certainly earned the right to a little leisure in her middle age. In fact, if it were not for the free time such women have, there would be much less charity in the world, for these are the groups that keep church and civic organizations going; they are the leaders in most found-raising enterprises.

It is the women who do not know how to use this spare time to good advantage who are the trouble-makers of the world. The neurotic middle-aged, who sit around worrying and fretting over every detail, checking on hubby's every move and constantly nagging at grown children for fancied neglect.

Your husband has gotten so used to seeing you in an apron all these years that your new role is a little incomprehensible to him. Employ your tme usefully and he'll soon be proud of your new accomplishments.

DEAR MISS DI: Are all men dishonest and untrue to the one they love? I am very much in love with a man who is constantly out with other women yet he says he loves me and wants to marry me. I am six inches taller than he, which is another reason I'm afraid to marry him.

I have another friend who cares a lot for me but I don't like him because he's irresponsible and careless. I am 15. ODELL

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Just forget the whole thing, Odell, and settle down to a social life more befitting your tender years. Women much, much older than you rack their brains trying to solve the problem of man's inconsistency. You're too young to be serious about any one lad. Have your dates, have fun; let the question of marriage wait a few years.

FUNNY BUSINESS -- By Hershberger

"Lady, will you get that dog away from in front of our shop!"

Gwen Dante Will Follow Father On Concert Stage

By MURIEL NARRAWAY

LONDON, Aug. 14 — (CP) — Toronto-born Gwen Dante, daughter of the late Ernest Dainty, well-known Canadian pianist, makes her debut Tuesday in the Orchid Room, Mayfair night club.

Gwen, who shortened her name for stage purposes, hoped at one time to follow her father's lead on the concert stage. He told her, however: "You may be good, but you'll never be great," and Gwen turned her attention to other forms of entertainment.

"I just wasn't interested in anything but the top," she said in an interview.

The vivacious 23-year-old is known as a "point singer." In other words, she speaks almost as much as she sings.

She picked cabaret "because it's one of the most difficult spots in show business."

"You've got to be good to hold the attention of an audience equally interested in eating and dancing" the slender five-foot-eight star said.

She has played many straight theatre parts in London and in the Ottawa Repertory Company but she intends to stick with cabaret from now on.

Gwen first came to London in 1943 with a Canadian Army show and after a continental tour of army camps in the war zones returned to England to study. Later she played Shakesperian roles in London's Open Air theatre and after subsequent straight theatre parts returned to Canada to help settle her father's estate and publish his music.

Back in London, Gwen hopes to remain at the Orchid Room until October when she leaves for Paris —to learn the language fluently and perhaps appear in an exclusive Paris club. She has no immediate intentions of returning to work in Canada.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Broiled Fillet Of Salmon As Special-Purpose Menu

Grape and Pineapple Juice
Broilet Fillet of Restigouche or Gaspe Salmon
Lemon or Lime
(See notes for Marinade)
Broccoli with Drawn Butter
Scalloped Fresh Corn or Tomatoes
Tossed Salad Supreme
Chef's French Dressing
Blueberry Cobbler
Iced Coffee (see notes)

Directions

If you fancy yourself as a salad expert the one included in this week's special menu will stand the scrutiny of your severest critic—even your mother-in-law, or George Rector. If you can make this exacting salad—and you can—you may dine in the elite hotels of Europe with a knowing air and eye, without taking a back seat to any chef. It is called variously chef's salad, Ritz Tossed Salad, Caesar Salad, or name it yourself but do not tamper with the ingredients. Each strange ingredient has a special purpose.

Tossed Salad Supreme

Make the Chef's French Dressing first, for you are going to use a little of it to brush the fillets of salmon before broiling them: Into a one pound jar with a good lid put ¾ cup salad oil and ¼ cup lemon juice; add 1 teaspoon each salt and icing sugar, 2 teaspoons celery seeds, ¼ teaspoon black pepper preferably fresh ground, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and 1 halved clove or garlic. Shake well and chill. Remove pieces of garlic after 1 hour.

A head of Iceberg lettuce forms the bulk of your salad. This must be cored, washed, drained, dried and chilled; the next ingredient is 2 cups ½-inch cubes white bread baked until gold. Next is a 1-minute egg; that is, put an egg in the shell in simmering water for 1 minute. One 2-oz. tin of anchovy fillets or ¼ cup fried and cooled bits of bacon; 2 or 4 tablespoons culture cheese of some kind but preferably Roquefort or Danish blue; other greens are variable and may be watercress, parsley, nasturtium leaves, curly or French endive. Such additions as cucumber, tiny cauliflower tips raw, shredded celery are optional but do not really belond. When the greens are in the bowl after you have torn the lettuce into bite-size pieces, mix them with ½ teaspoon MSG (monosodium glutamate), ¼ teaspoon salt and a sprinkling of freshly ground black pepper. Add about ½ cup of your French dressing and scrape the coddled egg out of the shell. Toss with 2 forks. Add the croutons, and toss again. Add more salad dressing if desired. Serve at once. This is pretty garnished with little groups of green pepper, cucumber and tomato slices.

Iced Coffee

This is the way to make iced coffee with the instant type of coffee. Into 12-oz. glass put rounded tablespoon (not measuring teaspoon and not a tablespoon) instant type coffee; while stirring add ¼ cup boiling water and stir until smooth. Add about 2 tablespoons of heavy cream if you use cream. Fill to within 1½ inches of top of glass with cold water. Add ice cubes to fill glass. Pass sugar to those who use it. Drink through glass or plastic straws. For those who are coffee addicts and find the coffee bill is excessive this way of making iced coffee (or even hot coffee) is more economical and no sacrifice is made of flavor.

HAY FEVER?
Stop Sneezing! Use EPHAZONE
Enjoy this Summer. Get rid of sneezing spasms — sore, runny nose — red itching eyes!
EPHAZONE Lets You HAVE FUN in the SUN!
Here's How . . Hay fever is brought on by being unusually sensitive to animal hair, feathers, and pollen. An invisible veil of fine pollen and dust from these objects fill the air in summer, clogging the sufferers' air passages, causing violent sneezing, watering eyes, and continual irritation in the nose. Don't let summer find you unprepared. Take a bottle of Ephazone on your holiday! Keep a bottle handy always! Turn warm weather months into a time of pleasure instead of sneezing, itching misery. Get Ephazone at your local druggist's now!
PROPERTIES OF EPHAZONE
The pharmacological properties of Ephazone may be briefly summarized as follows:
1. It has a powerful spasm-relieving and soothing effect on the muscles of the bronchial tubes and bronchioles. As a result there is a rapid relaxation of the air passages, with consequent prompt relief of paroxysmal dyspnoea, such as occurs in asthmatic conditions.
2. It softens and liquifies thick, tenacious secretions in the bronchial tubes and air spaces, so that mucus can be more easily coughed up.
3. It relieves congestion of the blood-vessels in the air passages and air-space, thus assisting resolution of inflammation.

Car Hits Tree Small Boy Dies

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Aug 15 — (CP) — Six-year-old Garry Lee Denny of Alexandria Bay, N.Y., was killed and two other persons were critically injured Tuesday night when an automobile careened out of control and crashed into a tree three miles west of here.

Critically injured were Mrs. Charlotte Louise Maratene, 37, driver of the car, and Frank De Lair, an uncle of the dead boy. Both were from Alexandria Bay.

Less seriously hurt were hitchhikers Sylvian Fortin, 26, of Verdun, Que., and Andrew Rheaume, 19, of Verdun.

Mrs. Maratene and De Lair were riding in the front seat of the car which police said was travelling at "excessive speeds" before the accident.

The car veered into the ditch, bounced out and ran along the shoulder of the road before it ran back into the ditch and struck a tree.

Blind Council Hears Reports On Work

HALIFAX, Aug. 15 — (CP) — Reports on education, recreation and summer camps featured Tuesday's sessions of the Canadian Council of the Blind. Summer camps operated in the Maritimes, British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba and Ontario were reported meeting with success.

A guide rail for blind bowlers also came in for discussion. The rail, about 10 feet long and 30 inches high in most clubs, enables the bowler to keep direction while he rolls the ball.

Sherman Begins Testifying On Crime

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15 (AP) —With Irving Sherman in the witness chair, the Senate crime committee began new hearings today on crime conditions in New York City. At Sherman's request, the committee banned newsreel, radio and television coverage.

Sherman, long sought by the committee, was described by it as "a known gambler and intimate of racketeers." He also has been named as a close friend of the Ambassador to Mexico, former Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York City.

Sherman was the first witness in three days of hearings which are scheduled to wind up the crime committee's open sessions. Its authority expires Aug. 31.

London Manager $2,000 Missing

WINDSOR, Aug. 15—(CP)—Search for a London theatre manager who vanished at the same time as $2,000 in company funds was reported missing centred in Windsor today when his car was found on a street here.

Kenneth Johnson, 40, manager of the Odeon theatre in London, has been missing since he left his home early Monday morning, apparently on his way to the theatre.

Employees who became alarmed at Johnson's failure to show up at work Monday found the theatre safe open and the entire weekend receipts, about $2,000 missing.

Police believe Johnson, an employee of the Odeon chain for 10 years, may have met with foul play when he entered the theatre early Monday.

"His body may be anywhere on the roadside between here and Windsor," said Constable L. J. Kelly of the London township police; a long-time friend of the Johnsons.

Mrs. Johnson said her husband complained of sleeplessness Monday morning, and said he was going to the office to do some work. Some years ago, she said, he suffered a sunstroke, and a trip to a beach Sunday may have had a bad effect on him.

Ask UN To Revoke Terms On Reporters

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 15 (AP)—The United States today asked the United Nations to urge revocation of sentences arbitrarily imposed upon news correspondents performing their duties.

The resolution did not mention Associated Press correspondent William N. Oatis by name, but the American delegate's speech introducing the measure bitterly denounced Czechoslovakia for imprisoning the newspaper man.

US delegate Walter Kotschnig presented the resolution to the United Nations economic and social council, which is in session here. It asked the council to appeal to all governments "to do all in their power to safeguard the right of correspondents freely and faithfully to gather and transmit news." It urged that "personal restraints be removed and sentences imposing arbitrary punishments be revoked."

Communist Czechoslovakia sentenced Oatis, AP chief of bureau in Prague, to 10 years in prison on charges of spying.

19 To Die

HONG KONG, Aug. 15 (Reuters—Nineteen of 119 "counter revolutionaries" dealt with by a court in Shanghai have been sentenced to death, the official newspaper Sin Wen Jih Pao said today. Two had their death sentences suspended for two years to be "given the chance to reform through hard labor."

Jet Freight Service

LONDON, Aug. 15 (Reuters)—British European Airways today began the world's first air freight by jet planes. Powered by Rolls Royce dart propeller-turbines, a DC-3 took off from Hannover, Germany, with 2½ tons of mail and newspapers for the British forces in Germany.

Hearst Estate Divided Into Two Trust Funds

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15 — (AP)— William Randolph Hearst came back today to the city where he began building a newspaper domain that was to become known throughout the world.

His body, accompanied by four of his five sons, was flown to San Francisco from Beverly Hills, where he died on Tuesday after a series of strokes. He was 88.

Funeral arrangements were awaiting the arrival from New York of his widow, Mrs. Millicent V. Hearst, who is accompanied by a fifth son, John. Burial will take place in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, where the publisher's father, US Senator George Hearst, and his mother, were buried.

Four of Hearst's sons were at his bedside when he died. They are William Randolf, Jr., George, David and Randolf. Also present were Martin F. Huberth, chairman of the board of the Hearst Corporation, and Richard E. Berlin, president of the Hearst Corporation.

Will Filed

Heart's 57- page typewritten will already has been filed for probate in Los Angeles. His widow was left $1,500,000 in cash and the income from a $6,000,000 trust fund.

Former screen actress Marion Davies, in a codicil dated Aug. 15, 1947, was bequeathed the publisher's Beverly Hills home but a codicil, dated Sept. 8, 1948, revoked the bequest without explanation.

His will directs that the estate be divided into two trust funds—one for the family and the other the residuary or charitable trust.

Executors of the estate, the will directs, are not to part with ownership of any of the Hearst publications "unless it shall, in their opinion, be necessary or prudent to do. . ."

His sons are to get enough preferred stock to realize an annual income of $150,000 to be added to 100 shares of common stock in the Hearst's Corporation.

Hearst's death closed a career of 65 years as a newspaper publisher. He built a newspaper chain that at its peak represented a ($200,000,000) enterprise.

The extent of Hearst's vast estate today was not dsiclosed in his will but it may be learned at a probate hearing set for Aug. 27.

Find Fat Men Apt To Do Most Drinking

EDINBURGH, Aug. 15 (AP)—Stocky men smoke more than lean men and fat men are more often the ones who drink.

These theories were advanced today by Dr. R. W. Parnell of the Department of Social Medicine of Oxford University.

"In all behavior physique plays a large part," he told the British Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. Parnell reported on his research into the relationship between physique and work, play habits, illness and lawbreaking.

Dr. Parnell said total abstainers from alcohol are most often found among those of a light build.

"Indigestion is commonest in men dominantly muscular in build," he said. "It is commonest in the lean and muscular and less common in the fat and muscular. Very lanky and very fat men have indigestion much less often," he reported.

Persons suffering nervous tension in interviews or examinations, he added, are commonly the lean and muscular build.

Dr. Parnell even reached into a reformatory to make his comparisons. He contrasted the build of women university students with young women in a corrective institution.

He reported there is a tendency for young women delinquents to be stocky, but not necessarily short.

Protest Bans On Liquor Ads

WINNIPEG, Aug. 15 (CP) — The Manitoba division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association Tuesday recorded a protest against the ban on liquor advertising in provincial weekly newspapers.

A. W. Hanks of the St. James (Man.) Leader, first vice-president of the association, said:

"Advertising of a legitimate trade product, out of which all provincial governments are obtaining the largest single portion of their own revenues, is denied to publishers within this province, yet is allowed to publications printed outside and competing in circulation within the province.

"As a direct result, revenue which is utilized to finance attractive features is denied to the local publishers, and a continuous chain of adverse influences is set up detrimental to him, with a direct effect on circulation."

The Nova Scotia division reported publishers in that province have challenged their liquor control commission on the question of liquor advertisements, and have been favorably received.

Press Release On Margaret

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 (CP) — The Bitish Infomation Sevices, in a press release issued Tuesday, refers to the "constant speculation" about whom Princess Margaret will marry.

The 1,000-word release, issued to American newspapers by the British government agency, is in connection with the Princess' 21st birthday Aug. 21 and is largely biographical.

The last paragraph of the release says:

"Whom she will marry is in constant speculation; her appearance with a new escort from among the young men of her acquaintance unfailingly gives rise to a new crop of rumors. But her father's subjects are certain of one thing, that the man she marries will be measured against the qualities of her brother-in-law, the Duke of Edinburgh. For Princess Margaret looks admiringly on the happiness of Princess Elizabeth's married life."

(The Daily Mirror said in London today that "such officially approved speculation about royalty is unprecedented." The Mirror said it was learned the release was approved by Buckingham Palace.)

Casualties Pass 100 In Earthquake

ANKARA, Turkey, Aug. 15 — (Reuters). — The death count passed 100 today as the northern province of Cankiri struggled to its feet after Tuesday's severe earthquake.

Reports reaching here said many more persons were still unaccounted for, believed lying beneath tons of rubble from collapsed buildings.

Five buildings in the province were virtually levelled.

Bombs Destroy Store

PARIS, Aug. 15 (Reuters). — Plastic bombs completely destroyed a Communist bookstore here today. Most Colleges Don't Want Accept Cadets

By WILL GRIMSLEY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 (AP). — Most of the nation's colleges have no strict rules that would prevent them from admitting West Point's ousted football players but many of them today assumed a wary "hands off" policy.

This was particularly true in the conservative Ivy League and in the not-so-conservative Dixie belt, where open grid scholarships long have been advocated.

Columbia University said today it normally does not take in transfer students and would "not even consider" accepting students from another institution.

This appeared to be a rather common attitude in the Ivy League. Army cadets, facing dismissal for violation of the military academy's honor code, said they were getting a "cold shoulder" in the east.

The University of Virginia, to which a number of the army gridders were pointing, announced that a student "suspended or dropped from another college . . . will not be admitted."

The professional picture also darkened today for the 40-odd athletes whose careers were interrupted by the exam-cribbing scandal at West Point.

Must Wait

Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League, said the players would not be eligible for pro teams until their class graduates. In some cases this would be two years. Only fullback Al Pollard would qualify in this respect.

William and Mary announced it would review each case individually while Washington and Lee said, "acceptance of cadets required to withdraw from West Point would constitute complete reversal of the institution's policy."

Kenneth (Tug) Wilson, commissioner of the Western Conference, said the matter would be left up to individual schools. Some Big Ten members are reported looking favorably on accepting the army athletes.

Many of the players may wind up at smaller, independent schools.

"That would be all right with us," one spokesman for the group said. "Our main thought is to finish our education and return to a normal life."

DIVING DUET—Roy Campanella, left, and Whitey Lockman sprawled on their faces in a collision as the Dodgers' catcher made the tag on the Giants' first baseman in the final game of the series at Ebbets Field. Lockman attempted to score from first base on Willie Mays' double to right center field. Carl Furillo threw to Jackie Robinson, who relayed the ball to the plate.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

At Fonthill, everybody went overboard for 17-year-old Marlene Stewart Tuesday. Celebrating her double win in the Canadian ladies' open and close golf tournaments at Laval-sur-le-Lac, near Montreal, her home town turned out to give her its official but affectionate welcome.

Marlene, who came home Monday and left again Tuesday to play at Niagara-on-the-Lake, was greeted at Welland railway station by Mayor David Thomas.

She climbed into an open convertible and rode through Welland streets to this community four miles away. More than 8,000 persons cheered her in Welland, the county seat, and during the 100-car procession which bore her in triumph home.

Marlene, who still has two years of high school to finish, was dazed by the welcome.

Entries close today for the annual parent and child championship tournament of the Ontario Golf Association, to be held at Toronto York Downs Club Friday. However, post entries will be taken at the tee if they do not interfere with the regular draw.

There will be four classes: father and son, father and daughter, mother and son, mother and daughter.

At Saratoga Springs, forty-five thoroughbred youngsters brought $108,200 Tuesday night in the first session of the Saratoga yearling sales.

The first-night offering averaged $2,404.

Fifteen yearlings, 10 colts and five fillies, have been entered by Frank Conklin, owner of the Midway Stock Farms, Brantford, in the yearling sales of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society to be held at Toronto's suburban Long Branch race track, Aug. 24, it was announced Tuesday.

Capt. R. W. Hampton of Ottawa, twice a shooting member of the Canadian Bisley Team and qualifier on three other occasions, won the J. C. Patterson Cup under heavy skies and a southeast wind.

Capt. Hampton whipped 11 shots into the black before turning back Capt. P. E. H. Godfrey of Wiltshire, Eng., and Lt.-Col. Stephen Johnson of Calgary.

Tompkins' Double Gives Lindsay Win

COBOURG, Aug. 15.—Second-baseman Dean Tompkins' double to left in the fifth inning was the deciding blow here Tuesday as Lindsay Merchants blanked Cobourg Legionnaires 2-0, in a Lakeshore Intermediate baseball game.

Besides driving in the first run, Tompkins added the second in the same inning on a fly-ball, after being sacrificed to third.

Doug Loucks, winning pitcher, and Jim Hart, Cobourg hurler, each allowed only four hits. Loucks struck out eight and walked only two. Hart struck out nine and walked six.

Mathews Defeats Huff Motors 6-1

COBOURG, Aug. 15.—Mathews defeated Huff Motors 6-1 here Monday night in the opening game of the "A" playdowns in the Cobourg and District Softball League.

Barney Mills, of the winners, and Jimmy Hoy of Huffs, hurled good ball throughout, each giving up only seven hits. Mills fanned six, Hoy four but the latter had less control, passing four.

Bullock of the losers led both teams with the willow getting three for four, one a triple.

Walker Resigns From Leaf Club

TORONTO, Aug. 15 (CP). — Gordon Walker, 36, announced Tuesday night that he is resigning as business manager of the Toronto Maple Leaf ball club, effective at the end of the baseball season, and will return to The Globe and Mail where he was a sports writer 15 years.

He has been business manager for a year of the International League club recently bought by Jack Cooke. Cooke said Walker's ultimate replacement will be Bill Houston, public relations head at CKEY.

Said Walker:

"I want to go back to baseball writing so I can see it again. . . and I'd like to see how my family gets along in the summer time.

"It's been a real pleasure to work with Jack and I know he's going to be successful at baseball, just as he has been in other fields."

Said Cooke:

"Gordie has a great uncomplaining capacity for work. He's a great guy and will be a real loss to the ball club."

Grandstand Managers To Run Browns For One Night Against Philadelphia

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15 (AP). — Bill Veeck, new owner of the Browns, came up today with another innovation — grandstand managers will run the club Aug. 24.

Veeck plans it this way:

Fans will fill out application forms giving their choice for the starting line-ups. The club will then mail a pass to those who apply entitling them to seats in a special section behind the Browns' dugout.

When the situations come up during the game with Philadelphia Athletics, cards will be held up to fit the situation—"Should we hit and run? Should we sacrifice, should the man on first steal? Should we replace this pitcher? and so on.

Majority decision will rule.

Then some fans may want to be coaches. They must write a letter telling why they want the job. Two will be selected, signed to a contract for one night and placed at first and third base.

Manager Zack Taylor will sit in a rocking chair and just watch the game, Veeck said.

Talbert And Mulloy Expected To Tumble

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 15 (AP).—With Bill Talbert slowed down by an injured right ankle and a wrenched left knee, that veteran New Yorker and Gardnar Mulloy, his 37-year-old Coral Gables, Fla., partner, appeared ripe to be the victims of the national doubles tennis tournament's first major upset today at Longwood.

Those four-time tourney winners were paired with Jiro Kumamaru of Japan, and Grant Golden of Chicago, the sixth-seeded foreign team, for the most difficult of today's third round tests.

Their opposites on the foreign seeded list, Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia's Davis Cup defenders, appeared to have fairly easy third-round assignments against unranked Dave Mesker of Boston, and Edwin Wesley of Chevy Chase, Md.

League Prexy Asked To Resign

ROUYN, Que., Aug. 15 (CP).—Ted Soucie, president of the Rouyn-Noranda Junior Baseball League, was asked to resign on Monday night.

The request came at a meeting of the league executive called to investigate a brawl among members of a junior team on a bus last week. The team's general manager demanded Soucie's resignation "because he is not doing his job."

Police, meanwhile, began investigating Soucie's charges voiced after the bus incident that junior athletes are drinking in clubs and taverns despite the law prohibiting sale of liquor to minors.

Soucie, 45-year-old theatre owner and a baseball executive since arriving here 10 years ago, said liquor was responsible for the fight among players on the J. P. Ross junior baseball team after a game last Wednesday.

The affray lasted about 15 minutes after the bus arrived in nearby Noranda, but the players retired to their homes on the arrival of a local policeman. No arrests were made.

US Action On Norman Protested By Ottawa

TIME OUT for the 42 dinghy crews as they waited for the second race of the 14-foot International Championship Wednesday afternoon on Clear Lake. Crews from the Royal Canadian Yacht club, Toronto, discuss the morning's race after pulling up their craft on the sandy beach. A light breeze allowed John Carter of Essex, Conn., to win the first race in two hours, 51 minutes and 20 seconds, only nine minutes before the time limit for the event. —Examiner Staff Photos

UK Teacher Leads Swim In Channel

Toronto Housewife Winnie Leuszler Holds Third Place

ABOARD THE YACHT GINASAL in the English Channel, Aug. 16. (CP)—Eileen Fenton, 29-year-old British school teacher, was leading the field of seven women swimming the English Channel today as some came within sight of the white cliffs of Dover.

Miss Fenton surged ahead to take the lead from Winnie Roach Leuszler of Toronto, lone North American competitor in the international race.

Mrs. Leuszler, 25, was reported swimming strongly in third place. The Canadian had drawn steadily away from the rest and taken the lead at the 3½-hour mark.

Miss Fenton was sixth in the whole field in the 21-mile race, heading most of the 13 male competitors as well.

Egypt's three "bronze giants" plowed their way into the lead as the coast came in sight.

Water Calm

The 20 swimmers from 10 countries left Cap Gris Nez, France, at 7:30 a.m. (BST) to swim the 21 miles through waters that stayed calm and sunlit through the day. None dropped out.

Mareeh Hassan Hammad, third in last year's contest, was less than 5½ miles from the coast after eight hours.

Following him closely was last year's winner, 42-year-old Hassan Abd El Rehim on whose heels was Saied El Araby, the third Egyptian.

Close behind, and in the same group, was Godfrey Chapman of Britain, at 21 the baby of the race.

Fighting for fifth place was Antonio Abertondo, 32-year-old Argentinian who came eighth in last year's swim.

The race, for prizes totalling £7,000, is sponsored by The Daily Mail.

Striking Spectacle

It was a striking spectacle on the unusually calm surface of the Channel. More than 50 boats followed the swimmers as they fanned away from the French coast.

Conditions were pronounced almost ideal.

The swimmers were on the beach an hour before takeoff time, getting prepared in individual tents which were fenced off from the crowd of about 500 spectators. The preparation consists largely of coating the body heavily with grease as protection against the cold.

Ten of those swimming today already have conquered the Channel. Rehim last year set a men's record of 10 hours and 49 minutes. Miss Fenton's time last year was 15 hours and 31 minutes.

Those who finish second will get £500 and all others who complete the grind will get $250.

Last year 24 started and nine finished. Eight of those nine are among the starters this year.

Big Explosion At Plant

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 16. (AP)—A giant explosion ripped through a naphtha treating plant at an oil company's refinery today. Two persons were reported killed and 13 injured. Witnesses said window panes were shattered in areas leading to the 1,100-acre refinery on the Mississippi River bank. Plant officials were unable to give the cause of the explosion.

Sub-Committee Holding Informal Talks

MUNSAN, Korea, Aug. 17 — (Friday) (AP)—Truce talks moved into a new and informal phase today as allies and Communists sought to break their long impasse over a demarcation line.

Negotiators created a small sub-committee to try to untangle the snarl over where a demarcation line should be drawn between opposing armies.

It was the most encouraging step taken thus far toward solving this particular issue.

The change in tactics came amid growing, but cautious, optimism the Reds may be willing to compromise on their demand for a demilitarized zone back along the 38th parallel. The allies want it right where they now are, along the present battlefront in defensible terrain.

The sub-committee, made up of two delegates from each side, was created Thursday. It will hold its first meeting at 11 a.m., today (9 p.m. EDT Thursday).

Meet Informally

Its members will meet informally in Kaesong where formal, full-dress negotiations have been locked over this same point for more than three weeks.

The UN command said it will issue no communiques during these meetings. And the press will not be briefed on what happened. The purpose is to allow the negotiators complete freedom in trying to find a satisfactory recommendation.

There was no indication how long the problem might be in the hands of the sub-committee.

Daily sessions of the full, five-man delegations will be suspended while the smaller group works.

The sub-committee idea was advanced Wednesday by Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy, chief UN delegate. He suggested a small group meeting informally might solve the question which has stymied conferences of the full delegations for 16 meetings.

Reds Accept

The Communists accepted in a 55-minute session Thursday—the shortest meeting since talks started July 10.

North Korean Lt.-Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist negotiator, proposed two delegates from each side instead of one as Joy had suggested.

The UN accepted.

The change permitted Nam Il to name both a Red Korean and a Chinese general to the sub-committee. He appointed North Korean Maj-Gen. Lee Song cho and Chinese Maj.-Gen. Hsien Fang.

Joy named only one of his delegates immediately—Maj.-Gen. Henry I. Hodes, Deputy Chief of Staff of the US Eighth Army.

Brig-Gen. William P. Nuckols, UN spokesman, said the other will be named Friday.

Report Note Sharpest In Long Time

Washington Told Use Diplomatic Channels In Future

OTTAWA, Aug. 16. (CP) — Canada has expressed "regret and annoyance" to the United States government over the disclosure of an allegation of Communism against a Canadian diplomat at a secret Washington hearing, External Affairs Minister Pearson said today.

The protest, delivered verbally to the state department at Washington Tuesday, was one of the strongest exchanged between the two governments in years.

In it, the Canadian government expressed "surprise" that the name of Herbert Norman, acting head of Canada's United Naions delegation, should have been "dragged" into hearings of a congressional committee.

It added sharply that it expects any references to Canadian officials to be passed on to the Canadian government through diplomatic channels, instead of being made public.

Acts For Ambassador

The protest was delivered by W. D. Matthews, minister to the United States and charge d'affairs at Washington while Ambassador Hume Wrong is on vacation.

While lacking the formal impact of a diplomatic note, its tart language made it the sharpest government-to-government communication since at least 1947 when Canada vigorously and successfully opposed a threatened embargo on coal shipments from the US to this country. The embargo threat had been laid down in an effort to force Canada to ship coal cars back to the US more quickly.

Mr. Norman's name cropped up before the US Senate's subcommittee on internal security when Robert Morris, committee counsel, said he had been named at an earlier committee hearing as a man who belong to "a Communist party student group at Cape Cod (Mass.) in 1939."

Red Testimony

The counsel said Dr. Carl August Wittfogel, a former Communist, had testified "it was obvi-

Canadian Troops Thrown Back By Enemy Forces

US EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 16. (CP)—Canadian troops reconnoitering on the western front ran into stiff resistance Wednesday and were turned back a few hundred yards from their objectives, an Eighth Army communique said today. It was one of the biggest sweeps in weeks for the 25th Brigade.

The Canadians ran into automatic weapon and mortar fire from an unknown number of Communists. Ethiopian troops went into action Wednesday—the first African ground troops to be committed as a United Nations unit—the communique announced.

The Ethiopians apparently participated in one of the short, sharp patrol clashes that have been flaring daily across the front.

Wednesday's actions were light, the Eighth Army said, except for "stubborn enemy resistance" on the extreme eastern and western flanks.

UN Troops Withdraw

In both cases United Nations troops withdrew after fights running into the afternoon. The western fight was northeast of Korangpo, a 38th parallel town. Another UN reconnaissance in force shoved back Reds between Korangpo and Kaesong, cease-fire negotiating site.

The eastern battle was in the fourth day of fighting for high ground west of Kansong, 27 miles north of the 38th parallel.

General headquarters said UN warships moved in close to support allied troops with their guns, both in the Kansong and Kosong areas. Kosong is 46 miles north of the parallel.

A navy announcement said 10,760 Reds have been killed in the six-month naval blockade of the east coast. The blockade is centred on the port of Wonsan, where highway and rail lines meet. Besieging warships have poured 55,570 rounds of heavy shells into the city, the navy said.

Allied planes flew 700 sorties under low-hanging clouds Wednesday, concentrating on supply lines. Night fliers reported blasting front-line troops and knocking out more than 100 vehicles in pre-dawn attacks. F-86 Sabre jets swept northwest Korea without finding trace of Red jets.

Canada Accepts Japanese Peace Terms

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 ((CP) — Canada is "reasonably satisfied" with the final draft of the Japanese peace treaty and doesn't plan to seek any changes in it, External Affairs Minister Pearson said today.

The treaty draft was made public in Washington this week and will be placed before the peace conference opening at San Francisco Sept. 4.

Mr. Pearson, announcing at a press conference that he will head Canada's delegation at the conference, said a number of minor amendments to previous treaty drafts already have been made at the request of the Canadian government.

With the external affairs minister at the conference will be Fisheries Minister Mayhew, who has attended a number of conferences on Far-Eastern affairs. Chief adviser will be Herbert Norman, Far-Eastern specialist who is acting head of Canada's United Nations delegation.

Mr. Pearson said the conference will not interfere with the Sept. 15 meeting here of the North Atlantic Treaty Council. If the San Francisco meeting was still on then, Mr. Pearson would return to Ottawa, and he expected other key NATO men at San Francisco would do the same.

Avoid References

In Tokyo, Russian attendance at the Japanese peace conference in San Francisco was carefully avoided today in a speech before the Diet by Premier Shigeru Yoshida.

But the 72-year-old leader of this country of 82,000,000 people declared that "stationing American troops in Japan" is necessary to preserve the country's "security and defence."

He said he would sign a unilateral treaty with the US providing for the defence of Japan once its occupation ends.

RCAF Ice Wagon Tries To Bring Vancouver Rain

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP)—The Rockcliffe Ice Wagon, national research council experimental plane, is en route to Vancouver to try to bring rain to the parched coast city.

The four-motored North Star took off from Rockcliffe air base today for Vancouver where it will drop dry ice on clouds in efforts to induce precipitation.

Research council officials aren't making any promises, however. They said that this method of inducing rain is completely dependent on suitable cloud conditions.

The operation is being carried out as part of the ice wagon's routine work. The Vancouver area was selected because of the suitability of geographical conditions there and because the Vancouver area is in the midst of an extended dry spell.

The specially equipped plane is flown by the RCAF for the NRC Aboard are four scientists, J. L. Orr of Weston, Ont., head of NRC's low-temperature laboratory; E. H. Bowler of Palmer, Sask., NRC instrument engineer; K. G. Pettit of London, Ont., and R. H. Douglas, Edmonton, both of the department of transport's meteorological division.

The plane is flown by Flt.-Lt. Jack Higgins of Winnipeg.

Doctor Uses Wrong Bottle 2 Human Guinea Pigs Die

VERMILLION, SD, Aug. 16. (AP)—Dr. Donald Slaughter, dean of the University of South Dakota Medical School, said today the death of two "human guinea pigs" in a drug experiment occurred when a doctor on his staff "picked up the wrong bottle." The staff doctor, whose name was withheld pending an inquest, had planned to participate in the experiment himself, along with a fourth person.

Slaughter said the staff physician called him after injections had been given to Jack Clifford, 30, laboratory technician, and Mrs. Ardys Pearson, 26, a secretary. The injections were given Tuesday afternoon. Clifford and Mrs. Pearson died 24 hours later.

Slaughter said all known anitdotes were given without effect after his assistant phoned to say: "I've made a mistake."

Done Many Tests

The tests involved combination of drugs to study pain-killer effects, Slaughter said. He termed such experiments common to medical schools and said he and associates had conducted "thousands of similar tests."

The experiment in this particular test, Slaughter said, called for the use of a morphine, a sedative drug, and cortisone, a new drug being used in treatment of arthritis and allied conditions.

"Another drug was picked up instead of morphine," Dr. Slaughter said. "It was this drug that had the toxic effect. The drug cortisone is not involved in the toxicity."

W. Berlin Braces For Invasion

BERLIN, Aug. 16 — (AP) — Thousands of young Communists massed in Russian-occupied East Berlin today and Western police braced for an expected new violent invasion.

In the wake of Wednesday's three-hour, riotous invasion by 14,000 young Communists, new concentrations were spotted by Western authorities. West Berlin police said the young Communists might number 200,000, but other sources said the figure probably was exaggerated and was likely nearer to 20,000.

Eleven police and scores of Reds were injured Wednesday when the young Communists stormed across, about 14,000 strong. More than 100 of the Reds were arrested after they attacked police with stones and clubs.

This was the first violence of the Red Youth Festival which opened Aug. 5 and is due to close Sunday.

Ontario Hay Crop 35 PC Higher Than '50

TORONTO, Aug. 16 (CP). — Despite spoilage caused by rain, this year's hay crop in Ontario was 35 per cent greater than last year's the Department of Agriculture said today. Grain crops are in favorable condition.

If present good weather continues, the department said, production of oats, barley and mixed grain will be higher than in previous years. Grain yield this year might exceed the record 1918 crop of 213,356,000 bushels.

The department noted that late crops, such as soybeans, roots and buckwheat are "slightly below average" but predicted a "good" yield. Potato acreage is 30 per cent lower than last year.

Fruit and vegetable crops are in promising condition, the department said.

2 Trucks Collide

SUDBURY, Aug. 16. (CP)—Two fruit trucks collided at a railway crossing east of here today, sending one man to hospital with critical injuries and delaying railway traffic for two hours.

Edward Balford, 28, of St. Catharines, driver of a small fruit truck, halted at a railway crossing to wait for a freight train to pass. The train was almost over the crossing when a large trailer-van—also loaded with fruit—came up behind the small truck.

Driver Milo F. Weikel of Benton Harbor, Mich., pulled out to pass Balford's truck and struck its rear corner.

The impact bounced the truck into the ditch and sprawled the trailer-van across the railway tracks.

Warn Russia Treaty Drafted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 (AP) —The United States told Russia today the Japanese peace-treaty conference at San Francisco next month "is not a conference to reopen negotiations on the terms of peace."

In a formal note delivered in Moscow, the US government in effect advised the Soviet government that its apparent intention to raise basic treaty issues at San Francisco is out of order since the purpose of the meeting will be "conclusion and signature" of a treaty already drafted.

The note was made public shortly after President Truman told his press conference he does not thing the arrangements already made for the signing can be upset by anyone.

At the same time the President said he will be happy to see Andrei Gromyko, deputy Soviet foreign minister, if the latter wants to visit him en route to San Francisco.

Hundreds Of Police Will Guard Princess

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP)—An inconspicuous corps of several hundred policemen will guard Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip during their October tour of Canada, it was learned Wednesday.

In addition, they will have a bodyguard of 12 uniformed RCMP to travel with them across the country.

However, the real task of guarding the Royal couple will fall upon several hundred plain-clothes men to be drawn from the RCMP ranks.

An RCMP spokesman said a police check already has been made to uncover possible trouble-makers. They will be watched.

Ming Sung Boss Operates On 2 Sides Of Iron Curtain

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—A fabulous Chinese capitalist who operates on both sides of the Iron Curtain is the master mind of the Ming Sung firm that provoked parliament's stormiest quarrels last session. His firm is expected to provoke more when parliament meets this fall.

His name is Lu Tso-fu. He is one of the most consummate fence-straddlers of his time. He is around 50, very wealthy, described here as a typical, driving, big-time capitalist, the boss of a commercial empire that extends beyond shipping into other spheres. He lives in Red China and his advice is sought by Communist leaders.

His shipping interests, functioning both inside and outside Red China, are so large that the nine Canadian-built ships that have caused all the furore here are a mere drop in the bucket.

Lu's latest gesture is to tell Ottawa, through one of his subsidiaries, that since it has been embarassing to the Canadian government to have one of the nine Ming Sung ships running cargo from the colonial Portuguese port of Macao to Red-held Canton, the ship will no longer carry cargo, only passengers.

This was learned in the wake of press reports from Hong Kong that, despite tightening export controls, vital strategic materials still are getting to China, largely through Macao, notorious smuggling centre on the Chinese mainland about 100 miles from Canton.

In the first fight here, it was a main opposition contention that the government couldn't tell what was being loaded aboard the ship in Macao. The government kept saying it was checking up. But not even the British have officials in Macao so it's hard to see how a thorough check could be made.

Nevertheless, the government is likely to shoot this latest evidence of Ming Sung's good faith at the opposition if they revive calls for cancelling the Canadian charter on seven of the ships sailing out of Hong Kong to Canton and Macao.

Harriman Tries To Avert Crisis

TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 16 (AP). —British and Iranian negotiators have scheduled informal talks today at which W. Averell Harriman is expected to make a last-ditch effort to Iran's explosive oil crisis.

It is the first time since he got the two sides talking that President Truman's trouble-shooter has stepped directly into the negotiations.

Premier Mossadegh, who plans to meet with Harriman later today, reported to Shah Mohammed Pahlevi on the deadlocked talks.

Observers feel that results from the informal talks will determine whether there is any chance of reaching a settlement at a scheduled full-dress conference Saturday.

Today's talks were set up at a dinner party Harriman gave for the delegates last night after Iran had rejected Britain's latest offer for 50-50 profit sharing.

4 Constables Guard Man In Court Room

HAMILTON, Aug. 16 (CP). — Four constables guarded John Edward McKay when he was brought into court today for preliminary hearing on a charge of breaking jail. Other policemen guarded the entrances and were posted about the courtroom.

McKay had made an unsuccessful effort at a break when he appeared in a Toronto court a few days ago.

Magistrate Beamer Hopkins refused McKay's request for a week's adjournment and after a hearing committed the prisoner to trial before a higher court.

Detective Ernest Jackson testified he had arrested McKay as a suspect in a $9,000 robbery at Windsor. Detective George Nair told of finding the escape route from Hamilton jail July 8 and of picking up McKay at Toronto Aug. 8 after his arrest by Toronto police.

Hold Three Men In Cable Theft

MONTREAL, Aug. 16 —(CP)— Provincial Police reported today they have arrested three unidentified men and recovered 10,000 pounds of stolen copper and aluminum telephone, telegraph and power cables.

Described as expert linemen, the three Pont Viau, Que., men climbed poles in rural districts and cut the cables, which were sold in Montreal at a fraction of the value, police said.

The cables were stolen from lines of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways and the Shawinigan Light, Heat and Power Company in the districts of St. Paul D'Abbotsford, Lavaltrie, St. Martin, Farnham, St. Johns, St. Bruno, Marieville, St. Angele de Monnoir, Joliette, Lachenaie, Three Rivers and Drummondville.

655 On Troopship Rescued By Lifeboats

DARWIN, Australia, Aug. 16 — (Reuters)—Lifeboats Wednesday took 575 New Zealand servicemen and 80 crew members off a troopship which ran aground Tuesday night on the way to Korea. No casualties were reported.

The 4,436-ton troopship Wahine, grounded on a reef near Masella Island, 265 miles north of Darwin, is being abandoned.

The Panamanian tanker Stanvac Karachi went to the Wahine's assistance.

The men were expected to continue their voyage to Korea as soon as other shipping is arranged.

Want Special Stamp

OTTAWA, Aug. 16. (CP)—The Post Office department is hoping to get out a special postage stamp to commemorate the October visit of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, it was announced today, but there may not be enough time. An announcement said the department still can't say definitely if printing plates can be made soon enough.

Sir, Ma'am Greetings For Philip and Elizabeth

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—It will be "Sir" and "Ma'am" for Prince Philip and Princess Elizabeth when Canadians greet them during their October tour of Canada.

Those, government officials say, are the correct forms of address to use in speaking to either the Princess or her husband—after, of course, a preliminary salutation of "Your Royal Highness" in recognition of their royal titles.

One official said there is no particular "do" or "don't" in meeting royalty and the best thing is to act naturally.

On meeting the Royal couple, it is customary for women to curtsy. Some women might not curtsy because they do not know how, but that will not be taken as being disrespectful. For men, a slight bow—more of a deep nod of the head—is the thing.

In conversation with royalty, the normal procedure is to wait for royalty to speak first. In all social contacts with the Royal couple, follow the ordinary dictates of good taste.

It is correct to address Princess Elizabeth's husband as "Prince Philip" or "The Duke of Edinburgh." Descended from the Royal family of Greece, he dropped the Greek royal rank in 1947 and became plain Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, Royal Navy, at the same time renouncing his succession to the Greek throne. His title of Prince now comes from authorization by the King for his use of the prefix "His Royal Highness."

Philippines, US Sign Treaty

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 (AP) —The United States and the Philippines announced agreement today on a mutual defence treaty pledging each country to "act to meet the common dangers" in event of an armed attack on the other.

The pact will probably be signed at the Japanese peace treaty conference opening Sept. 4 in San Francisco.

The announcement said that the defence agreement will embody commitments which already exist between the United States and the Philippines. These result from agreements on American use of bases in the islands and American aid in building up Philippine armed forces.

Sawmill Operator Killed By Freight

IVANHOE, Aug. 16—(CP)— Henry Lloyd, 59, well-known Bannockburn sawmill operator and lumber dealer, was killed here shortly before midnight Wednesday when his late model car ran into the side of a Canadian Pacific Railway freight train. Ivanhoe is 19 miles north of Belleville.

A brother of Magistrate J. L. Lloyd, of Northbrook, Mr. Lloyd operated a lumber yard at Ivanhoe only a few yards from the crossing where he was killed.

Police said the westbound freight was moving slowly into another track to allow another train to pass. Lloyd apparently failed to see the train, they said.

An inquest has been ordered by Coroner Dr. A. E. Carleton, of Stirling.

Solve Murder Of Officer During War

Cloak-Dagger Major Said Killed By Fellow Soldiers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. — (AP)—A cold-blooded killing of an American cloak-and-dagger officer behind enemy lines in Italy seven years ago has been solved, the defence department said Wednesday.

The department said Maj. William V. Holohan, then 40, was killed by two fellow American servicemen with the aid of two Italians.

All were attached to an office of strategic services mission parachuted into enemy territory to get the low-down on partisan guerrilla bands.

One of the former US servicemen denied any connection with the killing; the other withheld comment.

Named by the department as the principles in the case were:

Aldo Icardi, then a 23-year-old lieutenant, formerly of Pittsburgh but now employed in New York City. The department said Icardi hatched the plot in a disagreement with Holohan over how much arms aid to give Communist partisans.

Carl K. LoDolce, then a sergeant, from Rochester, N.Y., "drew the two of spades" and thus got the assignment of shooting Holohan when Icardi decided poison given him earlier might not be effective, the department said.

A his home in Preakness, N.J., Icardi denied any part in the killing and said he assumed 'it may have been done by two Italians who, the department said, had told the entire story.

Icardi told a reporter. "I deny any connection with the killing. When the shooting started, I ran. That's the last I ever heard of him (Holohan)."

Labor Chief Urges Frost Arbitrate Mine Strike

TIMMINS, Aug. 16. (CP)—A proposal that Premier Frost of Ontario personally arbitrate the check-off issue in the strike at Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines was put forward Wednesday night by Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Congress of Labor. Mr. Conroy said the striking United Steelworkers of America, a CCL affiliate, would abide by any decision the Premier might make. It also would accept any settlement arrived at by Ontario Government mediation services concerning wages, pensions and working conditions. If still unsettled, it proposed that these issues also should be referred to arbitration by the Premier.

The only company reaction was a statement from E. A. Perry, head of the firm's negotiating committee and Assistant General Superintendent of the mine, who said Hollinger would make no decision on the C.C.L. proposal until it could be studied in detail.

Pledges Support

Addressing a joint meeting of the CCL wage co-ordinating committee and the Hollinger strike committee, Mr. Conroy pledged the full weight of all CCL unions, if necessary, to support the strike. The committee recommended that the strike be continued until agreement is reached on settlement terms along the lines of its proposals.

Return Of Sailors Asked By Poland

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 16 —(AP)—Poland Wednesday demanded the extradition of the 12 Polish sailors who brought a Polish minesweeper to the port of Ystad, Sweden, Aug. 2 after a mutiny in the Baltic.

The request from Poland was announced by the Swedish Foreign Office.

Sweden has granted asylum to the 12 mutineers and four other Poles who fled to this country in a rattletrap airplane.

Five more Poles fled to Sweden last night. They arrived at Karis-Hamm port in a fishing boat.

The Polish seamen have been lodged at the Landskrona citadel in Southern Sweden, but have been granted freedom of movement in this country.

Some, however, have had special escorts when they move about the town in order to quiet their fears of being kidnapped by Polish Communist agents.

Dairy Farmers Have Own Milking Machines

Lending milking machines for the herds of dairy cattle at the Exhibition is being pushed into the past ,it was intimated at a meeting of directors Wednesday night.

Apparently nobody ever thinks of milking by hand in these times and the habit of home, where they are elaborating dairy facilities and conveniences into what is known, and deservedly so, as milk parlors, follows the herd to the show ring.

Without going into the mechanical details of the arrangement, the directors are providing a pipe line that invites dairy farmers to bring their own milking machines.

At any rate, distributors of milkers, it was said, concluded that they had done their bit in helping to promote the "Ex", but the days of lending were ending. No objections were sounded.

Truck Overturns Boys Shaken Up

Two Peterborough youths were shaken up Wednesday afternoon after the truck they were driving missed a sharp turn on the Stony Lake road and overturned in the ditch a mile south of Hall's Glen.

They were Gerald Whelan, 16, of 535 Rogers St., and Elmer Gosselin, 17, of 128 Sutherland St.

Whelan was driving the 1939-model stake body truck, owned by the Peterborough Canoe Co. south on the road when he came to a sharp turn. The truck skidded into a soft shoulder, went out of control, and turned over on the cab roof after striking a pile of stones.

About $600 damage was caused to the truck, mainly to the cab.

About $150 damage was caused to a truck driven by Richard M. Short, Otonabee township road superintendent, Wednesday afternoon when another truck, driven by Bernard Condon, a Curtis Bros. employee, backed into his vehicle.

Condon had stopped on the 6th line of Otonabee where a section of road was under repair, a half mile north of Highway 7, to make enquiries. He started to back up and rammed the front end of the Short vehicle.

OPP Constable James Healey investigated both accidents.

Drag Lake Ontario For Immigrant's Body

TORONTO, Aug. 16. (CP) — Life-saving crews dragged Lake Ontario today for the body of a young Polish immigrant, believed drowned while fishing Wednesday night.

In Canada only three months, house-painter Joseph Pytlinski, 26, took his 17-months-old son fishing with him. He told his wife they would return in time for the child's bedtime.

Later, police found the child wandering in the Exhibition Grounds.

Two Flower Beds Get Much Comment

Peterborough Lumber Company's flower bed at Lansdowne St. and Monaghan Road is a symphony of bloom these days, an attraction at what used to be the southwest corner of the city.

One block west, at Park and Lansdowne Sts., the city's parks department has a similar flower show, but even more attractive, especially with its profusion of nicotiniana in two or three colors, one that comes close to amethyst.

Passenger Train Makes Last Cornwall Run

CORNWALL, Aug. 16 —(CP)— The last passenger train to run during summer months on the 53-year-old Ottawa-St. Helena, NY division of the New York Central Railroad passed through Cornwall Wednesday night.

The company was authorized by the Board of Transport Commissioners to suspend passenger service from April until November each year, because of heavy financial losses. The company had sought to discontinue passenger service entirely.

Wheat Crop Record Likely

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—A wheat crop record that has stood for 23 years may be exceeded this fall if frost and other natural enemies of the farmer don't interfere.

The Bureau of Statistics said Wednesday that from the look of things at present the 1951 wheat crop will hit 581,678,000 bushels.

This would be more than 15,000,000 bushels higher than the record 1928 crop of 566,000,000 and 120,000,000 higher than last year's crop which looked good all the way and then took a licking from frost in the last days.

Old House Reduced Now To Mere Shell

The house that has been until recently standing on the acute angle of Rubidge and Park Sts., between the offices of Canadian General Electric Co. and Colonial Weaving Co. is now reduced to a mere wall.

But, the wall is still surviving for the benefit of the lean-to service station.

Cities Service pulled two houses apart for the site of a new station in that gore. Then destruction of the third, right at that point, has been proportioned and paced to construction of the new service station.

Probably it is intended that the old pumps will just dissolve into the new cessation of business.

Hamilton Car Plant Shuts Down Week

HAMILTON, Aug. 16 — (CP) — The plant of the Studebaker Corporation of Canada will close down Friday for about a week, D. C. Gaskin, vice-president and general manager, said today the shutdown will permit change of equipment for a new production rate.

During the shutdown employees who are not to return to work will be notified. Mr. Gaskin said the number to be laid off is not yet known.

Last week, a 45-per-cent reduction of cars and trucks was announced. The reduction is to remain in effect for at least the balance of 1951.

Golds Turn Mixed In Market Trading

TORONTO, Aug. 16 — (CP) — Golds turned mixed today in the early afternoon stock market trading. After a robust opening in continuation of a two-day climb, they weakened noticeably during the first hour and remained indecisive.

Industrials moved steadily higher. Papers, utilities and refinning oils led the trend with manufacturing companies following. Agricultures, steels, foods, banks, textiles and miscellaneous industrials were mixed while liquors weakened.

Base metals edged ahead. Consolidated Smelters led, gaining more than a point. Coast copper, Base Metal, Mining Corporation, Noranda and Solver Standard also advanced.

Western oils showed little trend.

Senior golds were mixed. Lake Shore, McIntyre and Teck Hughes pushed upward while Giant Yellowknife, La Luz, Lamaque and Malartic eased.

Secondary golds were active with a scattered list trading heavily. Gains and losses were in balance.

Dollar Goes Up

MONTREAL, Aug. 16 — (CP)— The American dollar today opened at 5 19/32 per cent premium to the Canadian dollar, up 1/32 from Wednesday's close. That is, it took $1.05 19/32 Canadian to buy $1.00 American.

The pound sterling was $2.95⅝, up 1/16 from Wednesday.

Army To Have French-Canadian As New General

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP)—The army is going to have a French-Canadian general—J. P. E. (Paul) Bernatchez, CBE, DSO, CB, a fighting, rock-jawed infantryman from the famed Royal 22nd Regiment.

The fact it has none now and has not had for some years brought criticism at last session of parliament from Quebec members deploring what they considered inadequate representation of French-Canadians in the army's higher ranks.

It was announced today that Brig. Bernatchez, 40-year-old native of Montmagny, Que., is being promoted to major-general Dec. 1 and going to Montreal as General Officer Commanding, Quebec Command. He will succeed Maj.-Gen. R. O. G. Morton, CBE, 56, who is retiring.

ous" Mr. Norman was a Communist at that time.

The external affairs department subsequently said Mr. Norman had been cleared of all Communist suspicion by a double security check, and Mr. Pearson added today at a press conference that the US government has been told he is a "highhly respected and trusted senior official."

At the same time, he announced pointedly that Mr. Norman, the government's top Far-Eastern expert, is going to be chief adviser to the Canadian delegation going to San Francisco for the Japanese peace treaty conference opening Sept. 4.

Mr. Pearson, who described the government's protest to the State Department as "friendly representations," told newspapermen that, as far as the Canadian government is concerned, the allegation before the US committee is "completely without foundation."

In the representations to the State Department, it was described as "an unimpressive and unsubstantiated allegation by a former Communist."

Gives Text

In a prepared statement, he said the Canadian representations were made in these terms:

"After examining the committee record, a message was immediately sent to our embassy in Washington requesting them to inform the State Department of our surprise that the name of a highly respected and trusted senior official of the Canadian government had been mentioned in a way which could not fail to prejudice his position.

"We emphasized our complete confidence in Mr. Norman and requested that the Congressional sub-committee be informed of this fact, and of our regret and annoyance that his name had been dragged into their hearings by their counsel on the basis of an unimpressive and unsubstantiated allegation by a former Communist.

"We expressed the hope that the committee would instruct their counsel to act differently in future in matters which concerned officials of this government, adding that we expect that if in investigations by committees of this kind in Washington, names of Canadian officials appeared, that these names should not be made public but that the normal practice should be followed of sending them to the Canadian government through normal diplomatic channels. The allegations made could then be investigated here and the results of the investigation given to all those concerned."

To the newspapermen at his conference, Mr. Pearson added:

"We have our own methods of security investigation in Ottawa, which may not be the same as those employed in Washington, but which we consider to be both fair and effective."

The minister said the State Department had promised to look into the matter but had not yet made a reply.

ORDERS VOTE OF TAXPAYERS

Ontario Municipal Board has refused permission for the building of a $3,000,000 addition to Victoria Hospital, London, without a vote of the people. Reason was the lapse of time since ratepayers in 1946 voted $1,000,000 toward the project. The order noted that there was considerable division of opinion in the city council.

A. McKay, W. Somerville Wi Chemong Regatta Trophies

BRIDGENORTH, Aug. 16 — (ENS)—Rain and cloudy skies in the early part of the day did not deter the junior regatta held at Chemong Lake Wednesday afternoon. Competition was stiff and the championships won only after many tiring trials of swimming and handling of canoes.

Alice McKay, 13, of Bridgenorth, was proclaimed girl champion for the regatta after breaking a tie with Mary Wasson. Both obtained a total of 15 points. Walter Somerville won the boys' championship with 21 points.

This is the second year in a row that Alice McKay and Walter Somerville have obtained these honors and won the coveted cups.

Approximately 300 interested spectators lined the shore in front of J. K. Hughes' cottage. Swimming and canoeing featured the events with one handicap motor boat race. A few land races were held for the little tots, each receiving balloons. Prizes were presented following the events by Mrs. C. Wasson, president of the Chemong Park Cottagers' Association, assisted by Dr. Ralph Clark. Dr. Clark and Ross Pulkinghorn announced the events and kept everyone informed of the standing of the winners. Judges were Dr. Herb Young, Dr. D. W. Clark and Cliff Vincent.

TANGLED TRAFFIC

Alparka's 5 p.m. traffic tangle takes the daily biscuit. It begins shortly after the CGE whistle blows and is one of the neighborhood sights of Peterborough. Cars might never get separated and homebound without the helping fingers of one of Chief Constable Thompson's men. Daily patience at that spot is really admirable, and in 10 or 15 minutes the hiving of cars is ended and the length of Park St. from Perry to Rink St. returns to normal traffic.

Perfect Shoe Care

Find Evidence Insufficient Dismiss Charge

A charge of careless driving against Leo Cleary, Hastings, was dismissed today when Magistrate W. R. Philp found there was insufficient evidence for a conviction.

Cleary was charged after an accident July 15 in which a car he was driving ran into the rear of a car parked on the south side of Charlotte St. In court, Cleary said he was thinking of buying the car, and had had few opportunities to test the brakes.

Cleary went on to say that the brakes didn't work very well when he applied them.

Donald Reynolds, whose car was struck, said he was in a friend's car on Albertus Ave., just north of Charlotte St. when he saw a 1949-model car driving east on Charlotte between Monaghan Rd.

Three Cars Parked

He said there were three cars parked on the west side of the intersection, waiting for the traffic light to show green. The 1949 car swerved to the right to miss these cars and hit Reynolds car, which Reynolds said was parked on the shoulder of the road on the south side.

Maitland Carter, who was trying to sell the car to Cleary, was asked by the magistrate whether he had had any trouble with the brakes. Carter was slow to answer and His Worship asked "Were you selling the car?"

"Yes," said Carter. Magistrate Philp smiled.

Freak Accident Injures Man

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 16 — (ENS)—A freak auto accident resulted in painful injuries to the owner of the car involved late Wednesday evening, when an unattended auto took off down a slight grade and ploughed into the Campbellford Cloth Company plant.

George Raaflaub of 201 Humewood Drive, Toronto, had stopped at a service station and garage operated by Thomas Hall on the southerly approach to the town, to ask directions to Marmora. While he was obtaining his information, his car, a 1948 model, began to roll down the slight grade to the roadway, and Mr. Raaflaub ran after it, grabbing the door handle in an attempt to get inside to stop it. The car crossed the highway and went down a steep embankment, carrying the unlucky man with it.

Mr. Raaflaub was thrown into the air and landed against the wall of the cloth company building beside his car. He suffered arm and shoulder injuries and head bruises. The car was badly damaged, the headlights, grill and fenders receiving the full impact of the crash. A sill was knocked out from beneath a window of the plant.

Mr. Raaflaub was on his way to Glen Allen Park, five miles from Marmora, where his wife and family are staying at a summer cottage. He was alone at the time of the accident, about 10:30 p.m.

Starling Shoots Said Successful

COBOURG, Aug 16 (ENS) — Two successive shoots this week at the starlings in the Chapel and Walton streets area have killed several hundred starlings and lessened the racket and stench of the birds very materially. It was noticed last night that the flocks coming in from the country to roost in town for the night were much smaller, many of the birds apparently being unwilling to face another barrage from the shotguns. Residents who have been pestered for several years by the starlings, believe that the best time to get after them is early in the summer when they first start to come in and then to fire at them while they are circling for a landing in the trees. To fire after they settle only keeps them moving from tree to tree. Getting at them before they settle tends to keep them so much on the move that they leave.

Seymour Council Sets Property Tax Rates

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 16 — (ENS)—A bylaw striking the tax rate on properties within the township was passed at the August meeting of the Seymour township council. The rates are as follows:

	Mills
County rate	14.5
Township rate	20.0
High School trustee rate 8.9 mills, debenture rate .5	9.4
Public School debenture, S.S. No. 8	2.7
Hospital debenture rate	1.4
Garbage (Trent River area only)	6.0
General School rate	6.2

In addition to the above rates, various school sections will have different levies.

Penalties added to arrears after Nov. 15 when all taxes come due, were ½ of 1 per cent with an additional ½ of 1 per cent on Dec. 16, after which the usual penalties on arrears will be charged.

After passing the pay sheet, council adjourned until Tuesday, September 4.

Two Polio Cases Reported In Cobourg

COBOURG, Aug. 16 (ENS)—So far there are only two cases of polio in Cobourg, one of them mild and the other quite serious. There are several instances of stomach flu but these have been watched carefully in view of the fact that some of the symptoms were similar to polio. Dr. C. W. MacCharles, medical officer of the counties health unit, said there was no truth in the rumors that opening of the schools for the fall term would be delayed. There have been no restrictions placed on bathing at the beach. Since the opening of the new sewage disposal plant last year, there has been no sewage going into the lake and the lake should be cleaner than in past years, Dr. MacCharles pointed out.

Gets Six Firsts

COBOURG, Aug. 16—(ENS)—Robert Bryson attained six first class honors in the six subjects tried at the Cobourg Collegiate Upper School Examinations.

Joins Women's Division

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 16 — (ENS) — Miss Helen Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Beattie, of Hastings Road, has joined the Women's Division of the Royal Canadian Air Force and has commenced her training in Radar Communications at St. Johns, Quebec. Miss Beattie has been employed in Toronto for the past year, and decided to join the W.D.'s recently.

Iron At Marmora

As Premier Frost announced Tuesday, the Bethlehem Steel Corporation will develop the iron deposits at Marmora and pour a million dollars into the preliminary work. This will bolster the community and district forty miles east of Peterborough on Number 7 highway. Readers of this newspaper will not have been surprised by the announcement. During the last year we have carried news reports on the drilling and assaying which has been going on. Five drills under contract to Bethlehem Steel began testing last December. It is reassuring indeed to have Government confirmation that the big steel company is to carry on with the development.

* * *

The existence of iron in the rocks of Marmora has long been known. As early as 1820 iron was mined in the district, but higher grade ores elsewhere in impressive quantities put iron mining in Marmora into the limbo. Now the need for iron is so vast that the Marmora deposits are once again commercially desirable, and newer mechanical methods of mining will make development of the mines there practicable and profitable.

* * *

In 1949 the Ontario Department of Mines initiated an aerial magnetometer survey of the area. Bethlehem Steel became interested last year in the proven deposits under a hundred feet of limestone. This all resulted from a visit by the Deputy Minister and his chief geologist to northern New York State in order to study the methods used to discover and process iron ore in the Adirondacks. They noted similarities between the geology of that region and Hastings County. They decided to use the same techniques of discovery and assessment used in the Adirondacks—the airborne magnetometer. In April of 1950 1,450 square miles had been thus surveyed. Within two weeks of the publishing of a report on this, Bethlehem Steel had taken options two miles east of Marmora. Drill holes have been sunk ranging from 500 to 1,900 feet in depth. As reported at the time in the Examiner, a Queen's University geologist, Professor R. D. MacDonald, told a Peterborough service club last April that the Marmora deposits may contain as many as 100,000,000 tons of iron ore. The Marmorton Company, the Bethlehem Steel subsidiary formed to exploit the deposits and which is now clearing timber and brush from the site, has indicated that the deposits will keep the mine active for 25 or 30 years, supplying the iron-hungry western world.

* * *

The deposits are by no means as grandiose as those now being developed in Labrador, but they will prove an excellent secondary source. If all goes well Marmora cannot escape a mining boom such as it has not known since the time it acquired its characteristic name indicating value in its rocks.

Why Great Western Armed Forces Are Necessary

Statements that it has become necessary to build the armed forces of the nations of the West beyond the limits considered adequate a few months ago have been questioned in at least three nations — Great Britain, the United States and Canada. The loudest critical voices in Great Britain come from the group led by Aneurin Bevan, who resigned from the Cabinet because the accelerated rearmament and recruiting program curtailed social services. Those in the United States come mostly from the Republican Party, while those in Canada—few in number—belong to no particular political grouping. We refer, of course, to questioners who are sincere, and not to those who are merely parrotting Moscow propaganda.

The sincere questioners will find their answer in cold figures. These figures have been gathered from a variety of sources—from military attaches, from information services such as that operated by Kenneth de Courcy (which has a remarkable record of accuracy), from fugitives, from the export statistics of other nations, and undoubtedly from less reputable sources, for we do not for a moment think that Russia is the only nation with secret agents in other countries. Conservative estimates have been made from this information by the experts of Western nations.

These estimates placed Soviet strength at 175 divisions at late as three months ago. Today they put it at 215 divisions, including anti-aircraft and artillery. A similar rate of build-up has been reported from three of the satellite nations—Bulgaria, Roumania and Hungary. In each of these the armed forces have been built up far in excess of the limits set by treaties. Including these satellite troops, there are more than five million men bearing arms under Communist command in Europe alone, according to the estimates of the experts.

Other reports indicate that the Soviet Union is making comparable efforts to accumulate reserves of war materials. Statistics indicate that it now has better than a two-year supply of natural rubber, acquired during the years it was able to import freely from nations able to sup It has also built up a huge synthetic rubber industry to help meet the demand for this vital armaments product. The production of steel has been greatly increased, and a similar increase has occurred in the production of petroleum, coal and iron.

General Dwight Eisenhower is reported to have said that it is "ridiculous" to be overly frightened by Russia's armed strength. He may have said so, but if he did, we are certain he did not intend the statement to be interpreted as meaning that the N.A.T.O. nations should not try to build up their forces to counterbalance Russia's armed strength. That is still the greatest and most pressing task facing the Western democracies, and it is the sudden increase in the armed forces under Communist command that has forced the upward revision of the former limits regarded by the nations of the West as adequate.

Ottawa Girds Itself

Three events of major importance are looming in Ottawa, and staffs are now whisking the ground-work for them. The poshest dish in preparation is of course the visit of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. The most far-flung is the meeting of the North Atlantic Council in September. The delegates will include, it is expected, Mr. Herbert Morrison, the British Foreign Secretary and Mr. Dean Acheson, American Secretary of State. There will also be present other dignitaries, complete with staffs of experts, advisers, secretaries, and so on. It may be the most important international meeting to be held in Ottawa since the Imperial Conference of 1932. The third event of significance, for which staffs are now busy, is the reassembling of Parliament.

These three events will all make headlines (Parliament, for instance, has to grapple with such loud matters as the cost of living and the St. Lawrence seaway development) but behind the news will be all sorts of delicate matters which the uninitiated seldom hear of. Who will get what invitations to dinners and cocktail parties? Who ranks ahead of whom? Should X sit nearer the host than Y or be relegated to the scullery? Who is to get the best suites in the best hotels? Who should be received at Rideau Hall, and who excluded? Whose task will it be to ensure that Ambassador L gets his daily allotment of fresh Yogurt? Does Hostess A know that Madame B never drinks anything but pink gin with a dash of absinthe in it? These matters of protocol, procedure, and private penchants are tweaking the cockles of the Capital now.

Potato Digging Jobs Across The Border

More than 2,500 Canadians are going to dig potatoes in New England next month, most of them from Quebec and the Maritimes. This exodus of farm help for New England potato growers is no new thing, for there has always been a kind of eastern Canadian "harvest excursion" across the border. However, American immigration regulations have made the thing somewhat illegal (sub tubere, rather than sub rosa) because ordinarily Canadians cannot drift across the border and take a job without a permit. The transfer of labour has been on a legal footing since 1941, when a board was set up to approve it. Last week in Montreal businessmen and government officials toted up the need in Maine and the availability of workers in Quebec and New Brunswick, and are facilitating the cross-border work for 2,500 Canadians.

This transfer of field workers is not one-sided. There is a kind of reciprocity in tobacco. During the next six weeks or more Canadian tobacco fields and curing houses will be invaded by hundreds of Americans from Virginia, Kentucky and other points where the weed abounds. These men, their jobs finished farther south, come to Canada with their special skills in nursing tobacco from the field to the factory. Their accents, jeans, affability and easy skill in tobacco curing are the wonder of the districts, as their rates of pay are the envy of the locals.

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Premier Frost Outlaws Niagara Leaps". But not the leaps which take young couples to Niagara.

An Oxford medical scientist, address the British Association meeting in Edinburgh, reported that fat men are apt to do more drinking than lean. Isn't the learned doctor putting the cart before the horse, or the backbone before the paunch? Is it not drinking that is apt to make men fat?

Making A Brand New Town

By LORD BEVERIDGE

(Ed. Note: Lord Beveridge, widely known for his 'Beveridge Report' published in December, 1942, when he was Sir William Beveridge, is the noted social economist and scholar.)

NEWTON AYCLIFFE differs in two respects from other new towns now in process of establishment in Britain. It is, in original design, the smallest of them, 10,000 of population as against 30,000 or 50,000 or more. It is more completely new than any of them, starting in all but uninhabited country.

The new towns ringing London—Basildon, Bracknell, Crawley, Harlow, Hatfield, Hemel Hempstead, Stevenage, Welwyn — as their names indicate, incorporate in all cases existing urban communities. Peterlee, Newton Aycliffe's neighbour in Durham, though it also started with fewer than 100 inhabitants on its designated area, is surrounded immediately by large urban populations; its special function is to replace the close-packed mining villages around it by a miners' town with all the amenities of a town, and with some admixture of other industries.

NEWTON AYCLIFFE has been called into being because during the Second World War some 800 acres of rather poor agricultural land, lying about seven miles north of Darlington, were used to establish an explosives filling factory, in which, at its peak, more than 20,000 men and women were at work, in shifts all round the clock. No housing was provided for these war workers; they were transported daily from and to their homes elsewhere, sometimes over great distances. At the end of the war the need for explosives filling came to an end, but the buildings, roads, drainage, and so forth remained. In place of laboriously clearing the land in order to return it to agriculture, it seemed better to develop the site as a trading estate with factories.

✧ ✧ ✧

THIS has been done; there are now on the Aycliffe Trading Estate some fifty factories, mainly small, employing about 3,500 persons. But this implies providing housing for the workers, since the war-time plan of daily transport could not serve in peace, and the houses must be built near the factories, in empty country. This involves making not a housing estate, but a new town. Newton Aycliffe is designed first and foremost as a town for those working on the Aycliffe Trading Estate, though not, of course, confined to them.

NATURALLY, the first concern of the Development Corporation at Aycliffe was to provide some houses as soon as possible; there is a desperate housing shortage in this part of Durham, as elsewhere. Naturally, also, the Corporation set out to show that new towns could be improvements on old towns. The aim phrased for itself by the Aycliffe Corporation is that of building a town which should be a collection of villages round greens, a town in which many small groups of people, in intimate contact with their neighbours, should be conscious of themselves also as members of a larger community.

Houses are only one requirement of a town. There must be schools, shops, health and welfare centres, places of worship and assembly, places of amusement, sport and refreshment, municipal offices, libraries, and so on. Here, with the heavy cost of building and the restrictions caused by shortage of material and labour, the going for any new town is very hard.

✧ ✧ ✧

NEWTON AYCLIFFE, like other Corporations, made ambitious plans. One such ambition—of building a smokeless town with district heating throughout—has been abandoned for reasons of cost. Another, the provision of a theatre for community drama, is not abandoned, but, with the plans ready, waits solution of the financial problem. Meanwhile, other social needs are being met frugally by making do with adaptations.

THE offices of the Corporation are in the one-storey sheds built originally for experiments with explosives. The doctors have a common surgery in a garage. The vicar of the town, allotted one of the first houses as a key worker, conducts his services in a picturesque, if not perhaps wholly sanitary, farm building. The cowbyre of this farm has been converted very successfully into a community centre, with two shops at one end. Finally, delay, through shortage of steel, in building the first school has led to the conversion of a set of flats into a school for the younger children.

The last of these was a particularly urgent problem, in view of the nature of the incoming population. At the moment there are some 240 houses occupied, with a total population of 900. The occupants consist largely young married people, often in their first homes together; though often, also, they have been married for some years and have been living with parents or in lodgings; as a consequence the town overflows with young children. It is a town of toddlers, or those just past the toddling age, largely rushing about on scooters and tricycles. It is a town with few adolescents, and only three grandmothers.

IT is this feature of newness which makes the growth of the town so fascinating. In the first year or two all the children in the town could and did come to one Christmas party. With 900 inhabitants, this would not be possible now. In a year's time there may be as many as 3,000. Houses are springing up like mushrooms. The scooters are in daily peril from furniture vans.

The novelty of the town presents an attractive problem in naming streets. The Corporation have adopted the plan of commemorating Durham worthies. This article is written from Bede-crescent, looking across the road to Westcott-walk, Elizabeth Barrett-walk, and Havelock-close; Balliol-green is round the corner. The first public house — under State management—is to be the Iron Horse, for from Newton Aycliffe one of the earliest locomotives ran.

THE fact that the inhabitants consist largely of people in their first homes means that their first interest is in their own homes and gardens, rather than as yet in the town where they live. Many of them consciously have their roots elsewhere. They go away at weekends to visit parents and friends. Development of sense of community and of common activities in the town is the next main problem.

The cheering thought is that in spite of the great and growing difficulties of providing adequate physical basis for communal activities, the community itself will grow up in ample space and light and air, with houses set in trees and grass, with, it is hoped, all the advantages of town and country. It will also, it may be hoped, remain a relatively small town.

An American View: CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Canadian Anti-Tank Shell

(WINDSOR STAR)

DURING World War II Canada reached maturity in the realm of science. Our scientists made great contributions to many phases of the war effort, some of these being of decisive value.

That this is being continued is shown by the allied nations having adopted a Canadian-designed anti-tank shell. It is said to be the last word in armour-piercing qualities.

During World War II, allied countries learned a bitter and costly lesson. Throughout most of the war German tanks were better than any the allies possessed. And they were equipped with better guns. If experts now are agreed the new Canadian shell is the best possible for the stopping of enemy tanks, it must be good indeed.

General A. G. L. McNaughton is given credit for the original design, upon which he has been working for ten years. This calls attention to the remarkable versatility of this great Canadian.

He has been head of the National Research Council, army chief of staff at Ottawa, and overseas commander of the Canadian army until early 1944. Since then he was briefly minister of defence, then Canada's permanent delegate to the United Nations, representative on the United Nations atomic energy committee, and a member of Canada's own atomic energy commission. Presently he is chairman of the Canadian section of the International Joint Commission. As scientist, soldier and diplomat he has served Canada well.

Perhaps, however, General McNaughton could best be defined as a military sientist. In World War I, as an artillery officer he developed an effective method of plotting enemy batteries. Ever since he has retained his interest in guns and shells. In his Ottawa home he has a workshop where he putters around with designs and experiments whenever he has time.

His interest in stopping enemy tanks is nothing new. During World War II he returned to Canada on a special mission. One aspect of it was to see if a gun then in production in Canada could be fitted into British tanks. British tanks were being blown to bits on the deserts of North Africa by superior, heavier and more mobile Nazi tanks, equipped with revolving gun turrets, guns of greater firepower and shells of greater armour-piercing qualities.

One military authority of World War II privately suggested General McNaughton was miscast in his role in that conflict. This was no slight on his excellent work in moulding the Canadian army together and making it a fine fighting force. The implication was rather that General McNaughton should have been relieved of his command to give even more important service; put in charge of all arms and equipment of the allied armies. This authority claimed General McNaughton knew more about guns and other arms than any other general, British, United States or Canadian.

This may have been a correct appraisal. Certainly the new anti-tank shell, developed from his original design and accepted as the best by the allied nations, proves how expert he is in that field.

King's Stamps To Be Shown In Canada

(UK Information Office)

His Majesty the King has consented to send sufficient stamps from his own and his father's collection to fill nine frames of "Court of Honour" at the Canadian Centenary Stamp Exhibition to be held at Toronto from September 21-29 They will comprise: six frames, mainly of Canadian and other British North American issues, of which King George was extremely fond; two frames of artists' drawings and die proofs of the stamps of the King's reign from his "Blue" collection (his father's stamps are in "Red" albums); and a frame of collection presented to King George V when Duke of York in 1897 and to the present King when he visited Canada in 1939.

His Majesty's example is followed by the General Post Office, who are sending some of their treasures, and by the Royal Philatelic Society of London, who will show specimens from three of their collections.

More than 70 British collections will be represented by 11 exhibits, needing 304 of 1,100 frames available. Several British stamp dealers have taken stalls. The cooperation of the Treasury has been secured for this big dollar-earning effort.

Off Balance Generally

(Cornwall Standard-Freeholder)

Britain's new .280-calibre rifle is shorter than the .303 she has been using for 50 years, and it is said to throw the British Tommy off balance when he handles it on the parade ground. And it is throwing the entire Atlantic pact organization off balance, too, because it hampers the arms standardization program which means so much in time of warfare.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?... And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David....

And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die. And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.... And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the Lord. (II Sam. 11: 2, 3, 6, 14-17, 26, 27.)

The Things People Will Do!

(Ottawa Journal)

On a Saturday morning eight persons, including an English girl of 17 and, curiously enough, six Egyptians, jumped into the water of the English Channel from the French coast and headed for Dover, on the other side. A little later a Scot, aged 54, started to swim from Dover in the direction of France and hoped to make the round trip back to Dover under his own steam.

Channel-swimming is a curious form of sport, and it is hard to understand the appeal it makes to a fresh crop of aspirants each summer. The Channel has been beaten by swimmers many times, and in both directions, so that the successful swimmer cannot claim a "first." The monetary rewards to be acquired by those six Egyptians, successful or not, are likely to be inconsiderable, we should think.

Anybody with business on the other side of the Channel is taking the most uncomfortable way of crossing it if he decides to swim. He must rent a boat and hire a trainer and, of course, a good publicity man. He sits down on the French coast, does short little two-mile swims for exercise, waits for a fine day with the wind behind him, gets himself covered to the chin with thick grease, and sets out. More often than not he has to be pulled out of the water, and he reaches Dover in his accompanying power boat. Sometimes he gives up at the very entrance to Dover harbor when the tide threatens to sweep him back to France.

Channel swimmers must like Channel swimming.

Oh, Canso!

(Sydney Post-Record)

Hail to the Winnipeg newspaper which printed a picture of a Bras d'Or scene and beneath it the misinformation that Cape Breton Island is "easily accessible to tourists since the building of a bridge across the Strait of Canso."

No fault is to be found with this particular boner. It is revealing of Prairie optimism. They couldn't conceive of anything talked about so long as the Canso Bridge, not being built by now.

FRANCO'S CHANNEL ATTEMPT

Canada Protests Naming Norman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 (AP) —Canada is reported to have protested to the United States against the naming of one of its diplomats at a hearing held by the Senate's Sub-Committee on Internal Security.

The incident occurred last Thursday when Robert Morris, committee counsel, asked Maj.-Gen. Charles A. Willoughby what he knew about E. H. Norman. Morris identified Norman as chief of the Far East Division of Canada's Department of External Affairs.

Morris said Norman had been named at an earlier committee hearing as a man who belonged to a "Communist party student group at Cape Cod (Mass.) in 1939." He stated that Dr. Carl August Wittfogel, a witness, testified "it was obvious" that Norman was a Communist at the time.

(In Ottawa last Thursday, the Department of External Affairs said Norman had been given "a clean bill of health" after a double security check. A department spokesman said that Norman, acting chief of Canada's United Nations delegation, had never been in Cape Cod, a famed Massachusetts vacation spot.)

T. C. Davis Becomes Envoy To Germany

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 — (CP) — Canada's official representative in Bonn becomes a full-fledged ambassador today, marking resumption of direct diplomatic relations between Canada and Germany.

The Department of External Affairs announced that T. C. Davis, KC, of Prince Albert, Sask., is presenting his Letter of Credence as Canadian ambassador to President Theodore Heuss of the Federal Republic of Germany.

The formality changes his status from that of head of the Canadian mission.

World-Famous Pianist Arthur Schnabel Dies

AXENSTEIN, Switzerland, Aug. 16 (CP) — Arthur Schnabel, world-famous pianist, died here Wednesday after a short illness. He was 69.

Schnabel, regarded as an exponent of Beethoven, recorded nearly all of the composer's works.

He was professor of pianoforte at Berlin State Academy from 1925 to 1931. A refugee from Nazi Germany, he made his home in New York.

Two symphonies and a piano concerto, as well as songs and chamber music works were among Schnabel's compositions.

PIERRE CHEVALLIER; 42-year-old French Secretary of State for Technical Training and Mayor of Orleans, was shot to death by his wife, Yvonne, (right), in what police described as a "crime of passion." The shooting is reported to have taken place after he told his wife he wanted a divorce. Mrs. Chevallier is quoted as having told investigating officers that her husband did not pay enough attention to her.

Charges Ottawa Too Arrogant

GASPESIE PARK, Que., Aug. 16 (CP)—George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, said Wednesday the Canadian government at the last parliamentary session "undertook vaster arbitrary powers than has ever been obtained by a democratic government during peace time."

Mr. Drew, speaking at a luncheon gathering here, said the government's "arrogance" increased daily.

"Members of the government do not perhaps believe in dictatorship although they possess dictatorial powers nonetheless," he said, adding that only the people by means of politics can put an end to the present situation.

"During the difficult days of our history the Conservative party gave unity and strength to our country. Today it is ready to play the same role despite menacing dangers as much inside our country as beyond our frontiers."

Shipping Situation Bad For Grain Crop

EDMONTON, Aug. 16—(CP)—W. D. McPherson, Canadian National Railways transportation superintendent at Edmonton, said Wednesday the shipping situation for this year's crop looks "pretty bad."

He and other rail and grain company officials said if the expected bumper crop is harvested —and not damaged by frost or delayed by snow—slow shipping of grain on the Great Lakes will make it impossible for the crop to be moved from farms and country elevators.

Mr. McPherson said many lake ships are hauling priority iron cre for Canada's defence program.

Withhold Recognition

TOKYO, Aug. 16 (AP)—Communist China announced today it will refuse to recognize the Sept. 4 Japanese peace conference at San Francisco, which it charged was called under United States "compulsion."

Approve Increases

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—The Board of Estimate Wednesday approved pay increases for the city's 35,000 to 40,000 teachers, ending an 18-month dispute which included mass protests by students and a court battle.

A couple of junior OLA fixtures on tap this week at Miller Bowl to keep the appetites of gutted-stick followers whetted. Niagara Falls play Lou Vitarelli's local huskies at 8.45 Friday p.m., and Toronto Maitlands arrive for a Saturday eve engagement. If the young Filter Queens can take 'em both, they've top spot clinched. Even if they take but one, they're sure of second place and a crack at the provincial junior "A" title. They won the "B" honors last year, but have set their sights higher this semester—even unto the Dominion crown and Minto Cup. And well they might take it. Schedule ends next Wednesday with Mimico the opposition on Peterborough terrain.

'Idle As A Painted Ship"

Fourth annual four-day Canadian Dinghy Association regatta opened at Clear Lake yesterday and drew a number of followers of the nautical sport. Topnotch fresh-water sailors from Eastern Canada, Vancouver and the States competed, nearly four dozen of 'em, on a calm surface. Jack Carter of Connecticut won the a.m. and afternoon races, three Toronto chaps being runners-up in the morn, as Suzanne Slater, 17-year-old member of the host Stony Lake Yacht Club, finished a close second in the late aft, followed by two Toronto skippers. Two more days of such races and then the feature 13-miler for Viscount Alexander's cup on Saturday to wind it up. First time ever for such a water meet in the Kawarthas.

If Revoy's win, they go against UEW on Saturday night in a twin bill to open city finals. Series must be over Aug. 23, so they may be playing again Monday and Wednesday next week. If Orphans win this eve, they'll go right back against Revoy's later tonight to settle that series. Westclox girls romped to a 20-5 PWSU intermediate win o'er Belleville here last gloaming, having too much on the ball for the Quinte colleens. Return game, or games, in Bella Villa this Saturday. No word yet on other local lasses' tussles.

NHL All-Stars A-Comin'

The senior ball-playing Petes are at Toronto tonight to play Staffords, and they have Turk Broda's NHL all-stars here for an eight p.m. exhibition Friday eve in Riverside. This should be a real attraction as the colorful pro puckists play smart ball, too. It rates a hefty crowd. Locals then play Crofton's a four-pointer here on Saturday evening. The Petes have to get in and pull up their sox—and their socks—as they've been slumping a bit lately. Dropped a 6-0 decision in Oshawa last p.m., first time this season the Merchants have been able to catch up to Lefty Bill Dadson. However, it's still a neck-and-neck race between the Petes and Merchants, since the latter the night before split a double-header with Staffords and didn't win them both, as first announced. It'll be hot going from here in.

When Fergus Thistles thumped the slipping St. Kitts senior OLA-ers 13-7 a few nights ago, the Thistles latched onto the last playoff spot, leaving Toronto West Yorks out of it. The Eastern Canada playoff draw pits the top-place Petes' Timbermen (who have a 6.30 drill tomorrow night) against the Fergus flock, while Mimico will be meeting Brampton, as Hamilton takes on St. Catharines. Eventual winner of these sawoffs goes west after the Dominion title and the Mann Cup. The Petes expect to open their series against Thistles here on Monday, returning there on Wednesday, according to the last word we had on it. However, definite confirmation on the dates should be received later today. We couldn't get anything official at this writing.

Remember When—

Peets Blanked By Oshawa In Senior Ball

OSHAWA, Aug. 16—Oshawa Merchants moved up within a half-game of the league-leading Peterborough Petes in the Viaduct Major League race, when they blanked the Liftlock City nine 6-0 here at the Kinsmen Civic Memorial Stadium last night, in their final meeting of the schedule.

Peterborough can retain their grip on first place by winning their remaining games.

Bill (Lefty) Dadson was the victim last night, first time this season that the Merchants have been able to best the Bowmanville native, and three of the four errors the visitors committed figured prominently in the scoring of the runs that beat Dadson. The homesters had two earned tallies and played errorless ball to give their two hurler airtight support, especially in the clutches.

Each team collected only a half-dozen hits. Bob Carlson gave up five scattered singles in the first six frames. A double-play nipped the visitors' first threat in the opening frame. In the 4th George Brabin singled and went to third on a clean hit by Joe Lowery with only one out but the Petes failed to score and Lowery was thrown out on a beautiful peg by Charlie Walsh when he tried to steal second.

Missed Chance

In the 7th Brabin opened with a walk and Lowery got his second hit of the game with nobody out. Carlson came out of the game at this stage and Tony Delaurentis took over the hurling chore. He forced Maeson to ground out, Andy Milne fanned and Al Menzies flied out to end that threat.

In the 9th with two out Bill Huntley, pinch-hitting for Joe Lowery, clipped a single and pinch-hitter Bill Edger, replacing Maeson, drew a walk but Andy Milne flied out to end the game.

Dadson fanned eight batters and gave up six hits but the homesters made them count. Rowland was safe to open the fifth when Maeson dropped the peg from third. Rowland was forced out when Dick Berning attempted a sacrifice bunt, Rog Wood then singled, Ted Barnes was struck out and Bob Carlson won his own game with a timely single that scored Berning. An error by Joe Stewart, playing at third base for this game, let Wood come home.

In the following frame with one out Rowland pounded out a double, Berning walked and Rog Wood double scoring Rowland. Barnes fanned again but a costly error at shortstop on Carlson's grounder scored both Berning and Wood to make the count 5-0. Oshawa's sixth run came in the 7th when Charlie Walsh drew a walk, third free ticket given up by Dadson, and Walsh romped home when Brabin misjudged Rowland's slashing drive into left that went for a hree-bagger.

Sherry Rowland with a triple and double and Rog Wood with a double and a single were the big hitters for Oshawa.

Tony Delaurentis pitched fine ball for the last three frames in the relief role.

Ruth Memorial Day

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP) Baseball has not forgotten the man who came to its rescue in its darkest days. So today, to keep the memory of the immortal Babe Ruth forever green, the foundation bearing his name is observing a memorial day throughout the United States. Governors of 15 or more states have issued official proclamations designating today as "let's go to bat for the Babe" day. Play in all Major League parks will pause for a moment of silence to honor the greatest home run slugger of them all.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

It will be Jack Freeman and Roy Lewis in the final game of the novice singles competition. Most likely this game will likely be played some night next week. These two boys won their way into the finals last night and, judging by the calibre of bowling that these novices displayed, we can see many new skips in the making. It was too bad that there were not more spectators on hand to see these games. The younger lads did a fine job and are to be congratulated.

The ladies' open trebles tournament gets underway tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock.

The winning skips in the ladies' tourney yesterday afternoon were Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Cameron.

It's men's and ladies' schedules this evening.

Mt. Pleasant Wins

Mount Pleasant beat McGinness 16-4 in the village Tuesday in a fastball fixture. Mitchell threw seven-hit ball as Sabourin gave up 10 bingles, his side booting four to three for the Mounts. Teams:

Legion Victorious

HASTINGS, Aug. 16 (ENS).—Legion swept their series with Juniors in two straight here as they took the game by a decisive 14-5 score, to win the trophy. Crowley pitched heads-up ball, and was given good support, and Bonds did a fine job of receiving. West went the route for Juniors but wasn't up to his usual form, as Legion hit him quite freely.

Elmhirst and Richardson hit long homers, and Richardson was robbed of a second one when Montgomery raced away back to pick it off.

Storey Horse Wins 2nd Heat Of Pacing Stakes

NEW HAMBURG, Aug. 16—Malcolm Hanover, owned by Ken McKinnon, Owen Sound, and driven by Billy Simmonds, thrilled a crowd of close to 10,000 when he won the 16th running of the Canadian Pacing Derby here Wednesday afternoon.

In the first heat, Atomic Bomb was away on top, but shortly after they hit the back stretch lost the lead to Canada Direct. As they entered the stretch Simmonds called on Malcolm Hanover. This speedster responded and came from fourth position to round the field and win by a length. The mile was paced in 2:07 4/5 and the last half in 1:02 3/5.

In the second heat Canada Direct led for three-quarters of the way with Malcolm Hanover sitting in the hole. As they reached the three-quarter pole Simmonds took out and was leading by a length and a half as they hit the wire.

April Way Wins For Storey

The McCall Derby Day pacing stake produced three heat winners. The first heat saw Jiggs McFadden drive Vi Hy, owned by A. Leverington, St. Thomas, to a close win. In the second heat April Way, owned by Mert Storey, Peterborough, and driven by Wilmer Hillock, won in the closest finish of the day. As the three standardbreds hit the wire they were only noses apart. Argyle Grattan, owned and driven by Dunc Campbell, made a great stretch drive to win by half a length in the third heat.

Westclox Takes First One Over Belleville

Westclox girls trimmed Belleville lasses 20-5 at the Bowl here last night to open their best-of-three Provincial Women's Softball Union intermediate "A" playdown series. The next game, or games if necessary, will be staged on the Quinte diamond this Saturday.

While the classy Clockers turned in a fair effort, the visitors showed lack of experience and looked no match for the locals. However, both sides booted five chances, while Westclox smacked out the Quinte twirling for 17 solid blows. M. Armstrong confined the losers to eight bingles. M. Owen stood out defensively for the winners, and M. Hawthorne's big bat accounted for a triple and two singles in five tries, M. Batley getting three singles and M Owen three. J. McIntyre hit a triple and single. B. Young looked best afield for Belleville and hit a homer and single in four tries. Teams:

Indians Subdue Browns In 9-4 Victory; Red Sox Edge Athletics

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

It seems nothing can halt Cleveland Indians' mad dash to the American League pennant. Wednesday the Indians were gunning for their 13th straight victory. Opposing them were the pesky St. Louis Browns who knocked them out of the 1950 flag race about a year ago this time with four straight lickings. On the hill was Ned Garver, who already had whipped them twice without a setback this season. But the Indians overcame all these obstacles — in a mighty seven-run first inning—to batter Garver and blast the Brownies 9-4, win their 13th straight, and protect their 2½-game margin over New York Yankees.

Al Rosen's fourth grand-slammer of the season, which equalled a major league mark, featured the first-inning attack on Garver. It was Rosen's 21st homer.

Crush Washington

The runner-up Yankees took an 8-5 decision in Washington; Boston's third-place Red Sox remained 5½ games out by beating the Athletics 4-2 in Philadelphia, and Chicago's fourth-place White Sox shut out the Tigers in Detroit, 2-0.

New York's second-place Giants took their second straight from Brooklyn, 3-1, to whittle the National League leaders' margin to 10½ games. Boston Braves handed Philadelphia Phillies their fifth straight loss, 9-0. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh also scored shutout wins, the Pirates blanking St. Louis Cards 7-0 and the Reds shading Chicago Cubs 1-0.

The Cleveland victory tied the Indians' longest winning streak set in 1942.

After today's clash with the Browns, the Indians move to Chicago for a five-game series in three days.

Yogi Berra and Joe Collins each slammed out four hits to lead the Yankees' 15-hit attack against five Washington pitchers. Berra drove in four runs with his 18th homer, a triple and two singles. Ed Lopat gained his 16th triumph but needed help from Bob Kuzava in the eighth.

Dom DiMaggio singled twice, scored once and drove in another run to help Mel Parnell register his 13th victory as the Red Sox defeated the A's.

Handcuffs Detroit

Saul Rogovin handcuffed Detroit with five hits as Nelson Fox and Ray Coleman batted in both Chicago runs. Virgil Trucks lost a four-hitter.

Wes Westrum and Willie Mays teamed up offensively and defensively to give the Giants their victory over Brooklyn. Westrum's 16th homer followed a single by Mays in the eighth inning to snap a 1-1 tie and give Jim Hearn his 11th victory and first over the Dodgers as a Giant. A fine running catch and a spectacular throw from centrefielder Mays doubled up Billy Cox at home in the first half of the inning.

Ted Kluszewski's fourth-inning homer gave Cincy's Ken Raffensberger the nod in his pitching duel with the Cubs' Cal McLish. Ralph Kiner blasted his 32nd homer as rookie Bob Friend shut out the Cards with two hits.

Warren Spahn gained his 14th victory and sixth shutout success, blanking the Phils with eight safeties.

Rochester Beats Out Bisons 2-1

By The Associated Press.

Now it's Rochester that holds a seemingly-safe grip on the runner-up spot in the International League.

For the first half of the campaign, it looked as though Buffalo would spend the season chasing Montreal Royals. But the Bisons stumbled somewhere along the line and today found themselves five games behind the Red Wings, who still are 12½ in arrears of the Royals.

The Red Wings won their ninth straight when they overcame the Bisons 2-1 in 11 innings. Rochester sewed it up with two out in the final frame when Steve Bilko singled Jay Van Noy home. Van Noy had walked and gone to second on Don Richmond's single.

Jack Faszholz scattered 10 hits for the triumps. Lynn Lovenguth battled him down to the wire and suffered the defeat.

Five Ottawa Errors

The Royals had no trouble whipping the Ottawa Giants 6-1, aided by five Ottawa errors. Mal Mallette fanned seven in posting his eighth triumph. Dick Libby was charged with the defeat, although he lasted only four innings. Syracuse Chiefs wiped out a 5-0 deficit to defeat Baltimore Orioles 9-6. The losers built up a lead on homers by Bill Glynn and Howie Moss, but Loren Babe and Hank Workman hit round-trippers for the Chiefs. They clinched the verdict in the seventh with three hits and four walks.

Reliever Charlie Eisenman, who took over for Jack Griffore in the second, was credited with the triumph while Ken Trinkle, second of four Baltimore hurlers took the loss.

A scheduled doubleheader between Springfield and Toronto was rained out.

Louis Awarded Decision In Dull Fight

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE, Aug. 16 (AP)—"I'll never fight light again," Joe Louis vowed today.

Whether it be Rocky Marciano or Ezzard Charles next, the Brown Bomber will come in as close as he can get to 208 pounds.

He blamed Wednesday night's weight of 203, lowest for him in 10 years, for a disappointing though unanimous 10-round victory over Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland.

"I didn't improve none tonight," he said disgustedly.

He was downhearted mostly at his failure to deck Bivins in the last round when he hit the 180-pounder with everything he had. Bivins was still hanging on at the end and Louis' deadpan for once showed disbelief — or perhaps realization the deadliness has gone with his 37 years.

The last-minute flurry was the most savage of the fight which otherwise followed a dull pattern. Louis jabbed and jabbed and Bivins ran and ran.

Couldn't Follow Through

The crowd of 18,215 which paid $75,217 pleaded time and again "Joe, open him up." But Louis was able to get only half a dozen telling blows from that once-feared right and never could he follow through.

It was the eighth straight triumph for Louis since he decided to get serious about a comeback after being laced by Charles last September. The referee called it seven and three after taking the 10th round from Louis for hitting low and the two judges agreed it was 6-3 with one even.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Jack Kent Cooke, 38-year-old president of Toronto Maple Leafs of the International Baseball League, said Wednesday that he wants to see more Canadians in baseball. He said the Leafs will arrange working agreements with baseball teams in Ontario next year to achieve this end.

Although he named no teams, he said some of them would be in the seven-club Intercounty League that plays in southwestern Ontario. It is a semi-professional league.

He said that St. Louis Browns of the American League will not decide until Sept. 15 whether they will renew their option with Toronto as a farm club, adding that Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League "are more than anxious" to pick up the option should St. Louis drop it.

A dead heat for first place in the third race and the disqualification of the winner of the fifth highlighted the harness racing program at Toronto's Thorncliffe raceway Wednesday.

Lord Mike, owned by Johnny Morrissey and driven by Lloyd Turvey, finished first in the fifth race but was disqualified right out of the money. He moved around the field on the final turn but bumped Mildred Richard. The stewards gave first place to Ruby Rex with Mildred Richard second and Royal Kantara third.

Calumet Farm's A Gleam Wednesday triumphed over previously undefeated Princess Lygia in the $57,755 Princess Pat Stakes at Chicago's Washington Park. Princess Lygia finished second with Bella Figura third. Princess Lygia, purchased Wednesday by Louis B. Mayer, Hollywood movie producer, for $100,000 finished six lengths back of A Gleam.

Evidence that football in Canada is a big money game is provided by Bob Moran of the Dominion champion Toronto Argonauts. Argos Moran said, will be insured for $1,000,000 when they take off Friday morning on a trip by air to Winnipeg and Calgary for exhibition games with western teams.

Spennib, second to Mainliner in the Hambletonian, reversed the procedure Wednesday by winning the $17,138 eview Futurity three-year-old trot in grand circuit trotting at Springfield, Ill.

Ninety-four twosomes have been entered in Friday's parent-and-child championship tournament of the Ontario Golf Association at Toronto. Due to the size of the record field, no post entries will be accepted.

Sugar Jim Henry Badly Burned

KENORA, Aug. 16 (CP). — Sugar Jim Henry, goalie of Indianapolis Capitals of the American Hockey League is in hospital here suffering from serious burns. His doctor said Wednesday he is "doing all right."

Henry, former New York Ranger netminder, was badly burned Monday when enveloped in flames from an exploded gasoline can. He suffered burns to the hands, arms and abdomen and lesser burns to the face and neck.

The accident happened at the "Hockey Haven" summer resort 11 miles south of this northwestern Ontario town, which Henry and Ranger goalie Charlie Rayner operate.

The can of gasoline ignited while he was pouring it into an outboard motor inside a gasoline storage place.

Henry started to carry the blazing can outside away from other loaded drums when he stumbled. His clothes caught fire.

He rolled over and over to put out the flames, saving himself and the store house.

Toronto Expert Contender For CRA Prize

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGES, South March, Ont., Aug. 16 (CP) —A 46-year-old Toronto and Ottawa rifle expert Wednesday put himself in the running for the Governor-General's Prize at the 83rd annual Dominion of Canada Rifle Association meet.

Maj. Desmond Burke, a shooting member of the Canadan Bisley team nine times and a qualifier on seven other occasions, won the shootoff to win the silver medal in the Macdonald Match.

He tied with FO. T. W. Gregory of Moncton, NB and Ottawa earlier in the day with a score of 124—one off the possible 125—from 300 and 600 yards. Ten rounds were fired from the 300-yard range and 15 rounds from the 600-yard range.

A hot sun and only a light breeze beat down on these rolling ranges as the pair went to the mound for the regulation five-round shoot-off. It was from 600 yards.

FO. Gregory fired an inner four on his first shot and that was all Maj. Burke needed, the latter plunking five shots into the bullseye compared wtih the Maritimer's four.

Set Record

The 124 score posted by Maj. Burke and FO. Gregory in the match proper was a record, the previous high being a 123.

An 18-year-old cadet, Ronald Kay of Hamilton, showed veteran marksmen that he was a man to be reckoned with when it comes to long shots.

The cadet fired a surprising possible 50 in the Life Members Match from 1,000 yards to win the DSRA souvenir.

Sgt. G. G. MacLennan of Alexandria, PEI, once a shooting member of the Canadian Bisley team, carded a 49 score to place second. Master Sgt. R. Gagne of Quebec City also posted a 49 but was rated third because of the poorer placing of the bullseyes.

Athletics' Manager Pans Veeck's Plan

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16 (AP) —General manager Arthur Ehlers of the Philadelphia Athletics on Wednesday bitterly denounced owner Bill Veeck of the St. Louis Browns for his plan to use grandstand managers and coaches in the Browns'-Athletics game Aug. 24.

Veeck had announced that St. Louis fans will vote on managers and coaches who will replace skipper Zach Taylor and his staff in the game at St. Louis next week. The grandstand personnel would handle every phase of the field manoeuvres of the Browns.

Informed of Veeck's promotion scheme, Ehlers angrily denounced it as making a joke out of the game.

"The fans are paying to see us perform," said Ehlers. "They are entitled to our best efforts and should not be subjected to antics such as some barnstorming team puts on for laughs."

Korean Aspirations Present Confusing Picture

By BILL BOSS

SEOUL, Korea, Aug 16—(CP)—What do the Koreans really think of the 38th parallel, or a military line not far from it, as the limit to United Nations military operations?

It's a baffler.

More than anywhere in the West, it is important here not only to see and to ask questions, but to ask lots of them, and the same questions of lots of people.

They would seem to add up to a confused picture of national aspirations, no coherent voice on their realization and meanwhile compliance with government-ordered demonstrations without realization of their impact abroad.

Of late there have been several demonstrations in Seoul, where as many as 25,000 citizens, in columns of threes, have wound their way from a central park, past the Capitol building and by the foreign correspondents' billets.

Strange Contradiction

They carry banners, placards, streamers strung between two poles and spanning the street, and they proclaim in English and Korean characters:

"Advance Beyond The 38th"
"Unify Korea"
"The Yalu Is Our Border"

And, provokingly, "Good Luck Admiral Joy."

Strange contradiction. In other words: "We want the war to go on," and "may your efforts to stop it now succeed."

It is a silent filing-past. No shouts or cheers. Not even muffled chatter among them. An interminable straggly white column, the only sound the sandals' shuffle on the asphalt.

Only occasionally is there a listless, almost-obedient, chorus as a section repeats slogans rattled off a chart by a cheer-leader marching alongside.

Then the wooden masks again.

It's all suspicious.

Every demonstrator on parade is ordered out by the government.

Personal opinions don't matter. The government lays on a demonstration for three o'clock this afternoon and the streets detailed fall in as ordered.

Can't Refuse

"Citizens dare not refuse," said one parader who was interviewed. "They might once, or even twice, but a third time would be denounced 'Anti-Government' and therefore 'Pro-Communist.'"

It is discovered that the government notwithstanding, the South Koreans have had quite enough of war. The feeling also is shared by army officers and other ranks, who said: "We want the war to stop. Train us and we'll hold them wherever the frontier is."

On one thing all Koreans are agreed—and that applies to North as well as South—they want their country reunited.

A synthesis of the interviews would be:

"Koreans would be happy to see hostilities end with adequate safeguards for South Korea's territorial integrity and provision for political talks later on unification."

It would seem safe to say that any "Yalu or Bust" proclivities shown by the government are not popularly supported — despite Seoul's public protestations to the contrary.

Then wake up your liver bile . . . jump out of bed rarin' to go

Life not worth living? It may be the liver! It's a fact! That's when you need mild, gentle Carters Little Liver Pills. Planes Forced Down Pilots Land Safely

BRANTFORD, Aug. 16—(CP)—Two unidentified Toronto pilots landed their small planes safely in unlighted fields Wednesday night after one was forced down by engine trouble and the second by weather conditions.

Each of the planes carried one passenger. None of the occupants was hurt. The planes suffered slight damage.

Both planes landed a few miles from the city on flights from Toronto to Brantford.

Labor Discord In States Not Affect Canadian Unions

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP).—A threatened split in AFL-CIO co-operation in the United States will not endanger new co-ordination measures between Canada's major labor bodies, union leaders agreed today.

Spokesmen said the Canadian policies, going further than ever in giving labor a common voice on joint problems, are founded on conditions in this country and are unlikely to be affected by any action in the United States.

The US move was a decision of the American Federation of Labor's executive council, made known today, to recommend dissolution of the year-old united labor policy committee through which it and the rival Congress of Industrial Organization have worked on problems of common interest.

The AFL is the affiliate of the 500,000-member Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, while the CIO has for its Canadian affiliate the 350,000-member Canadian Congress of Labor. Both Canadian bodies are autonomous.

Early this year, the two big Canadian bodies decided to deal with their problems by setting up a joint consultative committee. Joining them in that body were the 90,000-member Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor and the international railway brotherhoods, which have about 40,000 members in Canada. That linked up unions with roughly 1,000,000 members — practically all the country's organized labor.

Main concern of the committee up to now has been the relationship of rising living costs to wages and it has been campaigning for federal price controls.

Today, Percy Bengough, president of the TLC, said that setup would not be affected by the developing AFL-CIO rift.

"If any such decision were to be made here," he said, "it would be based on Canadian conditions. So far, we're doing all right."

While the recent Montreal AFL meeting at which the dissolution action was taken also saw the reconstitution of a dormant AFL-TLC co-ordination committee, Bengough said that would not lead the TLC to follow the American deferation's lead. He said the AFL had not made any suggestion to the congress.

"Nothing that could happen in the United States would necessarily have any effect in Canada," Mr. Dowd said.

RCAF Recruits 19 Doctors In England

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP)—The RCAF, faced with a shortage of doctors, has gone overseas to make up the deficiency.

Nineteen young Britons, mainly Scots and all qualified medical men, have been recruited and given the rank of Flight Lieutenant and three-year commissions. A lot more want to come. Sixteen of the 19 left air headquarters Wednesday to report to various air commands prior to taking a six-weeks course at Toronto's Institute of Aviation Medicine starting Sept. 10. The other three stayed here for their few weeks indoctrination.

Recruiting of the doctors arose out of a visit to the United Kingdom by Wing Cmdr. A. G. (Sandy) Watson, senior medical officer at RCAF headquarters. He was over there on other business but the word passed around among his medical friends that the RCAF could use some doctors.

Before long, a husky list of young doctors was interested in coming to Canada. There were enough that Wing Cmdr. Watson was able to take his pick, basing his choice on the men after interviewing them and scanning their records at university and in hospitals.

The average one has had experience as an interne while some have been practicing briefly. Only two of them are married.

Return Flight To Moon Seen Possible By 2000

LONDON, Aug. 16 (Reuters).—The British Interplanetary Society predicted Wednesday that human beings will make the first piloted return flight to the moon before the end of the century.

Space-flight scientists will discuss the project at the second international congress on astronautics (navigation to the stars) in London from Sept. 3-8.

Main theme of the conference will be building an "earth satellite vehicle"—a plan seriously considered by Nazi Germany during the Second World War, and now planned by the United States.

A statement said Wednesday such a vehicle could circle the earth above the atmosphere, held in place by the earth's gravitational force. Once it had attained the required speed—about 18,000 miles an hour a few hundred miles up—no further power would be required. It would be in a similar position in relation to the earth as the moon.

The society said it believes this "first great milestone" is possible within 10 years.

Sea Scout Leaders Taking Course On Katchewanooka

A tent colony was erected early this week on Newson's Point, Lake Katchewanooka, by 15 of Canada's leading Sea Scout leaders. The occasion is the first Canadian Woodbadge training course of Sea Scout leaders.

The eight-day course has three purposes: first, to allow Sea Scout leaders to qualify for the woodbadge which requires a high standard in all phases of scouting, ashore and afloat; second, to obtain experience in sea scouting; and third, to obtain enough experience to encourage sea scouting in other districts.

For instance a former Toronto sea scout, Don Milne, now of Saskatoon, is present for this course because he covers the northern part of Saskatchewan for the provincial staff. He hopes through the experiences obtained to develop sea scouting in the waterways of the western province.

Conducts Course

A veteran with years of naval experience, Les Punchard, is conducting the course. He was master of the Royal Research ship. "Discovery", of Capt. Robert Scott's South Pole fame, a training ship in England. Following war service he was appointed executive commissioner at Scout headquarters in Ottawa.

Mr. Punchard is in charge of activities and pursuits of scouting ashore and afloat. He is assisted by Pat Evans, dominion field commissioner, who will be quartermaster for the course, aiding in the instruction periods especially on cooking on land and sea.

John MacGregor, field commissioner in Quebec, is assisting in the practical side with rope work.

Two Patrols

For the work the men were divided into two patrols: in the first is Ken Jakins, Lakefield, Don Milne, Saskatoon, Bob Hedges, Galt, Jeff Wood, Etobicoke, Bob Coke, Etobicoke, Len Johnson, executive commissioner of public relations, Doug McConney, Ontario provincial headquarters, and Dean Wilkes, Oakville; in the second, Gord Williams, executive commissioner, Hamilton, John Dunbar, vice-president of the Hamilton Boy Scout Association, Bill Long, Oakville, Stan Metcalfe, Ottawa, George Beers, Canadian headquarters staff, Gerry Purkis, Canadian headquarters staff and Ted Butterworth, Oakville.

The course consists of eight days of intensive demonstrations on campcraft, knots, manning of boats, canvas work, navigation, chart work and other sea scouting and ordinary scouting phases.

For the course various organizations have assisted the scouts such as the Lakefield Preparatory School (Grove) who loaned two cutters, 12 canoes and four dinghies and the Peterborough Sea Cadet Corps who loaned a whaler.

Mother Requests Board Pay For Broken Tooth

LAKEFIELD, Aug. 16 (ENS)—Charles Hunter was chairman for the August meeting of the public school board Monday evening.

Correspondence read by the secretary Miss Grace Yonge included a letter from A. Stewart asking to demonstrate a vacuum cleaner; a letter from Mrs. W. C. Grant, secretary of the Home and School Association asking permission to hold the Home and School meeting in the school again next term; and a letter from Mrs. Alen Rosborough asking the board to pay $75 dental bill for a tooth her daughter had broken at school when another child pushed her face into the drinking fountain.

It was decided to have Archie Stewart demonstrate a vacuum cleaner as soon as the carpenter is finished at the school.

Permission was granted the Home and School to hold their meetings in the school as formerly, and the Rosborough case was referred to the insurance company.

Principal E. G. Sloan reported there will be 35 beginners in September with a total enrolment of 284 pupils.

The board then inspected the downstairs class room, lunch room, furnace room and toilets which have all been painted, for the first time in years, and noted the improvement.

After some discussion trustee Stanley Richardson was asked to get estimates on installing two radiators in the downstairs class room used by high school, but which has never had any direct heat. This will be discussed further at the September meeting.

Present at the meeting were trustees Mrs. M. Wilford, Mrs. R. Doubt, Dr. Reg Campbell, Stanley Richardson, Charles Hunter, Principal E. G. Sloan, and secretary-treasurer Miss Grace Yonge.

Six Casualties From Realism In War Picture

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 16 (AP)—Se what I mean about Hollywood going all-out for realism? Here's a war picture with more casualties than a college football game.

The picture now is called "Fixed Bayonets!" (Formerly "Old Soldiers Never Die.") Here is the casualty list:

Gene Evans, injured arms; Bill Hickman, broken leg; James Magill, broken wrist; Kaine Shew, bayonet wound in foot; Michael O'Shea, smashed knee; Wyott Ordung, knocked unconscious in a shell blast.

The cause of all this mayhem in Sam Fuller, writer and director of the picture. An army veteran himself, he wanted his actors to feel their roles. They did, and will for months. Not even Fuller escaped injury; he wrenched the cartilage in his right foot in a fall. There is no evidence that an actor pushed him.

It is bruited about on the "Fixed Bayonets!" set that Director Fuller might even possess more ham than the actors. I don't know how anyone could get that idea, except perhaps from his outfit, which includes a general's cap, a Zanuck-size cigar, combat boots, a cane, dark glasses and a belt holster with two guns which he fires for various dramatic effects.

Real Realism

At any rate, Fuller is getting his realism. It even amazes Larry Chapman, special effects man who sets off the explosions for the movie scenes.

"I've never set off explosions closer to the actors than on this picture," said Chapman. "Actually, there's not much danger to the actors, although they may think so."

During one scene I watched, Director Fuller was shooting off his pistols to simulate enemy fire. At the end of the scene, a jokester dropped some stuffed ducks from the rafters.

Pioneer's Hunch Assures Railway Town's Growth

CAPREOL, Ont. — (CP) — Shrewd foresight possibly backed by hints dropped over a few hot toddies assured the economic prosperity of this Northern Ontario community for generations to come.

Capreol is a divisional point on the Canadian National Railways, about 16 miles northeast of Sudbury. Its financial security is based on the determination of a man who 40 years ago gave 100 acres to the Canadian Northern Railway in return for an agreement that its big railway shops would never be moved to another community.

The bargain was made in 1911 when Capreol was a hamlet in the woods. In nearby Hanmer lived Frank Dennie, to whose hotel came surveyors working on selection of a site for the Canadian Northern's workshops. At night they would take a few drinks with Dennie and talk over the day's work.

So it was not too surprising that when the railway company proposed construction of their shops they found the chosen site was owned by the hotel keeper.

"Sir Donald Mann, then head of the Canadian Northern, was a tough man to deal with," Dennie recalls. "I had acquired 300 acres of land where they planned to build the townsite and divisional point."

Sir Donald summoned him to Toronto where he demanded that Dennie sell the land. Dennie refused. Finally the railway builder agreed to accept the hotelkeeper's terms: "I told him that I would give him the 100 acres he wanted if he would sign a covenant that the shops would never be removed from Capreol."

Colorful Career

Dennie held on to about 200 acres which he subdivided. He still has some small holdings in the town he founded 40 years ago.

But the town-building was only one episode in a colorful career Born in Lanark village near Ottawa he went to work at the age of nine. As he grew older he worked as a logger and then was bitten with the prospector's bug.

He had worked as a porter, bartender and manager of the old Montreal House Hotel in Sudbury before deciding in 1910 to open his hotel at Hanmer. Along the way he had acquired a reputation as a rough and tumble fighter during sporadic expeditions in search of precious minerals.

The move to Hanmer was prompted by study of the rail routes when the old Canadian Northern was building in the territory, long before its amalgamation with the Canadian National Railways. And the expansion of Capreol was a direct result.

His Holiday Trip Slow In Starting

KELVINGTON, Sask. (CP) — Russell Patrick and his family had a little trouble getting started on their summer holidays.

First of all Patrick parked the car outside a garage to get some last-minute requirements. While he was inside, the car rolled backwards through the plate glass window of a store.

Somewhat unnerved, they started again for Calgary. From Quill Lake, 30 miles from here, Patrick telephoned back to say if anyone else was going to Calgary they might bring along the fishing tackle he had forgotten.

He was 60 miles away when another phone call came. "I forgot my wallet too," he said.

Canadian Soldiers Unhappy At Way Koreans Treated

By BILL BOSS

WITH THE CANADIANS IN KOREA, Aug. 16. (CP)—The troops are having a lot of "second thoughts" these days. And there's a lesson for the army in them. The new note stems from what might be called the "Chorwon wallop." The Canadians cleared all Koreans — Chorwon is in North Korea— from the rubbled city last June and a broad area extending to points 10 to 12 miles north.

There was uneasiness among some of them during the actual operation. There has been a lot of soul-searching since. And not one Canadian soldier uneasy over the way the Koreans were handled at the front has in his worst imaginings a picture of the conditions to which he was consigning them in the south.

Even so, compassion is replacing pity and the soldier's thoughts are in terms of help—especially the fighting soldier's.

The Canadian who three months ago would have snarled "cotta" or "tara" (scram, go away) at grubby little children now feels around for some means of kindness—a candy, a piece of bread.

One unit, which still doesn't allow children in its camp area, has built for them at Uijongbu a complete playground. The 2nd battalion Royal 22nd Regiment has organized its "khaki charities."

Want To Do Something

Men who came to Korea as 20th century soldiers of fortune are finding that they stand for something and that they do want to do something. They are finding in Korea the purpose and principles they were prematurely credited with having before they left Canada.

That means that they will leave Korea as better men and better Canadians than they came.

Is there in all of this a lesson for the army?

Yes. Indoctrination. At school they used to call it "geography," lessons about foreign countries and their customs, and "civics," the study of the western conception of relations between individual and state.

Indoctrination would have avoided the superiority complexes into which UN troops have fallen here. The Korean people have been so humiliated by the universal contemptuous attitude, the sneering arrogance that springs from treating humans like cattle, that experienced observers fear they have irretrievably alienated them.

Said one foreign correspondent with years abroad for a United States newspaper: "It doesn't matter now who wins the war. Our troops have lost us the Koreans."

Add to the abstract fact of attitude the concrete facts of murders, rapes, lootings and burnings by individual soldiers, and the wanton battlefield destruction of whole communities by field commanders, and the impact of the United Nations on Korea has been impressive but not happy.

Fortunately for Canada the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry had six weeks in which to find its feet before getting down to fighting. It was a "grass-roots" indoctrination course at the same time.

Inasfar as they could the Patricias watched and marvelled and by the time they moved into the line they had an appreciation of Koreans that at least had changed from the one they'd formed on arrival at Pusan.

The story of the Patricias' conduct in the line is, in the main, one of courtesy, kindness, consideration, even protection of the Koreans from other troops, and help when they could.

The rest of the brigade slowly is coming into line.

INCURABLY ILL — Sister Elizabeth Kenny, discoverer of a famous method of treating polio, says she is incurably ill and has "but little time left in this world." Soon to be 65, she plans to leave her Queensland, Australia, home to attend the international polio conference at Copenhagen, after a visit to the US. A niece said Sister Kenny has Parkinson's disease, a form of paralysis.

Gives Up Trip

HAGUE, Sask., Aug. 16 (CP)—The Rev. Jacob Guenther, leader of 62 Mennonites who left here last May in an ill-fated attempt to find new homes in the Honduras, returned here Tuesday with his wife and five children. The Mennonites, travelling by motor caravan, were turned back by Mexican authorities. They were plagued by illness among the children.

$44 MILLION BRIDGE REPLACES FERRY—Opening on Thursday, this lengthy bridge across the Delaware River between New Jersey and Delaware is the sixth longest span in the world. Costing $44 million, it ends one of the worst ferry bottlenecks in the east's main north-south traffic routes.

Russia Wants Chinese Purge

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 (AP)—The Voice of America said Wednesday that Vladimir Rogov, Peiping chief of the Soviet news agency Tass, recently prepared a secret report to Moscow making a "blistering attack" on the Chinese Red leader Mao Tse-tung and his cabinet, and recommending "an all-out purge."

The State Department broadcast script added that the Chinese Communist leaders were accused of "directly, actively and deliberately sabotaging Soviet interests in the Korean war."

The same report to Moscow, the Voice said, told of widespread deviation from the Kremlin line among Chinese Communist leaders, and of mutterings from the people that China is being weakened intentionally in Russia's war.

Ask County To Issue Debentures

Claim $35,000 Saving On The Building Of Two High Schools

A saving of about $35,000 is anticipated if Peterborough county, rather than Lakefield or Norwood issues debentures for the construction of high schools.

This was the figure named today at a special session of the county council called to decide whether or not the county should accept the responsibility of being financial agent.

Speaking for Norwood, Reeve Rork Ferguson said: "When we saw the deputy minister of education he told us that we would get a better rate if the county issued the debentures (about $20,000 saving on a $390,000 issue)."

Reeve Ferguson said the high school which will serve municipalities in the Norwood high school area is now almost completed and will soon be ready for use.

"Something must be done right away," he said.

Lakefield Asking Tenders

Tenders are still being called for in Lakefield for the construction of the school in that high school area. Both of the schools are expected to cost about the same. Norwood has had permission of the Municipal Board to issue debentures for $390,000, and Reeve Ferguson hopes that this cost can be scaled down some.

Reeve W. E. Griffith, Belmont-Methuen township, suggested that the total cost for the two schools would be $800,000 or more.

If Norwood issues the debentures the present offer of bond companies is $98 for each $100 of debentures, with interest rate of 4¾ per cent, Reeve Ferguson quoted. And if the county issues them the return will be par with 4½ per cent interest.

In addition, he said, bond companies will only guarantee the first $100,000 of the Norwood debentures with an option on the remaining $200,000. But if the county issues them the full $390,000 will be guaranteed.

"In view of this saving we thought the other municipalities should be informed," said Reeve Ferguson, "and that's why the special meeting was called for today."

In effect, the county would be the financial agent for the two municipalities. It would issue the debentures in its own name and receive a more favorable rate because of its greater borrowing power. Then it would bill the individual municipalities for the money, year by year.

Reeve James Gifford, Ennismore township, said he agreed with the principal of the county assisting because the individual municipalities are in no financial position to borrow that amount of money. But he said the ratepayers of the county in general must be protected.

If the county assumes financial liability for the $800,000 or so of debentures then the county should receive the department of education subsidy direct; not through the high school area board.

Department Pays 75 Per Cent

On the $390,000 proposed debenture for Norwood the department would pay 75 per cent on $360,000, or a total of $270,000 plus carrying charges. The municipalities in the high school area would eventually have to pay the other 25 per cent plus the balance of $30,000—a total of $120,000.

Difficulties in municipal financing arose after the federal government imposed credit restrictions as one means of beating inflation. A heavy blow to municipalities was that banks are no longer permitted to purchase debentures.

Four New Cases Are Added To Polio List

Four diagnosed poliomyelitis cases—two women and two children—were reported by Board of Health officials today. Peterborough and district's total number of cases is now 20.

One of the women, 29-year-old Mrs. Edward O'Brien, 571 Rose Ave., was rushed to Riverdale Isolation Hospital, Toronto, from St. Joseph's Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Toronto hospital officials reported her condition as "favorable" this morning. The report also stated that Mrs. O'Brien is suffering from a "mild type" of polio.

The other three diagnosed cases are in the Civic Hospital. One is a 29-year-old woman; one an eight-year-old girl and the third, a five-year-old boy.

There is also one suspect case under observation.

This brings the totals to six women, three men, and 11 children.

Game Warden Is At School So Boys Attempt To Play

BANCROFT, Aug. 16. (ENS)—For shooting a deer out of season, four men of Wicklow township, north Hastings, were each fined $50 and costs by Magistrate G. L. Floyd of Northbrook in police court here on Wednesday afternoon. They were Emil and Harold Lemke, Victor Nosske and Robert Lentz of Maple Leaf, Wicklow.

Charges were laid by Conservation and Game Officer Robert Davidson of Tweed, and Game Conservation Inspector R. G. Sheppard whose territory is the Quinte District.

Presumably, the Wicklow quartette concluded that they could take a chance on violating the game law in the absence of Game Conservation Officer Percy Thompson of Bancroft.

Mr. Thompson is attending the summer game conservation course of the Ontario Fish and Game Department at Dorset. It was generally known throughout the district that Officer Thompson was absent from his jurisdiction.

Ordinary psychology prompted Officers Sheppard and Davidson to look in on the Thompson territory. They came upon the four men from Wicklow with a lean doe they had shot at night, by what the woodsmen call the use of jacklights.

It was said the deer was probably mothering two fawns. The carcass was confiscated. As a meat substitute for beef it cost the Wicklow fellows around $2.75 to $3.00 a pound.

ON ONE HOOKUP

Lindsay has hooked up its police cruiser and fire truck on the same two-way radio system. Installation, authorized by the council some months ago, was effected this week.

Ways Suggested Saving $25,000

Approval of suggestions put forth by the architect J. B. Parkin and the contractor J. Hubert Eastwood for reducing the contract of the new collegiate institute by $25,000 was given by the accommodation committee of the Board on Wednesday night. The report will now go to the Board at a special meeting tonight for final approval before a contract can be signed with the contractor.

The cuts are not in anyway curtailing the size of the building, accommodation or standard of the building as already designed. Some 20 suggestions in all have been approved with none of them running into a large amount. Some are substitutions, while others are omissions which at some future date may be easily added to the school.

Fred Storey Wins Gladiolus Prize

Fred Storey, Peterborough, won the prize for the best spike in the second day of the Peterborough and District Gladiolus show held at the Market Hall Tuesday and Wednesday.

The prize was won with "Frontier"—one of the originations of George Clarke, Wallace's Point.

Wednesday night's door prize of $35.00 was won by Stan Exell, Leahy's Lane.

Peterborough and district gladiolus society officials estimated attendance at the show for the two days as approximately 300.

HELPED BY CITY

G. A. Gillespie reported to the Exhibition directors Wednesday night that Street Commissioner Jim Burgess with ten men and a truck did a real day's work "for us." They were helping all over the ground. Directors were grateful at this further evidence of co-operation from the city. It was probably no obstacle to the arrangement that the secretary-manager's son is chairman of the board of works. County council recently helped the "Ex" board and also Otonabee township council. Part of that work was on the new road through the park.

Summer Art Students Busy At School By Stony Lake

By COLLETTE FERGUSON

The boat eased between two islands, around a point and drifted to shore. About 100 yards away children could be seen working in a boathouse. As the boat neared the wharf a sign came into view — "Stella Grier's Summer Studio." Less than a five minute boat ride from Kawartha Park post office on Stony Lake, the Kawarthas offer the interested summer vacationer an art colony and school.

The boat had but docked when Stella Grier, daughter of the famed portrait painter, Sir Wyly Grier, RCA, appeared. Her typical tourist attire of slacks, shirt-blouse and cardigan sweater was distinguished by the professional-looking horn-rimmed glasses and graying hair.

After introductions had been made she led up the path which ran over rock, through trees and dense underbrush to the "main building."

Busy Painters

Inside, one man and two women were seated before canvasses. Brushes, paints and other pieces of the painter's paraphernalia were nearby. The subject was a still life study before them. They stopped painting only long enough for the press photographer to snap a picture.

From there more rocks were climbed as the winding trail led to the boathouse — the headquarters for the children's school. Five little girls were interrupted working furiously and enthusiastically at crayon portraits.

Then back to the main building to sit and talk.

"You'll find me a very difficult person to interview," was one of the first remarks Stella Grier made. She uses her maiden name Grier in professional life. Her married name is Mrs. Albert Gould.

Future Plans

But as the conversation became immersed in the school's activities, the art students and future plans for expansion, she relaxed and told the story of the art school.

"My father owned this property on MacKenzie Bay for more than 40 years. I have been coming up to thiss pot regularly for a long time. My husband and I like it so much that we decided to establish an art school here this summer."

These and other details and plans about the school soon unfolded as questions were asked.

Buildings total six — the main building, boathouse and four sleeping cabins, with accommodation for seven students.

School Ends Soon

The school itself opened July 1 and will continue until the end of August. In addition to adults Mrs. Gould holds classes for children between the ages of six and 14.

"I'm a portrait painter myself, but the surroundings here inspire us to do quite a few landscapes." With this remark the painter pointed to landscape canvasses hung in the room. "We also have classes in figure and still life painting.

"For the younger children I teach crafts and make papier maches — paper masks formed over clay models and painted. Today we were out gathering moss and tree seedlings for the children to make miniature Japanese gardens. However, the older children are able to manage oils and water colors. The children's classes are held Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Sketch Class

"In addition to regular instruction we also have a Thursday evening sketch class, for anyone in the district who is interested. During these we do charcoal sketches by lamplight.

At this point the conversation turned to adult students themselves. Mrs. Gould explained that professional people, both men and women, and housewives were interested in painting. As well as the students who were accommodated right at the school, many of the tourists in the district came themselves or sent their children for instruction.

"We plan to build and provide more accommodation for serious art students," were her parting remarks.

Those Busy Bees

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 16—(ENS)—A Healey Falls woman, Mrs. J. C. Ballentyne, has what she considers a rarity in the field of agriculture. Growing at her cottage at Healey Falls is a potato plant bearing both potatoes below the ground, and tomatoes above the ground. A report of a similar case in the Niagara Falls area has caused agricultural men to investigate this strange occurrence, and experts are of the opinion that cross-pollenization of the plant by bees may have produced the rarity.

Driver Fined $15 On Charge

A charge of dangerous driving against Ralphy Galbraith, 17, 552 Chamberlain St., was today dismissed by Magistrate W. R. Philp.

Galbraith was charged after an accident the night of July 27 in which his car hit a telephone pole on Hunter St., snapping it off.

Galbraith said he was trying to pass a car westbound on Hunter St., when the car swung across the centre of the road as though to make a left turn. There was no signal made, he said.

He swerved to the left and in trying to put on his brakes, struck a patch of sand on the road and skidded right into the pole.

The other car was driven by Frank Harvie, who testified he started to signal, but as he swung to the centre of the road, heard a screech of brakes and a horn blowing. He said he "straightened" his car out.

Harvie said he didn't cross the centre of the road. Constable Andre Dalton, a passenger in Harvie's car, estimated Galbraith's speed at about 45 to 50 miles an hour. Galbraith said the speedometer on his car was not working.

Magistrate Philp said he didn't believe there was enough evidence to show dangerous driving.

RACES SATURDAY NIGHT

Hugh Stewart's pacer "Stewart Direct" is entered in the junior free for all feature at Batavia Downs Saturday night. "Stewart's Worthy's Sister", from the same Peterborough barn, is nominated for several two-year-old stake events across the border.

American Entry Wins Races On First Day Of Canadian Dinghy Regatta

42 Boats Started Afternoon Race At Championship Meet Being Held At South Beach, Clear Lake

John Carter, Essex, Conn., won the first two races Wednesday for the Canadian Dinghy Association's 14-foot international championship held this week at Clear Lake. The American craft was pushed along in only a light breeze in the morning race. Carter finished in two hours, 51 minutes and 20 seconds, only nine minutes before the time limit expired. In the afternoon race the fleet of 42 started out in a tricky breeze which worked in gusts across the triagular course. At times the dinghies were stopped in practically dead calm areas. Then a stiff breeze rose and the dinghies finished well ahead of the time limit.

Carter again led the group, this time in one hour, 36 minutes and 11 seconds. With the double win he is well out in front with a total of 93¾ points, 45¼ for the morning's win and 48½ for the afternoon's.

Toronto Boats Win

Second, third and fourth positions fell in the morning to members of the Royal Canadian Yacht club, Toronto. The results were: Jack Muir, two hours, 54 minutes, 36 seconds; Ken Bradford, 2:54.44; Bill Gooderham.

Sue Slater, from the Kawartha entrants, slipped across the finish line only 10 seconds after Carter in the afternoon while Joan Burt came in two minutes later with a time of one hour, 38 minutes and 44 seconds.

Muir Fourth in Afternoon

Jack Muir, Carter's nearest rival, finished fourth in the afternoon in one hour, 39 minutes and 20 seconds.

In the 12-foot championship in the afternoon only four dinghies were entered and they left on the same course five minutes after the 14-foot entries. Mrs. N. W. (Bill) Gooderham bettered her husband's result in the 14-foot results by placing first.

The buoys along the rectangular course which is about three and a half miles long were set to the starboard in the morning and to the port in the afternoon.

Two races will be held each day except Saturday for the 14-foot international championship. It will be awarded on the point system, a dinghy receiving one point for finishing and an additional point for every dinghy beaten. The winner in each race will receive an additional quarter point.

Time limit for the races, except Saturday is three hours. The limit for the Viscount Alexander of Tunis trophy, which event will be held Saturday, will be four and a half hours.

Hurt In Crash, Completes Trip In Bus He Hit

A Toronto man proved Wednesday afternoon that he wasn't easily stopped when on trade union business. After crashing into the rear of an Ottawa-bound bus, injuring himself and nearly wrecking his car, he jumped onto the bus to complete his trip to Ottawa.

The intrepid traveller was Allan A. Porter, 28, Bowmore Rd., Toronto, research and educational director of the Ontario Federation of Labor.

Porter was on his way to Ottawa for an OFL convention. When an Ottawa bus stoped top let out a passenger at the 5th line of Otonabee and Highway 7A he applied his brakes. One of the brakes didn't catch and the car slithered sideways, out of control, and crashed into the rear of the bus.

Porter was thrown forward against the windshield and received a loosened tooth, sprained wrist, bump on the head and body bruises, and was temporarily winded. But instead of getting medical attention he insisted on continuing his trip by bus.

His car received approximately $500 damage, mostly to the front end. The rear of the bus was also damaged.

Says Gov't Hides Behind Reports

FORT WILLIAM, Aug. 16—(CP)—Walter Thomson, leader of the Ontario Liberal party, told the Fort William Liberal Association Wednesday night that the Progressive Conservative government of Premier Frost is guilty of "hiding behind commissions and reports they know they cannot carry out."

Mr. Thomson claimed that a number of items of legislation concerning education, pulp export and super-toll highways had resulted from his suggestions.

"If we are going to have a premier in absentia, we might as well have an election and have me premier in reality," he said.

New Police Regulations Published In The Gazette

TORONTO, Aug. 16 (CP)—An echo of London's Rush dismissal case was heard here Wednesday when new police regulations were published in The Ontario Gazette.

They provide that a police constable or officer charged with an offence against the code of discipline henceforth must be notified in writing by his chief of the exact nature of the charge.

They provide that a police constable or officer charged with an offence against the code of discipline henceforth must be notified in writing by his chief of the exact nature of the charge.

In London, Detective Allan Rush was dismissed by the London police commission last year without the reasons being given. Later he ran for mayor and was elected.

At an inquiry this year, the complaints were made known. Mr. Justice W. D. Roach of the Ontario Supreme Court found the police commission justified in dismissing him but unwise in not giving him the reasons and in refusing him a chance to appear before the commission to answer the charges.

Canadians Buy British Goods

LONDON, Aug. 16 (Reuters)—The Daily Express today drew attention to Canadian purchases of British goods in an editorial headlined "Who Buys With Dollars?"

"Canada bought £15,500,000 worth of British goods last month," the paper said.

"The United States bought slightly less than £12,500,000."

These figures—in latest trade returns—had a deep and remarkable meaning, the Express said. It added:

"As there are 13,000,000 people in Canada and 150,000,000 in the United States, every Canadian must be spending 14 times as much money in Britain as every American is doing.

"Next time you hear that the Empire is now a meaningless symbol and imperial preference an absolute conception, just remember that simple proportion."

US Has Atomic Artillery Could Make Armies Fodder

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Newsweek magazine said Wednesday the U.S. Defence Department has tested atomic artillery which may soon change the entire nature of war.

"The Defence Department already has made preliminary tests of the use of atomic artillery shells on the battlefield," said Newsweek, "and parts of these weapons are already in production.

"Atomic artillery would give the United States a weapon to overcome the greatest asset Soviet Russia has in war—its vast hordes of infantry and armor. The massive Red Army, unless swiftly reorganized, would actually become little more than a mass of cannon fodder.

"... Because the Pentagon must always assume that Russian scientists know as much as American scientists do, the army has plans to protect its troops from atomic artillery.

Strategically, Newsweek said, "the airplane may soon go the way of the cross-bow" because of guided rockets.

"A defensive rocket with an atomic warhead could destroy an attacking rocket by exploding perhaps as much as half a mile from it."

Britain Hampers Canada's Trading Plans

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Financial clouds are besetting Canada's attempts to develop greater trading opoprtunities in her old, once-top market in Britain. But the young trading country keeps on trying.

Canada's latest attempts to pry open a market that is ringed with government-enforced restrictions on dollar goods and spiked with internal financial problems will be made in Washington Sept. 10.

There, with delegates from some 40-odd countries attending a joint annual meeting of the international monetary fund and world bank, she will review the age-old problem of international payment balances, chief reason offered by Britain for controls and restrictions imposed three years ago.

Canada likely will suggest, and it is expected that the United States will too, that despite financia plroblems, Britain should make a start towards lifting the restrictions on dollar trade. Some British officials have said that this actually is being done, that Britain is buying more goods from Canada this year than a year ago and that prospects are that she will buy even more in 1952.

Not easily convinced, Canadian officials argue that Britain's purchases in Canada are mainly hard-to-get strategic goods and that Canada's market in Britain on less-essential goods is still sharply curtailed.

Canada brought this problem of exports to Britain before a permanent Anglo-Canadian trade committee May 25 last. One recommendation was that Britain widen the scope of token shipments, under which Canadian exporters are allowed to ship a certain percentage of their goods, based on the value of shipments before the Second World War.

The recommendations were taken back to Britain and nothing more was heard.

One hope Canada still harbors that some action may develop out of the Washington conference and that in the meantime Britain meets the requests of her British West Indies colonies for a bigger allotment of dollars to buy more goods from Canada.

Car Financing Cut 15 PC By New Credit Restrictions

OTTAWA, Aug. 16 (CP)—Canadians financed 11,777 new automobiles to the extent of $17,823,756 in June despite government credit restrictions stipulating one-half down and 12 months to pay the remainder.

But the June figures, the Bureau of Statistics reported Wednesday, were down 15 per cent in the number of new cars financed and eight per cent in the amount of the financing as compared with June, 1950. Then the figures were 13,832 new cars financed for $19,444,114.

In the first half of this year, 65,246 new cars have been financed to the extent of $96,682,365, compared with 64,437 units at $88,996,896 in the corresponding period last year.

Financing of used car sales last June was 31,753 cars involving $18,594,389, an increase of 24 per cent in number and 15 per cent in amount over the 25,607 units financed to the extent of $16,227,192 in June, 1950.

In the six months 104,907 used cars have been financed to the extent of $90,379,381, compared with 109,984 for $72,640,898 in the first half of 1950.

DOROTHY DIX

Who Is Said Responsible In Neglect of Mother?

DEAR MISS DIX: Just before my son went into service in World War II he married a young widow with one child. I had known the girl all her life and was pleased with the marriage. We had her and the baby with us while my son was away and did everything we could for them, clothing the baby, etc. My daughter-in-law was the dearest thing to me and I was very happy with her. My son was away 39 months, and just before he returned, her feelings towards us seemed to change. She seemed to go out of her way to hurt me. My son came home, they went into their own home in a different city and she would not let me visit him. He has not been home now in five years. When his wife isn't home he calls me, and we pay the bill. I am ill, and have begged her to let us be at peace, but she just says she has what she wants and does not need me. My friends feel my son has no backbone. JEAN.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: There are two basic issues in a mother and daughter-in-law relationship that cause most of the in-law troubles. One is the clinging mother who comes between son and his wife., and the other is the small-minded girl who feels that having acquired a man, no one, not even his mother, is going to have the least share in him. Both types are fortunately rare, but when they rear their ugly heads the unhappiness wrought is intolerable.

He Should Be Firm

In either case, one wonders who is most to blame — the woman or the man. Surely any son should have enough spunk to insist on the right to have occasional visits with his mother, and if he is half a man he will see that his wife shows at least an outward respect for her mother-in-law.

Realizing how much you love your boy, no matter how badly he has treated you, I hesitate to criticize him, but he crtainly is th spineless wonder of the world. Since he has persisted in his heartless attitude for five years, I doubt if any metamorphosis of character will improve his weak will, but prayer has worked miracles before and it might accomplish something for you.

Your daughter-in-law's unspeakable ingratitude defies belief, and she will have to see her own children grow up to realize how mistaken she has been. Her home must be a bleak and cheerless place to be run by one so heartless. With the wisdom that sometimes comes with years, she may be enlightened. I hope so.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm 17 and have a boy friend who is stationed at an army camp This summer my girl friend and I would like to spend our vacation there and would stay in the guest house or a hotel. My mother says this would not be proper, unless we had a chaperon. Please may I have your opinion?

? ALICE B.

ANSWER: Your mother is quite right. Though you and your girl friend would undoubtedly conduct yourselves in a ladylike and decorous manner,, the circcumstances could easily lead to malicious gossip.

Certain conventions have been established as a code of livin, by which we may all guide our lives in an orderly and proper fashion. Severe as these conventions may seem at times, it is still wise to observe them. Those who delight in thrusting them aside under the guise of "liberalism" or "living our own lives" arei nviting disaster.

Conventions governing the conduct of young girls are especially stringent, and definitely preclude such trips as you plan. Conforming to these rules establishes a good reputation. Deflying them invites suspicion — however unfounded.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MIS DIX: After being happily married for several years my husband tells me he has become involved with a divorced woman. He says he still loves me, and if I am patient he will soon break with her for good As I understand it, she threatens to expose her clandestine affair if he does not do as she wishes. I love my husband even though he has been unfaithful. What shall I do? BETTINA.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Sit tight, and wait. That, I know, is the hardest advice to follow, but in a case like yours it is the wisest. Nothing will be gained by leaving your husband. You'll always love him and will be throwing away whatever chance you have to salpage your marriaye. Tell him to stop being intimidated by this other woman's threats. She would probably never carry them out—after all she has her own reputation to think of—and if you but wait, together you can weather whatever trouble may arise.

Mrs. A. Brown Hostess To WMS

ROSENEATH, Aug. 16 (ENS) —"We cannot bring the Kingdom of God into the world, until we bring it into our hearts," was the declaration made by Mrs. R. C. White in an address on "Christian Stewardship," at the August meeting of the WMS of the United Church. Mrs. White divided her topic into four subjects, study, prayers, service and giving.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Brown on Tuesday with the president, Mrs. J. N. Lovelace presiding and Mrs. C. W. Varcoe as pianist.

Mrs. Lovelace was in charge of the worship service centred around an open Bible and a lighted candle. The theme of the ser- Mrs. Howard Macklin and Mrs. vice was "Working Together." T. S. Coyle assisted Mrs. Lovelace. Mrs. Albert Halstead gave the scripture reading in keeping with the theme. Mrs. A. Nill contributed a reading "The Palace Made By Music" showing what can be accomplished by working together.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Nichol reported having received special donations from members amounting to $28.

Included in the correspondence read by the secretary, Mrs. Fred G. Lewis, was an invitation from the Dartford WMS to attend their September meeting to be held in Dartford United Church on September 12. On motion the invitation was accepted.

The community friendship report of the members for the month were: 50 cards, 25 calls, 14 letters and six parcels. Mrs. George Mouncey is secretary of this department.

Plans were made for a special autumn thankoffering service with a special speaker.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell read an article outlining the work of the supply department of the WMS and an article on "Christian Citizenship."

During the program period Mrs. A. J. Campbell contributed a humorous number "The Old Woodbox," and Mrs. J. A. Nichol gave a reading.

The meeting closed with prayer. Lunch was served by the hostess.

"That's a coincidence! Only yesterday Aunt Bella was praising Mother Parker's Tea.

Would You Serve Stew When Your Guests Come?

By MARY MOORE.

Exact details are on record for the stew we had last night: the price and weight and cut of meat, the number and variety of vegetables, the time of the cooking stages—plus the favorable comments (there were no adverse ones) which are given verbatim.

Are you a good stew cook? I was not. I learned to make stew about ten years ago and now do not make it often enough to please my family.

This one looked so beautiful, due, I guess, to the lovely colors of the vegetables available now.

Emem's Beef Stew for Guests

One pound and seven ounces of boneless, lean, blade beef, 6 medium carrots, 6 2-inch green onions, 2 big outer stalks celery cut into 12 pieces about 4 inches long; 6 or 12 very small underripe tomatoes, 2 cloves garlic sliced paper-thin, flour, salt, pepper, 3 tablespoons bacon fat, 4 cups boiling water, 1 cup green or yellow beans. Cut the meat in 1½-inch cubes. Mix the salt with the pepper and flour and dredge the meat cubes in this. Have hot the fat in Dutch oven or heavy frying-pan and saute the meat in it until it is quite brown on all sides. If fire is hot enough you should keep this moving all of the time. Add the garlic and boiling water. Cover and simmer over as low heat as possible for 3 hours. Add the peeled whole little firm tomatoes, and stand stew off the heat, covered. Meanwhile about 20 minutes before this time have ready the vegetables. Cook the carrots, celery and beans together in not more than 1 cup water. Cook the onion separately in plenty of water. Drain the onions and add. Do not drain the other vegetables and add them to the meat. Taste for salt and pepper. Do you want the stew slightly thicker than the flour on the meat made it? If so stir in a flour and water paste now. Place over low heat and let simmer for another 15 or 20 minutes. Serve with

To 3¼ cups boiling water add 2 tablespoons butter and 1¾ teaspoons salt. Stir in 1½ cups washed brown rice. Cover at once. Reduce heat as low as possible. Do not uncover for at least 20 minutes. Then test and taste. Brown rice requires longer cooking than polished rice.

We served this in those old-fashioned soup bowls with wall sides—more like breakfast plate with a 1½-inch wall. This way the whole stew is on view in front of you and none of the liquid spills over. We served a mound of rice right in the middle of it all.

(To savour the last delicious drops of this we dropped a half slice of bread in our bowls—but that's off the record.)

Comment: "Better than roast beef;" "You couldn't force chicken on me;" "Wouldn't it be awful to be married to a girl that couldn't cook?" (This was from Bill—one of the current swains.)

We served six people from the above quantities, and perhaps the amount of meat on each bowl was not as generous as it is your wont to provide, but it was adequate. The meat cost $1.24, so that figures out to a little more than 20 cents per serving.

FUNNY BUSINESS -- By Hershberger

"All the letters from the government this morning start with the same word, 'unless'!"

Woman Expert On Finest Glass

LONDON (CP).—The major restoration work of the ancient Chapter House in Westminster Abbey was the responsibility of Miss Joan Howson, daughter of a former Archdeacon of Liverpool. She is one of the country's leading experts on stained-glass windows.

Visitors to the beautiful Chapter House where England's first parliaments sat have to wear slippers over their shoes for fear of scratching the precious wooden paving. It took Miss Howson and her staff of five men and three women a total of two years to glaze the four great windows of the Chapter House, as well as cleaning and repairing the fifth window and the windows of the vestibule.

Miss Howson climbed high scaffolding to do this work, although she is about 60 years of age. The old Victorian glass that was damaged in air raids made the Chapter House a gloomy place at the best, but thanks to her skill the famous shrine now is much brighter.

QUEER SHAPE

The island of Tobago in the British West Indies was so named by Columbus because it resembled a native tobacco pipe.

Women Drinkers Probem South African Officials Find

JOHANNESBURG (CP)—Before the Second World War drunkenness among women was almost unknown in South Africa. Today the problem is causing concern among welfare societies.

While the number of women convicted of drunkenness has more than doubled in recent years; the total is considered negligible among the whole population. The chief worry is over the proper treatment of women inebriates.

There is no institution set aside for treatment of women alcoholics and the Rand Aid Association has taken the lead in raising funds for such an institution. The association expects the problem to grow worse.

A changed social attitude towards drinking is blamed by welfare officers. Little more than 10 years ago it was unusual to see a woman drinking in public. Dances for instance were usually of the lemonade and buns variety.

Changing Customs

The war however speeded up the change and one welfare officer said "The shame of being drunk no longer exists among an ever-increasing number of young women."

"Today," said this expert, "there appears nothing extraordinary about a party where women of all ages take drink for drink with the men, even past the stage where they are slurring their words and bumping into doorways."

Another welfare worker here said "Young girls nowadays think it's old-fashioned to refuse a cocktail. A hangover is not considered a disgrace. The greatest boast of many young women is that they can 'Hold their liquor like a man'."

This worker said the attitude toward drinking is not confined to the lower-income groups. "I think it is more rife among the better-educated girls who come from good homes."

One official takes a less gloomy view of the picture. He thinks the social pendulum may be swinging back again and believes "There is a tendency to pull up."

DANDY LANDED

A 14-year-old Akron lad had a face-wide smile today after he landed a 21¼-pound muskellunge at Rice lake. He is Bill Henderson. The fish was 44 inches long and 16½ inches in girth.

Mary Walsh, Indian River Weds T. H. Barron, Hamilton

In St. Joseph's Church, Douro, on Monday morning the wedding was solemnized of Mary Beata, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Walsh, Indian River, to Mr. Thomas Hugh Barron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barron of Brantford.

The Rev. J. J. McCarthy, pastor of St. Joseph's officiated. Also present in the sanctuary were the bride's cousin, the Rev. Father Walsh of Kinmount, the Rev. Father Meagher of Lindsay and Rev. Fathers Ryan, Duffy, Hill, and Jordan of Brantford.

Pink and white gladioli and carnations decorated the church. Music was played by Mrs. Victor Kennedy and soloists during the mass were Mr. John P. Sheehan, Douro, and Mr. Clem. O'Brien, Toronto.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian styled gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin. Her double-tiered net skirt, which fell in a slight train, joined the long torso outlined with petals of padded satin. The bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and was buttoned down the back and had long tight sleeves with points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil was of tulle illusion falling from a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace. She carried a white prayer book on which were two gardenias.

Attendants were Miss Agnes Quigley of Toronto and Miss Kathleen Barron of Brantford. They were frocked in like gowns of nylon marquisette fashioned with a moulded bodice featuring petal neckline and softly flowing skirts falling from a crinoline hipline effect. Miss Quigley wore shrimp shade and Miss Barron wore Nile green. Their Juliet caps were of velvet petals in matching shades and their elbow length mittens of the material of their gowns. They carried bouquets of baby 'mums in contrasting colors.

Mr. Bernard Barron was groomsman for his brother and the ushers were Gerald and Howard Walsh, brothers of the bride.

The reception was held at the Kawartha Golf and Country Club. Mrs. Walsh received in a gown of navy nylon net and taffeta with taffeta jacket and wore navy acccessories and a corsage of pink Ophelia roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of greyhound grey crepe with accessories in Danish blue shade and her corsage was American beauty roses. Guests were present from London, Brantford, Hamilton, Peterborough, Almonte, Montreal and Sarnia.

The bride and groom left afterward on a wedding trip to the east coast. For travelling Mrs. Barron wore a softly tailored suit in beige glen check and brown accessories and she had a corsage of talisman roses.

They will live in Hamilton on return.

Mrs. J. Black, 563 Romaine St., is visiting in Detroit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stoner and other friends and attended the wedding Saturday of her niece Patty Jean Stoner to Mr. Wayne Groat of Detroit.

Florence Newman Wed At Udney To G. B. Murray

Udney United church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday, August 5 at three o'clock when Florence Emma Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Newman, Udney, was united in marriage to George Benson Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Murray of Woodville.

The Rev. R. E. Newman, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Bartlett of Brechin. Mrs. Clarence Veale played the wedding music and Mr. Walter Austin played violin solos, "The Lord's Prayer," while the guests were arriving and "Because" during the signing of the register. The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and other summer flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of French Chantilly lace over slipper satin, cut on princess lines with Queen Anne collar and the full skirt fell to a graceful circular train. Her veil of embroidered French illusion tulle was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli.

Little Carolyn and Beverley Newman, nieces of the bride, were flower girls in yellow and green brocaded satin. Their dresses were flounced and caught with velvet bows of contrasting colors. They carried nosegays of talisman and yellow roses.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received in an orchid crepe dress with lace trim and orchid and black accessories with corsage of Johanna Hill roses. Welfare Leader Stresses Needs War Victims

OTTAWA—(CP)—Is there a service club looking for a job? A Canadian welfare-project — the Canadian Children's Club in Vienna—needs a lot of help right now. The Unitarian Service Committee, which has looked after this organization for more than two years, feels it must have more assistance if the project is to expand.

"If more funds were available for the Canadian Children's Club we could employ more personnel, buy more food," says Dr. Lotta Hitschmanova, Canadian director of the USC. Dr. Hitschmanova now is touring Europe to get first hand—a picture of the welfare work being done with the help of Canadian contributions.

In a letter to USC headquarters here she says more funds would mean that more children—there now are 200 youngsters in the home—would have a place to spend their spare time instead of on the streets.

"I dream of the day when some Canadian service club will make this truly Canadian project their own," writes Dr. Hitschmanova.

During her tour of Italy Dr. Hitschmanova found Rome and the whole of Italy filled with tourists "who are having a wonderful time sightseeing, eating and shopping."

"When I see whole autocars full of them pass me I often wonder how many of them try to look beyond that dollar curtain which is so skilfully drawn to hide the real squalid conditions in which a very large part of the Italian people live."

Dr. Hitschmanova says 45 per cent of the population has a living standard below normal. Prices have risen in the last year 23 per cent—but not incomes.

Renews Acquaintances

Dr. Hitschmanova tells of meeting Pasquale La Valle, a 17-year-old Italian boy now working hard on his English to improve his chances of coming to Canada this fall.

She first met Pasquale two years ago when she visited the "Colonie," a home for orphan boys, all victims of the Second World War who now are getting a scientific and practical training in farming and gardening.

Pasquale has already been furnished with passage money by a Toronto couple who heard Dr. Hitschmanova speak there two years ago about the European projects. The Toronto couple actually met their protege when they visited Rome last year.

Festival Draws Many Teachers

TORONTO—(CP)—When September comes 54 Canadians will switch jobs with a corresponding number of British teachers, continuing the "exchange" project begun more than 25 years ago.

From coast to coast the Canadians, mostly women, are packing their bags for a one-year venture of teaching in schools in England, Scotland or Northern Ireland. This year, most of them are going ahead of time.

"They want to be there to see the Festival of Britain," said F. K. Stewart, executive secretary of the Canadian Education Association which arranges most of the exchanges in this country.

In Britain the 50-year-old British Commonwealth League is both founder and promoter of the plan, which has seen some 2,500 persons from many parts of the Commonwealth instructing for a year in British schools. In turn, just as many British teachers have had a year's experience in schools in Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

Mostly Women

As in previous years the great majority of exchange teachers are women. Mr. Stewart says few men participate because most of those qualifying would be married teachers and unable to leave their families.

Apart from the British exchange, Canadian teachers may go to other provinces or to theUnited States. This year 20 will make an inter-provincial switch but not many go to the U.S. "Most of them are choosey," says Stewart. "They want to go to such places as Florida or Arizona." And that's not always possible to arrange. So far however there's a list of 11 slated for exchange jobs in the U.S.

WHAT A MESS
SURE we're telling so you know what to expect. The walls and floors are as badly in need of paint and paper as a fish needs water. There's no furnace, and there's only a toilet (but the pipes are in for the bath and sink). Now read on. This home is an attractive brick, among many smart new homes, it has seven rooms and bathroom, good basement. The kitchen has built-in sink and cupboards, and there is an extra large garden. The price is only $6,000 and terms can be arranged. Phone 8402 or 5345.
TEN CENTS
NO that's not the down payment, just reminding you that many 10 cent bus fares can be saved if you live in this home almost at Park and Charlotte Sts. It has seven rooms and bathroom but no furnace although one can be put in. The price is only $7,500. Phone 8402 or 5345.
STICK 'EM UP
YES this is a steal, because for $8,900 you can buy this delightful brick bungalow. It has a large living room with natural fireplace, full size dining room, modern kitchen and two inviting bedrooms, 3 pc., bath full basement, hot air heating, grand garden. Splendid location near Park and McDonnel. Phone 5345 or 8402.
WHITE MAGIC
THE magical combination of good taste and wealth is reflected in this charming home. Located quite close to Queen Mary school, it's a storey and a half with six graceful rooms including captivating modern kitchen. 4 pc. modern bathroom, attached garage, lovely grounds, awnings, venetian blinds etc., included. Dynamic value at $10,700. Phone 5345 or 8402.

Lindsay Scout Attending World Jamboree

LINDSAY, Aug. 16 — King Scout Roy Strickland, son of Mrs. M. O. Strickland, Lindsay, is one of the 35 scouts in the Canadian contingent attending Seventh World Boy Scout Jamboree being held at Bad Ischl, Austria.

A total of 15,000 scouts representing 42 different countries are camping on the site, 1,706 feet above sea level and occupies an area of more than 74 acres. A special United Nations troop of scouts of every nationality is present at the jamboree. The boys are all sons of employees of the United Nations Organization at Lake Success, New York.

Received By Princess

The Canadians left Canada July 18 and spent four days in London as guests of the First Hounslow troop. Their red letter day was July 28 when they were received by Princess Elizabeth at Clarence House.

In a letter to his mother, Roy Strickland made comments about the country and jamboree activities.

Austria is quite different from Canada. The women work in the field here with the men. The fields are very small and more often on step side hills. Their methods of farming are very primitive as they use sythes and stook their hay in a most peculiar manner, very often taking the hay into barn or shed the same day it is cut.

At night fires are lit on the tops of the mountains which surround the camp. August 3 we had a very impressive ceremony to open the jamboree. Seven towers were erected to represent the six preceding jamborees and each one had a crest of the particular jamboree mounted on the top of it. As each jamboree song was sung the flag of the host nation was raised on the tower by a scout of the nation.

Board Approves Buying Statue

TORONTO, Aug. 16 — (CP) — Toronto Board of Control Wednesday authorized the purchase of a 10-foot bronze statue of General James Wolfe, but there were indications of opposition to the move in the city council, which must ratify the purchase.

The statue, taken from a New York building which was recently dismantled, was offered for sale at a cost of $5,000. Alderman Joseph Gould said he felt the money could be better spent for new swimming pools.

The Board of Control plans to use the statue of the man who conquered Canada for the British to beautify mid-town University Avenue.

There were indications that the total cost of erecting the two-ton statue would run much higher than $5,000. Cost of transportation was estimated at $3,000 and a proper granite base would require an additional $30,000.

Old Maid's Day Is Celebrated In Texas Want Special Day For The Bachelors

DENTON, Tex., Aug. 16 (AP)—The old maids came to Denton Wednesday and to show their hearts are in the right place began talking about a day for bachelors.

This is Denton's second annual old maid's day—the idea of Miss Dorothy Babb, teacher in the North Texas State College here who wondered aloud last year why old maids don't get some recognition.

Then today one of the unmarried ladies, Miss Bessie Brown of Denton, said why not give a helping hand to their brothers who also enjoy unmarried bliss?

"The public has failed to show appreciation to the bachelors in the public services they have rendered," she said.

"Like old maids, the bachelors have to give wedding, birthday and christening gifts but get few themselves. I don't think it would be amiss to let old maids clubs sponsor parties and invite the bachelors so everybody will know who is who."

If she had anything further on her mind, such as any change of status that might result, she wasn't saying.

Kingston Plant To Be Enlarged

MONTREAL, Aug. 16 (CP)—Canadian Industries, Ltd., today announced a plant to manufacture basic chemicals used in making nylon will be built on a recently-purchased 1,500-acre site between Brockville and Prescott, Ont.

Construction will begin this fall and be completed in mid-summer 1953.

The announcement said the plant will be the largest single project undertaken by CIL and will make Canada self-sufficient in the two basic chemicals used in manufacture of nylon and staple fibre.

Concurrently the nylon spinning plant at Kingston, 50 miles west, will be expanded to twice its present capacity and will absorb the entire output of the new chemicals plant. The Kingston plant, opened in 1942, now employs 950 persons.

CIL said the new chemicals plant will employ about 600, one-third of them engineers and highly-skilled technicians. It will consume about 60,000 tons of coal annually and 6,500 gallons of water a minute. It will use one and a half times as much electricity as the neighboring city of Brockville with its population of 14,000.

A major raw material upon which it in turn will depend is a by-product of petroleum refining not previously made in Canada, said the announcement, and development of a Canadian source is under way.

Torontos Beat Mimico 16-11

By The Canadian Press.

Toronto West Yorks need to win their remaining Ontario Lacrosse Association Senior game against Brampton Excelsiors to be sure of a playoff spot. If they beat Brampton, they will tie Fergus Thistles for the sixth and last playoff berth.

The West Yorkers kept alive their playoff hopes Wednesday night by beating Mimico Mountaineers 16-11 in Mimico. They took a 7-2 first-quarter lead, had a 9-7 margin at half time and moved into the final quarter with a 13-10 advantage.

Pace-setters for the Yorks were Frank King with four goals and Jack Howes and Jim McNulty with three apiece. Ken Dixon scored five times in a vain attempt to pull Mimico into the lead and Bud Stocks tallied twice.

With rain threatening, the crowd numbered only 800. The game was fast and rugged, with tempers near the breaking point on several occasions.

South Africa Has Poor Start

LONDON, Aug. 16 (Reuters).—South Africa today coasted into a lack-a-daisical start in the fifth and last cricket test match against England, posting a scant 66 for one wicket by lunch on a pitch that was all theirs.

The surface gave the English bowlers no assistance but the visitors failed to grab the opportunity.

The opening batsmen, Eric Rowan (31 not out) and Russell Endean, stayed together until just before lunch when England's captain Freddie Brown caught Endean for 31.

Brown tried six bowlers without success for nearly two hours. The South Africans seemed intent merely on staying there as long as they could.

The 50 went up in 75 minutes, but the crowd grew impatient when only six runs were scored in 16 overs.

RacehorseOwner Banned From Tracks

TORONTO, Aug. 16 (CP). — A racehorse and trainer accused of accepting a bribe to make sure his horse lost a race has been barred for life from Ontario racetracks.

The Ontario Racing Commission took the action against G. W. Sharrard of Hamilton, owner of the favorite that finished third in a race at Fort Erie July 25.

The race, in which North Drive, a long shot, beat Sheppard's heavily-favored Hemjohn, was one of the first to occupy the commission in its investigation of suspected "fixed" races on Ontario tracks.

Jockey Bobby Keane of Toronto, who rode Hemjohn, is one of six riders under lifetime suspension for bribing or accepting bribes. Sharrard is the first owner or trainer to be barred.

All Horses Barred

The commission ruled that all horses trained by Sharrard will be barred from racing until they are placed under the control of a trainer or trainers satisfactory to the commission.

The commission also fined apprentice rider Robert Atkin $100 for failure to report a bribe. In the race concerned, Atkin rode Ambitious, which finished third and dropped dead while being led back to the barn as a result of injuries suffered in a previous race.

Sharrard is said to have been double-crossed in the July 25 race by Johnny Perron, former jockey's agent who is being sought by the commission. Perron was reported to have given Sharrard only one-third of the money coming to him from bets against his own horse.

Three men are out on bail, charged with conspiracy, after attempting to cash a number of tickets on North Drive in the Fort Erie race.

Religion, Philosophy Studied As Battle Factor

By WILLIAM BOSS.

SEOUL, Aug. 16 — (CP)—The army is studying religion and philosophy— as Battle Factors, the conditions governing a battle and its outcome.

In a war in which the opposing armies are logistically equal—such as any third world war likely would be— some new factors would be needed to throw the balance.

If the soldier already has all the equipment and support it is physically possible to give him and yet must become still stronger in battle, it follows that he has to find the new strength from within himself. Through it he must be a without it.

And that's where religion and philosophy come in.

They could provide the soldier with cause, the reason why he's there.

Need That Extra.

It's that extra determination and willpower that stems from cause that keeps the man who's got it that extra bit longer in the battle that counts.

The cause, the personal reason, must be so compelling that nothing the enemy can do will shake him from sticking.

It has to be worked out by the soldier himself.

The army couldn't care less what the man is — Protestant, Roman Catholic, Jew, sun worshipper, agnostic or atheist.

Course Necessary.

But the army is beginning to think that a man must be something and know by hard reasoning and the experiences of personal living why he is.

There are examples to support this line of military reasoning.

The Nazis demonstrated it during the latter stages of the war. In the face of inevitable defeat they fought as bitterly for Hitler and National Socialism as at any time previously.

The Communists in Korea are demonstrating what "cause" can do.

They are outgunned by United Nations artillery, tanks and mortar. They have used no airpower. United Nations warships blockade the sea approaches. The Communists use animal and human transport for their supplies. Their troops walk.

And yet they are so far from being vanquished that at Kaesong they are bargaining with the United Nations delegates as equals.

They have demonstrated that "cause" can actually compensate for physical deficiences and in itself provide the determination and will that keeps troops fighting.

That is the fact that students of battle are pondering now.

If all-armed but disciplined and convinced Communist troops can accomplish so much in the face of western power, what could the postion be when they do watch the west logistically?

When, in the end, it boils down to a differnce between the Communist and the western soldier, will the western soldier have a pholosophy, a faith or a religion which will carry him and his army to victory?

The difficulty is that it cannot be placed on general issue. And the disparate western way does not produce a common social and self-consciousness or a common idealism.

Gives Evidence In Fraud Case

QUEBEC, Aug. 16—(CP)—An accountant said in court Wednesday he once noted a $201,000 "advance" from La Traverse de Levis Limitee to Armand Rochette, former company president accused of theft and fraud involving $375,000.

Marc Boisonneault, 27-year-old accountant with a Montreal firm (Armand et Filion), said the ferry company's books showed the money had passed to Rochette in January, 1951.

He was unable to find a resolution in the company's books authorizing the "advance."

In April, he noted a similar transfer of $90,000, and April 30, a $300,000 "reimbursement of advances."

The accountant testified during preliminary hearing of the 46-year-old Montreal businessman who is charged with fraud of $375,000 and theft of $291,000. Rochette is free on $20,000 bail.

Report Reds Ready Make Concessions Over Buffer Zone

MUNSAN, Korea, Aug. 17. (AP)—A four-man sub-committee tackled the Korean buffer zone deadlock today amid official indications the Communists are ready to compromise. The sub-committeemen declined to comment on what happened in their first session—held in an unusual air of informality for Korean truce talks. They scheduled their second session for 11 a.m. Saturday (9 p.m. EDT Friday). When they adjourned on Thursday, United Nations and Communist delegates posed together for the first time.

While posing, US Maj.-Gen. Henry I. Hodes, one of the UN representatives, put his arm around North Korean Maj.-Gen. Lee Sang Cho.

The other two delegates — US Rear Admiral Arleigh Burke and Chinese Maj.-Gen. Hsiem Fang—also appeared to be in good spirits.

The informal attitude—a complete reversal of the cold military formality of all full delegation meetings—strengthened an air of hopefulness brought to Kaesong by a Red broadcast.

Hint Adjustment

The Peiping radio quoted the chief Communist negotiator as saying "it is possible to adjust" the Red demand for a demarcation line along the 38th Parallel "on the basis of terrain and mutual defence."

Terrain and defence are the reasons the Allies have insisted on a military demarcation along present battle lines. These are generally north of the 38th Parallel.

Peiping radio, official voice of Red China, reported North Korean Lt.-Gen. Nam Il immediately qualified his statement by saying the United Nations delegation must abandon "its unfair and unreasonable demands" before agreement can be reached.

Full-dress negotiations have been recessed until the sub-committee comes up with a recommendation—or there is some other need for a gathering of all 10 delegates.

No Briefing

The sub-committee met behind closed doors. The UN Command announced in advance that the usual communique and briefing for correspondents would be abandoned during its sessions.

The secrecy was to help the sub-committeemen fulfil the recommendation of Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy, chief UN delegate, to meet "around rather than across" the table. Joy suggested there would be better opportunity of progress if the problem were tackled without the speech-making that has marked Kaesong negotiations.

This is exactly what happened.

Associated Press Correspondent Sam Summerlin at Kaesong reported the sub-committee sat around a circular table instead of sitting on opposite sides of a long rectangular conference table normally used.

De Bernonville Said Leaving On Brazil Plane

MONTREAL, Aug. 17 —(CP)— The Montreal Star said today that Count Jacques de Bernonville, illegally in Canada and under death sentence in his native France for alleged wartime collaboration with the Germans, "will leave for Brazil from Montreal airport late this afternoon."

The Count's appeal against a Canadian deportation order is still under consideration in Quebec Superior Court.

The Star story said: "The controversial soldier, decorated for gallantry with the French forces in the First World War and found guilty after the Second World War of helping the Nazis trap Maquis members, will tell no one of his plans or the reasons for his trip.

"He is leaving his wife and two daughters in Montreal. A third daughter returned to France some time ago."

The paper said no one connected with the Count's flying journey to South America would comment on it. Nor would any airline office in Montreal admit he is scheduled to fly with them.

No Passport

The Count was said to be preparing to travel without any passport but on an understanding that he will be given entry by Brazil.

The Count entered Canada, via the United States, in 1946 under the name of Benoit. He first came to the attention of Canadian immigration authorities when he applied for permanent residence as a political refugee.

In September, 1948, after an immigration department board turned down his application, he was ordered deported to France. Since then his legal fight has delayed his departure.

The Count claimed that deportation to France meant certain death for him. He claimed he had been sentenced to death in absentia by a people's court and without a chance to defend himself.

The French government has said he will be given a new trial should he be returned to France.

Name Ilsley Conduct Inquiry

OTTAWA, Aug. 17 (CP). — Chief Justice J. L. Ilsley of Nova Scatia has been appointed a commissioner to enquire into Second World War claims and has already begun his job in Ottawa, the Secretary of State's Department announced today.

The announcement said that Chief Justice Ilsley, one-time Federal Finance Minister, will act in an advisory capacity and will not adjudicate individual claims. He will report to the government on the best method of dealing with war claims.

It is expected that after his report is made another commissioner or commissioners will be appointed to consider the individual claims.

The government, it was learned, expects to have about $12,000,000 available for distribution to claims resulting, for example, from deaths in prison camps, loss or damage to property in enemy countries, personal injury at the hands of the enemy and mistreatment of former internees or prisoners of war.

Naked Man Helps Capture Bandit

MONTREAL, Aug. 17 (CP). — King Pete Wyman, 42-year-old cafe manager, Thursday pounded along the pavement of east-end Montreal without a stitch of clothing on and as a result got credit with an assist in the capture of a bandit.

Wyman, five policemen and two motorists teamed up to capture a man identified by police as Roy Williams, Toronto. Police said Williams held up Wyman at gunpoint, fled with $636 and wasn't captured until six shots and several blocks later.

Wyman said he had returned from the bank about 3 p.m. on Thursday when someone stuck a gun in his side. The gunman took a canvas sack of money and ordered Wyman to strip before leaving.

Stark naked, Wyman chased the gunman who turned and fired five shots before leaving the cafe.

10 Children Escape Out Window

2nd Fire In 2 Years For One Family, Three Killed In 1949

KINGSTON, Aug. 17. (CP)—Ten children and four adults are homeless, two of them and a woman are in hospital with extensive burns, and their home is a mass of rubble following a fire this morning near the village of Barriefield on Highway No. 15.

Injured as she clambered to safety through a smashed outwindow of the blazing house was Mrs. Orange Running mother of seven children. She is being treated in Kingston general hospital.

The two injured children are Harry and Ronald Smith, aged two and four respectively. They are being treated in Hotel Dieu hospital. Their mother, Mrs. William Smith, managed to get out of the inferno without injury.

Crawl Through Window

The seven Running children, ranging in age from three to 14, reached safety by crawling through the broken window as roaring flames blocked exit from the doorway.

They were all asleep in the small dwelling when the fire was discovered about 8.30 a.m. After making their escape they stood barefoot tearfully watching their home and all their possessions go up in flames and smoke.

The Running family occupied the front part of the house where the fire is believed to have started. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their three children resided at the rear. Their other child besides the two injured, is a seven-month-old baby. The infant was in its carriage outside the house and not threated by the fire.

Today's fire is the second in two years to strike the Runnings. In a fire at Gananoque on August 5, 1949, three of the Running children died. They were Gloria, 3, Wilmer, 10 and Agar, 4.

Youth Wants To Be Prepared

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17 (AP) —Nineteen-year-old Robert T. Lutz believes in putting plenty of irons in the fire.

Robert took an entrance examination for West Point Military Academy. While he was awaiting the results, he filled out applications for other service schools.

Months went by. Then Congressman Morris Poulson advised Robert he had appointed him to West Point. The day after he arrived at the academy, he received a letter saying Congressman Donald Jackson had named him to Annapolis Naval Academy.

Subsequently he was ordered to report to the Coast Guard Academy, then to the California Maritime Academy. Finally his draft board notified him his number was up.

UK Manpower Crisis Worst In Three Years

LONDON, Aug. 17 (Reuters)—Britain's rearmament has brought the country its biggest manpower crisis in three years.

Government statistics released today disclosed there were 500,000 jobs—many in vital war industries—unfilled during June.

Britain's economic planners face the ticklish problem of drafting labor out of industries into war production in such a way as not to wreck the export trade on which the country's economy rests.

The switch-over likely will mean further slashes in production for home consumption.

Husky Chicago Killer Taken Peacefully On Street Car

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP). — Harry Williams, the husky killer who beat a guard to death and escaped from a death cell in the Cook County jail, was captured Thursday night without a struggle on a street car.

The 20-year-old Negro's capture lacked the dramatic overtones of his escape over the jail wall less than 47 hours before.

Williams, neatly dressed, was riding in a street car reading a Bible when four policemen in a squad car spotted him. Two of the officers, in plain clothes, quietly boarded the car, captured Williams and took him off. Other passengers apparently didn't know what was going on.

Williams surrendered meekly, insisting that police had the wrong man. But police fingerprinted him and established his identity. Under questioning Williams finally admitted his identity.

Williams, a rapist and slayer, escaped from death row cell Tuesday night, just a month to the day before his scheduled execution for murdering a Negro woman in a purse-snatching attempt.

More than 1,000 policemen with "shoot-to-kill" orders sought Williams.

Some neat police work brought about his capture.

Thursday night Williams rang the doorbell of Mrs. Addie Hearn, 44, a distant relative by marriage, on Chicago's South Side. Mrs. Hearn saw him through a window and telephoned police. Williams continued ringing until he heard the sirens of an approaching police car. Then he fled.

Police figured out the nearest spot where Williams could board a street car.

They rushed there, parked and waited. Williams was on the third car that passed the corner.

Police said Williams will be held for grand jury action on a charge of murdering the guard. They said Raymond Jenko, 20, white, who also is in the death cell as a convicted murderer, would be charged with being an accessory in the killing. Jenko is accused of aiding Williams in the escape plot.

Riviera Gives Bechet Mardi-Gras Wedding

Thousands Line Streets As 10 Jazz Orchestras Give Out With Tunes

ANTIBES, France, Aug. 17—(AP). — American musician Sidney Bechet got married today and there was a Mardi Gras-style celebration here on the French Riviera.

Bechet, who's been blowing the blues for almost half a century on the clarinet and saxophone, wed Elizabeth Ziegler, an old friend.

The couple came to the city hall in a horse-drawn carriage preceded by a jazz band and 11 horsemen, four of them in red jackets and white pants, the seven others dressed like cowboys.

Thousands of Frenchmen lined the streets on one of the plushest stretches of the Riviera to watch the trappings around the marriage of the Negro musician.

The bride, 43, is white. She was born in Germany and is a French citizen.

Bechet's papers show him to be 54 but he thinks he might be about 60, because he says that when he was born New Orleans had no regular birth records.

As the couple came out of city hall, 10 jazz orchestras hit the down beat and started the two-mile parade back to Juan-Les-Pins. A dozen Negro dancers jigged in the road. A huge cage carried 100 doves which were released over the procession.

Police Capture Seven Men In Two Chases

TORONTO, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Toronto police nabbed seven men in two separate chases, one by automobile Thursday night and another on foot early today.

Matthew Morin, 27, shot in the leg as he hopped a fence, Ronald Bougard, 21, and Jack Hovianseian, 22, all of Toronto, were arrested early today following a foot chase by two officers who surprised the trio as they approached their car carrying crowbars, chisels and a sledgehammer.

Bougard and Hovianseian later were remanded without bail on charges of having burglars' tools and breaking into an artificial limb company, where police found $75 missing from a smashed safe.

Morin, who was taken to hospital, was unable to appear on the same charges.

Four Others Held

Four men were arrested Thursday night after police fired five bullets at their fleeing car, one of which punctured a front tire.

Held on vagrancy charges pending further investigation are Douglas Vaughan, 20, owner of the car, his brother, William, 24, Roland Mignacca, 23, and Howard Nixon, 24, all of Toronto.

Police found the trunk of the car stuffed with cigarettes and tobacco and now are trying to establish ownership.

'Lady In Black' May Be Caught

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP) — Whispers that the "Lady in Black" would be arrested soon ran through racing circles here today.

She is the mystery woman in Ontario's race "fix" scandal, currently being investigated by the Ontario Racing Commission.

The woman, said to be the wife of a well-known Toronto gambler, was reported to have bet $1,500 in United States funds in $10 tickets on the North Drive race July 25 at Fort Erie, one of those which the ORC has described as fixed. North Drive won the race.

A pari mutuel ticket seller said later that the "Lady in Black" was a familiar figure at the track until the trouble started over the North Drive race.

"She wore a low-cut black dress that clung to her like a bathing suit," he said.

Polish Consul Resigns Will Stay In Canada

OTTAWA, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Zygmunt Ziemski, 50-year-old Polish consul to Canada since 1946, announced today that he has resigned his post and will stay in Canada.

Mr. Ziemski, who has been serving in Winnipeg, made the announcement in a 200-word statement to the Canadian Press, adding his name to a growing list of Iron-Curtain representatives who have chosen to remain in Canada rather than return to their Communist - dominated homelands.

The consul, who first served in Montreal in 1946, said he resigned Thursday in a cable to the Polish Minister of Foreign Affairs in Warsaw.

Find Stolen Safe

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 17—(CP) —A 300-pound safe stolen Thursday night from a St. Thomas lawyer's office, turned up today as an unnatural hazard for early-morning golfers at Thames Valley. The safe was found on the fourth fairway of the 18-hole course by John Innes, golf course manager. The metal back had been peeled open and a large hole punched through an eight-inch cement casing. There was nothing inside.

UK Threatens Oil Boycott If Iran Rejects Latest Company Proposal

TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 17. (AP)—Chief British negotiator Richard R. Stokes said today the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company will buy its oil elsewhere if Iran turns down the latest British proposal to settle the grave nationalization dispute. The threat to boycott nationalized Iranian oil came in the midst of delicate negotiations to break the deadlock caused by Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's rejection of the British offer. Stokes, Britain's Lord Privy Seal, said the British offer, which recognizes Iranian oil nationalization, would give the Iranians a "50-50 principle" for sharing the profits from the world's fourth largest oil-producing country.

At the same time, Stokes said in a statement that the British proposal "is the best offer I can make." He denied reports in the local press that Britain would bring in a more generous proposal at a negotiating session Saturday which is expected to decide the fate of the two-week old talks.

Step Up Production

Th Anglo-Iranian Oil Company was reported to be stepping up its production in the sheikdom of Kuwait across the Persian gulf from Iran where the Kuwait Oil Company, jointly owned by AIOC and the American Gulf Oil Corp., was said to be producing 650,000 barrels a day.

With another full-dress bargaining session set for Saturday, there were no signs that Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government planned to soften its opposition to a British proposal to solve the squabble which closed the worldd's biggest refinery at Abadan.

The British have offered to give up nationalized installations of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, but would form British companies to market Iranian oil, manage the Abadan refinery and direct oil field work under Iranian supervision.

Minor Patrol Clashes Along Korean Front

US EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 17 (AP) —Sporadic patrol clashes erupted on the Korean front today while Allied planes concentrated on trying to prevent Communists from supplying their forward areas.

Marine planes swept across the front to rocket and strafe Red troops dug in on ridges northeast of Yanggu, south of Kaesong, near Kumwha and southeast of Hoeyang.

Red ground troops offered determined resistance to Allied forces only along the eastern front. Elsewhere, patrol action was minor.

Communists mounted two small counter-attacks south of Kunsong on the east coast. One was repulsed. The other carried them to the top of a hill.

Red China's Peiping radio claimed more than 3,000 United Nations troops, more than half of them Americans, were wiped out in five days of fighting. It also claimed 22 UN planes were shot down in the same period.

Biggest Victim

LONG BEACH, Calif., Aug. 17. (AP)—It wasn't the biggest accident, but ambulance men swore it was the biggest victim they'd ever seen. With much huffing and puffing they extricated Guy Cherry, 27, from his car after it jumped a curb and rammed into a store Thursday suffering minor cuts and bruises, he was given the biggest bed at Seaside hospital. Nothing else would do. Cherry, a disc jockey whose nom de spin is Texas Tiny, weighs 640 pounds.

Queen Of Sheba Had Paradise

LONDON, Aug. 17 (AP)—An American explorer said today he is confident he can prove that the fabled Queen of Sheba lived and ruled in a virtual paradise in southern Arabia about 950 years before the birth of Christ.

Wendell Phillips, 29, president of the American Foundation For the Study of Man, told a press conference that the foundation's expedition soon will begin excavations at Mareb, reputed capital of the Queen.

Phillips recently led a party of 10 to Mareb, now a wild desert fortress of a Bedouin tribe, for a preliminary survey.

"Mareb comprises several hundreds of acres of ruins with some protruding above the sands," he said. "A preliminary survey shows that ruins lie underneath for at least some 70 feet. Some of these ruins may possibly go back to Abraham."

About two miles from Mareb, the party found a circular ruin known as the temple of Sheba, and ancient writing on its walls indicated it was a women's place of worship, he said.

Also in the area is the once-great Mareb dam which is considered the finest ancient work of its kind.

"With the irrigation possible from it, it must have made the area a virtual paradise," Phillips said.

Britons Will Have Higher Meat Ration

LONDON, Aug. 17 (AP). — Britain's meat ration will be sharply increased next month despite the suspension of shipments from Argentina, Food Minister Maurice Webb said today.

A seasonal flush of home-killed meat will permit an increase from one shilling seven pence worth to one shilling 10 pence worth per Briton per week Aug. 26, Webb said.

After a "fortnight or so," he added, he will put the ration up to two shillings worth "and I can say definitely that the ration will go even higher for at least a short period later on."

Argentina cut off shipments for 10 days to Britain, saying a shortage existed there.

Aylmer Stag Party Causes Ructions, But All Forgiven

AYLMER, Que., Aug. 17 (CP). —The police chief has his job back, the mayor is chastened and the Quebec Liquor Board is going to be asked to refuse licences for private individuals' parties in Aylmer.

Thursday was one of the most exciting 24 hours this town of 4,000, a few miles west of Ottawa, has had in a dog's age.

But all is forgiven. Police Chief Leblanc and Mayor J. Rene Therien shook hands to prove it.

The mayor apologized Thursday night and the police chief, who had resigned after being suspended by the mayor, quickly picked up his reins of office.

The disharmony grew out of a private stag party Wednesday night at the Aylmer Agricultural Hall. Mayor Therien was a guest. During the course of the lively evening the police chief was called a number of times to restore order. A difference of opinion on methods resulted in the mayor suspending the police chief for insubordination.

After a closed Council meeting Thursday night—where it was learned the Council insisted the chief be cleared of the charge—a formal statement was issued by Council:

"It is the unanimous decision of the mayor and Council that the suspension of the chief of police be lifted and he be completely exonerated of all blame in the performance of his duty at a stag party held in the Agricultural Hall on August 15."

Girl Teller Sounds Alarm Saves $27,000 In St. Davids Bank Holdup

Two Bandits Make Off With $6,300 Ledger-Keeper Fires Three Shots But Bullets Wide of Mark

ST. DAVIDS, Ont., Aug. 18. (CP)—A blonde bank teller who tripped a burglar alarm is credited with saving $27,000 of her bank's cash from two holdup men who stole $6,300. Ann Neufelt, 30, set the siren sounding while one of the thieves was scooping cash from a vault drawer that held more than $33,000. The alarm frightened off the bandits, who roared off in a stolen green convertible.

The thieves entered the Imperial Bank of Canada branch in this fruit-growing district village five miles north of Niagara Falls just before closing time. One of them told two customers and three members of the bank staff: "This is a stick-up. Stand where you are."

Gives Alarm

They ordered the staff and customers to lie on the floor. One robber then took up position at the door as a lookout while the other forced Miss Neufelt to go into the open vault and unlock one of the drawers. As she did so, she gave the alarm.

Explaining later she was not frightened because she hadn't time to think of it, the young woman described her actions during the holdup.

One of the men vaulted the counter and came to the rear of Miss Neufelt's cage, ordering her out. She complied, but as she left she allowed the door to slam closed. Looking the bandit straight in the eye, she said: "There, you can't get in. I locked my keys inside."

Not stopping to argue, the bandit ordered her into the open vault and told her to open one of the locked drawers inside. It contained more than $33,000, returns from the day's business. As the bandit began scooping cash from the drawer, Miss Neufeld tripped the bank alarm signal. The ringing bell frightened the bandits away, leaving most of the cash behind.

Fires Three Shots

Ledger-keeper Robert Izett, 18, fired three shots at the fleeing holdup men but apparently his bullets went wide.

On duty in the bank at the time of the robbery were relief manager Russel Grant; June Cornell, 18, a junior clerk; and Miss Neufelt. The customers were Sarah Cooley and Mary Lane, both of St. David's. The regular manager, A. T. Minnis, was on holidays.

The getaway car, a 1950 model stolen in St. Catharines, was found abandoned in Queenston Park near the Brock monument. Police believe the robbers transferred to another car.

Three men were arrested later near Smithville, 25 miles to the Poor Memory

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP) — President Truman has appointed an ambassador to Haiti. He said so at his press conference Thursday. Then he couldn't remember the diplomat's name. Truman and reporters enjoyed a good laugh. Officials supplied the name later: Howard K. Travers.

Fourth Plane In Month Lost In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 17 —Another plane was missing today in Alaska—the fourth in less than a month.

The latest search was for a plane flown by veteran Alaska bush pilot Glen Hudson. It failed to return from a flight Wednesday to a lake near Dead Man Mountain, about 170 miles northeast of Anchorage.

Among the three passengers was a 10-year-old boy. Their names have not been learned.

The wreckage of one of the missing planes—a navy bomber with 12 aboard—has been found. It was sighted Wednesday on Lonely Amak Island, off the Alaska Peninsula, about midway between Kodiak and Adak Island in the Aleutian chain.

The PB4-Y-2 took off last Sunday from its home field at Kodiak on a routine flight to Adak. A ground party was due to reach the shattered bomber late yesterday but has not reported by radio. No survivors were sighted.

Still missing are a Korean airlift DC-4 which disappeared July 21 between Cape Spencer and Yakutat, Alaska, with 38 aboard, and a single-engined plane which vanished in the same area July 27 with the pilot and the wife and daughter of Walter Wood, wealthy New Jersey scientist.

Won't Release Firing Report

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP) —The Senate's committee inquiring into the ouster of Gen. Douglas MacArthur voted 20 to 3 today against making any report on its two months of hearings.

Chairman Richard Russell (Dem. Ga.) told reporters the majority feeling was that any report at this time on the firing of MacArthur would only "revive bitter controversy at a critical period in the Korean peace talks."

However, it was decided to let individual members file a statement of their views to be included in the hearing record to be transmitted later to the Senate.

This apparently would give a group of Republicans a chance to join in a tentative report they have prepared criticizing Truman administration foreign policies in the Far East.

Planning To Import 10,000,000 Lbs. Butter

REGINA, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Canada's Federal Agricultural Products Board is negotiating for importation of 10,000,000 pounds of butter on an offered price slightly below the present domestic market, Agriculture Minister Gardiner announced Thursday night. He would not say with what country or countries negotiations are proceeding.

Mr. Gardiner also announced that:

1. Until further notice the board will take delivery at 63 cents a pound basis Montreal of all Canadian butter that is offered.

2. The board will deliver butter under its control to the trade throughout the winter at 66 cents a pound basis Montreal in carrying out the policy of stabilizing the wholesale price at that level.

Grain Tie-up Forecast, Hint Controls

Scarcity of Ships Blamed For Crisis, Must Take Action

OTTAWA, Aug. 17. (CP) — Western farmers appear to have licked grass-hoppers, drought and maybe even frost this year. But because they have a bumper crop doesn't mean they are out of the woods—not by a long shot.

The new bugbear is a shipping shortage. It has been acute all summer but now that a record-breaking crop is ready for harvest on the prairies, a transportation crisis looms.

Officials say that unless the situation improves farmers may have to hold back millions of bushels for storage.

Transportation authorities said controls could be imposed by appointing a controller with power to requisition ships, break shipping contracts and force operators to haul grain only.

Won't Help Squeeze

The opinion is, however, that this would not necessarily alleviate a Great Lakes haulage squeeze. The real problem is lack of ships.

Officials said more ships for grain just meant less transport for priority iron ore and coal needed in defence production.

Transport officials said the problem got its start in the prairie's late crop last year. Terminal points in the spring were jammed with millions of bushels of wheat, much of it low grade and hard to move.

Lake vessels took it eastward at the rate of about 2,000,000 bushels a day at first and then dropped to 1,000,000 bushels as iron ore and coal became available.

Now the Great Lakes' shipping fleet of about 190 vessels is devoting about half its capacity to grain and the other half to iron ore and coal.

This isn't good enough, say transport officials, if the country harvests a bumper crop of about 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat and mixed grains. The prospects of such a crop were disclosed Wednesday by the Bureau of Statistics.

Forced To Revise Civil Defence Needs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP) —New information from the US Central Intelligence Agency on Russian capabilities will force a drastic upward revision in the United States' civil defence needs, Congress has been told.

The House of Representatives Appropriations Committee got that news from Millard Caldwell, federal civil defence administrator who appeared before the committee in support of a request for $335,000,000 for civil defence preparations.

Wheat Price Causes Worry

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP). — A. D. Wilson of Chatham, chairman of the Ontario Wheat Producers' Association, today expressed concern at a 15 to 25 cent differential in the price for Ontario soft wheat.

He said in a statement that sharpening export demands for the wheat had pushed the price to $2.05 a bushel at western Ontario shipping points. Elsewhere the price remained at $1.70 to $1.80 a bushel.

"Demand is good," said Mr. Wilson, "and producers should be able to get the $2.05 price anywhere in the province. There is no reason for a price differential between shipping points in Ontario."

Mrs. MacLean Spends Holiday In France

LONDON, Aug. 17. (AP)—The wife of a missing British diplomat left by air for France today—with the approval of the foreign office—on what she described as "a holiday."

She is Mrs. Melinda MacLean, whose husband, Donald, disappeared with a foreign office colleague, Guy Burgess, after a mysterious trip to France May 26. The foreign office has acknowledged the possibility that the pair may have gone to Russia.

The trip immediately aroused speculation that there might be some hope on the part of Mrs. MacLean and the foreign office that her husband will seek her out in France.

She insisted, however, that her only purpose was to have a vacation.

Toronto Woman Places Second In Channel Swim

DOVER, England, Aug. 17 (CP) —A Toronto housewife's gamble on a one-way plane ticket to Britain has brought her the honor of being the first Canadian woman to swim the English Channel.

Winnie Roach Leuszler, 25-year-old mother of three small girls, made the treacherous Channel crossing in her first attempt Thursday night and came in second among the women to win a prize of £500.

Twenty of the world's top long-distance swimmers—13 men and seven women—plunged into the chilly but unusually-calm waters off Cap Griz Nez, France, Thursday, in a 21-mile race to the shores of this seaside town.

The cross-Channel meet, an annual affair, was sponsored by the London Daily Mail which offered £7,000 in prizes.

An Egyptian army officer and a British ballroom dancing queen took the top honors in the mass swim. Hassan Hamad, 34-year-old army officer from Cairo, won the race in a photo finish over Frenchman Roger Le Morvan, 27. Hamad's winning time was 12 hours and 12 minutes, considerably below the men's record of 10 hours and 12 minutes set by fellow-Egyptian Hassan Abd El Rehim in winning the race last year.

Sets Record

Brenda Fisher, 23-year-old English dancing champion, was the first woman to touch the Dover shore, and apparently set a women's record of 12 hours, 43 minutes for the crossing.

This tops the record established last year of Florence Chadwick, of San Diego, Calif., who made it in 13 hours, 23 minutes. Miss Fisher's time, however, is subject to recheck by the judges today.

Hamad and Miss Fisher both received first prizes of £1,000 each. Of the 20 who started the Daily Mail contest, 18 finished.

Like Mrs. Leuszler, Le Morvan won £500. The Frenchman crawled ashore only one minute behind Hamad at a point five miles away. The other 14 swimmers who finished received consolation prizes of £250 each.

In the over-all finish, Miss Fisher was sixth and Mrs. Leuszler seventh.

Began To Tire

The Canadian woman plunged confidently into the waters off the French coast at 7.30 a.m. Thursday morning and began her long crawl with beautiful, long steady strokes. Clad in a black silk swimming suit, white cap and heavily coated with grease, she surged into the lead among the seven women.

For 4½ hours she held the lead. Then, with the chalky White Cliffs of Dover in sight, she tired and began to drop back. Miss Fisher came on strongly and soon overtook her.

But the Canadian mother refused to call it quits and although nearly exhausted plowed through the rest of the way.

She pulled herself out of the water onto the Dover shore one hour and two minutes behind Miss Fisher. The Canadian's time of 13 hours and 45 minutes still was the fourth fastest by a woman in Channel swimming history.

The airliner hit the Obiou in a storm while flying back from a Holy Year visit to Rome.

The crew and passengers were all killed.

Ironically, the truth of the holdup escaped most St. Davids' residents for some minutes. Some thought it was a practice ring of the alarm. Others believed it was a fire. Mrs. Archie Woodruff, who was near the bank at the time, said the men rushed out so fast she thought they were on the way to a fire. Other residents watched the firehall for some time, waiting for the reels to come out.

New Questions Facing Young Doctor

VERMILLION, SD, Aug. 17 — (AP).—A 28-year-old medical school research faced new questioning today after admitting a drug he administered by mistake caused the deaths of two "human guinea pigs" in a sedative experiment.

Dr. Louis F. Nichalek, of the South Dakota Medical School Staff, told a coroner's inquest on Thursday he gave methadon instead of demerol in the test on Tuesday.

Jack Clifford, 30, a technician, and Mrs. Ardys Pearson, 26, secretary in the university's pharmacology and physiology department, died in a hospital 24 hours after the drug was injected.

Dr. Michalek told jurors the normal dose of demerol is 100-150 milligrams, of methadon only 10 milligrams. He axplained that he mistakenly gave each of the two victims 100 milligrams of methadon.

"Were the bottles labelled?" he was asked by Martin Weeks, Jr., Clay county State's Attorney.

Bottles Labelled

"Yes," the doctor replied.

"Did you read them?"

"Yes."

"Then how do you account for this mistake?"

"It's one of those things you can't account for. You check it, and then you just don't know how to account for it."

Dr. Michalek said he discovered the error within five minutes. Margery Stuvland, another secretary in the department, was to have been the third subject for the experiment. Methadon was to have been used on her.

"I went to check the vials again to make sure I had the right one," the young doctor continued. "I picked up the vial and realized that I had already used the drug. I went for antidotes immediately."

Dr. Michalek said he himself was to have been the fourth person to undergo the test. Weeks asked him why he was placed last.

"It is common for the operator to serve as a subject in such an experiment," the witness said. "I was there alone and wanted to make sure the test was stabilized before I went under influence of the drug."

OBITUARIES

MISS ELLA FORSYTH.

COTTESLOE, Aug. 17.—In the death of Miss Ellen Forsyth, in her 84th year, on Friday, Aug. 10, there passed away a member of one of the pioneer families who had come from Scotland and settled in this district. She was born, lived all her life and died on her father's farm, lot 5, con. 1, Douro. Her grandfather, the late Newman Forsyth, hewed out of the forest his farm home, now owned by Max Tedford. That home was the stopping place for the saddle-bag preacher, who came from Port Hope on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday preached at Colquhoun's Corners, now Cottesloe, in the old kirk on the Glebe lot there. Religion was very real to these pioneers who walked miles to attend the kirk. Early in life Miss Forsyth united with the Warsaw Presbyterian church, from which she was buried on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 12. Mrs. James Hawthorn played organ music for half an hour before the service at 4 p.m. Rev. R. D. Duncanson of Norwood, preached the funeral service from the Shepherd Psalm and the burial service was at the Cottesloe cemetery where she was laid beside two generations already buried there. The pallbearers were: Dr. Donald Munro, Robert Millar, Thomas Crowe, Alex Rose, Milton Drain and James Hawthorne. Flower bearers were: Rollie Tedford, Rae Carlow, Geo. Carlow, Ronald Clements, Thos. Moore and Russell Greystock.

The offering of flowers and the large attendance bore testimony to her worth.

Those from a distance present were: Mr. Donald Forsyth of Galt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Forsyth of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Forsyth and Miss Marcia Forsyth of Windsor, Mrs. Edith Taylor and Miss Mary Mae Taylor of Toronto, Allan Forsyth of the RCAF Trenton. Friends and relatives were present from Peterborough, Lakefield, Norwood and the surrounding districts.

MISS ANN CAREY

Miss Ann Carey, 69, 450 Rogers St., died in hospital Thursday following a lengthy illness.

She was born in Otonabee township, daughter of the late John Carey and Margaret McCann and has lived in Peterborough for 14 years, coming here from Otonabee. She was a member of Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. Walter Conway (Olive), Lansing Michigan; three brothers, Jack, Inglewood, Ont.; and Vance and Clarence, both of Lansing, Michigan.

The funeral will be held Saturday from the Duffus funeral home to Sacred Heart church where requiem mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Burial will be in St. Peter's cemetery.

FRANK (MICKEY) WILLIAMS

Frank Williams, 190 Auburn St., a retired employee of the Canadian General Electric Company, died suddenly Thursday night at Civic Hospital of the effects of a heart attack earlier in the day.

Born in Peterborough, Mr. Williams as a boy attended the old South Central School. From the Collegiate Institute he went to work at the CGE plant, and was employed there about 43 years in the production department. He was a member of the company's Quarter Century Club, and retired in 1949. He was also a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Peterborough Lodge AF and AM, Corinthian Chapter and Moore Preceptory.

His wife, the former Lily Green, died in 1947. Mr. Williams had played ball around the south end of the city in his youth, and always took an interest in sports. His many friends will deeply regret the death of Mickey Williams, the familiar name the companions of his youth gave him.

The body is resting at the Comstock funeral home where service will be conducted Saturday at 1.30 p.m. by Archdeacon W. P. Robertson, of St. John's Church. Burial will be at Little Lake cemetery.

Can't Recall Other Names

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)— Investigating Senators said today they could recall the naming of only one Canadian as having had Communist connections during current testimony before the Senate internal security sub-committee.

Available committee members, referring to a story in the New York Journal-American Thursday about alleged connections between two high Candaian government officials and Communist espionage agents, said they could recall only the mention of Herbert Norman, acting chief of Canada's United Nations delegation.

The Journal - American story said "two Canadian government officials of high rank" had been named before the congressional body as associates of Red espionage agents in the United States. It said their names were being held in closest secrecy by the committee.

Canadian embassy officials in Washington were asked by their government to try to find out the names of the Canadians so mentioned.

Wants Guild Articles Labelled In Papers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—(AP) —Rep Richard B. Vail (Rep.-Ill.) introduced a resolution in the Houseof Representatives Thursday to require newspaper publishers to label any articles or editorials written by members of the American Newspaper Guild (CIO).

Under Vail's proposal, the abbreviation ANG-CIO would have to be inserted "under the caption and above each article, editorial, column or commentary" written by a Guild member. He also would require an explanation of the abbreviation in the newspaper's masthead.

"To this insurance against insidious propaganda the American public is justly entitled," Vial told the House in a speech in which he declared "the CIO radicals" are trying to control the country's press through the Newspaper Guild.

Must Avoid New Korea

HONOLULU, Aug. 17—(AP)— Thomas E. Dewey said Thursday night it should be "our primary objective" to keep the Russians from creating "a vacuum in Japan into which they could move as they did in Korea." The New York governor, returning from a tour of the Pacific and southeast Asia, told reporters the Russians had made "a perfectly obvious effort" to create such a vacuum in Japan.

Rain Restricts Cricket Play

LONDON, Aug. 17 (Reuters)— Rain restricted play to an hour and 25 minutes before lunch on the second day of the fifth and last tests between England and South Africa at the Oval today.

In that period, England carried an overnight score of 51 for two to 111 for three and was 91 runs behind South Africa's first innings total of 202.

Resumption this morning was delayed 20 minutes and after 50 minutes' play another shower caused a delay of 15 minutes.

The English batsmen moved slowly on a pitch which helped the bowlers on rare occasions.

Young Peter May, the Cambridge blue, looked confident as he resumed. He was timing the ball well and swinging easily.

He had just hit his first four of the morning, a long straight drive, when he was clean bowled playing defensively two balls later. He had made 33 and with Denis Compton added 28 this morning in 45 minutes.

Willie Watson, the Sunderland soccer star, joined Compton and the score began to move rapidly. Watson was fortunate with two snicks through the slips both of which went for four, one of them sending up the 100 after two hours 10 minutes.

The weather still looked threatening when the players went in for lunch.

Say Theatre Manager In Leamington 2 Days

LEAMINGTON, Aug. 17 (CP)— Forty-year-old Kenneth Johnston, manager of the Odeon Theatre in London, Ont., has been in Leamington for two days, Provincial Police said Thursday night.

Police said four persons have identified a news picture of Johnson as "Pat Noonan," a resident of the Seacliff Hotel until 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Work Out Plan To Thwart Red Filibuster

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP) —American officials have worked out a plan aimed at thwarting an expected Russian propaganda filibuster at next month's Japanese peace conference at San Francisco.

With this as a guide, State Secretary Dean Acheson hopes to cut short the flurry of anti-American speeches the Russian delegation is reported ready to unleash.

The "stop-Russia" plan, informed officials said, is the product of nearly four months of careful advance planning by top State Department officials led by Ambassador John Foster Dulles.

Acheson instructed Dulles last April, it was learned, to work out what United States strategy should be in the event Russia, despite its denunciations of the draft treaty, decided to attend the Sept. 4 conference.

Russia's disclosure Thursday that it will send a 32-member delegation to San Francisco has reinforced belief that Moscow will try to wreck the conference and prevent signing of the American - British sponsored treaty.

Can't Change Now

The State Department bluntly told Russia in a formal note on Thursday that it was too late to try to change the "final" treaty draft. The meeting, it said, is "not a conference to reopen negotiations of the terms of peace."

The size and high rank of Russia's delegation—the State Department says it will number 32—has revived speculation that perhaps Russia will try to convert the meeting from a Japanese peace conference to one aimed at a general solution of Far Eastern questions including the future of Formosa and full diplomatic recognition for Red China.

American officials will seek to block such a move by ruling it "out of order," it is reported.

Thirty-five countries already have indicated they will attend the San Francisco conference. Another 15 are yet to be heard from but American officials expect nearly all will show up.

Big Fellow In Town To Get Sprucing Up

STRATFORD, Aug. 17—(CP)— A big fellow is in town for a general sprucing up. He went through the same routine just before his last really big job in 1939.

No. 6400—the railway engine that pulled the King and Queen across Canada 12 years ago—is at the Canadian National Railway shops here for a complete check up before it pulls the train carrying Princess Elizabeth and The Duke of Edinburgh from coast to coast.

The foreman in charge of the job says he was ordered to give No. 6400 "the works" before Sept. 22.

Young Architect Wins Prize For Cathedral

By EDWIN S. JOHNSON.

LONDON, Aug. 17 (CP).—A Scottish architect's "prayer in stone" has been chosen for the reconstruction of Coventry's famed cathedral, devastated by German bombs in 1940.

A selection committee chose 44-year-old Basil Spence's design from among 219 entries submitted by Commonwealth architects. Spence realized a lifetime ambition and a £2,000 prize at the same time.

In his notes accompanying the plans, Spence wrote:

"The author . . . does not see this building as a planning problem, but as an opportunity to create a shrine to the glory of God."

His conception embraces the ruins of the 15th century structure and retains the magnificent spire. Around them he envisages a new rectangular cathedral 240 feet long, 88 feet wide and 90 feet high, with a stained glass window rising 70 feet at one end.

The cathedral walls will be zigzagged, with stained glass windows set at an angle so that light is thrown directly on the stone altar and charred cross saved from the wartime fire bombs.

To Seat 1,500

Of pink and grey stone, the new cathedral will seat 1,500 persons.

No definite plans have been made for the start of building operations, expected to take from five to 10 years. Total cost of the undertaking has been estimated at more than £800,000.

Spence was visiting London when the word reached him.

"I nearly passed out when I heard the wonderful news," he said. "It is all I've ever wanted."

The Bishop of Coventry, Rt. Rev. Neville Gordon, said it was proposed to hang a massive tapestry of the Crucifixion behind the altar in the new cathedral. It will be about 70 feet high—the largest single tapestry in the world—and will cost about £30,000.

Honor W. Loukes On 78th Birthday

ROSENEATH, Aug. 17 (ENS)—Mrs. Irwin Smoke, Alderville, entertained their immediate relatives at a birthday dinner Wednesday evening, at their home on the eastern part of the reserve, in honor of her father, Mr. William Loukes, who was marking his 78th birthday.

Mr. Loukes was a former postmaster and councillor of the Alderville Reserve and a member of the choir.

Although not a full-blooded Indian, Mr. Loukes related that his paternal grandfather, Joseph Loukes, came from England on the same boat as the first Atkinsons and McVety's, of Percy township, and had taught school in Percy township, later marrying a Miss Crawford, a Chippewa Indian girl, a member of the Indian band of Alderville Reserve. Mr. Loukes, Sr., was then adopted into the Indian band, receiving a grant of land, interest money (annuity) and all other benefits of an Indian. So now, for four generations the Loukes have resided on the Alderville Reserve Mr. John Loukes being the member of the fourth generation.

Although in failing health, Mr. Loukes retains all his faculties and relates many an interesting anecdote of earlier Indian days.

Immigration Boom

In the first six months of this year more immigrants arrived in Canada than in the whole of last year. Nearly 80,000 entered before the end of June; if the rate continues it will be a record year for post-war immigration; the present high of 125,414 was in 1938. These post-war records are not comparable with immigration rates in the decade of 1901-11 when a total of 1,800,000 entered Canada. This immigration was a main factor in the gain of 34.17 per cent. which the total of population of Canada registered in that decade. In the year 1907 alone 272,409 people emigrated to this country. Since the war Canada has received 515,000 new citizens; half a million.

* * *

Sensible and forward-looking Canadians must greet the revival of immigration this year with relief. We do not intend to enter here into the interminable argument about the maximum population this country can accommodate. Whether it is 25, or 50 or 100 millions, none of these figures has been reached or is likely to be reached within twenty years. Canada has room for more people, their productive capacities and individual geniuses. Compared with Europe and Asia this country is empty. Some Canadians do not like to make the comparison; but crowded, ill-fed Europeans do, and so do Russians. To preserve and advance her wealth, her amenities and her national safety, Canada needs more people.

* * *

For one reason or another there are always objectors to immigrants or a lively immigration policy. These stand-patters want to hold what they have. They feel that they are sharing their goods, their jobs and their native heath—parcelling it up into ever smaller pieces as more people arrive. That is not so. The additional thousands increase the goods and jobs and extend the towns, countryside and even the frontiers of the nation.

* * *

To some people the time is never right to allow immigrants to enter in significant numbers. In bad economic times there are no jobs and no money. In good times they are afraid bad times are around the corner and that new immigrants will reduce the standard of living and hasten the turn around the corner. Actually, now, when farms, industry and unexploited natural resources are clamouring for men, now is the time to encourage immigration as vigorously as we can. The national interest is being better served now by the newer, brighter immigration policies of Ottawa, and by the industries which are themselves going out to look for new workers abroad.

Temporary Parking Solution

Peterborough now has more off-street public parking space than it has ever had; because not only is the Market Square available for parking every day but the site of the new Federal Building has been levelled and conceded for parking. This is in addition to the narrow lot beside it now provided as a parking area.

This comfortable state of affairs may not continue for long. Some day, six months or a year or two hence work will begin on the new Federal Buiding and put an end to the large parking area. And some day the Market Square, one of the most valuable building sites in the city, will be denied parkers, if the city council acts—as it should act—according to the economics of the thing. The revenue from the meters on the Market Square is chicken-feed compared with what the city should get for the commercial use of the site.

We do not wish to push council into another testy situation before the sound and fury of the market removal has subsided, and so soon after it has alertly acquired for temporary municipal use the site of the Federal Building. However, as civic officials well know in their previous bouts with the parking situation, this matter cannot be forever a hand-to-mouth, day-by-day adjustment. Some sort of policy and long-term plan has to be formulated. Is it the city's duty to provide free off-street parking, or even parking facilities at a low meter rate? Is Peterborough to say its responsibility to the motoring citizens is to keep traffic moving and the streets reasonably free of parked cars, and not to provide for parking out of the public purse? In other words, is Peterborough to be like Toronto, Montreal and Edmonton which have no concern where people park so long as they do not block the streets? Is it the job of private enterprise, not public welfare, to provide parking space; a business, not a service?

Peterborough has not made up its mind about this, and we doubt that in a place as small as this the city officially should be as inhospitable as not to provide parking service. The whole matter is still unsettled; it is only temporarily that council and public have parking room to breathe.

There is a pessimism about the new Federal Building which breeds a special optimism about parking. Some people may reason that the parking situation is solved for ever by the use of the Federal Building site. They say: that building has been going up, but never got there, since cars were a curiosity and rarity and there was no parking problem. It may be thirty or forty years more before it is built, and by that time cars may have had their day and again be as rare as they were in 1911.

Wolfe Statue

We think that Toronto might be doing good business if it bought the Wolfe statue being offered it by a Canadian now resident in New York. The statue is not a colossus; it stands only ten feet high; and what other statue, new or old, can be had for $5,000 these days—except the baroque grotesque of Queen Victoria, now in a shed in Dublin, which can be got for the handling and shipping charges (which would amount to more than $5,000).

The connection Toronto has with Wolfe is of course nebulous; the hero of 1759 never knew that Toronto existed. It didn't. If Quebec wanted it; or Levis, which was Wolfe's military base from which his troops made the successful ascent from the river to the Plains of Abraham, we suggest that Toronto gracefully forego the prize for University Avenue and pass it eastward.

It is surprising how few statues of Wolfe there are in Canada. The hero is memorialized here in song and painting, but little in stone. Is there a statue of him in Ottawa, in Quebec, on the Plains of Abraham? For the life of us, we cannot recollect any except a fine small one in bronze (a copy) standing near the entrance to the bar of the Chateau Frontenac. There are, of course, monuments and plaques; if there are statues they must be bad ones or our memory for replicas of military figures is faulty.

The New York statue is mystifying. Why a statue of Wolfe in New York? The sculptor was a Scot, John Massey Rhind, who emigrated to New York in 1889. Soon afterwards he was commissioned to construct four statues to front a large building, recently torn down. He seems to have picked his figures at random—two Amercian generals, a Dutchman, and General Wolfe.

It is risky to buy a statue sight-unseen, but we presume that Mayor McCallum or some other Toronto critic would fly down to assess its fitness for Toronto before laying out $5,000. We cannot think that if it is recognizably Wolfe is it a monstrosity—even if Wolfe did have a weak chin. Another risk which has Toronto wagging its head: the initial cost is not the last one. Some say it would cost $10,000-$20,000 to get the thing set up adequately. General Wolfe, are you worth that much to Toronto?

Us And U.S.

In this week-end's edition of Time magazine there is a publisher's article about the relations of the world's third largest country to the United States and its denizens. We hasten to explain that the world's third largest country is us—Canada; only Russia and China are bigger. That is one of ten facts which, the magazine says, 701 leading Canadian businessmen checked off for its research worker as being the most important Americans should know.

Some of the other ten most Canadian know, and Americans have a glimmer of them—facts like this: that Canada is the world's largest producer of newsprint, nickel, radium, platinum, asbestos, and ranks second in wood pulp, aluminum and gold.

Here are other of the ten "most important" facts which, even if we already know them, are useful to recall.

The Canadian Government has had a budget surplus every years since the war. Canada pays cash on the barrel-head for U.S. goods. Canada is one of the few countries to solve her "dollar-gap" without direct U.S. loans and grants.

How Canada bridges her dollar-gap (created by her being the U.S.'s third best customer) is indicated in part by this other "most important" fact: every third dollar paid by Canadian firms in interest and dividends goes to U.S. investors. Interest and dividends totalling 320 million Canadian dollars crossed into the United States last year; chiefly because the U.S. has more private investments in Canada than in any other country—some $5½ billions.

On the money face of it, is American investment working for Canada, or are Canadians working for American investors? Canada is far and away the biggest, safest and most productive colony of the American dollar empire.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Do-gooders on this continent who think that sweetness, light and all such benefits of democracy must come overnight if republicanism and the vote are given to a people, should heed the report from the India-Burma border this week where tribesmen raided a village and took ninety heads off with them as trophies.

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

DEAR ALPHA: Was it local worthies or far-off grandees who gave their names to the series of avenues running off Charlotte Street, between Park and Monaghan Road: Boswell, Pearl, Maitland, Elias, Margaret and Frederick? I am thinking particularly of Boswell and Frederick; was the former named for the biographer of Dr. Samuel Johnson, the latter for the Prussian Kings Frederick?

ANSWER: The entire large block of 42 acres bounded by Monaghan Road, Charlotte, Park and King Streets was deeded about 110 years ago by the Crown to Elias Burnham, first solicitor to practise in Peterborough. As I understand the story, all these street names are of the family of Elias Burnham. This family of Burnhams must not be confused with the Ashburnham Burnhams: the Hon. Zaacheus Burnham of Cobourg, land speculator and his son the Reverend Mark Burnham of St. John's Church and his son Captain Dr. John Burnham, M.D., M.P. who represented East Peterborough as a Conservative in the Federal Parliament twice, after the elections of 1878 and 1882. Elias Burnham was a cousin of the other Burnhams. I am trying to get the exact relationship clear for the record next week.

There is not much information available about Elias Burnham and his family; or what there is of it is confusing and vague in essential details. Little Lake Cemetery records show that he died March 4th, 1890, at the age of eighty, and was buried there. He was considered something of a 'card'. The historian, the Rev. C. P. Mulvaney, writing in 1885, says that Elias Burnham was unmarried; this is an error of connubial fact.

ELIAS BURNHAM became one of the largest property-owners in Peterborough and served the municipality in various capacities—for instance, 20 years on the Council, so I have been told. He was superintendent of schools for the Colborne District, which then included Peterborough County, from the time of the passing of the Common School Act by the Reform Government in 1844 until 1850. His salary was at first £25 then £50 a year, so it is obvious that he took the work as a civic duty rather than for the emoluments attached to it. At one time he offered to contribute his salary towards building a new school and providing free tuition and a library for Peterborough children, but the Governor of Upper Canada would not grant the land. He travelled six to sight hundred miles a year on horseback, visiting school sections and planning new ones.

Sometime before 1850 Elias Burnham built the first roughcast house in Peterborough on the Crown Land he had been granted west of Park Street. The house was one of the largest of its time. It stood four-square, two storeys high, with central doorway. It was set in from the street, facing Park. There were three large rooms downstairs, the drawing-room extending the length of the south side. Behind were kitchens, scullery, etc. Strangely enough in those days of fireplaces, the house was heated by pipes from stoves. The front and sides were set out in lawns and gardens, but the rest of the 42-acre property was left rough farm and bushland.

When Mr. Burnham died his only daughter and her husband (Mr. and Mrs. John S. Boswell) and family moved to Peterborough from Cannington. (The Boswells were of a well-known Cobourg family.) Mr. Boswell conducted a real estate and insurance business. He had oversight of the Elias Burnham estate, valued at more than $150,000. The heirs had the homestead block surveyed and laid out in streets and lots. The old house was sold and cut in two, half going to Boswell Avenue, the other to Elias, to be the nucleus of two new houses. The entire area was restricted to residences, and standards of building were established.

BOSWELL AVENUE — to return to our sheep — was therefore named after the daughter and son-in-law. The family had wanted to have the name Burnham perpetuated by calling one of the new streets Burnham Avenue, but pressure was brought to bear against this. The town already had Burnham Street, named after the ministerial Mark's family. So 'Elias Avenue' became Elias Burnham's memorial. Elias was also the name born by the eldest son of Elias, the late Dr. Elias L. Burnham of Millbrook.

Frederick Avenue was named for the youngest son of Elias the elder, who married a Miss Cluxton of a prominent commercial Peterborough family. He practised law in Winnipeg. "Margaret Avenue" was named for Mr. Burnham's sister Mrs. Margaret Wilson who had kept house for him in his late years. The remaining two avenues were named for two grandchildren—Maitland for the younger son of his daughter Mrs. J. S. Boswell, now a professor in the faculty of applied science in Toronto; "Pearl" for the only daughter of the late Dr. Elias Burnham of Millbrook, Mrs Edmund Ball of that village.

I hope to have some more information about Elias Burnham and his connection with the Ashburnham Burnhams next week.

JACKSON PARK QUARRY: Nobody has volunteered to push me in my wheel chair out to inspect the alleged sites of this quarry from which the stone for many of Peterborough's finest homes and public buildings was got. My informant of a couple of weeks ago has revised her opinion; the "quarry" she referred to was outside the Park on what is now the Heffernan farm. That was a quarry for lime; a disused kiln is still there. But this does not put the stone quarry inside the Park again. Another reader of this column well remembers being driven out to the stately Wallis home 'Merino' and having the quarry pointed out to her on the left hand side of the road, and well outside the Park limits.

✧ ✧ ✧

FOR THE RECORD: A gentleman in Peterborough refuses to buy or use the new three-cent stamp. He even goes the length of using a four-cent one where a three would do. The reason? A portrait of the late Prime Minister Mackenzie King adorns the new three-cent stamp. Thus is the bitterness, and even venom which Mr. King aroused in some quarters in his long political lifetime perpetuated beyond his grave. I presume that there are some Americans who refuse to use the U.S. stamp bearing a likeness of Mr. Roosevelt. "The evil that men do lives after them, The good is oft interred with their bones"?

Megalomaniac of the Press

(MONTREAL STAR)

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST is dead, full of years, master of immense wealth and vast possessions and, at the end of it all, frustrated in most of his dearest ambitions.

Had Mr. Hearst been content to confine his activities to the one thing he loved best and was best at, newspapers and the direction of newspapers he would have been a happier and— after his own lights—a more successful man. But his position was a difficult one. Left an only son with a great fortune, immediately successful in his first newspaper venture, it would have required a greater strength of character than young Hearst possessed to have curbed (or, better still, directed) an ambition which drove him to excesses throughout his life and left him for the last twenty years or so a lessened figure, an old journalistic lion whose roars did not attract much attention beyond the editorial rooms of his diminished string of papers.

William Randolph Hearst did much to degrade and debase American journalism. His presentation of news was revolutionary and, on the whole, welcome enough. Between them, he and Pulitzer helped to shake the somnolent and somewhat pompous journalism of the day alive. It was what Hearst considered news and his too frequent use of a sort of pseudo-news for objectives of his own that made him, at one time, a danger to the State and occasionally to the world. How much the war-whoops and witch dance of the Hearst press had to do with fomenting the Spanish-American war will some day be finally assessed. Those who are able to remember that performance will still continue to believe that his responsibility was a heavy one.

MR. Hearst's isolationism and his persistent antipathy to Britain have been a sore trial to State Departments for almost half a century. Of much greater ability and, through the many outlets for his views, exercising far wider influence than the shrill and obsessed Col. McCormick, Hearst plowed and fertilized the ground from which the smaller figure likewise draws his sustenance. The instantaneous and jolting reaction to the Hearst attempt to keep his country out of the first world war was his most serious and deserved a lesson on how much real power his wide-flung and fabulously profitable newspaper chain really exercised when it tried to bully and cajole a people against their conscience. Others came in the repeated cruel disillusionments that pursued him through most of his would-be political career.

The "Hearst press" never seemed to do Hearst any good.

The confusion between size, bulk, mere bigness, and innate merit of whatever kind haunted him. Nowhere was this more evident than his country-wide "estates" with their castles and intimate little parties of 100 for the week-end. Where in the collecting of art objects a Morgan, a Frick, a Mellon, a Huntingdon called in experts to help till their own judgements were formed, the Hearst collecting mania could not rest content with a lovely old painting on a castle wall, but must take the castle along with it.

It would be unfair, however, to think of William Randolph Hearst merely as a megalomaniac Croesus ridden by what old Izaak called "overweening pride, engendering high conceits." He fought hard, ably, persistently, and at much expense for such things as decent hours of labour, pure milk supplies, votes for women and against what he regarded as some of the worst abuses of industrialization.

A strange, paradoxical and formidable figure passes with him. Some day the good and evil in him, what he did that was right, and what wrong may be set down and a balance drawn. Whether, after the few years necessary before the task could be begun, it would be worth the doing is another matter.

$2 Million Thank You

(U.K. Information Office)

The equivalent of nearly $2¼ million has been contributed by Britons in an expression of gratitude to Canada and the United States, and the Commonwealth countries for generous gifts of food parcels received during World War II.

The main object of the Thanksgiving Fund set up by the Lord Mayor of London was the foundation and maintenance of collegiate halls of residence for university students from the U.S., and Commonwealth who are studying in Britain.

The Fund has now been closed and the amount subscribed—$2,240,000—will enable not only a hall of residence to be built in London, but will also provide assistance to a similar establishment in Scotland.

Non-Defence Spending

(Ottawa Journal)

The latest Treasury reports show that of 64 Government spending agencies not connected with defence, 43 are spending at a faster rate than last year, and have been doing so every month since last March. We venture the suggestion that a great deal of the excess spending of these departments and agencies amounts to little more than a psychology of spending, to unnecessary outlays for reports and travel, plus other things which impose themselves so easily upon Government administration when a government begins putting on "airs" or has too much money lying around.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And the Lord sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: but the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die....

And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul.... Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon....

And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said unto David, The Lord also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. (II Sam. 12: 1-5, 7, 9, 13.)

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. (Ps. 51: 1, 2.)

APPRECIATES APPRECIATION

Sir: It gives me great satisfaction to say a simple "thanks" to Mr. George Boreham for his letter to the editor in Wednesday's Examiner, on behalf of myself and my co-workers at the Civic Hospital.

It is nice to know that there is someone who, in the midst of an ocean of complainers, will publicly express his appreciation of the services and protection offered. It is encouraging.

Sincerely,
APPRECIATIVE.

Atomic Age

(Saskatoon Star-Phoenix)

Disclosure that the United States has already spent $4.9 billion on atomic development and is preparing to spend another $2.6 billion should leave no doubt of the fact that we are well launched into the atomic age. What the cost of this invisible element of nature would be if the expenditures of the Soviet Union, Britain, Canada and all the others involved in atomic projects were added we can only guess. In one sense that may be just as well, for so much human effort has been put into the task of perfecting the atom as an instrument for human destruction. As in everything else, we have been forced to relegate our visions to second place while we struggle with realities. Yet visions are not entirely forgotten. The research being carried out in our own university into radioactive cancer treatment is only one of many signs that the harnessing of the atom for human betterment is also part of the new epoch.

Canada Finally Gets New Standard Kilogram

OTTAWA, Aug. 17 (CP)—Canada has finally got her kilogram, a tiny glistening chunk of metal which is going to keep this country's scales in balance.

Canada's new standard kilogram is the only one of its kind in the country and one of only 51 in the world. It will be used as the standard for weight in Canada.

It was received recently from the International Bureau of Weights and Measures, which made it on Canada's order and now is entrusted to the safety of the vaults of the National Research Council, the guardian of Canada's official weights and measures.

The new national standard is a platinum-iridium cylinder which stands about 1½ inches high. Its diameter is about the same and it has slightly-rounded edges, so none chip off and reduce the official weight.

It replaces the Canadian standard pound, another specific platinum-iridium weight, which has been Canada's official weight since 1873.

The fact this country now has a kilogram as the official standard, rather than a pound weight, doesn't mean Canadian scales now will be measured in kilograms instead of pounds. The pound still will be used, with the kilogram setting the standard. The kilogram is heavier, weighing about 2 1/5 pounds.

A Little Late

Its use now as Canada's official standard results from Canada's adherence in 1906 to an international convention which sets the kilogram as the international unit of mass. Though she joined the convention 45 years ago, Canada didn't until recently get around to ordering her official kilogram.

The kilogram here won't actually be used for weighing anything or determining weight in itself.

Its function is to sit under double glass domes in a research council vault and serve as the primary standard for other prototypes which are made for the trade department and used by its inspectors to keep check on weighing apparatus across the country.

CCL Unions Plan New Wage Drive

TIMMINS, Aug. 17. (CP) — A drive for a new round of wage increases for all unions affiliated with the Canadian Congress of Labor was announced Thursday by the CCL's wage co-ordinating committee.

The committee, which has met here for two days, said the drive will be undertaken because of rising prices and their effect on workers' efforts to maintain a decent standard of living.

The CCL claims a total membership of 350,000.

The committee also recommended to the CCL that a North American conference of labor bodies be called to discuss rising prices and attempt to develop a uniform wage policy for unions on this continent.

Canada Starts Drive To Put Teeth In Pact

By HAROLD MORRISON,
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The death of one ideal only makes Canada the more ready to champion another.

She was bitterly disappointed when the idealistic Havana Charter and International Trade Organization—to promote free trade on a permanent, long-range basis—died a reluctant death, mostly because the United States Congress did not ratify it.

Now she is ready to launch a new idea—to put a strong, permanent foundation under the four-year-old general agreement on tariffs and trade, a pact by 34 countries to increase the flow of international trade by lowering tariffs and granting other trading concessions.

The pact, known as GATT, was signed in Geneva in 1947, but it still has no permanent secretariat or managerial group, no adequate "police force" to make sure members abide by their agreements.

Representatives meet once every three or four months, but there is no one to carry on the day-to-day work.

This is one argument likely to be advanced by Canada. But the real thinking behind the proposal to make a GATT secretariat a reality is that eventually GATT may become a strong, permanent trade instrument.

Canada will bring up the proposed secretariat idea at the next meeting of contracting parties in Geneva Sept. 17. There a controversial issue is expected to develop which will place greater emphasis on Canada's proposal.

The United States in her drive to withdraw tariff concessions granted to Communist countries, is going to propose that the GATT membership allow her to take the same action against Communist-controlled Czechoslovakia.

Czechoslovakia is a member of the pact. There is some question as to what rights under the pact a nation has to withdraw concessions once granted.

A permanent secretariat, manned by experts, Canadian officials feel, might untangle such knots before they can cause damage to the pact.

Charge Priests Killed 13,000

HONG KONG, Aug. 17 (AP)—Two French Roman Catholic priests were ordered deported from Communist China after their trial on charges of "murdering 13,000 children," Communist press reports said Thursday.

Six Catholic nuns, presumably also French, were given similar sentences. Jail terms were suspended. The fate of two Chinese Catholic nuns is unknown.

Th 10 Catholics were first publicly denounced and ridiculed at a mass trial.

The priests were identified as Father Bernard Blusson of Rennes and Father Robert Lebas of Lille. Only Chinese names were given for the nuns, and church sources here do not know how many were French.

The charge of murdering children is a common one againts missionaries who have had a hand in administering orphanages in Red China. Several Canadian nuns are being held by the Reds, charged with the same offence.

The orphanages took in abandoned children, many of them dead or dying on arrival.

Wounded 3 Times Soldier Home

KITCHENER, Aug. 17—(CP)—Wounded three times, twice severely, while serving with the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in Korea, Pte. Kenneth Hughes, 22, of Kitchener, is home on 19 days leave.

He spent five of his six months in Korea in hospital. Each time he was let out of hospital he received another wound within a few days.

Ken said casualties in his regiment had been comparatively light.

Ken didn't think much of Korea. "Nothing but hills and more hills. I certainly wouldn't want to live there," he said.

But the soldier will not subscribe to a statement that Korea is not worth fighting for. He said "We are not fighting for the land. We are fighting to prevent the Communists from enslaving the world."

United Foreign Policy Declared Necessity

GENEVA PARK, Ont., Aug. 17 (CP)—J. B. McGeachy, associate editor of The Globe and Mail, said Thursday the North Atlantic Treaty Organization members should try to find a united foreign policy.

"It is essential to our group as is military standardization," he told the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs.

United States foreign policy should not be allowed to prevail automatically without discussion or, if need be, dissent—especially from Canada. The western alliances hould reach its policy decisions through consultation.

Great Lakes Traffic Hits New High

OTTAWA, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Traffic on the Great Lakes hit a new high during June, with 3,821,983 tons of traffic moving through its canal systems. The figure for June last year was 3,760,666 tons.

In general traffic was heavier through the Canadian locks at Sault Ste. Marie, and down slightly in the Welland and St. Lawrence canal systems.

Freight through the Sault canals —Canadian and United States locks—rose to a record 17,019,645 tons in June against 15,594,946 a year ago, a gain of nine per cent. Eastbound volume was up from 13,445,645 tons to 14,813,204, as lumber, flour, other grains, iron ore, scrap iron and stone were heavier. The westbound movement totalled 2,206,441 tons compared with 2,149,305 in June last year, with increases in oil and gasoline, stone and miscellaneous freight.

Traffic Lower

Traffic on the Welland Ship Canal in June was slightly lower than a year ago, totalling 2,003,883 tons compared with 2,014,313. Gains were shown in barley, oats, rye, flour, gasoline, petroleum and other oils, paper, woodpulp, soft coal, iron ore and sand, while corn, wheat, sugar, pulpwood, autos, coke and other freight were lower.

Freight traffic on the St. Lawrence Canal declined slightly in June to 1,400,207 tons from 1,438,422 in the same month last year. Advances were recorded in the movement of barley, oats, rye, gasoline, petroleum and other oils, paper and soft coal. Corn, wheat, flour, sugar, autos and parts, pulpwood and woodpulp, anthracite, sand and other freight were lighter. On the smaller canals freight volume rose over June, 1950, on the Ottawa, Murray and St. Andrews.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Two smart junior lacrosse squads are in action here tonight at 8.45 in Miller Bowl, barring hail or high water. Niagara Falls Cararacts — with many St. Kitts' aces aboard — play Lou Vitarelli's local loop leaders. Then tomorrow eve here, Toronto Maitlands and the Young Petes clash. Schedule winds up next Wednesday with Mimico on deck. Top two teams in this setup square off for the OLA junior "A" championship, winner going into the Minto Cup (or Canadian) finals. Hence, these games are most important to the local huskies and they are giving it all have these nights. They deserve lots of fan support, as the calibre of gutted-stick play is high.

* * * * * *

Ball and hockey fans may be gathering in large numbers this e'en — again, if weather permits — when Turk Broda's NHL all-stars stage a baseballic exhibition with the Petes at eight in Riverside. While some of these NHL-ers are the best in the world on the ice, quite a few of 'em are first-class diamondeers, too. It should prove a right interesting display as followers of the pro puckists and of the ballsters get a close-up of so many "name" players in action. Toronto Croftons have a four-point league game with the Whitehill squad on the morrow here, and the Petes must win to keep in first place. It's at eight bells.

Some Good Grid News

Some big newcomers are likely to wear grid livery for the Orfun in ORFU competition this autumn. Several strangers have shown up already at nightly workouts in Morrow Park. And D. A. McGillis, Sr., has obtained permission from Inspector Stringer for a couple of large-sized provincial policemen here—who have had a lot of football experience—to go out with the team. Naismith and Eady, we believe they are. The club, which is in the hole financially, plans to raffle a car this fall, putting it on the streets next week. Booster tickets are now available for fans, giving 'em reserved seats for all home scheduled games as well as parking space in Morrow Park. Six clubs in the circuit this year, so it should mean some fine football during September, October and November. Coach Leo Deadey commutes from Toronto for all workouts and games, Mr. McGillis loaning him a car for the pupose.

* * * * * *

Club officers for 1951 include: President, Dr. Roger Chenoweth; vice-president, D. A. McGillis; manager, Dr. Donald Aitken; secretary, Dr. Wilf Preston — hm, lots of medical talent, huh? — treasurer, Jeff Ginrod; executive, Dave Wilson, Stan McBride, Harry Yudin, Frank Foster, Bill Shadgett and possibly one or two we've overlooked. The Orfuns made a good showing, after a shaky start, last semester but really are out for a title this year. They'll be in shape for the first game early in September and not be working themselves into condition as the schedule progresses. It's too brief and tough a season on the gridiron for that.

Ned Returns As Coach

Some talk of hockey here lately, and the Eagles got together recently and named Ned Vitarelli coach of the club for next winter. Ned being told to pick his own manager. Puck fans will recall Ned leading the Legion to a provincial senior "B" title three seasons ago as a swell player and inspiring coach. He was transferred then to Montreal but has since returned to Peterborough. He is an ideal chap for the job. There has also been some talk of the Petes and Eagles amalgamating to produce an outstanding club, but nothing definite has come of it yet. Some of the officials on both clubs have talked it over, so the issue is by no means dead at the present time.

Men's city softball finals open with a twin bill Saturday p.m. in the Bowl at seven, a best-of-seven series. It's Orphans vs. UEW! Yes, sir, that's right—Orphans made it.

And did it the hard way, too. Came from behind last night to take two thrilling wins over Revoy's by 13-12 and 9-7 scores, sending Ken Guilfoyle's good squad into the discard and making the final sawoffs. And hard-working Terry Woods was the hero, pitching and winning both games for Harold Dormer's squad. A swell slab display by the dependable and likeable Terry, who tackles the iron-man stunt of tossing twin bills whenever asked. His mates came through in starry style, also. Sullivan and McGrath in particular. 'Twas a tingling windup to a keen semi-final series.

Petes Trounce Staffords In Long Game

TORONTO, Aug. 17.—Peterborough Petes trounced Staffords 17-14 in a weird contest that took three hours and 20 minutes to play at Millen Stadium last night. The Petes' victory enabled them to hold first place by two percentage points over Oshawa Merchants in the Viaduct Major Baseball League standing.

In their 21-hit attack upon Stafford hurlers Johnny Stoneburg and Jim Barnes, the Petes included homers by Joe Stewart and Bill Huntley, Fred Garvey's triple and George Brabin's double.

Still Clouting

Bill Huntley just about clinched the Viaduct League batting crown with five safe ones in six trips. George Brabin had four in seven. Al Menzies chipped in with a trio as did Joe Stewart. Stewart added six RBI's to his season record.

The relief hurling of thirdbaseman Andy Milne won the praise of the Toronto fans, the tall lad put out a serious Stafford rally in the seventh after Gunner Whitehill had permitted four straight hits. Milne also fanned three batters in the three innings he worked.

Ralph Hosking blasted a mammoth homer to left for Staffords. Bill Weir, Bill Heyes, Stoneburg, Danny Windley, Reg Spragge and Jim Barnes collected two safeties each for Staffords.

BEL AIR, Md., Aug. 17 (AP).—Two jockeys have been suspended from riding here after being questioned by police in connection with a series of alleged dope parties involving 'teen-age girls.

The suspended jockeys, Thomas H. Kane, 20, of Baltimore, and James C. Meyerhoeffer, 21, of Washington, are expected to be state's witnesses in the trial of another jockey, Frank Novella, 21, of Lawrence, Mass. He is charged with giving dope to 'teen-age girls at Baltimore.

Indians Bow To Browns 4-0 As Yankees Trip Washington In 5-3 Tilt

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer

Tommy Byrne, a hard luck guy from way back, found No. 13 the charm to ending Cleveland's all-winning rush toward the American League pennant. The former Yankee, shunted to the last-place St. Louis Browns in mid-June, made his 13th start of the season Thursday. It coincided with a 13-game Cleveland victory string. The result was rough on the Indians, whose lead was reduced to 1½ games by a 4-0 loss. No Cleveland club ever won more than 13 in a row.

BACK AS COACH—Ned Vitarelli, former starry Legion puckist and leader of the pack when they won the provincial senior "B" title three seasons ago, has accepted the job as coach of the local Eeagles in OHA senior "B" competition for this coming hockey season.

Byrne drove home all four runs off loser Mike Garcia before he left the game with a sore back in the eighth. Duane Pillette finished the shutout job.

The 5-3 New York victory at Washington slashed a full game off the Indians' lead. Both of the other first division clubs lost—Boston to Philadelphia, 10-2, and Chicago to Detroit 2-1.

There were faint stirrings of hope for a belated race in the National after New York knocked off Brooklyn 2-1 for a series sweep and a six-game winning streak. The Dodger lead, however, still measured 9½ games with 43 to play.

Break Loose

St. Louis broke loose with six runs in the seventh to trim Pittsburgh 9-6, and Chicago exploded four in the ninth to whip Cincinnati 8-4. Boston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

The Yanks received their first victory from Art Schallock, rookie lefthander from the Pacific Coast League. Until he wilted in the heat after seven innings, he gave up only one run. Joe Ostrowski yielded two more in his two-inning relief job. Gene Woodling's 12th homer led the attack on loser Dick Starr and two others.

Philadelphia climbed all over the Red Sox pitchers for 14 hits, including Gus Zernial's 25th home run. Clyde Vollmer gave Boston its only runs off Bobby Shantz with a two-run homer, his 21st. Ray Scarborough was the loser.

Trout Key Man

Dizzy Trout was the big noise in the Tigers' triumpn over the White Sox. He gave up only six hits and beat Joe Dobson with his fifth-inning home run. It was Dobson's second straight 2-1 loss.

Sal Maglie threw a four-hitter at the Dodgers for his 17th victory. It took a wild pitch by Don Newcombe with two out in the seventh to give the Giants the run that proved decisive. Billy Cox's homer gave the Dodgers their only run.

Gerry Staley picked up his 14th victory for the Cards at the expense of Murry Dickson. Stan Musial's 27th homer with two on in the sixth preceded a six-run St. Louis uprising in the seventh.

Chicago just beat the clock at Cincinnati. They agreed to start no inning after 10:30 p.m. to let the cubs catch a train. The 10th and its subsequent four-run rally for Chicago, started at 10:27. Chicago almost won it in regulation time but Connie Ryan hit a ninth-inning homer with two out. Starter Bob Rush was the winner over reliefer Howie Fox.

Argonauts Fly West For Games

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP). — Toronto Argonauts, the club that has shown complete mastery over western teams whenever they've met for the Grey Cup, leave today by plane for a two-game exhibition invasion of the west.

The Argos, beaten 17-11 by Hamilton Tiger-Cats in their first pre-season test, take off for their engagements against Calgary Stampeders and Winnipeg Blue Bombers with their line-up already riddled with injuries to two key men—quarterback Al Dekdebrun and his understudy last year, Nick Volpe.

Both were injured in last Sunday's game against Hamilton and coach Frank Clair has decided not to take them west.

The scullers will play a floodlight game against the Stampeders Saturday night. They will fly to Winnipeg for their Monday night tilt against the Bombers, the team they blanked 13-0 to win the Grey Cup last year.

Black Hawks To Play Belleville Oct. 4

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 17 (CP)—Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League will play a pre-season exhibition game here Oct. 4, Ken McNaught, president of the Belleville Hockey Association, said Thursday. The Black Hawks will be here three days and are expected to visit schools and hospitals in the district.

Bethany In Finals

BETHANY, Aug. 17—(ENS)—In the second round of the North Durham League semi-finals, Bethany beat Millbrook 8-2 on neat flinging by Ross McGill, who also shone at bat with a triple, two doubles and a single. Edmunds was best for Millbrook, and Ray Stewart hit hard, as did Charlie Smith. Breckenridge gave way on the losers' mound to Smith in the seventh. The victors got two runs each in the first, third, and fifth, and one apiece in the fourth and sixth. Millbrook got two in the seventh.

On Monday, Bethany defeated Millbrook 4-1. In the other bracket, Blackstock have won two from Janetville by 8-7 and 11-7 scores. Dates for the finals will be announced shortly. Teams:

Millbrook: Breckenridge, p; Edmunds, c; Lunn, 1b; Skitch, 2b; Smith, 3b; Armstrong, ss; Wright, lf; McDowell, cf; Inchley, rf.

Bethany: McGill, p; A. Stewart, c; Rowan, 1b; R. Stewart, 2b; Ryley, 3b; Ginn, ss; Edmunds, lf; Smith, cf; Kerr, rf; Lowes, rf.

Wings Clip Bisons 3-2

By The Associated Press.

No denying it, Rochester is the hottest team in the International League today. But can the Red Wings ever overcome the 12-game bulge enjoyed by the league-leading Montreal Royals?

The answer is probably "no."

The Royals, in first place virtually since the start of the campaign, have not had a serious losing streak, and show no signs of napping.

The Red Wings who Thursday night won their 10th straight, defeating Buffalo 3-2 in 10 innings, still, even with their inning streak, have been able to gain practically no ground on the Royals, who were rained out of a game with Ottawa Thursday night.

Johnny Blatnik hit a home run with none on in the 10th, and that settled it in favor of the Wings. The winners used four pitchers with Freddie Hahn, last in line, getting the triumph. Bisons' starter Moe Savransky went nine innings before giving way to Mike Schultz who gave Blatnik the fat one.

Take Twin Bill

Toronto won a doubleheader from Springfield, 5-3 and 7-2, to shove the Cubs even further into the cellar. Russ Bauers won the first game, although he needed help from Ray Shore, who took over in the final frame with the bases loaded and struck out three.

Johnny Hetki scored his 14th victory against nine defeats in the nightcap.

Baltimore and Syracuse were rained out.

Athletics Whip Tigers 12-5 In Fine Style

By The Canadian Press.

The only change in the Senior Ontario Lacrosse Association League Thursday night was the pace of St. Catharines Athletics who played their best lacrosse of the last month in defeating Hamilton Tigers by a 12-5 count. Brampton Excelsiors and Mimico Mountaineers battled into a 15-15 deadlock and called it quits without overtime play as a win either way wouldn't affect their final standings in regular league play.

Tigers held the greatly improved Athletics to a 1-1 draw at the end of the first quarter in the game at St. Catharines but the Athletics took a 6-3 lead at half-time and made it 7-4 going into the last frame.

Bill Nelson and Ted Howe led the scoring for St. Catharines with three goals each while singles went to Tony Damico, Ken Droft, Don Frick, Steve Oneschuk, Emil Uhrynuk and Doug Smith.

Hamilton's scoring was all on singles. Blain McDonald, Tommy Love, Merv McKenzie, Elmer Lee and Al Doyle each got one.

Have Injuries

Although it didn't change their final league positions tonight's Brampton-Mimico clash may have effects reaching into the playoffs. But Stocks of Mimico suffered a broken nose in the fourth quarter and Brampton's Nick Ferri retired with a wrenched shoulder in the third.

Top-scorer in the league, Don McPhail, came through again on Thursday night to net five goals for the Mounties who came from behind Brampton's 15-10 lead at the three-quarter mark to tie the score in the final minutes of the game. Ken Dixon scored the tying goal at 13:53 of the last period.

Top goal-getters for Brampton were Don Beatty with three and Clark Lyons, Bob Hilson, Nick Ferri and Al Garbutt with two each.

Petes' Opponents Known Saturday

Peterborough's senior lacrosse opponents of next week won't be known until after tonight, Ken Kingston, local OLA official reports. He says that Toronto West Yorks still have a mathematical chance of making that sixth playoff spot. If they should defeat Brampton tonight in their last scheduled fixture, the Yorks would be tied with Fergus, forcing a home-and-home playoff Sunday and Monday, the winner then opening against Petes here Tuesday. But if Toronto loses tonight, Fergus has sixth place clinched and would open here against the Petes on Monday.

The second game, in either game, of the best-of-five Eastern Canada semi-final series would be at Toronto or Fergus next Wednesday. Meantime the other four teams, Hamilton, St. Kitts, Mimico and Brampton, are ready for their elimination playoffs.

Sixth-Inning Rally Gives Legion Win

COBOURG, Aug. 17. — A big sixth-inning rally by Legion Juniors proved too much for Baltimore Millers in the first game of the B playoffs in the Cobourg and District Softball League and the kid team whipped the Villagers, 14-10.

The Ball brothers, Don and Lyle, worked on the mound for Baltimore and were pounded hard by the Legion team who gathered 13 hits. Lyle Ball, the finishing hurler, was charged with the loss.

J. Irvine started for the winners and was taken out for Dawe, who got credit for the win. Dawe fanned eight.

Wooler Captures Semi-Final Opener

WOOLER, Aug. 17. — First-place Wooler went one up in the Trent Valley Softball League best-of-three semi-final series with the Trenton Chevies here, winning the opener, 4-2.

Barney McColl set the Chevies down with five hits and struck out four batters, while Harry Farr, the Trenton pitcher, was touched for seven hits while whiffing nine batters.

Karl Austin led the winners with a double and a triple. Jibber Ellis had a triple and a single for the Chevies.

Buddy Harvester Wins Thorncliffe Race

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP).—A first-time starter, well regarded by the harness racing fraternity, got the bettors off to a good start Thursday at Thorncliffe raceway Buddy Harvester, owned by Harry Bennett of Oshawa and driven by Keith Waples, won the first dash of the afternoon after being backed down to less than even money.

Buddy Harvester, an untried son of Lee Harvester, covered the mile in the respectable time of 2:15 4-5.

Buddy Hanover took the largest purse of the day when he finished second in the sixth race and then won the second heat. His best performance was given in the final heat when he was well placed by Percy Robillard and won without being extended.

Terry Woods Pitches O's Into Men's League Finals

Terry Woods, iron-man of local softball, emerged the individual hero of last night's double triumph by Harold Dormer's Orphans over Ken Guilfoyle's Revoys in the final games of a best-of-five men's series, for the right to meet UEW in the senior city finals.

The finals are a best-of-seven series, with a twin bill Saturday, starting at 7.00 p.m., at the Bowl.

Trailing 2-1 on games and underdogs following Tuesday's stinging 25-0 defeat at the hands of Revoy's on the three-hit flinging of Haddy Eakins, the fighting Dormer lads swung back with a sterling display of teamwork and courage, to win out last night in a dramatic and breath-taking finish. Dozens of East City fans cheered their favorites to the echo as Red Sullivan snared Eakins' play for the final out.

A Real Thriller

Orphans took the first game 13-12, a thriller-diller to the finish; went on to take the nightcap, another hectic battle to the end, by a score of 9-7; and the tall, lean Maritimer, Woods, never wavered for 18 frames. It was one of the finest individual performances seen in local softball for years. Incidentally, Woods hurled two twin bills in seven days including the August 9 set, on which he gained a split decision, a remarkable feat.

Sharing honors with Woods last night, catcher Murph McGrath worked like a Trojan behind the plate in both games and proved a positive factor in support of the Orhpan meal-ticket. Credit, too, must go to George (Red) Sullivan who poled out five hits, three in the first game, one a triple, to drive in three runs. Then he got two towering homers in the afterpiece to drive in three more and help cripple the transmission of the Motors.

Lefty Doris started the opener for Revoys and went well to the fourth when walks to Withers and Dormer (that's Harold), McGrath's safety, Jaquith's walk, Sully's triple, Scriver's single, O'Donoghue's walk, Woods' double and Withers' single, netted seven tallies to give Orfs a 7-4 edge, after Revoys had taken an early lead. The latter tied it in the fifth, but the hungry Orphans added three more in the home half. It was nip and tuck for the balance as thrill followed spill and Eakins replaced Doris in the eighth, with Revoys trailing 12-10. Bruce Taylor, who played a whale of a game with three hits—two homers included—drove his second in the top of the ninth with Thomson aboard, to tie the score. Sullivan bunted safely to open the home half, advanced on Scriver's hit and Currie reached first on an error, to fill the sacks. Woods then topped an infield roller on which Sullivan scored to win the game as Thomson missed a bad throw intended to force Red.

Also Tight

The nightcap was closely contested too, for six frames, with Eakins and Woods toiling well. Revoys again took an early lead of three in the first, two as Wyatt doubled in the first to score Legrow and Crowe; Eakins tripled to later score on Legrow's single in the second, but with Legrow, Giardino and Crowe on base, Spencer lined hard to Sullivan for a triple play. O'Donoghue trapped Giardino off third and met Legrow coming into third, to nip a serious threat in the egg-stage.

Sullivan's first homer with Jaquith on first in the third put Orfs back in the ball game and Russ Scriver's double scoring Jake tied it up in the fourth. Revoys rallied in the seventh to take a 7-4 lead as Crowe, Spencer, Wyatt and Taylor led the attack and seemed headed for a win; but Orphans exploded in the eight again to score five. Sullivan homered to open, Scriver rolled out but Currie tripled like a deer and O'Donoghue, Woods, Withers, Lewis and McGrath all hit safely to wrap it up as Orphans held off Revoys for the final two.

AskUN Condemn Czech Action Arresting Oatis

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 17—(AP)—The United States sought Wednesday to have the UN economic and social council condemn Czechoslovakia's imprisonment of AP correspondent William N. Oatis and request his release.

Poland and Russia joined Czechoslovakia in opposing the move.

The US action came in the form of a resolution in the social committee of the council, now considering a proposal for an international conference to draft a convention on freedom of information.

Presented by American delegate Walter Kotschnig, the resolution urged "that personal restraints be removed and sentences imposing arbitrary punishments be revoked." It also asked that governments "do all within their power to safeguard the right of correspondents freely and faithfully to gather and transmit news."

Czech delegate Arnost Tauber repeated charges that the US was sending "terrorists and criminals" into his Communist homeland and said papers found on Oatis certified he was an American spy.

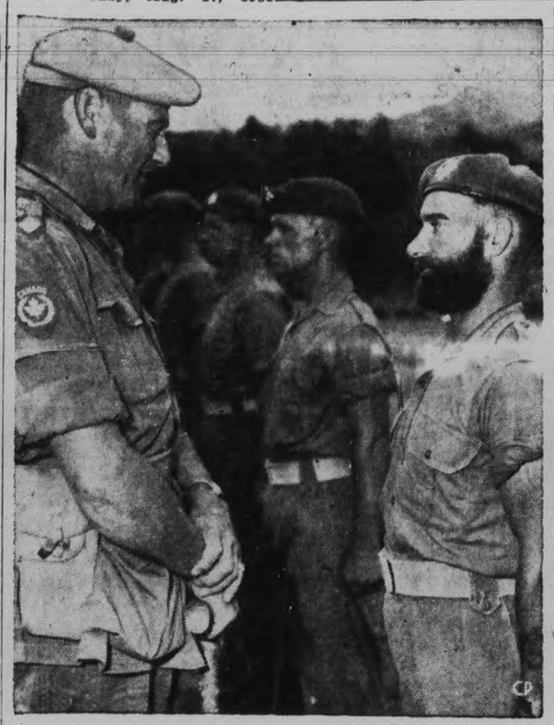
Guilt Proven

Soviet delegate N. M. Zonov said "the statements of Oatis himself prove his guilt."

Polish delegate Henryk Birecki said it was significant that Oatis "never profited from the chance offered by the presence of a US states observer in the court," adding: "He could have turned and said 'I am not guilty'."

(Actually, no one in the west is sure whether Oatis knew there were two observers from the US embassy at his Prague trial. Oatis appeared in court without his glasses. He is near-sighted, and friends said the courtroom outside his immediate area probably was just a blur to him.)

The debate was not ccompleted at adjournment. Action on the resolution probably will not come for several days.



PIONEER PRIVILEGE—Only unshaven man on passing-out parade of the first N.C.O. school in Korea was Pte. Fred Lobb, right, of Winchester, Ont. Pte. Lobb used his traditional privilege as a pioneer—he is a member of the pioneer platoon, 2nd Battalion, R.C.R.—to wear a beard. Inspection of the parade was made by Brig. J. M. Rockingham, left. Casualty lists later reported that Pte. Lobb had been wounded.

All Poland Now Huge Prison Young Refugee Tells Allied Heads

By DANIEL DE LUCE

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 17—(AP)—A young official of the Polish Foreign Ministry won political asylum in West Germany today and denounced the Kremlin for turning his homeland into a "Soviet slave colony."

The refugee—29-year-old Boguslaw Borowicz, who was granted asylum after appealing to Allied authorities here — declared that Poland now is now more than a huge prison.

"All the rights and freedoms of Polish citizenship have been trampled by a handful of Warsaw dictators who take orders from their Kremlin masters," he said.

"Through bloody police-state methods they have forced over 90 per cent of our country into the aggressive plans and desires for world conflict of the Soviet politburo."

Former Editor

The dark-haired, six-foot refugee, until recently was chief editor of Wiadomosci Polskie, a weekly newspaper issued in Frankfurt under the auspices of the Polish Red Cross, but controlled and financed by the Warsaw foreign ministry.

Borowicz, who joined the Polish United Workers (Communist) party in 1947, has been in charge of the weekly for the last two years.

"The aim of Wiadomosci Polskie was to serve as organ for communistic and the anti-west propaganda among Polish displaced persons," Borowicz said in an interview. "The publication also served as a means to contact individuals for collection of information on allied military forces, the activities of Polish political emigres and the activities of DP's unfriendly to the Warsaw regime.

Recruited Agents

"Under protecton of diplomatic immunity, Polish foreign ministry employees recruited agents and informers from among the German population and the DPs. The information gained was used against the allied occupation authorities and the federal German government at Bonn."

Borowicz's case is the latest in a series of spectacular defections from Polish rule.

Borowicz said his mother, wife and three-year-old son are still in Poland.

"I am never allowed to bring my family with me to the west. They were held as hostages for my obedience to the Communist government.

"If I were to return to Poland, I would live as a slave—as much a hostage as my family," he said. "By choosing the west I lose my family and my ties to my country, but I have an opportunity to fight and destroy the system which has reduced my country to a slave state."

Doesn't Approve Of Deep Plowing

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 17 — (CP)—If Art Ronald had his way, farmers would give up deep plowing in favor of shallow working of the soil.

With 50 years of farming behind him, he says cultivating only the top few inches would result in crops having radial roots, shorter and stronger stalks, and that the crops would stand up better in storms than those on deep-plowed land.

He has developed a cultivator of his own that breaks the sod and mixes up the soil.

Electric Output Up

OTTAWA, Aug. 17—(CP)—The output of Canada's central electric stations dropped eight per cent in June from the monthly record total of the previous month but was up nine per cent from the corresponding month a year ago. The Bureau of Statistics said Thursday the total output of electrical energy for the first six months of this year was 12 per cent better than in the first six months of 1950.

'Born Yesterday' Has 2 New Stars

Next week the Summer Theatre will present the popular "Born Yesterday," by Garson Kanin. The phrase, born yesterday, entirely sums up the beautiful but dumb bombshell, Billie Dawn. Billie was first introduced to Broadway audiences by Judy Holliday in 1945, where she stayed for five successive and successful seasons. Miss Holliday then took Billie to Hollywood and the screen. Now, in Peterborough, the Summer Theatre is presenting the talented Mary Sheppard in the role of Billie Dawn.

We first see Billie dragging numerous fur coats across the stage. These coats, given to her by the wealthy junk dealer, Harry Brock, are Billie's idea of "everything," until she meets the studious Paul Veral. Paul, hired by Brock to educate the illiterate Billie, shows her there is more to life that the things she can see, and makes her realize that Brock has earned his wealth by cheating and bribery. Billie, at first interested only by Paul and the things she knows, pays little attention to his scheme to expose Brock and his satelites. Then the wheels in the beautiful but dormant head begin to revolve, and Billie becomes a ball of fire in her efforts to aid Paul.

Second Newcomer

Miss Sheppard will be joined by another newcomer to the Summer Theatre, Murray Westgate, who will play the blustering Brock. Mr. Westgate is well known to Canadian radio audiences and comes to Peterborough from Vancouver where he has been appearing with the Theatre Under the Stars.

The supporting cast will include such popular regulars as Bill Needles as the tipsy lawyer, Ed Devery, Frank Perry as Paul Verral, Peter Mews as the cowering senator, and Ann Murray as the senator's wife.

Hold Spending To Estimates

"I hope the other chairmen of committees are keeping in mind the finances of their departments as Ald. Norman Graham has done," said Mayor Swanston in acknowledging the report which Ald. Norman Graham submitted as chairman of the sanitation department, a branch of the board of works.

Sanitation estimates amounted to $101,724.70, but the chairman agreed to a clip of $6,000 to enable the council to strike a satisfactory tax rate for the year. That left $95,724.70 for the department's operations.

Expenditure to July 31 was $53,772.26, showing a credit balance in the appropriations of $41,952 for five months.

"The department is holding its own," Ald. Graham told the council. "We had to make extensive repairs to the incinerator. Our estimate for that work was $11,000, but actual expenditure was $13,042. But, we have a credit from the board of works that will make up that difference.

"As recommended by J. E. Pierce, supervisor of the department, we also put in safety guards around the floor openings of the furnace. That was to prevent the possibility of a workman falling in. It was approved by the council, and it certainly is a great safety for the men working in the terrific heat.

"Early in the year I made some criticism of Mr. Pierce, but those matters were all ironed out. The department is running smoothly, and I want to give Mr. Pierce and his men credit for the work that is being done."

Sanitation department salaries to the end of July amounted to $39,777; sick pay $952 and holiday pay $1,508.

Repairs to the incinerator were made by Francis Hankin Co., Toronto, the firm that built the plant.

Doubts Much Panic If Canada Bombed

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP)—An Ontario civil defence official said Thursday he doubts that, in the event of an atomic bomb attack on Canada, there would be much panic.

Quelling any panic that developed in Ontario would be a responsibility of Ontario police forces, Maj. K. B. F. Smith, Senior Administration Officer of the Ontario Civil Defence Branch, told the Ontario Police Association. They would also have the task of controlling traffic so that fire equipment and medical supplies could be sped to bombed centres.

Intelligence Of Some Children Improved By Removing Half Their Brains–Scientist

EDINBURGH, Aug. 17 (Reuters)—The intelligence of some children can be improved by removing half their brains, says O. L. Zangwill, senior lecturer in psychology at Oxford University.

Zangwill told the British Association for the Advancement of Science at its final session here Wednesday about an operation performed at the National hospital in London.

Removal of the diseased half of the brain was a possible cure for epilepsy and other mental disorders in children, he said. Either the right or left side could be cut out.

"It has been thought that removal of part of the brain produced a lesser degree of intelligence, but these operations have shown that the intellectual level of children has risen," he said.

Zangwill said the first 11 operations of this kind were performed in London on children ranging from four to 16. All suffered from epilepsy, partial paralysis or other diseases which had affected their brains.

Mrs. John Ferguson Dies In 103rd Year

MONTREAL, Aug. 17 (CP) — Mrs. John Ferguson, who celebrated her 102nd birthday last May, died Wednesday. She was the widow of the late Rev. John Ferguson, who died 42 years ago.

She was born Amelia Smith in Ernestown, near Kingston. Her mother was formerly a Miss Allen, descendant of Ethan Allen of American Revolutionary War fame. Her father, Darius Smith, an inspector of lighthouses on the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence river, was a close friend of Sir John A. Macdonald.

Must Woo Asia Allies Told

GENEVA PARK, Ont., Aug. 17 —(CP)—Harold R. Isaacs, Far East correspondent for The Christian Science Monitor, said Wednesday night the Korean conflict is only a tactical operation in the power struggle between East and West and that it demonstrates the futility of trying to resolve the East-West clash by force.

He told the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs that it is the feeling in the Far East that the West is the foe of both Asia and Russia. Thus an alliance between Asia and Russia was natural.

"If the Russians can continue to represent themselves as anti-Imperialists and us as the heirs of an old Imperialism and the creators of a new one, then these feelings toward the West will continue."

Asia's economic and population problems were mounting with accumulative explosive force while the western world did nothing to help toward their solution.

"The explosions, when they come, will not be pleasant."

Would Avoid Errors

TORONTO, Aug. 17—(CP)—A hope that "glaring errors" in the restoration of Fort Henry at Kingston will not be repeated in Fort York was expressed in a letter read to the Toronto Historical Society Thursday. The author, Spencer Armitage - Stanley, a member of the Ontario Historical Committee, referring to the recent $200,000 restoration grant voted by city council, recommended reconstruction care from the standpoint of history and also from that of the tourist.

3,000 Balloons Take Messages

MUNICH, Germany, Aug. 17—(Reuters)— Three thousand balloons carrying more than 3,500,000 "peace and friendship messages" floated toward Czechoslovakia early today after being released from a secret place in Bavaria.

It was another phase of the operation "Winds of Freedom" sponsored by anti-communist organization in Canada, Europe, Latin America and the United States.

The operation started last Monday when Harold E. Stassen, President of the University of Pennsylvania and of the "1951 Crusade for Freedom," gave the signal for launching the first 2,000 ballons with 2,000,000 "freedom messages" for Czechoslovakia.

The messages gave a list of frequencies of Western radio stations.

Two Chalets Donated In Memory Publisher

BANFF, Alta., Aug. 17—(CP)—Two chalets of the Banff School of Fine Arts Wednesday were dedicated to the memory of Lt.-Col. J. H. Woods of Calgary, former publisher of the Calgary Herald.

His widow gave the keys to C. M. Macleod chairman of the University of Alberta Board of Governors, at an outdoor ceremony.

A plaque on one of the outside walls of one chalet was unveiled by Mrs. Woods. Its wording pays tribute to Col. Woods as a "pioneer newspaperman, citizen and statesman." The chalets will provide living and dining space for students.

Milk-Fed Pork

ZELMA, Sask—(CP)—A cow which lost her calf on a farm here has adopted four young pigs. The porkers started nursing while the cow was lying down one day and have been following her around ever since.

Saves His Chum From Drowning

TORONTO, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Lorne Duguid, Jr., 10-year-old son of a former National Hockey League player, recalled his father's lifesaving lessons and saved a 14-year-old chum from drowning.

Returning from a holiday at Kiawana Beach, near Meaford on Georgian Bay, Lorne told of rowing out on raft for a swim with Robert Fitzpatrick, Jr. Fitzpatrick jumped in, swallowed some water and went down. Lorne dove in after him.

"I remembered what Dad had told us about lifesaving and gave him a sock on the jaw," Lorne said Wednesday. "After that we were able to get him up on the raft."

Lorne's father, who once played for Detroit Red Wings, Boston Bruins and Montreal Maroons, swam to the raft and quickly brought the boy around.

Labor Board Rejects UE's De Laval Bid

Can't Understand It —Sullivan; Says 161 Cards Filed

The Ontario Labor Relations Board has rejected an application by Local 527, United Electrical Workers, to be the bargaining agent for DeLaval production workers.

It is the second bid by the union that has failed in the last two years. More than 320 employees are affected.

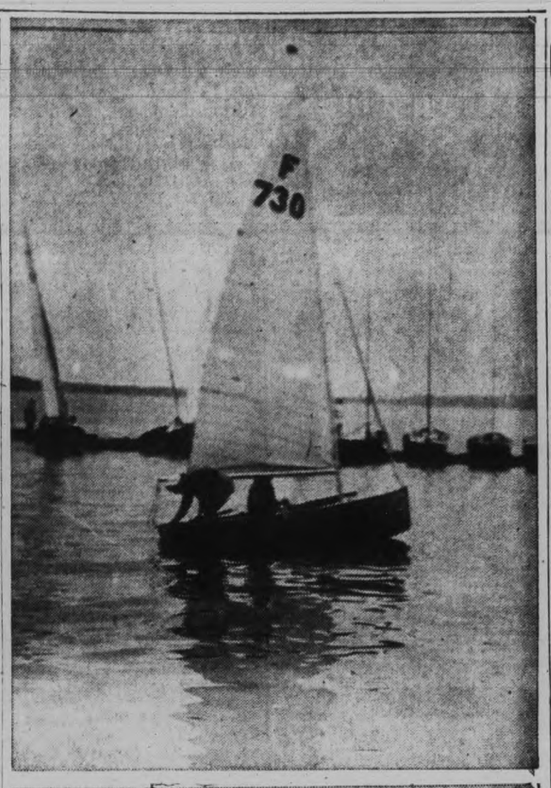
In dismissing the application the OLRB found that "less than 45 per cent. of the employees in the bargaining unit are members of the applicant."

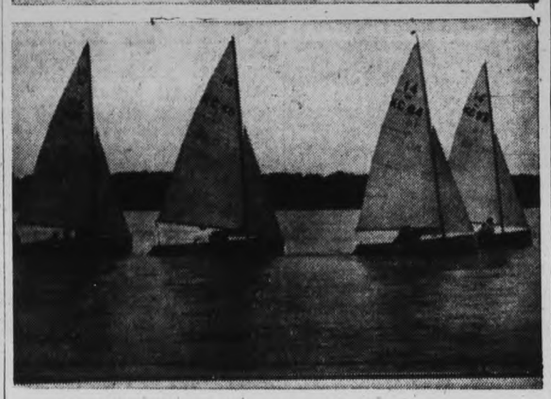
Can't Understand

Commenting on the decision, C. R. Sullivan, UE district representative, said today: "We are at a loss to understand this word from the OLRB, in that we filed 161 paid-up cards, and on the company's own figures there were 323 in the plant. That totals approximately 50 per cent of the plant, and five per cent. more than is required under the Act for ordering a representation vote."

Local 527 is a composite local, the bargaining agent for production workers at Peterborough Lock, Ontario Marble, Raybestos, Tilco plastics, and Moldaver Bros. Lumber Co.

"We intend to take immediate steps in connection with this decision with a view to giving the DeLaval workers representation in collective bargaining by the union they have chosen in spite of terrific interference and opposition," said Sullivan.





BEARING DOWN ON THE FIRST BUOY are some of the fleet of 42 dinghies taking part in the second race for the 14-foot international championship BELOW. For moments along the course the craft rested in calm. Best time for the morning race along the three-mile triangular course was two hours, 51 minutes and 20 seconds. ABOVE, Mrs. Jo-Anne Gooderham and Mrs. William Edwards, both of Toronto, leave the beach in their 12-foot dinghy.—Examiner Staff Photo.

Close Finishes Mark Races On Dinghy Meet's 2nd Day

Close finishes featured the morning and afternoon dinghy races Thursday in Clear Lake, 14 miles north of here. Paul McLaughlin of Toronto's Royal Canadian Yacht Club clipped off the morning course of four and a third miles in one hour, five minutes and 53 seconds, just two seconds ahead of clubmate Spence Hanna. Two other RCYC skippers followed, Bill Gooderham in 1:06.38 and Jack Muir in 1:07.37.

There was but one second's difference in the first two crossing the finishing line in the late afternoon event. Peter Pangman rode out the course in the fast time of 59 minutes and five seconds, as Paul McLaughlin heard the finisher's gun a second later. The RCYC continued to dominate the second day of the four-day international dinghy meet with Bill Gooderham third in an hour and 24 seconds, and Spence Hanna next in an hour and 40 seconds.

Four Capsize

Four of the 41 morning entries capsized as a strong northeast wind of almost gale-like proportions whipped up the waves. Only 28 braved it in the afternoon race, one being dumped before completing the triangular course. Several others also failed to finish for various causes. The special race for 12-footers was postponed till Friday due to the rough weather.

Leading in the international 14-foot dinghy competition —which is raced each of three mornings —is Jack Muir of RCYC with 86 points. B. Gooderham of the same club is a point back of him, and Ken Bradfield, also of the Toronto club, comes next with 83 points. In the Canadian championship events, run off each afternoon, Paul McLaughlin of Toronto leads with 91 points, followed by Dave Kirby of the Brittania Yacht Club, Ottawa, with 86, and Jack Carter of Esex, Conn., with 84¼.

This fourth annual Canadian Dinghy Association regatta, held in the Kawarthas for the first time, has three CDA officials on hand, President Harvey Bongard, R. C. Stevenson, honorary president; and secretary Jack Wright. Representing the host Stony Lake Yacht Club is Commodore Ken Slater. Entertainment for the competing crews and guests is supplied nightly at the South Beach Hotel on Clear lake by the Stony Lake Club.

Jack Carter of Connecticut, who won both races Wednesday finished in 13th position yesterday. Winners of last year's regatta in Toronto were Paul McLaughlin in the morning races, Bill Gooderham in the afternoon events and Spence (Sonny) Hanna for the final day 13-mile race for the Governor-General's trophy. This event will be held Saturday at Clear lake.

Ohio Angler Catches 20-Inch Smallmouth

HAVELOCK, Aug. 17 (ENS)— An Ohio fisherman, Clarence Unger, of Alliance, O., took a five-and-a-half pound smallmouth bass from Tongamong lake, Thursday night.

The fish, 20½ inches long and 16½ in girth, was taken on a surface plug and battled for 15 minutes before it was landed.

Council Votes $390,000 For Norwood

Lakefield's Request For School Bonds To Be Treated Later

Peterborough county council Thursday afternoon voted to issue debentures for $390,000 to cover the cost of building a high school in the Norwood high school area. A similar request from Lakefield will be dealt with later.

Reeve William Griffith, Belmont-Methuen township, was the lone dissenter.

He said the ratepayers of three muncipalities in the area — Belmont-Methuen, Havelock and Asphodel—are opposed to it. And he offered to bet Reeve James Humphries of Asphodel $100 to $50 that if the issue were put to a vote Asphodel ratepayers would turn it down.

Included in the Norwood high school area are Asphodel, Norwood, Havelock, Belmont-Methuen, Hastings village, and sections of Percy and Otonabee townships. Percy and Hastings are in Northumberland county.

County Becomes Agent

(The special one-day meeting of council was called to see if the county was willing to become, in effect, financial agent for group of municipalities in the high school areas. Until recently the municipality in which the school was built had to issue the debentures on its own credit and later collect from the others in the area.

(A recent amendment to the High Schools Act now permits the responsibility to be passed on to the county. With its greater borrowing powers in the money market the county can issue the debentures and so obtain credit at less cost. There is also less danger of the county exhausting its credit.

(Only the municipalities in the high school area are billed by the county; outside municipalities pay nothing.)

Tenders have been called for the building of the Lakefield school. It is expected to cost about the same as the one in Norwood.

Reeve Rork Ferguson, Norwood, moved that the county issue the debentures and he was seconded by Deputy-Reeve Dave McIntyre, Otonabee. A second resolution instructed F. D. Kerr, KC, county solicitor, and Edward Humpage, county auditor, to draw up a by-law authorizing the issuing of the debentures at an interest of 4½ per cent over a term of 20 years.

Strong Exception

Reeve Ferguson took strong exception to objections by Reeve Griffith.

He said Norwood already had the approval of the Municipal Board to go ahead and issue debentures on the $390,000 project but he understood at least $20,000 could be saved the municipalities in the area by letting the county do the job.

"We're not putting anything over on you," said Reeve Ferguson. "Norwood is a small municipality and the cost won't affect us much. But the larger municipalities in the area will be the ones who pay through the nose.

"We want education in the rural sections to be as good as that in the city of Peterborough or Toronto. And we don't think that a rural ratepayer, if the thing were put to him in that light, would object.

"Personally, I don't think there's a man in Belmont-Methuen would deny his children an education equal to that in the city if he knew the levy was only $3 on every $1,000 of assessment."

Showed Dissatisfaction

Reeve Griffith said that the votes in Havelock and Belmont-Methuen at the last election were indications that the people in those municipalities were dissatisfied. And then he challenged Reeve Humphrey, on a bet of $100 to $50, that the ratepayers of Asphodel would turn down the cost of building a new high school if given a chance.

"I've talked to lot of Asphodel people and I know," said Reeve

Civic Hospital May Purchase Extra 'Lung'

Police Association Offers To Buy Equipment

The question of buying an additional iron lung for Civic hospital was discussed Thursday night at a meeting of the board of governors.

At present, Civic is using an iron lung loaned by St. Joseph's hospital. Supplementary equipment for this may be purchased in the near future.

The matter was raised when superintendent John Hornal read a letter from the police association offering to provide any equipment that would be helpful in meeting the present poliomyelitis situation.

The board authorized purchase of oxygen equipment which could be used both in the hospital and in transporting patients from one hospital to another.

Supplementary equipment for the borrowed iron lung would enable it to be used in transporting patients and insure its operating during a hydro failure.

Authority to purchase the iron lung was left in the hands of the executive committee and the medical staff.

Fast OPP Work Brings Relief To Sufferer

LINDSAY, Aug. 17—Fast work by the Ontario Provincial Police detachment at Lindsay and the Ross Memorial hospital reduced the suffering of a Sunderland resident Thursday.

Dr. R. Stephenson, Sunderland, called the hospital at 9 a.m. for oxygen to help a patient who had a severe attack of asthma.

The hospital phoned the provincial police to deliver the oxygen. Immediately OPP Constable Ray Lawson sped to the hospital and then set out or Sunderland, 22 miles away. At 9.29 a.m. he placed the oxygen in the doctor's hands.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

NO NEW CASES

No new cases of diagnosed poliomyelitis or suspect cases were reported today by the Board of Health officials. The total for Peterborough and district remains at 20.

RESULTS DELAYED

A protest lodged after this morning's race in the CDA dinghy meet at Clear Lake delayed results until past press time. The protest, if successful, will affect some of the top standings.

CONDITION IMPROVING

Dr. W. H. Jacques, assistant superintendent of Riverside Isolatioin Hospital, Toronto, reported this morning that Mrs. Edward O'Brien's condition is "still improving." Mrs. O'Brien was taken to Toronto from St. Joseph's Hospital Wednesday night suffering from poliomyelitis.

ATTEND EXHIBITION

T. H. Jackman and Mrs. Jean Neil of Peterborough, are attending the 30th annual Canadian Gladiolus Exhibition in Oakville today. More than 100,000 gladiolus blooms were sent in for the exhibition from every province in Canada and many centres in the United States.

33 FROM NAPANNEE

Thirty-three boys and girls, junior farmers from Lennox-Addington, were in Peterborough today with N. W. Ashton, agricultural representative. They visited Silverwoods Dairy, had lunch at Hooper's as guests of Canada Packers and their afternoon schedule included a visit to CPC plant, Norman McConkey's Lifloc farm, a motor trip to Armour Hill, and around the city to see its industrial background.

A. M. HAMILTON, former second-in-command of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, has been put in charge of production of topmaking and specialty wools at the G. Whitaker and Co.

Butcher Expects Landscaping Done For Opening

Landscaping at the new city hall will be nearly completed for the opening to take place in October, parks superintendent Armar Butcher said today.

Landscaping plans show that in addition to a complete grass coverage shrubs, and evergreens are planned in various spots on the block.

The parking lot at the rear will be enclosed by a spirea hedge. The hedge fronting George and Murray Sts., will be barberry. Clusters of evergreens will be planted at the front, back and corners of the building.

Six Maples

About six maples will also be planted on the grounds.

Lanscaping work has been held up for the past few days by the Public Utilities who are laying underground wires. New sidewalks also will be laid by the Board of Works department.

When these two operations are completed the parks department employees will move in and start the landscaping. At least the George St. frontage will be sodded to make sure that there will be grass for the opening.

Tobacco Growers Say Crop Fifth Harvested

PORT HOPE, Aug. 17— With one-fifth of the district tobacco crop harvested, growers are looking forward to what they call a "promising crop."

Heavy rain spoiled chances for a heavy crop, but most tobacco farmers say that what they have is reasona bly good. There is no shortage as yet of seasonal workers, but their cost is high—$11 a day for experienced help.

Growers expect the harvest will be complete by September 15 or 20.

What They Say!

Deliverymen Critical of That "A.M. Look"

Women are good things to keep away from early in the morning. That is the opinion of several veteran milk and bread carriers along Peterborough's routes.

These men add that they should know for they see the women, generally, at their worst in appearance, attire and humor.

Although the picture is not the same every morning, said one milkdriver, there is "the odd place I don't care to go into unless it is absolutely necessary."

Here's the scene painted by one breadman. The woman customer fresh out of bed at the unbelievable time of 9 a.m. appears usually in a housecoat, hair in curlers, no makeup, eyes half open and toes protruding out of an old pair of slippers.

But that's the situation only when the milkmen and breadmen see the women. In many cases, particularly the milkmen, the women are not up when they deliver. The average woman, according to the majority of the drivers, arises about 8.30 a.m.

"There's the odd one that you don't see at all," explained a driver.

Wearing apparel for the women in the early hours is usually a housecoat; a few do appear in house dresses. It doesn't matter whether the women are old or young.

Without a moment's hesitation a driver answered that women are "liable to be in anything" when they call in the morning.

Makeup such as lipstick, rouge, powder and other ingredients are still locked in cabinets in the morning. Mudpacks are not apparently popular with Peterborough women for not one driver would admit seeing one.

Curlers and Curlers

Curlers, curlers and more curlers are seen by drivers in the morning, and according to a breadman, the women are trying to capture "that natural curl." The hair hankies vary in colors, always the brightest, or in some cloth that appears to have seen better days as a dust rag.

Confronted with the same scene every day the drivers were emphatic that women are not prettier in the morning than in the afternoon or night.

"A little camouflage always helps a great deal," said a milkman.

"It all depends on which side of the bed they get out of," said a driver when asked if women like to argue more in the morning than the afternoon.

Don't Argue

"I don't argue, but I could; I gave it up a long time ago. All I do is put my foot down once; then they don't fool any more."

County Farm Notes

By HARRY THEOBALD

Peterborough Exhibition District Feature Next Week — County Council Renews $100 Scholarship — Alberta Junior Farmer Signs Contract with Brooklyn Ball Club — Dawbul Fall Wheat Attracting Increasing Attention — Sale of Sheep at C.N.E. Aug. 31.

"Now take hay as an example," you might say in the dialectic of getting down to figurative brass tacks.

"Hay at the Exhibition used to be nothing but fodder. Farmer exhibitors tossed a jag of it on to the wagon to feed the livestock for a couple of days and bed down the hired man.

Well, to some folks it may still be only fodder in the barn, but to a lot of others it's protein and other nutrients. And, if it is good enough it could be worth $100 for one sample of a couple of forkfulls done up in a bale. That is, if the jud ? said it was the best hay in the Peterborough show."

(As for the hired man in that picture, he's a vanishing entity.. may be working on a production line in a factory . . . possibly he's a foreman by this time.)

"So, you think there's nothing new at the Exhibition. Take a look at the display of farm machinery, and try to figure out what the mechanics of grassland farming are going to settle down to, if ever. Does the binder and the baler stay, or as a combination of labor saving are they going to be displaced by the swather and the forage harvester?"

Farming has got to the stage where it is almost true that "nothing is but what is not". Farmers are not running around in circles, but they have to keep adjusting their thinking and working to new ideas that are likely to change, hardly overnight, but almost from one season to the next.

Problem For Directors

And it is no cinch for the Exhibition Board to keep abreast of the times in making their show as helpful as possible to the agricultural industry. They have to justify their programs to the new generation of farmers, and in that position and desire they are faced with the challenging question: "How?"

Some of the impatient ones would toss out most of the horses, and a lot of the fancy chickens.

But, an Exhibition without horses, including heavy drafts overshadowed by the tractor, would be like a circus without the elephants.

Any way, Peterborough Exhibition next week-Wed. to Sat.—is the major agricultural event of the season.

Most of its directors are farmers, its appeal is essentially to farmers, it is supported by the federal and provincial departments of agriculture.

The Peterborough Exhibition is the show window of the agricultural production and progress of a large area of central Ontario. And, as a local enterprise it deserves the active co-operation of the farmers of the county and district.

Details of planning entail a great deal of time and effort by the executive and by exhibitors. The great majority of them are farm people who have put sincere endeavor into this show, and are entitled first of all to the active interest of the rural community.

Historic Institution

By this time, the general purpose and historic background of the Ontario fall fair can be taken for granted. It was brought to this country by the pioneers from the Old Country a century ago as an institution associated for centuries with the products of their ancient farming. Its form remained static for a long time, even in this land, but as the experts in agriculture assert these days the old industry has undergone greater changes in the last quarter of a century or more, than in all the years up to the early stages of the 1900's.

Going back to that forage feature, the hay show has been allotted a special class in the general section of agricultural products.

There are three sections: bales of first cutting this season; bales of second cutting; and a bushel of cut hay. The prizes are : 1st, $50; 2nd, $25; 3rd, $15; and after that six of $10 each. They are offered in each of the three classes, And there is a $50 special for the best hay in the show.

Poultry and honey producers are making special displays of their products, aimed at consumer appeal. That appeal is based on consumer information, just as has been done for some years through the displays of pork carcasses and products.

Briefly, the purpose of those departments of the fair are linked with consumer demand, leading to farm income—the practical ends and aspects of an Exhibition as its directors try to shape its forms to the basic element of utility.

The program assigns Wednesday to the children of the city and district.

Thursday renews the Junior "Ex" bringing boys and girls of the farms of seven counties. Friday is Ladies Day, and Saturday is the finale.

SALE OF SHEEP

With the price of wool at an all time high, the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association will hold their annual sale of purebred rams, ewes Friday, Aug. 31 in the sheep and swine show ring at the CNE. R. H. Graham is secretary of the association.

Aged rams, yearlings and lambs will be consigned, but only ewe lambs and yearling ewes can be offered. Any animal in the sale must have been previously shown at the CNE. If a buyer is not an exhibitor, arrangements can be made for him to take his purchases home immediately after the sale. But, if the purchaser is an exhibitor, he will not be allowed to remove any purchases until he is taking his own animals home.

NEW FALL WHEAT

Dawbul is the name of a new fall wheat developed by the Ontario Agricultural College. It is said to be surpassing Cornell 595 in yield.

W. H. Mills & Sons of Sparta report that a large acreage of Dawbul threshed last week averaged 50 bushels an acre, as compared with 43 bushels of Cornell on the same farm. They plan to seed 75 acres of Dawbul this season.

Dawbul is a cross of Dawson's Golden Chaff and Bulgarian wheat. For Lorne McNeil & Sons of Springfield it outscored other winter varieties in a 50-bushel wheat club competition.

Saw Only Grass In New England Trip

Not a binder, combine or field of grain did Ken Fallis see on a vacation trip through northern New England. The fact that he is with the crops, seeds and weeds branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture forestalls the notion that Mr. Fallis was on a busman's holiday in that country.

On second thought he recalled an odd field of oats grown for hay.

In the valley pockets of the hills through Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, farmers concentrate on grass and hay and dairy cattle. They are in the milk shed of Boston and New York, and probably get $6.50 for their milk.

Fallis' impressions were the white painted buildings, indicative of income, and dairy herds, many of them Guernseys, as well as the other breeds, and a conviction that grass farming can be prosperous. Whatever grain feeds that are needed in rationing, Mr. Fallis said these New England dairy farmers bought their requirements.

As for silos, they appeared to average nearly two to a farm.

"You see those big herds and the white homesteads and you wonder how they tie in with comparatively small farms," Mr. Fallis said. "I noticed some corn and soy beans, but that appeared to be the only variation from hay and grass."

Only grassland machinery was seen on the farms Mr. Fallis passed.

That area has been concentrating an grassland farming longer than other sections of the country.

Mr. Fallis called on Frank Paterson on his way home to Toronto Monday afternoon. He will probably be back here next week for the hay show at the Exhibition.

SIGNS "PRO" CONTRACT

Ralph Vold of Ponoka, Alta., recently signed a professional baseball contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers. He reports for duty next March.

Ralph is 20, and has been a member of Ponoka junior beef club for six years. He is pitching this summer for the Ponoka Stampeders in the Central Alberta League. Last winter he played for Alberta's champion junior hockey team, the Belleview Lions. His cousin, Roy, was a member of the beef team that represented Alberta at the National Club Week in 1950.

Incidentally, Bob Feller with Cleveland and Charley Keller, rightfielders for Detroit Tigers, are both graduates of 4-H Clubs in the USA, the counterpart of Ontario's Junior Farmers.

EXPECTS 225 JUNIORS

Robert E. Bell, assistant agricultural representative, expects around 225 boys and girls to register for the events of the Junior division of Peterborough Exhibition next Thursday morning.

"There may be a few less than last year," Mr. Bell said yesterday.

The count of entries Thursday showed 115 girls and 102 boys. Program for the girls at the market hall is under the direction of Miss Jean Noble.

"We are glad to see many of our club members lining up for the Exhibition competitions," Mr. Bell said. "That is part of our purpose to encourage the young people to take part in these affairs, and mingle with others of their age. It is a desirable phase of education that is incidental to club membership."

✦ ✦ ✦

PROTEST BACON WRAPPING

Directors of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture have endorsed a protest from the hog producers' committee of the Federation against the retailing of bacon in red-striped cellophane wrappers. Producers, and also consumers, say that this wrapper "tends to deceive the buyer as to its leanness."

Other recommendations from the hog committee asked for live grading of hogs going to the U.S. market; for an investigation of the incidence of condemnation insurance on hogs; and for a greater proportion of hog prize monies at fairs in Canada to be given to the Yorkshire breed as being very largely in the majority among breeds considered best for production of high quality bacon.

COUNTY SCHOLARSHIPS

Peterborough county council's $100 scholarship for which Junior Farmers and club members are eligible is based on the high aggregate score in the junior division of the Exhibition Thursday, Aug. 23.

The nomination is made through the council's agricultural committee, and the award is to assist a worthy student in paying expenses of the first year in the diploma course at OAC or the regular course at Kemptville.

In this announcement, F. C. Paterson, agricultural representative, says "anyone interested should notify us before the competition." The scholarship is for Peterborough county boys competing in the Exhibition, "and who otherwise pass the qualifications for entry; and are approved by the committee."

✦ ✦ ✦

THREE CLUB VARIETIES

Three varieties of fall wheat are eligible for the new 50-bushel club that is forming this fall in Peterborough. They are Dawsons Golden Chaff, Cornell 595, and the new Dawbul.

"Minimum membership for the club is ten, but we would like to see twice that number," F. C. Paterson says. "Members must belong to the Crop Improvement Association and pay a dollar membership fee. They have until Oct. 1 to enter, but it is better to have the entries in early."

British Farmers Prosper Juniors Report

"Our overall impression was that generally British farming is very prosperous. This opinion was substantiated later when we were privileged to see some farm accounts."

This is a quotation from the review of T. R. Hilliard, associate director of extension, Ontario Department of Agriculture, who accompanied four Ontario boys on a month's visit to the Old Country. They were Murray Sewell, Carl Boynton, Howard Scott and Wallace Cavanagh. Their itinerary was laid out by the Young Farmers Clubs.

Twenty-five farms were visited, some large, others small, and "we spent two weeks living on farms, one week each in Scotland and England."

Mr. Hilliard's review is included in a letter issued by James D. Moore, Ottawa, publicity director with the council on boys and girls' club work.

Fertile Soil Basic

"We observed the almost complete mechanization of some farms, the high yields per acre with marketing done at guaranteed prices, quality of the homes, the furnishings and the dress of the farm people. The prosperity of the farmers is linked with the fertility of the soil.

"We saw that the soil was in excellent heart after hundreds of years of cultivation and fresh from World War II, when rotations of crops were disturbed, and a very large percentage of the land was brought under the plow.

Maintain Organic Content

"All farmers visited were giving strict attention to crop rotation, the organic matter content of the soil, its drainage and fertility. We observed no signs of soil washing or drifting even on steep slopes. Particularly in Scotland, cultivation of hoed crops was being done up and down the slope with no sign of soil washing.

"This was in direct contrast with good farming practice in Ontario, and we asked the farmers "why" they could continue to do up and down cultivation. The answer divided itself into three parts: first, the high organic matter content of the soil; second, the lack of flash rainfalls; and third, the good drainage of the soil by tile and natural methods.

Grasses For Protection

"We were impressed, too, by the British farmers' use of grasses and clovers. These are being used to provide a source of protein which before the war was mainly imported, is now difficult to buy, and very expensive.

The British climate makes hay curing, as we know it, very tricky. Many farmers have turned to grass silage and grass drying. We saw grass being ensiled either long as it was drawn from the field, or cut by ensilage cutters.

Grass for silage was cut at an early stage of maturity, well before bloom. This silage was yielding protein as high as 15-22 per cent. On some farms grass silage was being fed almost entirely to beef and dairy cattle, with little or no grain feeding.

One farmer, when asked whether he thought it was necessary to feed any dry bulk feed to his herd, replied: "What is there in dry bulk feed that there isn't in grass silage?" Grass silage is held in high regard by most British farmers.

Silage stacks were also being used in England. On one farm 40 acres of grass (400 green tons) was neatly stacked for silage. On this farm silage had been used for 20 years. The use of mechanical stackers, both for silage and dry hay, is very prevalent."

Proud Of Production

"I mentioned earlier," Mr. Hilliard continued, "our impression that British agriculture is prosperous. They are proud of their ability to grow more crops and produce more livestock than they did before the war on the same number of acres."

The Agricultural Executive Committees, composed of farmers, and set up during the war, still have the power to displace a farmer who is not farming well. The chairman of an agricultural executive committee in one of the counties said these committees had accomplished a great deal in a short time, and they were still necessary in a country so short of essential food.

Must Keep Accounts

Coupled with the powers of the executive committees is the requirement by law for farmers to keep accounts. British farmers are proud of their accounts which must be audited annually.

Farm accounting has placed the British farm on an equal footing with the business man, as well as showing him his profitable and non-profitable enterprises."

The trip taught the Ontario Juniors much of the history and geography of Britain, "and it gave us a better appreciation of Ontario and Canada."

"Notwithstanding the excitement of the trip, the Festival of Britain, two international livestock judging competitions and a large share of British hospitality, we arrived home with the feeling, which all travellers no doubt experience, that 'it is good to be home'."

Alfalfa's Wonder Drug

Tramping through a field of hay back in June when the alfalfa was coming into bloom, Frank Paterson, munching tender leaves said: "Get yourself a handful; sweetens the breath."

He was recommending chlorophyll, the green substance in leaves that takes water from the soil and carbon-dioxide from the air, combines them into starches and sugars, on which, directly or indirectly, all animal life depends for food. An article in Capper's Farmer describes chlorophylll as a new wonder drug.

"It heals wounds that will not respond to usual methods of treatment. It is especially effective for burns. Some believe it is the substance to which the medical profession would turn in event of atomic warfare.

Neutralizes Odors

In one big military hospital during the war it was found that chlorophyll neutralized the odor of wounds as well as healing them. Other research has shown it removes the odors of bad breath and perspiration. Already it is being used in tooth paste, in healing ointments, and in tablets to be taken internally to combat body odors.

Chemical and pharmaceutical laboratories are teeming with ideas for new uses. Cigarette manufacturers are testing it to combat throat irritation and tobacco breath. Dog food makers want to put it into their product to tame Towser's halitosis.

$900 A Ton For Alphalfa

Current price of chlorophyll is $90 a pound. At that figure a ton of good leafy alfalfa contains $900 worth. The high price comes from the great demand, and methods of extraction that have been getting as little as 10 per cent of that contained in the dehydrated alfalfa from which it has been made.

Now a way has been found to make it from fresh green alfalfa. In mid-September half a dozen big chemical and pharmaceutical companies and the W. J. Small company, the country's largest dehydrator of alfalfa, joined to form a corporation to produce it by the new method.

This process removes chlorophyll and carotene, together with a small mineral fraction. The wet substance is sprayed on a drum for quick drying. This part will be performed by the Small Company. The manufacturing chemists will separate chlorophyll from the other substances, and use the carotene for making pro-vitamin A products. Such is the story in Capper's.

It is another chapter of wonders underfoot that are being discovered and revealed. Alfalfa is the dairy herd's staff of life. It rates high as a source of protein and other nutrients.

Tom Gard's Note Book

It has often been said that necessity is the mother of invention. It was certainly proven to me the other day while travelling in the North Bay area. I was invited to spend the evening with a young couple whose acquaintance had been made on their honeymoon the previous summer. I had admired their courage in starting a home on a shoe string and was most anxious to learn how they were getting along.

Their house was far from being luxuriously furnished but there was plenty of warmth and friendship that made you feel immediately at ease. They had had to make sacrifices but their youthful enthusiasm had been retained, and they had created a truly happy home.

The husband shared my opinion of butter boxes. He had made many pieces of furniture, including the chesterfield, and had found these boxes could be used in many ways. One of his best efforts was his wife's dressing table — made entirely of boxes, plywood and pieces of two by four. Even the mirror had been salvaged from a discard, resilvered and placed in a refinished frame.

Fireplace Fuel Holder

Something else that caught my eye was a homemade fuel container made from a soap pail. It had been enamelled black and then stippled inside and out with gold. The feet and handles from an old brass jardiniere had been attached to add to its attractiveness. It was the finishing touch to a rustic stone fireplace he had built with his own hands.

Nor was all the beauty found on the inside of the house. Excellent progress had been made in changing a large "empty" town lot into an attractive setting for their small bungalow. He took great pride in showing me the cold frame he built from packing cases and on which he made the storm windows do double duty. Their harvest this fall will go a long way in helping the food budget through the coming winter.

I couldn't help but feel as I left them here is one home that will be a definite asset to the community and to our country.

Timothy Hurley Established First Real Estate Business

By MRS. GERALD MARRYAT

When Timothy Hurley died at his home, 282 Hunter St. W. on Sunday morning, Sept. 22, 1918, the Examiner on the following day recalled that he had established the first real estate business in the city, and was actually the father of the real estate business as it was conducted here to-day, i.e. in 1918. He was convinced of the possibilities of Peterborough's development and kept constant faith in its future. As an evidence of his enterprise, he early saw the advantages of advertising, and in the columns of the Examiner his announcements had a fixed place, an attractive form, and doubtless a wide appeal.

In the opening of suburban real estate, Mr. Hurley was a pioneer in this city, and on the south-western border of the city he purchased and developed a large section; this suburb long bore the name of "Hurleyville" and his name is still commemorated in Hurley St. running between Wilson St. and Braidwood Ave. Possibly Denis St. next but one to the west recalls an ancestor's name, and Lillian St. running south from McKellar St. to the Otonabee River was no doubt a fond tribute to his daughter, Miss Lillian Hurley, who states that her father was the first person to subdivide property into lots and assist people in the building of their homes—an enterprise in which he was very successful.

In his real estate transactions, Mr. Hurley appealed particularly to the workingman, and the Examiner thought that it might be assumed with certainty that his advertisements urging thrift and and the ownership of property influenced many a citizen in obtaining a home. Throughout the city many pieces of property changed ownership through Mr. Hurley's salesmanship, and in his years of business he gained and retained a high reputation for honest dealing and general integrity. Although his health was uncertain he had carried on his business without interruption until the end.

Born in December, 1837, Timothy Hurley was a native son of the section of Asphodel Township now known as the "Daisy-D" section, and he knew from boyhood all the joys and sorrows of the pioneer landowner, for the Hurleys—among them—owned, in 1860, all of lot 13 in con. 6; part of lot 13 in con. 5; the west half of lot 13 in con. 7; the west half of lot 14 in con. 7 and part of lot 15 in con. 7. And it is worth a backward glance at this now valuable property to the days when the Hurleys first began to expend labour and expense in its reclamation from the dense woods that bordered the River Ouse, woods that gave names, to Westwood, west of the wood, and to Norwood, north of the wood, according to the late Maitland Grover; then a swampy mudhole with enough drawbacks to break any pioneer's heart.

Timothy Hurley grew up and attended school in SS No. 6 where such early stalwarts as Bernard Boyd, Patrick Ryan; Michael Healey taught in the old log building erected between 1840 and 1843.

93 Students

Norwood Grammar School had been opened in 1854-5 and Timothy Hurley no doubt had a year or two there to qualify for his teacher's certificate. He took over the school from Michael Healey in 1860, and as the attendance figures jumped from 64 to 93, he was evidently a success from the beginning. He remained there in 1861, and may have taught in other sections; however statistics beyond 1861 are still not available at the Dept. of Public Records & Archives, now in their new quarters at 14 Queen's Park Crescent West, Toronto 5.

With marriage in mind, Mr. Hurley must have found that a salary of $260 a year, without board, was not attractive, and after a few years he moved to Hastings and opened a general store on Front St. west. He and his wife, Mary Teresa Ford, are still remembered by the older people as valuable residents in business circles and in their fostering of the cultural amenities of life.

Miss Lillian Hurley says that her father hardly ever spoke of his teaching days, except to recall that on weekends he had to travel through the woods to his mother's home and that he was very much afraid of bears and often hid behind trees. However, the experiences of those early days, when he sought to instill knowledge in the minds of his neighbors' children, must have moulded his character and enabled him to transmit to his own children those qualities which made them conspiculously successful in their various fields of endeavour, whether in scholastic life in which the Rev. Father Albert Hurley was so well-known and in music in which all his daughters excelled, Mrs. (Dr.) Coughlan, Mrs. E. J. McCarthy, Miss Lillian and the late Miss Kitty Hurley, and in later generations several of his grandchildren and great grandchildren, who have made the teaching profession their life's work.

Mr. Hurley came to Hastings in the sixties and was listed as a voter in 1869-70. Trouble came his way and hard times made the general store-keeper's lot an unhappy one. He lost everything in a fire which swept the west end of Front St. in 1884. He moved across the river to the house now owned by Leo Marrin in 1884 and in 1885 moved to Peterborough. While in Hastings he had been a steady advertiser in the Howard paper, the Hastings Star, and for a few months on the new sheet, called the Hastings Observer, a venture on the part of Harry Morton. So he was not wholly unprepared for the success which crowned his efforts after he had opened the first real estate, and insurance office, in Peterborough.

Sister Kenny Writes Book On Technique

SYDNEY, Australia, Aug 17—(Reuters)—Sister Elizabeth Kenny took off for the United States today to give the world the final secrets of her "natural cure" of infantile paralysis.

Incurably ill with not long to live, the grey-haired Australian nurse had packed in her baggage the last chapters of her final text book—a record of 40 years' work with polio-stricken children.

She will deliver the 26 typewritten pages to Dr. John Pohl of Minneapolis, who is having the text published.

She told reporters before she left that she had vowed to complete the work before death claims her. It will allow her methods to be studied around the world instead of only in the clinics she operates.

Gloria Swanson Making Picture After Two Years

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 17 (AP)—Gloria Swanson is back in Hollywood acting in a picture for the first time since her sensational film return two years ago.

Why the two-year delay?

"Don't ask me," she answered. "Ask the producers."

The one-time silent star was a sensation as the demented actress in "Sunset Boulevard" and was nosed out of an oscar by Judy Holliday. She was frank to admit that the right kind of offers did not come her way after her film return.

Paramount (where she made 'Sunset Blvd.') offered to test me for 'Alice Sit-by-the-fire'," she remarked. "I told them, 'why should I test? You know what I can do.' So nothing came of it.

"None of the other majors came up with anything."

But She's Busy

She is now performing in a comedy, "Three for Bedroom C", for an independent company. But her future appears divorced from the movies, which were so long her career.

Immediately after the picture she returns to her multiple enterprises in the east: A radio transcription series; a television show, a dress business. And her stage opportunities appear much more numerous than those in the movies.

"They want me for all kinds of things—musicals, dramas, return engagements in '20th Century' which I did with Jose Ferrer last winter," she said. "But I'm starting rehearsals in September for 'Nina,' the Andre Roussin play which has been running in Paris for 3½ years. It is a plum, but such a difficult play that it sometimes frightens me."

Capsule Review

"David and Bathesheba" can best be described as "Samson and Delilah" with taste. It is also a Biblical epic of immense scope. But this one is written and performed with dignity and restraint, whereas the previous film was garish and absurd. There are some dull spots, and "David" could have used some of "Samson's" excitement. But "David" is a more satisfying work and a tribute to its makers. Gregory Peck and Susan Hayward lend great credibility to the title roles.

Pickets Removed From Refinery Area

SARNIA, Aug. 17 — (CP) — Pickets were removed Thursday night from the strikebound $18,000,000 refinery building project at nearby Froomfield.

Art Steinberg, president of Local 299 of the Teamsters' Union (AFL), said the pickets were called off pending negotiations with the Stone and Webster Construction Company today. He said the action did not constitute a return-to-work program.

Some 1,000 construction workers and truckers halted work on construction of the building earlier Thursday in protest over the layoff of eight union truckers.

South Korea Sends US Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—South Korea Thursday presented the United States a bill for $100,000,000 for goods and services supplied to American fighting forces in Korea since the fighting started in June, 1950. Prompt payment was requested.

Similar bills are to be presented, Dr. You Chan Yang said, to other United Nations members who have forces in Korea which have been given Korean goods and services. He said he could not estimate the amounts of these.

Dr. You Chan Yang, South Korean ambassador, told reporters he appealed for the money during a call on the Assistant State Secretary, Dean Rusk.

In Ottawa, a Defence Department official said no bill has yet been presented to Canada for Korean services to Canadian troops, nor had he heard that one would be.

Boy 18 Mother and Father To 80 Children In Home

By BILL BOSS

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 17 (CP)—Eighteen-year-old Chung Kyong-nyang has kept his sister by him since the day he found her in a field dressing station.

Chung, a houseboy with a United States Army unit, had gone on a patrol to hunt guerrillas and had been hit by mortar fire. The shrapnel still is embedded in his chest and back, near the spine.

Evacuated to Uijongbu, he found his sister. She said that their mother was wounded in a barrage, evacuated she knew not where. Their father, with their three younger brothers and two young sisters, also were evacuated. She didn't know where.

Chung since has nursed her, comforted her, changed her dressings daily—her cheek had been ripped away by shrapnel. When the United Nations Civil Assistance Command removed them to an improvised orphange here, he kept it up.

In their native Yungchon in North Korea Chung never went to school. Three years ago he taught himself to read and write, in leisure moments from the family farm.

Took Over Records

Here his calligraphy was so good that UNCAC officers gave him charge of the children's records, or such as he was able to compile from the scanty information he could glean. Some were orphans. Others had lost their families when the troops evacuating them from the front had separated family groups. Others were too young to identify themselves, or tell their stories.

Chung ran the office. His responsibility grew.

Today, this grave-faced youth who is never seen to smile:

1. Is general administrator of the establishment.

2. Is its chief nurse. He personally tends the sick children, administers such medicines as are available, on the prescription of the Korean woman doctor who calls daily. Among his patients are 20 with pink eye, and he bathes the eyes of all.

3. Is quartermaster, responsible for the rice-ration stores and any other food that comes in.

4. Supervises the kitchen—located in two tents behind the house—where he has five older girls detailed as cooks. His kitchen does double duty as mess hall.

Dormitory Supervision

5. Is dormitory supervisor — where he has five girls spread blankets on the floor as bedding for the youngsters every night and gather it up in the morning.

6. Is recreation director, and has paired the 80 children up so that each younger one is the responsibility of one older boy or girl. There are 30 girls and 50 boys, between two and 15 years, in the home. His own charge is three-year-old Han Teh-hi, who knows only that he has a dad and mother somewhere.

But his major care is sister Nok-hyon.

MONTREAL, Aug. 17 (CP). — The Newsprint Association of Canada announced Thursday that Canadian production in July amounted to 452,455 tons, compared to 439,225 in July, 1950, and 464,332 in June, 1951. Shipments to the United States were 385,751 tons, off 6.7 per cent from July of last year.

Air Hostesses Prefer Career

JOHANNESBURG — (CP)— South Africa's aerial glamor girls apparently prefer the adventures of their flying service to settling down in matrimony.

Contrasted with the trend in airlines overseas, attractive stewardesses on the state-owned African Airways don't often leave their jobs to get married. A recent report showed that only 15 out of 50 resigned to get married in the last three years.

The report said this rate was below the average "wastage" official term for personnel losses, in government departments employing women.

Miss Alma Wright, 24, who has been on the airlines for several years, expressed the general sentiment of the girls when asked about this. "I haven't finished having a good time yet" she said.

REALIZING HER SUN-PARCHED skin and brittle, abused hair will make poor companions for this fall's sleek new styles (centre), this young woman sets about giving herself an end-of-summer reconditioning. A cream and lotion treatment aids her skin in sloughing off scales and regaining dewiness (left), and a cream conditioner (right) restores to her hair natural oils robbed by sun and surf.

Salvage Sun-Baked Skin Before Your Fall Activities

By ALICIA HART.

If your sun-ravaged skin and hair fail to add up to end-of-summer beauty, now's the time to do a bit of homework before you have to begin a round of fall activities looking less than your best.

New fashions call for extra special grooming. Parched or peeling skin, topped by hair that looks like corn shucks, does not make a pretty picture.

To restore soft dewiness to your complexion, there are two important steps. First, your skin should be encouraged to slough off thickened areas of scaly flakes; second, a re-lubrication program is in order to overcome that leathery look.

One well-known beauty firm suggests a four-part program for reconditioning your complexion. To wake up your skin when you rise in the morning, they suggest a special lotion for stimulating circulation. This tingly preparation, they claim causes nourishing blood to rush into the tissues beneath your skin, adding not only a transparent, youthful look to your complexion, but also hastening the scaling of dry flakes.

The lotion should be applied with cotton fluffs, touching it on gently over you entire face and throat areas. For sluggish, dull-appearing skins, a brisk patting is in order. The makers suggest special attention in areas where there are wrinkles, since tanning is likely to be uneven and unlovely around these tiny crevices.

For a before-bed skin routine, they recommend removing your make-up as well as surface dirt and soil with a cleansing cream, foregoing for a while any cleaning method that may be more drying to the skin. For young faces their special "pasteurized" face cream is a good bet. This should be left on for five minutes and then removed with facial tissues.

This should be followed by an application of the same stimulating lotion that was used in the morning, and then, as a final step, an extra-rich lubricating night cream should be smoothed on. Again, for young complexions, it's suggested than an exceptionally bland "pasteurized" cream can be used.

To restore your hair to gleaming beauty, you may find helpful another product offered by this firm. This is a cream conditioner, which is rubbed into your hair while it's still wet. This treatment should follow your final thorough rinsing at the end of your shampoo. Work it well into your scalp and the ends of your hair, paying particular attention to the latter if they are split, dry or harsh.

For best results, wring a large, sofe Turkish towel out of hot water. Wrap it around your head, turban-style, covering your tresses completely. The heat and the steam will relax the pores of your scalp and aid in the penetration of the cream, which is replacing natural oils lost through too much time in sun or surf.

The final step is to rinse your hair in clean water to remove excess oils.

DOROTHY DIX

Long-Suffering Wife Has Too Long Stood For Abuses

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been married 20 years and have no children I am 38, my husband 41. We both work, have a car and nice home, but I am very unhappy. I had in-law troubles through half my married life; now my husband is always hurting my feelings about my family. He drinks heavily, and comes home at all hours of the night. He doesn't do anything about the house, won't take me out—in fact does nothing home but eat and sleep. If I threaten to leave him, he puts up a big fight and says he loves me, so I feel sorry for him. I pay all my own expenses, buy food and furniture for the house, and pay most of the bills. He makes a good salary, and I think the least he can do is have the house fixed up a little. Don't you?

FRIEDA.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It is simply appalling to consider what some women will take from a husband. Years of constant ill treatment, then all the wretch has to say is "I love you", and the long-suffering wife swoons into his arms.

You're Asking For It

I don't think you want advice, Frieda, as much as you want a shoulder to cry on. You surely know any sane counsel would not urge you to continue the life you're leading like a meek lamb. To put everything into a marriage as you have—money, years of hard work, love and fidelity—then receive nothing but abuse. You must place a terrific value on the status of "wife" to endure it.

If your husband really loves you, as he claims, you might bring him to his senses by a temporary absence. To reform him after 20 years seems well-nigh hopeless, but if you withdraw your finnacial support for a while he might come to appreciate you.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a girl of 21 with a six-months-old baby. The father of the child, who denies him, says he loves me and wants to marry me but he insists that the baby be left with relatives, who are willing to keep him. I know I can never be happy without the baby or my boy friend. Do you think he loves me when he would ask me to do such a thing?—S. J. M.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You are certainly in a complicated muddle, and I think you should seek expert personal advice in trying to solve your problem. Go to your clergyman or a local social welfare agency (which may be located through your telephone book), and let them help you.

Your boy friend's love is shown in a very strange way when he can disclaim his own child and ask you to surrender it. He might be induced to change his mind if you have him, too, talk with the proper person.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a second-year college student, with a problem. I am in love with a read-headed boy who does not like me to wear red. I have dark hair and wear red very often. Since I am in college I cannot afford to change my wardrobe. He is quite upset and gets angry whenever I have on something red. What should I do?

WINIFRED.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Some people have such an antipathy to a certain color that they become actually ill when confronted with it. Your boy friend's antagonism to red may be as serious a thing, or it may just be a whim. You must judge its relative importance and act accordingly. He probably is sincere in his dislike of red, and if so you had better wear it as little as possible.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am 12 years old and unhappy because some of my girl friends use pink lipstick and my mother doesn't want me to. Is she right or wrong?

ANNABELLE.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Like most mothers, yours is absolutely right in this regard. Twelve is too young for even the lightest of pink lipsticks. Your own youthful coloring is enough adornment at your age. Lipstick is a camouflage, and the charm of a young girl has nothing to hide.

List Tasty Recipes From Grandma's Cook Book

By KAY REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer

If a woman is an indifferent housekeeper "it is fatal to her influence, a foil to her brilliance, and a blemish in her garments."

So says a battered volume we uncovered in the attic the other day. Only from the advertisements it contains can one guess its age, probably around the turn of the century.

The book contains recipes for good dishes and rules for good manners—written in the flowery style of the crinoline era. Those were the days when friends waited until visiting day to "call". And they probably found their hostess "busy with some elegant trifle of lace or wool-work—or touching a sketch—" If the afternoon were warm they might sip raspberry vinegar with her in the garden.

If you've wondered whatever became of that "raspberry vinegar" recipe that grandma used to follow, here it is straight from the pages of this musty cook book of old.

Raspberry Vinegar

To four quarts of red raspberries put enough vinegar to cover; let stand 24 hours. Scald and strain. Add one pound sugar to one pint juice. Boil 20 minutes and bottle. "Now it is ready to use and will keep for years."

As a beverage: add "one spoonful" to a glass of water.

In those days eggs of course weren't as expensive as now. The housewife of 50 years ago used as many as six at a time in a pudding or cake. Here is a "rice custard" recipe which would cause the modern home-maker a few qualms:

To one-half cup rice add one quart milk and a little salt. Steam one hour, or until quite soft. Beat the yolks of four eggs with four tablespoons white sugar. Add this just before removing rice from the heat. Mix thoroughly but do not permit to boil again. Add vanilla flavoring.

Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth. Add sugar. Put the pudding mixture into a baking-dish and spread whites over it. Allow to brown slightly in oven.

For Fishermen

The ladies of those days knew a good deal about cooking fish. When father came proudly home with a bass or trout, chances are it was baked according to this recipe from the book:

Ingredients: Eight good-sized onions; half that quantity of bread crumbs; pork fat about the size of a hen's egg; plenty of pepper and salt. Mix this thoroughly with tomatoes until quite red. Stuff fish with this compound and pour the rest over it. Previously sprinkling it with a little red pepper. The historic cook book advises us: "shad, pickerel, trout and black bass are good this year."

Singer Enjoys Spiced Dishes

TORONTO—(CP)—All sorts of spices have a place on the kitchen shelves of Maria d'Attili, for the pert black-haired concert singer is of Spanish background and has the typical Latin love of highly seasoned dishes.

Here for a singing engagement with an open-air operatic and musical comedy group, Maria said she collects recipes wherever she goes. But in her New York apartment or at her parents' home in San Juan, Puerto Rico, she specializes in the Latin dishes.

Such familiar spices as cloves, cinnamon, pepper and saffron are backed up by a variety of others, including oregano and Rosmarino, and she makes good use of garlic, herbs, wines, olive oil and butter.

Favorite Dishes

Maria, wife of concert pianist Glauco d'Attili, says one of her favorite dishes is chicken and rice. Another is "pasteles," a sort of Puerto Rican pie made from tropical vegetables and meat and wrapped in banana leaves.

She also makes Spanish "pastellilos," small fried triangular pastries filled with chopped meat, herbs, onions, peppers, eggs and sometimes almonds, raisins or melted cheese.

When she cooks turkey she rubs it inside and out with garlic, egg, salt and oregano, leaves it for 24 hours and then repeats the performance. Her favorite stuffings are chestnut or rice with a little pork meat and giblets chopped into it.

She prefers garlic with a tiny bit of sugar in her salads but says "I have to be very careful not to indulge in those before rehearsals with my leading man."

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Never Keep Baked Pie Crust In Ice Box Or Refrigerator

QUESTION: This is just a note to thank you for sending the rhubarb recipe and chart right away . . . I will be able to get busy on my rhubarb this week.—Mrs. T. J.

ANSWER: Write to me whenever I can help.

QUESTION: I tried the prize lemon pie recipe which was published a few days ago—it was really grand, but mine did not set properly, and the pie crust was soggy.

Now, this is what I did. I made my usual pie crust on Saturday. On Sunday, I made the filling exactly as instructed, let it cool before putting in crust, browned meringue, and took it out of the oven about 11 o'clock in the morning. The recipe said it must cool for at least 3 hours (not in refrigerator)—well, I left it out of frig. altogether. Maybe this is where I was wrong. Should I have put it in refrig. after the 3 hours?

The pie was absolutely delicious, but it certainly did not look very appetizing. Would the fact that I kept the crust in an ice box overnight (I made the pie at the lake and only have an ice box there, although it is a very good one and well insulated) cause it to soften? Should you keep the pie crusts in an ice box, the same as you do in an electric refrigerator? My cottage is not the least bit damp, so this isn't a factor.

I would greatly appreciate your advice on the above as it is an excellent recipe.—Ethel M.

ANSWER: Unbaked pie crust is kept tightly covered in refrigerator. Baked pie crusts should not be kept in ice box or refrigerator. If your crust was baked that is the source of your sogginess.

If the crust was not baked then I think you may be using too much water in your crust, OR your crust is not sufficiently baked, OR you may not be using sufficient shortening and too much water in proportion. These are the proportions: To each cup unsifted flour use one-third cup shortening and ½ teaspoon salt and 2 to 2½ tablespoons ice water.

The lemon filling does not need to go in the refrigerator at all, either after it is cool or after it is in the pie. It is better to keep all pies at all times out of refrigerator unless they are refrigerator pies. This includes all stages of pie making except unbaked pastry that you are chilling or storing.

I found the filling foolproof. I cannot understand why it would not "set properly" with all that cornstarch in it. I have reduced the cornstarch content by one tablespoon since I released that recipe and think I like it better. Be sure to cook the filling the full 35 or 40 minutes. Write again if you cannot make it right.

QUESTION: Could you help plan a menu for a wedding reception we are catering to about 80 guests, and would like a cold plate. We would like turkey if we could get it at the time of wedding. Wedding is to be August 25, 1951. Thanking you for your help.—Mrs. V. H.

ANSWER: I have sent you a note by mail. Would you please see next Monday's column for the wedding reception menu. I thought it would be of interest to people who were having September weddings. The turkey should be ordered immediately. To have ample order 4 turkeys weighing 15 pounds after they are drawn to serve 80.

Home Sewers Can Try Tailoring With Rayon Fabric

Tailoring is fun. And believe it or not, it's not difficult—even if you haven't had much sewing experience. If you can follow pattern directions, and take the time to be careful on details, you'll find that making yourself a suit, a top coat or a tailored dress is really an exciting and rewarding kind of sewing. And it's a money-saver too.

There's good news for the budget-bound sewer this year, in smart viscose rayon tailoring fabrics. Many girls who have wanted to try their hand at tailoring have hesitated to buy expensive worsteds for their first attempt. But yard goods counters have a wide range of handsome and inexpensive rayons that are expressly designed for tailoring —pastel gabardine, worsted-type rayons in plaids, and checks, sharkskin suiting, flannel in stripes and firm weaves, soft smooth surfaces and wonderful wrinkle-resistant finishes, giving them the kind of good looks that make them well worth the time and effort that does into tailoring.

Yes, tailoring can be fun, but careful attention must be given to every detail to get the best out of of it.

Fitted, Full Skirt Coat Balances Wrapped Fashion

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—The wrappy, narrow look in fall coats is balanced by a silhouette that's diametrically different: the fitted coat with full skirt. Both silhouettes appear in rough, thickly-piled woolens, woolens so well manipulated that they entirely lack the look of bulk.

The combinations of colours in these fabrics are warm and beautiful. Tweed appears in orange-and-red, or black-and-blue or purple-and-brown. Much attention is paid to linings. They are gorgeous with rainbow stripes that glisten and change colour; brilliant with contrast when, for one, turquoise-taffeta lights up a black, nubby wool.

The wrapped coat (left) is given, by Jacob Kinzler, a sunburst effect from neckline to just below the shoulders. In a cinnamon brown, thickly-piled wool, it has a scooped-in hemline to allow for wrapping. It also has deep armholes and a wide roll collar that can be worn low or close to the neck. A spectacular lining in cinnamon brown is banded with three-inch strips of brown velvet.

The narrow waist and bell-like skirt of a fitted coat (right) are foils for matching stole. This same house does coat-and-stole as a team, with the stole fitted at the shoulders so that it won't slip. Both are in nubby brown tweed but the stole is striped and fringed in black.

Volunteer Koreans Ignore Whistling Shells To Help Harvest Grain

By BILL BOSS

CHORWON, Korea, Aug. 17. (CP)—Shells whistled to and fro overhead as the harvesters felled the grain. The little stands of wheat and barley, on scattered terrace plots of half an acre in size—and even smaller—gave way before the scythe. Abandoned crops at last were being garnered in.

Heading the operation was a man who once worked in Canada, Fred Shulley of Washington, DC, now a United States forester. Shulley is on loan to the United Nations Civil assistance command team in Seoul province, as agricultural adviser.

A graduate of courses at the University of Toronto and of the Yale University Forest School, his initiation into the bush was north of Sault Ste. Marie.

He tells his gang of 85 workers here whenever they grouse about the primitive accommodation available that "This is nothing—you ought to go to Canada!"

"Those two summers cruising lumber in the bush," he says "really taught me to rough it.

Worse In Canada

"Ever since, whenever or wherever things have been tough, I've always been able to say, 'well, I can remember when it was worse than this—in Canada.'"

Shulley's gang comprises farmers and homesteaders who were evacuated from the Chorwon area more than a month ago, most by the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade Group.

The CAC, knowing that severe food shortages threaten Korea next Winter, decided to try to bring in the abandoned grain.

About 1,100 volunteers, most from the area itself, were rounded up in evacuee camps in the southern part of the province.

"First of all," said Shulley, "we went for the rice. These men were going back to their old homes, to an area they knew, and in which they had buried their rice.

"Within 10 minutes of their feet hitting the ground at the first spot, they had walked about 40 feet into a field, scraped away the soil to a depth of eight inches and uncovered two broad sheets of tin.

"Underneath were three whole drums of unhulled rice, clean and fresh.

"During the next two weeks we salvaged 2,600 bushels of hidden rice in this one area."

When the rice had all been tracked down, the gang turned to harvesting the barley.

The gang had one truck and it was filled twice a day with the felled stalks, which then were carried back to the camp area.

There they were flailed by hand to knock the heads off and get down to the bare seed. The gang salvaged 1,200 bushels of barley that way.

Now it is working on the wheat—the same way. Shulley expects them to salvage 1,500 bushels.

The Koreans, all volunteers, are working so far without pay. They are right at the front with the soldiers and are often just behind patrolling troops.

Many, perhaps, are looking on their lands for the last time. Chorwon is in North Korea—and they may have to make new lives for themselves somehow in the south.

2 Ex-Soldiers Will Fight Trial In Italy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Protesting their innocence, two former American servicemen have indicated they will fight any attempt to send them back to Italy for trial in the death of their commanding officer seven years ago.

And the Italian government has taken no action to extradite them to face charges made by the United States defence department that they played key roles in the killing of Maj. William V. Holohan behind enemy lines in 1944.

Holohan, head of an Office of Starategic Services Mission which parachuted behind German lines to direct aid to partisans, disappeared mysteriously.

The Defence Department said in a statement Wednesday that he was killed by former Lieut. Aldo (Ike) Icardi, now a resident of Preakness, NJ, and former Sgt. Carl G. LoDolce, of Rochester, NY, with the help of two Italians Both Americans denied the accusation.

The Defence Department said confessions had been obtained from LoDolce and from the two Italians.

Fight To Utmost

LoDolce said he would "fight to the utmost" any attempt to extradite him to Italy for trial. On the same point, Icardi told reporters "the alleged attempt to 'shanghai' me back to Italy is hardly worthy of belief."

The Department has said neither man can be prosecuted in the United States, since the alleged crime occurred in Italy, and since both men now are civilians outside the reach of military courts.

The US Embassy in Rome said it knew of no request for extradition of the two men. Murder is an extraditable offence under a US-Italian treaty.

Former Major Biagio Corvo, now publisher of a weekly Italian language newspaper in Middletown, Conn., who said he was Holohan's superior, defended Icardi and Lodolce. He said they "did some of the finest intelligence work of the war, and would never kill for money."

In its account of the case, the Department said after a dispute over whether to supply arms to Communist partisans, Icardi and Lodolce and the two Italians poisoned and shot Holohan, dumped his body in the lake, and then tried to make it appear he had been killed or captured by Germans.

She said that the Admiral's widow happened not to be in need.

Bad Cramp In Foot Slows Toronto Woman In Swim

FOLKESTONE, England, Aug. 17 (Reuters).—The Canadian ensign flew from a window in Folkestone today—a symbol of triumph for blue-eyed Winnie Frances Roach Leuszler of Toronto, second woman to reach Dover Thursday night in the cross-channel race and the first Canadian ever to swim the channel.

On her first channel attempt she wins £500 as the second woman across the channel. In the official placing of 13 men and seven women, 25-year-old Winnie came seventh. But of the women competitors she was second only to Britain's Brenda Fisher.

Her father and trainer, Eddie Roach, claims she is the first Canadian, man or woman, ever to swim the channel.

Winnie, too excited to sleep, got up early today and attended mass at Folkestone Roman Catholic Church.

"I am thrilled to death—but so stiff I could almost do with a wheelchair," she said.

Mrs. John Brigdon, with whom she is staying in Folkestone, hoisted the Canadian ensign outside her bedroom window this morning.

The flag was lent to Winnie by the corporation of Folkestone. It flew from the pilot boat accompanying her throughout the race.

Tough Going

The Canadian girl said the 21-mile swim was tough going at times and once or twice she wondered if she could continue.

"After about the 15th mile I got a bad cramp in my foot and it slowed me down a bit. Up till then I was leading. Then Brenda Fisher caught up with me and stayed in the lead for the rest of the way."

Winnie said she did not think she would ever swim the channel again. "Once is enough," she smiled.

"I was very worried because I did not think Winnie had enough experience to do it," her father said.

"Right up to the last minute I wondered if she had been wise to enter the race. But her confidence never faltered. She was certain she could do it."

Winnie learned to swim when she was four and could swim a mile when she was five. At seven she won a kiddies' race—and has been at it ever since.

The organizers of the race, the London newspaper Daily Mail, issued the official times today showing Winnie covered the 21 miles in 13 hours and 25 minutes. Britain's Brenda Sheer beat her with a new British ladies' record of 12 hours, 42 minutes.

Claim Mansion Belongs To Star

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17. (AP)—Marion Davies' lawyer said on Thursday that the Beverley Hills, Calif., mansion where publisher William Randolph Hearst died last Tuesday is the property of the former actress.

Lawyer A. Lawrence Mitchell disclosed the information in explanation of a codicil in the late publisher's will, bequeathing the residence and its contents to Miss Davies, long-time friend and business associate of Hearst, and another codicil revoking the former one.

County records show that Miss Davies, under her legal name of Marion Douras, bought the mansion in 1946 at an indicated value in excess of $120,000. Six weeks later she deeded it to Hearst.

Mitchell said Hearst gave a deed to the residence to Miss Davies in 1948. He said it was not necessary that the transaction be recorded, since it was a gift. Thus county records indicate Hearst is still the owner.

Mitchell said the second codicil in the publisher's will, revoking the bequest of the mansion to Miss Davies, followed its gift to her.

FUNNY BUSINESS -- By Hershberger

"That sign gave me a scare—that's the closest I've been to work in 20 years!"

Council Votes

Griffith. "The township clerk is against it."

Two "glaring examples" of bad estimates on building costs are the Civic Hospital and the new Peterborough collegiate, he continued.

"What's your solution?" asked Reeve Humphries.

"Do the same as the Marmora high school area did," replied Reeve Griffith. "They are maintaining their four high schools and getting better capital grants than we are."

Norwood's Lemon

"Norwood has a lemon on its hands," he said. And he added that a departmental official had from the beginning misrepresented the department's share in financing high school areas.

Reeve James Gifford, Ennismore, said it would be "throwing some of our municipalities to the wolves" to let them try and finance their schools when only $100,000 of a $390,000 debenture was guaranteed.

"Let's get on with it," said Reeve Dick Stewart, Otonabee. "Right now the department is willing to pay 75 per cent on an approved expenditure of $360,000. If we delay another year the grant may go down to 70 per cent."

At the morning session Robert B. Arnold, manager of the Bank of Commerce, said the county's credit was good. Representatives of bond companies begin to crack down on credit when the per capita municipal debt is about $100.

Peterborough county with more than 20,000 population, using this rule of thumb, could count on a credit of $2,000,000. At present the indebtedness is $120,000. If the cost of building the Lakefield and Norwod high schools is added, it would bring the total up to $920,000.

The adjourned meeting of the county council will be resumed 8 p.m. August 21 to give first and second reading to the debenture bylaw. Because of the harvest most of council wanted to be free in the daytime but were willing to do business at night.

British Airship Crippled, But 4 Unhurt

CARDINGTON, England, Aug. 17 (AP)—Britain's lone lighter-than-air craft, the 109-foot Bournemouth, dropped from a height of 50 feet Friday during a leisurely 90-minute experimental cruise.

Sqrn. Ldr. Paul York-Moore, of the RAF, piloted the airship over a gymnasium and its tail rudder t ngled with a rope hanging from a chimney. This caused a partial collapse of the hydrogen-filled bag.

The airship settled slowly. The pilot and three passengers, including balloon pioneer Lord Ventry, stepped out unhurt. A large hole was torn in the craft's sausage-shaped bag and a propeller was damaged. The four men climbed safely on to the roof.

It was the airship's second flight since it was built by a group of local enthusiasts. Capable of 40 miles an hour, it was the first to be built in Britain since the ill-fated R101, which crashed in 1930 with the loss of 47 lives. One of those aboard the airship—engineer Arthur Bell—was a survivor of the R101 disaster.

Mining Town About To Die Moves Houses To New Site

SHERRIDON, Man., Aug. 17—(CP)—This mining town, 60 miles northeast of Flin Flon, Man., is about to die. It's simply moving away.

Sherridon existed because of Sherritt-Gordon Mines, an important producer of copper and zinc since 1929. Now the mine has petered out and will cease operation Sept. 1.

Ordinarily, the mining families, their jobs gone, would move away and leave a ghost town.

But for many of the neatly-painted homes of Sherridon there is a better fate.

When their tenants move the houses are going too—150 miles north to Lynn Lake, site of a new mining operation where a rich discovery of nickel was announced in 1945.

As yet there is little more than a railroad survey line through to the site of the new town. Until the rails go through all supplies must be freighted in by winter tractor-trains over the frozen lakes or by air.

Move 40 Houses

Forty houses are scheduled to be moved from Sherridon to Lynn Lake behind tractors this winter. They will be jacked up, loaded on sleighs and moved "as is." Several were moved successfully this way last winter.

The surface buildings and machinery from the Sherritt-Gordon mine will also be moved piece by piece by tractor train and re-erected on the new location. Foundations now are being poured to receive them.

Axe crews began Aug. 6 to slash out a right-of-way for the $14,725,000, 155-mile railroad extension from Sherridon to Lynn Lake.

Plans call for the new line to be completed to Lynn Lake by Nov. 1, 1953. And when the first rail cars arrive the Lynn Lake mine expects to have ore ready for processing at an Edmonton refinery.

Ringworm Cases Get Treatment

SAULT STE. MARIE, Aug. 17 (CP) — The Board of Health Thursday turned down without consideration a suggestion by the Ontario Department of Health that stubborn ringworm cases be sent to Sudbury where X-ray equipment for deep therapy is available.

Superficial therapy will instead be given to all remaining cases of ringworm here at the Plummer Hospital by a two-doctor team from Sudbury.

Dr. J. E. Gimby said there are about 200 cases of ringworm still to be cleaned up and that probably another few dozen will be discovered when school opens.

Dr. Gimby said investigations have shown the X-ray machine at the hospital can be changed over for superficial therapy. The Board of Health will bear the costs of the changeover, and the patients will be charged for the treatment, with the board helping out in cases of need.

The board Thursday accepted the offer of Dr. C. L. Crang and Dr. L. N. Stewart, of Sudbury, to come to the Sault during weekends to give the treatment. Dr. Crang will meet with the Board of Health Saturday and will arrange for the necessary clinics. Treatments will be started the following weekend.

Total cost of the treatments is expected to be between $5,000-$6,000.

Ottawa Expecting Billion Arms Order

By HAROLD MORRISON

OTTAWA, Aug. 17 (CP). — Crawford Gordon Jr. said Thursday that Canada is solving arms making problems faster than anticipated and the outlook now is that more than $1,000,000,000 worth of orders will be placed in plants by next spring.

The defence production co-ordinator, assessing rearmament in Canada in view of peace talks in Korea, added in an interview that the possibility of a Korean peace would have no impact on defence production.

The gaps between placing orders and deliveries off assembly lines will be narrowed during the next few months, putting increased pressure on supplies of labor and materials.

"As the program is accelerated supplies of civilian goods will become tighter," he said. "This will mean, particularly, that there will be less steel, copper, aluminum and brass available for civilian goods."

Other Points

The 38-year-old Toronto industrialist, who six months ago helped launch a three-year $5,000,000,000 defence program, made these other points:

1. Though most production problems have been ironed out, there is still a big headache in machine tools. A shortage is being overcome through recent changes to the Canada-United States joint mobilization committee. A new subcommittee will study how the two countries can best work together to overcome the shortage.
2. The road now has been opened by which Canada can get more arms orders from the US but whether she actually gets them will depend on initiative. The defence co-ordinator expressed satisfaction with a directive by Gen. George Marshall, US defence secretary, lifting the ceiling on US arms purchases in Canada to $300,000,000 a year from $100,000,000.
3. Canada's arms orders in the US are well ahead of US orders in Canada, but the co-ordinator hopes that by the time the three-year program is over the placing of orders will have evened up.
4. At the rate Canada's defence production program now is growing it should reach maximum output by the end of 1952.

On an industrial planning basis he said Canada's relations with the US are excellent. But that does not preclude the US from thinking more in terms of US equipment rather than Canadian.

"If we want more orders, it is up to us to get out and get the business," he said.

Canada wants to sell the US goods she can produce surplus to her own needs, such as walkie-talkies, electronic equipment and ships. But in most of these cases the US either already has the capacity or is preparing to set up production capacity of her own.

Canada's hope is that through the use of joint planning committees and an "arms salesman" the US may be persuaded that on some items she depends almost entirely on Canada.

The government has been pondering the possibility of appointing an arms salesman for some time. It appeared likely, said Mr. Gordon, that a decision may be reached shortly.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

The "brainless bruiser" has replaced the intelligent player in modern-day hockey in the opinion of one of the stick-handling "greats" of another era, two decades ago.

Frank Fredrickson of Vancouver, 56, former top centre with Lester Patrick's Victoria club and with the National Hockey League's Boston Bruins, said in an interview Thursday that body-contact sports of today, with special reference to hockey, are developing "savagery."

He was on three Stanley Cup teams, with Victoria in 1925 and 1926 and with Boston in 1927.

"Now you see much more illegal tactics, such as smashing into the boards and into the corners. Some coaches, even in the minor amateur leagues, send players out to 'give it' to players on other clubs. Today, hockey players are puppets, willing slaves of managers and the public."

Golfers will shoot for the International Nickel Trophy in the fourth annual invitation tournament at Idlywyld Club, Sudbury, this weekend.

Nick Weslock of Windsor is a high regarded favorite but heavy competition is expected from the western Canada contingent. Cliff Sobery, champion of Saskatchewan, and Alberta Willingdon Cup players, Doug Silverberg and Mob Wylie, will tee off in the tournament.

Walter (Babe) Pratt will leave Vancouver for Calgary shortly to discuss his hockey future with officials of the prairie club.

Pratt, a free agent since he obtained release from New Westminster Royals as playing coach, said today he has been invited to Calgary to consider coaching the Stampeders' entry in the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

At Victoria, Lester Patrick, owner of the Victoria Cougars, announced Thursday that his franchise and the 1951 Pacific Coast Hockey League champions were up for sale.

The announcement came when Patrick received the final draft of the contract between himself and the arena commission Thursday.

"I am definitely open for offers," Patrick said.

Babe Ruth's voice is now part of the home run king's shrine in baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, NY.

A golden record of Ruth's "thank you" to the fans, a broken voiced, earnest expression of gratitude to those honoring him on his day, April 27, 1947, at Yankee Stadium, was presented to the Hall of Fame Thursday by president Frank White of the Mutual Broadcasting System.

George Slater, president of the Quebec Senior Hockey League, said Thursday neither he nor the league has recommended that broadcasts of games be stopped.

He was commenting on a dispatch from Ottawa Wednesday night in which Tommy Gorman, owner of Ottawa Senators of the QSHL, was quoted as saying the league likely will drop broadcasting of home games and that the Senators' games will not be broadcast this coming season.

Baseball—not boxing or football—has been the most dangerous sport in New York City for the last 32 years.

Dr. Thomas A. Gonzales of the New York chief medical examiner's office said baseball injuries brought death to 43 players from 1918 through 1950—as many as football (22) and boxing (21) deaths combined.

Writing in the journal of the American Medical Association, he presented this review of 104 fatal injuries resulting from sports activities during the period.

BI-LINGUAL CANADIANS

The 1941 census showed 1,474,000 Canadians spoke both French and English, while 2,181,746 spoke French only.

Canadian Group To Control Boat Racing

TORONTO, Aug. 17. (CP) — Speed boat racing in Canada takes independent status Nov. 1.

The Canadian Boating Federation announced Thursday night that on that date it takes over complete control of the sport in this country. The federation now operates as an affiliate of the American Power Boat Association.

In line with the new status, Canadians this year are dominating the federation's competitions, says R.R. Finlayson, secretary. In addition to carrying off regatta awards which previously went to United States competitors, Canadians are a cinch this year to three of the federation's four major point trophies.

Shares Equally

Under the new arrangement, the Canadian federation shares equally with the US body in regulation of the sport. The two will meet together to decide on rules and regulations.

The only major Canadian award an American could win this season is the O'Keefe Trophy for most points over the season in the 135 Open Class. And this could still be won by a Canadian driver, the outcome depending on results of future races in Canada and the US.

Canadians have the inside track on the BA Division 1 Trophy and the Schenley Trophy on performances so far this year. The other major federation competition—for the B. S. Peerless Trophy — is limited to Canadians. Remaining races for the trophies will be held at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

College Basketball Scandal Said Entering New Phase

NEW YORK. Aug. 17 —(AP)— District Attorney Frank Hogan called a press conference today on college basketball's biggest scandal amid reports that his inquiry was entering a new phase.

Hogan announced the conference Thursday night shortly after a New York grand jury voted indictments against an unspecified number of persons, reported to have been involved in the rigging of Bradley University games.

Details of the indictments were not made public, and Hogan said the true bills would be filed at the same time he holds his press conference.

Since the scandal first broke January, 31 players from six United States colleges and a number of gamblers have been implicated.

Five of these players, who came here voluntarily from the Bradley campus in Peoria, Ill., testified Thursday before the grand jury that returned the indictments. They waived immunity.

During the grand jury session, the players and 13 other witnesses were questioned.

Five Stars

The five Bradley stars are Gene Melchiorre, considered one of the game's best players; William Mann, George M. Chianakas, Aaron Peerce and Charles Grover.

When Hogan first broke the Bradley phase of the scandal several weeks ago, he said the players were offered $1,500 in bribes to lose by seven points to Bowling Green in the 1949 national invitational tournament here.

A last-minute field goal by a substitute not in the plot, Hogan said, ruined the betting coup by slicing the margin to five points, 82-77 for Bowling Green.

Six persons have been held as material witnesses in this Bradley phase, and Hogan has been seeking Jack (Zip) West, 40, as the alleged master-mind bookmaker behind the betting coups.

Scientists Get New Shield For A-Materials

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Aug. 17— (AP)—Nuclear researchers have developed new "shielding materials" which may help in development of an atomic-powered plane, it was learned Thursday.

Scientists at the Oak Ridge national laboratory, chief nuclear research centre here, have been working on the project for months.

They have long known that to develop a plane, submarine or any type of engine using atomic power they would have to find some shield for protection against radio-active materials.

To accomplish this, scientists have carried out research into the field of the theoretical aspects of shielding and in the actual development of the shields and shielding materials.

In a booklet on activities at the laboratory, the atomic energy commission says:

"These two programs have shed new light on shielding phenomena and, on the immediate practical side, have resulted in new and more effective shielding materials."

No More Comment

That is all the AEC and its scientists would say on the subject.

However, it was announced last February that the first phase of the program designed to produce an atom-powered aircraft had been completed here.

At that time, it was said the second phase of the project probably would be carried out at General Electric Company's gas turbine division at Lockland, Ohio.

Presumably this phase would deal with actual development of an atomic engine or some of its component parts.

Contract Price Of $554,753 Approved, New Collegiate

The Peterborough Board of Education agreed Thursday night to accept the contract offer of the Eastwood Construction Co. to build the new collegiate for $554,753.

This new figure is a reduction of $25,000 on the original Eastwood tender to the Board. To cut down on mounting expenses the accommodation committee consulted J. B. Parkin, architect, and J. Hubert Eastwood, contractor, to see if some economics could be made in the building.

By using substitute materials in some phases of construction, and other alterations and omissions the cost was shaved $25,000.

"I want to assure the Board that these changes have not curtailed the size, accommodation or standard of the building as already designed," said G. Wilson Craw, chairman of accommodation.

Some 20 changes were made in the plans, all of them minor. The largest was a reduction of $4,500 made possible by a change in the design of the footings and foundations.

The gymnasium flood will be of mastic tile instead of hardwood.

Cost of the collegiate is now $650,000. This includes the new contract price of $554,743; architect's fees $35,000; furnishings $40,000; a bonus on steel so the building can get underway this year $6,000; because of the tightening money market, an estimated loss on the sale of debentures of $6,355; and extras $7,892.

The new figure of $650,000 is $65,000 more than the ratepayers approved in the money bylaw last year. Because of the increased cost of labor and materials, and the unexpected expense ($35,000) caused by the necessity of a change in the design of the foundations, the Board asked City Council for the additional money.

The Municipal Board has approved the new revised estimates.

In a few weeks the contractors expect to start work on the site on Monaghan Rd. S. The structural steel should be available by the end of the year, and if all goes well the new collegiate will be open September, 1952.

Hold Jockey, Girl In Probe

TORONTO, Aug. 17 (CP). — Police arrested a jockey and held a Winnipeg girl as a material witness Thursday as law-enforcement officers followed up the Ontario Racing Commission's investigation into "fixed" horse races on Ontario tracks.

Phil Marchese of Pawtucket, RI, under lifetime suspension from Ontario tracks since he was named as the rider who bribed jockey Alfred Nash to pull his horse in a race at Fort Erie, was held in Welland county jail on a charge of defrauding the public. He was unable to raise bail of $5,000 cash or $10,000 property.

Blonde Betty Spencer, 20, was held in the case against jockey Robert Wankmueller of Newark, NJ, described by investigators as the master-mind of race-fixing for a Toronto ring. She was held on $1,000 bail.

Besides Marchese and Wankmueller, jockey George Thompson of Hamilton is under arrest for perjury. He is free on $10,000 bail.

Jockey Nash claimed he accepted a $300 bribe from Marchese but turned the money over to the commission and did not pull his mount. Another jockey, Robert Keane, of Toronto, who rode the beaten favorite in the Fort Erie race, is under lifetime suspension.

HORSEGUARDS UNHORSED—"Dismounting" from this bus at the parade grounds in London is a member of the Royal Horse Guards, who, together with other members of the Horse Guards unit will be parading unmounted until the end of October. Reason for the lack of horses is that stables at Whitehall are being repaired. During this time, the King's Guards will be taken from their barracks to the Royal residence by bus.

Unoffical Rejection Made By Tehran Radio Of British Oil Proposals

TEHRAN, Aug. 18. (Reuters)—Iran's unofficial rejection of British proposals for settlement of the oil dispute today brought a reply of "take it or leave it" from Richard Stokes, chief British envoy. The rejection was made outright but not officially in an English-language broadcast Friday night over Tehran radio. It was thought here to be Iran's answer to the British minister. Today, as Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh and his men sharpened the points of the official reply they will deliver later today, Stokes told reporters: "I have no alternative proposals."

But he added that he was prepared to negotiate details within the framework of the proposition he had offered the Iranians.

"I want to emphasize the need for reaching a speedy settlement," he said.

Officials Pessimistic

Friday night's Tehran broadcast said Stokes' proposals were no use to Iran "because even a superficial study shows that the British capitalists are not accepting the aspiration of Iran to free itself from the imperialist yoke."

After the broadcast, British officials were frankly pessimistic about the outcome of Stokes' talks. They fully expected Mossadegh and his government to reject the British offer.

Stokes made it clear today that Averill Harriman, President Truman's special envoy, had been kept informed at all stages of formulation of the proposals.

"I have every reason to suppose they meet with his full approval," the British envoy declared.

Barriefield Boy Dies From Burns

KINGSTON, Aug. 18—(CP)—Four-year-old Ronald Smith, one of two children burned in Friday's fire at nearby Barriefield, died in hospital early today. His two-year-old brother, Harold, who also suffered extensive injuries, remains in critical condition, hospital authorities said.

The two children and Mr. and Mrs. William Smith were burned when flames roared through the small dwelling occupied by themselves and Mr. and Mrs. Orange Running and their seven children.

UK Embassy Doormen Will Be Dropped

LONDON, Aug. 18 —(AP)—An economy-minded parliamentary committe asked today whether some of Britain's embassies abroad couldn't do without their spit-and-polish doormen, some of whom get more money than junior diplomats stationed in London.

The House of Commons' select committee on estimates—parliamentary watchdog over expenditures—published the results of its investigation into the high cost of running the country's far-flung embassies.

The committee cited the doorman as one luxury which will be cut out in an effort to pare a little off of the continually-soaring cost of running foreign missions.

The report says that in 1939 the entire foreign service cost £1,893,418. In 1952 the bill is expected to be £38,468,000.

Farouk Insulted 3 Reject Prizes

FOLKESTONE, England, Aug. 18—(Reuters)—Three Egyptians cried three cheers for King Farouk Friday night, and flung back the £2,000 they won by swimming the English Channel Thursday.

They couldn't accept the money, a spokesman said, because British newspapers had published "abusive attacks and slanders" about Farouk.

The money so lightly spurned included £1,000 won by Mareeh Hassen Hamad, who was first in the 21-mile international race, and two prizes of £500 each picked up by Hassan Abd el Rehim and Said el Araby for finishing the grind.

Brig. Sabri, captain of the Egyptian team, made his dramatic announcement at the celebration dinner given by the London Daily Mail, which sponsored the swim.

Berlin Reds Order Big Crowd At Meeting

BERLIN, Aug. 18—(AP)—East Berlin Communists today beat the drums to get out a big crowd for the closing spectacle of their giant youth "peace" festival.

It's to be an open-air mass meeting Sunday evening complete with fireworks.

The Red leaders aimed at a turnout of 500,000 to jam Red Square and Unter Den Linden avenue. They summoned the civilian population to join in the demonstration.

Featured speaker will be East German Premier Otto Grotewohl.

Communist leaders already have begun issuing statements hailing the festival as a "mighty success in our fight to preserve the peace."

Peiping Says Progress At Parley

Talks Continuing In Atmosphere Of Great Friendliness

MUNSAN, Korea, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Allies and Reds got down to brass tacks today as the four-man armistice subcommittee met on the buffer zone issue in an atmosphere of friendly informality for the second straight time.

The talks are strictly off-the-record and no official report was made. But a pooled dispatch from Kaesong said the four generals—two American, one North Korean and one Chinese — were seen huddled over a map on a conference table. They seemd to be speaking informally, and not from prepared statements.

After a lengthy session they adjourned. They will meet again at 11 a.m. Sunday (9 p.m. EDT Saturday). That indicated the four trouble-shooters did not reach a final solution today on where the cease-fire buffer zone should be placed.

Once more the sound of laughter coming from the conference room spurred hope of progress.

Hints Progress

Peiping radio Friday dropped a hint of progress in a broadcast just before the negotiators met. The Red radio, monitored in Tokyo, said the sub-cmmittee Thursday "took the first step toward finding a solution to the issue deadlocking the truce talks."

What that was, Peiping didn't say.

Before the sub-committee began today's session, liaison officers of the two sides took over the conference room and continued their debate on the neutrality of Kaesong. The liaison groups will meet again Sunday. Allied members refused to discuss what happened today.

Hit By Freight Driver Injured

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 17—Wilfred Quance, 42, is in critical condition after the borrowed car he was driving was wrecked by an east-bound freight train at a level crossing Friday.

His 10-year-old son, Guy, jumped from the car and ran to safety after the vehicle stopped on the tracks. His father tried unsuccessfully to get the car off the tracks.

The injured man has severe chest injuries, broken ribs, broken arm, possible broken shoulder, severe concussion and shock.

Police said he left his home at 59 Cannifton Rd., possibly to return the car to a neighbor who lived across the tracks. Investigating officers said the wig-wags were operating at the time of the crash.

William Dawson, Belleville, was engineer of the eastbound CNR train.

Fear Red Chinese Purge May Extend To Foreigners

HONG KONG, Aug. 18 (AP)—Red China for the first time has snared non-Chinese in its blood purge net, sentencing two foreigners to death for allegedly plotting to kill Communist leader Mao Tse-tung last fall.

The Peiping radio Friday denounced the two, an Italian and a Japanese, as "spies" for the United States.

It caused fears among observers here that this means a new turn in Peiping's campaign against foreigners and that the purge by execution squads may be extended to non-Chinese.

The state department in Washington and the US military attache on Formosa immediately denied the charge. The Red radio said the attache, Col. David D. Barrett, hired the "spies" while attache in Peiping.

"I never at any time," said Barrett at Taipeh, Formosa, "either on my own initiative or on orders of any agency of the United States government ever attempted to assassinate or contrive the assassination of anyone."

Barrett added that while in Peiping he never spent a cent on intelligence agents. He left Peiping Feb. 6, 1950.

The state department in a statement backed him up, saying any assertion that he was the instigator of such a plot "is a bare-faced lie."

Peiping radio said two of the alleged plotters, Antonio Riva, 55, Italian merchant, and Rinichi Yamaguchi, 47, a Japanese bookseller, were sentenced to death. Two other Italians, a Frenchman and a German got terms ranging from life to five years.

The broadcast said the plotters planned to fire a trench mortar and smaller weapons at a reviewing stand in Peiping Oct. 1, 1950, when Mao and other Red bigwigs were to review a national day parade.

Given life sentence was Monsignor Tacriscio Martina, 64, bishop of Yihhsien diocese in Hopeh province.

On Way To Hospital For Treatment, Driver Nearly Taken There As Car Dives In Ditch

On his way to hospital for treatment to his neck, Richard Baldwin, 22, 469 Stewart St., nearly ended up in hospital for other reasons early today.

He was driving to Peterborough on Highway 7 near Fowler's Corners when a westbound car coming over the brow of a hill forced him off the road. Skidding on the wet grass, Baldwin's car swerved across the road and hit a rock ledge in the ditch.

The car bounced off the ledge, turned around and the other side was smashed against the ledge. Damage was about $400 to the car. Baldwin was shaken up but not injured.

Provincial Constable Roy Feeley investigated.

UN, Red Planes Mix It Up In Two Lively Battles, First Air Action In Month

US EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Aug. 18. (AP)—American and Red jets fought two thundering battles over northwest Korea today in the first large-scale air action in more than a month. US Fifth Air Force said one Red fighter was damaged in the first clash and one was "probably destroyed" in the second.

The Air Force said all the American F-86 Sabre jets in both battles returned safely to their bases.

Twenty-eight Sabres tangled with 24 Russian type MIG-15s between 15,000 and 35,000 feet in the second fight.

In the earlier fight, 29 Sabres collided with 30 Red Jets.

The battle, 5,000 feet over Sonchon, lasted five minutes. The MIGS broke off the fight and flew north.

United Nations and Communist infantry fought hand-to-hand battles at both ends of the Korean batle line Friday.

On the eastern end of the line, UN forces fought to dislodge Reds from strongly-entrenched positions northwest of Yanggu. The allies pressed their attack into hand-to-hand combat but failed to dislodge the enemy.

Fifth Air Force fighter bombers hammered away today at enemy rail communications.

The Communist Pyongyang radio said Friday night that Red ground fire shot down four allied planes. There was no allied confirmation of the enemy claims.

Brain Specialist Tried In Death

MUAKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 18—(AP)—A prominent brain specialist who said he attempted to revive a drugged womant patient with a slug of gin is charged with manslaughter as a result of her death.

Dr. Perry E. Hewit, Jr., a strapping, white-haired father of four children, Friday was granted a 15-day continuance of his preliminary hearing originally set for Tuesday.

He pleaded innocent Thursday and asked for a quick hearing. But his lawyer requested the extension. He is free on $5,000 bail.

Hewitt, who did post-graduate work at McGill University, Montreal, is accused of drunkenly administering drugs to Mrs. Allene Shuler, 38, of Borger, Tex., who had sought headache relief. She died in a hospital Aug. 9 without regaining consciousness less than 24 hours after treatment.

County Attorney Ed Edmondson said Hewitt told him he "became desperate" when Mrs. Shuler failed to revive and ordered a dram of gin which was poured down the patient's throat.

Hewitt, 41, was disclosed by D. E. Harkey of Oklahoma City, counsel for the State board of medical examiners, to have surrendered his narcotics licence to the board three years ago.

In hospital at Matheson, 40 miles east of Timmins, are Zenon Gagnon, of St. Therese, Que., with a broken back; his brother, Lucient, with cuts and bruises, and Lionel Durette of Amqui, driver of the car which was owned by Martel, with a possible fracture of the right shoulder.

All four were employed by a lumber company in the Matheson area and were returning from a holiday spent in the Quebec City area.

H. J. Toal of Cochrane and two passengers, both women escaped injury when their small truck was struck by the Martel car. The Martel car was demolished after it careened 500 feet up the highway and rolled over once.

Jordan Begins Assassins' Trial

AMMAN, Jordan, Aug. 18 (AP)—The trial of 10 persons charged with plotting the July 20 assassination of Jordan's King Abdullah opened at Antelby camp near here today before a special military court.

The indictment against the men three of whom are relatives of Haj Amin El Husseini, exiled Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, accused them of "plotting, abetting and inducing the assassination of King Abdullah." Two of the accused are being tried inabsentia, since they are living in Cairo.

Abdullah, one of the most powerful figures in the Middle East, was slain in the Jordan-held old city of Jerusalem as he was going to the tomb of his father in the Mosque of Omar. His assassin, a 21-year-old Moslem tailor who was said to be a follower of the Grand Mufti, was killed on the spot by Abdullah's bodyguard.

Father Ibrahim Ayyad, Roman Catholic secretary of the Latin Patrairchate in Jerusalem, and Dr. Mousa Abdullah El Husseini, one of the Mufti's cousins, were the first defendants to appear before the three-man tribunal. They both pleaded innocent.

Her husband, Donald MacLean, disappeared May 26 with Guy Burgess, a foreign office colleague, perhaps behind the Iron Curtain.

Big Hurricane Strikes At Jamaica

Communications Cut By 120-MPH Gale In Damage Estimate

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 18. (AP)—Navy planes took off at dawn today to pick up the trail of the hurricane that apparently struck overnight at the island of Jamaica in the West Indies.

Communications with Kingston, the Jamaican capital city of 120,000 population, was lost early Friday night when the airport and radio tower were evacuated.

All efforts early today to learn how the city and the outlaying banana and sugar cane lands withstood the 120-mile-an-hour punch of the storm were fruitless.

The Miami Weather Bureau's last report from the island at 7 p.m. EDT said rain squalls, the usual prelude to hurricane winds, were pelting the Jamaican coast. The central eye of the storm is believed to have passed Kingston about 11:30 p.m.

"This is a dangerous hurricane," the weather bureau said in an advisory.

120 MPH Gale

Strongest winds were estimated by aircraft at 120 miles an hour. Hurricane force winds extended outward 50 miles in all directions from the eye and gales reached 100 miles from the centre.

The latest weather bureau calculation placed the storm about 100 miles west of Jamaica and moving west northwestward at 20 miles an hour.

Floodwaters offered as great a threat to Jamaica as the winds. The island is mountainous and the deluge that accompanies hurricanes has caused devastating flash floods there in the past.

After Jamaica, the Cayman Islands were next in the path of the fast-travelling tropical storm. Grand Cayman Island, site of the capital, Georgetown, is the largest of the group.

From there, Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said it would be "in a position to swing up through the Yucatan channel or over Western Cuba into the Gulf of Mexico."

Modern Romeo Given Freedom

ATHENS, Greece, Aug. 18 (AP)—Crete's modern Romeo, Costa Kephaloyannis, got his freedom today from prison. An early reunion with his dark-eyed wife, Tassoula, was in prospect.

His release was affected by a decree signed by King Paul, who commuted Costa's two-year sentence to 14 months.

Costa was sentenced last February on charges of illegal possession of weapons. He has been in custody since Sept. 1. With time off time credited for serving at a rural prison, he now has served 14 months.

Costa carried off Tassoula to the rugged Cretan mountains and married her last August. She is in Macedonia visiting an uncle.

Battalion Brings Important Data On Enemy Troops

WITH THE CANADIAN 25TH BRIGADE IN KOREA, Aug. 18. (Reuters)—A battalion of the Canadian 25th Brigade has brought back valuable information about Communist defences after a three-day raid behind the Chinese lines north of the Imjim River. The raid cost the Communists an estimated 20 to 30 killed, said Col. Robert A. Keane, of Fort William, acting commander of the brigade and commander of the regiment from which the raiding battalion was chosen. "Canadian casualties were negligible," he added.

Today the raiders, who penetrated six miles deep in the enemy positions, were resting in their camp amid the green hills of Korea's western front. Their leader, Maj. Charles H. Lithgow of Toronto—it was the first time he had commanded a battalion in action—described the operation as a "satisfactory workout."

The first day was spent establishing a firm base on the south bank of the Imjin River. At first light of the second day the battalion crossed the river, covered by a barrage from the division's artillery and tank guns.

No Transport

They had no transport; all supplies and weapons were manhandled.

With little opposition, they thrust about 4½ miles into enemy territory. But at nightfall resistance suddenly stiffened, and they found themselves battling grimly over rugged terrain under harassing fire from Chinese mortar teams, machine guns and small arms.

During the night the Communists launched determined counter-attacks, but the raiders threw them back.

At dawn on the third day the Canadians started for their final objectives—and immediately ran into a hail of intense fire. The Chinese resistance continued to mount, but the raiders pressed forward to within 500 yards of their goal before halting.

Chinese Fall Back

For hours they poured mortar bombs, rockets and bullets at a strong enemy hill position, but the Communists stayed put. "C" company was ordered to storm the position—its first close-quarters action.

After a sharp battle the Chinese fell back, leaving several dead and wounded.

From the hilltop strong enemy defence positions were located. The mission had been accomplished and the raiders started for home.

All the way back they were closely followed by Communist groups, and had to fight brisk rearguard actions.

They crossed the river shortly after nightfall on the third day; 15 minutes later patrols reported that Chinese troops had reoccupied the territory through which they had withdrawn.

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Aug. 18—(Reuters)—About 600 Dutchmen will go to Canada this month in 10 emigrant flights by Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM). Must Keep Defensive Lines Till Final Settlement—Joy

MUNSAN, Korea, Aug. 18 (AP)—The senior allied envoy to the Kaesong cease-fire talks said tonight the United Nations "must retain defensive positions" in Korea.

"We must keep up our military guard until the final settlement of the Korean problem seems assured," said Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy in an official statement released at his headquarters here.

Joy added:

"The sole objective of the UN command delegation is a military armistice, based on military realities. These armistice negotiations are an essential prelude to any eventual long-time solution of the Korean problem."

Joy's statement had been read at the Kaesong talks but the UN command did not say when.

Joy warned that "the net effect of any armistice will be of greater military advantage to the enemy than it will to us."

He rejected the Communist demand for a buffer zone astride the 38th parallel.

Joy said it was the primary mission of any field commander to insure the security of his troops at all times, and added, "we have a solemn obligation to our fighting men to afford them maximum security during the armistice."

The senior allied negotiator said both the UN and the Communists are capable of continuing their military actions.

"International law," he said, "specifically defines an armistice as a temporary suspension of hostilities, and just as specifically points out that hostilities may be resumed by either side if proper prior notification is given.

"Thus it can be seen that it would be foolhardy, and perhaps be disastrous, for either commander to expose his forces along a political demarcation line rather than to place them in a sound militarily - defensible position where they can protect themselves in the unfortunate event hostilities should be resumed."

Congress Votes Billion Dollar Cut In Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (AP)—The House of Representatives Friday night passed and sent to the Senate a $7,498,750,000 foreign aid bill. This was $1,001,250,000 less than President Truman had asked for helping friendly countries resist Communism.

Administration leaders looked to the Senate to restore at least part of the cut.

They were particularly hopeful of recapturing an unexpected last-minute slice of $350,000,000 in economic aid for Western Europe. That cut was pushed through by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats shortly before the bill passed Friday night by a vote of 260 to 101.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee already had lopped $340,000,000 off funds for European economic help.

Ignore Request

The House left the European economic allotment at $985,000,000 instead of the $1,675,000,000 requested by President Truman.

There were no House-voted reductions in other funds recommended by the Foreign Affairs Committee. This group had trimmed a total of $651,250,000 from Truman's request for military and economic assistance for Europe, Greece, Turkey, Iran, the Near East, Africa, Asia, the Pacific area and American republics allied in resistance to Communism.

The cut was not as deep as many republicans had hoped. Their goal was an over-all reduction, including the committee cuts, of from $1,500,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

Republicans argued that the economic aid funds could be cut because European countries, already given billions of American aid, are in a position to carry more of the load themselves.

McCloy Wins East Germans

BERLIN, Aug. 18—(AP)—John J. McCloy, US high commissioner mingled Friday with East German youths who strayed in from the Communist youth festival. He took on all comers in a question-and-answer bout, and came out of it with thumping cheers.

The youths bombarded McCloy with political questions. Most wanted to know about the prospects for German unity.

McCloy told them:

"I have a real message of hope for you. I do not know when it will happen, but the West is prepared to aid all of those who wish for freedom. I can't say when this whole thing will collapse and people will start making sense (in the East) but we intend to do everything we can to restore freedom not only to one part of Germany but to all of it, so keep your faith."

Find Plane Wreckage 12 In Crew Killed

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 18 —(AP)—Ground parties reached the wreckage of a Navy PB4-Y-2 Privateer bombing plane on the slopes of lonely Amak Island off the northern Alaska peninsula coast Friday and reported all 12 crew members dead.

The plane vanished Sunday on a routine mission from Kodiak toward Adak Island in the mid-Aleutians.

The four-engined plane apparently exploded as it crashed. Flames seared an area of about 100 feet.

Meanwhile low clouds hampered search for bush pilot Glen Hudson and his three passengers, overdue since Wednesday night to Wolford Lake 170 miles northeast of here.

Count Takes Single Ticket To Venezuela

MONTREAL, Aug. 18—(CP)—Count Jacques de Bernonville Friday voluntarily quit the country where he sought refuge from a death sentence. But he and his lawyer said he'll be back in time to hear whether the courts uphold the government's attempts to deport him.

The sabre-scarred Frenchman, decorated for gallantry in the First World War but condemned to death in absentia for collaboration with the Nazis in the second, left by plane Friday with a one-way ticket for Caracas, Venezuela.

His departure may solve the lengthy legal battle he has put up since 1948 against deportation. Without papers, other than a Brazilian safe conduct recommending permanent residence in Brazil, De Bernonville's chances of re-entering the Dominion are slim.

But De Bernonville and his lawyer, Jacques Perreault, said he will be back by October when the courts are expected to rule on his petition to remain in Canada.

From Caracas, De Bernonville will stop off in Port of Spain, Trinidad, before going on to Rio de Janeiro "on business for a company whose name I am not permitted to divulge."

Loves Canada

His last words to newspapermen were: "I love Canada and Canadians."

His sentiments haven't been reciprocated ever since deportation proceedings were started against him in 1948. For three years he blocked them, at first by saying to return to France would mean certain death.

His death sentence was pronounced by post-war courts which he said hadn't given him a chance to defend his action as military governor of Lyons under the Vichy regime.

Then France promised him a new trial but De Bernonville still refused to leave. He remained here, working as an executive officer of an insurance firm.

One of his three daughters returned to France some months ago. His wife and two other daughters stayed on, living under the name of Benoit which the Count assumed when he slipped into the country illegally in 1946. Now they, too, may have returned to their homeland.

DANGEROUS GENT — These five burly members of Montreal's police department say Roy Williams of Toronto (third from left) is a dangerous man. They are leading him, under protest, to police cells after an armed holdup in which they say Williams ordered his victim to strip before making off with $636. No clothes and several shots fired at him didn't bother the victim, Pete Wyman, a cafe owner, who joined policemen in the chase along an east-end street. Wyman was getting dressed when this picture was taken.

Police said the two were neighbors and had not been friendly for several years.

Police said there was an argument. Pelletier allegedly drew a small revolver and Lewery told him to "beat it and go home." Police said Pelletier did but came back minutes later with a rifle and shot Lewery in the stomach.

Lewery died two hours later.

Denies Drinking Liquor In Car, Only Ginger Ale

COBOURG, Aug. 18—(ENS)—A charge of having liquor other than in his residence against Jack Germaine, Brampton, was dismissed in police court Friday. Provincial police on May 26, while patrolling the highway near Grafton on the lookout for a stolen car, met an automobile which failed to dim its lights. As they could not discern the licence number, they turned around and gave chase. As they drew up, according to the evidence of Constables W. Baluk and C. Meadows, they saw a bottle being passed from the back to the front seat. They stopped the unknown car and when they pulled up, the passenger poured out the contents of a glass on the side of the road. In the car were five full unopened bottles of expensive Scotch.

Germaine said to the court that he and his companion, Murray Young, were on their way to Kingston for a fishing party on which some car dealers would be present. Before they left Toronto they had a drink of liquor in Germaine's office and Germaine had the glass, among others in the car. He explained that the odour of whisky in the empty glass, smelled by the constable, was from the drinks in the office. Young had been drinking ginger ale in the car, Germaine testified.

"There seems to be something fishy somewhere but I feel that I will have to accept your story and dismiss the charge," said Magistrate R. B. Baxter.

Remanded One Week

Eugene Valois and Charles Bergin, of Toronto, pleaded guilty to theft of a car from Benjamin Socol at Brighton, Aug. 14, and were remanded a week for sentence. Valois said that they had been waiting a long time for a ride at Brighton and on impulse stole the car. Asked by the magistrate where he had been working, Valois said he lost his job as a truck driver in Toronto because he couldn't get to work on time in the mornings.

"My wife had twins a few weeks ago and I had to help her with them in the mornings and couldn't get to work before ten in the morning," Valois told the magistrate. The pair were arrested at Norham by Provincial Constable O. Bowerman, of Brighton.

Acting Crown Attorney Harvey Brent advised the court that a further charge was to be laid.

Bruno Iolente, of Toronto, pleaded guilty to stealing the car of his employer, Mrs. Maude Zimmerman, of Carrying Place, and of stealing a wrist watch and other articles from her home on Aug. 16. Iolente said that he had discussed with Mrs. Zimmerman the idea of bringing down his girl friend to work there and as Mrs. Zimmerman was away at the time he couldn't tell her he was taking her car to Toronto to bring down his girl.

"I intended to come back," said Iolente to the court.

"When he left he took all his belongings," observed Corporal L. Lyle, of Brighton provincial police. He was remanded a week.

Hugh Dunbar, 18-year-old Brighton township youth, pleaded guilty to stealing six hens from Fred Wade of the same township. Corporal Lyle testified that the boy's mother helped him clean and dress the hens and his sister peddled them to where they were finally sold. In his statement to the police the youth said that his mother had asked him where he got the hens but he didn't tell her.

"I think the matter requires some looking into," suggested Mr. Brent.

The Reds have held out for a buffer zone astride the 38th parallel. Recently they indicated this was not an inflexible demand, that the line could be "adjusted."

The United Nations command has said it wants the buffer zone generally along the present lines, mostly north of 38. The UN too, has indicated a willingness to compromise.

NATO Agreed On Membership

LONDON, Aug. 18—(AP)—The 12 Atlantic allies meet here Monday to decide whether the Greek and Turkish search for security can best be met by admitting the two South European countries into their pact.

Official sources reported Friday the 12 agree unanimously on the principle that Greece and Turkey are entitled to come into some form of association with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The big problem is how to do it without upsetting the original Atlantic concept of the alliance.

The United States and Britain favor meeting Greek-Turkish claims for full pact membership. Norway, Denmark, and the Netherlands are afraid such an extension of the pact not only will stretch their own commitments too far but also might anger Russia.

Deputies of the NATO nations hope to define the problem and submit agreed recommendations for its settlement in time for a scheduled Sept. 15 meeting of their foreign, defense and finance ministers in Ottawa.

Another task for the deputies is to write an agenda for the Ottawa conference.

Aside from the Greek-Turkish issue, the Ottawa talks are expected to dwell mainly on burden-sharing problems of Atlantic defense.

Memorial Gate Completed At Exhibition

The memorial gate at Morrow Park has been completed, G. A. Gillespie reports. It was erected in honor of R. A. (Bertie) Morrow, and was within the terms of the deed of trust of Exhibition Park to the public of Peterborough by Harold A. Morrow.

Primary use of the grounds is to be for purposes in promotion of agriculture; if the Exhibition should lapse at any time the land is offered to the city for a public park; otherwise, it is to be sold and disbursed among the heirs of H. A. Morrow.

Charles E. Moore of Smith, one of the long service directors of the Exhibition, implies in an article he has written for The Examiner next week that the memory of Bertie Morrow would be in excellent company with the names of the Peterborough men who are yet to be inscribed inside the long projected Memorial Centre.

If ever any of the directors doubted the advantages of the Centre at Morrow Park and its agricultural associations, that day is gone. The greatest boom to the "Ex" it is confidently believed, would be the building of the Centre on that property.

The home of Mr. Morrow was on the north side of the Sherbrooke St. hill, the old house about the end of High St. with a grand view of the city.

Margaret's 21st Birthday Doesn't Bring Any Freedom

By R. B. MacLURKIN

BALMORAL, Scotland, Aug. 18 —(Reuters) — Princess Margaret will be 21 next Tuesday, but she'll get no tradition key to the front door to symbolize freedom from parental authority.

The world's gayest princess, the King's second daughter, will still have to obey her father's orders to stay away from night clubs—which has been the case for several months.

Even her love of clothes and her flair for setting fashions must be held in check if the strict code of the Royal Court says so.

Unlike other girls who reach 21 she won't even have a vote, because royalty doesn't meddle in politics.

One of the Royal Family's biggest fears is scandal of any kind or any action which might cause criticism. Margaret, through no fault of her own, is the weakest chink in the armor.

Because of her youth, her good looks and high spirits, newspapers and gossips for the last three years have followed her every move.

Give Her No Peace

When she tried to have a secluded swim in the sea during an Italian vacation at Capri, cameras with telescopic lenses did a Peeping Tom act. Newspapers made Buckingham Palace totter by publishing pictures of a British princess in a scanty bathing suit.

Every time she has visited a night club or a theatre it has meant headlines—giving an exaggerated impression of Royal goodtiming and luxing living in Britain's days of austerity. So Margaret has stayed away from night spots recently and probably won't be seen at many after she becomes 21.

More recently, court circles have been playing Margaret down as a leader of fashion, taking the view it might be looked on as bad taste in a period of rising prices when many Britons can't afford new clothes.

During a recent race meet she wore the same dress every day, and Royal officials have been at pains to point out she will be wearing no new dress on her birthday.

The celebration is being officially publicized as simple and private.

Nevertheless, reporters and cameramen have taken the high road to Scotland and are swarming around Balmoral, the King's Scottish home.

Won't Get Much

All they are likely to hear of the birthday party is the skirl of bagpipes, because the Royal family hates any kind of intrusion into its privacy.

If the weather is good, Margaret will picnic in the hills Tuesday with her friends. There will be no official ceremonies but a number of guests have been invited to Balmoral.

Among these will be Billy Wallace, 24, son of Mrs. Herbert Agar, wife of the American writer and historian.

The tall, polo-playing Wallace sometimes escorts Margaret. But he told a reporter today there is "absolutely no truth" in rumors that his engagement to the Princess will be announced on her birhday.

Balmoral Castle is comparatively small, and only a few of the Princess' friends will stay with the Royal family. Others will be guests in neighboring houses.

There is likely to be a dance in the castle Tuesday evening with pipers playing Scottish reels and strathspeys.

Nothing has leaked out about the birthday presents Margaret will get. Friends say she is anxious for an automobile of her own but they don't know if she will get it. She will probably receive some jewelry to mark her coming of age.

One present is certain—an annual income of £6,000 a year voted recently by parliament.

The Princess will also become eligible to serve on a council of state when the King is out of the country.

Six Of 11 Farmers Leave For Prairies

Of 11 farmers from Western Canada who have been helping with the harvest in this district, six have already left for their homes, W. H. L. Mellis of National Employment Service reported today.

"They were greatly impressed with this part of Ontario," Mr. Mellis said. "They liked the people, the farmers who employed them, and from all accounts they did a good job in this season's emergency of heavy crops. The others will be going soon when their work is done. There is a big harvest in the west, and they are needed at home. These eleven men were from the three grain provinces."

The pay here was generally $6 a day and board.

Declares US Fed Up With Ottawa Criticism

GENEVA PARK, Ont., Aug. 18 (CP)—A United States foreign policy expert who declined use of his name said Friday that Americans are fed up with Canadian criticism of US foreign policy while Canada continues, in US eyes, to be slow in matching its words with deeds.

He told the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs that, despite differences in methods of procedure, US and Canadian foreign policy had the same objectives.

"I should like to remind you that American foreign policy cannot be conducted solely with an eye to Canadian approval," he said. "The blunt fact is that Canada is not as important to the United States as the United States is to Canada."

Persian Oil Declining In Importance

Behind the palaver about the Persian oil wells is a fact which is seldom mentioned and little realized by outsiders: Persia's oil industry is declining and has declined in importance in the last three years. Experts believe that never again will Persia hold a predominant position in the world's oil markets (she is now in fourth place as a producer, after the United States, Soviet Russia and Venezuela). This would have happened even had there been no nationalization and if the wells and refineries had remained under British financial and managerial control.

* * *

A director of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company says that Persian oil has been slipping in the competitive market for the last three years. While it has been produced efficiently and cheaply in Persia under careful management, the distances from its outlets to the chief consumers make its transport—entirely by sea—expensive. Sea transport cannot compare in economy with pipeline shipment, with, for instance, the piping of oil from Alberta eastward on this continent; or with oil piped into Montreal from American bases.

* * *

Conditions can change this estimate of Persia's oil future. Another great war would make great demands and end the present world surplus of crude oil production. The last war caused a very large expansion in Persia's oil production and in the capital development of the fields; but in another war the wells and refineries are unlikely to remain out of bomber reach. A sudden industrialization of India would also increase the demand for Persian oil.

* * *

The events of the last few months in Iran have hastened the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company's efforts to lessen the concentration of investment in Persia and develop other oil fields from which transportation would be cheaper.

Einstein Challenged

Lord Samuel, president of the Royal Institute of Philosophy since 1931, has taken Einstein by the hair. The occasion was a meeting of the British Association in Edinburgh last week-end. The learned nobleman said that Einstein's space-time continuum and the "whole mathematical apparatus" were abstractions invented by the human imagination and unsound as a basis of scientific observation. No philosopher should accept them, he said.

"Mathematics cannot convey broadcasting waves from Paris to London, or light and heat from the sun to the earth or let the moon lift the tides of the ocean or keep the stars and planets circling eternally. As concepts they cannot provide us with a medium capable of producing any sort of phenomena in the world of nature."

Viscount Samuel proposed a new medium, what he called "two-stage energic ether" as an alternative to the discarded nineteenth century idea of ether as a prevailing gas or elastic solid, and also as an alternative to the space-time continuum of relativity: "I start from an element in the universe which is not merely known but is familiar to everyone everywhere; a factor which we use for our own purposes every day and every hour as freely as we use air or water or soil—it is energy."

"I submit that an 'ether' exists and it consists of energy and that it is the sole constituent of the material universe. Energy as simply expressed might imply activity and an undifferentiated continuum of active energy could only be a raging chaos like the perpetual explosion of an infinite number of atomic bombs, but we can get over that difficulty because in nature an entity may exist in different states. Water may be either in a solid state as ice, a liquid state or a gaseous state as steam. We can conceive, I suggest, energy existing in two states—quiescent and active."

From here on Lord Samuel's thesis becomes too involved for us to follow but we get the general impression that he would try to bring science down to earth again from the unreality to which it has flown with Einstein. The myths of ancient Greece, Grimms fairy tales and the legends of the woods believed of old by Indians make less demand on human credulity than today's natural science. Philosophy, from which science has sprung to become an incredible, domineering offspring, is now properly chastising the practitioners of the new magic. Viscount Samuel is bringing the common-sense, cold logic and clarity of philosophy to bear on the fantasy of science. He is attempting to bring it back from inhuman imagination to human understanding.

Viscount Samuel is wily enough to use some of the trappings of the scientists to challenge them by their own tools. Hence his concept of "energic ether," which, he told the British Association, would meet all the difficulties which now bother some scientists, including the field theory with which Eintein is himself dissatisfied. It even encompasses the quantum theory, since Planck's constant "h" might be, the noble philosopher explained, the point of transition from quiescent energy to active energy.

Lord Samuel was challenged afterwards by theoretical physicists, but it is reported that the discussion did not shake his argument.

Indian River

On our Feature Page this week-end begins a short series of articles on the Indian River by Richard F. Choat. Mr. Choate, a veteran Toronto newspaperman and native of Warsaw, has long known, loved and studied the district. Indian River is very ancient; some thousands of years ago it was a tumult of waters vastly different from the quiet stream it is today, connecting two vast prehistoric lakes which geologists have named Lake Algonquin and Lake Iroquois.

It is a fascinating story of an ancient river bed, the upheaval of limestone whose crags now tumble around the small river as it is today, the quarries which have served the district, and the caves of Warsaw which are now haunts of dark adventure.

Mr. Choate and the Examiner's staff photographer canoed from Gilchrist Bay on Stony Lake down Indian River on behalf of the Examiner. The story of the River, told from long study and observation refreshed by this trip, is given in word and picture on our Feature Pages of the next several week-ends.

Mr. Choate makes an ardent and convincing plea for the preservation of the historic watershed from the woodsman's axe, the road-builder's bulldozer and the erosion which the laying waste of the bush has speeded. His desire is that its flora, fauna and beauties, now threatened, be conserved for our posterity.

India and Pakistan

The situation between India and Pakistan now is proof that membership in the Commonwealth does not automatically mean perfect peace between the members. India and Pakistan are still Commonwealth members, although one hesitates to call India a Dominion. These two members of the family are at war—a war inactive at the moment because of the mediation of U.N. Both countries are spending crippling sums on armament and employing tens of thousands of men in their armies, who should be in fields raising food or in factories producing goods. The chief issue between them is, of course, the old dispute over Kashmir, which India claims because its Prince handed it over to India and because she feels Kashmir necessary to her territory. Pakistan claims Kashmir because the bulk of the inhabitants are Moslems.

Bitterness between the two nations is intense, and hot-heads in the parliaments of both want to re-open the shooting war. Pandit Nehru, touted as a man of peace, is certainly unwilling to have peace at the price of giving up Kashmir. Pakistan's Prime Minister Liaquat Ali Khan constantly protests against India's 'aggression' and at the same time about half his Government's budget is going into national defence. What both these new nations need in their first formative years is peace, yet peace seems farther off now than it was a year ago. True, Mr. Nehru has invited the Pakistan Prime Minister to visit him in India to talk things over; and Liaquat Ali Khan has issued a similar invitation to the Indian Prime Minister. Neither has been accepted.

Britain is officially favouring neither India nor Pakistan, but the British military can make no secret of their preference for Pakistan, its policies and leaders. British officers have always got along better with Moslems than with Hindus; they appreciate the heartiness and simplicity of the former. Two curious British travellers have been in Pakistan, and the Indian parliament has been agitated by their visits. They are Field Marshal Sir Claude Auchinleck and General Sir Douglas Gracey, who resigned his appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Pakistan Army in February. Actually, Sir Douglas has only been in Pakistan a few days since February, and Sir Claude Auchinleck has accepted an uncharacteristic appointment as director of a Pakistani carpet factory. It is pretty difficult for an average Indian to believe that the Field Marshal has been in Pakistan on carpet business and not as a military expert. Shooting war has not been resumed, but only calm heads and sober negotiation will be able to prevent it.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A columnist defines courtship as "a period during which a girl winds a man around her finger preparatory to getting him under her thumb." This is feeble nonsense, and probably propaganda for what John Knox so ably described as "the monstrous regiment of women." Every man knows that if he gives a woman the back of his hand now and again, she will eat out of his palm most of the time.

The Fate Of The Whale

By JOHN WORRALL (in Capetown)

THE decision to make no reduction in the annual quota for the legal slaughter of blue whales in the Antarctic reached by the International Whaling Commission Conference held here recently, will deepen the fears of the world whale experts and scientists that the species is doomed to extinction in the foreseeable future.

Delegates from sixteen countries—Britain, South Africa, Norway, France, Holland, the United States, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Panama, Sweden, Russia, Japan, Denmark, Mexico and Iceland — attended the conference. The talks were held behind closed doors. Little news of the trend of the discussions leaked out to the press. A brief communique stated that there would be no change in the quota of 16,000 blue whale units which has been imposed on members during every Antarctic whaling season since the war. This is the permitted target of the entire industry in one season, but there is no legislation determining how many whales each expedition should take and there is a natural incentive to each expedition to make the biggest haul possible.

✧ ✧ ✧

THERE have been warnings from many quarters in recent years that the present rate of slaughter can end only in the disappearance of the whale in the Antarctic. Yet, according to Dr. Von Bonde, South Africa's Director of Fisheries, measures for checking excessive killing, in-shore whaling or methods of killing were not discussed at the conference. Highly significant figures given unofficially by members of the Commission and published here by the shipping correspondent of the "Cape Argus" show that in the first half of this century approximately 1,100,000 whales were killed.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE annual slaughter is between 42,000 and 44,000 of which three-quarters are killed in the Antarctic. Whales are becoming steadily harder to find and are smaller. The blue whale—the king of the species and worth more than twice its nearest rival in average oil yield—is already so reduced in numbers that of the whales killed in the Antarctic the percentage of blue whales has steadily declined from 82 per cent in 1932 to 22 per cent in 1951. The sperm whale, fin whale and hump-back whale are being attacked with greater intensity. The hump-back whale has had to be given several lengthy periods of respite in recent years to save it from extinction. Immature whales are being killed in increasing numbers.

Finally, and most serious of all, is the fact that approximately half the whales killed are females and one-third of these are pregnant.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE information on which these figures are based has been collected over many years by the International Whaling Commission's statistics department. What makes the future even blacker for the whale is that more expeditions are being planned by countries already in the field. There is no limit to the number of expeditions. Some of these countries, such as the Argentine, Peru and Italy, are not even signatories to the Whaling Convention, although they sent observers to the conference. The Argentine has been whaling for fifty years, yet she has not accepted invitations to join the Commission and share the restrictions other whaling nations accept.

✧ ✧ ✧

PROFESSOR B. BERGESON of Norway, chairman of the Commission, and Dr. Remington Kellogg of the United States, vice-chairman, said in an interview that they believed that agreement would eventually be reached to reduce the rate of slaughter.

"We are moving nearer to it", they said. The fact remains, however, that next year's legal slaughter remains the same as this year.

In answer to a question, they said, "We do not agree that it is virtually inevitable that whale stocks will be destroyed. We expect the price of oil to drop when the supply of vegetable oils becomes equal to the demand. The drop should result in reduced whaling activity".

ALL the big whaling concerns are doing well with whale oil at the record price of £160 a ton. One newcomer to the industry invested about £3,500,000 in a new expedition last year and made an estimated net profit in one season of 50 per cent. The value of South Africa's total production of whale oil alone is more than £3,500,000.

In the last season, 19 factory ships operated in the Antarctic, accompanied by 241 catcher-ships. The total catch, including that of land stations, was 2,305,187 barrels of oil compared with 2,166,505 barrels the season before. According to a statement issued by the Commission, the 16,000 blue whale unit limit was exceeded by 413 units. The 1,250 limit on taking hump-back whales was exceeded by 380—"although every attempt was made to stop the taking of hump-backs in time".

✧ ✧ ✧

THE question that must be asked is—if all the experienced whale-men and scientists at the conference knew all the facts, why was no agreement reached on a reduction of the slaughter?

Could it be that the many rich and powerful interests involved in whaling want the present quota of slaughter to be maintained, even though they know full well that soon there may be nothing left for anybody?

Fred Rose's Release

(Calgary Herald)

The release of Fred Rose must have prompted many Canadians to ask themselves "Well, where do we go from here?" Belief in Communism, it has been amply proven, leads to serious crimes being committed against Canada, and just as long as there exists in Canada even a small body of opinion in favor of Communism further similar crimes will surely be committed.

It is right and proper that any Canadian, including Mr. Rose, should be allowed to believe what he wants to believe. It is of no consequence that his beliefs may be extremely obnoxious to the majority. In any event, how can you ever know what a man is really thinking? How could you ever enforce a law against thought?

Until somebody comes up with a better method consistent with democratic principles, the only way to deal with the problem is the often unrewarding one of trying to convince Communists that our way of life is better than the one they advocate, and to make it so obviously better that even a Communist can recognize it.

HANGING BY A HAIR

The Caviare Mystery

(SYDNEY GRUSON in The New York Times)

THE Soviet Union's twenty-five-year fishing concession in Persian waters of the Caspian Sea, where some of the world's finest caviare comes from, will end next year, and according to present plans of the Persian government, it will not be renewed.

The government has given up trying to arrange a conference with the Russians to discuss Persian complaints. The Persians have sought revised tax and royalty payments from the Soviet Persian Fishing Company, appointment of a Persian manager, and the right to examine the Russian-kept books of the company.

The Persians feel that they have been getting the inequitable part of the concession for years. It has provided for annual royalties of 800,000 rials, plus 15 per cent of the net profits. This has remained unchanged since the concession was signed in October, 1927, although the value of the rial now is ten times less than in 1937. For the year ended March 20, 1950, Persia received only 4,500,000 rials in royalties from their neighbors to the north.

The concession also provided for alternating Russian and Persian managers and for the catch to be sold to the highest bidder. The Russians have disregarded both provisions. Their man has been manager since the beginning and they have not allowed bids from anyone except Glavribispit, the Soviet organization that buys the entire catch and supplies the fisheries along the Caspian coast with all their equipment and provisions.

According to the Persians, Glavribispit does not pay enough for the catch and overcharges for the supplies sold to the fishing company. For the best quality caviare, which winds up selling as Russian caviare in New York or Paris at about $30 a pound, Glavribispit pays the fishing company about $6.

Caviare production has averaged 200,000 pounds annually.

Both the Persians and diplomatic observers here agree that the Russians have not used the fishing company as a cover for political activity. At one time 170 Russians were working with the company in Persia, but this number has come down to twenty-two at present.

The original concession dates to the turn of the century. After the Communist Russian revolution the Soviet government approached the Persians about a concession. During the negotiations with the Russians that resulted in the 1921 treaty, Persia succeeded in having the question of fishing rights left in abeyance on the ground that they were still legally held by Martin Lasianov, one of the three Russian brothers who obtained the original concession. It all worked well until Lasianov was kidnapped off a Tehran street in 1923.

The next time a Russian negotiator showed up, he carried documents from Lasianov turning over all his rights to the Soviet government. Lasianov has not been seen in Tehran since. But a Persian government official who was in Moscow in 1940 met his daughter there. Her father, he says she told him, was well and living on a Soviet pension.

Queer People, These Swiss

(Financial Post)

Something incredible seems to have happened in Switzerland. Politicians the world over must be shaking their heads.

Like our own Mr. Abbott, the tax collector in one of the Swiss cantons found himself with quite a nice surplus. In this case, however, there doesn't seem to have been any public debt which could be used to absorb such windfalls, hence a problem of disposal arose.

One can readily imagine what might happen if a similar miracle occurred anywhere else but in Switzerland. What a chance to buy another slice of pie-in-the-sky. What about some nice new city halls, post offices, court houses or other public works. If necessary, of course, the boys coudl hoist their own salaries a bit.

Whether some of those Swiss legislators were tempted is not reported. What they did do was this:

After due deliberation it was decided that the tax money should not be spent for any purpose other than that for which it had been levied. The surplus therefore is to be distributed as a refund to the taxpayers of the cantons.

Queer people, these Swiss.

Statue Tax

(Kitchener-Waterloo Record)

Polish cities and towns that have as yet no statue of gratitude to the Soviet Army will soon have that lack filled.

In the past six years the Polish Communist government has set up several thousand memorials not only to the Soviet soldier but to Polish and foreign Communist leaders.

These statues are said to have very little artistic value. They are remarkable only for their size and serve only to remind the Poles of their subjection to Moscow.

Each community is required to pay for its monument by a special levy. Among the many freedom-loving Poles this must be one of their most iniquitious taxes.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. (Isa. 35: 4-6.)

And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. (Matt. 14: 14.)

And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me....

And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee....

And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord that I might receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way. (Mark 10: 46, 47, 49, 51, 52.)

Billion Dollar Crop

(Montreal Star)

No crop is safe until it is harvested and safely stowed away. Last year, the Prairies were bountifully blessed but a sudden August frost destroyed the quality of the yield. The 1951 dangers are not yet past, but the crop report issued yesterday estimates the wheat harvest at 581,000,000 bushels, the highest estimate ever made. At current prices, the cash return will come close to a billion dollars. Good news!

The yield per acre is not a record. The famous bumper crop of 1915 still stands, when 393 million bushels were taken off 15 million acres,—an average yield of 26 bushels to the acre all over the Prairies. This year's yield on the basis of the current estimate, will be 22.1 bushels per acre, not as high as the 1915 record. But not bad, not bad. It goes to show that the famous fertility of the ancient ocean silt which covers the Prairies is still there, ready to respond to good farming methods.

So the news is good from the western provinces, and good news there is good news all over Canada. When the Prairie farmers have money in their pockets not too much can go wrong with the Canadian economy.

A King Costs Less

(Vancouver Sun)

It costs the American people $3,536,000 to pay President Truman and run the White House for a year.

It costs the British people $1,731,000 a year to pay the King and the Royal Family and to operate all the royal establishments.

The comparison is made on the basis of the United States figures just released, and solely for the purpose of answering constant American criticism that the Royal Family is a tremendous drain on the British subject.

The direct salary of Mr. Truman is $100,000 a year. His staff numbers 651 persons.

The Grandfather of Waters

Beauty Blossoms Along Indian River Once Mighty Link In Unknown Trent

By RICHARD F. CHOATE

Old Father Trent can claim a proud place among the titular spirits who preside over the waters of the earth.

Anyone who can make for himself a bit of free leisure time (and who can't?) may find it rewarding to turn inquiring eyes and a reflective mind on the phenomena of the Trent — the artery on which Kawartha people must depend for life and well-being.

Into a mind thus occupied there might return the words inspired by another "Father of Waters":

"I stand by the side of the mighty Thames
Whose waters flow down to the sea,
And watching the tide, the days of old
Come back in a dream to me.

Flow, flow down to the cold grey sea
Taking thy part in our history;
Old Father Thames, mighty and wide,
On thee ever may peace abide."

Deep in human consciousness seems to be an urge to personify the spirit of the waters. "Old Man River" is merely the generic form of the terms devised specifically by the peoples of the Mississippi, the Rhine, in fact all the world's mightiest rivers. At the equator rises Old Father Neptune — while with us always, everywhere, even unto the midst of the Sahara, is that Evil Spirit, the "Old Man of the Sea," the presiding Genius wherever politicians foregather to canalize new modes of taxation.

Belong to the Ages

Old Man Trent belongs to the Ages — not only to the past and present but to the future. He is the Time Spirit — the Zeit Geist of Goethe.

But let us not inquire how old he is, expecting clocks and watches to tick out an answer in days, years or millenia. For numeration is the language of clocks and calendars but not of the Time Spirit, and it can lead us only into an essay in futility. Measurement of time should not be confused with what is measured. For, as Dr. A. N. Whitehead observed, measurement of anything in this world is possible only if and when we come to it.

Bernard Bosanquet has remarked that "The problem of time is the central crux of philosophy." Doubtless we shall do well therefore to hearken to Dr. J. A Gunn, one of our great modern philosophers, who concludes his searching study of the time problem: "Time is created by events and not events by time. Hence time is in the universe but the universe is not in time."

This being so we shall surely be truthful if we say merely that Old Father Trent is as old as his events. Which, of course, is no more a solution of the question than that offered by the medical scientists when they say that "a man is as old as his arteries."

But it is not purposed here to become obsessed with a study of origins. The Known Trent can at best be only Our Known Trent, an abstraction from the Great Unknown Trent. It is Unknown Trent of the future with its stupendous potential of values that is important. Dr. John Dewey is perhaps a bit over-pragmatic but nevertheless helpful in his remark that, what we are interested in is not, Who won the battle of Troy? but, What was the meaning of the battle of Troy? Which seems to be just another way of suggesting that destinations are just as important as origins.

The waterway we now call the Trent has undergone inconceivably vast mutations through the ages. It has written the history of its events (many of them cataclysmic) in its own way, but it is a history that can be read only by those who find "tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, sermons in stones." Our geologic scientists, resourceful and acutely percipient, have deciphered for us many chapters of this history. To them we must be vastly grateful for their keen observation and correlation of aspects of Trent phenomenia; and still further for their translation of the record into terms of rationalized or ordered scientific thought.

Safeguard Our Heritage

Clearly our duty and responsibility is to safeguard and improve our magnificent heritage of fields and streams. Here we are in the domain of Values and the Ethical Ought. We are heirs to an untold wealth of Means which Nature has brought into being. How shall these Means be brought to fulfillment in Ends which will transform the "Unknown Trent" into a Better Known Trent, in which natural resources of utility and beauty will be safeguarded as a trust for the whole people of the future, against the gaucheries of the ignorant and the pillaging of the greedy?

All our tears cannot wipe out a line of the record of events in the fully-determined nexus of Natural Causality. But within the limits of universal laws, the free will of man still has the power to shape Nature's forces and direct them toward Ends or destinations of man's choice. We need not be content with poor and feeble aims if we can move toward a Finalistic nexus in which there will be more gracious living within a better ordered pattern of social amenities.

KNOWLEDGE OF GOD

Religion, that is a true knowledge of God, is the queen of the sciences . . . not because the churches say so . . . but because of the nature of reality.

—Henry P. Van Dusen, president Union Theological Seminary.

How much do we known about the Trent?

Socrates in his apology enjoined us to be mindful of the vastness of our ignorance. For consciousness of ignorance, it seemed to him, might well be the starting point — perhaps the only starting-point — toward Wisdom.

With this word of caution in mind, we may re-phrase our question to read: "How vast is our ignorance of the Trent"? Or perhaps, How acute is our consciousness of the "Unknown Trent"?

Then, possibly, we might go among Peterborough people in the Socratic manner, asking questions. Out of this questionnaire, it is conceivable that we should learn a good deal about the incidence of ignorance — in short, about how few people there are that are at all aware of the part played by the Indian River, running from Gilchirst's Bay, Stony Lake, through Warsaw, to Keene on Rice Lake, in the history of the Unknown Trent.

Lacking a poll by the Dr. Gallup of Ancient Hellas, we are free to guess how many would be amazed to learn that in the present Indian River bed within a few miles of Peterborough city there rushed a stream comparable with the St. Lawrence in might and volume — and this long before the Otonabee was even a trickle.

The Indian River (called by the aborigine Squaknegossippi, meaning Sweet Water) is an integral part of the Trent Waterway system. Since it was the sole river artery to the east between the ancient lakes Algonquin and Iroquois, it might fairly be called, a "Grandfather of Waters" because it was a progenitor of present rivers and canals.

The Indian River still flows quietly and unobtrusively through three townships: Dummer, Douro and Otonabee, in its bed of infinitely varied charm and historic interest. Between banks, now rising sheer to a height of one hundred feet, now lying at low grassy levels, it finds its way, even disappearing in places below massive layers of rock, and returning to the surface at some little distance.

Course of Mighty Torrents

In places the perpendicular walls of stratified limestone, worn and weathered, tell of their titanic struggle to contain the mighty torrent of the ancient waters. In such an environment the canoeist is not disposed to hurry. Here his paddle may be stilled as he looks at the grey and green reflections, a veritable aura of ethereal beauty. A little further along he may be picking his way through tangles of foliage which Nature in her opulence has endowed with patterns and colors beyond the dreams of the most inspired landscape gardener. Wild roses may bloom luxuriantly here, the cardinal flower may beam there, while all about are ferns, reeds, grasses mingling in a vibratory play of chroma and form. A lanky heron, perhaps, perched on a rock in the serio-comic manner of his kind, may well be monarch of all he surveys.

Is this untamed and untamble Garden of Nature, set amid rugged declivities, pleasant valleys and lush meadows, all of historic — indeed, prehistoric — import and meaning, worth preserving and safeguarding for our own sake and for that of the people who will live after us in the blue and purple distances of the days to come?

Or should its intrinsic loveliness be left open, with little or no control, to the inrush of the predator "barbarously reared" in unlovely urban haunts, — to the exploiter motivated by a belly philosophy which knows nothing of beauty and cares not at all for the responsibility which is properly the converse of the use of Nature's resources?

Miss Sheila Kaye-Smith describing the process of assault and ravage in England, adds that if a small beauty spot is preserved all that happens is that ugliness settles round it, instead of on it. Hence she concludes that it is useless to save any threatened piece of less than a thousand acres.

Certainly a thousand acres of rough and partly sub-marginal land (agriculturally speaking) would be a pitifully small tract on which to undertake a conservancy survey. Even ten thousand acres would still be trivial in Canada's wide spaces.

Safeguard Our Future

The thesis to be supported here is that the whole Indian River should be brought at once within the scope of protective measures which will safeguard its vast potential of future values against the acquisitive and the grabbing.

Safeguarding measures need not wait on organizational measures. The controls which protect and enhance the beauty of the British Thames and guard it against commercial greed and pollution have not come suddenly into being. Centuries of experience are woven into the organization and procedure of the Thames Conservancy Commission.

It is not contended here that administrative machinery such as that of the Thames is necessary or desirable for Kawartha areas. What is affirmed is that provision should be made for observation and correlation of various aspects of Trent phenomena, with a consultative clearing-house for the interchange of findings and opinions based on local experience. Administrative organization may then take form.

The writer would not dream of attempting to explain the phenomena of the Unknown Trent. His aim can be no more than descriptive. In later articles he hopes to present thus in his own words and in the pictures of Mr. Nick Nickels some account of his observations along the Indian River, a part of that continuum of hydraulic energy which, like Old Father Trent himself, belongs to the ages.

REMAINS OF THE ONCE-MIGHTY Indian River that drained Lake Iroquois into Lake Algonquin in geological times is now a shallow, quiet stream. In places it disappears altogether, as Above, a short distance south of the former Warminster cheese factory and seeps out into the streambed again below a limestone barrier.—Examiner Staff Photo.

NATURAL BRIDGES ARE COMMON throughout the tangled bush on either side of the Indian River, north of Warsaw. Immense limestone blocks tumbled in indescribable confusion, tell of a mighty ancient streambed that was rampant in geological times.—Examiner Staff Photo.

Tale of A Shirt

Tizzy In London Shop Over 35-Inch Arm

By BON VIVANT

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND. —My observations of the English male give me no reason to believe he is any better, or any more poorly dressed, than men in Canada or the United States. The English woman, I should say, is, if not better dressed, more suitably dressed than her sisters on our side of the ocean. In the swank London hotels you see some pretty flossy feminine costumes, but you can see the same thing at the Ritz in Montreal. One thing you do not see is a lot of women, most of whom if they consulted a three-tier mirror would know better, parading the streets in slacks. In England man has successfuly hung on to his pants.

In the rural sections of England, and to quite a large extent in the cities, you see a great many men dressed in sport coats or blazers and flannel bags. As this is an accepted male costume I don't see how I can find fault with it. The chief difference is that despite this casual costume the Englishman deems the collar and tie obligatory. In London, particularly, there is the city costume. This is a dark suit, white or pin-stripe shirt and dark tie, black shoes, homburg hat and rolled umbrella. The whole generally set off by a brief case.

You can see exactly the same thing on Bay Street in Toronto or St. James Street in Montreal. The only detail lacking is the umbrella. The Englishman's jacket is somewhat shorter than we like, and his trousers are somewhat smaller in the leg. Otherwise you could change an insurance salesman in Toronto for an insurance salesman in the City of London, and, so far as clothes were concerned no one would know the difference.

Stripe-Panted Grocery Clerks

I do not know of anywhere in Canada or the United States where the grocery clerks wear full morning regalia. The wing collar, striped bags, cutaway coat, et al, is the garb of the male grocery clerk in Fortnum & Mason, the controlling interest of which was recently acquired by Canadian Garfield Weston. It certainly gives the place an air and some of the Canadian chains might find the idea a real business getter.

I found, however, there are certain things the English do not do. The one which chagrined me was an attempt to purchase a shirt. My first efforts in this direction took me to a large haberdashery on Regent Street. I was greeted courteously at the door and my wants inquired into. On learning that I wished to purchase a shirt, I was directed to the lift and dropped off at the shirtery on the second floor. Here my request for a collar attached, size 16, with a 35 sleeve, threw the place into an uproar.

33-Sleeve

Managing clerks were consulted, and finally the bad news was broken to me that much as the store, management, clerks, janitor, directors, and all customers past, present and future regretted it, there was not such a shirt in stock. However they could do me a 33-sleeve. When I extended an arm and explained that nature had seen fit to build me somewhat along the lines of a gorilla, another conference was called, and an offer was put forth to make me a shirt to my specifications.

As I only had one more day in London this was not feasible, and I had plenty of shirts at my base of supply, so I had to refuse the kindly offer. We all felt very badly, and I'm quite sure a minute was entered in the record about the whole matter. After mutual expressions of regret I withdrew, and proceeded on my way. Further along Regent St. I came upon another world-famous gent's shop, known the world over for its riding and hunting outfits.

Here they were sorry but they could only supply me a medium sleeve. I was getting a bit desperate, so invited them to trot out a medium sleeve and we would take a look at it. The clerk, who, like all attendants in stores with whom I have come in contact during my visit, was a most courteous chap. He brought out his tape measure and took the yardage of my arm. He seemed a little surprised at its length, but keeping this under control he opened a shirt, and measured the sleeve. The difference totaled 11 inches. My arm 35 inches, his shirt 24 inches. We both agreed this wouldn't do, so with more apologies we agreed to call it a day.

Standard Size

Just as I was about to leave my clerk observed they had a lot of trouble with Canadians and Americans asking for things like sleeve lengths in shirts. When I inquired if the length of the shirt sleeve was covered by a government regulation he had the decency to smile at my joke and told me there never had been anything but one sleeve length obtainable in a ready-made shirt in England.

Once again I learned that if I did not want the cuff of my shirt to catch me just under the elbow I would have to have them made. It appears that anybody who wants his shirt to fit in England does just that. I can't criticize this attitude. I've known for a long time that when you're away you can't expect things to be the same as they are at 'ome. If they were there wouldn't be a great deal of sense in travel.

I was glad to see that evening clothes are still commonplace in London, and in the county too. In fact one place I visited had discreetly printed notices telling the many-headed they couldn't get into the supper dance and floor show unless they were in evening clothes. This is the spirit I like to see. I take with a grain of salt the tales of Englishmen in the jungle taking their cold plunge every day, and dressing for dinner even when they are alone, but I wouldn't put it past them. A hotel lobby, or lounge if you insist upon being English, gives a real lift to those entering when decked with white shirt fronts and evening gowned ladies. A bit different to our way of life where the suit resembling unstacked hay is regarded as adequate for all social functions.

MATRONLY-LOOKING

We don't try to make a womanly woman look 16, but neither will she wear a matronly-looking style any more.

—Mayda Williams.

Progress of Peterborough: LXXXIV

Change From Village Mills

By HOWARD PAMMETT, MA

The transition from primary industries extracting natural resources to secondary manufacturing industries accelerated in the 1890s, and with it the change from small village mills to large urban factory production; most district villages began to decline, while Peterborough and Lindsay grew by 15 per cent. The district population went up from 73,938 to 74,577, the urban section up from 34 to 39 per cent. Peterborough County increased from 34,597 (39 per cent urban) to 36,066 (44.6 per cent urban); Victoria County declined from 32,991 (28 per cent urban) to 31,952 (31.6 per cent urban); Haliburton County rose from 6,350 to 6,559, all rural. Of Peterborough townships, all lost population except Cavendish and Harvey (which gained) and Asphodel and Ennismore (remaining steady). In Victoria, all townships lost population except Dalton and Somerville (gaining) and Bexley (remaining steady). In Haliburton, Lutterworth and Snowdon lost population, while all the others gained slightly. The incorporated villages started downhill, except Havelock (incorporated 1892), Lakefield, Hastings and Woodville.

The prosperous period 1889-93 ended when a bank panic and a silver campaign in the United States brought severe depression to the continent, lasting to 1897, the Yukon gold rush brought six prosperous years up to 1903. In lumbering, Central Ontario licenses decreased from 1,500 to 975 sq. miles, and production fell sharply: square pine from 11,718 to 3,715 cu. ft., other square timber from 200,322 to 68,938 cu. ft., number of sawlogs from 1,077,823 to about 60,000 (or 78,127 M. bd. ft.)—sharp increases in American tariffs hastened the fall of the industry. The mills making timber products fell from 94 to 42 and their production 20 per cent (over half in Peterborough). Boyd, Irwin and other lumbermen were cutting and milling now around Lake Huron; Gilmour of Trenton actually brought logs for the years 1893-96 from Canoe Lake in Algonquin Park, over the height-of-land by slides and chains, and down the Trent watershed to Trenton, a trip of over 300 miles taking two years, losing millions of dollars before they moved their mill north to Mowat in 1896 (and later went bankrupt). Incidentally, Algonquin Provincial Park was established in 1893 to prevent the area being laid waste as Haliburton had been.

Agriculture

In agriculture, crop acreage declined by 10 per cent, while wheat and barley production were up moderately, and oats more than doubled, mostly as winter stock-food. More farmers went into stock-farming, and pasturage increased from 147,871 to 217,062 acres. The number of horses fell 10 per cent, but cattle were up 45 per cent, hogs up 40 per cent and sheep 30 per cent. Flour and gristmills fell from 29 to 12, with production down 25 per cent. In 1891 there were 40 cheese factories with production $290,752, and in 1901 there were 48 cheese factories, 2 butter creameries, and 13 plants producing both butter and cheese, total production being $584,735. The butter sold at 18.3 to 21.4 cents per lb., the cheese at 9.7 to 10.4 cents per lb. 505 butter patrons and 3,178 cheese patrons received $477,017 for their milk in 1901. In 1901 Kawartha farms were valued at $33,714,627 (including implements and stock), and their produce at $7,725,625.

While investments and productions rose nearly 50 per cent, the number of industrial establishments in the Kawarthas fell to one-quarter:

	1891	1901
Ind. establishments	910	229
Capital investments	$4,435,151	$6,048,526
Value of production	$6,411,019	$9,321,039
No. of workers	4,100	6,258
Average annual wage	$ 278	$ 335

This shows the change from small village mills to large town factories, with more machines. Two-thirds of the industries were in Peterborough County, while half the workers were in each county, indicating that Peterborough factories used labour-saving machinery more generally. The average annual wage rose in Peterborough from $292 to $360, and in Victoria from $250 to $315. The 59 or 60-hour week (6 days) was still general, but workers were campaigning for the 9-hour day and 5½-day week, industrial wages ranged from $7 to $13 weekly in the towns. In addition to the Iron Moulders Union local (1874), others were organized in Peterborough; Int. Association of Machinists local 286 (1899), United Brotherhood Carpenters & Joiners local 672 (1900), and Pattern Makers League local (formed 1900); Lindsay also had several railway brotherhood locals.

Transportation improved little in the decade. Charters were issued to the Brighton Warkworth & Norwood Railway, the Peterborough, Sudbury & Sault Railway, the Lindsay, Haliburton & Mattawa Railway, the Haliburton, Whitney & Mattawa Railway, the Minden & Muskoka Railway, and the Ontario, Belmont & Northern Railway, but none of these began construction. Aided by government subsidies, the Irondale, Bancroft & Ottawa and the Central Ontario Railways inched their way toward Bancroft from west and south respectively. A Peterborough proposal in 1896-98 to operate the GTR lines to Lakefield and Chemong as an electric beltline never materialized. Most commercial traffic flowed now west and east from Kawarthas, and was adequately served by the CPR and GTR lines.

Tourists Ask Better Transport

The tourist traffic, however, needed north-south transportation and agitation for Trent Canal completion was stimulated by the Trent Valley Canal Association, organized in 1891 with Pres. J. M. Irwin (the lumberman), later under J. Stratton. In addition to its value as a tourist waterway, they promoted it as the "Poor Man's Route" for barge traffic, where on the finished sections 20,658 tons of produce and 21,186 passengers were moved in 1896, and 40,160 tons produce and 30,000 passengers in 1899. Politics entered this picture in 1894 when charters were issued to a Toronto group (by the Ontario government) for a Georgian Bay Ship Canal & Power Aqueduct down to Toronto, and to Cox and an Ottawa group (by the federal government) for a Montreal, Ottawa & Georgian Bay Canal—neither scheme went ahead. Parliament voted $2,195,450 for Trent construction and maintnance in the decade, but no contracts for construction were let until 1896 for construction on the Lake Simcoe-Balsam section and the Peterborough-Lakefield section, each to include a lift-lock; these sections were not finished until 1907 under Superintendent R. B. Rogers (1886-1907). Cost of the Trent Canal up to April 1900 was $2,406,019.10, plus $266,388.37 paid for land damages; the government

Weather being right, the east end of Hunter St. bridge may sag a bit this e'en, as ball fans congregate in that area. Action aplenty at both the Bowl and Riverside. Latter place has an eight p.m. senior baseball fixture betwixt Toronto Croftons and the leading Petes, a four-point fray. The Petes need it, too, as they're but two percentage points in front of Oshawa Merchants now. At the Bowl at seven, Orphans and UEW tee off in the first of a best-of-seven serial for the men's city softball championship, second game following about 8.30 of the clock. As the series must be over by Aug. 23, the teams will resume in a twin bill Tuesday night.

City golf title for 1951 will be settled Sunday at the Peterborough Golf Club when 20 members of that club and 20 from the Kawartha go in the second 18 holes after the low gross total. Last year's champion Les Reid and his Peterborough Club mate Stan Payne lead with 77 each from the first 18 at Kawartha last weekend, as Jack Condon and J. Ingles carded 78 at the westend links, and Stan Whiddon (also of Kawartha Club) got a 79. Competitors start Sunday at similar times to that of last Sunday and, as Joe Humphries used to put it pompously, may the better man emerge triumphantly.

A Plug For The City

Next week's edition of The Montreal Standard carries the story of lacrosse in Peterborough since the Second World War. 'Twas written by Andy O'Brien, who dropped into town a month ago, looked the situation over, asked a lot of questions and took some pix. Andy calls it "the most fascinating sports development yarn I've encountered in almost 20 years of sports writing." Such publicity is worth a lot to Peterborough and to lacrosse, but this city rates it as being one of the better spots for the gutted-stick game in the country. We'd advise folks to read the account, buying or borrowing a copy of the Aug. 25 edition.

* * * * * *

Doug. Miller, deservedly, gets most of the credit in Andy's article for the comeback of lacrosse here following the war. Other post-war pioneers mentioned are Pete King, Ken Kingston, Harry Tudhope, Vert Reynolds and Bob Peirson. It tells of how they borrowed $10,900 from a bank, and $1,500 more from various fans. Last year they had every cent paid back, even cheques received as gifts, and had a bank balance of $1,200. O'Brien tells of how the second box or bowl (later named Miller Bowl) was built with officials and players helping hammer the nails. He with Walter Murphy first put in charge, and ace players also describes the large minor lacrosse setup in this city, like Jack Foote, Jerry Fitzgerald and now Harry Wipper as coaches. His interesting story is entitled: "Lacrosse Dead???"

About The Lacrossers

And a lacrosse grab-bag: Toronto Maitlands play the junior Petes an OLA fixture at 8.45 tonight in Miller Bowl. The Falls yanked out an overtime 9-8 win o'er Lou Vitarelli's squad last p.m. in a hot tilt, but Peterborough still leads the group. Toronto senior West Yorks whipped Brampton 14-7, so now they're tied with Fergus for sixth spot. They'll settle it in a two-game series tomorrow and Monday, survivor then going against the Petes here on Tuesday in best-of-five. Return one next Wednesday. Bob Thorpe's midget all-stars open OLA play in a home-and-home series Tuesday at Long Branch. The weekly PMLA schedule is in tonight.

Quite a crowd took in the exhibition ball game at Riverside last p.m. and saw the Petes edge the NHL All-Stars 2-1 in a neat number. Doug Plunkett and Cal Gardner each served up six-hit ball and none of the runs was earned. The visitors' lone miscue cost them two. However, they weren't unduly perturbed, as they're just barnstorming around to create good puck relations, pick up a few bucks and keep in shape for the hockey grind ahead. Plump Turk Broda, as usual, was the popular one before, during and after the tilt —and he must have signed hundreds of autographs in his Peterborough stay. Garvey and Lowrey led the local hitters. Gardner turned out to be a pretty fair flinger for the NHL-ers.

Mrs. Staunton Captures Open Tourney

With rinks entered from Trenton, Belleville, Stirling, Port Hope, Lindsay and Peterborough the local ladies' lawn bowling club held their open trebles tournament yesterday afternoon and evening. The weather was ideal and the entry was good but not as large as had been expected.

All played three 14-end games —two before the supper hour and one after. The games were witnessed by a fair crowd which was treated to some high class bowling.

Although the Peterborough ladies took most of the prizes, they had to work hard for them and in many games the victory margin was one shot.

The tournament was all over in good time.

Tonight the Family Hour tourney.

Winners:

Peterborough — Mrs. R. Penrose; Mrs. N. Killingbeck, Mrs. F. Staunton, sk., 1st.

Peterborough—Mrs. W. Whitty, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. A. McWilliams, sk., 2nd.

Walkwoods Edge Bobcaygeon 7-6

LINDSAY, Aug. 18.—Pushing three runs across in the sixth, Lindsay Walkwoods squared their best-of-three Tricounty Baseball League first-round playoff by eking out a 7-6 win over Bobcaygeon Red Sox in a loosely played game here Friday night.

Taking advantage of errors, the Bosox jumped to a 3-1 lead on one of their two hits. Starter Hank Debois gave way to Harold Williams who put out the fire in the fifth and Lindsay knotted the count on Jack Graham's double.

The visitors went in front in the sixth but Lou Hennessey Jr., hit a two-run double and Dit Foshay batted home the winner before the game was called. Fifteen-year-old Rodger Junkin who beat the locals, 4-3, in the opener, was followed by Campbell Kerr and Percy Nicholas in the three-run sixth. Lou Hennessey Sr. paced Walkwoods with a single and a triple in four trips. The deciding game is carded for Monday here.

Out At The Kawartha

Due to the unfavorable weather Thursday, the ladies' section, who usually play during the afternoon, could not proceed with their day's competitions.

About 25 BG's were out Thursday evening although only a few finished playing nine holes. Ruth McMillan won the spoon for the low score on the even holes and Ruth McKee, Roma Brindle and Barbara Siddall were each credited with a point on their competition. Kay Calladine won the spoon for the score on the hidden hole.

On Thursday, Aug. 23, the BG's have been invited by the Kawartha men to play two-ball foursomes. If girls cannot be contacted by their telephone convener, the names will be put on the list if they phone the captain before Tuesday next.

Projectile Captures Thorncliffe Race

TORONTO, Aug. 18 (CP). — The favored Projectile, from the Montreal barn of Plouffe and Hudon, won the $3,000 Maple Leaf Cup at Thorncliffe raceway Friday although he lost the first heat to the almost completely ignored M. C. Rose.

In the first dash—at one mile—M. C. Rose showed that he deserved more public support than he received. He raced the distance in the scintillating time of 2.06-3-5, beating the track record for trotters by three-fifths of a second. Driven by the veteran Vic Rowntree, he paid a whopping $29.25 for a $2 ticket in a six-horse field.

In the second heat, Phillipe Dussault made no mistake with Projectile which went away from the rail position. Projectile moved to the front immediately while M. C. Rose was away slowly and broke stride immediately after the start, finishing fifth. Projectile wasn't pressed as he finished the longer distance in 2:14 3-5, more than a second off the track record.

Grant & Loucks Win

Grant & Loucks opened their best-of-three Civic Softball league playoff series last night by edging Foresters 11-10 in a lively scrap. They racked up five goals in the first frame, adding four more in the sixth and scoring the tying and winning goals in the bottom of the seventh. The losers had four in the first, three more in the fourth and three in the seventh as they made a determined bid for the game. Teams:

Foresters: Parnell cf, Walling rf, Doughty c, Collis 1b, Roberts 2b, Tyndall ss, Henry 3b, Hobson lf, Daniels p, Miller, Dewart, Ferguson.

Grant & Loucks: Chenier 3b, Treen 2b, Goodfellow 1b, Smith c, Conroy p, Harrison ss, Harris cf, Little lf, Leahy rf, Hancock.

Petes Defeat All-Stars By 2-1 Count

The Petes pulled out a 2-1 exhibition win over Turk Broda's NHL All-Stars before a good-sized crowd at Riverside last night. It turned out to be a tidy tilt, with none of the runs being earned. The Petes scored their brace in the fifth when Young and Menzies walked, moving up on a bunt by Plunkett and scoring when Al Dewsbury dropped Lowrey's fly in short right. All-Stars got one in the eighth on a hit by Gardner, a two-base error at second and a fly by Smith.

Doug Plunkett pitched six-hit ball for Ed Whitehill's crew, fanning nine and walking two in a neat showing. Cal Gardner also threw a six-hitter, whiffed four, but issued three free tickets. The Petes booted three to one for the Broda bunch.

Spread Around

A hit each for the All-Stars went to Sid Smith, Hugh Bolton, Ray Timgren, Turk Broda, Johnny McCormick and Cal Gardner. Fred Garvey of the Petes blasted out a triple and single in three, Joe Lowrey had two for four, Doug Plunkett had a double in two tries, and Dick Golden a single in four trips. Neat catches were made by Eddie Harrison and Johnny McCormick. Lowrey and Thompson each pilfered one base in the nifty tussle. Teams:

All-Stars—Harrison, lf; Mortson, lf; Smith, c; Quackenbush, cf; Dewsbury, 2b; Bolton, ss; Timgren, 3b; Broda, 1b; Thompson, rf; McCormick, rf; Gardner, p.

Cataracts Get Close One Over Juniors

Niagara Falls Cataracts edged a 9-8 overtime win over Lou Vitarelli's league leading Filter Queens Friday night at Miller Bowl, in a lightning fast two-way junior lacrosse match, before a fair turnout of fans.

It was the final appearance of the season prior to playoffs of Cataracts, who had to be in top form to earn their 10th win of the campaign. Peterborough hold a two point lead atop the junior loop; and a win tonight over Maitlands will virtually cinch first place for the local boys. Mimico would have to win all four of their remaining games to lead by one point.

Cataracts took an early lead in the fast first period of play, to get a 4-1 margin as Baldwin scored his first of three goals from Corcoran at 1:06; and the latter also found the range once. Davies, clever winger, who pulled the hat trick, dented the mesh twice in the first as Falls outplayed the locals. Jim Heffernan and Gary Robinson combined for Filters' only counter of the session, the former potting on a clever close-in play.

Increased Lead

The visitors increased the margin with a 2-1 edge in the second, Moore and Baldwin being the marksmen with Gary Robinson in alone for Petes on a long pass from goalie Nicholls, to make it 6-2 against at the half. The final half saw a complete reversal of form on the part of the locals as the entire squad passed like time and took away territorial play by a wide margin, from the peninsula boys. Grant Burns and Rock Batley twice in the third whizzed rubber past Howe to make it a ball game, though Carruthers tallied one late in the frame. Batley, Lou Nickel and Heffernan with G. Robinson and Powell, gave Filter Queens the lead at the six-minute mark in the finale as all hands turned in a smashing two-way game. Baldwin's third goal mid-way in the chapter, however, tied it up; and that was all for regulation time. Time almost ran out in overtime when Davies finally beat Nicholls on a fast break with a drop shot close in.

Niagara Falls: Goal, Howe; defence, Dewar, Lehan; centre, Moore; wings, Davies, Bradshaw; rover, Conradi; alternates, Carruthers, Cox, Labatt, Corcoran, Teal, Baldwin, Winterbottom.

Filter Queens: Goal, Nicholls; defence, Groves, Nickel; centre, B. Robinson; wings, O'Reilly, Morrissey; rover, G. Robinson; alternates, Heffernan, Burns, Batley, Farley, Brioux, Powell, Shearer, Simmons.

Referees: Harry Wipper and Bun Hill.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Marlene Stewart likes baseball "next to golf—maybe."

The 17-year-old mighty mite from the Lookout Point Golf Club Fonthill, Ont., scored another triumph Friday night as the first woman guest welcomed in the press box at Maple Leaf Stadium.

Last week the little lady with the big swing won the Canadian Ladies' Open Golf title. A few days before she set the sports world on its heels by taking the Canadian ladies' close title.

Friday night it was baseball, between Toronto Maple Leafs and Syracuse Chiefs, for her first view of an International Baseball League game.

The 108-pound shot-master, who stands exactly five feet tall, marched jauntily onto the field before game time and hit three golf balls into centrefield, posed for pictures and then watched the game from the press box.

Thor Gratton, smart-stepping pacer owned by Hie and Gordon of Cobourg, Friday won all heats of the featured 2:19 class pace at the Oshawa fair. Second-best was Rocket Hanover, owned by F. Bone of Port Hope.

At Yonkers, NY, Ford Hanover, the only unbeaten trotter in the United States, increased his winning string to seven Friday night by winning the $5,000 Broadway pace, a stake for three-year-olds at Yonkers raceway.

Driven by Johnny Simpson, the horse was clocked in 2.07.1 and never was extended after moving from sixth to first at the half way point.

Seventeen more of the 90 accused West Point cadets Friday were reported to have resigned from the United States Military Academy.

They were expected to leave today or soon after.

The public information office said their action brought to 62 the number who have resigned as a result of an inquiry into academic cheating.

For the first time in their 50-year history, Chicago White Sox Friday passed the 1,000,000 mark in home attendance.

Kenneth I. Cook, 26, a factory worker from Andrews, Ind., became the 1,000,000th fan to pass through the turnstiles for the first game of a White Sox-Cleveland doubleheader.

The previous White Sox high home attendance was 983,403, established in 1946.

Col. J. H. Chipman and his son, J. R. Chipman won the Ontario Golf Association's parent-and-child tournament Friday by edging another Toronto father-and-son team in a playoff at Toronto.

A. Shirk and his son, D. Shirk of Kitchener Westmount won low net honors.

Red Wings Edge Cubs 7-6

By The Associated Press.

Rochester Red Wings today boasted the longest winning streak of the International League season — 11 straight games.

The second-place Wings hung up their 11th consecutive triumph Friday night as they edged Springfield Cubs 7-6 in 11 innings. The previous high for the season was 10 straight by Syracuse Chiefs.

The victory was the Wings' third straight in extra innings. Rookie Danny Lunch singled home Russ Derry from second base with the payoff counter.

Recruit Fred Hahn who came on in the top of the 11th and fanned the only batter he faced, was the winner. It was Hahn's second conquest in as many nights.

Glen Moulder, recently acquired from Columbus of the American Association, enjoyed a 6-2 lead going into the ninth when the Cubs rallied for four runs to tie the score. Don Swartz was the loser.

Buffalo Bisons trounced Baltimore Orioles 9-5, wrapping the game up with a five-run outburst in the fifth. Rudy Minarcin and Tom Simpson divided the Buffalo pitching with Minarcin gaining credit for his 15th victory.

Syracuse turned back Toronto Maple Leafs 6-4. Gene Markland poled a three-run homer in the fifth to shoot the Chiefs into the lead for keeps.

Montreal and Ottawa were idle.

White Sox Sting Cleveland In Doubleheader As Yanks Clip Philadelphia

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer

Hold on folks. The American League wheel is spinning toward another coin-tossing finish. With Cleveland and New York in a first-place tie, let's take a look at the schedule for the final six weeks of the season. The edge, if any, tips slightly in favor of the Yankees who play 22 of their last 40 in Yankee Stadium. Cleveland divides its final 40 on a 20-20 basis and Boston, four games back, faces an uphill pull with only 16 at home and 24 away.

Nine big games between Boston and New York may give Cleveland the breathing space it needs. While the Red Sox and Yanks knock off one another in late September, the Tribe could slide home free.

Cleveland plays only 16 games with the other first-division clubs while New York has 19 and Boston 17. Chicago, nine games off the pace, still has seven dates with the Indians, their victims of Friday.

The White Sox stung Cleveland twice, 7-1 and 8-3. The Yanks knocked off Philadelphia 3-2.

Stubby Overmire won his first game for New York by going the route against the A's with an eight-hitter. Boston hung in close by scoring three in the 12th to top Washington 7-4. Detroit shaded St. Louis 5-4.

New York Giants blew a little more life into their National League hopes by thumping the Phils 8-5 to cut Brooklyn's lead to nine games. The Dodgers split a pair in Boston, winning the opener 3-1 for Carl Erskine but losing to Johnny Sain in the second, 4-3.

Stan Musial's 28th homer in the ninth gave St. Louis a 2-1 nod over Cincinnati in a duel between Max Lanier and Herm Wehmeier. Pittsburgh's Mel Queen set down Chicago with three hits, 8-3.

The White Sox ruined Bobby Feller's bid for victory No. 20 and whipped Bob Chakales in the second game. Billy Pierce breezed home with a five-hitter against Feller with the help of homers by Al Zarilla and Ray Coleman. Jim Busby homered in the second, won by reliefer Luis Aloma.

Break Tie

Billy Goodman's double and Clyde Vollmer's single off Connie Marrero broke a 4-4 tie in the 12th inning at Washington. Boston rookie Fred Hatfield followed with a two-run homer to nail down Ellis Kinder's eighth victory.

Ted Gray survived a ninth-inning St. Louis uprising to win his fourth. Jerry Priddy's double in the sixth drove in the decisive run.

In the National Gil Hodges blasted his 34th homer to help Erskine win the opener. Despite four Boston errors and 11 Brooklyn hits the Braves skinned home in the second for an even break.

Al Dark and Wes Westrum each had four hits for the Giants to give reliefer George Spencer his eighth triumph. Ken Heintzelman was the loser despite the work of Bill Nichols who drove in four of the five Phil runs with a homer and triple.

Queen was in trouble frequently, walking seven and fanning nine to whip Paul Minner. Musial's homer was the whole story of the Cards' success.

SINCE BEFORE SHE WAS 16, Princess Margaret has been linked romantically with Europe's young eligibles. Now 21, British newspapers hint there may be a royal engagement soon. (Tradition says any girl born at Glamis Castle in Scotland—as Margaret was, Aug. 21, 1930—will choose a mate before age 21). Question: Has Margaret chosen? Fashion plate (left). A whim of Margaret's can change empire's fashions. Once she told Elizabeth: "You mind your old empire; let me mind my hats." British royalty was stunned in 1949 when this picture (Left Centre) from the Isle of Capri showed Margaret in a scanty bathing suit. Some British editors feared she was nude—but it was only a quirk of lighting effect. Dancing a samba (Right Centre). The Princess' night-life is a subject of much comment. Her reported can-can at American embassy party sparked real controversy. Suitors (Right). Some London newspapers say Princess Margaret will announce her engagement to Billy Wallace, 24-year-old polo-playing British blueblood, with whom she's seen at Ascot racing event. Others think best bet is Lord Dalkeith (inset), immensely wealth heir to the dukedom of Buccleuch.

Thank God You Live In A Democratic State

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, DD

Thank God for what? Thank God, reader, that you live in a democracy, in which you are free to breathe, and think, and speak, and act, in a State which is pledged to accord you these liberties and protect them.

In too many countries today, and they are not all under Communist domination, no such liberties for the individual exist. One of the world's best and greatest newspapers has been suppressed in Argentina, and Protestants in Spain have been subject to oppressive restrictions. And across the world, many Protestant and Roman Catholic leaders are suffering grave persecution.

No such situation, thank God, exisits in the democracies in which we live. When the doorbell rings we may go to the door with no fear that a totalitarian agent has come to invade our home, or two carry us off to a concentration camp.

If we are living within the law, and morally correct lives, we can meet the day and the night with freedom from fear. It is not easy for us to comprehend that great numbers of our fellowmen in many parts of the world are living each day in the grip of fear and danger.

The fact that in some of these lands it was not always so, and the story of how liberties were suppressed, ought to make us zealous to see that no such subversion of liberty ever occurs in our land. We may conclude all too readily that "it cannot happen here."

All this emphasizes very strongly the question of the relation of the individual to the State, the rights and duties of citizens, and the nature of the government that they maintain, or allow to be in power.

It is obvious that under present world conditions great inequalities and great restrictions exist in relation to freedom, that under more normal conditions, such as existed a generation or two ago, would have been regarded as serious and unjustifiable invasions of personal freedom.

If you are a young man, of the right age, you may be drafted for military service in some far-off land. It you would have gone in any case, you might be said to be free, but not if you went because the State compelled you to go. There is a matter of glaring, even if justifiable and unavoidable, inequality. It is justifiable and unavoidable on the ground that otherwise there might soon be no freedom for you or anybody else.

If you are a business man, you are subject to limitations, restrictions, and regulations, which a few years ago would have been regarded as an unwarranted invasion of your private affairs; and if you are high-salaried, or wealthy, the State takes a major portion of your income, in what would certainly 50 years ago have been regarded as sheer confiscation.

In the midst of the charges and counter-charges, warnings and counter-warnings, propagandism and counter-propagandism, of which our days are so rife, what have Christian leaders to say? What have they said. I propose to discuss this in my next comment.

Meanwhile, let us measure and treasure the liberties that we possess, and while we pray for others, thank God for what we have.

Great Fire 1911 Destroyed Bethany's Business Section

By VIOLET M. CARR

On November 3, 1911, a disastrous fire of unknown origin destroyed the whole of the main business section on the south side of the Main St., from T. J. Jackson's store to the present Post Office. The village had no fire protection and a high west wind fanned the flames which soon demolished the wooden buildings. The Canadian Pacific Railway was then under construction through the district. They had a large water tank erected where the station now stands, fed by a force pump from McCartney's Creek. This supply of water was the only supplement to the wells in the village. The extra men on the construction gang worked side by side with the villagers and near morning the flames were brought under control. This fire made many changes in Bethany; families moved away and it was several years before much rebuilding was done.

The coming of the Canadian Pacific also accounted for many changes. A number of dwellings were torn down to make way for the tracks. The only really large building where the travelling public could find a night's lodging, the McKinnon Hotel had to go along with the rest. Duncan McKinnon and his wife, the former Elizabeth Farrel came to Bethany from Beaverton and bought the hotel formerly owned by Francis Hamilton in 1874. Of this family there were nine children, namely: Sarah, Mary, Lily, Pearl, Lottie, Samuel, Neil, Maxwell and James. James McKinnon continued in the business of his father. The hotel stood almost where the CPR station is now and contained 20 rooms. The commercial travellers used to bring their large sample cases there and displayed their goods for the local stores. James married Grace Smith, Ingersoll, who taught school in Bethany in 1903. When the hotel was torn down the family moved to a farm one mile west of the village where they lived for five years. They later owned and operated the grist mill at "The Pond." Thirteen years ago they retired to live in the village. There were seven children in this family: Mrs. Cecil McGill, Vancouver, BC; Mrs. Bruce Ryley, Bethany; Mrs. G. E. Staples, Lakefield; Mrs. Vincent Jackson, Bethany; Mrs. J. Ahren, Toronto; Miss Evelyn McKinnon, Montreal; and John, who died in infancy.

First Train in 1912

The first train over the newly constructed railway was in April 1912. It came from Port McNichol, bearing officials of the line and proceeded down the track to the junction of the main road, later known as Dranoel (Leonard spelled backwards) so called after James Leonard of this village who had become a prominent railway official. Full operations commenced and the village enjoyed splendid train accomodation for some time. The Canadian National Railway (the former Grand Trunk and Midland) continued to operate from Lindsay to Port Hope until the fall of 1928. For several years now there has been no ticket agent at the Canadian Pacific station. Mrs. William A. Brown is the express agent and caretaker since the death of her husband.

The Bank of Toronto was built in 1920 and 1921. Earlier residents in Bethany remember the first bank here known as "The Farmer's Bank" which failed in 1910, taking with it the savings of many a lifetime. In the year 1918 a branch of the Bank of Toronto was opened in Bethany in a room in the residence of T. J. Jackson on Maine St. It was officially opened on Dec. 5, 1918, as a sub-division of the Hillbrook Branch and operated on a full time basis from September, 1919. The building is quite modern in construction with living quarters above for the manager.

Bethany has indeed progressed with the years, from muddy roads to wooden sideswalks and newer cement. The Maine St. is now part of 7A Highway. Hydro is taken for granted in almost every home. The Manvers Municipal Telephone System has a good office and efficient staff. Bus service supplements the railway since 1945. Yet we hear older folks looking back with nostalgia to the days of their youth and the good times they had, that we are tempted to wonder if material progress is everything. We can't help thinking of an interview with the late J. J. Preston, MP, shortly before his death. Mr. Preston had travelled widely. "If the men of our day had handled their business, especially their farms, the way their fathers and grandfathers did, we would have a more prosperous country. Our pioneers were young and ambitious to acquire homes and farms for themselves. They were husky hard workers from the British Isles. They raised large families and they did it fairly successfully. They worked to clear land and cultivate it. Their word was as good as their bond and they believed in thrift. They were strong men and good citizens. People today are influenced too much by the spirit of the times, comparative luxury and all the conveniences we know. Our young people should realize what their forefathers have left them in the form of splendid traditions and institutions, and I do hope their successors will be able to say the same for them."

COPENHAGEN — (CP)—The Danish hospital ship Jutlandia has treated about 10 per cent of all wounded United Nations soldiers during the time it has been in the Korean war zone. During the first four months 1,000 men had been treated aboard the ship.

Dangerous Seeds

NOTTINGHAM, England (CP) —Doctors were puzzled when two eight-year-old girls were found staggering along a street in a dazed condition. Then one muttered about trees and seeds and it was discovered they had been eating Laburnum seeds which are poisonous.

HE SAID NO

SPECKS ON THE SKYLINE are steeplejacks working on the chimneys and air conditioning vents on the roof of PCVS. Working at that 75-foot level is nothing for these four men who usually work well over 100 feet off the ground. (Left) Paul Marquis, a sixyear steeplejack, without any though of height, stands on a chimney tossing the loose bricks to the ground. (Right) The four 'jacks, (left to right) Owen Wilson, Roy Richards, Hank Pollard and Mr. Marquis, all of Toronto, begin work on a fourth chimney.—(Examiner Staff Photos)

Says No Need To Panic Over Polio

Only 12 Per Cent Of Polio Cases Crippled Badly—MOH

Do you know:

That for every case of diagnosed polio approximately 100 people are affected with the virus without knowing it?

That less than 50 per cent. of the diagnosed cases of polio are at all crippled?

That 30 per cent of these 50 per cent. suffer only slight handicaps that do not prevent useful activities?

That only 12 per cent. have severe after-effects requiring the use of appliances such as crutches, braces and wheel chairs and often reconstructive surgery?

That only eight per cent. of the diagnosed cases die?

"These are only approximate figures, but they should at least give the idea that there is no need to panic about the present poliomyelitis situation in Peterborough," Dr. R. A. Kelly, medical officer of health, said Friday.

Dr. Kelly was interviewed to find out just how great a threat to this city polio is at the present time.

Largest Incidence

"It's true that we have the largest incidence of this disease this year we have had in the past 17 years," the doctor continued. "But the 21 cases, as reported so far, can by no means be classed as an epidemic, in a city the size of Peterborough.

"It's mostly a matter of not knowing enough about the disease. Each year so much publicity is given to it that people think it is much more deadly and serious than it really is. Their sense of its threat is all out of proportion. There are other diseases such as TB and rheumatic fever which are basically more crippling than polio."

Mistaken Beliefs

Other mistaken beliefs which Dr. Kelly brought to light were that polio is more prevalent in the city than in the country. He explained that the chance of catching polio during the summer is about the same in the country as in the city. There is as much polio in the country as in the city.

In regard to the disease itself he explained that the virus is believed to enter the body through the mouth or nose. That is the reason rules of cleanliness are stressed as a precaution against the disease. After entry, the virus attacks nerve cells, usually situated in the spinal cord. If enough of the nerve cells are attacked, the muscles they control become paralysed.

Convelescent Stage

There are three stages the disease takes—acute, convalescent and chronic. It is usually 10 days after infection before the first symptoms of the acute stage appear. The symptoms of this stage are usually headache, fever, sore

RCYC Sailor Captures Dinghy Cup

Gooderham's 126 Pts. Win International Dinghy Championship

Members of Toronto's Royal Canadian Yacht Club took two titles at the fourth annual four-day Canadian Dinghy Association regatta at Clear lake, north of here, on Friday.

Bill Gooderham won the international championship with 126 points, and Paul McLaughlin took the Canadian crown with 139¼ points. This pair reversed titles they won last year. The 13-mile race for the Governor-General's Trophy on Saturday will complete the meet.

Runner-up to Gooderham was Paul McLaughlin in the international event—raced each of three mornings—with 121¼ points, followed by club mate Jack Muir with 117. Second to McLaughlin in the Canadian three-day competition (held each afternoon) was Peter Gales of Rochester, NY, with 127 points; Jack Carter of Essex, Conn., being third with 126¼.

With 42 competing Friday morning under good sailing conditions, Jack Carter, skipping Harvey Bongard's boat, finished first in an hour, 10 minutes and 35 seconds. Next was Paul McLaughlin of RCYC in 1:21, followed by Peter Pangman of the same club in 1:12.14 and Spence (Sonny) Hanna of RCYC in 1:12.15. The time was good but not as fast as that clocked on Tuesday when a strong wind whipped the four and a third miles course. There was one upset in the morning.

45 In Afternoon

Forty-five dinghies raced in the afternoon, Paul McLaughlin hearing the finisher's gun in 1:36.49, nine seconds ahead of Don Clapp of Queen City Yacht Club, Toronto. Third was Peter Gales of Rochester in an hour and 37 minutes, with Bill Gooderham crossing the line 48 seconds later.

In the three special races for 12-foot craft, Mrs. Bill Gooderham of Toronto took three firsts, Alex Rider of the Stony Lake Yacht Club being second, and Bill Copeland of Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto finishing third.

Several protests were lodged in the Friday races, but none of these affected the leading skippers.

Wonderful Folk Beautiful City, Says UK Woman

"I want the mayor of this city to know what a beautiful city this is and how wonderful the people who live here are."

This statement was made by Mrs. Alfred Ladd of Kingsbery, London, England. Mrs. Ladd has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Barton, 206 Edinburgh St. Peterborough since May 29 of this year. Until this trip, the two sisters hadn't seen each other for 44 years.

So Heplful

This accolade to Peterborough predominated throughout Mrs. Ladd's parting statement to the Examiner. She leaves the city Tuesday for her return trip to England.

She commented about shopkeepers being so helpful in the stores—"I don't understand Canadian money and they always double checked to make sure I received the right change."

The friendliness and hospitality of relatives and their friends here also were mentioned—"I have been to 22 teas since I arrived."

Specific sites in the city and district Mrs. Ladd mentioned as being particularly beautiful and impressive were Jackson's Park, the lift lock, the goose pond, Chemong causeway, Lakefield and Burleigh Falls.

"What I really like about this city," the English visitor said, "is the way you can look down any street and see the maple trees all in rows. And if you walk or ride through these streets you soon come out into the country. This is a city but it also seems out in the country to me."

Most Impressive

But it wasn't in Peterborough that Mrs. Ladd received her greatest thrill. She named her visit to Niagara Falls as the most impressive experience she had had in Canada. "I wouldn't have missed seeing it for anything and I will never forget it."

There were tears in her eyes when the conversation turned to going back. "Although I have missed my loved ones in England very much and want to return to them, it's going to be very hard to say goodbye to my sister and all the friends I have made here in Peterborough."

School Crowded Board Looks For Extra Room

Lack of public school accommodation in Ashburnham is forcing the Board of Education to look around for temporary classrooms. When school opens in September they hope to have the Sunday school of Mark Street United Church available for kindergarten pupils.

If final approval is given by the board of stewards of Mark Street Church, between 25 and 30 pupils are expected to attend the supplementary half-day school.

At present King George is the public school in Ashburnham. When King George closed down in June there were nearly 100 kindergarten pupils enrolled there.

To relieve the situation, a second public school is to be built on McFarlane St. Meanwhile temporary classrooms must be found.

The new school site is on a slope and grading and levelling must be done this fall if construction work is to go ahead early in the spring.

An agreement will likely be arranged between the church and the board, including a modest rental based on the cost of heating and maintenance during the 1951-52 school year.

FOGGY IN EAST

Fog settled over Ashburnham and the northeastern section of the city early today, clearing about 8:30 a.m. Although it was thick in the east part of the city, there was little in the west and centre sections.

Wrong Both Ways

During the downtown rush hour at 5 pm Friday, pedestrains on Charlotte St. near George St. gulped as they saw a west-bound car pull into the east-bound traffic lane and double park, on the wrong side of the road, in front of a grocery store. A young man jumped out, ran into the store, reappeared with his family, and herded them into his car. For five minutes, east and west-bound traffic was partly blocked, until the daring driver wheeled back into his proper lane and drove off.

M. Holden Heads Local 524, IUE

Mel Holden has been elected provisional president of Local 524, IUE (CIO-CCL). At an election earlier this week a provisional slate of officers was returned.

They will run the affairs of Local 524, a union spokesman told the Examiner, until the IUE is certified as the bargaining agent at the CGE plant.

Election results: Mel Holden, previously on the campaign committee, president of the local; Earl Westman, vice president; Neil McNulty, treasurer; James Hamilton, financial secretary; Muriel McQuade, recording secretary; Trustees Cec Viscoff, Theresa O'Brien and Tom McPhate; and Victor Wilson, floor guard.

Joe Wirtz, IUE international representative, said that the $1,801 paid in by IUE members as initiation fees during the certification campaign would be kept in trust. He said that James B. Carey, international president, had authorized both the election of provisional officers and the trust fund until the local is certified at CGE.

Another resolution called on all IUE members to pay union dues.

Star's Life Story Settles Tiff Over Birthplace

COBOURG, Aug. 18—A tiff over the actual birthplace of Marie Dressler between some Cobourg and Grafton residents, was settled this week by the Hollywood star's autobiography.

In it, she said she was born in Cobourg.

But some oldsters—either sceptics or leg-pullers—in Cobourg and Grafton maintained that the one-time Leile von Koerber, daughter of a Cobourg music teacher and organist, was born in Grafton.

Some solid evidence to back up the Cobourg claim came from two elderly gentlemen of Cobourg, who remember the girl in her youth. One remembered boxing her ears from time to time in friendly arguments.

In her autobiography, Marie says: "I was so thrilled (when she discovered several places claimed her as a native daughter) that I tacitly decided to allow myself to be adopted by each community in turn. As I have stated, I was actually born in Cobourg, Canada."

And that, say those in favor of Cobourg, is that.

ATTEND NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

Mrs. Ann Rowell, member of the board of directors of the YWCA gave a paper today on the YWCA Commission at the YWCA National Assembly, held in Kingston. Also attending are Miss Leta Branscombe, executive director and Mrs. Charles Hurst, convener of the Y program committee.

CUTS ARM

Judith Ann Bell, 10, Toronto, who was vacationing in this district, cut her right arm on a milk bottle and was admitted to Civic hospital Friday afternoon. The glass cut a tendon in her arm. Her condition today was reported by hospital officials as satisfactory.

'Jacks Nimble 65 Feet Up Repairing Chimneys, Vents

"What's it like to work eight hours 65 feet off the ground, without scaffolding?" steeplejacks fixing the chimneys and air-conditioning vents at PCVS were asked. The question was answered with laughter from the four 'jacks. Later Paul Marquis, formerly of Granby, Que., now of Toronto, explained that most of the work for the nine months of the year is well over the 150-foot level, sometimes reaching upward for 300 feet.

Veteran of the quartet, Marquis said that fixing the chimneys at PCVS, May's and Queen Alexandra schools is nothing to his highest job which he did after only one year's experience.

Up To 350 Feet

That job, checking and repairing the lining of a smoke stack in Port Colborne, took the jacks up 350 feet. To reach the top the workers had to climb ladders right from the bottom level. Steel cables were then strung around the chimney and levels dropped into the chimney.

Marquis this year has worked on jobs which have required climbing into the skies 150 feet and more. He painted a church steeple in Wallaceburg and then a water tank in Palmerston.

But still "the height doesn't bother me at all."

Marquis referred to himself and his fellow workers as "jacks of all trades but masters of none" when discussing the different types of jobs they do. Besides bricklayers, they are painters and practically anything else which requires, 'high altitude' attention.

The foreman explained that besides the steeplejack jobs, every man generally has another job which does him for three months of the year. Steeplejacks only work nine months of the year, forced to lay off for the three cold-weathered ones.

Marquis is a steelworker in his spare months.

Time Will Tell

Collegiate students will likely not notice the effect of the steeplejack's work until the winter months. In the past some of the classrooms during the winter have been hot and stuffy. The present work is designed to keep the rooms at a more even temperature, and the air fresher.

But the real purpose in the project is to protect the people walking at the ground level.

In the spring Sam Castle, foreman of the caretaking staff at the collegiate, noticed loose brickwork at the top of the chimney; several of the large white stones were leaning on a dangerous angle. Upon his report the present action is being undertaken.

Referring to his off-hours enjoyment, Marquis said, "I nearly killed myself roller skating last night." My, my, and at ground level too!

Hardwood Log Falls, Breaks Driver's Arm

BANCROFT, Aug. 18 (ENS)—Struck by a hardwood log that crashed down from a load of logs, Simon Sleeper, of Birds Creek, a truck driver for a local lumber company, had his left arm broken above the elbow. While bending over to pull a logging chain to one side the load suddenly gave way. At the time he was unloading in the yard of Martin Lumber Company at Hughes siding. Upon the advice of Dr. O. W. Anderson he was rushed to the Peterborough medical clinic for specialized treatment. This afternoon Dr. Robert Young stated that he would be hospitalized for the next 10 days.

ANOTHER POLIO CASE

One more case of poliomyelitis was reported this morning by Board of Health officials. This case is a 19-year-old youth being treated in Civic hospital and brings the total for the city and district to 21.

LIKE TOY BOATS are these dinghies seen from the air as they compete in the Canadian Dinghy Association's four-day meet. Today the 13-mile race for the Governor-General's trophy was run; it was the last race of the meet. Friday, the international dinghy championship was won by Bill Gooderham of Toronto with 126 points. Paul McLaughlin, also of Toronto, won the Canadian championship with 139¼ points. Both are from the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Toronto—(Harry Oakman Photo)

All Solid Masonry Walls Should Be 8 Inches Thick

Whether or not you're building under the NHA, the following excerpts from "Building Standards" governing brick construction will serve you as a good guide.

Solid Masonry Construction: All solid masonry walls shall be not less than 8" thick. There shall be built into such walls, horizontal wood nailing or bonding strips ¾" x 1⅝" located not more than 18" apart. The inside of the wall is then to be parged (back plastered), covered with asphalted saturated felt weighing 15 lbs. per square lapped 4" at the joints, and then furred with vertical wood strips ⅞" x 1¾" spaced at 16" centres.

Parging and covering of saturated felt may be omitted from masonry walls of either brick, stone or concrete which are 12" or more thick.

Cavity Masonry Construction: Cavity walls shall not be less than 10" thick and the cavity shall be not less than 2" nor more than 3" in width. The height of such a cavity wall shall be not more than 25 feet.

Bricks used in cavity wall construction shall conform to the same requirements as for solid masonry wall construction. Stone in cavity wall construction shall be 6" or more in thickness with bearing surfaces sawn or tooled flat.

The outer face and the interior backing shall be securely tied together with suitable bonding ties of adequate strength. A steel rod, 3-16" in diameter or a metal tie of equivalent stiffness coated with a noncorroding metal or other approved protective coating shall be used for each 3 sq. ft. of wall surface. Ties shall be embedded in horizontal joints of the facing and backing. Additional bonding ties shall be provided at all openings spaced not more than 3' apart around the perimeter and within 12" of the opening. Furring shall be the same as for solid masonry construction.

Before proceeding with plans for cavity wall construction it is advisable to consult local building authorities. Some municipalities have not yet provided in their by-laws for this newer building technique.

Face Brick: Face brick shall be new bricks of good shape and condition. They shall be sound, hard burnt and as non-absorbent as possible, 7% to 8% absorption by weight upon immersion in water being the maximum permitted. Where it is desired to have the exterior brick finished by painting, second hand brick of good quality, hard burnt, with no chipped corners may be used. The use of brick from old chimneys or brick coated with soot or cresote shall be avoided. Before painting the wall shall be wire brushed to remove all loose mortar and all joints properly pointed. The wall will then be treated with zinc sulphate solution (3½ lbs. per gallon of water), brushed to remove excess sulphate and primed according to paint manufacturer's directions.

Bonding: Face brick shall be bonded into the backing by at least one header course in every fifth course. Where especially prepared back-up material is made purposely to permit a brick header course to be properly bonded into the backing, a header course not exceeding every sixth course is acceptable. Where a special brick bond is used, alternate header and stretcher may be used in the bonding course. The NHA permits use of metal ties providing the make is approved by CMHC.

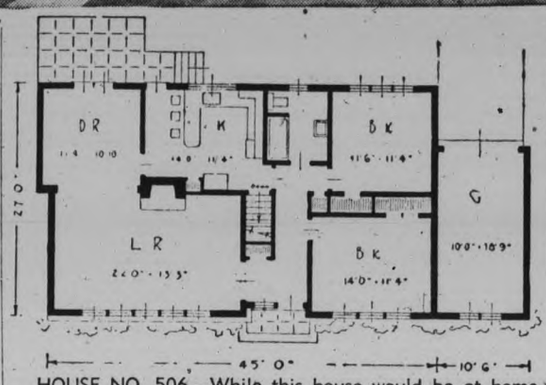
Backing: Second-hand brick may be used for backing if they are hard-burnt and clean. Concrete block as specified below, and terra cotta or sand-lime block of approved make, properly bonded to the face brick in each second course of block may be used.

Where the backing is constructed of hollow masonry units, solid masonry not less than 5" in depth shall be provided for the bearing of floor joists framing into such walls. Lintels over openings shall bear upon solid masonry material equivalent in depth to at least two courses of brick.

Wetting: Bricks with medium to high rates of suction may develop ineffective bonding between brick and mortar unless such bricks are wetted down before laying. A rough test for determining if wetting is required consists in sprinkling a few drops of water on the flat of the brick and noting the time of complete absorption. If this exceeds one minute, wetting is not needed.

Mortar: Mortar for all masonry below grade shall consist of one part cement to three parts of sand by volume. Lime equal to not more than 15% of the cement by volume may be added. For all other masonry work, the mortar mix shall consist of one part portland cement, one part lime putty to six parts of sand by volume.

Lump lime shall be slacked not less than 3 weeks before using and mortar shall be mixed just prior to using; retempering of mortar will not be permitted. Clean sharp sand shall be used and all masonry units shall be soidly bedded and have all cross pjoints groutedd full. The use of hydrated lime in the mortar is approved.



HOUSE NO. 506—While this house would be at home in the wide open spaces, its window arrangement makes it ideal in the ctiy with close neighbours. See how all openings are at the front or back. In the picture here we see a portion of the view from the rear windows—and what a fine view it is! Rooms are well arranged for livability, and open planning has given a feeling of spaciousness to the "living" area of the house. Notice too that the bedrooms are separated from each other by a wall of closets. Omitting the attached garage the house contains about 24,600 cubic feet. For Parents Only

Junior and the New Baby

By NANCY CLEAVER

"Mummy, can't you take the baby back to the hospital and leave her there?" asks Junior with all the candor of a four year old.

Mother may be horrified, or amused—but Junior isn't joking. He means what he says. His suggestion reveals to the alert mother that he is suffering from the pangs of jealousy. His violent reaction to the strange situation of another child in the family is one of rejectiong the new baby!

This emotion, which is not inherited, is much more common than parents realize. Often it is not recognized because it may take different forms. The jealous child is troubled by a sense of insecurity. He is eager to receive again the love and attention and understanding which used to be his and is now centred on the newcomer. Is it any wonder that a slap or pinch administered on the offending baby, when no adult is present, appeals to the small child? He is in revolt against the "New Order!"

Sometimes the jealous child acts in a destrictive fashion, breaking the younger child's toys. Occasionally jealousy will come out in strenuous "bids" for attention such as showing-off, crying, being disobedient or even trying to be exceptionally good. Once in a while the jealous youngster will return to thumb-sucking or want a bottle of his own. A toilet-trained child may have "accidents" in the day time or wet his bed at night.

There are definite measures which help this adjustment to a bigger family circle. The older child should know about the baby's coming. He should be allowed to share in the preparations for the newcomer. Special provision should be made to reassure him that he is loved while mother is away at the hospital.

Then when mother comes home, she needs to demonstrate her love for the older child. A little gift for him is a good idea. Don't let him feel left-out, on the side lines while not only grandparents and other visitors, but his own daddy and mummy, focus all their loving exclamations on the new baby!

Favoritism is fertile ground for jealousy, so don't "play favorites" with the new infant! Parents must not show preferences nor allow relatives or friends to pick a favorite among the children.

The wise parent tries to forsee a possible unhappy situation on the horizon and prevent it from happening. Psychologists have found that jealousy is most common in the child who has been an only child for several years. His whole little world is changed with a brother's or sister's birth.

Both parents should realize that this period when the new baby arrives, is far from an easy one for the older brother or sister. Mother's time is very occupied with the care a small infant needs. Our grandmothers had a saying—"a baby can keep one woman busy!"

Thus it is very important that what little time Mother can spare for the older child should not be a scolding but a loving time—even if he seems "difficult!" Father, by giving the older child extra attention, by spending time with him and providing some unexpected treats, can help Junior readjust to a different situation in the home circle.

Jealousy is a dangerous feeling, if by punishment or shaming a child, it is repressed below the surface. Unfortunately, many adults, instead of bringing their child's jealous attitude out into the open, have blamed both themselves and their youngster for what they consider an unhealthy feeling. Parents can best help Junior, who feels hostile to the new baby, by reassuring him of their love and believing that this is a phase which he will outgrow.

Tussle With Bull Leaves Lund Unenthusiastic

By BOB THMOAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 18 (AP) —John Lund bounced right out of the drawing rooms and onto a Brahma bull.

The story is this: while at Paramount, Lund did a lot of drawing-room roles. In his next film he does a complete reversal; he's a rodeo star in the modern west.

The picture is called "Bronco Buster" and Lund is riding daily "to get over my fear of horses." But, contemplating a forthcoming tussle with a Brahma bull, Lund confessed he is "thinking rather wistfully of the drawing rooms."

He got out of his Paramount pact to escape such roles.

"When an actor is winding up a contract, as I was, he can find himself in seven pictures in a year," he explained. "The studio wants to make the most of him."

That's not too tough for a highly-versatile player. But, says Lund:

"I'm a limited kind of actor; there are only a few roles I can do."

New Project

Anthony Quinn, the Latin actor, has come up with a brave new project. He has banded with cameraman James Howe, writer Malvin Wald and actor Akim Tamiroff to make a series of three films with a connecting story line. What's so different about that? Nothing, except that they plan to release them for both theatres and television.

They have already sold the TV rights. Then they plan to put the three stories together as a feature for film houses.

"Why not?" Quinn argues. "There are 5,000,000 TV sets in the country. That leaves a lot of people in a lot of areas that TV doesn't reach" . . .

Worst idea of the week: The announcement that "Goodby, Mr. Chips" will be made into a musical . . . some day I'd like to see a double feature of "Hard, Fast and Beautiful" and "Rich, Young and Pretty." That would be the adjective attraction of the year.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Bert Hogg

ROSENEATH, Aug. 18 (ENS)—The funeral of Mrs. Bert Hogg was held on Thursday afternoon at the McMillan funeral home, Roseneath. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. C. White, of Roseneath United church. Two favorite hymns of the deceased's were sung: "Rock of Ages" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye". Mrs. Hogg's death occurred suddenly on Tuesday morning after a few hours illness in her 58th year.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Nicholas Towns and Mrs. Eldred Baxter, Roseneath; two sons, Edward of Roseneath and Charles of Harwood..

The pall-bearers were her neighbors: Messrs. Roy Brown, Ross McCracken, Rae Brown, Herbert McCracken, Orra Robbins and Charlton Grigg.

The flower bearers were: Bruce Brown, Garnet Towns, Lawrence Linton, Willis McCracken, George McCleary, Neil George, Terry Hogg, Donald Towns, Donald Robins, Garth Waldie, George Towns, William McCracken, Beverley Robins, Grant Waldie, Barry Towns and Murray McCleary.

The long cortege to Merrill's cemetery showed the high respect in which the deceased was held.

Friends were present from Peterborough, Colborne, Cobourg, Grafton, Plainville, Dartford, Gore's Landing, Harwood, Warkworth, Norwood, Hastings and the Roseneath community.

Buckhorn WI To Visit Industries

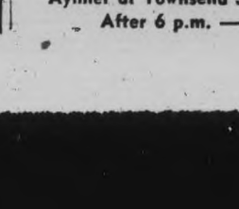
BUCKHORN, Aug. 18 — THE regular meeting of the Buckhorn WI was held in the Community Hall on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. B. Hall presiding. The roll call was answered by "An interesting fact about another WI."

Plans were made for visiting some Peterborough factories on Aug. 22; also entertaining Lakefield and Warsaw branches in September. Arrangements were also made to visit the Apsley branch on Sept. 6.

Mrs. R. Montgomery, as convener, took charge of the meeting. She gave a paper on "Public Relations." Several sacred selections were played on the gramophone. A contest on the words "Public Relations" followed.

The meeting closed by repeating in the Institute creed.

The hostess and her assistants served lunch and a social hour was enjoyed by all.



Toronto Market Starts On Gold Spree

By DICK BAIDEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The Toronto Stock Market went on a gold-buying spree this week.

Reports that Canada would seek a better deal for her gold industry at the September meeting of the International Monetary Fund heralded two days of active buying of producing mine stocks.

From Tuesday morning to Wednesday night the stock exchange index of 20 selected issues advanced almost seven points or 8.1 per cent.

Observers saw two possible results of the IMF meeting. The world price of gold, currently pegged at $35 an ounce in United States funds, might be increased to broaden the narrow margin between production costs and returns, or Canada might be granted the same consideration as South Africa and be permitted to sell 40 per cent of her output on the "free market."

The current free market price in New York is about $40.50 an ounce. Opinion mostly favored the latter possibility.

Reflect Activity

Gold issues on the Montreal Stock Exchange reflected the Toronto activity, but only to a small degree. New York showed little interest.

In general, Montreal and New York markets were quiet. Profit-taking Thursday dampened an earlier rise and Montreal developed little trend. All markets closed slightly higher.

Base metals in Toronto Monday staged a determined rally and closed well ahead of a mixed market. Papers lost their previous advance in Montreal and closed more than five points lower.

Once again golds dominated the Toronto market Wednesday. Western oils started to climb. In Montreal, golds climbed more than a point while papers dipped.

Golds wavered and then slipped slightly in Toronto Thursday. Western oils continued to advance and industrials gained more than a point. Golds held firm in Montreal and papers edged ahead.

Lead Higher Market

Western oils led a higher Toronto market Friday. They climbed more than a point and a half by the mid-session to reach the highest point since the index was established in 1937. Montreal closed firm.

Declining railroads restrained an advancing market Monday in New York. Outstanding strong spots featured the market.

A last minute rally led by steels was unable to turn the tide Tuesday as the market slipped. Railroads showed a small gain.

Railroads led a market rise Wednesday after a weak start. Steels and golds gained with oils and utilities also climbing.

On Thursday a moderate gain was dampened by several weak points. Steels, motors, oils, utilities and rubbers made progress. Profit-taking cut chemicals and golds. Yesterday, prices moved generally higher.

From Friday to Friday, Toronto Stock Exchange indices showed industrials up 2.92 at 336.70, golds up 5.44 at 86.29, base metals up 3.10 at 183.84 and western oils up 2.15 at 108.92.

In the Montreal averages, banks were unchanged at 28.97, utilities off .1 at 86.5, industrials off .2 at 230.9, combined off .1 at 182.8, papers off 2.0 at 814.86 and golds up 2.6 at 65.46.

In New York, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks climbed 78 cents to $96.98.

Change From Village Mills

then estimated it would take $5,000,000 more to complete the Trent Canal.

On the waterway by 1900 there were about 70 vessels (44 propeller steamers, 15 paddlewheelers, and 11 excursion barges), of which 42 plied the Lakefield-Lindsay section and 28 the Otonabee-Rice Lake section, The largest new vessels were: the "Sunbeam" (Lakefield 1891), the "Crandella" (Lindsay 1891), the "Columbian" (Lindsay 1892), the "North Star" (Peterborough 1895), the "Majestic" (rebuilt from the "Mary Ellen", Young's Point 1897), and "Rainbow" (Birdsall 1899), the "Beaver" (Lindsay 1899), the "Lady of the Lake" (Bridgenorth 1899), and the "Empress" (Lakefield 1900). There were about eight steam pleasure yatchs in each section by 1900, in addition to three naphtha launches brought in by American tourists—at Peterborough, Stony Lake and Rice Lake.

The ACA Regatta in 1891 was held at Big Island near Bobcaygeon, and about then Messrs. Bottum and Stewart of Bobcaygeon got the name "Kawa(r)tha" from the Chemong Indians in order to promote the tourist attractions of the region in competition with Muskoka. In 1891 the Ontario Game Commission began restocking fish in Kawartha Lakes, and five years later the Central Ontario Game & Fish Protective Society was organized at Peterborough seeking a fish hatchery for Stony Lake. The "Canadian Summer Resorts Guide Book" of 1895 listed dozens of "unsurpassed" tourist resorts between Hastings and Coboconk. Juniper Island was developed from 1883 on, Crowe's Landing from 1890 on, McCracken's Landing from 1897 on, along with numerous others. Among hunting clubs migrating each autumn to northern townships were: the Queen City Club (of Buffalo), the Eagle Lake Club (of Toronto) and the Ketchecum Hunt Club (of Peterborough). With unlimited hunting and fishing, the game was being depleted as the timber had been in the area before conservation began.

Kawartha Migrants

Migration from the district continued in the 1890s. Among the more noted Kawartha migrants in the east were: James Jamieson, Montreal engineer; Dr. Geo. Burnham, Toronto surgeon. Prof. J. Crook of Amherst College; Dr. Mary Dover of McGill; Walter Elliott, Toronto teacher and inspector; James Grace, Toronto street railway director; Mrs. E. Harvie, Toronto social worker; John Long, New York lecturer-writer; S. Casey Wood, Toronto lawyer; Dr. H. Ford and Dr. Wm. Pakenham, Toronto professors; F. Sanderson and Herb. Cox, Toronto insurance executives; and Hon. A. Matthews, Toronto businessman and later Lieut. Governor of Ontario. Among western migrants from Kawarthas, besides numerous recruits for the RNWMP, were: Hon. H. H. Stevens, Vancouver political leader; Wm. Elliott, Rainy River MPP; W. Bennett, Saskatchewan MPP; Judge N. Beck of Edmonton and Judge E. Wylie of Saskatchewan; H. Bradburn, oil executive; Sen. J. Anderson of California; Herb. Haultain, mining engineer; Jas. Leonard and John Fairbairn, CPR builders and executives; Thos. Kearney, Yukon merchant; Senator H. Mullins of Winnipeg; Ernest T. Seaton, Manitoba naturalist-author; and Wm. McWilliams, grain elevator builder. A group of Peterborough volunteers sailed with the Canadian contingent to the Boer War in Oct. 1899, and a second group in Jan. 1900 from the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons; eight or ten others went from Victoria, including Sam Hughes, Lindsay editor.

The increasing importance of the Kawarthas was recognized when John Dobson of Lindsay was appointed to the Senate in 1892, and George Cox of Peterborough in 1896. Federal elections of the period resulted: Pet. East: 1891—Burnham (C), 1896 and 1900—Lang (L); Pet. West: 1891—Stevenson (C), 1896 and 1900—Kendry (C); Vict. North: 1891—Barron (L), 1892, 1896 and 1900—Hughes (C); Vict. South: 1891—Fairbairn (C), 1896—McHugh (L), 1900—Vrooman (C). Provincial members were: Pet. East: Blezard (L) from 1879 to 1900; Pet. West: Hon. J. Stratton from 1886 to 1900; Vict. East; 1894 and 1898—Carnegie (C); Vict. West: 1894—McKay (L); 1898—Fox (C).

All the churches lost members during the decade except the Baptists, but district clergy increased from 62 to 94, and churches from 198 to 232. Among new churches built were: Douro Roman Catholic Church (1893), Warsaw Methodist Church (1893), Buckhorn Anglican Church (1898), Lasswade Methodist Church (1898), Young's Point Anglican Church (1899), and Bethany and Manvers Methodist Churches (1899). Also by 1901 there were 187 Sunday Schools in the district with 14,542 scholars.

13 Dogs Die In 10 Days From Poisoning

BOWMANVILLE, Aug. 18 (CP)—At least 13 dogs from homes within two blocks of each other died during the last 10 days from poisoning. Police believe strychnine was used.

G. Howard Corden, who lost a purebred cocker spaniel Friday, believes two bones he found near his dog were covered with the poison.

Police Chief Sidney Venton said it would be difficult to track down the poisoner as "any person" could buy strychnine.

Vaudeville Show Goes On Without Interruption At Fair

The sandwiched programs before the grandstand at the Peterborough Exhibition will be only a memory when the show settles into its stride next week. Public recollection still squirms at that melange: judging of several horse classes; an act of vaudeville; some more judging; in recent years a horse race; some more vaudeville and so on.

That kind of show is out, and it has taken sentiment and decision and common sense a long time to swing around to seeing the folly of it.

The vaudevillians used to say: "We just get nicely started; the grandstand warmed and with us; and then they are cooled off with judging horses or some other ham stunt . . ."

Performers used to air their grievances to the press and probably to some of the board of directors . . .

Hour And Half Program

Next Wednesday night for the official opening of the fair there will be reserved seats; the vaudeville program begins at 9 p.m. and runs straight through for an hour and a half. Judging classes top the bill at 6.30 p.m., then a horse race. Official opening at 8 p.m. by Hon. Wm. A. Goodfellow, Ontario's Minister of Welfare; and there is also a cattle parade, emphasizing the purpose of the Exhibition to impress the grand stand crowd.

And then the vaudeville starting at 9 p.m. till 10.30.

That piece of programming illustrates the smarter thinking of the present directorate.

It seemed the boards would never get away from an afternoon opening on Children's Day, Wednesday. Usually it was the lightest crowd of the week.

Some one suggested the switch to night, and that should ensure a full house for the opening of the show, and getting it off auspiciously. It is also an amenity to Hon. Mr. Goodfellow, for modest as he is, he no doubt appreciates a hearing from a capacity gathering.

CBC Broadcast

The affairs of Wednesday begin at 10.30 in the morning with a radio broadcast by Alison Grant of Montreal, commentator for CBC.

For the afternoon program for the children there is judging of ponies, hackneys and other classes of horses starting at 1 p.m.

A special feature for the young folks will be a display of model airplanes by twenty boys. Some of these planes are jet propelled and gas turbined and so on, according to the information coming from the Recreation Commission.

At 3 p.m. there is a half mile pony race, and the vaudeville program is the main part of the bill.

That sketchy outline suggests the new approach to the public in the entertainment section of the Exhibition at the grandstand.

Remand Man 68 In Shooting

PORT ARTHUR, Aug. 18 (CP)—Ivar Karvonen, 68, was remanded Friday to Aug. 25 for preliminary hearing on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal shooting earlier Friday of John Pursiainen, 32-year-old Stepstone district farmer.

Pursiainen was shot to death in Karvonen's shack at Stepstone, 12 miles north of here. Karvonen gave himself up voluntarily.

Police said they were told the shooting occurred during a fight over money.

Hull Showing Biggest Jump In Population

OTTAWA, Aug. 18 (CP)—The industrial city of Hull, Que., across the Ottawa River from the capital showed the biggest population jump in the first report of Canada's 1951 census, the Bureau of Statistics reported Friday.

The initial report of the June census covered 526 cities, towns and incorporated villages—none of them large but representing every province. A full report is expected next December.

In the 10-year period covered by the census the gold-mining centre of Timmins declined to 27,383 from 28,790.

On the whole, the bureau said, the army of census takers have found a "distinct and widespread rise in Canada's urban population."

Some of the larger centres listed with populations for 1941 in brackets:

Sault Ste. Marie, 29,851 (25,794); St. Thomas, 17,942 (17,132).

Other centres included:

YWCA Cafeteria Specials Concocted By Scotswoman Mrs. Flora McLeod McIntosh

Nothing particularly assures that a Scotch woman will be a good cook, but nine out of 10 times she is. It may be that inherent thriftiness that makes her so, for food that is not well cooked and pleasing to the taste is actually wasted. Very often she is a specialist in pastry as the soldiers who spent "leaves" in Scotland may insist.

Peterborough diners-out have been speaking about the delicious pies and the chocolate cakes and specialties such as "dressed, baked salmon" served in the YWCA cafeteria. But perhaps they haven't known that the cook is a real Scot and that she was born Flora McLeod on the Isle of Skye (northwest coast of Scotland).

MISS JOAN REED, formerly of Peterborough, is appearing this week at the Highfield Playhouse in Falmouth, Mass. She is the daughter of the late J. T. S. Reed, formerly of 583 Water St., and is a resident member of the summer stock company. She is playing the part of the mother in Eugene O'Neill's "Al Wilderness."

Yes, this lady who wields the rolling pin so expertly each weekday is of the McLeod clan, whose clan chieftain Flora McLeod of the Isle of Skye has been much feted recently on her visits to Canadian cities. But she is now the wife of William McIntosh the genial Scotsman who tends the greens at the Kawartha Club and tells stories about his days as a "pro," and she is known to fellow staff members and friends as Mrs. Mac.

In the year that the Y has been serving meals cafeteria style to a host of business people, students and visitors, it has been found that Mr. Macs piets will sell no matter what the kind, but the chocolate pie, for which she has her "own recipe," is very much in demand. And they rave about her lemon pie filling which she has gauged so carefully to a jelly-like consistency too.

"It's all in the pastry," says the lady. "To have good pastry you must keep the shortening real cold, not chop it down too fine and mix with ice water". But others think the real secret is that she has that elusive "knack" for rolling out the dough.

There are other things about her cooking too. Cherry, blueberry or any fruit pie, doesn't run over in her oven. Thats because she thickens a little bit with dry flour mixed in the sugar sprinkled over the fruit. Gravies and sauces which give the main courses on the cafeteria shelf added appeal also have an extra amount of flavour.

Juices from the vegetables of the day, except those with strong flavor such as cabbage, are used to thin out the thickened meat juices rather than water, and Mrs. Mac makes white sauce by putting butter or shortening in a pan with flour and letting it bubble up before adding the milk. This method eliminates a "floury" flavor and the addition of vegetable juices also adds vitamins to the meal.

Roast chicken is a Tuesday specialty in cafeteria all this month and next. Mrs. Mac. dresses the fowl, making the dressing to suit her taste. That doesnt mean it is always flavored exactly the same way, though. If there was chicken soup on Monday's menu the leftover soup may be what makes the bread crums so moist and tasty.

This cook has her own "special" for the main course too — the dressed, baked salmon mentioned above. This is how it is prepared.

Take a 10 to 12 pound fish; bone it; dust with pepper and salt and sprinkle with lemon juice. Then prepare dressing of onions fried in butter and then mixed with bread crumbs and chopped parsley, held together with egg. The dressing is put in the cavity of the fish and it is sewn up in the manner of a fowl. After baking about an hour in a moderate oven, the fish is sliced and served with a white parsley sauce.

Mrs. Mac tells a story about her 1 lexhibits at the Bowmanville Fair a few years ago on which she took nine first prizes and two seconds. One of her firsts was on tea biscuits and she was frank to admit they were made with a commercial "mix." A competitor questioned the judges about this and was told the prize had been awarded for the flavor and texture. Mrs. Mac. can whip up fine-textured biscuits herself and is planning to serve them with dinner sometimes.

At the Christmas season this year she will offer Scotch shortbreak if the cafeteria budget permits, and she will make it for weddings and teas. When catering for such events she often bakes 125 small tarts and eight or nine dozen cookies in an afternoon.

Cooking doesn't seem like "work" to her. She likes to do it, and we guess she likes to taste good cooking too.

LONDON—(CP)—For women who like the wide skirts of picture gowns and the soft swish of silken petticoats, London's "big ten" fashion designers include a wide selection in the fall fashion displays.

Newest styles may be the fish-tail look, the mermaid line of the close sheathing of an Egyptian mummy, but each designer spotlights at least one richly-decorated crinoline style that might have swished down the staircases of old London houses more than a century ago.

Queen's Influence

The continued popularity of these unwieldy dresses is partly due to the Queen's preference for these styles. On each State occasion since the end of the Second World War, she has chosen embroidered crinolines of tulle, net, lace or satin. And on such occasions her choice is generally followed by that of the two princesses. The wide-skirted gowns make a perfect setting for heavy State jewelry and the rich background of official banquets.

Some of the smartest of this years' crinoline models are the work of Norman Hartnell, the Queen's designer. Widest skirt in his present collection is a grey and mauve tulle called Versailles. Secret of its charm lies in the delicate shading of its rain-cloud coloring. The diaphanous theme is accentuated by a skirt trimming of grey and mauve osprey plumes forming a waving cloud around the hem and decorating the single draped shoulderline and accompanying stole.

Use Many Colors

Color, used with the abandon of paint, gives a glowing appeal to two experimental dresses by Victor Stiebel. Done in handkerchief points of paper-thin taffeta, the wide skirts are a blending of seven or eight colors combining a variety of shades.

Much applause was given Stiebel's enormous evening skirts of heavy satin in dark shades of peacock blue, midnight blue and silver. These are combined with cosy cashmere sweaters in black, decorated with gold baroque embroidery. Always popular for rush occasions, these skirt and sweater outfits are likely to be in big demand. Embroidered sweaters have been scarce on the home market for years.

For cocktail wear Michael Sherard shows a crinoline of black velvet worn over several stiffened petticoats and lavishly embroidered with raised flowers of black silk braid. One of his eye-catching full-length picture gowns is in orchid mauve lace over rustling taffeta and glittering with sequins. A spider's web of grey lace sweeps out behind, matching a lace stole floating over strapless shoulders and bronze sequined bodice.

Most of the wide-skirted dresses are in floating clouds of tulle and lace or heavy slipper satin, taffeta and velvet.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Readers' Saturday Column

QUESTION: (Renee's letter cont'd. from Thursday):

Now to my troubles which I am taking the liberty of laying in your lap, for I know you will be able to help me.

(1) In your recipe for Downy Cocoanut Cake do you beat in the sugar with the beater? Also do you use the beater when adding the flour or do you fold it in?

(2) In your column a short time ago you gave the menu for Spring Supper at Aunt Dorothy's. I enjoyed it and what I am wondering is did you obtain the recipe for Aunt Dorothy's pickled cherries and tiny pickled gherkins. If so would you print the recipes, I try to pickle a few cherries each year, but haven't ever done any with the stems on, and am wondering how to go about it.

(3) Would you please print recipes for sandwiches which could be made from things on hand when someone drops in unexpectedly. (we often have some guests) I do don't care for cookies or cake. I have served . . . biscuits and they were a big hit . . . your recipe is really a "find" I want to surprise them with something else. Perhaps you could print a recipe for rolled, toasted cheese sandwiches.

I am enclosing a recipe that you might find useful in your column. I find the meat to serve four in it amounts to about 30c. It suits me just fine near the end of the month Renee.

END-OF-THE-MONTH CASSEROLE (contributed by Renee)

One tin cream corn, 6 weiners split in halves, 1 medium onion sliced, 1 cup each milk and soft breadcrumbs, 2 tablespoons butter, salt and pepper, 2 slices bacon cut in halves; (2 sliced tomatoes added are nice).

Method: Butter baking dish, put in half of the corn, then the split wieners, sliced onion, half of the breadcrumbs, salt and pepper and half of the butter; then add the rest of the corn, breadcrumbs, salt and pepper. Pour over the cup of milk and dot with the rest of the butter. Cover with bacon, and cover with lid and bake at 450 deg. Fahr. for 45 minutes, then remove lid and cook 15 minutes to brown. If tomatoes are used put in before the bacon. I have been using green onions from the garden, tops and all in place of onion. I make it without the bacon and it is very good. Usually we have baked potatoes and a salad or crisp greens (celery and radishes) with it.—Renee.

Answer: An interesting letter to open on a hot morning. Thank you, Renee, for the compliments in the first part which I printed and answered elsewhere, and for the recipe which is a good addition to my low-cost file.

In the recipe for "Downy Cocoanut Cake" you beat the sugar and butter with the beater. You do not use the beater when adding the flour. You fold it in.

Pickled Cherries

Sound but not overripe cherries are used. Wash cherries thoroughly being careful not to break off the stems. Drop cherries into sterile jars. Now boil together a vinegar syrup consisting of 1 pint of spirit vinegar for earh one-half pound sugar. Boil five minutes. Pour over the cherries in jars. Seal. If desired a little red coloring may be added to the syrup. These should be stored in very cool place.

Pickled Gherkins

Clean three hundred very tiny gherkins. Place in a preserving kettle, sprinkle two-thirds cup salt over them, and pour over boiling water to cover. Let stand overnight. In the morning drain. Dry each gherkin.

Boil the following mixture: One-half gallon vinegar, ½ cup mixed pickling spices, 4 tablespoons mustard seeds, 4 tablespoons sugar. Cool this and pour over gherkins. Some cooks add piece of alum size of thumb-nail to vinegar mixture to further crispen pickles. Stand in cool place. Weigh out four lbs. sugar, and each morning add 1 cup of this sugar to pickles, stirring well, until the sugar is used up. Keep crock covered. When sugar treatment is finished put pickels in sealers, cover with vinegar-syrup and seal. Keep cool.

Renee, I hope you saw the column entitled "Hot Savoury Sandwich Snacks" in last Tuesday's paper.

Readers Please Note: It is very simple to reply to you quickly when you enclose stamped self-addressed envelopes. If you do not require a quick reply, allow at least three weeks before expecting my answer in the column. Write to me whenever you need cooking help through this newspaper.

DOROTHY DIX

Neurotic Attachment Stays With Unprincipled Wife

DEAR MISS DIX: At 19 my husband, Tom, married his first wife, Flo, who was 16. Her thrice-married mother had no control over her, and the girl had few if any principles. They moved in with Tom's people, which arrangement suited Flo very well as she had no work and when Tom went into the Maritime Service she collected his money. She left his folks, drank heavily and associated with very questionable people. When he came out of service, he went back to school, taking her with him. She took no interest whatever in their home, continuing her round of drinking, etc. Finally she left him and they were divorced.

Dorothy Dix

Tom finished school, got a job, and I became his secretary. I had not met him before this. Over a year later we began to date, and fell in love. We set a date for our wedding and it was postponed—because Flo was in an automobile accident! While she was in the hospital she heard of our approaching wedding and was so upset that Tom said he would not marry me until she was better. We were finally married last July, and in a month he was seeing Flo again.

He has been seeing her constantly since and giving her money. I am working and doing all my housework with which he gives no assistance whatever. He also refuses to contribute towards our living expenses, putting all his money in the bank—in his own name; he will not have a joint account. Our car is in his name, I am not named beneficiary in his insurance (I don't know who is); he will not spend one dime on me and fusses over everything I buy. I don't particularly want a divorce as I think we would be very happy if he could just be honest and fair with me.

EILEEN.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: A literary counterpart of your problem can be found in Maugham's famous novel, "Of Human Bondage." Read it, and though it will give you no comfort, it might shed some light on your husband's queer behavior. Some men do have a quirk that draws them to shoddy characters, and though they may hate themselves for it, they cannot draw away. Flo has some such influence over Tom and as long as he lives he may never be able to throw it off.

Future Looks Dim

Under such conditions, the future certainly does not look bright for you. If you break loose from him, however, he is utterly lost. The only hope of redemption is for you to bear with him as long as possible and pray for a miracle to make him realize how warped is his outlook on life. The whole problem is too big for you to handle alone, and you should seek utside advice. An understanding clergyman could be of great assistance to you .One thing you should take a definite stand on is Tom's attitude toward money. Make him—at any cost—give you a substantial part of his income and insist on a joint ownership of property. Your shoulders are carrying the entire spiritual burden of making this marriage stick, and you should not have the material worries as well. If necessary, see a lawyer on this point but don't give in on it.

Your letter (which I have greatly abridged) emphasizes the point I have frequently made. While every marriage should be entered into only after careful consideration, especial caution must be exercised by one whose mate has had previous marital ties. A legal paper may sever the outward bonds, but the tenuous, inner ties of spiirtual or mental depth are not so easily disolved. They may persist for ever, causing anything from minor discomfiture to acute mental anguish to the second mate, depending upon his or her temperament.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: This summer I am going to work with a group of young people who come from preparatory schools and colleges. Although I can make friends very easily, I worry because they all have had a more social life than I have, more clothes and more money. I am afraid I'll feel inferior and would like to know how to overcome this. ANITA.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You will feel inferior only if you determine to be inferior. No matter what you lack in material advantages, a spirit of true friendliness and comradeship will put you right at ease among those people and they will accept you as one of them. Do more listening than talking, learn about their interests, and you will find many ways to improve yourself by reading and study. Don't be ashamed to let four friends know you want to improve yourself, and accept any help they offer. Very few folks are snobs: most people are constantly on the lookout for new friends and welcome a congenial soul even without college degrees.

To Buy Wolfe or Not—Toronto In Dither

By R. J. ANDERSON

TORONTO, Aug. 18—(CP)—Gen. Jas. Wolfe stormed Quebec in 1759. He's raised an awful fuss in Toronto in 1951.

The latest subject of controversy in the "Battle of University Avenue," rests in a Brooklyn junkyard. He's a not-too-impressive 10-foot bronze figure worth, at the price of metal these days, about $1,000.

Is the hero of Quebec worthy of a place on Toronto's "Stately Mile"? Specifically, is he worth $38,000.

Toronto is patriotic. It has tons of Empire Statesmen scattered about its parks to testify to that. But nothing incites a civic row faster than a suggestion that a change be made on its only street with a claim to distinction. It's taken more than 20 years and some $1,300,000 to effect the changes now apparent from Front Street to College.

The asking price for Wolfe is $5,000. Hauling him here from New York will cost $3,000. A suitable granite base would run $30,000. The over-all cost would just about eat up the remainder of a $60,000 appropriation for beautifying University Avenue.

Bargain Basement Statue

The "Bargain Basement Statue," as it has been called by one columnist as debate waxed hotly in the newspapers this week, came off a Manhattan building. Its owner thought Toronto might like the 60-year-old statue of what sculptor Emmanuel Hahn calls "just a man in military clothes." Mayor Hiram McCallum talked the Board of Control into approving its purchase an an Avenue showpiece.

But city council, which can overrule the board, has yet to be convinced that the "hunk of beat-up bronze," as some call it, is a bargain at any price. After all, Toronto already has at least two likenesses of Wolfe not far from the Avenue. Besides, was Wolfe ever in Toronto?

University Avenue, intended to be the centrepiece in the City Beautiful, four blocks west of Youngs Street, once was a quiet, fairly wide Avenue shaded by stately trees. They fell before the axe as the city's commercial life expanded. It now has 45-foot-wide roadways separated by a wide boulevard of sun-baked grass, 145 Norway maples (imported from Holland at $4.50 each) and flowers in huge cement pots. The grass, trees and pots cost some $20,000.

Could Stand Beautifying

Lined with hospitals, clubs, the United States consulate and head offices of wealthy corporations, it also has a collection of parking lots—and some rundown shacks that date back to before the birth of Mary Pickford. (Faithful followers of Miss Pickford want to put up a statuette of HER on the University Avenue site of her birthplace.)

The discussion over Wolfe is occupying as much space on the front pages as 1950's battle of the trees when everyone, except birds and dogs, who might be considered as having special interest in the problem, wondered what type of tree should beautify the grande allee. Oak trees, maple trees, linden trees and fruit trees were talked of in a grandiose beautification plan that was to have cost $235,000 with colored flagstones, ponds and fountains. Derisive newspaper comment knocked the figure down to $60,000.

Has Suggestion

Mr. Hahn, a founder and former president of the Sculptors Society of Canada and designer of the Sir Adam Beck memorial on University Avenue, spoke for many a Torontonian when he suggested the Wolfe statue be purchased for its metal, melted down and used for a monument "to a poet or an artist—anything to do with Canadian culture."

The whisp of white goatee sported by Mr. Hahn positively quivered as he exploded:

"When you're not sure whether you want the dammed thing or not, it's a pity to occupy a site that might be used for something more appropriate."

Four Cars In Funeral Procession Involved In Two Separate Accidents

HASTINGS, Aug. 18. — While mourners followed the funeral procession of the late Eldon Simpson from his home at Ajax to burial at Trent Valley cemetery at his former home of Hastings, late Wednesday afternoon, four of the cars in the procession were involved in two separate accidents along the route, causing an estimated $700 damage although no one was injured.

The first accident occurred on highway No. 2 about four miles east of Port Hope.

Robert Scriver of Hastings, owner and driver of a 1933 car was forced into the ditch to avoid a collision with another car which cut sharply in front of him. His car was towed home to Hastings with two broken front springs, a bent frame and a damaged front tire. Damage to the car was estimated at $150.

As Mr. Scriver was following at the rear of the procession his absence was not noticed by the others until they arrived at Hastings.

Meanwhile the mourners in the wake of the hearse carrying the late Mr. Simpson followed as the procession left No. 2 highway at Cobourg and proceeded north on No. 45 highway to Hastings. As they entered the town they came to a curve on the highway which is intersected by a county road.

Although it was a through highway all precautions were taken as the hearse eased to a stop and the mourners' cars behind came to a halt in order.

The procession then started away again and had travelled about 150 feet when the hearse stalled. The next car stopped in time to avoid a collision. The next car didn't stop in time; neither did the next.

The first car was undamaged. The second car, a 1951 Meteor driven by Philip Simpson, of Oshawa, received $350. damage to the grill and front fenders and to the rear where it was hit by the third car driven by Charles Airhart of Deloro.

The front of the Airhart car, a 1939 Dodge, was badly damaged and the fenders had to be pulled out to allow the car to be driven.

Extent of the damage to this car was valued at $200.

The Simpson car was left by the roadside and the funeral procession continued on to the cemetery which was about a mile further. It was picked up later and after a few minor repairs all cars were driven home under their own power.

Town constable Len Switzer investigated the accident at Hastings.

Spend 21 Million On Expansion Of Two Plants

QUEBEC, Aug. 18 — (CP) — Premier Duplessis announced Friday projected expenditure of $21,000,000 by Howard Smith Paper Mills Limited on expansion of its wood products plants at Windsor Mills, Que., and Crabtree Mills, Que.

The Premier said the company will spend $7,000,000 on a five-year-plan of enlarging its pulp mills at Windsor Mills, in the eastern townships, and another $14,000,000 in two years to extend its paper products plant at Crabtree Mills, in Joliette county.

During his weekly press conference the Premier announced a public inquiry into collapse of the $3,000,000 Duplessis Bridge will open at Three Rivers Aug. 27. It will be conducted by Magistrate Rene Lippe, of Montreal, at the Three Rivers Courthouse.

He indicated these products will be considered in the light of their effects on the dairy industry. Sale of margarine has been banned in Quebec since 1949.

He displayed at the press conference three of the books seized by police under the Padlock Law. In them appear pictures of Lenin and Stalin and a Red army soldier "ready for defence."

$10,000 Convent Fire

HAMILTON, Aug. 1 8—(CP)—The newly-built convent of the Sisters of St. Joseph, a mile west of here, lost its wooden bell tower in a fire Friday night, but firemen checked the blaze before it spread to the main buiding. Damage was estimated at $10,000. Faulty wiring in the motor of the convent's elevator, located in the tower, was believed to have caused the blaze.

15 US Officers Get First Hand Look

OTTAWA, Aug. 18—(CP)—A group of 15 United States Army officers from Washington, arrive here Monday to begin a four-day orientation and familiarization tour of Canadian Army installations, Army headquarters said today.

The touring officers all in the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel or Colonel, work in close liaison with the Canadian Army staff in Washington. The tour is designed to give them a first hand look at Canadian Army units and organization.

They will visit Army units and establishments at Ottawa, Kingston, Camp Borden and Montreal.

Stiffen Controls

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (AP)—Price stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle disclosed plans Friday to stiffen cattle price controls and to investigate what he called growing signs of a black market. DiSalle said he is throwing a large part of the office of price stabilization enforcement staff into a drive to head off violations of price ceilings.

Angry Curator Denies Fort Errors

TORONTO, Aug. 18 — (CP) — Ronald Way, curator of Kingston's Old Fort Henry, is in a high dudgeon.

He's looking for Spencer Armitage-Stanley of Toronto, a member of the Ontario Historical Society and also of the London and Middlesex Historical Society.

Last July 5, Mr. Armitage-Stanley wrote a letter to Mayor Hiram McCallum which Thursday night was finally read to the Toronto Historical Committee — a committee advisory to the city council.

Mr. Armitage-Stanley congratulated the council on its $200,000 appropriation for the restoration of Toronto's Fort York. In passing, he mentioned that he hoped that Toronto would not repeat the "glaring errors" in restoring its fort that Kingston had done with Fort Henry.

Fort Henry was built in 1838 and was intended originally as a bastion against possible American attack.

Occupied by Imperial troops through most of the last century, it was restored four years ago to its condition of 1866 and opened to the public as a tourist attraction.

City Roused

Parts of Mr. Armitage-Stanley's letter were published—including a charge that period uniforms now worn by soldiers on guard at the fort were made of "cheap" material.

Hackles rose on necks all over Kingston.

Mr. Way, visiting in Toronto, got on the phone to the editor of The Kingston Whig-Standard.

"Glaring errors!" he snorted. "Tommyrot!

"The uniforms worn by soldiers at the fort today are identical with those worn by the original Imperial troops.

"They're made of scarlet broadcloth manufactured in England.

"And as for the fort itself, I defy anyone to put his finger on one thing that is not authentic in the restoration . . . or in the uniforms of the men."

Eight garages are now certified and the members are trying to negotiate a master agreement fixing standard rates and working conditions. Now actively negotiating are the employees of Gray's, Duffus, Deeth and White, Cliff Towle, Lillico Motors, Reuben Wilson, McWilliams Motors and Gillespie Garage.

Employees of J. K. Hughes have just been certified and will join the eight others, and an application to the OLRB has been made on behalf of the employees of Irwin-Godson. About 120 employees are affected in the 11 garages.

throat, upset stomach, sore muscles, stiff neck or back and extreme tiredness.

The convalescent stage begins when the temperature drops to normal and stays there. If any of the muscles have become paralysed or weak during the acute stage they often make a recovery or improvement during this period.

Less than 50 per cent of polio patients reach the chronic stage when muscles are permanently paralysed. However if this does happen, the patient receives rehabilitative and reconstructive treatment.

The disease is contagious about one week before the first symptoms appear and for one week afterward. That is the reason for isolation.

The most up-to-date treatment is designed to keep the patient comfortable and completely at rest. In addition, measures are taken to keep the least amount of harm from muscles whose nerve cells have been effected. The proper type of treatment can only be given in a hospital. If muscles of the respiratory system are effected the patient must have mechanical help, such as an iron lung, in order to breath.

"Polio is a serious disease," the doctor concluded," but there is definitely no reason for hysteria or panic in Peterborough. Certainly follow the precautions of good healthy living and get plenty of rest, but don't worry."

PICTURE OF COURAGE—With a cork-tipped brush handle gripped tightly between her teeth, Jane Norton, 28, of Cleveland, O., paints a masterpiece of courage and will power on a canvas above her head. Completely confined to the iron lung up to her neck for more than four years by an arterial ailment, Jane keeps busy reading, playing cards, listening to music and visiting with friends and strangers, in addition to turning out her oil paintings done in "Van Gogh daubs." For a while she tried painting with water colors, but gave it up because "I had to have too many turpentine baths."

Draft Dodgers Hop To Persuade Reds Keep Peace

PARIS, Aug. 18. (AP) — Four American youths who served jail terms rather than go to war, are trying to get behind the Iron Curtain so they can urge Communists to do likewise.

The four said Friday they would ride their bicycles across Europe to Moscow if they can get visas. So far, they added, they have had no luck in getting visas to West or East Germany, Poland or Russia.

They are David Dellinger, 34-year-old printer; Ralph di Gia, 32, bookeeper; Arthur Emery, 26, dairyman; and Bill Southerland, 29, historian.

Emery is a Quaker. The others are adherents of the Peacemakers, an organization which they said openly advises young Americans to violate the draft laws, refuse to pay that percentage of their taxes earmarked for armaments, and take other means of non-violent resistance to military preparations.

The four served prison terms ranging from one to three years for failing to register for the draft.

Formal State of War

TOKYO, Aug. 18—(Reuters)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida told the Diet today that a formal state of war would continue between Japan and those powers which did not sign the Japanese peace treaty. The treaty is due to be signed at San Francisco next month.

American Firms Extend Training For Teen-Agers

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP).—The idea of systematically training teen-agers to become business men is spreading through the United States.

Business firms in 20 states are behind the movement, known as Junior Achievement. Companies Their success is a pleasant other side of the teen-age story — an antidote to the recent accounts of narcotic addiction in high schools, of moral laxity among college athletes.

Under the junior achievement plan youngsters from 16 to 20 years of age form their own companies, sell stock in them, make and sell products, keep the books and manage the business.

Eighty per cent of the companies make a nice profit, but they do so after the young men and women have done considerable neil-chewing while they risk their own and other people's money.

On National Scale

Junior Achivement, Inc., has been promoted on a national expansion scale only since the fall of 1949. But in the school year ended in June, there were more than 2,000 such companies, manned by nearly 30,000 teen-age officers and workers. The companies are liquidated at the end of each school year, and usually the youngsters are able to vote themselves a bonus out of the profits.

Business firms backing the movement, according to the National Industrial Conference Board, aim "to give American boys and girls a positive education in owning, managing and operating their own businesses so they can learn at first hand the functions of capital, management and labor."

First Hand Experience.

Here is how junior achievement companies operate:

Each has a business firm sponsor that furnishes three advisors, one each from the accountancy, production and sales departments.

Membership is limited to 15, and there is no featherbedding. Each one has to work. They start by floating a stock issue. Each youngster must buy one 50-cent share, and can buy up to five. Then they must sell the rest around their town. They rent a "business centre," usually in a school or clubroom, or some business plant.

Junior workers meet one evening each week for two hours. At each meeting they first tackle their problems: wage increases, stepping up or cutting back producing schedules, sales volume and administering personnel— including the sometimes troublesome problem of absenteeism. Then they start working on the product they've chosen to make and sell.

These products or services run a wide range. About 40 per cent are manufacturing exterprises.

A Chicago junior company made $166 profit on plastic food bags, table cloths and cover sets.

Other junior achievement companes have ranged far afield: newspapers, baby-sitter bureaus, stenographer-service agencies, and even radio program productions for sale to local firms on community radio stations.

Africa Leading In Test Match

LONDON, Aug. 18 (Reuters)—South Africa were all out for 154 in their second innings at lunch today and England was left to score 163 to win this fifth and last cricket test match.

In the first innings, South Africa scored 202 and England 194.

England took two of the tests, South Africa one, and one was drawn.

South Africa's dismissal today was mainly the result of some fine off-spin bowling by Jim Laker. He took full advantage of a turning pitch on his home ground, the Oval, and captured six wickets for 55 runs giving him a match analysis of 10 for 119.

He was backed up at the other end by Alex Bedser who took three wickets for 32 runs with his medium-sized bowling.

Resuming this morning in briliant sunshine, South Africa had added only 16 runs when Eric Rowan was out legbefore to Laker. Rowan had made 45, the top score of the innings, in two hours.

This was a vital wicket for England because Rowan—55 in the first innings—is a hard man to dismiss.

Apart from Jack Cheetham and Roy McLean, both of whom scored 18, and Mike Melle, their successful fast bowler yesterday who bats No. 10 and made 17, the remaining South Africans could offer little resistance to the keen England attack and fielding.

Rainmakers Find No Clouds To Seed

VANCOUVER, Aug. 17—(CP)—Four rain-making scientists who flew here aboard the RCAF Ice Wagon plane sunned themselves Friday under cloudless skies.

A weather office spokesman said he held little hope of any downpour from efforts of the big flying laboratory and its dry ice seeding equipment.

"They need clouds to work with," he said, "and we can't find any."

Forecasts are for sunny skies for hundreds of miles, 73-degree temperature and plenty of sunshine.

Summer Theatre On Lake Simcoe Thriving Group

JACKSON'S POINT, Ont.—(CP)—The wind and the rain may enter, but the show must go on at the big "Red Barn Theatre."

If it didn't the 300 vacationists who come nightly to see one of Canada's best-known summer theatre groups in action would be sadly disappointed.

They drive up to see fast-paced presentations of Broadway play, light comedy, character study, or high-keyed melodrama.

This summer the Canadian Repertory Theatre—a group which plays at Ottawa in the winters—is featuring comedy selections at the Red Barn. They started off with Leslie Howard's "Elizabeth Sleeps Out" and followed with the movie favorite, "Born Yesterday."

The group doesn't attempt many Canadian plays because of the financial risk involved, but it does train Canadian actors.

Promising Talent

Flashing-eyed Daphne Goldrick of Vancouver is a newcomer among the Red Barn players. She came to London, Ont., last May with the Vancouver Repertory Players to play the lead in "Therese" at the Dominion Drama Festival.

She wanted to "Play Stock" so she stayed behind when the rest of her company returned to the coast. She hopes to find other opportunities to continue her acting when the season closes.

Other young Canadians who hope eventually to reach the "big time" through summer stock are Derek Ralson, also of Vancouver, Michael Gardner and Henry Gamer of Montreal and Barbara Field and Phyllis Malcolm-Stewart of Toronto.

Timothy Moxon of London, England, hopes to move on to Hollywood after the Red Barn doors close at the end of the summer.

Credit for organizing the Red Barn Theatre goes to Brian Doherty, a Toronto theatre man. He sold Amelia Hall, Bruce Raymond and Silvio Narizzano on the idea two years ago.

The show's gone on—except in the winters—ever since.

New Bow River Dam Will Aid Big Area

VAUXHALL, Alta. (CP)—Work is scheduled to start soon on a gigantic dam on the Bow River in Southern Alberta, to form a 12-mile reservoir of water for parched farmlands.

The Travers Dam, bigger than the St. Mary River Dam opened in July, is the keystone of a project to resettle farmers from the southern dry areas on 10,000 acres of irrigated land.

About 100 farmers and their families will be settled with 100 miles of roads to be built and hundreds of miles of irrigation pipes to be installed to service their farms.

Prairie farm rehabilitation officials say the plan is part of an over-all scheme to open up thousands of acres of dry farmland in the Lethbridge-Medicine Hat area.

IN NEW BATTLE — Gen. James Wolfe won Canada for the British in 1759, but will he capture Toronto? That city is in a dither as to whether the statue, shown here as it rests in a Brooklyn junkyard while Toronto makes up its mind, should be purchased for $5,000 and placed on refurbished University Avenue. Freight charges would be $3,000 and a suitable granite base would cost $30,000. Apart from the expense, many Torontonians think Wolfe wouldn't be suitable for the broad avenue of which they are proud. The 10-feet two-ton bronze figure came off a New York building and was offered to Toronto whose Board of Control authorized its purchase. But city council, yielding to public outcry, may overrule the board and turn down what has been termed the "bargain-basement statue."

AND THE CAISSONS GO ROLLING ALONG—Graphic evidence that the Korean war goes on, despite weeks of negotiations, is found at this UN salvage point, where tens of thousands of empty shell casings are collected to be reshaped and reissued to the artillery. Korean youngsters are helping G.I.'s load the valuable casings on to a truck. The mountain of brass was piled up during a recent salvage drive by the Tenth Corps.

Amazing Browns Shellack All-Stars 33-0

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18 (AP). — Word was out that old age was seeping into the marrow of the Cleveland Browns and the 1951 National Football League season would see them knocked from the pinnacle.

All that has been revised today.

With the gusto and vigor of college kids, the amazing Browns sandbagged the collegiate all-stars 33-0 Friday night to open the US football season officially before 92,180 fans in Soldier Field. An estimated 50 million more saw the game on television.

The Browns scored a ridiculously-easy triumph over an inept bunch of graduated campus stars who never came within 45 yards of the goal line.

Such "old men" as Otta Graham, Marion Motley, Mac Speedie Dante Lavelli, Lou Groza, Lou Rymkus, Bill Willis and Lin Houston—all pressing 30 or more — gave the collegians the second-worst beating ever absorbed in the 18-year history of the series.

Graham completed 18 to 31 passes for 269 yards and two touchdowns—14 yards to Lavelli to cap a 42-yard surge in four plays; and eight yards to Emerson Cole to end a 32-yard push in three plays.

Dub Jones scampered 105 yards in 12 carries, scoring on six and three-yard stabs to climax touchdown drives of 56 and 62 yards.

The 1950 campus heroes didn't even penetrate beyond midfield until late in the fourth quarter.

Not In Any Hurry

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 18 (AP) —There isn't any haste in naming a new baseball commissioner, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, said today as he departed for the meeting of Major League club owner at New York Tuesday. "I don't know whether or not we'll name one Tuesday," Webb said, "but I won't let them hurry into it and get the wrong man."

Boa Wins Medal For Third Year

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGES, South March, Ont., Aug. 18 (CP) — A 27-year-old 48th Highlanders officer from Toronto Friday won the King's Medal for the third consecutive year at the 83rd annual Dominion of Canada Rifle Association shoot.

Lieut. Gilmour S. Boa, who brought back the King's prize from Bisley this year after an an absence of 22 years, posted the highest score in the match, fired in four stages.

The remaining standings in the match were not immediately compiled by the statistical office.

Lieut. Boa carded a score of 182 of the possible 200. His score was seven points off his last year's record of 189.

Earlier FO. Tommy Gregory of Moncton, NB, won the silver ice tub and the silver cross in the grand and all comers' aggregate.

He posted the highest aggregate scores during the week in Tilton, Connaught, Banker's, MacDougall, MacDonald, the qualifying stage of the Governor-General's match and the 200-yard range in the city of Ottawa match.

He further added to his winnings in the grand aggregate by posting a 47 of a possible 50 from the 900-yard range in the city of Ottawa match. The grand aggregate is figured by adding the results of the longer range to the all-comers' aggregate.

A perfect shot with a No. 6 iron gave Dr. Lloyd D. Saunders a hole-in-one Friday at the 145 yard 10th hole of the Mississauga Golf Club Toronto.

Niagara Jump Been Postponed

DANSVILLE, NY, Aug. 18. — (AP)—Bernarr MacFadden Friday put off plans for his parachute jump over Niagara Falls today.

The 83-year-old physical culturist said he still planned to make the trip, but wanted more time to make sure the stunt would be absolutely safe.

He set Aug. 25 as a tentative date for the jump. This is the same day Leslie Sander, New York carpenter, says he will go over the Canadian falls in a barrel.

MacFadden previously had planned to make the jump today, as a celebration of his 83rd birthday. He was 83 Friday, but always observes his birthday on the nearest Saturday.

The Ontario Government has banned shooting the falls since the death of William (Red) Hill in his attempt to shoot the falls in a barrel a few weeks ago.

Forty-eight youngsters went into the ring—33 of them from the Almahurst farm of Henry H. Knight. Knight horses brought the four highest prices and sold for a total of $362,900, or an average of $10,999.

The top price was $34,000, paid by L. J. Collins of Lancaster, O., for a chestnut colt by Mahmoud out of Forever Yours.

The sales brought the average price for the four nights to $6,213, compared with an average of $4,613 for the first four nights last year.

May Put Newhouser On Disabled List

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18 (AP) — Hal Newhouser of Detroit Tigers may go on the disabled list.

Manager Red Rolfe said today after his ace lefthander found his arm still paining him in a practice warmup.

Rolfe said he would confer with general manager Charley Gehringer on the possibility of retiring Newhouser as "disabled" so that the Tigers could bring up a replacement.

Newhouser hasn't pitched since July 15 when he failed to last two innings against Washington. His last of six victories was over the Chicago White Sox July 4, 6-3. He has six defeats.

The Tigers are paying Newhouser a reported $42,000 a year.

Blewett Farm Inspected By 125 Farmers

F. C. Paterson, agricultural representative, was delighted with the attendance of farmers Thursday evening at the Harry Blewett farm on Chemong Road.

"Around 125 or more turned out, and with better weather I think we would have had more than 200," he said. "We certainly appreciated their interest."

The speaker was Prof. N. R. Richards of O.A.C. who was accompanied by Len Webber also of the soils department of the College who designed the management plan of the farm in 1947. Some time after his completion of the Blewett plan, Mr. Webber was stricken with poliomyelitis, was for a long time convalescent, but is now continuing his work, although requiring crutches to get around.

A welcome to the attending company was expressed by M. H. Johnston, chairman of the county agricultural committee, and Robert Armstrong of Cavan, president of the local Crop Improvement Association.

Prof. Richards emphasized the importance to farmers of soil management, and also of the practical realization of problem, of soil erosion. Peterborough district, he said, was not in any worst position than other sections of the province where land had been neglected and abused, resulting in a decline of fertility.

Soil had been permitted to become compacted to the point that for underdrainage tile lines were being laid a rod apart as compared with the usual three to four rods.

Prof. Richards stressed tilth and humus, strongly recommended plowing in clovers as green manure, and also the use of fertilizers. He spoke, too, of the helpful services that were available to farmers in soil testing and farm planning.

Secret Of Oil Deposits Puzzles Quebec Experts

QUEBEC, Aug. 18. (CP)—Presence of oil in Gaspe is something of a puzzle of Quebec geologists.

There are known deposits of iron ore, copper, lead and zinc. But the oil is an ancient mystery. You can spot traces of it almost everywhere in the eastern end of the peninsula, yet no one knows exactly where it comes from.

Bears roaming Galt township use a yellowish-green oil lying around in puddles as a sort of insecticide. At least, that's how geologists explain patches of oil on trees. They think the bears roll themselves in the oil and then work it into their skin by rubbing against the trees.

Various wells have been drilled in several townships since 1860, but none of these ventures, many of them costly, have proved commercially successful.

Offer New Theories

The geologists now believe the earlier drillers did not know enough about the stone formations, and offer new theories based on detailed examinations.

On the north side of Gaspe Bay farmers frequently plow up lumps of iron ore. This led geologists to Battery Point where traces of ore "of an unusually high iron content" were found.

In Blanchet township, adjoining Galt, narrow veins of asbestos have been spotted in an area practically unknown to prospectors.

And vast deposits of copper ore have been outlined. But Gaspe oil remains an intriguing problem.

This is some of the information crammed into a 168-page geological report on Eastern Gaspe published this year by the Quebec Government.

Although the information was collected a few years ago the contents of the survey are news to many people, including most mining companies.

The survey was done by Quebec's three top government geologists—I. W. Jones, H. W. McGerrigle and R. A. Brown—between 1937 and 1940.

It actually covers about one-sixth of the peninsula, the section most accessible to Gaspe's salt water harbor.

Holland county's great copper ore deposits, to be developed by Noranda Mines Ltd., lie just outside the boundaries of this survey. Other possible sources of copper are mentioned.

Gaspe is one of the last regions in Quebec to be studied for mineral possibilities. But oddly enough, one of the earliest dates in Canadian mining history is connected with it. In 1665, the French explored and tried to develop lead and zinc deposits, but without success.

Now the colorful area is on the eve of widespread commercial development of its ancient riches.

Truce Talks Snag On New Crisis, Patrol Ambushed

TOKYO, Aug. 20. (AP)—The Allies said tonight the ambush of a Chinese patrol in the Kaesong neutral zone may have been the work of "partisans of either side" who want to wreck Korean armistice talks. North Korean Lt.-Gen. Nam Il, chief Red cease-fire delegate, Sunday sharply accused the Allies of violating the zone with gunfire that killed one Communist soldier and wounded another. He made the accusation in a message to Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy, senior United Nations delegate, and demanded "a satisfactory reply immediately."

Joy flew here from Munsan, Korea, Sunday night and conferred today with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Allied Supreme Commander.

In Civilian Garb

Ridgway's headquarters said tonight in a statement:

"Preliminary questioning of witnesses has disclosed that many of the assailants were dressed in civilian clothing and did not wear steel helmets or other military garb.

"Some witnesses stated that a great number of the participants were civilians, who may be partisans of either side who are intent on sabotaging the efforts of the delegations to arrive at a satisfactory armistice negotiation."

The statement said Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Commander of the US Eighth Army, is continuing a full investigation of the shooting, suplementing an investigation by UN and Communist liaison officers.

In Korea earlier, the UN Command suggested that an armed band of Korean Red guerrillas may have violated the zone by firing on a Chinese platoon policing the area.

The statement said it might have been a deliberate move by "politically-guided" Korean Red civilians to break the armistice

Black Hawks Pay $75,000 For 6 Players

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 —(AP) — Chicago Black Hawks, in the biggest cash deal in National Hockey League history, today bought six players from the champion Detroit Red Wings for $75,000.

The players are forwards Jim Peters, Jim McFadden, George Gee and Max McNab and defencemen Clare Martin and Clarence Raglan.

Besides the money the Red Wings will acquire rights to a young Black Hawk player to be named later.

Manager Eddie Goodfellow, of the Hawks, said he recommended the deal to William J. Tobin, president of the Chicago club, to remedy defects in defence. Hawks had one of the weakest defences in the league last season.

With Canadiens

Peters, 29, a native of Verdun, Que., entered the NHL with Montreal Canadiens in the 1945-46 season after one season with Springfield of the American Hockey League and three years in the Canadian armed forces. He rolled up a total of 38 points in last season's play with Detroit.

McFadden, born in Ireland, started his professional hockey career with Portland of the Pacific Coast League in 1939. He was out of professional hockey for five years until he joined Buffalo of the AHL in the 1946-47 season. He scored 32 points last season.

The Stratford-born Gee played with Sudbury Frood Mines before he entered professional hockey with Kansas City of the old American Hockey Association 10 years ago. After three years with the Canadian armed forces he rejoined Kansas City, then of the United States Hockey League, in 1945. That same season he went with Chicago and in 1948-49 went to Detroit.

McNab, who comes from Watson, Sask., last played amateur hockey with Saskatoon Elks. He went to Indianapolis of the AHL in 1946 and in the same season played with Omaha of the USHL. He has been with Detroit since 1947.

Martin played with the old Boston Oylmpics and began professional hockey with Boston Bruins in 1941. After three years with the armed forces, the Waterloo, Ont., native returned to hockey with Hearshey Bears of the AHL. He went with Detroit in the 1949-50 season.

Raglan, at 24 the youngest of the group sold, last played amateur hockey with Quebec Aces of the Quebec Senior Hockey League. He went to Indianapolis in the 1949-50 season. He was born in Pembroke.

Iranians Ask For Meeting

TEHRAN, Aug. 20 (Reuters).—Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh shot a ray of optimism into Iran's tottering oil negotiations with Britain today by saying he is "still hopeful we'll be able to find a settlement."

"Things look better today than Sunday," the ailing Premier told reporters, many of whom had just about concluded that talks to settle the fate of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company had reached another impasse.

Mossadegh held a press conference after a 3½-hour meeting with Richard Stokes, Lord Privy Seal and leader of the British oil mission, and W. Avarell Harriman President Truman's special representative who has been trying to reconcile the two sides.

Earlier Harriman had been reported as holding the view that only a last-minute compromise could avert a breakdown. Stokes had been pictured as ready to pack up and go home.

Mossadegh told reporters that Iran had asked Britain to fix the time for another meeting.

Stockholm Hotel Damaged By Fire

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 20 (AP) — Fire raged today on the upper floor of Stockholm's Grand Hotel, biggest and most famous hostelry in Sweden.

Part of the roof caved in and at least 50 rooms were damaged by fire and water.

There were no reports of casualties among guests, most of whom usually are foreigners.

14 Men Start Work Removing Explosives

TIMMINS, Aug. 20 (CP)—Fourteen men early today entered the strike-bound Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mine to remove 22 tons of explosives stored underground. They were not insured.

Officials of United Steelworkers of America (CIO-CCL), meanwhile, awaited word from Lloyds of London as to whether it will accept an application for $50,000 insurance on each man. The union said Sunday that all Canadian accident insurance companies had turned down the application.

A provincial mines inspector several days ago ordered the 900 cases of blasting powder and fuses removed before action of moisture on the explosives caused a dangerous situation.

Get 5 Extra Minutes Of Princess' Time

BRANFORD, Aug. 20 (CP)—Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip will spend 20 minutes instead of 15 when they visit Brantford Oct. 7, city officials said today.

The information came in a telegram from the parliamentary committee handling arrangements for the royal tour.

Mayor Howard E. Winter had asked W. Ross MacDonald, Speaker in the House of Commons, to intervene on the city's behalf for time enough to allow a motor tour of the downtown area.

Although the telegram mentioned nothing about the tour, city officials decided the tour likely would be permitted if they proceed with plans.

Republicans Ask Korea Be Unified

Democrats Defend Truman Policy In Far Eastern War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. — (AP) — Democrats today defended President Truman's Far Eastern policies and assailed a Republican assertion that any final peace which leaves Korea divided would be a "delusion."

Eight Republicans, in a weekend report on the inquiry into the buster of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, called for "liberation and unification" of Korea.

They blamed what they labelled "appeasement" policies of Truman and State Secretary Dean Acheson for the loss of China to the Communists. They said the Yalta agreement spawned most of America's difficulties with Communism in Asia.

Unofficial Answer

Answering unofficially, Senator Lester Hunt (Dem., Wyo.) said that if the eight Republicans, headed by Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire—want to risk a third world war by "excessive" demands in Korea, they ought to say so flatly.

H criticized an assertion in the report that a settlement south of the Yalu River border of Manchuria would "admit the success of Chinese aggressors."

Senator Harry Cain (Rep., Wash.), one of the authors of the report,, told a reporter he and others aren't contending that a cease-fire agreement must provide for complete withdrawal of the Reds from Korea.

"But there will be no permanent peace short of the unification of Korea," he said. "We will be kidding ourselves if we believe there will be."

The joint committee voted last Friday not to issue a report to the Senate on the long investigation. It was decided, however, to let individual members of the inquiry committee file a statement of their views.

6 Forest Fires In Sudbury Area

TORONTO, Aug. 20 — (CP) — Six forest fires are burning in the Sudbury-Cochrane district, officials of the Department of Lands and Forests said today. Three have been brought under control, and three are still unchecked.

Only other forest fire in Ontario still not under control is burning in the White River district, the department said.

A fire in the Port Arthur district had been fought to the "control state."

Seven forest fires broke out in the last 24 hours, most of them caused by lightning.

Danger of forest fires was described as "medium" throughout the province, except in the Sudbury-Cochrane area, where it is high.

Red Youth Festival Ends In Blaze Of Hate For West

BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Communist Youth Festival ended in a blaze of hate for the West Sunday night with 500,000 blue-shirted youth chanting allegiance to Stalin.

They crowded buses and trains for their homes behind the Iron Curtain today leaving a weary Berlin to clean up after the two-week long 'peace" demonstration.

Despite the outward show of Red strength among the world's young people, official Western observers said they would report to their governments that the festival was a "near disaster" for Communism in Germany.

They drew three main conclusions from the activities of the last weeks, during which about 2,000,000 Red-indoctrinated Rids visited East Berlin. At least 1,000,000 of these are estimated to have visited the West to sightsee, for political reasons or just to pick up a square meal at one of the United States or British canteens.

1. East German Communist youths were exposed to West Berlin in such numbers, and liked it so well that they may flood their homes behind the Iron Curtain with pro-Western feeling.

2. Many delegates from the satellite countries, restricted to the Soviet sector of divided Berlin, were impressed by the fact that the cause of Communism has been stopped cold at the border and hasn't the ideological strength to push westward.

3. The lack of enthusiasm among German youth cast a sharp reflection on the party indoctrination work and the men responsible for it.

The festival ended after two hours of feverish anti-Western speeches Sunday night with an oath-taking rite reminiscent of Nazi mysticism.

The youths were told to vow to "wreck the criminal plans of the Western warmakers."

"We swear it, we swear it!" they chanted three times in unison, raising their clenched fists in the Red salute as searchlights played on a giant portrait of Stalin.

US Marines Lick British Troops At Cricket After Rules Radically So Boys Get Break

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, Aug. 20 (AP). — The United States Marines, who proclaim they can lick anybody at anything, beat the British troops at cricket Sunday.

Well, anyway, it was a kind of cricket.

The rules were radically altered, "to give everyone a good knock, you know," and both teams ended up with minus scores.

Lieut. Jack Schofield of Newcastle, England and the Royal Northumberland Fusiliers, led the British team. It was he who tampered with the sacred rules of Britain's traditional game.

Each batsman was allowed 10 minutes at the wicket, instead of just standing there until he was bowled out. Thus a batsman could make several outs for each of which he lost 10 points.

(They never heard of anything like that at Lord's or the Oval.)

The first pair of Marine batsmen were Cpl. Lyle Grantham of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Cpl. John Moullette of Camden, NJ.

They lost 35 points. From there the Marines got worse.

But umpire Arthur Faulks of Birmingham, England, bore up bravely.

When the Marines finished their turn they were 64 points in the hole. (Only the official scorer knows where the odd points came from, and he's trying to forget.)

The British team rose to the challenge.

By great effort they managed to lose 103 points.

The game was played at a British rest camp.

Peterborough Flier, Cadets Meet Royal Family At Historic Balmoral Castle

EDINBURGH, Aug. 20. (CP)—The thrill of a lifetime came Sunday to 25 Canadian air cadets on a three-week tour of Britain when they were received by the King and Queen and other members of the Royal family at historic Balmoral Castle. The cadets, representing every province, visited the Royal estate for nearly an hour while the King, Queen, Princess Elizabeth, the Duke of Edinburgh and Princess Margaret chatted and shook hands with them.

Also presented were the accompanying officials, Donald R. MacLaren, of Vancouver, representing the Air Cadet League of Canada, Sqdn. Ldr. R. F. Milne, Winnipeg, Sqdn. Ldr. H. S. Greene, Montreal, and Flt. Lt. Al Marshall, RCAF public relations representative from Peterborough.

The cadets, who earlier had attended church with the Royal family in Crathie, were greeted at the castle by the King, sun-tanned from his Scottish holiday and wearing the kilt of the Stewart clan. The smiling Queen wore a powder-blue dress on which was pinned the diamond Maple Leaf presented her during their 1939 tour of Canada.

Interested In Wings

The King and Princess Margaret showed particular interest in the distinctive wings worn by the cadets.

As cameras clicked the Royal family mingled informally among the boys inquiring about their present tour and reminiscing about their visit to Canada.

"I remember very clearly our visit to Manitoba,' the Queen told Flt. Sgt. John Schioler of Winnipeg. "It was in your home city where we had the only experience of rain during our Canadian visit."

Then turning to the group generally she said:

"We are delighted to see you in Britain and sincerely hope you are enjoying your stay. The King and I enjoyed very much our visit to the Dominion before the war and I do hope we will be able to visit Canada again before long."

Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh questioned several

South Koreans Drive Off Reds

US EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 20 (AP).—South Korean infantrymen using hand grenades and bayonets knocked stubbornly-defending Communists off four hills in Eastern Korea today.

The South Koreans were within 100 yards of the top of two other hills.

Bitter hand-to-hand fights flared along the front from Kumhwa to the east coast.

There have been no full-scale assaults by either side since cease-fire talks started in Kaesong July 10. But the Eighth Army said today the Reds have suffered 9,590 casualties in the last three weeks.

The Eighth Army said also that South Koreans are doing the Allied fighting on the east and east central fronts, supported by US naval vessels on the east coast, heavy air strikes and United Nations artillery.

Air war flared again during the weekend. Jet fighters clashed in three swirling battles Saturday and Sunday. The Fifth Air Force said two Russian-made MIG-15s were destroyed, one probably destroyed and six damaged. All Allied planes returned safely.

16 Tons Of Brass On Trailer Stolen

HAMILTON, Aug. 20 (CP). — A tractor-trailer loaded with 16 tons of brass was stolen today from the warehouse garage of the Carwil Transport Company here. Total value of the loss is estimated at $24,000 by company officials.

The thieves broke into the warehouse early today, stole the tractor and drove it out into the company's yard, where the brass-loaded trailer was located.

After hooking the trailer, the thieves drove away with their loot.

Police believe that the tractor and trailer will be ditched and an attempt made to sell the brass.

Say East Prussia Bristles With Troops

HAMBURG, Germany, Aug. 20 (AP)—East Prussia is bristling with Soviet troops and the city of Koenigsberg has been banned to civilians, the West German Refugee Organization, Goettingen workers circle, claimed today.

The organization quoted refugees who have recently crossed from the Soviet zone.

The East Germans reported huge Russian convoys rumbling down the highways ,and vast camps of soldiers, most of them appearing to be Mongolian or Tartar.

Military manoeuvres, they said, are being held constantly.

Quadruplets Born

BROMLEY, England, Aug. 20 (AP)—Quads—two boys and two girls—were born today to 27-year-old Mrs. Muriel Brenda Brown, wife of a garage mechanic. The Browns have one other child. The mother and all four additions were reported doing well.

Watch House All Night Then Attack

Peterborough Police Send Help As Constable Shot

DALRYMPLE, Ont., Aug. 20. (Staff) — After 10 tear gas bombs were thrown into his home at 6:45 this morning, police subdued a deranged farmer, Lyle Thompson, 42, who Sunday shot at and wounded a county constable. The officer, Constable John Dixon, had tried to arrest Thompson on a charge of being mentally ill.

Dalrymple is 16 miles east of Orillia and in the northernmost part of Victoria county.

After the arrest, Provincial Police, who had surrounded the house all night, whisked him away to Victoria County jail in Lindsay, where he awaits transfer to the Ontario Hospital at Whitby.

Three provincial policemen, constable Fred Rawlings of Fenelon Falls, constable Al Edwards and constable Gordon Langton of Minden with county constable Dixon entered Thompson's farmyard Sunday with a neighbor farmer, Victor Beaumont. Thompson then was sitting quietly in his own car. Suddenly he wheeled on the officers with a knife, just missing one.

The policemen, not wanting to disturb Thompson further, started to leave the barnyard but Thompson came out of the house with a double barrel shotgun. He blasted the civilian car from close in. Nine pellets struck the car and Constable John Dixon was wounded in the right hip.

Immediately Constable Rawlings radioed for more help.

Send Out SOS

From Minden, Lindsay, Fenelon Falls, Beaverton, Peterborough, Bowmanville, Cobourg, Brighton and Ajax provincial police answered the call. They took up positions around the house with Sgt. Stanley Palmateer of Peterborough in charge, assisted by Constable John Baker, instructor of tear gas at the police college.

Thompson warned them that he was prepared to shoot it out as the police took shelter behind trees, brush and weeds.

Begin Canadian Courts Martial

WEST SECTOR, Korea, Aug. 20 (CP) — Three Canadian army colonels reached Korea by plane Saturday to begin the courts martial of three Canadian soldiers for murder and assault. They are charged with killing a Korean man last March.

Col. W. Clement Dick, of Toronto, said the trials will start at Seoul as soon as possible. The other members of the court are Col. C. B. Ware, of London and Calgary, and Col. A. G. Chubb, of Rossland, BC.

Brig. John M. Rockingham, Commander of the 25th Brigade, told the Canadian Press that the dates and sequence of the trials remained to be set after a conference of his staff officers responsible but that he expected to announce the dates shortly.

Hurricane Deaths Reach 109 Across Jamaica

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 20. (CP)—The toll of known dead from the weekend's savage hurricane rose to 109 today and is expected to go higher as reports trickle in from rural areas. Workers toiled under a blazing sun to restore communications, electric power and transport, knocked out by the 130-mile-an-hour blow which struck Friday night and Saturday morning. The storm, worst in the island's 300-year history, caused at least £20,000,000 damage. The wind blew down crops in the field and torrents of rain destroyed sugar bagged and ready to market.

The casualty figures showed that 50 died in the capital, Kingston, and the rest in the outlying areas.

The historic cities of Spanish Town, Port Royal and Morant Bay—famous in pirate lore—were completely laid waste.

Not a house in this city of 200,000 escaped damage.

Restoring Water Supply

The water supply is being restored only gradually and food requiring refrigeration is rapidly spoiling in the tropic heat of this Caribbean British colony.

There was no report of the 70 prisoners who escaped from the Kingston jail during the storm, but there was no unusual criminal activity on the island. Various scenes of looting were reported here, but they were apparently indulged in by a broad cross-section of the population.

Linda Darnell, on location for a movie in Western Jamaica, was reported safe.

A United Sttaes Navy plane reported damage appeared heaviest on the south coast and not so serious in the northern and western resort areas.

Open Fund

Sir Hugh Foot, Governor of the island, opened a fund to help sufferers. Lady Foot, head of the local Red Cross, began relief work for the hungry and homeless.

The banana crop was reported 90 per cent destroyed and staggering damage was done to the island's sugar and cocoanuts.

Local supplies of food and of building supplies appear satisfactory, at least for the present, but the picture meeting the eye is one of ruin and havoc.

Heads For Yucatan

The swirling Caribbean hurricane lashed across the Yucatan Peninsula early today and headed for the Gulf of Mexico.

Its force was slightly lessened as it slammed across land, but the weather bureau here said it prob-

Boat Sliced In Two Three Tourists Hurt

ORILLIA, Aug. 20 (CP)—Three US tourists were injured, one seriously, when a large motorboat sliced a smaller boat in two on Lake Simcoe here Saturday.

The accident happened when the large boat, driven by David Lipman swerved to pick up a surf boat rider it had been towing.

Seriously injured was Margaret Bickell, of Pennsylvania, who was run over by Lipman's boat. Released after hospital treatment were her two companions, Louise Brethelle and her brother, Fred, also from Pennsylvania.

Rex Gaudaur, of Orillia, helped Lipman rescue the injured from the water.

Aliens Smuggled Into US Dangerous 5th Column

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—(AP)—Senator Pat McCarran (Dem.-Nev.) said today a massive illegal infiltration of aliens into the United States is "potentially more dangerous" than an armed invasion.

The influx would provide an enemy country "a ready-made fifth column," McCarran said.

Secret testimony of immigration officials, he said in a statement, showed:

1. Aliens illegally in the United States are countable in the millions, and may total 5,000,000.

2. Among them are "militant Communists, Sicilian bandits and other criminals" "in vast numbers."

3. The immigration service has made only small effort to locate and deport these unwanted foreigners because of a variety of factors, including lack of staff and money.

McCarran's statement accompanied a report to the Senate by a sub-committee which he heads in an investigation of subversive activities.

Another member of the subcommittee, Senator Herbert O'Connor (Dem.-Md.) said in a separate statement that Windsor, Ont., and Cuba are assembly points for aliens seeking illegal entry into the U.S. He said arrests for attempted entry from Mexico total 500,000 a year.

The sub-committee report quoted C. H. Pennington, chief of the immigratio service's New York investigation staff, as testifying about rich and powerful alien smuggling rings, well organized and aided by high-powered lawyers skilled at finding loopholes in the laws.

$100,000 Fire Sweeps Belleville Area

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 20—(CP)—An estimated $100,000 damage was caused Saturday night by fire that gutted a cement block structure housing Everett H. Black's transport company, Lecithian Products of Canada, Soybean Oil Producers, and Welding Gases and Supply of Canada.

Drums of soybean oil and welding gas cylinders exploded, tearing off part of the roof and hurling debris over a wide area.

The blaze was brought under control after an hour and a half.

Find Body

At the same time, body of Wilfred Ferguson, 36-year-old laborer was found on a chesterfield in the smoking ruins of his three-room shack after firemen had extinguished a blaze in the building.

Ferguson was believed to have burned to death, but an autopsy was being held and provincial police and the fire marshal's department were conducting an investigation. A preliminary inquest was scheduled for tomorrow. Police said two wine bottles were found beside the chesterfield.

A woman who lived with Ferguson was not in the shack when neighbors reported the fire. Police refused to disclose her name. Firemen had the fire under control in about 20 minutes

Rocket Explodes Near Trenton

TRENTON, Aug. 20—(CP)—A rocket attached to the wing of a standing RCAF training plane fired prematurely Sunday, roared over the nearby Air Force station and dug a large crater in a field 1½ miles away.

Airmen at the station said the rocket would have landed here had the plane been pointed in a different direction.

Air Force officials said no one was near the plane when the rocket fired. It was one of four atached to the plane and was intended for bombing practice over Lake Ontario.

Ship Explosion Kills 22 Men

SINGAPORE, Aug. 20 (CP) — Two explosions aboard the Shell Oil Company tanker Dromus today killed 22 men and injured 30 others. Two are missing and it is feared they were trapped in the flaming ship.

The blasts and fire killed three of the 8,036-ton ship's British officers and more than half her Chinese crew.

Capt. H. G. Watkins, who was ashore when the explosion occurred, said he did not know what caused it.

The Dromus burned fiercely for six hours but except for a brief fire on the wharf the flames did not spread to the island, where 250,000 tons of oil is in storage.

UK Air Secretary Will Visit Canada

OTTAWA, Aug. 20 — (CP) — Arthur Henderson, British Secretary of State for Air, is to arrive in Canada Aug. 23 for a week's visit, the Defence Department announced today.

Mr. Henderson's itinerary includes visits to air force stations in the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba. He will also hold brief talks with the cabinet defence committee and the chiefs of staff committee.

The British Air Scretary will be accompanied by Air Chief Marshal Sir Leslie Hollinghurst, member of the Air Council responsible for personnel.

600 Veterans In Korea Coming Home To Build Paratroop Force

OTTAWA, Aug. 20. (CP)—Canada wants 600 battle-tried Korean veterans to come home to help build up a second paratroop formation expected to come into being for Canadian defence "within a few months." The Army already has called for volunteers. From Korea has come word that commanding officers predict the total will be reached in 48 hours. This movement homeward will be separate from the "rotation" double-shuffle under which—starting next month—the first men will start to come back from Korea and be replaced by men from the first paratroop formation at home. First to come back are men of the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricias Canadian Light Infantry.

Under the system, a man qualifies for return home after a year abroad or less if his staying there involves more than one winter. The bulk of the 25th Brigade now there will winter there.

The twin announcements were made Sunday. Between them, they will probably bring more than 1,000 men home by Christmas.

Cut In Heavily

They mean the army will be dipping heavily into the 23rd Airborne Brigade, the home-defence paratroop formation the government declined to send to Korea last summer, to replace men coming back under the so-called "rotation policy."

The apparent aim is eventually to replace the 2nd (25th Brigade) battalions of three regiments now in Korea with 1st Battalions (23rd Brigade) now at home and to re-establish the 2nd Battalions at home as paratroop units.

With 44,000 men in army uniform and others enlisting at the rate of 1,000 a month, the government apparently feels it is possible now to turn the Mobile Striking Force—name of the formation trained in Arctic and airborne warfare for Canadian defence — from a one-formation outfit to a two-formation outfit. They would be the 23rd Brigade and a replacement group for it.

Rotation Policy

The "rotation" policy briefly is this:

Starting next month, these men of the 25th Brigade's 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry who qualify will start moving homeward. To qualify, they must have at least eight months including one winter in Korea. About 500 of the 900 men with the battalion now qualify.

The bulk of the 25th Brigade, however, will spend this winter in Korea because they didn't get there until spring. They will come home as soon as possible next year.

The men will move by companies.

To replace those Patricias who come home the army will send two of the four rifle companies, Headquarters Company and certain other troops from the 1st (23rd Brigade) Battalion of the Patricias and later will send the support company of the 1st Battalion and a rifle company from the 3rd (Replacement Group) Battalion at Wainwright, Alta.

Start In September

This movement will start in September or early October.

The same system will be followed in rotating the other 2nd Battalions with their 1st Battalions.

Those men who volunteer for paratroop training must pass medical checks and re-enlist for three years in the regular army and then they will be flown home about 50 a week, given 30 days leave and report to Rivers, Man., for paratroop training.

The aim, said the announcement, is to have them trained as paratroopers by the time their own units come back from Korea next year and assume an operational role in Canada."

3 New Records At Air Races

DETROIT, Aug. 20 (AP) — Keepers of American and world records began rewriting their books today, because no less than three speed marks were cracked during the weekend in the national air races.

Only one record, civilian or military, withstood assaults in what experts agreed was the "greatest demonstration of air power in history."

Col. Fred J. Ascani of Rockford, Ill., broke the world and American records for a 100-kilometre (62-mile) closed course Sunday in the Thompson trophy race. Flying an F-86 Sabre jet fighter, Ascani averaged 628.698 miles an hour, compared with a world record of 605.230 miles an hour established in 1948 by a British-made Sapphire.

In a Friday warmup, Col. Ascani averaged 635.411 miles an hour in a run officially timed by the National Aeronautics Association. NAA officials said this would be certified to the Federation Aeronautic Internationale for a world's record for a closed course.

Col. Keith K. Compton of St. Joseph, Mo., set a transcontinental Bendix Trophy record with an average speed of 553.761 in a Sabre, flying between Muroc air base, Calif., and Detroit. The former Bendix record of 529.614 miles an hour was set in 1949 by Maj. Vernon A. Ford, Jr.

Paul Jones of Van Nuys, Calif., won the Continental Trophy for midget planes for the second straight year in record-breaking time. He averaged 197.218 miles an hour for the 37½-mile course.

The old Continental record which Jones set last year was 187.785.

The only record to withstand assault was the Allison Trophy race, won by Lieut. William D. Beasley, of San Francisco and Austin, Tex.

The Pearl and the Price

Most people know the parable of the "pearl of great price," and the man who sold all that he had to buy it (Matt. 1346).

Have you ever asked yourself what it meant?

The "price" is our surrender of the afflictive human thinking causing our troubles. How to give up these human fears, how to grasp and find freedom would indeed be "the pearl."

The way of this liberating understanding is explained fully in the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. Whoever will put its statements to the test will find this great Science of Christianity to be demonstrable.

Science and Health may be read or obtained at all Christian Science Reading Rooms. The coupon is also for your use.

Canadians Join In Dieppe Memorial

HASTINGS, Eng., Aug. 20 — (Reuters). — Canadians who fought in the 1942 Dieppe raid returned here Sunday to join in a parade and service to mark its ninth anniversary. Many of them trained at Hastings for the attack.

Twelve Vampire jet fighters of the RCAF 421 Fighter Squadron stationed in Hampshire took part in a fly-past.

Six of the men who fought in the raid headed a contingent of 150 Canadian veterans who paraded with British veterans. Col. B. R. Mullaly, national secretary of the Canadian Veterans' Association in Britain, read the lesson at a service, held in Alexandra Park.

Canadians who died in the Dieppe raid are buried in heroes' corners of Hastings Cemetery.

Report Search For Slayer

MONTREAL, Aug. 20 (CP).—The Montreal Star in a newspage story today says an investigation has been launched by the RCMP into a report that a man wanted for killing an anti-Communist Czech Senator is in hiding in Montreal.

The Star says a report was made to the RCMP Saturday by an American visiting Montreal. The American resident is a native of Czechoslovakia who emigrated to the United States in 1949.

The Star says its informant asked that all names be withheld until further investigation. An RCMP official said: "We don't know what to think about it yet. It could be true but we haven't been able to find out yet."

The UN Command said evidence found by the joint Allied-Communist liaison investigating group showed no Allied military units were in the area at the time. The statement added:

"The investigation failed completely to identify the armed band as belonging to any United Nations Command military formation."

Allied and Communist subcommittee met briefly in Kaesong today as the new crisis threatened efforts to stop the Korean war.

The sub-committees met for only 70 minutes Monday. It was their shortest session since they took over for the main truce delegations Friday.

There was no report of progress from the secret talks. But the negotiators agreed to meet again at 11 a.m. Tuesday (9 p.m. Monday EDT).

Safe In Sweden

MALMO, Sweden, Aug. 20 (AP) —An East German family who fled their Communist-ruled homeland in a leaky boat were safe in Sweden today. The mother, father and four small children frantically pumped water out of their frail craft all Saturday night and were exhausted when they were picked up by a Swedish lightship in the Baltic yesterday.

May Lose Eye After Brawl

BRAMPTON, Aug. 20 (CP) — One man may lose his eye and three others are in jail following a brawl in Huttonville Park Sunday night.

Donald Bracey, 21, of Streetsville, had his eye kicked out of its socket in a fight which police say started when eight Toronto men tried to break up a sing song in the park. Bracey's brother, Ronald, Norman Leslie, 25, of Streetsville, and a Toronto man, Raymond Morrell, 21, were arrested.

Police said seven other Toronto men escaped.

Cpl. Douglas Wilson, Cobourg, told his men: "Stop anyone that comes out, but shooting will definitely be the last resort."

All night the 27 policemen waited, walkie-talkies keeping all notified of movements. They moved in closer during the night and then struck just before dawn with the 10 tear gas bombs thrown by Constable Baker.

Violent Battle

The provincial police then moved further into the home and after a "very violent battle" Thompson was subdued in a small basement room.

Sgt. Palmateer said that the room had been fortified prior to the attack and had been prepared against any gas raid.

Thompson was armed there with the double-barreled shotgun, with buckshot, and two hunting knives.

Sgt. Palamateer described Thompson as the "hardest and toughest" that he has ever met in his many years of police experience.

"He was most difficult to handle," he added.

Had Big Plans

Neighbors of Thompson, a six-year second war veteran who enlisted in Brantford, said that he came home from the war with a Netherlands girl's promise to marry him and with the ambition to turn the family homestead on Lake Dalrymple into a model farm.

Thompson paid his father cash for the farm and went shopping for the latest in agricultural machinery.

Then the Dutch girl wrote that she had decided against the marriage. After that, Thompson lost interest in his model farm, just reading novels and ignoring the world around him.

At Target Practice

The neighbors also told of seeing Thompson at target practice on his farm, and throwing knives at targets.

They said that twice after Sunday's shooting incident Thompson stopped motor cars passing his home and, butcher knife in hand, asked the occupants if they were police. Then he permitted them to continue.

Later, he went for a swim in the lake near his house, taking his shotgun with him. He spent only a few seconds in the water before he hurried out, dressed, grabbed his gun and disappeared into the farmhouse.

Mayor's Publicity Jump From Plane Won't Be Last Shenanigan

MAGOG, Que., Aug. 20. (CP)—Mayor Ernest Simard of this Eastern Townships community may not have finished his publicity stunt shenanigans. He said his 2,500-foot parachute drop Sunday may be followed by another daring scheme. The 208-pound chief magistrate, still excited with his first jump, said hopping from a plane with only a few score yards of silk to hold him up was great fun. "It was so easy I'm going to try and think of another stunt. I'll do anything to publicize our town," he said.

Even the ducking the talkative mayor got in Lake Memphremagog, where an estimated 10,000 lined the shore, was taken in stride by Simard who can't swim a stroke. A Mae West lifebelt buoyed him up after he cut loose from his parachute about 20 feet above the lake surface. A motorboat brought him ashore.

Not Scared

The jump, to publicize the city's centennial celebrations which open officially next Sunday, "did not scare me a bit," said Mayor Simard.

"It didn't bother me as much as the time I went down to the bottom of the lake in a diver's suit."

In that stunt, ostensibly to inspect the city's water works intake equipment, he was in trouble twice. Once too much air was pumped down to him and another time too little.

The 43-year-old father of five didn't let the big jump interrupt his schedule. After a change of clothes, he made a speech to the crowd, went home for supper, attended boxing and wrestling matches in the evening and spoke at the opening of a sports centre.

Artificial Respiration Fails To Save Baby

SUDBURY, Aug. 20 (CP). — Artificial respiration in the back of a speeding truck failed Sunday to save the life of 18-months-old Mary Jane Brown of Wanipitae after she had fallen into a river near her home about 12 miles north of here.

The baby's father, Nelson A. Brown, discovered her body floating in the river. The child was brought to hospital here in a truck escorted by a police car at a speed up to 85 miles an hour.

The baby apparently fell off a wharf when she wandered away from the house.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP) — The body of Maj. William V. Holohan was brought home aboard a navy transport ship today, seven years after he was mysteriously slain in Italy during a secret wartime mission behind enemy lines.

The two, Lieut. Aldo Icardi and Sgt. Carl G. Lodolce have denied any part in the slaying.

Free On $2,500 Bail In Manslaughter Case

KIRKLAND LAKE, Aug. 20— (CP). — Lionel Durette was released in $2,500 bail today after he had been charged with manslaughter in the Friday night traffic death of Francois Martel.

Martel was a passenger in a car driven by Durette. Police said the car sideswiped a light panel truck near Ramore, about 20 mies north of here.

A second passenger in the car, Zanon Gagnon, of Amiqui, Que., suffered a broken back in the accident.

Durette will appear in Matheson police court August 25. Matheson is 30 miles north of here.

Traffic Accidents Cause Most Of 22 Fatalities

By The Canadian Press

With thousands of persons forsaking the cities for summer resorts, traffic deaths—14 in Ontario—accounted for most of the 22 fatalities reported in Eastern Canada during the weekend.

A Canadian Press survey listed a total of 17 deaths from street and highway mishaps. Two persons were drowned, two died from burns and one was shot.

Nineteen of the violent deaths occurred in Ontario, two in Quebec and one in New Brunswick.

Four persons were killed when they attempted to cross highways through moving traffic. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simcoe of Toronto and Norman Cossar, about 55, of Dunbarton, Ont., met instant death near Pickering, and James G. Hornell of Weston died when he attempted to cross a highway at Richvale, just north of Toronto.

Mrs. Edna M. Smith of Windsor, died in hospital from injuries suffered when she attempted to cross a street in front of her home.

Near Chalk River, just north of Pembroke, Dewitt Bancroft, 50, of Chalk River, was killed in an automobile smash.

A car-truck collision near Timmins, took the life of Francois Martel, 36 of Amqui, Que.

Fatally Injured

Fatally injured were Maurice Cajyer, 41, and Bruno Baulac, Timmins woodsmen, when their old-model car rolled down a 34-foot embankment; Harry Docknok, 40, of Toronto, when his automobile crashed head-on into a moving street car and Boleslaw Sawchuk, 28 ,a recent immigrant from Poland, when a car he was driving crashed into a parked truck.

Henry Reist, 40, of Elmira, died in an auto accident near New Hamburg, Ont.

Near Wawa, 100 miles north of Sault Ste. Marie, Alex Kimbal, 64, of Wawa, fell from the cab of a moving truck and was killed under the wheels.

Three-year-old Teddy Love of Oshawa died from injuries suffered when he fell under the wheels of his father's truck.

Four-year-old Ronald Smith died in a Kingston hospital from burns suffered earlier in the week in a fire at nearby Bariefield. Near Belleville a 36-year-old laborer, William Ferguson, was burned to death when fire destroyed his three-room shack.

Hold Trapper

In Marathon, Ont., 150 miles east of Port Arthur, police are holding a 70-year-old trapper in connection with the death from a bullet wound of Arnold Crocker, 50, also a trapper.

Eighteen-month-old Mary Jane Brown was drowned when she fell into the Wahnapitae river just east of Sudbury. West of Sudbury police dragged the Vermillion river for the body of an unidentified person reported drowned there.

Maurice Gauthier, 36, was killed in Montreal when his motorcycle rammed a bus. At Valcartier army camp near Quebec City, Michael Kostiak, 34, of Victoria, B.C., was killed when an army truck left a road.

Stanislaus Maillet, 55, of Brantville, N.B., was killed by a car as he walked along a highway near his home.

INSECT DESTRUCTION

It has been estimated that insects in Canada annually cause crop damage of $100,000,000.

Tourists Swarm Around Royal Family

BALLATER, Scotland, Aug. 20. (CP)—British newspapers have been asked discreetly to give the Royal Family its usual privacy during their summer visit to nearby Balmoral castle, but 2,000 tourists swarmed here Sunday.

The word to the newspapers meant: Please don't ask too many questions about Princess Margaret's 21st birthday Tuesday. Officially it is said that the sprightly Princess' birthday will be kept simply and privately.

While the King, Queen and Princess Margaret, along with Princess Elizabeth, her elder sister and the Duke of Edinburgh, worshipped and sang hymns at Cathie Church, the sightseers squatted in the heather, waiting for another look after the service.

Load Of Oats Goes 90 Bus.

MARMORA Aug. 20 (ENS). — Clarence Sopha who lives on the farm in the Vansickle Settlement, formerly occupied by George Vansickle, drew in five loads of oats last Monday for threshing. He was pleasantly surprised to discover that the first load indicative of the five, realized 90 bushels. His father, Charles Sopha, who farmed two farms away for 40 years, says the yield constitutes a record for the neighborhood. Previously 50 or 60 bushels was considered a good yield. His son purchased certified Beaver oats last spring to sow in this particular field. Other threshing in the settlement was not possible this past week owing to rain.

Roast Catches Fire In Constable's Home

HASTINGS, Aug. 20 (ENS)—Town Constable Len Switzer, whose residence is in the basement of the town hall, arrived home for supper Saturday night when Fire Chief Iden Bonds drove into the yard.

"What's your hurry, Ike?" Constable Syitzer asked.

"Your wife has a roast in the oven," the fire chief replied as he hurried on into Mr. Switzer's home.

The roast was nice and brown, in fact it was too brown—it was on fire.

When they opened the oven to get at it flames shot out and scorched the ceiling; the oven was also damaged.

All in all, Constable Switzer, who didn't have to go far to investigate this accident, estimated the damage at $50.

21 Vacancies In College Of Cardinals

VATICAN CITY, August 20 — (AP). — Pope Pius XII is expected to bolster the thin and aging ranks of the College of Cardinals soon with new and younger blood.

The death last month of Adam Stefan Cardinal Sapieha, last free prince of the Catholic Church behind the Iron Curtain, brought to 21 the number of vacancies in the College. Its full complement is 70.

Recurring reports of a Consistory around Christmas to name new cardinals were given support Saturday by the French Vatican circles, which maintain that two French prelates have been notified that they will be made cardinals. They are Archbishop Maurice Feltin of Paris and Bishop Francis Xavier Grente of Le Mans, who has the personal title of archbishop.

Average age of the 49 living cardinals is about 70. Sixteen are more than 75, and only five are les than 60. Eighteen of the cardinals are Italians and 31 are of other nationalities.

Vatican sources also said the Pontiff is contemplating a change in the Vatican's 11 sacred congregations, now headed by himself and cardinals. The change, Vatican sources say, would permit naming as heads of congregations some younger prelates, not necessarily cardinals, who would be able to contribute more energy to their administration.

Find US Officials Not Anxious To Help

TORONTO, Aug. 20 —(CP)— United States officials who have long charged lack of Ontario co-operation in dealing with "bucket-shop" stock salesmen who fleece gullible Americans have yet to say definitely whether they will testify before the Ontario government's crime committee.

Harry A. McDonald, chairman of the US Security Exchange Committee, was invited to come to a committee hearing and bring along any other US officials who could suggest how to stop the high-pressure stock peddling across the international boundary.

But, with the committee scheduled to resume hearings here Tuesday after a month's adjournment, Attorney-General Dana Porter of Ontario said Saturday that the only answer from the US officials to date has been that they "are considering making an appearance."

Lady Learning To Drive Automobile Drives Car Through Cobourg Garage

COBOURG, Aug. 20 (ENS) —A Peterborough woman, learning to drive at a tourist spot in Cobourg, ran into difficulties Sunday, a few moments after she had expressed her pleasure at doing so well. She had taken the wheel for a lesson and her male instructor was giving her directions. She made a corner successfully and when she stopped she said: "I did that all right, didn't I?"

He smiled in agreement then told her to move ahead again to test her stopping ability. He suddenly said "stop" to observe how quickly she could do it. But the fair learner stepped on the gas instead of the brake and the car leaped forward, jumped the curb and headed for a tree. He grabbed the wheel and heaved but she had frozen to the wheel and while they missed the tree they didn't avoid a garage owned by Ross Zealand on Sydenham St., out of which Mr. Zealand had driven his car about ten minutes before.

The dor was open but she hit the garage from the side and went through both walls, with the hood sticking out the other side. Then the garage collapsed on top of the car. Nobody was hurt, damage to the car was slight. The driver was a little scared; her instructor, very much so.

Liberalism and Mr. Jackson

Our readers are familiar with the content of the two editorials to which Mr. C. S. Jackson, U.E. President for Canada, objects in his letter which we print in full on this page. Mr. Jackson does not deny that U.E. funds were contributed in the United States to a pro-Communist agency, the Civil Rights Congress which is under U.S. Senate investigation. To call attention to these contributions and the tinge they give the entire union was the purpose of the first editorial to which Mr. Jackson objects. In the second editorial we corrected an implication of the first that Peterborough CGE workers might willy-nilly have had some of their U.E. dues used to bail Communists in the U.S., through the direct levy on each member's dues which the International Office in the U.S.A. makes. The chief local U.E. officials told the Examiner that this was impossible, and we have accepted their word for it, and so stated in the second editorial.

* * *

In both editorials which Mr. Jackson criticizes we reiterated our concern because the leadership of U.E. in Canada and the United States is either Communist or Communist in sympathy. We voiced our suspicion of Communist influence being at work in U.E. Thereupon Mr. Jackson implies that we are anti-union, anti-democratic and an attacker of fundamental liberties. Whatever Mr. Jackson may think of us, we conceive it our duty to this community to say what we have said. We believe that the majority of the citizens of Peterborough—factory workers, housewives, businessmen, clerks and professional men—are intensely worried about the nature of U.E. as the legal union voice for the largest industrial group in this quiet, decent, unviolent and neighbourly city.

* * *

This newspaper has been accused of being pro-Communist or Red-tinged because we have not jumped on U.E.; because we have been reluctant to urge Canadian troops for Korea; because we have consistently advocated a compromise settlement of that war. It has been accused of being too biased towards trade unions because we devote so much news space to impartial reporting of union and Labour Council activities. (Incidentally, in the formative months of U.E. in Peterborough our reporter was always at hand to give full news coverage when CGE workers themselves were so disinterested that only a handful would attend meetings.) We have been accused of being fascistic in attitude, a tool or industrial management, an obstructor of civil liberties. These opposite charges indicate that there is some basis for our belief that we are neither Fascist nor Communist, neither Right nor Left, but liberal—and we mean liberal without a capital L. It is our hope that we are, and Mr. Jackson does us the honour to state that we have indeed sought to merit a reputation for liberality and independence of thought.

* * *

Mr. Jackson's letter raises in a thoughtful, earnest way fundamental questions about freedom and liberty, and puts us in the traditional dilemma of a liberal. On the Right of the liberal are conservatives whose belief is that the old and tried ways are the only good ones; to the extreme Right of them are Fascists who believe that they have the only sound system for government and social betterment, and they are prepared to impose it by force. On the Left of the liberal are socialists who have a framework and plan for every phase of human activity. On the extreme Left of them are Communists who believe that they have the only right system. They are ready to impose it on everybody, by force if necessary. Between Right and Left is the liberal, with no system, only a desire to cherish and safeguard independence of thought and liberty of action. He believes in a middle road between the extremes of dictatorial systems. He believes human betterment can be achieved along this road, winding as it is, obscure as the ends may be. He does not believe, like Communists and Fascists, that the ends are more important than the means. In this middle road the true liberal moves, considering many points of views, accepting some, rejecting others. There he is, and the people on the Right and on the Left shout at him: "If you are not for us, you are against us."

* * *

The liberal point of view is hard to maintain; perhaps the circumstances of this age make it impossible. For instance, now, in the United States, liberals are being labelled Red because they will not join the witch-hunt against Communists. On the other side, to the Left, are those who say like Mr. Jackson:

> "It seems self-evident today that if one is to remain high in the favour of the money-changers in the temple, one must see 'communism' in every effort of working people to better their lot".

Because, after many months of consideration and with what we hope is sufficient care not to be swayed by right-wing hysteria in the United States, we see a taint of Communism in U.E. and do not like it, are we trying to "remain high in the favour of the money-changers"? Are we, conversely, setting ourself against "every effort of the working people to better their lot?"

* * *

We deny the right of any one party, organization or creed to set itself up exclusively as the sole custodian and promoter of human welfare. We resent any suggestion that we are a foe to the "effort of working people to better their lot." (By the way, who are these "working people" in Peterborough as a class distinct from others? Do these "working people" eat better or live in better houses than, say, our clergymen, our union organizers, our teachers, our shop owners or even people who write newspaper editorials? Do not all these people work?) And, we repeat, we believe it our duty to the citizens of Peterborough to speak out when we sense something that we feel to be inimical to the good of Peterborough and Canadian society. Our senses may be mistaken, our judgements wrong, but we say as honestly as we can what we think about it. Perhaps we are at fault in being too liberal-minded, and even too liberal with our space in editorials and letters on this topic.

The Colonel and The General

Another complication has arisen within the United States Republican Party. It has been threatening for several months, but did not become fully developed until last week. The Chicago Tribune, the voice of Colonel Robert Rutherford McCormick, has been attempting to belittle the Republican group which favours the nomination of General Eisenhower as Presidential candidate next year. The group continued to gain strength, however, and The Tribune has now openly and bitterly attacked the general as a possible Republican candidate.

"As a Republican candidate," says the colonel's rabidly isolationist newspaper, "Eisenhower would be a joke." The joke, of course, in the newspaper's eyes, is the fact that the general is an internationalist, that he was promoted to his present rank by another internationalist, General Marshall, when the latter was chief of staff under a great internationalist President, Franklin Roosevelt. In addition, General Eisenhower was patently guilty of co-operating with the British during the late war, and Colonel McCormick cannot condone that sort of thing; in his opinion, the British should have been either ignored or ordered about.

The Tribune's attack may widen and harden the division within the Republican Party, especially since the newspaper names Senator Robert Taft as "the logical candidate" for the party's nomination. It is generally conceded that the choice lies between Ensenhower and Taft, and while there is still doubt about the former's willingness to accept the nomination, there is none about the latter's. Senator Taft is actively seeking it, and he has the support of the party's "old guard." He seems none too happy about the support of the Tribune, however, for he has hastened to describe the McCormick criticism of the general as "unreasonable." That is not surprising. Senator Taft is a shrewd and able politician, and he undoubtedly remembers that the approval of the colonel has had a deadly effect on the candidacy of more than one Republican in the past, including the senator himself at one Republican convention.

Dead And Live Skunks

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals can probably do little more than shake its head at the daily slaughter on our highways—unless it can change the nature of the dumb animals. Driving on the highway out of Peterborough the other evening, we saw in the space of two hours a groundhog decapitated by a car ahead of us; the carcass of a skunk which had been killed at least a day; a porcupine with all its needles raised, dead on the highway, and a nice little racoon, likewise run over by car wheels. We suppose that the animal population of the district is sufficient to withstand such losses, as human society also bears up under deaths of its members on the highways, but in these parts anyway the fatal casualties among animals on the roads are far more numerous than human casualties. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to (Dumb) Animals may have to undertake a campaign to give them voices or teach them to stop, look and listen before they cross a highway, and then move fast.

Our sympathy for the plight of the creatures dimmed by the time we reached our destination, which was up a mile-long, little-used township road. In that mile we had to stop or slow down six times to allow six skunks, each one travelling separately, to waddle down and off the road ahead of us. Our humanitarian patience was not entirely an altruistic concern for saving skunk life.

21 Candles For A Royal Cake

By MARGUERITE D. PEACOCKE

(Ed. Note: Marguerite D. Peacocke is the author of many books and articles on the Royal Family.)

TOMORROW Princess Margaret will celebrate her twenty-first birthday. Most appropriately, since she was born at Glamis Castle, her mother's historic family seat in Scotland it is in Scotland that she always spends her birthday anniversary for at this season of the year the King and Queen are in residence at their Highland home, Balmoral Castle.

The Royal Family likes to commemorate these occasions in the traditional way; most of the Princess's presents will be kept as "surprises" for the birthday morning and she will, as usual, have a home-baked cake with the correct number of candles. In the past she has always asked for a family picnic, followed by a small dinner party and an informal dance. This year the festivities will be slightly more elaborate, a marquee will be erected on the lawn and Scotland's coming-of-age customs will be observed for, when at Balmoral, King George VI, like his predecessors, follows the Highland way of life.

✧ ✧ ✧

ALTHOUGH a Sovereign may reign without a regency from the age of eighteen, in all other respects Royalty, like commoners, attain their majority at twenty-one. From August 21 Princess Margaret will qualify as a member of any future Council of State set up to act for the King during illness or absence from the country. She will also draw the Civil List allowance of £6,000 a year. Her position as fourth in the line of succession to the throne, after Princess Elizabeth and her two children, entitles her to no special privilege beyond her rightful order of precedence on ceremonial occasions. She is, for instance, subject to income tax, like the rest of her father's subjects, and when she first learned to drive the Royal cars she underwent the normal driving test.

✧ ✧ ✧

ONE of the Princess's main interests is encouraging young people to play their part in the social work of their country. She is patron of the Union of Girls' Schools for Social Service and the Scottish Association of Girls' Clubs, and Commander-in-Chief of the Amubulance and Nursing Cadets of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. After some years as an enthusiastic Girl Guide she is now Commodore of the Sea Rangers. She is also President of the Victoria League Young Contingent which arranges hospitality and entertainment for young visitors from various parts of the Commonwealth. As the active President of the Dr. Barnado's Homes, the Sunshine Homes for Blind Babies, and the Scottish Children's League she is helping to better the lot of those whose early experiences have been less fortunate than her own, and she is also patron of the Princess Margaret Hospital in Edinburgh.

Like most members of the Royal Family she has her "own" regiments of which she is Colonel-in-Chief — the Highland Light Infantry of her native Scotland, the Rand Light Infantry of the Union of South Africa, the first overseas country she ever visited, and the Highland Light Infantry of Canada.

✧ ✧ ✧

PRINCESS MARGARET'S own great artistic interests are music, the theatre and the ballet. She is an accomplished pianist, an enthusiastic dancer, and a keen playgoer who has herself experienced the joys of taking part in amateur dramatic performances. She has therefore chosen to associate herself with the Sadler's Wells Foundation, as its President, and has become patron of the Scottish Community Drama Association, the English Folk Dance and Song Society and the University of London Musical Society. Her great love of horses and her skill as a horsewoman make her the ideal patron of the National Pony Association.

The Princess's work for these organizations is not confined to appearances at meetings and public functions, although her lively personality, her friendly manner and her gift for making short, apt speeches make her a welcome guest of honour. She also receives and studies regular reports on their progress and often herself makes practical suggestions about their work.

✧ ✧ ✧

EVEN when she has no outside engagements the Princess puts in a long working day at Buckingham Palace. Her second-floor sitting-room, overlooking the Mall, is also her work-room, where, each morning, she attends to her correspondence. She reads all letters addressed to her and indicates to her lady-in-waiting Miss Jennifer Beven, the reply which she wishes sent. She has, however, always consulted her mother before accepting invitations, whether of a public or private nature, and it is unlikely that she will make any departure from this well-established practice.

✧ ✧ ✧

SINCE her sister's marriage the younger Princess has become a great companion to her mother; they enjoy shopping expeditions and private visits to places of interest together. Princess Margaret helps the Queen to arrange parties, draw up invitation lists and entertain visitors, particularly those who join the Royal Family at luncheon, at Buckingham Palace. She thus has many opportunities for informal conversation with people prominent in public life, not only in Britain but in the other Commonwealth and foreign countries.

The Princess accompanies the King and Queen on many of their public visits and, with her pet Sealyham dog, Johnny, she always joins them when in residence at their county homes, although she likes to spend an occasional week-end as a guest in a private house. She enjoys an evening at the theatre with a party of young friends, almost always choosing stalls in preference to a box, and often going on to have supper and dance in a restaurant. More often than not, however, when her day's work is done, she spends a quiet family evening along with the King and Queen, listening to the radio, watching television, playing the piano or joining in the card game of canasta.

Whistle-Stops

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

London and Brantford want the Princess and Duke to make more than a "whistle stop" at their cities. Some other places not mentioned in the intinerary would be satisfied with a "whistle stop."

THEY WON'T HOLD WATER

Letter To The Editor

MR. JACKSON REMONSTRATES

Sir: In two editorials on August 7 and August 13, your paper makes an attack on the union of the choice of the Canadian General Electric Peterborough workers, the U.E.

In a similar manner to the usual anti-union line of the employers and other anti-union and anti-democratic forces in the country, these editorials constitute an attempt to disrupt the organization of the workers, and reduce its effectiveness as a bargaining agency.

The effect, if achieved, of this type of disruption (identical with that of the disruptive group known as IUE and similar to company propaganda) would be to worsen the conditions of the C.G.E. workers, and in turn to destroy many of the benefits which this union has brought to the community.

The device seized upon, whether or not for the conscious purpose of trying to weaken or destroy the U.E., is the age-long device of every fascist, and every anti-democratic force throughout the world, namely, a smear campaign based on half truths, distortions and deliberate falsehood.

It seems self evident today that if one is to remain high in the favour of the money changers in the temple, one must see "communism" in every effort of working people to better their lot, and in every criticism of the money changers, and in every effort made to retain the hard won rights of man.

That your editorials are completely gratuitous is evidenced by your seizing upon an insignificant and wholly unsubstantiated item in Newsweek, an organ devoted to selling and supporting the way of life of the money changers and their increasing exploitation of the mass of the people.

The Newsweek item mentions as its source of information against U.E. none other than the I.U.E. whose record for distortion and lack of trustworthiness is well established right here in Peterborough. The I.U.E. is reported as saying that some U.S.A.-U.E. local files record contributions to the Civil Rights Congress of the U.S.A. That may, or may not, be a substantial fact. We do not know. But we do vigorously deny the correctness of the inference drawn, and the communist tag thereby applied.

Let us assume that, for once, I.U.E. is right in its facts.

Then, U.E. membership groups, including local oficers, some of whom have since then deserted to I.U.E., felt it wise and necessary to help finance a group which was dedicated to the preservation of the civil rights of citizens and workers. What more laudable undertaking is there in a democracy?

What is the traditional form of attack on fundamental liberties if it is not initially against minority groups? Among such minority groupings down through the ages have been various political groups such as socialists, reformers and communists. To ensure the preservation of liberty to all the people, it is necessary to protect the civil liberties of each citizen, to see that justice is done and that the basic liberties of freedom of thought and expression, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion are preserved.

Any civil liberties association which fails to protest and protect against loss of civil rights to any individual or group, regardless of their race, colour, creed, political or religious belief or affiliation, is not worthy of the name.

Any citizen or organization which fails to support the protests and protective actions of such civil liberty associations, thereby condones the infringement on the rights of others, be they Communists, Witnesses of Jevovah, Negroes, etc., and at the same time undermines their own personal civil rights.

The UE, as would any genuine working man's organization gives full support to the struggle for preservation of civil rights. That is both natural and necessary, for who are the main victims of loss of civil rights, if not the working people.

The UE most carefully and jealously guards its members against any infringement on their rights of freedom of thought and association. To do otherwise would be to aid those who desire the destruction and elimination of unions.

The UE membership sets up as the basis of judgement of fellow members and officers, the record of those members and officers in the advancement of the welfare of the member. If UE members were to discriminate against a member by reason of that member being a communist by conviction or affiliation, then by what right could the union deny the right of discrimination against other members on any other prejudicial grounds. That would be the road to division and disintegration of this effective organization of working people.

The UE considers the struggle for civil rights as a necessary foundation for the preservation of democracy, without which there would be no genuine unions.

The UE cannot but view with suspicion these two editorials in the columns of your newspaper, and conclude that the motivation is basically antagonism to the rights of workers to organize, to criticise, to analyse all matters affecting their welfare. We cannot overlook the fact that these editorials in their content are identical with those of the CGE Company and of the IUE. Nor can we overlook the coincidence of timing of the release of these editorials and the attempts of IUE to again reorganize for further disruption at CGE.

We have attempted, in discussions with the writer of your editorials, to present fact and argument to prove that prejudice rather than a search for the truth was rampant in the first editorial. We did receive his assurances that the wrong of this would be righted. It appears now, in reading the editorial of August 13 that prejudice is a hard task master and not easily subdued.

We of the UE would welcome open and public debate, in whatever form was agreeable to your paper and its editorial staff, on these fundamental questions as to what constitutes democracy and freedom. There is a crying need today to get behind the prejudices which are being deliberately fostered, and which, unless met by full and open discussion, can and will be the instruments today, as they have been many times in the past history of man, in destroying the freedoms in the winning of which our people have made great sacrifices.

Your newspaper has hoped to build for itself a reputation of liberality, of independence of thought, of non-partisanship, and as a reliable purveyor of fact.

In the interests of the continuance of freedom of thought and expression, we request that you print this letter on your editorial page in equal prominence with the editorials which we here are criticising.

Your very truly,
C. S. JACKSON, President,
District 5, UER & MWA

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him....With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgement, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?....

To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him? The workman melteth a graven image and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains. He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not root; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved. (Isa. 40: 10, 14, 18-20.)

✧ ✧ ✧

What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him. (Hab. 2: 18-20.)

Crude And Rude

(St. Catharines Standard)

The Detroit Free Press each day runs a little box on its editorial page in the form of a "special delivery" letter to some public personage. The other day the letter was addressed to Princess Elizabeth, and read as follows:

"Dear Liz: We are touched by your desire to visit the U.S. Being touched by Britain's rulers is an old story here. (Signed) Dad Dearborn."

Someone on the St. Thomas Times-Journal apparently hit the roof upon reading the item. That paper criticizes both the crude vulgarity and the untrue implication. It claims that the U.S. owes Britain much for the protection given by the British Navy until recent years; for fighting the enemy in two world wars, long before the U.S. entered; and for cancelling war debts accumulated by the Southern States during the Civil War and afterwards shrugged off by the U.S. government.

It is impossible and useless to say who is debtor and who creditor over a long period of history. Suffice it to say that today both countries get along reasonably well, and it's all the more remarkable when one considers the things some politicians and editorial writers on each side of the pond come out with!

Bilingual Speakers

(Windsor Star)

Canada follows an excellent practice in appointing its Speakers of the House of Commons and Senate. When that of the Lower House is of the French language, in the Upper House he is of the English language, a change being made with each Parliament. As English and French tongues have equal status in the Parliament of Canada, this is a wise and fair arrangement.

It isn't ideally equal, however. A French-language Speaker invariably speaks English also, though sometimes with an accent which is pleasant rather than otherwise. An English-language Speaker often cannot speak French and his stumbling over French titles to bills, or other phases which he must use, is embarrassing.

Hon. Ross Macdonald, of Brantford, is Speaker of the Commons. He has done his best with such French words as he must utter, but it hasn't been too good. He has spent six weeks taking a course in French at Laval University. This is an example which might well be emulated by subsequent Speakers to whom English is the normal tongue.

"Do stop mumbling, George. I asked you if anybody called during the week-end."

No Alternative Coldwell Says

HALIFAX, Aug. 20 (CP)—M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader said Saturday in a statement to The Halifax Chronicle-Herald that the United Nations had "no alternative but to resist aggression against South Korea," and that "as long as a totalitarian threat to freedom remains we take our stand against those who would destroy our fundamental rights and democratic freedoms."

Mr. Coldwell gave the statement by telephone from Ottawa when asked to comment on an address by Tom MacLachlan of Sydney, Nova Scotia, president of the CCF. Mr. MacLachlan was quoted in the Halifax Mail-Star Friday as saying that "an international war scare" had been engineered by "the powers that be" in order to create "a market for war materials." His address was given to a convention of the Maritime Marine Workers Federation.

The Mail-Star quoted Mr. MacLachlan as saying:

"Just ask yourselves what would have happened in the United States after the end of the war if there had been no war scare, no turmoil in Korea."

Won't Issue Life Insurance

TIMMINS, Aug. 20 (CP) — All Canadian life insurance companies have refused an application for $50,000 life insurance on each man who will help to remove 22 tons of dynamite from the strike-bound Hollinger Gold Mine here, officials of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) said Sunday night.

However, the union leaders were confident that Lloyds of London would accept the risk in time for the men to start work today.

Seventeen workers and a shift boss are scheduled to remove 900 cases of powder, fuses and caps which have been scattered in 300 underground locations since the miners went on strike July 10 for higher pay and a union dues checkoff.

A week ago an Ontario mines inspector ordered it removed at once in the interests of safety. He said there is danger that dampness might cause free nitroglycerine to run from the cases in which the explosive is boxed.

Finds Census Figure Lags For St. Thomas

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 20 (CP)—William Vidler, Assessment Commissioner, is not too happy about the city's population figure disclosed in the first report of Canada's 1951 census.

It was reported Friday as 17,942, compared with 17,132 recorded as its population in 1941. However, Mr. Vidler said Saturday that figures compiled by his department show St. Thomas' population as 19,907, which is 1,865 more than the census figure.

Clouds On Way

VANCOUVER, Aug. 20 (CP)—The Rockliffe "Ice-Wagan" experimental plane with its crew of scientific rain-makers may get a chance to try its stuff today but the odds are against it. A small, weak storm has been found which the weatherman thinks might bring some clouds over the parched lower mainland. But even if the cloud arrives, it is not certain it will be moist enough to lend itself to the dry ice seeding technique.

Leave For Britain

MONTREAL, Aug. 20—(CP)—The 25 British and four Scandinavian air cadets taking part in annual overseas interchange visits to Canada will leave for the United Kingdom today. The cadets wound up a three-week tour of Ontario and Quebec Sunday. They spent Saturday at the home of C. Douglas Taylor, honorary president of the Air Cadet League of Canada.

Bring Wounded Back

HALIFAX, Aug. 20—(CP)—An RCAF Dakota ambulance plane landed at nearby Dartmouth Sunday with four wounded veterans of the Korean war. The airrcaft, from 435 Transport Squadron of Edmonton, left McChord field at Tacoma, Wash., last Friday with 14 wounded men aboard. The remainder were dropped off at intermediate stops across Canada.

Attempted Murder

MONTREAL, Aug. 20 —(CP)—Mrs. Edward Critchley, 38, was arraigned Saturday on a charge of attempted murder through wounding her one-year-old son in the forehead with a butcher knife. She did not enter a plea and preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 23. Police said the woman "appears discouraged" and indicated defence counsel may ask for a mental examination.

Recapture Prisoner

TORONTO, Aug. 20 — (CP) — Thomas L. Huff, 22, of Toronto, who escaped from Burwash industrial farm near Sudbury last month, was recaptured here Saturday night. Besides a charge of escape, he will face an additional charge of attempted car theft. Donald J. Carey, 27, with no home, will also be charged with the attempted car theft, police said.

DENIES OSS KILLING—Carol J. LoDolce, one of the two men accused of the slaying of Maj. William V. Holohan on an OSS mission in Italy in 1944, is shown with his wife, Ruby, and their two sons, Bobby, one, and Lawrence, three, at their home in Rochester, N.Y. LoDolce has denied the charge.

500,000 Jam Edinburgh Swamp Pipers' Parade

EDINBURGH, Aug. 20. (Reuters)—Half a million excited Scots pushed and jostled each other across the streets of Edinburgh Saturday and swamped a projected March of 1,500 blaring pipers.

Police failed to control the crowd as it converged on Princess St., the main street, for the highlight of the festival of the gathering of the clans.

Instead of marching 16 abreast, the tartan-clad pipers had to fight their way through the melee in twos and threes. One group found the crowd so overwhelming they had to walk without music except for the tap-tap of a kettledrum.

It was the biggest, happiest crowd Scotland has seen for years. Some said there were more clansmen gathered together than at any time since the Jacobite Assembly, before the 1745 rebellion.

But there were almost as many screams as pipe skirls. Hundreds of women fainted in the crush and ambulances tried to make their way through the congested streets.

Thousands of Visitors

Thousands of overseas visitors, including 200 Americans and Canadians of Scots descent, were in Edinburgh to see the march.

There was some hope of order when the police halted the march after it had covered 200 yards. But soon it was submerged again.

Some of the 70 pipe bands due to take part were unable to reach the starting point. Police said their plans were upset at every turn.

Inside the green-turfed stadium 50,000 people gathered to watch the hereditary Lord High Constable of Scotland, the Countess of Errol, take her place beside her standard of three red shields on a white ground. She was the chieftain of the gathering.

Not far from her sat Gilbert W. Carmichael, from Minneapolis, Minn., Royal Chief of the Order of Scottish Clans, with a Royal Stuart tartan sash fastened by a cairngorm brooch.

Every tartan Scotland knows was represented in the stadium for a display of highland games.

In the tents of the clan chiefs, it was a day of reunion for Scots from many parts of the world.

Mrs. Flora MacLeod of MacLeod, head of the Clan MacLeod, had a greeting for every member of the Canadian Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders Band from Hamilton, Ont., who owe allegiance to the MacLeods.

For eight hours judges listened to the playing of the pipe bands in competition for a world championship. It was won by the band of the Glasgow police.

Says Scientists Concerned Over Growing Travel Ban

OXFORD, England. — (CP) — Scientists engaged in vital research are becoming increasingly concerned about restrictions on their fredom of movement, Sir John Cockcroft declared here. Sir John, director of the atomic research establishment of Harwell, was addressing the sixth annual Question Conference in session here.

He said that at least 95 per cent of the fundamental nuclear physics information which was kept secret during the war, now is free and scientific progress was in no way restricted by secrecy regulations. During the past year 125 papers from the Harwell establishment alone had been published in various scientific journals.

"There are, however, signs that the freedom of movement and discussion in the Western world, may be subject to more restriction in the future," he said.

Long Delays

Because of the Internal Security Act, 1950, scientists were experiencing long delays in obtaining visas for the United States. It was the future of this freedom which gave scientists most concern at present.

Sir John said that scientists from Britain and North America who worked on the atomic bomb project when it had become practicable, had acted with a full sense of their responsibility to civilization.

Accept Policies

The government, he continued, had chosen the policy of containment by strength. As an essential part of that policy Britain had decided to rearm and the United States had pressed on with its program of atomic armaments. Scientists had been faced with the question of whether or not to accept the policy of their government and to work for it, and most of them had made their choice.

Dr. J. Bronowski, director of the National Coal Board's Central Research Establishment, thought present-day scientists were suffering a feeling of "great unease".

The found society unorganized, administrations making a fearful mess" of human arrangements and no governmental talent for organizing society on anything larger than a village scale.

No Trust Shown

But the politicians, he said, took a far different attitude. He summed this attitude up as follows:

"We have to use these scientists because if we do not, we shall not have any bombs. However, we will not trust them an inch and

The responsibility of finding a what a dirty job they are doing." cure, Dr. Bronowski said, was not that of the man who made the bomb, pulled the trigger or voted the credits. The responsibility, he contended, was primarily communal and must be accepted by the people who marked the election ballot papers.

He addressed more than 2,000 Legion members at the official opening of the 17th biennial convention of the Ontario Command.

"Democracy in this country will survive only so long as we are worthy of it," he said. "This freedom and justice which we know has withstood many attacks."

Reforestation Work

TORONTO, Aug. 20—(CP)—An estimated $1,306,000 will be spent on reforestation and related works during the present fiscal year, Ontario Lands Department officials say. The sum is more than has been spent for this purpose in any previous 12-month period. Most of the money will be spent for forest tree nurseries and equipment for growing, supplying and planting of young trees by farmers and owners of poor land. The amount is approximately 12 per cent of the department's total budget.

With Alf Pope getting a century in Toronto on Saturday, the Peterborough-Whitaker Club's 'A' team defeated Parkdale by 175 for two wickets to 173. A. V. Pope also bowled in fine fashion with six wickets for 61 runs after grand bowling by J. McNicol of Parkdale. Booth opened the bowling. The total of 171 was a large one to pass but Booth and B. Roberts got off to a good start, scoring 41 before Roberts was out for 18.

A. Pope then joined Booth and made history, the partners taking the total of 165 when Booth was out for 33. Rollwagen joined Pope and the necessary runs were obtained to leave Pope with a score of 108 not out. It is some 60 years at least since a Peterborough batsman scored a century. The score:

Trenton Edges Wooler Wins Semi-Finals

TRENTON, Aug. 20.—A five-run rally in the bottom of the sixth inning enabled Trenton Chevies to even their Trent Valley Softball League semi-finals at one game each as they downed Wooler, 10-5, here Saturday night.

Harry Farr went the route for the winners and allowed nine safeties while striking out nine men and passing four.

No player on the winners collected more than one hit with Ernie Curtis getting the big blow, a three-run homer in the first inning.

Karl Austin paced Wooler with two home runs and a single, while Jack May collected three singles. Barney McColl also collected a circuit smash for the losers.

The third and deciding game of the series will be played in Wooler tonight with the winner meeting either Frankford Merchants or RCAF Trenton Flyers for the loop title.

Petes Take a Four-Pointer Against Croftons By 10-2

Bunching blows in timely fashion, including extra-base hits, the Petes punched out a 10-2 Viaduct Baseball League win over Toronto Graftons here Saturday night to increase their loop lead over Oshawa. They rolled to a 5-0 margin in the first three frames and held their rivals to two markers the rest of the route in a fair fray, possibly their last game at home. They have four more to play, one against Kingsways and three with Croftons.

Bunny Maseon pitched in steady style, keeping nine hits scattered but for the fourth frame, when Croftons scored twice, and fanning four. He was helped out of several holes as the Petes reeled off four neat double-plays, Golden and Garvey each being in on three. Croftons also had two twin killings to hurry the game along. Each side booted three and the score was 8-1 on earned runs.

Garvey Leads

Freddy Garvey led the locals at bat with three for four, including a triple and double. Andy Milne also hit a triple and double, while George Brabin had two for three, and Al Menzies three in five attempts. Best binglers for Croftons were Dave Stephen and Joe Hortop with two in four tries each, while Johnny Williams belted out a two-bagger. Kabanico drove in two runs for them, Andy Milne driving in three for the winners.

Walks and Milne's triple meant three in the first, walks again and Garvey's double adding two next heat. An error paved the way for one in the third, but some solid hitting, including Milne's double in the sixth and Garvey's triple in the eighth counted two more runs in each of these innings for Ed Whitehill's leaders. An error and hits by Huntley, Kabanico and Horton accounted for the two Toronto runs in the fourth. Box score:

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

The Provincial Lawn Bowling Association are holding their championship games on the local greens next Saturday. Play begins at 10 a.m.

This is the first time that the local Lawn Bowling Club has been so honored and bowlers are looking forward to a big day.

There are four entries in each of the singles, doubles and rink competitions. This is the final stage. Some of the best bowlers in the province will be competing.

The games are purely provincial and as such are under the supervision of the Provincial Association.

Next Friday night it will be men's rinks—draw from the board at 7.30 o'clock. The prizes will all be baskets of fruit.

The winning skips Saturday night were Mrs. F. Dawe, Joe Adams and S. Cummings.

Today's thought:

Have you noticed that the radio announcer and commentor who has the least to say to us shouts the loudest?

Les Reid Wins Golf Title With 154 Gross

Les Reid, of the Peterborough Golf Club, retained his city golf championship Sunday by posting another 77 to go with his mark of a week ago at Kawartha Club for a gross of 154 for 36 holes. Two Kawartha Club experts were tied for second place at the northend links as the competition ended over the weekend, Jim Inglis and Bill Moulton carding totals of 156 each for the series.

Twenty-eight competed Sunday at the Peterborough Club, some golfers of the first 18 failing to show up. Ideal weather awaited the top golfers of the city and the course was in fine condition. Orphans Split With UEW In City Finals

Harold Dormer's Orphans and Howie Dalton's UEW softballers opened the men's senior city finals, a best of seven series, at the Bowl Saturday night before the largest crowd of the season, and finished with a win apiece.

Orphans took the first contest 7-5 but dropped the nightcap by an 8-5 count as Terry Woods and Reg. Gordon went the distance for their respective clubs in a fine playoff display of masterful twirling in both games.

Showers prior to game time caused almost an hour's delay in starting the crucial series, so the opening games were cut to seven innings by mutual agreement. The series continues with a double bill, Tuesday night.

UE took a two-run lead in the first inning of the opener on Jack White's homer with Casey and Dalton on the pond, after Orfs had scored one in the top half by McGrath on Scriver's fielder's choice, but were unable to score on Woods further until the sixth, when they tallied two. Meanwhile, the Dormer lads fell on Gordon in the third for five runs on Sullivan's walk and safeties by Lewis, Currie, Turner, Woods and McGrath. Orphans added one in the fourth as Sullivan walked and later scored on Turner's fly. The Dalton crew threatened in the sixth as a hit by White, Robson's fielder's choice, a double by Wade and hits by Walton, Gordon and Casey netted two. Thompson popped to Sullivan.

Took Early Lead

The nightcap saw UE again take the lead with two runs in the first and a pair in the third on solid stickwork by Dalton, Robson, Wade and Castle; a pair of walks and an error thrown in.

Gordon held Orfs to a single tally in the fourth. The men of Dalton made victory sure in the fifth frame scoring three on successive doubles by White and Robson, Wade's single, two outs and Gordon's solid smash to left.

Orphans staged a final rally in the last of the seventh to score four as Woods reached first on an error, McGrath hit, Jaquith walked and Red Sullivan lofted his third playoff homer into the crowd in deep right field to clear the pond.

The bats of White, Sullivan, Wade, Woods, McGrath and Turner were effective in the first game, while Dalton, Wade, Woods Robson, White and Sullivan led in the second. Wade drove in four and starred afield while Turner's running catch off Walton in the fifth was a series highlight.

Cricket Match Ends As Rain Interferes

Rain here Saturday saved the local "B" cricketers from defeat at the hands of the Toronto Dovercourt team. The latter batted first with A. Budge having 60, J. Prime 29, J. Rae 19, J. Collins 16 to total 132 for 3 wickets. Later batsmen failed to do much and the total was 143. Bowling honors were shared by C. Boardman, three for 33, and E. Stevenson three for 14.

Local batsmen failed before the bowling of J. Prime, three for 13 and J. Rae three for 18 and six wickets were down for 47 when rain forced the end of play, leaving the game technically drawn. Dovercourt holds a commanding lead in Council matches, losing but one, and being assured of promotion to the next division.

Following is the score:

Dovercourt

Batting—A. Budge 60, J. Prime 29, J. Rae 19, J. Collins 16, A. Ayling 6 not out, J. Goodman 1, S. Rae 0, G. Johnson 0, A. Olsen 4. Extras 8. Total 143.

Sloppy Fielding Downfall For Team

PORT HOPE, Aug. 20.—A four-hit pitching effort by Karl Lenahan and sloppy fielding by Little Britain gave Port Hope Legion a 6-0 win here. It was Port Hope's second win as against no losses in the best-of-five final for the championship of the Lakeshore Juvenile Baseball League.

The winners were able to get but six hits off Little Britain moundsman Ken Moore. Of these Bob Trawin collected a double and a single.

BOATS FOR BOUT—England's Randolph TURPIN, present world middleweight champ, waves from the Queen Mary boat train at Waterloo Station, as he leaves for the United States, and his return match with Sugar Ray Robinson. The bout will be staged at Yankee Stadium, on Sept. 12th.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Four-day annual CDA regatta ended Saturday evening at Clear Lake, and a flock of sailors and dinghy enthusiasts whooped it up. "Home is the sailor, home from the sea" seemed to express it, after a successful annual meet, first time in the Kawarthas. Bud Whittaker of Toronto's RCYC won the 13-mile Saturday race for the Governor-General's Trophy, ahead of club-mates Bill Gooderham—winner of the international event Friday—and Paul, McLaughlin, Canadian winner at this competition. Jack Carter of Connecticut was fourth. A rather enjoyable event, even though CDA officials were quite lax in giving out press copy. Hosts at South Beach Hotel for the regatta was the Stony Lake Yacht Club.

At Riverside on Saturday night, the Petes won a four-point Viaduct Ball Loop game from Toronto Croftons by a 10-2 score. After a heavy week on the diamond here and in Toronto, Ed Whitehill's crew looked impressive. Steady hurling by Bunny Maeson, timely and hard hitting by Freddy Garvey, George Brabin, Al Menzies and Andy Milne, plus four fielding double-plays. Wisely enough, they're using some junior players at times now, and the boys show promise. Hard-hitting Bill Huntley sat this game out for a rest, and Dick Golden played just part of it. They have a game with Kingsways next Thursday in Toronto and three more with Croftons (maybe another four-pointer) ere schedule's end.

Orphans and UEW Tied

A goodly gallery, too, at the Bowl on Saturday p.m. saw two fine playoffs in the men's softball league. A four-of-seven final series with a twin bill on tomorrow night there. Orphans won the first 7-5 and UEW took the nightcap 8-5. Terry Woods hurled both seven-frame frays for the Dormer dudes, and Reg Gordon tossed both for the Dalton squad. Came up with a five-hitter in the second but Red Sullivan's four-run homer made it close. McGrath, Woods and Sullivan provided the heavy artillery for the O's, while White, Wade, Casey, Robson and Dalton swung mean maces for UEW. There'll be fireworks yet ere the city men's championship is declared, don't worry.

To paraphrase it: On shores of Bay of Quinte the sun is shining bright, and somewhere bands are playing, and somewhere hearts are light; somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout—but there's no joy in Belleville, since their lasses have lost out! (It's just a rib, George.) Westclox girls rubbed out the Quinte colleens in two straight to advance in PWSU playdowns. Fine flinging by M. Hodson, good hitting by B. Morrow, J. McIntyre and M. Owen, along with neat fielding in spots, proved too much Saturday for the belles of Bella Villa at home as they took the sour side of a 10-1 count. The provincial playdown path is well known to the Clockers, who have trod it often and far for some years now.

Captures Golf Honors

City golf championship was settled Sunday at the Peterborough Golf Club, after competition the previous weekend on the Kawartha Club links. And Les Reid retained his championship of 1950 by going around the 18 holes each Sunday in 77. That's pretty consistent, eh? He was crowded a bit by two of the Kawartha aces, Jim Inglis and Bill Moulton, who carded a total of 156 each. No one else had better than 160, and some of the competitors tossed in the sponge after the first Sunday of play. But 28 of the best in town were on deck yester morn and aft for the titular round. A lot of young fellows—many of 'em stars in hockey, football, etc.—are playing good golf now.

A para on lacrosse happenings here. Petes open senior playoffs at Miller Bowl tomorrow night against either Toronto or Fergus. The Torontos won 12-7 to tote a five-goal lead to Fergus tonight, the survivor having to come here the next night to open the best-of-five sawoffs. And that one ought to pack the place as the chips are now on the line. Local juniors trimmed Maitlands 18-4 and now lead their group with 25 points, the Falls having 21 and Mimico 18. No junior joust this Wednesday on local terrain, in case the senior fray is rained out and has to go the following night. Midget all-star drill atsix tonight in the secondary box, and the juves practise there at 7:30 this gloaming. Midgets open OLA playdowns away on the morrow.

Dealing 'em Off Cuff

CGE Golf League has its closing day at Kawartha on Aug. 25. . . Rain halted the "B" cricket match here Saturday but the P-W "A" team won over Parkdale in Toronto as Alf Pope made history for 'em with a century. . . . UEW soccer team dropped a real toughie 2-1 to Toronto CGE in the Dominion quarter final here Saturday aft. . . . Grid games with Ryersons will be four-pointers. . . . Orono edged the local junior ballsters 5-4 in a weekend exhibition, Batchelor hurling for the home crew. . . . In Viaduct Loop games over the weekend, Croftons beat Kingsways 2-1, the latter won 5-1 from Staffords, and then Oshawa downed the K's by a 20-5 count. . . . Civic League games at Armour Field: Monday, Bell vs. Police; Tuesday, Foresters vs. Grant and Loucks; Wednesday, Sal. Army vs. Busmen. . . . Fastball tonight: Quaker at Norwood, and Rays vs. McGinness at Brinton. . . . Lot of horses from this district entered in the harness races at the Peterborough Ex. this week. . . . Won't be long till the PCVS gridders are going through their practise paces. . . . And that's todays' output.

Junior Team Captures Playoff Spot

Lou Vitarelli's junior boxla team is assured a place this year in the junior "A" OLA playdowns. The Filter Queens time and time again filtered through a short-handed Maitland club Saturday at Miller Bowl for an 18-4 win.

Vitarelli's crew needed the win to consolidate at least a final second place position or a possible first place spot. At present with 12 wins, four losses and a tie for 25 points, the junior Petes have a four-point lead in the standing.

The Peterborough team has one more game to play, against the strong Mimico entry. A victory there would assure the Petes of first place.

At present the Niagara Falls team is in second with 21 points. Their final game is also with Mimico who have four games. Mimico is presently in third place with 18 points. Wins in the four remaining games will place Mimico in first and force Niagara into third and the junior "B" finals with Toronto.

During the first period and for moments in the second Saturday night, the nine Toronto players gave the Petes an even battle but that was all. They held the Petes to a 0-0 stanza in the first then dropped behind at the half 4-2. From therein Toronto was doomed.

Evened It Up

O'Reilly opened in the second but three minutes later Toronto was back on even terms on a single by Bond. Batley and B. Robinson then started to put the skids under the Maitlands with a pair in two minutes. Still with a little fight Toronto's Bass combined with Parker for their second goal. Brian Robinson assisted by brother Gary shoved the Maitlands down another goal by scoring before half-time.

The Maitlands then flopped and the Petes ran roughshod over them. O'Reilly opened in the third followed by goals by Heffernan, Burns, B. Robinson, Nickel, Powell and Farley. The score ended at the third 13-2.

O'Reilly for a third time opened the scoring in the fourth, this time followed by a pair by Fitzgerald and B. Robinson. Toronto took advantage of Brioux and Batley in the penalty box for slashing to score a goal by Cheesman. Heffernan retaliated but Bond then snared the last Toronto score. O'Reilly ended the scoring.

Two fights broke the monotony. Williams and Fitzgerald tangled in the second, both awarded with majors by referees Harry Wipper and Bun Hill. Late in the fourth Gary Robinson and Bass met after they roughed each other along the boards. Again both were rewarded with five-minute majors.

Brian Robinson again led the scoring with five goals backed by a four-goal job by O'Reilly and three-goal support by Heffernan. Singles went to Batley, Burns, Nickel, Powell, Farley and Fitzgerald.

Lineups:

Filter Queens: Goal, Nicholls (Simmons in the fourth); defence, Groves, Nickel; wings, Morrissey, O'Reilly; rover, G. Robinson; centre, B. Robinson; alts., Farley, Burns, Brioux, Batley, Fitzgerald, Heffernan, Powell.

Toronto: Goal, Stewart; defence, Rawbonk, Dancy; wings, Bond, Bass; rover, Cheesman; centre, Williams; alts., McConnell, Parker.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Jack Dempsey, dethroned as world's heavyweight boxing champion in 1926 and again beaten in 1927, started a comeback 20 years ago tonight. His barnstorming tour ended Aug. 15, 1932, when King Levinsky, Chicago fish peddler, gained a 10-round decision over him.

Toronto Beats UEW Team In Close Fray

In a closely-contested soccer game at Morrow Park on Saturday the UEW string of victories was snapped when Toronto CGE won out 2-1 in the Dominion Cup quarter finals. It was a fine battle between two top teams all the way.

The first half saw both goalies tested but unbeaten. The visitors forced several corners but the home defence scrambled the ball away each time. At the other end, Strong broke away on the right and, when the keeper punched his shot, nobody was there to drive it home. Play continued even with no scoring by halftime.

In the second, CGE played more constructive football and looked dangerous several times. Then, from a corner, the ball came to the unmarked left winger and he drove it into the rigging. Shortly after, they scored again from close in but UE tore back hard and, with 10 minutes to go, Strong scored on a pass from Holt. The homesters kept pressing and did everything but score. At the final whistle, they were still around the visitors' goal. Fred Mundy played a sterling game throughout at left half for UEW. The latter plays at Belleville next Saturday at three p.m. The team consisted of: Jones, Allen, Mundy, Davis, Craig, G. Smith, Holroyd, Robertson, Strong, A. Smith, J. Holt, and alternates Titshall and Jenson.

Westclox Ousts Belleville In PWSU Series

With M. Hodgson hurling five-hit ball and fanning nine, Westclox girls downed Belleville 10-1 Saturday on the Quinte diamond to sweep the first PWSU intermediate playdown round in two straight games. They had won handily at home in the opener of this provincial girls' series, and now await word on their second-round opponents. The classy Clockers had previously won the local senior city crown, an old habit with them.

A walk, error and out combined in the first inning to give Belleville a run and rob M. Hodson of a shutout. She only bore down when necessary, but had no trouble sailing through, with but two runners betting as far as third in succeeding stanzas. A. McGrath started for Belleville, but P. Jardine twirled the last six heats and did well in a relief role, allowing six hits and whiffing three. Her mates proved too inexperienced for the Armour Hill maidens.

Bea Morrow led the winners at bat with three for five, M. Owen hitting and fielding well, and J. McIntyre clouting a triple and single. M. Batley clicked for an unassisted double-play in the ninth heat. B. Young was good afield for the losers, and S. Twigg got two of the team's safeties in four attempts. The game was run off in an hour and 20 minutes, Westclox piling most of their runs in the first three frames. Teams:

Westclox—M. Batley, lf; B. Morrow, ss; J. McIntyre, 1b; M. Hawthorne, c; A. Anderson, cf; M. Owen, 3b; M. Selkirk, 2b; B. Rumball, rf; M. Hodgson, p.

Belleville—H. Reeves, 3b; J. Seguin, 2b; B. Young, 1b; P. Jardine, cf; D. Taylor, ss; S. Bovay, lf; M. Deyell, lf; S. Twigg, rf; B. Reeves, c; A. McGrath, p, cf; H. Waite, cf.

Argos Shade Calgary 36-35 As Tigers Whip Rough Riders

By The Canadian Press.

Ground attacks triumphed over aerial thrusts Saturday night as two exhibition games in Calgary and Edmonton ushered in the 1951 football season in western Canada. The Dominion champion Toronto Argos shaded Calgary Stampeders 36-35 while Edmonton Eskimos scored a 13-12 comeback victory over Saskatchewan Roughriders.

In the east, Hamilton Tiger-Cats won their second straight exhibition game against Big Four opposition, whipping Ottawa Rough Riders 38-17. Last week they beat Argonauts 17-11.

The fourth Big Four club, Montreal Alouettes, breezed to a 45-0 victory in a tune-up game against the intermediate Westmount Warriors.

The grind resumes tonight in Winnipeg for Argos who will meet the Blue Bombers in an exhibition repeat of the 1950 Grey Cup final, won 13-0 by Toronto.

The yardsticks told most of the story in the west. Argos steamrollered 359 yards along the ground, Stamps picking up 100. Eskimos ploughed through for 268 yards rushing compared with Roughriders' 84.

Passing by Stamps' Keith Spaith and Riders' Glen Dobbs kept the losers in contention.

Argos Hard-pressed

Argos led through but were hard-pressed by a three-touchdown Stampeder drive in the final quarter. Held to a 6-6 tie after the first quarter, they led 20-17 after the second and third frames.

Doug Smylie powered Argos to two touchdowns along the ground. Import quarterback Hobby Wirkowski from Miami University tossed passes to Joe Krol and Mary Whaley. Krol also kicked four converts and Whaley trapped Spaith behind the Calgary goal line for a safety touch.

Billy Bass converted a Stampeder fumble into a major and Ulysses Curtis got Toronto's sixth touchdown by scampering 33 yards through the entire Calgary team.

Spaith threw three touchdown passes to import end Bob Shaw and one each to Sugarfoot Anderson, Royal Copeland and Dick West. Shaw also kicked five converts.

Carried Off Field

Copeland and Jim Langford of Stamps were carried off the field in the fourth quarter with injuries, not believed serious.

In Edmonton, Saskatchewan led 5-1 after the first quarter, fell back 7-5 in the second and went ahead again 12-7 in the third.

In the fourth quarter coach Annis Stukus—without pads and helmet and wearing his luck-charm wrist watch—kicked the winning convert to fullback Mike King's six-yard touchdown plunge.

Negro quarter Bernie Custis sparked the Tiger-Cats to victory, tossing three touchdown passes, scoring a fourth major himself and putting on a fine defensive show.

Harold Waggoner got two Hamilton touchdowns, while Doug Gray, Floyd Cooper and Bob McDonald also crossed the line for the winners. Tip Logan booted five concerts and Ned McNeill connected for a field goal.

Steve Hatfield, Pete Karpuck and Bob Simson scored the Ottawa touchdowns with Hatfield and Al Baldwin kicking converts.

Orioles Tame Bisons, Toronto Loses

By The Associated Press.

Lanky Carl Drews, veteran mainstay of Baltimore Orioles, is hopeful of becoming a 20-game winner for the first time in his career.

The 31-year-old righthander started in organized baseball in 1939, but never achieved the charmed circle, although he came close with 19 victories with Newark in 1945.

Drews became the first International League hurler to win 16 games Sunday as he tamed Buffalo Bisons 2-1 in 10 innings.

The hard-working moundsman, who performed briefly in the American League with New York Yankees and St. Louis Browns, pitched his 19th complete game while making his 35th appearance of the season. He has toiled 227 innings for the sixth-place Orioles.

Drews was aidded at bat by Al Cihocki and Marv Rickert. Cihocki's 10th inning triple batted in the decisive run, while Rickert's 29th home run tied the score in the eighth inning.

Take Twin Bill

The league-leading Montreal Royals continued to roll as they captured a doubleheader from Ottawa Giants 11-1 and 4-1. Bob Alexander racked up his 15th triumph in the opener and Tom Lasorda twirled a brilliant two-hitter in the nightcap.

The second-place Rochester Red Wings, trailing the Royals by 12½ games, edged Springfield Cubs 6-5, in 10 innings. Ellis (Cot) Deal, recently acquired from Columbus of the American Association, won the game with a home run in the extra inning. Reliefer Ed Yuhas was credited with his 12th victory.

Toronto Maple Leafs and Syracuse Chiefs divided a twin bill. Hal Hudson and Ray Shore, appearing in his 49th game, combined to pitch Toronto to a 4-2 win in the opener. The Chiefs came back behind the slants of Jack Griffore to annex the second 9-3.

Toronto Whips Thistles 12-7

By The Canadian Press.

The Senior Ontario Lacrosse Association playoffs open tonight with Mimico Mountaineers meeting Brampton Excelsiors in Mimico while St. Catharines Athletics clash with the Tigers at Hamilton in the other quarter-final match.

Saturday night Toronto West Yorks took a five-goal lead in their two-game total-point series with Fergus by defeating the Thistles 12-7 at Toronto. Tonight the Yorkers go to Fergus for the final game.

Frank Factor was top-scorer for West York, netting four foals. Jack Howes scored three and Jim McNulty two. Don Campbell got two for Fergus.

Winner of the series will meet the defending champions, Peterborough Petes in Peterborough Tuesday.

DRY FLY CHAMP

At Washington, Lee Slaughter, Jr., of Dallas, Texas, won the title of national dry fly champion Saturday at the 43rd national casting tournament.

Slaughter tied with Charles Schall, of Afton, Mo., with scores of 99 each out of a possible 100. Slaughter then won the cast-off.

North Jory of Toronto scored 85 in the fly-casting event.

Dodgers Skidding Fast After Boston 14-3 Pasting, Indians Split Doubleheader

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

Is this going to be the calamitous 1942 campaign all over again for the skidding Brooklyn Dodgers? A week ago Dodgers were riding high, laughing their way to the pennant with a 13-game bulge over runner-up New York Giants. Today, following Sunday's 14-3 pasting in Boston, Brooks' lead now is a "mere" eight games over the rejuvenated Giants. That means that Giants, who whipped Philadelphia 5-4 for their ninth straight, have made up five games in a week.

Those eight lengths still represent an apparently safe margin, especially since the Dodgers have only 39 games left to play. But back in 1942, Brooklyn enjoyed an 8½-game lead over St. Louis Cardinals with 35 games to go—and lost the pennant to the Redbirds by two games.

It took the Cards 18 days and 23 games to make up the deficit. The next day, Sept. 13, Cards moved in front and were never headed.

Divide Pair

While the Giants are trying to make a race of it in the National League, the pace in the American continues at fever edge. Cleveland Indians regained undisputed possession of first place by splitting a pair with the White Sox in Chicago while Philadelphia's A's were burying New York Yankees under a 5-1 deluge. The Indians won the opener 4-0 and lost the nightcap 7-6 to move ½ game in front of the defending champions.

Boston's bounce-back Red Sox whipped Washington 8-3 to climb 3½ games off first place. Fifth-place Detroit swept a pair from St. Louis' cellar-dwelling Browns 5-2 and 6-2.

St. Louis Cardinals vaulted over the Phils into third place, winning two from Cincinnati 5-4 and 5-1. Pittsburgh Pirates took two from Chicago Cubs 4-2 and 5-4.

A Chicago turnout of 46,864 saw Early Wynn blank the White Sox with seven hits in the opener, then watched the Sox win the nightcap with a five-run seventh inning. Al Zarilla's ninth homer with a mate aboard proved the difference.

Knocked Out of Tie

A nine-run seventh — the biggest single inning scoring spree against Yankees this season — helped Morrie Martin knock the Yankees out of a first-place tie. Dave Philley collected five hits in five times at bat.

Ted Williams blasted his 26th homer as the Red Sox shelled Bob Porterfield for five runs in the first inning to give Boston a sweep of the three-game set in Washington.

Pat Mullin and George Kell sparked the Tigers to their double win before 18,369, largest Brownie home crowd since May, 1947. Mullin had three doubles and three singles, and Kell had a double and four singles.

Don Mueller's eighth-inning single scored Whitey Lockman with the run that gave the Giants their victory.

Warren Spahn chalked up his 15th win as the Braves slaughtered the Dodgers. Earl Torgeson and Willard Marshall homered for the victors. The loss was Brooklyn's fifth in its last seven games.

Cassels Urges Soldiers Keep Loyalty

WEST SECTOR, Korea, Aug. 20 (CP).—Maj.-Gen. Jim Cassels on Sunday exhorted Canadian soldiers under his command to add loyalty to the Commonwealth Division to the pride they already take in the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade.

Addressing the second passing-out parade of the brigade's non-commissioned officers' school and congratulating the 80 cadets on their "quite first-class turnout and drill," the division commander said:

"All of you think your unit the best in the world. You also think the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade the best in the world—and certainly in Korea.

"But at the same time you have loyalty—and great loyalty—to each member of the Commonwealth represented in the First Commonwealth Division.

"Don't let us have any fighting or bickering between our various units and formations. Remember that other nations too have been here for some time and also have established high reputations."

Parade commander during a brief ceremonial was Tpr. B. L. Godall, Thessalon, Ont. Platoon commanders were L. Cpls. Jack Sargent, Owen Sound and Rene Laurin of Montreal. Parade markers were Tpr. Harry Livingstone, Montreal, and Cpl. J. D. McCohmick, Toronto.

Top student in the class was L. Cpl. U. C. Kelly, of Montreal, while four group winners were Goodall, Tpr. J. McGrath, Belleville, and Ptes. L. P. Vincent, Asbestos, Que., and G. U. Dunbar, Haney, BC.

Rail Walkout Cripples Plant

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 20 (AP) —The Lackawanna plant of Bethlehem Steel, which employs nearly 17,000 workers, starting shutting down Sunday after a "sick" walkout by about 300 conductors and brakemen of the South Buffalo Railroad.

The men, members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen (Ind.), reported "sick" for Saturday night's shift and the early shifts Sunday, according to C. F. Dullenkopf, vice-president of the railroad.

Dullenkopf said there was no explanation for the men reporting "sick."

John F. Bartus, general chairman of Lodge 758, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said the disruption "is caused by approximately 1,000 violations of the working agreement and two unjust disciplinary cases."

Wichita Pilot Cracks World's Distance Time

WATERTOWN, NY, Aug. 20—(AP)— Bob Faris of Wichita, Kas., who apparently has cracked the world's distance record for "very light" planes, landed Saturday night after a flight of approximately 1,210 miles.

Faris touched his one-place M. ney "Mite" down at the airport in the nearby village of Dexter. He had originally planned to fly to Old Town, Me.

But Faris reported that he had only 13 gallons of gasoline left and that he would be unable to reach Old Town. At that time, he radioed that he was over Dunnville, Ont., crossing the Grand River, south of Hamilton.

Moonshine Booming

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 —(AP)— Bootleg is outselling legal whisky in the United States and more moonshine is being produced today that during the peak of prohibition, the Herald Tribune says. The newspaper reached its conclusion from records collected by Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., an association of major liquor producers.

Hail Spoils Tobacco

SIMCOE, Aug. 20—(CP)—In a storm which struck Saturday nearly 250,000 pounds of flue-cured tobacco was destroyed by hail. The storm covered an area of about 12 square miles north and west of Simcoe. In some cases fields were completely wiped out while other farms escaped unscathed.

Wild Ducks Dying

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Aug. 20—(CP)—Thousands of wild ducks are dead and more are dying at Johnstone Lake, 20 miles south of Moose Jaw. Botulism is said to be the cause. Most of the dead birds are mallards and pintails, which apparently drank lake water when it was impregnated with germs from decaying vegetation.

Dies After Operation

TORONTO, Aug. 20 (CP)—An autopsy on the body of John Curran, 17-year-old apprentice printer who died Saturday after an operation to reset a fractured arm, revealed that he died from a heart attack following the operation.

Toronto Man Wins Feature Race

RCYC Skipper Takes Governor-General's Trophy In Last Race

Quiet-spoken Bud Whittaker of Toronto's Royal Canadian Yacht Club captured the Governor-General's Trophy in the feature race of the Canadian Dinghy Association regatta Saturday at Clear Lake.

The young skipper, with Bill McLeod of RCYC as crew member, headed the 30 competitors throughout to hear the finisher's gun in three hours, 13 minutes and 59 seconds, despite shifting winds and a sudden squall on the last lap.

Coming from well behind, Bill Gooderham of RCYC—international winner there Friday—finished in second position in 3:18.16, just 10 second ahead of club-mate Paul McLaughlin, who won the Canadian dinghy crown the day before. Eight dropped out before the finish. Whittaker was forced out last year in the 13-mile race at Toronto.

There were 48 craft competing during the fourth annual four-day CDA meet at Clear Lake, the first time this event has been held in the Kawarthas. Entertainment was provided each evening to the competitors and guests by the host Stony Lake Yacht Club.

The race finished at 6.30, but it was some time later before the last boat was beached. Whittaker had a substantial lead as he passed the officials' launch, and the second and third dinghies were well ahead of the trailing fleet, Jack Carter of Essex, Conn., being fourth. Consensus among the competing skippers was that it had been a good meet in ideal surroundings, despite some rainy and windy weather. South Beach Hotel was headquarters.

PROVINCIAL CONSTABLE Donald W. Erskine, Campbellford, inspects the car owned by Jack Smith, 26, following an accident Saturday night on Highway 30, five miles north of Campbellford. The car is a total wreck and its occupants, Smith and Mike Mahoney, 25, managed to crawl out through the shattered windshield uninjured. The accident took place on a stretch of road under construction, when Smith met another car on the one-lane detour.—(W. W. Reid Photo)

Take Survey Of Tourists

"What brought you to the Kawarthas?" This question along with several others is being presented to American tourists in Peterborough by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber is making a two week survey to find out what tourists from the United States like and dislike about Peterborough and the Kawarthas. The object of the survey is to discover what Americans want when they vacation here and follow their suggestions as nearly as possible.

Other information the survey will uncover is an idea of how much money Americans are spending in the city and district for food, gas and oil and souvenirs. They are also being asked for suggestions how the Kawarthas could be best publicized in their district.

The survey started last Thursday and is being carried out by Don Kingdon, of the Chamber.

Two Men Unhurt As Car Skids, Crashes Tree

CAMPBELLFORD, Aug. 20 — (ENS)—Two Campbelford men narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday night, when their 1950 model car went out of control on Highway 30 about five miles north of Campbellford, and came to rest on its top against a large oak tree.

Jack Smith, 26, owner and driver of the car, and Mike Mahoney, 25, the only other occupant, managed to crawl out through a shattered window without a scratch.

The particular section of highway where the car came to grief is at present under construction. A section of the roadway is being lowered, and traffic is detoured around the 15-foot excavation, with cars coming from both directions using the left-hand lane.

No Warning Lights

Smith said there were no warning lights when he approached the steep drop, and he did not notice it until the car was almost on top of the bank. He swung to the left to avoid dropping into the deep pit, losing control of the car. The auto tore up a section of the roadway for about 75 feet, flipped over on its top, and came to rest against a large oak tree.

Provincial Constable Donald W. Erskine of Campbellford arrived on the scene and set out flares. He also procured additional red warning lanterns from a construction shed nearby and set these up on the roadway, fearful that further accidents might be caused at the spot.

The car was a total wreck.

Attending Funeral Of Robert H. Muir

Hurrell Dodds and Arthur R. Carpenter left this morning for Toronto as representatives of Peterborough branch of the Canadian Legion at the funeral there this afternoon of Robert H. Muir, formerly of this city.

Mr. Muir was a veteran of World War I, and was the first president of the Great War Veterans' Association, forerunner of the Canadian Legion. The late Sidney Whatley was first secretary of the local GWVA. Mr. Muir was for some years caretaker of the Peterborough armouries.

City Flag Firms Get Share Of Orders For Royal Visit

While the business outlook for the flag and bunting manufacturers is not as bright as one would anticipate with the coming Royal visit, one thing is certain. Manufacturers in Peterborough are getting their share of the orders, and are experiencing a problem in filling them.

Mrs. Harold Dunford, owner of Canadian Flag Manufacturing Company, and chief designer and cutter of the firm, says the heaviest buyer of flags is undoubtedly the government. With the firm's present orders for flags for the Army, Navy and Air Force, trouble in finding enough material to fill orders for the Royal visit is being experienced.

The firm is looking after its regular customers first, and anticipates selling all the flags it can manufacture. Mrs. Dunford thinks it a little early to tell just how much the Royal visit will increase sales. "People are not going to buy a lot of decorations if they can't get a look at the Royal couple," she said.

Will Sell All

P. S. Downs of the J. J. Turner Company says his firm will likely sell all the flags it can manufacture. Mr. Downs gave the reason he believes many firms are having trouble filling orders on such short notice is because of the high prices on wool. Prices are continually climbing, with the result manufacturers carry only a comparatively small stock of bunting, hoping for a rollback of prices. "Bunting is very hard to get at the present time," said Mr. Downs. It now takes from three to six months to get orders through.

While the pressure is not as heavy as anticipated, the big rush of business could come at the last minute, according to Mr. Downs. He say the Royal visit is so widespread, that people are reluctant to spend a lot of money in decorating a place where the Royal couple will probably spend only a few minutes.

"One thing is fairly certain," said Mr. Downs. "Anyone who has flags will no doubt sell all they have." And, according to those who should know, this business will likely come at the last minute.

Laundry Workers Get 12-Cent Hike

Effective today some 50 employees of Fannings Launderers and Dry Cleaners will receive a 12-cent-an-hour increase in their wages. And a quota system, beginning within the next two months, is expected to boost their wages an extra 20 per cent.

Fanning employees, all but foremen and office workers, are members of Local 1112, Textile Workers' Union of America (CIO-CCL).

The first contract expired July 3 and the company and the union have been negotiating since then. The new contract will last till July 2, 1952.

A daily quota is being set for the workers. When they have exceeded that amount they receive a bonus. On an average the workers should get 20 per cent more wages, said Albert Johnston, TWUA director for the area.

"We have found the company most co-operative during negotiations," commented Johnston.

Bumpy Flight

MAKFTON, England—(CP)—Lorne Welch said he felt as though he had been riding a bucking broncho after he brought his glider down here, completing eight hours in the air battling strong cross winds. He flew 190 miles from Derbyshire and reached a maximum of 6,800 feet.

"THEY WON'T BELIEVE ME," said Jack Cromling, Monongahela, Penn., when he was discussing the 75 pounds of fish he has in cold storage. He and his wife caught the five muskies while staying at their cottage at Bradley Bay near Campbellford last week. He's keeping them to take home to show his friends who mightn't believe his story. The largest is a 26-pound fish measuring 47½ inches. He also has a 19-pound, 40-inch fish, a 43-inch 20 pounder, and a 31-inch eight pounder.—(W. W. Reid Photo)

Tourist Irked By Cigarette Confiscation

The steel man from Youngstown, Ohio, said he was having a grand time Deer Bay, but he was still peeved at the government's temporary confiscation of three cartons of cigarettes.

"Coming over here for three weeks, I estimated that four cartons would be plenty, but at the border the Canadian customs men took three of them and left me one carton. That means I have to buy a substitute supply in Peterborough, and they don't seem to taste the same as the stock from home.

"I suppose that is only a notion. We all have them. The irritating thing in this experience was that you would think I was a smuggler. I wouldn't think of breaking the law or snitching and all that petty stuff.

"I could have passed a carton to my friend who doesn't smoke cigarettes. But, he does smoke cigars. I'm not complaining. We're meeting a lot of fine people. Everybody is friendly, but picking up those few cigarettes just seemed silly. The customs man gave me a receipt for the three cartons, and I can pick them up on my way home if I want to, but they are not much good to me then. It isn't the price of the cigarettes."

The Youngstown man was buying cigarettes with the blue label, indicating that apparently they came from the US. And as that looked like coals to Newcastle he was asked how it came about.

"That's the only flaw in the holidays, and it is hardly worth mentioning, but you asked me. You should have been up the lake the other day when my friend caught a 7-lb. pickerel. That was something; coming up here seven years, and finally gets a big fish and a whole lot of fun landing it."

Indian River Man Wins Boat, Outboard

Not only that but one of the new teachers will be principal as well.

Plans were made Friday night by the Durham county high school board for outfitting a room in the basement with equipment for shop work. Orders will be placed also for typewriters and tables for the commercial classes.

During the summer both the upper and lower halls of the school have been redecorated. The walls were done in pastel blue with slightly darker woodwork and the ceilings are in cream.

During a recess in the board meeting, coffee, sandwiches and cake were served by members of the Home and School Association. Those who supplied or helped in serving were Miss Ellen Kent, Mrs. Louis H. Winslow and Mrs. Bruce Ingham.

Cottagers Alarmed As Algae Thick On Kawarthas; Two Cattle First Victims

Parents Forbid Children To Swim In Water Covered With Pea-Green Scum; Condition Thought Due To Heat, Pollution

"Bright Lands and Shining Waters"—the Kawarthas—are blighted, with green scum. The northern chain of lakes, upper Stony excepted, looks like polluted pea soup at the present time. But unlike pea soup, it is poisonous. On Sunday on the east shore of Clear lake near the YMCA Boys' Camp, two range cattle of a herd of 38 beasts died from drinking the water. The herd is owned jointly by the Tedford brothers, Russel, Roland and Stewart.

City Veterinarian R. W. Ford said he believed death was due to algae poisoning.

Cottager C. M. Serson spent the best part of the day driving the cattle away from the water after two beasts dropped dead in their tracks on shore after drinking from the lake. A few dogs, pets of the various cottage families, were also ill but managed to get rid of the poisonous matter from their systems.

Mr. Serson phoned the owners of the herd of cattle who proceeded to Clear lake with all haste and herded the remaining 36 animals into an enclosed pasture owned by Howard Dunford; the property has a fresh spring well on it.

Cottagers Alarmed

The cottage colony in that area is naturally very alarmed about the condition of the polluted water. John Madden said to-day that they did not like the thought of boiling their vegetables in the water; they get drinking water from a tested spring on the west shore of the lake.

Doctor Ford was phoned about the matter by the owners of the herd. He said that an autopsy of the animals would be difficult because the poisonous matter disintegrated in the intestines too quickly to be observed under clinical conditions.

First In 1948

The first occurence of cattle poisoning was at Sturgeon Lake in 1948 and following this en extensive report was made shortly after that in Canadian Journal of Comparative Medicine.

It revealed, in part, that algae conditions at that time were fostered by a period of continuous hot weather, a gentle south wind and a high organic content of the water as a result of sewage pollution.

The report also said that much of the difficulty of algal poisoning has been the dependence of studies upon field sources of toxic material. These sources disapper rapidly apparently due to a changeover in species of algal flora. The result has been, as in sturgeon Lake poisonings, that when investigators return for more material it is not available and the study has to be terminated.

Burwash Escapee Paints Dizzy Trail For Police

COBOURG, Aug. 20 (ENS).—Chased at an 80-mile-an-hour clip from Cobourg, Edward Walter Fryer alias Edward Rembrandt, who escaped from Burwash on August 10, was arrested by Provincial Constable C. Meadows in the village of Grafton last night.

In the previous few hours, Rembrandt had painted a dizzy trail for police. According to police the sequence of events started when the reformatory escapee stole a car last night at Newcastle, abandoning a stolen Toronto car there. While in Newcastle he broke into a dwelling and a store, stealing clothing and cash.

He headed west and was spotted by Provincial Constable R. Kowal who fired a shot at the car. The fugitive abandoned the car and ran. Later he stole a station wagon from a tourist camp in the district and after a radio alert had been sent out, Constable Meadows spotted it at Cobourg and gave chase.

He drove the police cruiser at 80 miles an hour and finally headed Rembrandt into the side of the highway at Grafton. He handcuffed him and brought him back to Cobourg jail where he is awaiting transfer to Bowmanville. Police said that he is also wanted by Toronto authorities.

Fog Alarm

Workmen fogging several of the Exhibition buildings on Saturday night brought alarm to the minds of at least one person. Lights were on in the buildings and shone through the DDT fog to give a flame-like effect. Units of the Fire Department answered an alarm from one southend resident, only to find workmen casually killing bugs with the fog.

Drop Old Custom Of Giving Groom Servant Girls

JAIPUR, India (Reuters)—The age-old custom among Indian nobility, presenting servant girls to the groom as part of the bride's marriage dowry, has been abolished in Rajasthan, home of India's Rajput princes and chieftains.

The state government, which has enforced a series of reforms since the integration of the numerous principalities in this part of India, decreed that giving away human beings as marriage dowry constituted "A violation of the sanctity of person, guaranteed by the constitution."

The young nobleman of Rajasthan now will miss the large retinue of "dowry girls" accompanying his bride.

The "Goli" community, to which these girls belong, regard this reform as marking its formal liberation from centuries of serfdom. The Goli system has actually been out of vogue since the beginning of Rajasthan's transi-

Its official abolition, just an- corollary to the liquidation of feudal landlordism to be carried out by the state government shortly.

From Hardy Stock

The Golis of Rajasthan are of hardy peasant stock. They are attached to the land and the Thakur (the chieftain) to whom the land belongs. The Golis cultivate the Thakur's land and work as domestic servants at the Thakur's residence.

Originally, the Goli system had a specific purpose—the young bride desired servants whom she had known since childhood to keep her company in the new surroundings of her husband's home.

The Golis, even when well taken care of, were virtual prisoners in the palaces of the princes and noblemen who kept them. At times they were ill-treated by the men who were supposed to protect them.

Carney-Gallagher Two Ring Wedding In Knox Church

A double ring wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. H. G. Douglas Saturday afternoon united Velma Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gallagher, to Armand Robert Carney, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Carney, all of Peterborough. Setting was the Knox United Church, decorated with pink and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a dress of pale yellow imported Swiss lace. Her hat was of white velveteen and she wore white lace gloves and a corsage of white roses.

Miss Margery Morrison as bridesmaid was in a gold leaf lace dress and wore a hat of burnished bronze, brown gloves and a corsage of red roses. Mr. James Marshall was the groomsman.

The reception was in the Colonial room. The bride's mother received, wearing a grey figured Chinese silk dress with navy straw hat and corsage of red roses. Assisting her, the groom's mother wore a navy ensemble and red rose corsage.

When the bridal couple left later on their wedding trip to United States, Mrs. Carney was wearing a tan shantung dress with white accessories and corsage of roses and she carried a beige shortie coat.

Marrocco-Larsen

St. Henry's Church, Leask, Sask., was scene of a quiet wedding when Rita Theresa Larsen, daughter of Louis Larsen, MLA, and Mrs. Larsen, became the bride of Dominic Thomas Marrocco, son of the late R. Marrocco and Mrs. Mary Marrocco, of Peterborough.

The bride was given in marrigae by her father and had as attendants Mrs. Wm. Flewelling and her sister, Miss Ingrid Larsen. Miss Jane Anne Flewelling was flower girl. The groom was attended by Mr. Wm. Flewelling and Mr. Oliver Robin was usher.

The Rev. F. A. Marrocco, director, Social Action Department, Canadian Catholic Conference, Ottawa, and a brother of the groom, celebrated the nuptial mass. During the mass, Mr. Pat McGrath, Leask, sang several hymns, accompanied at the organ by Miss Suzanne Robert.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Marrocco was employed for several years at the Canadian Catholic Conference, Ottawa, and also took special studies in social science and the co-operative movement at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, NS.

Following the nuptials, relatives and friends joined the newlyweds at breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Larsen. The Rev. J. A. St. Pierre, Leask parish priest, acted as master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride. Father Marrocco gave a short and inspiring talk.

Later in the day a reception was held for the many friends of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrocco will make their home in Ontario, where the groom will be doing post-graduate work at the University of Western Ontario, London.

Woman Leads 1,500 Pipers High Constable of Scotland

The Countess of Erroll, who lead 1,500 pipers along Princess St. Edinburgh on Saturday and behind them marched the representatives of 30 clans, is the Hereditary High Constable of Scotland. Twenty-eight years old, she is the second women Constable since Bruce granted the title to her ancestors after the Battle of Bannockburn. She has precedence over all other title holders in Scotland.

The first woman Constable was Countess Mary who turned out the King's Archer Bodyguard to fight for Bonnie Prince Charlie's father in 1715. Even to this day one of the duties of the Constable is to command the fedal army in Scotland. Her forces consist of the Company of Archers and the Atholl Highlanders, the Duke of Atholl's private army.

In theory at least the bonnie Countess could turn out her little army to restore law and order anywhere in the kingdom.

Another command which falls to the Countess is that of the Constable's Guard. This guard, called the Lord High Constable's Doorward Guard of Partizans, still performs its duty of guarding the door of the King's Chamber while he is staying at Holyrood Castle.

As well as guarding the King, the Countess is responsible for punishing any cases of assault or breach of the peace in the "Verge of the Court". That means within a four-mile radius of the palace.

In accordance with tradition the countess appoints an Edinburgh lawyer to be her deputy at the palace and to hold her High Constable's Court.

In the days when kings were crowned in Scotland, the Constable was on hand to gird the Sword of State round the new monarch. But nowadays the Constable merely carries a baton in the coronation procession.

The Countess's husband is the Hon. Ian Moncrieffe, an Edinburgh advocate.

Suffragette First Woman To Be Head of Quebec Party

By MAX MCMAHON

MONTREAL—(CP)—The first woman ever to lead a recognized party in Quebec politics is a 53-year-old grandmother, long interested in women's progress.

Madame Therese Casgrain, recently elected leader of the Quebec section of the CCF party, has been known for 20 years at a tireless champion of the rights of women in Quebec.

She played a big part in obtaining the franchise for Quebec women in 1940, and in helping to bring about legislation the following year which allows women to practice law in this province.

It was Mme. Casgrain, too, who made sure that the federal Family Allowance cheques were made payable to mothers—not fathers—in Quebec.

When the first cheques were about to be mailed word leaked out that for some reason it would be the fathers who would be recipients in Quebec. Mme. Casgrain stumped the province, hounded federal officials and organized a flood of protests to Ottawa. Her campaign lasted only three weeks but when the cheques came out, later than those for other parts of Canada, they came to the women.

Joined Three Years Ago

Mme. Casgrain joined the CCF three years ago because, she said, she felt the party had a "positive approach" to social questions which fitted in with her way of thinking.

She had not always had socialise leanings. In 1942 she was an independent Liberal candidate for the Charlevoix-Saguenay seat in the house of commons, which her late husband, Mr. Justice Pierre Casgrain, had vacated on his appointment to the Quebec superior court. Her father, Sir Rodolphe Forget, earlier had held this seat for 13 years as a Conservative.

Mrs. Casgrain didn't win, but was second in a field of five, losing out to Frederick Dorion, independent and veteran of politics.

Urges Housing

Mme. Casgrain has just returned from a four-month tour of Europe which was to have been just a holiday, but the vivacious grandmother isn't content to go around looking at historic monuments and ancient edifices.

While in Germany she attended the International Socialist Conference at Frankfurt as a CCF delegate.

But it was Holland that impressed her most. "In Amsterdam they have the most wonderful low-cost housing schemes I have ever seen," she said. "The Dutch don't have the marvellous natural resources that we have in Canada. It's just that they know what they want, and they go out and get it."

"Here is Canada we spend vast sums every year on hospitals. I think that is wonderful, but wouldn't it be better if we concentrated on getting the people out of the slums and into decent houses? That alone would cut down a lot of the disease that puts people into hospitals. That would be positive.

"Some people call the CCF impractical idealists. Well, I have brought up a family of four and now have three grandchildren for whom I baby-sit. I know what it is to be practical."

African Natives Learn First-Aid With Enthusiasm

JOHANNESBURG — (CP)— Knowledge of magical incantations, of evil- tasting potions and of "throwing the bones" no longer is sufficient for the African witch doctor.

Even in the most remote villages it is becoming more and more necessary for him to have a knowledge of first aid, and it must be according to Red Cross standards, supported by certificates and medals.

The native African is fast taking to regulation first aid, and incantations just won't do any more to treat a drowning person, for instance. There are far too many tribesmen with knowledge of artificial respiration for the witch doctor to get by with the old spells.

The natives pack the stands at every first aid contest between African teams competing for the favor of the white judges and officials, and of the crowd. Such events draw as much enthusiasm as a football game.

Team-leaders put on a great show, tumbling and leaping, clowning and howling. But in spite of the horseplay the tests are carried out with speed and efficiency. Tourniquets are in the right spots, bandages correctly tied and applied, rules of hygiene are not forgotten and splints are just what the doctor ordered.

Lots Of Enthusiasm

The best-tied bandage will slip sometimes, and when this happens there is a roar of derision for the offending team. But after competition finishes there is a grand party for the winners. Meat and potatoes are roasted over open fires and African beer flows freely. African drums pound out a challenge which carries down the wind to the next compound.

These events have helped to train thousands of illiterate natives in first aid work. Last year alone that total was 37,942, and the reserve of trained first-aiders grows every year.

William A. Tasker, Red Cross secretary in the Ran and chief of the Red Cross service which trains them, estimates there are nearly 500,000 qualified workers now.

Their growing influence in tribal life is reflected in numerous official reports. One magistrate notes that a party of white motorists received efficient first aid from a blanket-clad tribesman when their car overtuned. Another reports that an African woman's life was saved by a first-aider who properly treated ugly wounds inflicted by a crocodile.

In the gold and coal mines of the Transvaal the first aid expert gets an extra three-pence a shift and is in line for promotion to the coveted job of "boss boy."

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Suitable Reception Menu For Late Summer Wedding

At the request of Mrs. V. H. a wedding reception menu which includes turkey (also on request) has been fitted together to look beautiful and to taste even more so.

These amounts will serve from 25 to 26 people so Mrs. V. H. will have to triple them.

The menu is planned to serve cold plate style because this is what Mrs. V. H. suggested, but it could be adapted to buffet service easily—and would look beautiful on a buffet table.

WEDDING RECEPTION MENU

Roast Turkey
Kentucky Salad (a jellied fruit and vegetable salad)
Cottage Cheese Stuffed Tomatoes
OR
Potato-Salad-Stuffed Tomatoes
Cheese Stuffed Celery
Hot Buttered Parkerhouse Rolls
Maple Walnut Ice Cream
OR
Vanilla Ice Cream with Preserved Black Cherry Sauce
Orange Pecan Cookies
Wedding Cake
Tea Coffee
Mints Salted Nuts

Directions

As I have told Mrs. V. H. already four turkeys weighing 15 lbs. after they are drawn will be needed to serve 80 adequately.

KENTUCKY SALAD

One cup each boiling water, sugar, diluted vinegar, cold water, ½ teaspoon salt, 6 level measuring tablespoonfuls of gelatine, ¼ cup each lemon juice and vinegar, 2 2/3 cup pineapple juice from canned pineapple, 2 cups each chopped cucumber and canned pineapple. Mix together boiling water, sugar, vinegar and salt; heat to boiling point. Soak the gelatine in the cold water, then dissolve it in the hot liquid stirring, with pan removed from heat. Add lemon juice, second small quantity of vinegar, which should be tarragon if available, and pineapple syrup. Cool, stirring often. When mixture just begins to congeal, add the cucumber and pineapple. Pour into moistened moulds to chill and set. Cut into cubes or diamonds to serve on plates.

STUFFED TOMATOES

I have tried to avoid the inclusion of potato salad—since you are served it everywhere. If you think the cottage cheese stuffed tomatoes would not be filling enough use the potato-salad stuffed ones. They are both quite delicious. Cottage cheese should be flavored and moistened by addition of chives and mayonnaise.

ORANGE PECAN COOKIES (4 Dozen Cookies)

One cup shortening, ½ cup each white and brown sugar, 1 beaten egg, 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 2 cups flour, ¼ teaspoon soda, ½ cup chopped pecans. Thoroughly cream the shortening and sugar. Add the egg, orange juice and rind, beating until smooth. Add the flour and soda sifted together, then the pecans. Shape in a roll 1½ inches across. Chill well wrapped overnight. Slice thin and bake on an ungreased cookie sheet at 375 deg. Fahr. for 10 to 12 minutes. Watch these closely.

WEDDING PUNCH (serves 25)

(I am including this because you may want to serve it too.)

Four cups water, 1 cup sugar, 1 quart canned apple juice, 2 sticks cinnamon, juice of 2 oranges and 2 lemons, 4 cloves, 4 cups cold tea, 1 quart gingerale. Boil water, sugar and spice together 5 minutes. Chill and strain. Add apple juice and fruit juice and tea. Chill. At serving time add gingerale and ice.

Realistic Film 3-Dimensional

MONTREAL—(CP)—In the not far distant future, tanks may roar right off theatre screens, over the heads of audiences and disappear with a crash through balcony exits.

This far-fetched fantasy already is a reality to W. W. Wells Coates, British industrial designer, who explained in a recent interview here how he worked this and similar tricks for an experimental film at the Festival of Britain.

"We have designed and are operating telecinema, a three- dimensional operation with three-dimensional pictures and three dimensional sound," said Mr. Coates. "The images of the screen seem to come right off the surface and descend into the audience. Special sound devices follows the movement of the object."

Mr. Coates sid that three-dimensional effects have been tried by movie-makers before but the sound angle is new.

"I feel there is room for television and cinema existing side by side in most countries," Mr. Coates said. "New cinema techniques will call for a new type of movie-making while television will adapt itself to the special needs of the home viewer . . ."

Mary Rew, Toronto Is Known Here

Elizabeth Mary Rew, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Rew, Toronto, and the late Arthur Rew, formerly of Peterborough, became the bride of Harley Stewart Pepper, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Pepper, Toronto. The marriage took place in St. Olaves Church, Swansea, the Canon J. D. Paterson officiating.

She was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Peter Gray, and wore a princess gown of white lace over satin with yoke inset with pearls. Her veil of tulle and lace was caught by a coronet of chantilly lace which fell over her train. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses, a silver horse shoe and white heather, a gift from Scotland.

Maid of honor was her sister Mrs. Dorothea Wise wearing pale green nylon; bridesmaids Mrs. Eveline Basenger in blue nylon and Mrs. Lila Rew in yellow taffeta; the junior bridesmaid Nora Drummond in blue taffeta with pink velvet trim.

Maurice Rew was groomsman and Arthur Rew, William Rew, Harry Rew and Burton Wise were ushers.

The brides mother received wearing beige lace, faille with pink hat, corsage of pink roses, assisted by the groom's mother in sandlewood silk, blue hat and corsage of roses.

After the reception in Swansea Legion Memorial Hall the couple left for Trenton, New Jersey, New York and the Adirondacks. The bride chose a suit of grey and blue, with blue accessories for travelling. They will live in Swansea.

Bradley Hints Truce In Korea

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP) —Gen. Omar N. Bradley said Sunday night he is anticipating a truce in Korea. But he warned that any letdown in American defence effort might be "handing our future chances for freedom to those who would enslave us."

In a CBS radio talk, the United States Chief of Staff merely noted "we Americans are anticipating an armistice" and did not elaborate. Word from Korea was that cease-fire negotiations slipped back toward a pattern of deadlock.

Even with a truce, he cautioned, "it may be some time before our troops are withdrawn."

Florida Woman Wins Air Race

WINDSOR, Aug. 20 —(CP)— Mrs. Peggy Lennox of Tampa, Fla., was first across the finish line here Sunday in the third annual all women's international air race from Orlando, Fla., to Windsor.

Mrs. Lennox, a wartime pilot for the RAF Ferry Command, set her Beechcraft Bonanza down only 20 seconds later than the time set in her flight plan. She won the race in 1949 and was runner-up last year.

Twelve planes took off from Orlando including four Canadian fliers.

Wool Prices Causing Great Worry

By JOHN TRACEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 —(CP)— The price you'll pay for next spring's new suit may hang on what is going on in British Commonwealth wool-growing countries now.

Last week wool auctions opened in New Zealand after being closed since February by a waterfront strike, and prices broke as much as 70 per cent from February's peak. Prices on the future market of the New York cotton exchange were shaved two to six cents a pound the same day.

Australian auctions open in a few days and the wool trade is wondering what will happen there. Australian wool prices fell 50 per cent from their peak during the last three months of spring auctions, but still closed a good 600 per cent above 1939 levels.

Critical Season

Australian wool brokers are reported regarding the coming auctions as the opener of what may be one of the most critical seasons in Australian wool history.

In the United States, the world's biggest wool buyer, the trade regards the New Zealand price tumble as a good indication where wool prices may be headed. But mill men are reluctant to make predictions until the sales have progressed far enough to indicate a trend.

Since the outbreak of the Second World War, wool prices have fluctuated sharply and the British government has announced a plan for a Commonwealth wool-buying authority to stabilize prices.

The Commonwealth plan is to establish a central authority in London to set a general price level for wool from time to time. The authority would prevent violent swings in wool prices but would not try to hold prices artificially high nor prevent all price fluctuations.

Important Place

The wool trade holds an important place in the economies of Britain, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa and any sharp price break would bring their governments quickly into the market picture.

The plan, announced last week in a British white paper, must be approved by the governments concerned. So far there is no indication what kind of reception it will receive.

Meanwhile, many leaders in the US clothing trade are holding back the opening of their spring lines to see where raw wool prices will stop.

The wool situation is another headache in the already complicated clothing-industry situation in the US. Synthetic fibres have come along in recent years as substitutes for high-priced wool and fabric makers have spurted to capture a major part of the suit trade.

Right now wool and synthetic men are at loggerheads over a proposal that the office of defence mobilization at Washington give a tax-relief incentive to the expansion of plants to produce synthetics. A decision on that is expected soon.

DOROTHY DIX

Having Man Underfoot Can Have Its Problems

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband and I have been married nearly five years. I am 50, he is 60 and retired. He is very good to me, but here is my problem. You know how a woman hates to do housework when her husband is constantly about the house. If he goes out into the yard, he runs in and out asking me what I am doing. Even if I'm sewing he likes to stand over me and see what's going on. He makes me so nervous and I haven't the courage to tell him so. I'd so much like to have a little privacy, but I have none. He gives me everything I need for myself or the house, but I would like to get out with other women for a change.

Dorothy Dix

E. R.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You have so much to be thankful for that it almost seems flying in the face of Providence to carp over seeming trifles. I do know, however, just how you feel and realize the importance you place on having time to yourself. To have reached your years and have a devoted husband around the place is an ideal that most women would give anything for. By 50, a woman usually has either become widowed, divorced, or has a wandering husband for whom the family hearth has no allure. Compared to these situations, yours, I know you will agree, is most enviable.

He Loves You Too Much

Your husband's only fault is that he loves you too much—if that is possible. Don't risk losing this devotion by hurting his feelings. You'll be everlastingly sorry if you do. You must make an effort to see your position objectively, and accept it. Since you apparently have plenty of spare time, why not devote some of it to a charitable cause, which will accomplish the double purpose of getting you out of the house without causing ill-will, and doing your good turn for the day?

Loneliness is a far worse plight than lack of privacy; be thankful it is not your lot!

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Recently I met a young lady whom I like very much. I see her once or twice a week and we write each other often. She writes about moonlight and romance, and has expressed this in a letter to a mutual friend. This friend claims the young lady should not have such romantic thoughts at her age, which is 34. Is this true? I am 40.

FRED

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Who dares put an age limit on moonlight and roses, stars and romance? At what age must love become practical rather than sentimental? Since when are all the thrills of dating and courtship the prerogative of youth alone? Your friend of the free advice, is, I fear a slightly embittered misanthrope who cannot bear the sight of people having fun.

We have been regaled, in recent years, by tales of many romances between people in their forties, fifties, and on occasion even older. Surely these lovers let no barrier of years spoil their rose-colored dreams.

Pay no attention to cynics who would embalm everyone past 20. Your young lady is entitled to have a mind full of moonlight and romance; let no one say her nay!

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am 17 and like a boy who is in the army. He came over from Europe two and one-half years ago and doesn't write English very well. I wrote to him, and received letters written for him by his buddy, who has now been transferred to another camp. I would like to write to my boy friend but he thinks his English is very bad and won't write back. Should I write him anyway?

TERRY

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: By all means write to your friend; tell him you would far rather have letters written by himself, even though the English is not perfect. His reluctance to write in a language foreign to him is understandable, but if you can persuade him to undertake the correspondence, his command of English will soon show an improvement.

Was Misquoted CCF Head Says

HALIFAX, Aug. 20 (CP)—Tom MacLachlan, of Sydney, Nova Scotia, president of the CCF, said Sunday night that a newspaper report of a speech he made Friday was filled with "misquotations, misrepresentations and inaccuracies."

His address was given to a convention of the Maritime Marine Workers Federation.

Mr. MacLachlan, in a statement Sunday night, said he did not say, as reported, that the international war scare was "engineered" by "the powers that be."

"What I did say was that the international war scare 'is being exploited by big business'."

"I pointed out that fantastic profits are being made out of the high prices big business is charging today."

Caesar Makes Big Hit In TV Pictures

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 20—(AP) —Here is today's lesson in the power of television:

Four years ago, Sid Caesar left behind a movie career that consisted of doing two pictures in three years. Today, thanks to TV, virtually every studio in town is seeking his services.

The sensational young comic was in town for a whirlwind visit during which he and his producer, Max Leibman, talked to just about every major producer in Hollywood. Their aim is to get up a movie to be filmed next summer with Caesar and his co-star, Imogene Coca.

I caught Caesar in a rare moment of relaxation beside his hotel swimming pool. Talking to him was like stepping into the middle of one of his famous monologues. He would say a few sentences and then lapse into some imaginary conversation. It went something like this:

Big Decision

"Ah, California! I remember how it was. That sunshine! That relaxation! I'm telling you I relaxed for a year. For one whole year. I did nothing. My biggest decision was whether to fall in the swimming pool or play tennis."

"Don't get me wrong; it was a great life. And did I make money!; I developed lots of expensive hobbies. Like collecting handkerchiefs. And match books."

Caesar asked out of his Columbia contract and headed east. He admitted it was tough going for a while. But then he encountered Leibman, whom he had known previously. They did a Broadway show "Make Mine Manhattan," then dipped into television. Caesar quickly became TV's brightest young comic.

Toronto Girls Camp At Round Lake

HAVELOCK, Aug. 20 (ENS).—The Rangers of the Dufferin and Broadwell districts of Toronto with their leaders have been camping on Dr. Russell's property at Round lake. The name of the camp is Du Well and the commandant is Miss Mary Hay, assistant commandant Miss Helen Sylvas, quartermaster Miss Marjorie Cooper. Rangers are Judy Purton, Jane Purton, Rosemarie Hegan, Marie Gilbride, Audrey Bowen, Frances Bailey, Frances Lyons, Helen Von Zuhen, Marion Foster, Eleanor Ranahan, Pat Dunbar, Joan Dulton, Audrey Dulton.

The girls report that camping has been very successful in spite of damp weather and all are having a wonderful time. Many tests have been passed and the old farm house has taken on a "new look." This week the group takes to the woods for their outdoor lodges and passersby may be tempted by the smell of campfire cooking.

A bus load of members of the Havelock and Norwood Black Preceptories and the Havelock Crystal Chapter journeyed to Haliburton on Saturday where they took part in the Derry Day celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Randal Woods and daughters Sharon and Carolyn of South Porcupine are holidaying at Round lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram of St. Catharines, Mrs. Teddy Miller of Niagara Falls, NY, and Miss Lois Fraser of Cordova road were the supper hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson, on Friday.

Released On $500 Bail Following Two Counts

With bail set at $500, Robert Locke, 764 Cameron St., was remanded a week in police court today on two charges, drunken driving and illegal possession of liquor.

The charge arose out of an accident on Monaghan Rd. Saturday at 5:15 p.m. Locke was driving south on Monaghan Rd and suddenly applied his brakes, skidding into the side of a store, owned by Michael Curtin.

An OPP constable, Jack Kendry, driving by at the time, stopped and held Locke until city policemen, Gerald Emmons and Cecil Bowyer arrived to investigate.

Begin Dragging For Two Bodies

GODERICH, Aug. 20 (CP). — Dragging operations got under way for the bodies of two men believed to have been drowned early today at nearby bathing beach.

Believed drowned are Keith Gardner, in his early forties, of Colborne Township, Huron County, and Kenneth Hazlitt, 30, Goderich garage employee.

Dragging operations started after a woman told police she heard cries for help.

Bert MacDonald, Goderich, arrived at the scene a few moments later and found an overturned 8-foot dory. Coats and a man's hat were floating on the water.

Don't Need Permission Sue King After Sept. 1

OTTAWA, Aug. 20 (CP). — After Sept. 1, Canadians won't have to get permission to sue the King.

The government plans to bring into effect on that date legislation which removes the necessity for citizens to obtain the government's permission, by way of a fiat, before they can sue the Crown.

The centuries-old practice of requiring fiats in actions against the Crown has long been criticized. Parliament at its last session adopted a government bill abolishing it.

Board Has Sympathy But No Cash

OTTAWA, Aug. 20 (CP). — A financial issue rooted in the artificial insemination of breeding of cows split Canada's Income Tax Appeal Board Saturday.

George Creighton of Napanee, who makes his living in that field, came out on the short end of the split.

Two of the three members of the board were not without sympathy in their discussion of the trials of his calling. But they couldn't agree with his contention that he was entitled to knock $2,100 off 1949 income as expenses incurred in motoring from place to place seven days a week to carry out "technical duties" on cows owned by members of the Quinte District Cattle Breeders' Association.

They noted that the demands of his job were such that "he was virtually 'on call' during the 24 hours of each day," that phone calls were likely to come on short notice and that he had to travel 30,000 miles in the one year.

Support Decision

But they supported the earlier decision by the income tax department that Mr. Creighton's relationship with the Breeders' Association was such that it involved his employment by them, and that, therefore, the money he got was remuneration and therefore taxable.

The two, Fabio Monet, chairman, and R. S. W. Fordham, added this sympathetic note:

"It may be that the agreement between the appellant and the association is a burdensome one in that the former is left to pay his travelling expenses. . . . His remedy might be to negotiate, if he can, some arrangement with the association. . . No relief can be had under the Income Tax Act."

The third member, W. S. Fisher, disagreed.

He found that Mr. Creighton's case comes under a heading which would allow exemption because Mr. Creighton was "employed in connection with the selling of his employer's property" — that is, semen.

The other two didn't go along with him. Mr. Creighton will have to pay tax on the $2,100 after all.

Expect Report To Urge Open Retail Price

OTTAWA. — (CP) — The fourman MacQuarrie committee, nearing an end to year-long deliberations on Canada's combine laws may recommend to the government that Canada should halt the practice whereby a product's retail price is sometimes maintained at the manufacturer's request.

The committee headed by Mr. Justice J. H. MacQuarrie of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court has been concentrating on the problem of retail price maintenance as one aspect of a long-range study to find means to tighten combines legislation.

Its recommendations, perhaps including one to convert the combines commission from a one-man show into a board of two or three members, likely will be prepared and sent to Justice Minister Garson next October. The committee's report then would likely be tabled in the House of Commons almost immediately.

Under the act, the combines commission is made up of the commissioner and two deputies, but in practice it is the commissioner who makes decision on investigations and who has authority to make anti-combines recommendations to the justice minister.

Some experts believe that if the resale price maintenance practice is eliminated by federal law, it might invite the possibility of a price war among retail stores, perhaps a miniature sample of the big price war that raged in the United States some months ago.

May Increase Inquiries

T. D. MacDonald, the combines commissioner, is as busy as ever investigating monopolies and actions considered in restraint of trade. His work might be vastly increased if new amendments are inserted in the legislation.

There also have been suggestions, it was learned, by those appearing before the committee that the job of investigating combines should not be a one-man affair but rather that of a committee or board.

This might lead to a prevention of the train of events which led to the resignation of Fred A. McGregor, former combines commissioner, who resigned in 1949. One of his last actions was to recommend to the government that it take anti-combines action against the flour mill industry. The government did not accept the recommendation.

US Price War

The US fight, concentrated mostly in New York, was ignited by a supreme court decision that non-signers of an ag nent, to keep retail prices o products moving in inter-state trade at fixed levels, did not have to abide by that agreement.

Prices of quality merchandise were cut immediately. One New York store began to compete with another and the result was that some goods were sold at half-price. Buyers stormed the stores in search of bargains.

Experts point out however that a factor in the US price war was that many stores were holding heavy stocks. These they tried to move through "loss leaders," offering quality merchandise below cost to attract customers for other goods.

Smaller Coverage

Though the price fixing arrangement in the US covered a great number of products, the practice in Canada, existing for more than 20 years, covers only about 15 per cent of the products entering retail trade.

Scores of associations, manufacturers, retailers, and consumers representatives made representations to the MacQuarrie committee Manufacturers and trade associations held that if the price was eliminated there would be nothing to prevent retailers "cheapening" their product in the eyes of the public by cutting prices.

Consumer organizations however were critical of the practice, declaring it kept prices of some goods at an artifically high level, prevented greater competition among retail stores and contributed to the high cost of living.

"Efficient" Economy

Those in authoritative quarters believe there is ground for argument on both sides, but that in the main the MacQuarrie Committee, appointed by the government last year, is concerned with the problem of bringing to Canada a more "efficient and democratic" economy.

In this view, any practice which would stand in the way of that goals should be eliminated, though there may be exceptions to be considered, such as the price of a refrigerator which includes a year's free service. If the price were not maintained, then such service probably could not be continued. It appears likely that the committee's recommendations will take that point into consideration.

Two impressions appear to have gained ground:

1. That the MacQuarrie Committee has been set up to bring relief from the current price inflation.
2. That the federal combines commission is awaiting the committee's report and government action before it launches new anti-combines investigations.

Not Substantiated

Both are unsubstantiated. While it is expected that a recommendation on resale price maintenance, if implemented, may bring a slight but general lowering of the Canadian price structure, the committee is not so concerned with the immediate inflation problem as what may happen 10 or 15 years hence.

It has to draft laws to cover problems which may not be immediately apparent to the layman. Another study of the Combines Investigation Act may not take place for a dozen years or more. Although the Act has been in existence for some 60 years, only about a half-dozen committee studies have been made. The last was in 1937.

Reject Red Protest As Pact Cancelled

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP) —The United States is reported planning to reject quickly a Russian protest against an American decision to cancel a 1937 Soviet-American trade pact.

Officials studying Russia's formal complaint described it to reporters as "just another manoeuvre in the phony Moscow peace offensive." They made plain the US will stand firm in its decision.

A Russian note, delivered on Saturday, accused the US of aiming for "a further worsening of Soviet-American relations."

Congress made the rupture in Soviet-American trade mandatory June 16 as part of its drive to choke off the flow of goods from Communist - dominated areas.

Legion Command Holds Business Meet

CORNWALL, Aug. 20 (CP)— The business sessions of the 17th biennial convention of the Canadian Legion's Ontario Command opened today with 500 delegates in attendance.

Group Capt. Alfred Watts,, president of the Dominion Command, told the delegates the Legion would continue to press for higher war and disability pensions for veterans.

Never Again

Pliers and muskie fishing go together. Certainly Stan Adamson, 611 Bolivar St., believes they do. Last week he landed a muskie and when he tried to take the hooks out, one stuck under his thumbnail. He had no pliers. Each twist of the fish's body pushed the hook more firmly into his flesh. After about five minutes a party of US fishermen, complete with pliers, came to the rescue. A Lakefield doctor took the barb out of the thumb.

Destroyer Gets Adventure Taste

ABOARD HMCS CAYUGA OFF KOREA, Aug. 20 (CP) — This Canadian destroyer wanted some adventure. Her men figured they might get it doing inshore patrols. So, one day back from a stretch of carrier escort work, they asked for it.

They got it. In the space of a few days they took on enemy gun emplacements, rescued a group of South Korean soldiers pinned down by enemy fire, worked in so close to shore the warship got one engine plugged with seaweed, made one building vanish in a broadside, came under enemy fire but silenced it in a few minutes.

As one last event, Lieut. Donald Saxon of Victoria and Yorkton, Sask., took a landing party ashore and came under fire. But the fire wasn't accurate. There were no casualties.

Gas Stored Back In Earth

LETHBRIDGE, Alta—(CP)—In Turner Valley, the Western Canada Natural Gas Company takes gas from the earth. Near Burdett, 140 miles southeast of Calgary, the company puts it back into the ground.

The gas is pumped into 11 huge underground storage wells during the summer, and released as needed during the winter.

Lorne James, field foreman at the station where gas is pumped back underground, said storage capacity in the natural wells is practically unlimited.

Each day 6,500,00 cubic feet of gas is forced below ground at a pressure of 645 pounds per square foot. This pressure is enough to ensure a steady flow when the gas is released in winter. The gas first comes from the Turner Valley fields at a pressure of 140 pounds per square foot.

The natural storage wells extend under a four-mile area. The stored gas supplies Lethbridge, Macleod, Taber and other Southern Alberta centres.

Born Yesterday Star Newcomer To Summer Show

Mary Sheppard, the newcomer to the Peterborough Summer Theatre stage this week, is a Canadian actress of considerable experience.

She is here to do the part of Billie Dawn in "Born Yesterday," a role in which she achieved great success this past spring in Ottawa. "I had a great deal of fun doing it then, and I'm having even more fun now," she told the Examiner today. "It is probably the best American comedy there is and structurally it is a 'gem'," she added.

Her liking this role so much is the more remarkable because it is so completely American and she had been playing in the theatres of England in "Berkeley Square" for two years previous to taking it.

Miss Sheppard was married May 19th, in Ottawa, to John Howe, who played here last year in "Dream Girl." She has been with him in Toronto recently where he is doing radio work and interrupted a holiday to come to Peterborough audiences in the popular comedy.

Came From Montreal

She is originally from Montreal where she began her career in the Canadian Art Theatre which has started quite a few well kown figures on their way. She became an actor-technician and then went on the teaching staff before going to England.

From seeing last week's play here she expressed the opinion the Peterborough company is "well organized and terribly conscientious."

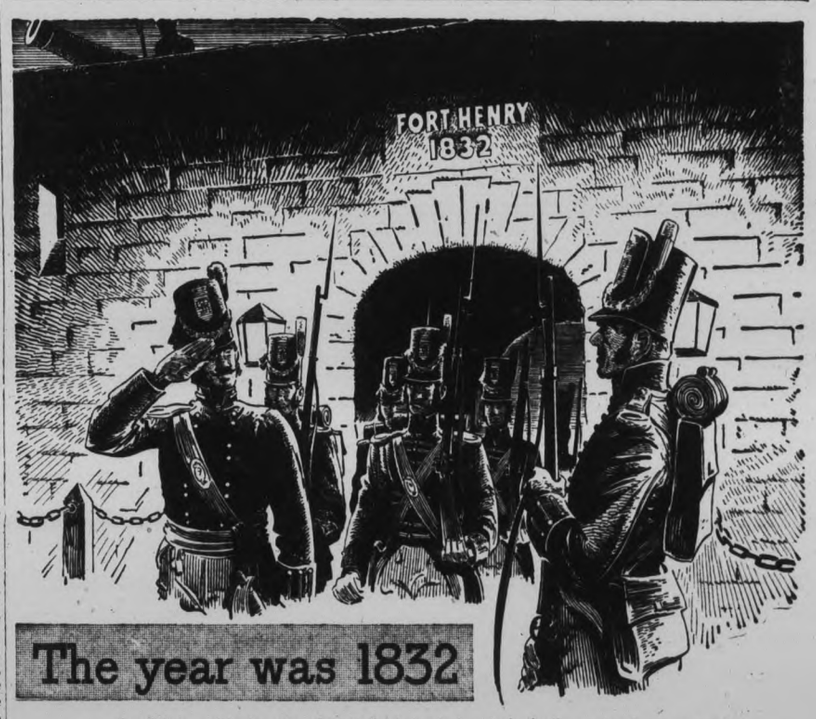
Another new voice this week will be that of Murray Westgate, and it is reported that he has a "tremendous voice," well suited to the role of Harry Brock, junk dealer. He had just arrived back to Toronto, after playing in Vancouver's Theatre Under the Stars to about 2,000 persons nightly, when Michael Sadlier was searching for someone to replace Gerry Sarracini. He is well known as a radio actor.

Lay Off 270 Workers In Studebaker Plant

HAMILTON, Aug. 20 (CP)— Some 270 employees of the Studebaker Corporation of Canada, Ltd. have been laid off following a 45-per-cent cut in production, D. C. Gaskin, vice-president and general manager, announced today.

Unless the production rate is increased, the men will be off for at least the remainder of the year. The normal payroll at the plant is 825.

Announced two weeks ago, the production drop followed slower sales which Studebaker officials blamed on credit restrictions and high sales and income taxes.



The year was 1832

. . . Canadians, with the war of 1812 fresh in their minds, built a grim fortress on the St. Lawrence, near Kingston. Its name: Fort Henry. Its avowed purpose; to "keep out the Yankees."

But never a shot was fired from Fort Henry. Its limestone walls crumbled into ruin . . . until a century later, when it was restored as an historic site where thousands of "Yankees" are welcomed as friendly visitors, every year.

Fort Henry is fort in name only because two great nations live side by side, in peace, in friendship, in mutual help.

Can it be coincidence that both these nations are ruled by the will of the majority?

Between nations where the people speak freely, peace will be maintained. So Fort Henry is an historic reminder that . . .

When YOU cast your secret ballot at every election—municipal, provincial, federal—you exercise a duty and privilege planned, worked and fought for by your forefathers. Your vote protects the future of your children. To fail in this duty is to be less than a good citizen!

Here And There In Sports

By The Canadian Press

Since showman Bill Veeck took over as owner of St. Louis Browns, fans have come to expect almost anything — even a three-ring circus.

And that is just about what they witnessed Sunday.

A three-foot-seven midget appeared as a pinch batter for the Browns and a clown coached at first in a double-header against Detroit Tigers. Both have been signed to Brownie contracts.

The club lost both games, but Veeck's stunts paid off at the gate. The program drew 18,369 paying customers, the Browns' largest crowd at home in more than four years.

The midget, 26-year-old Ed Gaedel of Chicago, was the first batter to face Detroit pitcher Bob Cain in the second game. He was walked.

Umpire Ed Hurley questioned Gaedel's eligibility, but Manager Zack Taylor produced the midget's signed contract.

Danny Direct, imported from the United States by London's Pineridge Stables, Saturday won the Oshawa Fall Fair one-mile harness race in the time of 2:08 2-5. He broke the track record of 2:09 4-5, which had stood for 20 years.

At Windsor, Toronto Hungarians blanked Windsor UAW-CIO 3-0, in the Dominion Soccer Cup semi-final before 900 spectators at Wigle Park Saturday night.

Hungarians meet Toronto Ulster in the next game of the semi-finals.

At Buffalo, Art Hatch, Hamilton, grocery store chain operator, Sunday scored a smashing victory in the unlimited hydroplane race of the International Speedboat Regatta.

Bernard Daoust, of Lachine, Que., retained his 225-cubic inch championship which he won here last year, by totalling a second place in the first heat and a victory in the second for an aggregate of 700 points. Hatch was second with 625.

The Greentree Stable's Hall of Fame charged to a three-quarter length victory in the $79,525 American Derby at Washington Park Saturday to become the leading money-winning three-year-old of the year.

The Eastern Invader, ridden by Toronto's Ted Atkinson, was never worse than third.

The victory was worth $62,000 to Mrs. Charles Shipman Payne and her brother, John Hay (Jock) Whitney, owners of the Greentree Stable. This sum brought Hall of Fame's earnings to $196,005.

Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League plan to start their junior hockey school at North Bay September 9. The school will close September 19 with an East-West all-star junior game featuring the top junior talent in the Chicago chain.

At Edmonton, the touring Marylebone Cricket Club Sunday trounced the Alberta All-Stars 319-74 to sweep a two-game exhibition series during the weekend. The English eleven routed the Alberta squad 231-48 in the opener Saturday.

The MCC leaves today by train for Vancouver for four exhibition games starting there Wednesday and ending Saturday. The first two games will pit them against a British Columbia team, the last two against an all-star Canadian team.

In Sunday's match, the MCC made their runs quickly and dominated the Alberta bowling throughout the innings.

Veeck Boosts Attendance For St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20 (CP). — James Thurber once wrote a short story, "You Can Lookit Up," about a ball club that used a midget pinch-hitter in a big-league game, with chaotic results.

Showman Bill Veeck brought the wacky scene to life Sunday in a doubleheader between the St. Louis Browns and the Detroit Tigers, and the fans set the turnstiles spinning to get in on the fun.

Since it became known July 4 that the fuzzy-haired impresario was taking over the Browns, attendance has jumped a total of 138,550 for 20 playing dates here. That doesn't break any records, but it's 40,588 more than the Browns attracted on 24 playing dates earlier in the season.

The Browns dropped both games Sunday 5-2 and 6-2, but the contests between the second division clubs drew 18,369 fans, the largest crowd for the Browns here in more than four years.

Three-foot-seven Ed Gaedel, 26, a midget swinging a midget bat, strode to the plate as the first batter to face pitcher Bob Cain of Detroit in the second game yesterday.

Pinch Batter

He was announced as a pinch batter for Frank Saucier, who was listed as the first batter in the Browns' lineup.

Umpire Ed Hurley waved him away from the plate. But the Browns produced Gaedel's signed contract for the umpire's inspection.

Cain couldn't find the undersized strike zone, and walked the midget on four straight high pitches. Jim Delsing ran for Gaedel, but Cain got the side out without a run.

To Keep Midget

The same strategy was employed by Thurber's mythical club, except that it backfired when the midget disobeyed orders, took a cut at the ball was thrown out.

The rest of Thurber's story isn't likely to come true either. His ball club promptly got rid of the midget pulled out of its slump and went on to win the pennant. Even Veeck's best friends won't predict that for the humble Browns.

And what's more, Veeck doesn't plan to part with his midget, a press agent confided after the game.

After all, he said, a walk might mean a ball game in some future emergency and a batter standing just an inch over three and a half feet presents a difficult target for any pitcher.

Harry Hall Wins Bowling Tournament

TORONTO, Aug. 20 (CP). — Three points scored on the 28th end won the Provincial Lawn Bowling Association singles title and the Rice Trophy for Harry R. Hall of West Toronto at the Kew Beach Lawn Bowling Club Saturday. He defeated Detroit's Robert Sneddon 21-19 in an evenly-matched contest.

The finals, Saturday, completed the six days of play in the 17th annual tournament. More than 600 bowlers contended for 11 trophies during the rinks, doubles and singles events.

The Roden Trophy, awarded for the second singles event, was won by A. Askwith of Ottawa who needed only 20 ends to down C. N. Sedgwick of West Toronto 21-15 in the final.

In an all-Toronto finish for the R. T. McLean Trophy John Henderson, St. Cuthbert's, defeated H. Duke, Fairmount, 21-15.

Frank Williams

Funeral services for the late Frank (Mickey) Williams of 190 Auburn St., were conducted on Saturday afternoon, from the Comstock funeral home. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson of St. John's Anglican church officiated. Mr. Williams died at Peterborough Civic hospital on Thursday.

Pallbearers were J. Fred Reed, Robert Hanscom, T. Bruce Munro, Archie Hood, Chris. Hughes and John Steinkrauss. Burial was in Little Lake cemetery.

COUNT JAQUES DE BERNONVILLE, the one-time military leader of Lyons during the German occupation of France, now supervisor of agencies for an insurance company in Montreal, left Friday by plane for Venezuela. De Bernonville said he was taking a short business trip. But immigration officials had other ideas. The count bought a one-way ticket. De Bernonville entered Canada in 1946 on a forged passport and his presence was not discovered until two years later. The count was taken into custody by officers of the Immigration Department and his case touched off numerous debates in the government since. De Bernonville has always denied the charges laid against him by his native land. The photo shows Count de Bernonville at Dorval Airport in Montreal shortly before boarding the plane for Venezuela.

Ratterman Quite Delighted At Berth With Alouettes

MONTREAL, Aug. 20—(AP)—George Ratterman, the blonde young star who has upset the US national football league by jumping to Montreal Alouettes of the big four union, looked the picture of content as he lounged in the coaches' dressing room at McGill University.

Just outside, his new teammates shucked off their sweat-heavy suits after a hard two-hour workout on the university's practice field.

There was no obvious reason why Ratterman, former passing great with Notre Dame, Buffalo Bills and New York Yanks, should not have worn a pleased look on his handsome kisser.

He has made the big jump; he has successfully defied his former boss, the outraged Ted Collins of the Yanks, and still at the tender football age of 24 is sitting at or near the top of the gridiron world. He loves everything he has seen about the Canadian game and is looking forward to a long and prosperous career in these parts.

$20,000 Pay

His pay for quarter-backing the Alouettes this fall and serving as backfield coach under Lew Hayman, head coach and managing director, will come to $20,000. He received $15,500 for leading the National League in touchdown passes last year.

Additionally, they have found him a good position with a Montreal brokerage firm, a job at which he can work the year around. He has his wife and two children with him here and rapidly is becoming a popular member of the community.

"That is one of the main reasons I came up—the brokerage job," George said, "Collins, you will recall, promised to get me something in radio or television during the off-season, but I never saw anything of it. Now that I'm here, though, I truly like this game, especially the wider field, and I'm looking forward to some real fun."

Hayman, a dark-eyed little man with an expressive face, was eager to take up the matter of his "raid" on the Yanks.

Business Booming

A graduate of Syracuse University in 1931, Hayman came here in 1946. Under his skillful direction the Alouettes have boomed.

"What I say it that the fellows down there are going too far when they attempt to tell George here that he can't play with any team in the world except the Yanks," Hayman said. "Sure, they can prevent his playing with any other team in the National league. We have an agreement among ourselves against tampering with each other's players, same as they have. But when Collins tries to tell George he can't play for me, that's going too far."

In other words, as Hayman explained, the Canadian don't exactly insert the American version of a reserve clause in their player contracts. Their hold on their athletes doesn't take in the entire world, only Canada. So far no Canadian lawyer has attempted to take anybody to court about it.

Wet Or Dry?

HASTINGS, Aug. 20 (ENS)— A farmer sat in the barber chair at Hastings Saturday night after a light shower had settled the dust, and complained of the excess amount of rain.

A resident of Etobicoke was the next man In the chair.

He had a complaint too.

His hometown, a suburb of Toronto, was experiencing a water shortage. There was no water to wash cars, there was no water to sprinkle the lawn although he fooled them by sneaking enough out after dark with a watering can to keep a tint of green underfoot); and there was no water for many other things.

The barber worked away, nodding understandingly as he listened to his tale of woe, and then it came time to comb the customer's hair.

But this time the barber's customary chirp was not present as he mumbled, "Wet or dry, sir?"

Officer Cadet Captures Rifle Medal

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGES South March, Ont., Aug. 20. (CP) —A 19-year-old officer cadet on Saturday bested 150 other competitors to win the gold medal in the Governor-General's match at the 83rd annual Dominion of Canada Rifle Association meet.

Harold C. Gunter of Saint John NB, a slightly-built youngster who was not among the list of favorites, won the coveted prize, the highest Canadian award for marksmanship, in a four-way shoot-off.

In the match proper he tied with three veteran riflemen with a score of 168 of a possible 175 from 300, 600 and 900 yards. Also scoring 168s were Capt. G. J. Gamble, Winnipeg; Capt. B E. Besteck, Winnipeg, and RSM C. Foam of Montreal.

Gunter placed 93rd in the qualifying stage of the Governor-General's match Thursday. He is in his third year at the University of New Brunswick and this summer is attending the Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers' School at Kingston, Ont.

Hampered by Mirage

A hot sun beat down on the ranges as the match wound up the week-long meet. Some of the competitors complained that they were hampered by the sun's mirage.

In the shoot-off, Gunter scored four bulls-eyes and dropped to a magpie three on the other in the regulation five rounds and that was all he needed to give him a one-point advantage over RSM Foam who finished second with a score of 22 out of a possible 25.

Capt. Gamble and Capt. Besteck tied for third with scores of 21.

Sharing the spotlight with young Gunter was CSM Norman L. Beckett of Hamilton, thrice a shooting member of the Canadian Bisley team, who headed the list of marksmen who will represent Canada at next year's Bisley shoot.

Scores posted in the Governor-General's final stage are added to the grand aggregate scores and the first 18 men are chosen to make the trip.

The 42-year-old Bisley veteran posted a combined score of 825 of a possible 850 to lead the field.

Form Players Take Beating At Races

TORONTO, Aug. 20 (CP). — Form players took a beating as harness racing enjoyed one of its biggest days at Thorncliffe raceway Saturday. Not a favorite won as the long-shots or moderately-backed horses took the nine dashes.

Paddy Brooke started it off by taking the first race and paying $43.60 for $2. Then Merlee, from the barn of G. R. McEwan of Clinton, Ont., copped the second and paid $16.60. The daily double combination paid $389.20. Merlee lowered her own lifetime record by nearly five seconds as she paced the mile in 2:15 4-5.

The final race of the afternoon was the second heat of the pacing stake. This time Merry England, from the barn of Dr. J. S. Ferguson, in Chatham, lay behind the pace of Glendale Charlie and came with a tremendous burst of speed through the stretch to win and pay $18.80.

Brothers In BC Win Awards At Table Tennis

VICTORIA, BC—(CP)—Table tennis on the Pacific coast means one family—the five Nagi brothers.

Jack, Charlie, Stan, Art and Eddy between them have captured more than 100 awards while finding time to duel among themselves.

Jack and Charlie now have retired from the indoor sport but the others are carrying on the family tradition.

Stan, at 24 the oldest of the three still active, has accounted for some 30 awards. Art, 20, and Eddy, 19, have their names engraved on another 50 trophies. Jack and Charles share an estimated 20 more.

Eddy and Stan have each won the Western Canada singles title twice. In 1948 they played each other for the British Columbia and Western Canada titles.

Brotherly love doesn't count when the boys compete against each other. Once when Stan took the Western title, Eddy came back to beat him in the BC event. Eddy, at the age of 15, was the only junior to win both junior and senior championships.

Their styles are vastly different. Stan, the colorful player, has a hard forehand smash with sensational footwork. Ed has sudden backhand smashes while Art, who has a wicked serve, specializes in forehand and has a consistent defence.

German Girls Still Having Tough Time Finding Husbands

By IAN FRASER

BONN, Aug. 20 —(Reuters)—German girls still are having a tough time finding husbands, although it's a little easier than it was right after the war.

West German newspapers continue to make large incomes out of anxious spinsters reduced to advertising for a mate.

Statistically speaking there are 1,362 girls chasing every 1,000 men in the age group 27 to 31—the groups worst hit by the war. Before the flood of returning prisoners began in 1946 there were 1,713 girls after 1,000 husbands.

Girls in outlying villages have little chance of finding a husband. The agricultural areas sent proportionately more of their men to be soldiers.

In addition, many of the country's 4,176,000 widows want to remarry.

Among upper - class families there is many a West German country house or castle with four and five daughters to marry off. The odds are that at least one will end up in a convent.

Little Social Life

Before, the daughter would have been sent for a season in Berlin or Munich and then dispatched on a round of country visits. But now Berlin is out of the question, and even in Munich there is little social life.

Outdoor social events where young people normally have a chance to meet are just appearing again.

Many of the old social forms have disappeared and nothing has grown up to take their place. Germans do not make acquaintances easily. Many still insist on being solemnly introduced before they address a stranger.

The student corps formerly carried out the function of helping students to get to know each other. But many of these groups have been banned because of their extreme nationalism.

Many 30-year-old girls and widows advertise in the papers. Local papers print 75 to 100 marriage advertisements weekly.

Most women find it a good plan to put all the cards on the table at once "well-built lady, 28, with flat wants to get to know gentleman with a view to marriage."

The flippant method is like this: "Princess worthless, nee propertyless, with complete trousseau and slight inclination to playing grande dame would like to marry soon."

Post-War Plans Of Hitler Given In Book

By CARL FLICK-STEGER

BONN, Aug. 20—(AP)—Hitler tells in his own words what he would have done had he won the war, in records of some of his official conversations just published in Germany.

The book, entitled "Hitler's Table Chats," published by the German Institute of History of the national socialist period, an agency of the West-German government, reveals that Hitler, had he been victorious, would have:

Reduced Russia to a country of serfs,

Populated conquered territories in Eastern Europe with "Germanic people from Northwestern Europe and Scandinavia.

Constructed a network of super-highways radiating from Berlin to the remotest corners of Russia and Western Europe,

Built new-type four-track railways in Russia with a 12-foot gauge, carrying two-storey trains with a speed of 120 miles an hour,

Banned Smoking

Banned smoking, fed his soldiers on a vegetarian diet and allowed duels only between priests and lawyers.

The warped mind of a fanatic is clearly evidenced by the dictator's utterances, taken down by his "historian," Dr. Henry Picker. His admiration for Stalin—his most hated enemy—culminated in the statement: "Stalin is a man of genius. He must be tendered unstinted respect."

Hitler's after-dinner chats teem with anti-semitic tirades.

"Christ was an Aryan." Paul, he said, was a "Bolshevik."

He passed over the mass-extermination of the Jews with cold indifference.

What Hitler would have done to Russia had he remained victorious is dramatically related in a number of after-dinner chats with his entourage:

Cut Birth Rate

Russian fertility was to be cured, births reduced. "The widespread use of contraceptives must be furthered—every kind of state organization must be banned. The Russains must serve us."

The appalling loss of German manpower during the last war was brushed aside as a triviality. "A nation never dies through the loss of men, only through the loss of its women."

His aversion toward church dignitaries is particularly strong.

He added: "When I die, I do not want a priest to be within seven miles of me."

6 Leaders Arrested

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (AP)—Six more Communist party leaders were arrested Friday in the fourth roundup since the Supreme Court upheld the conviction of 11 top leaders in June. Director J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said those arrested had been connected with Communist party activities in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

25th Anniversary Of Death Of Film Lover Valentino

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—(AP)—At 12:10 p.m., Aug. 23, 1926, a suffering young Italian closed his "liquid dark eyes" and his "lithe, panther-like grace" was stilled forever. Rudolph Valentino, the great film lover, was dead.

This year, the 25th anniversary of his death, a motion picture based on his life is making the rounds.

Valentino was 31 when he died of an infection following an operation. He already had passed the peak of his career as a film star.

Born Rodolpho Alfonzo Rafaelo Pierre Filibert Gugielmo Di Valentin D'Antonguolla in Castellaneta, Italy, in 1895, Valentino came to the United States at 18. He had small jobs as a gardener but he could dance and soon abandoned the soil to become the partner of fairly well-known dancers Bonnie Glass and Joan Sawyer.

Immediate Stardom

From dancing, he worked his way into the theatre and thence to Hollywood. He was cast in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" and the slight young Latin with the immobile face, flaring nostrils and fiery glance reached the top overnight.

On Aug. 14, 1926, he complained of feeling ill.

The next day he underwent an emergency operation for acute appendicitis and a ruptured gastric ulcer.

The hospital set up a special booth to handle inquiries on his condition. Guards kept fans, friends, crackpots and celebrity seekers from his room.

A New York tabloid, no longer in existence, said Valentino's illness was a publicity trick to promote the forthcoming "Son of the Sheik". The ink was scarcely dry when Valentino took a turn for the worse and in a couple of days he was dead.

His body was moved to the stablishment of a millionaire mortician.

Four-Block Line

The next day there was a four-block line outside. Emergency first-aid stations were set up; hawkers sold celluloid buttons bearing Valenino's likeness, sandwiches and even places near the top of the queue.

The crowd filed past Valentino's casket from early morning until late at night for a week. The casket was the frequent scene of emotional displays as women threw themselves across the bier.

On the first anniversary of his death, a woman dressed in black and concealed behind a heavy veil, solemnly placed a bunch of red roses before the crypt.

The following year a number of "women in black" showed up. Some time later an agent said the original "woman in black" was a $5 extra he hired to publicize a short movie; the subsequent imitators were on their own.

British Cigarette Price Increased

LONDON, Aug. 20 (CP)—The Imperial Tobacco Company, which makes most of the British cigarettes Sunday night boosted the price for a pack of 20 by one penny. This makes the new price for most popular brands three shillings seven pence.

The company said the increase, effective with today's deliveries to stores, was made inevitable by the general rise in leaf tobacco prices in all markets in recent years.

Menzies Given Wide Powers By Parliament

MELBOURNE, Australia, Aug. 20 (Reuters) — Parliament has given Prime Minister Robert Menzies wider peacetime powers than ever blessed—or burdened—an Australian Government.

Menzies, whose Liberal-Country coalition has a majority in the House of Representatives and Senate, pushed the defence preparations act through against Labor opposition.

Broadly, the act enables the government to prepare Australia for war by the end of 1953.

Menzies has repeatedly explained the war preparation does not mean belief in the inevitability of war but that "adequate defence preparation will probably mean peace."

Interests outside parliament which normally support a non-Labor government have been unhappy about the enactment.

Main Objection

Main objection is based not necessarily on what Menzies will do but what he could do and how. The act allows the government "to make regulations" in the interests of defence. Parliament need not be consulted.

The objective stated to parliament was to control and divert national resources and to prevent economic dislocation.

Critics set out to show that this gave the government "Almost unlimited power," "a blank cheque" and "put national economy in a straitjacket."

There is special provision in the act, however, precluding its use to impose taxation, raise loans, direct manpower compulsorily or conscript people into the armed forces.

Offer Support

R. J. Webster, president of the Associated Chamber of Manufacturers, said in a letter to presidents of the six state chambers that if the prime minister has information to justify belief in the threat of war he will have the unqualified support of Australian maunfacturers.

"But beyond the absolute necessity, however," the letter continued, "industry is strongly opposed to the imposition of controls and the regulation, regimentation and directoin of industry which can only result in the slowing down of production, black marketing, waste of labor and all the other evils inseparable from government control and interference with industry . . . ."

Canadian Soldiers Invited To Party By Chinese Reds

By BILL BOSS

WEST-CENTRAL SECTOR, Korea, Aug. 21. (CP)—A group of Chinese today invited a Canadian patrol to call a cease-fire during the Kaesong peace talks and hold a party between the battle lines. The invitation was not accepted. The patrolling Canadians, to whom a Korean woman civilian delivered a letter from eight Chinese infantrymen, were ordered not to let the message interfere with their assignment. The letter, written on plain paper and sent in a glazed yellow envelope, was sent back to headquarters. It surprised high army officers.

(The Associated Press reported Monday that the Chinese have sent other notes in similar vein to United Nations troops. It said possibly the notes are aimed at breaking down morale and leading UN troops to relax their vigilance.)

The message suggested that casualties could be avoided on both sides by ceasing hostilities pending completion of the Maesong talks which have been going on for a month.

Make Proposition

It told the Canadians that, despite the peace talks, "still you are forced to be here carrying on this war, to do every day such senseless bloody affairs." Every moment, it said, "you have a danger of getting killed if unfortunate, then you will never be able to see your loved ones.

"We are willing to meet you so that there may be something good for peaceful settlement of Korean problems and make the obstinacy of the peace talks slow down. Therefore the peace talks can be continued and meantime causualties on both sides may be eradicated while the peace talks go on."

The letter proposed that a white flag indicate that one side was willing to talk to the other. It asked that the UN reply be sent by a Korean civilian with a safe conduct guarantee and in the "leave message box," a reference taken to mean that the Chinese wanted the answer enclosed in their original yellow glazed envelope.

Party Suggestion

The Chinese suggestion concerning a party read:

"We scheduled a time for a temporary ceasefire and shall see a spot in the middle of both positions for holding a party. Those who want to join us will be welcome—delegates all the same (presumably delegations of equal rank and number). Both sides should guarantee delegates security on basis of military honor, ceasing all military activities."

Signed by Battalion Commander Ching Che of the Chinese People's Volunteer Forces and by Donj Quie on behalf of a "delegation of the privates," the note ended:

"Hail the immediate realization for battlefront friendly entertainment."

Delay Action Until Word From Wheat Bd.

OTTAWA, Aug. 21 (CP)—J. C. Lessard, deputy transport minister, said in an interview today that he is awatiing word from the Canadian Wheat Board on the amount of wheat it wants moved before he takes action on a Great Lakes shipping tie-up.

Head of a special government committee set up to handle western grain movements, Mr. Lessard returned from annual leave to be confronted with a Great Lakes vessel shortage which western grain authorities have termed "inadequate" to handle an anticipated record 582,000,000-bushel wheat crop.

Mr. Lessard said he believes the wheat board—the government's wheat-buying and selling agency—will make known its proposed movement plans in about a week.

"When we get them and know how much grain the board wants moved before the freeze-up, the committee will be in position to know what steps to take on transportation," Mr. Lessard said.

Plenty of Warning

The board, he added, last spring told the committee that it had about 168,000,000 bushels of last year's wheat to be moved before the new crop was harvested.

Of that amount, said Mr. Lessard, about 140,000,000 bushels were moved to Pacific and eastern ports by July 31, the end of the 1950 crop year.

The big developing problem, therefore was not in movement of last year's wheat but in handling the new crop with a shortage of Great Lake vessels already apparent.

One possibility, said Mr. Lessard, is that if the wheat board's movement requirments are greater than can be handled with transport currently available, the committee may take action to divert more ships from priority iron and coal.

The possibility of using rail transport to move western grain to, say, Montreal had been investigated, but it was decided that this would not be feasible.

British Sub Hits Vessel

HALIFAX, Aug. 21 — (CP) — The British submarine Artful collided with the Nova Scotia fishing vessel Edith Eva early today off Lockeport, NS. First reports told of no injuries on either craft.

The sub rammed into the Eva shortly after midnight but the wooden vessel remained afloat and was being towed to Lockeport, about 100 miles south of Halifax.

The crew of the Eva, captained by George Lovelace, has been taken aboard another fishing vessel.

It was believed the Artful was cruising on the surface in a light fog when the accident occurred.

British Composer Lambert Dies At 45

LONDON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Constant Lambert, 45, British composer, conductor and critic, died today.

Lambert who sometimes conducted London's promenade concerts, was musical director of Sadlers' Wells Ballet for many years. He wrote a ballet for Diachilev at the age of 20.

Last month he conducted the first performance of his own ballet "Tiresias" before an audience which included the Queen, Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

'Quake Knocks Down Hawaiian Buildings

HONOLULU, Aug. 21 (AP).—An earthquake knocked down some buildings and cracked a highway in the Kona coast area of volcanic Hawaii Island early today.

Police said first reports from the area indicated no one was injured.

A mild tremor was felt in elevated areas of Honolulu at about 1 a.m. (7 a.m. EDT).

Hawaii Island, southeast of here is the largest of the Hawaiian Island group.

Mexico Set For 130 mph Gulf Winds

Report Death Toll In Jamaica Climbs To 155 Now

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21.—(AP)—A raging hurricane was expected to hit the lower Mexican mainland with a 130-mile-an-hour punch today.

The New Orleans weather bureau said the full force of the hurricane that has already killed 155 persons, probably will strike between Nautla and Tuxpan late this afternoon.

Hurricane winds are expected to be felt as far north as Tampico, a modern city of almost 100,000 population.

The weather bureau has advised ships in the southwest Gulf of Mexico to remain in port until all dangers have passed.

The storm developed hurricane force six days ago on moving into the Caribbean from the Atlantic and since has travelled almost 2,300 miles along a west-northwesterly path.

The hurricane struck the Yucatan Peninsula Monday with 100-mile-an-hour force. No deaths were reported on the peninsula.

Houses Blown Down

Lightly-built palm thatched huts on Cozumel, an island off the east coast of the peninsula, were blown down.

Merida, the capital of Yucatan on the northwestern tip of the peninsula, reported high winds and heavy rains but no great damage.

The Yucatan Peninsula is a 180-mile thumb of land that sticks 200 miles up into the Gulf of Mexico on the Central American gooseneck that divides North and South America.

The storm took its heaviest toll when it blasted Jamaica with 130-mile-an-hour winds Friday and Saturday nights, killing 155 persons and causing damage estimated at $56,000,000.

Kingston reports said the hardest hit town was the eastern parish of St. Thomas, where 51 were said to have been killed. In the Morant Bay area no building escaped damage.

Relief ships were organized to carry food and much-needed supplies to stricken areas.

Dead-End Canyon Plane Death-Trap

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 21 (AP)—A dead-end canyon was a death-trap for bush pilot Glen Hudson and his three passengers.

Search leaders reported Monday they found Hudson's smashed Cessna plane against a canyon wall about 25 miles from Talkeetna.

Tenth Rescue Squadron officers said a trail crew flown to the isolated spot by helicopter found all in the plane dead.

Talkeetna, north of Anchorage, was the takeoff point last Wednesday for Hudson and three passengers—Elmer (Red) Wolford and his two teen-age sons, Larry Lee and Steven.

Has Tonsils Out Child 10 Dies

TORONTO, Aug. 21 (CP). — Helen Wasylewsky, 10, who came to Canada from Germany 18 months ago, died today under anaesthetic after having her tonsils removed.

She was the third child to die here in tonsilectomies in recent months.

Chief Coroner Dr. Smirle Lawson ordered an autopsy. The operation was performed in the office of Dr. William Zinchesin.

Canada, US Carry Out Unusual Military Alliance

OTTAWA, Aug. 21 (CP) — A series of visits from top American defence leaders is underlining one of the most remarkable military alliances in history; the alliance between Canada and the U.S. for the joint defence of North America and now of the free world.

Latest is today's visit by U.S. Army Secretary Frank Pace and army chief Gen. Joseph Lawton (Lightning Joe) Collins.

Saturday, Defence Secretary George Marshall will fly up from Toronto for a day but mainly to take it easy. Two weeks ago, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, was here for talks and fishing.

Both Canadian and U.S. sources here say there is not a single major issue clouding military relations between the two countries although there are plenty of minor headaches in working out the details of broad decisions.

This harmony is all the more remarkable because it is doubtful if history has ever seen two countries working in closer or more constant co-operation.

The original alliance was forged 10 years ago, during the war, and extended into peacetime. Its aim was the joint defence of this continent.

Any enemy who attacks this continent might well find himself fighting Americans on or over Canadian soil or vice versa.

This alliance has done some major works, not always without friction, in the last five years. Examples:

A year ago the U.S. was irked over Canada's small contribution in Korea. Canada has since launched a considerable twilight mobilization, become the second largest contributor in Korea.

The absorption of Newfoundland raised problems about three U.S. military bases there. These have been solved by compromise with neither country getting all it originally wanted.

Canada has been beefing about relative scarcity of U.S. arms orders here. The U.S. has given the green light for Canada to go after a lot more.

Commonwealth Sweetheart Princess Margaret Celebrates 21st Birthday

BALMORAL, Scotland, Aug. 21. (CP)—Princess Margaret is 21 today—a lighthearted, carefree 21, surrounded by heaps of presents, but she will have to wait until Thursday for her birthday ball. As presents and congratulations poured in, the Royal family announced that the formal birthday ball which was to have been held tonight, has been postponed until Thursday. It was reported that the King believes a little too much ceremony is surrounding the birthday and the country is paying an excessive amount of attention to it. He wants to keep the party within the scope of a family affair.

Tourists and local folk made it a festive occasion as friends of the Royal family—including some who may be eligible for Margaret's hand—came to take part in the birthday party. Local postal oficials are bracing themselves for the expected flood of congratulatory letters, telegrams and presents.

Many Presents

Presents, telegrams and letters showered on the Princess.

Grandmother Queen Mary phoned from Sandringham where she is holidaying. Court circles reported her gift to the Princess was a diamond tiara.

The King and Queen gave another pearl for a matched string. Princesses Margaret and Elizabeth each got a pearl a year from their parents.

The King and Queen also gave Margaret a pair of turquoise bracelets and later this week they will give her a sporty green car.

There were presents also from two young men who are Margaret's particular friends and who

One Of Quads Dies In Britain

BROMLEY, England, Aug. 21—(Reuters)—The three surviving babies of quadruplets born Monday to Mrs. Muriel Brown slept peacefully in oxygen tents today. Doctors said their progress was satisfactory. They are being fed by eyedroppers with a salt-sugar solution.

Mrs. Brown, 27, weighs less than 100 pounds and is four feet, 10 inches tall. The Browns already have a three-year-old son.

The fourth and fattest of the quads, Derek, died Monday.

The babies were about a month early. Tony and Denise weigh two pounds each and Georgina 2½.

The Brown foursome was the third set of quads to be born in Britain this year, though in each case only three have survived.

The Browns were not the only mass production family Monday night.

At Constantine, Algeria, four healthy babies were born to Mrs. Bouttarane Zohra, who already had given birth 11 times, though only two survived.

Egypt Modifies Rules For Suez

CAIRO, Aug. 21 (Reuters).—Rules for examining ships passing through the Suez Canal—a problem now before the United Nations Security Council—will be modified, an Egyptian customs spokesman said today.

In future, only customs authorities will be authorized to search ships, and there will be only one inspection of each ship, he said. Hitherto, coastguardsmen and soldiers have conducted independent searches.

Britain, France and the United States have protested against the inspection measures, which the Egyptians say are due to the country's "state of war" with Israel.

A resolution asking that restrictions on canal passages be lifted was due for debate by the Security Council today but has been postponed to next Monday.

First Heavy Rain For Ont. In Month

TORONTO, Aug. 21 (CP). — The first heavy rain in a month fell on Ontario today.

The weather office said about a half-inch fell on Toronto and much of the rest of the province in an early-morning downpour. The last heavy rain was July 22 when an inch fell in the north, tapering off to a quarter-inch in the Toronto area.

Today's rain was expected to delay harvesting in some districts, but in the Niagara and Halton county areas, farmers welcomed it as an aid to their fall seeding.

Sick Eskimos Flown By RCAF

EDMONTON, Aug. 21 (CP). — Several critically-ill Eskimos at a lonely outpost inside the Arctic circle are to be flown south to civilization by an RCAF Canso aircraft for medical treatment.

The Eskimos are at Gjoahaven on King William Island, which is 1,120 air miles northeast of Edmonton. The nature of their ailments was not known and they likely will be brought to the Charles Camsell Indian Hospital in Edmonton.

Reds Demand Punishment For Ambush

Little Progress Made In Peace Talks UN Delegates Hint

MUNSAN, Korea, Aug. 21. — (AP) — Communist protests and anti-American propaganda were stepped up today as a joint Allied-Communist sub-committee held its fifth session trying to break the deadlock in Korean truce talks.

(Reuters News Agency reported from Tokyo that the Communists today termed the United Nations reply on the alleged violation of the Kaesong neutral zone unsatisfactory and again asked for punishment of "those guilty.")

Red China's Peiping radio said today the killing of a Chinese soldier in the Kaesong neutral zone "will rouse still greater hatred of American imperialism among Korean and Chinese peoples."

The Reds formally charged the Chinese was killed in an ambush by United Nations troops. The UN command denied this; said it was probably the work of guerrillas.

Blame Americans

Tuesday's Peoping broadcast, quoting the official Hsinhua New China News Agency, said "he was murdered in American ambush."

The broadcast quoted Maj.-Gen. Hseih Fang, a Chinese armistice delegate and member of the joint sub-committee, as saying the death of the soldier "will surely harden Chinese volunteers' determination to defend peace."

Hours before the broadcast the sub-committee — two Allies and two Communists — met in Kaesong for two hours and four minutes. More than half that time they spent poring over a map trying to agree on a military dividing line for a cease-fire.

They scheduled another session for 11 a.m. Wednesday (9 p.m. EDT Tuesday). They made no report on progress.

Little Progress

But the UN spokesman, Air Force Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, gave some indication little progress was being made.

Doctors Examine Mad Farmer

WHITBY, Aug. 21 (CP). — Lyle Thompson, 41-year-old Lake Dalrymple farmer, underwent examination at the Ontario Mental Hospital here today.

His fourth-day growth of beard was removed and his tangled, five-inch-long locks were combed. Doctors said he gave them no trouble.

Thompson, jilted by a Dutch girl he met while in the army overseas during the Second World War, was overpowered by police (some from Peterborough) Monday after he held 30 of them at bay outside his Orillia district shack for 16 hours.

Police laid siege to the run-down farmhouse when Thompson wounded one of four officers who came to take him in for a psychiatric examination.

SUBDUED BY POLICE — Lyle Thompson, 41-year-old farmer from Dalrymple, near Orillia, Ont., is shown in a police car after his capture by Ontario Provincial Police. Thompson fired on police with a shotgun when they arrived to take him to mental hospital on a warrant signed by relatives. He was captured the next day when 10 tear gas bombs were tossed in by police. Sgt. Stan Palmateer, of the Peterborough detachment, was in charge of operations.

Begin Trial In Korea Of 3 Canadians

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 21 (Reuters) — Three Canadian soldiers charged with rape and murder will appear before a court martial at the Candian field punishment camp Wednesday.

They are Pte. Glen Roland Blank, of Winnipeg, Pte. Donald Michael Gibson, of Ottawa, and Pte. Alan Roy Montgomery, of Vancouver.

The alleged offences took place March 17 at Chungwoon in Kyong Ki province and involved the death of Ee Chong-sun, a Korean man.

Big Red Propaganda Drive Flops In West Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 21 (AP)—Communism's big propaganda drive has flopped in West Germany, United States Commissioner John J. McCloy said today.

The Reds opened their full-scale assault last Spring, McCloy said in his quarterly report to the State Department. They tried to scare West Germans away from joining Western defence and into a sell-out compromise with the East.

Instead, McCloy reported, German support for western defence has increased, and the Communists' chief propaganda agencies have been thoroughly discredited, rejected and even outlawed by an aroused West Germany.

"It has become increasingly difficult to peddle recognizable Communist wares in Western Germany," McCloy reported.

"West German determination to uncover and resist Communist subversion has matured appreciably. Even the basic play on fear of Soviet attack has worn thin with excessive use and growing allied strength."

Their militant, uniformed "free German youth" spearheaded the Communists' propaganda drive at its outset. They staged mass demonstrations and started riots in several cities, printed propaganda flooded West Germany. Communist newspapers became increasingly savage in their attacks on the western allies.

But the West German government banned the FDJ and confiscated tons of Red propaganda, and the Allies suspended most of the Communist newspapers.

Then the Red propagandists tried to use persons and groups not formally connected with Communism, McCloy reported.

"Even these voices soon became lost as the West German population rallied to the anti-Communist call," he said.

1st Proposal Dropped By UK Delegate, Hold Out Little Hope

TEHRAN, Aug. 21. (CP) — Britain's delegate today offered Iran a new proposal to settle the grave Anglo-Iranian oil dispute and gave the Iranians until noon Wednesday to take it or leave it.

The new British move followed the abrupt withdrawal by British delegate Richard R. Stokes of the previous British proposal revolving about a 50-50 split of Iranain oil profits.

(In London, the Foreign Office confirming the new order, announced that Prime Minister Attlee has summoned his cabinet to discuss the oil negotiations.)

Stokes, Lord Privy Seal, announced he has offered compromise possibilities which concern the retention of British management at the Abadan refinery and the oilfields. These had been rejected by Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. Stokes then withdrew Britain's proposals and substituted a new over-all one. It included the problem of employment of British personnel. If the Tehran government rejects this, Stokes probably will return at once to London.

Hold Little Hope

There seemed to be little hope that a last-minute Iranian switch would avert complete breakdown of the talks. W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's envoy who has been trying to mediate the dispute, had no immediate comment on the imminent failure of his mission but he has made it clear he supports the British proposal.

Stokes told reporters the breakdown came after Mossadegh objected to any sort of British supervision over the Abadan refinery and oilfields, although he said the Iranians were willing to hire Britons on an individual basis.

One source said it appears Stokes is trying to force Premier Mohammed Mossadegh to advance

Plane Strikes Truck, 13 Die

FORT DIX, NJ, Aug. 21 (AP)—A flame-enveloping jet plane—raining fiery death as it fought a losing battle for altitude—plowed into a group of soldiers yesterday. Thirteen men were burned to death. Of the 20 injured, one died today.

Two of the victims were in the plane, a T-33 Air Force trainer that had taken off only moments before from nearby McGuire air base.

The dead were part of a 54-man army detail that had just finished learning how to lay communications lines in a belt of scrub pines at the edge of the base.

Survivors said the plane bore down on them "like a ball of fire" through the trees, skimmed over a truck partly-loaded with soldiers and crashed about 50 feet away.

Lieut. Bertram Brinley, Fort Dix Public Information Officer, said a blazing wing-tip fuel tank, apparently jarred loose by trees, dropped onto the truck, turning it and its passengers into flaming torches.

Resigns From Job Because Of Brother

LONDON, Aug. 21 (Reuters)—Alan MacLean resigned from the British Foreign Office today because, he said, his position there was an embarrassment to the government since the mysterious disappearance of his brother Donald this spring.

Donald MacLean and another Foreign Office official, Guy Burgess, dropped out of sight in May, and have since eluded an international police hunt across Europe. Some reports at the time said they were heading for Russia.

A Foreign Office statement announcing Alan's resignation today stressed that Alan is in no way connected with his brother's disappearance and is leaving of his own choice.

Need Broader Plan Allies Told

Assails Russia For Failure To Accept UN Power

CHICAGO, Aug. 21. (AP)—Anthony Eden, Britain's wartime foreign secretary, said on Monday night the Atlantic Pact is inadequate to protect the western world from communism.

Eden called for "something much wider and more general . . . which takes account of the demands of every front, estimates resources and allocates them according to need."

"I do not believe the existing machinery is adequate for this purpose," Eden told a meeting organized by the United Nations Association of Greater Chicago.

Way To Harmony

Eden, now deputy leader of the Conservatives in Parliament, said the United Nations is the only way to international harmony.

He assailed Russia for failure to accept the authority of the UN. The Russian attitude "sprang from an inflexible doctrine of national sovereignty . . . entirely contrary to the spirit" of the UN charter.

"During the war," Eden said, "many of us hoped that the United Nations would provide a practical example as well as a precept of world unity. It has not done so yet. But that is no reason for losing faith.

"The machinery which we devised may not have been perfect, but I know that it was and still is capable of achieving its purpose, given the will to work it."

Eden noted with pleasure the reluctance of all powers save the Soviet Union to resort to the veto in the UN Security Council. Russia has preferred another course, he said. It has tried to jam the machinery of the council.

Take Precautions

Because of Russia's use of the veto, Eden said the free nations have had to take precautions on their own account . . . within the spirit of the charter and as its articles provide . . .

"The policy upon which the free nations have embarked is to build up their defence as a deterrent to aggression, and so make possible negotiation from strength.

"We must never . . . forget, nor neglect to make clear to the world, that the purpose of this rearmament is peace."

2-Year Uneasy Peace Seen By Dewey

SEATTLE, Aug. 21 (AP). — Governor Thomas E. Dewey sees a possible two-year period of uneasy peace for the world—created at Russia's pleasure.

The New York Republican leader gave this estimate of the world situation on his arrival here Monday from a seven-week tour of the Orient.

Dewey told a press conference Russia is likely to carry on a two-year peace offensive to gain time for "picking daisies." This was his description of Soviet long-range aims at expansion in Asia.

He said the next few months may tell whether we live in a free world five years from now. He said critical decisions in the Far East are apt to hold the answer.

La Pointe Praises Legion Work

CORNWALL, Aug. 21 (CP). — No organization is better suited to accept the challenge presented by a constantly changing Canada than the Canadian Legion, Veterans Minister Lapointe said on Monday night.

Addressing the 17th biennial convention banquet of the Legion's Ontario Command, he said the Legion's membership is made up of those who have demonstrated great citizenship qualities, those who have shared common dangers and have learned to respect the man, rather than his background and antecedents.

Awards were presented at the dinner to various branches and individual members for outstanding contributions during the last two years.

Highest Legion award, the Medal of Merit, went to Canon Roy E. Mess of Chatham.

The Provincial Shield and Cup went to the Montgomery Branch, Ottawa, for bringing the greatest number of members into neighboring branches and for forming new branches.

Reginald Lovell, Glencoe, and Bert Page, Brantford, won prizes for entries in the senior essay contest, sponsored by the Ontario Command.

a specific counter-proposal to the British offer.

In announcing that Stokes had withdrawn his previous offer which provided for setting up a new purchasing agency and what amounted to a virtual 50-50 split in oil profits, the Embassy said:

"Following a discussion with (Premier) Mossadegh, Stokes has, with deep regret, come to the conclusion that the Persian government is not prepared to agree to any arrangements under which British technicians, whose continued service to Persia was so urgently asked for by Mr. Mossadegh, would be prepared to remain" to supervise the nationalized oil industry.

Earlier, Premier Mossadegh talked for an hour with Stokes and Harriman about the deadlocked issue.

Wants To Revive Indian Costumes

NORTH BATTLEFORD, Sask (CP.—Chief Swimmer of the Sweetgrass Indian Reserve says the making of native Indian costumes is a dying art among his people — and he wants to see it revived.

He has made a public request for caribou, antelope and deer hides, and lots of eagle feathers and beads.

The chief will pay freight charges on any hides shipped to him. If he gets enough, he says he will put the women on his reserve to work at tanning them and making them into coats, leggings and dresses.

Chief Swimmer says Indians should be as proud of their native dress as are other citizens of Canada. His first objective is to see that his sons and grandchildren are properly outfitted for ceremonial occasions.

His idea for reviving costume-making started several weeks ago when the chief and his head men accepted invitations from various promoters of sports events to put on colorful Indian twilight powwows.

The chief found he could rustle up only five native costumes on his reserve, and anly two of them were complete.

But the pay-off came after the men donned the costumes.

The tribal children took one look and giggled.

Reds Demand

Nuckols said the Communists at the discussions were "immune" to military logic, "obdurate" in their politically-colored demands, "inscrutable" in presenting them, and "adamant" to adjustments.

Nuckols drew no distinction between the attitude Red Generals displayed in full negotiation sessions and in sub-committee meetings.

The UN spokesman made his comments after Peiping radio said Monday that:

"If the American side still stubbornly adheres to its unreasonable demand of plunder, and rejects the just and reasonable proposal of our side, agreement will be impossible."

Meanwhile, Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, senior UN delegate, rejected Communist charges that UN forces ambushed a Chinese patrol in the neutrality zone, killing one Red soldier and wounding another.

Blames Guerrillas

Joy informed North Korean Lt.-Gen. Nam Il, his Communist counterpart:

"Your message of Aug. 19 is hereby acknowledged. I will reply fully to you when I have received a complete report of the investigation of the alleged violation of the neutral zone on Aug. 19. A preliminary report does not substantiate the charges you have made."

The official UN stand is that "partisans from either side" — North Korean or South Korean—may have carried out the attack in an effort to disrupt peace talks.

The possibility of a growing divergence of views between Chinese and North Korean truce negotiators was raised by Brig.-Gen. William P. Nuckols, UN command spokesman.

Nuckols said he believed the Chinese were receiving instructions from Peiping, capital of Red China, while some directives to the North Koreans were handed down from "the Communist hierarchy."

Moscow Cracks Whip

His use of "Communist hierarchy" was interpreted to mean Communists in Moscow.

Nuckols made this statement only 24 hours after he reported the UN authorities in Korea felt that ambush of the Chinese patrol was the mark of the North Koreans trying to sabotage armistice talks and make the Chinese fight the war for them.

Co-incidental with Nuckols' comments, members of the UN motor convoy to Kaesong Tuesday noted for the first time several scores of men of military age wearing the white garments of farmers. Heretofore peasants seen working in the fields along the way were mostly old men and women.

Associated Press correspondent Robert B. Tuckman reported those seen Tuesday were healthy young men wearing leather military belts and blue sneakers, such as those worn by soldiers in the North Korean army.

Since truce talks started July 10, Chinese delegates have appeared anxious to end the shooting and less interested than the North Koreans in where a buffer zone is created.

1,300 Convicts Refuse End Sit-Down Strike

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 21 (AP)—Thirteen hundred convicts refused Monday night to end their sit-down strike in exchange for food. They haven't had a meal since late Thursday morning.

Warden George Alexander won the first break in the six-day strike when 40 trusties went back to work Monday.

A released man, George A. McIntyre, of Boston, said in an interview the inmates started their strike without premeditation. It grew, he said, after a guard clubbed a prisoner in breaking up a fight.

SELF-SERVICE SPRAYING STALL—Agriculture experts of the University of Illinois rigged up this bovine "beauty parlor" at Dixon Spring, Ill., where fly-tortured cattle get relief. When Bossie walks through the stall, she trips a bellows mechanism that releases insecticide over her body, killing pesky horseflies.

Commonwealth

are guests at the castle, 24-year-old William (Billy) Wallace, polo-playing stepson of American writer Herbert Agar, and the 27-year-old Earl of Dalkeith. Margaret hasn't told yet what the young men chose for her.

Visit Moors

The day was a mixture of sunshine and fleecy clouds. Shortly before noon the Princess and several guests went out on the moors where the King and his party were shooting grouse.

On the program of Margaret's big day were a picnic, a late afternoon tea and a house party, at which the Princess will wear the white and gold evening gown on which dressmakers worked six months.

There will be no booming of guns throughout the Commonwealth since Margaret is only fourth in line to the throne.

Grey old Balmoral Castle will be the scene of a Royal birthday ball over which the King will preside. But outside the walls of the famed old royal hunting lodge there will be toasting and flinging of Highland kilts.

Have Special Claim

Scotsmen feel they have a special claim on Margaret because she was born in Glamis Castle.

The Royal birthday sparks new speculation as to when Margaret will announce her betrothal. Legend has it that girls born at Glamis Castle marry, or at least become engaged, by the time they are 20.

Coming of age for this blithe-spirited Princess means acceptance of new royal responsibilities. She gets the right to vote—a privilege she probably never will use, since the Royal Family traditionally does not take sides in politics. Instead of an allowance out of her father's pocket, Margaret gets her own income of £6,000 a year. And she becomes qualified to be a member of a council of state which would take over sovereign duties if her father became incapacitated or left the country.

Must be Careful

The watchmen of British tradition also will expect her to drop some of the quick-witted impishness which has enlivened family affairs in the Royal household and has afforded many a chuckle to Britons.

She now will have her own say as to whether she can wear strapless gowns in public or not. The last time she wore one she was cheered by many but greeted by the raised eyebrows of those who are sticklers to convention.

Local residents tried hard to pass off the occasion as a normal one. But large crowds gathered at the station Monday to watch the arrival of those who came to take part in the celebration.

Among the important personages to arrive was F. E. Jacobs of Thornton Heath, carrying an impressive package which turned out to be a birthday cake, two feet across, 18 inches deep, iced with rose pink frosting and sporting 21 candles.

Canadian Wins Fair Souvenir

LONDON — (CP)—Robert M. Fuller, principal of Dougall school at Windsor, Ont., journeyed all the way to London to acquire a lovely bunch of coconuts.

That wasn't the whole purpose of his trip, of course. He has visited Scotland and the Continent and now is searching available records for traces of his ancestors who settled in Kent hundreds of years ago.

In London he was attracted to the fun fair while taking in the sights at the Festival of Britain along with his wife and young son. Fuller couldn't resist the temptation of trying his throwing arm when he stopped in front of a coconut stand.

He knocked down one coconut with the first pitch, and won two more in five tries. "Not bad for a guy who hasn't given the pitching arm a real workout since the days I was with the Canadian artillery in the First World War," said Fuller.

"But when I carried my prize into a crowded bus I had a difficult time convincing the amused passengers that it was going back home with me as a memento. They looked at me just as much as to say 'another screwy Canadian'."

Wet, Fed-Up Soldier Captured By Police

CAMP BORDEN, Ont., Aug. 21 (CP)—A wet and fed-up soldier was captured today but police and military authorities are still looking for his companion after the two escaped from detention barracks Monday night.

Police said the two fled in a stolen civilian truck, chased by police as speeds from 60 to 90 miles an hour. As the police car drew near the truck stopped and the escapees dived into the bush.

Tpr. J. C. Martel, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, was captured by a party using walkie talkie sets in the search. His companion, M. O'Brien, of the School of Signals, Kingston, is believed to be still in the bush.

Two Windsor Men Injured In Crash

WINDSOR, Aug. 21 (CP) — Two young Windsor men were seriously injured late Monday night when they were thrown from their motorcycle when it crashed into a ditch near here.

In hospital with undetermined head injuries are Jack Beatty, 18, of St. Thomas and Donald Newfell, 18, of Windsor. Both work at the Chrysler Corporation.

They were thrown from their motorcycle and landed in a cornfield, when the vehicle failed to negotiate a turn in the road and hit a ditch.

Koreans Watch Trial Closely Of Three Canadian Soldiers

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (CP) — Correspondent George Barrett says in a dispatch from Seoul to The New York Times today that many Koreans are watching the case of three Canadian soldiers charged with murdering a Korean as possible proof that United Nations authorities have decided to crack down on unruly troops.

The Times correspondent says the Canadians, members of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, are coming up for court martial in Seoul next week in connection with the murder of three Koreans and wounding of another as an aftermath of an attempted rape. The Times writer said two British soldiers also were involved in the murders.

Writes Barrett:

"One of those killed was a Korean army lieutenant, Yi Chang sun, and it is his murder specially for which the three accused are to be tried.

5 Others Involved

"Five other Canadians are said to be involved in the crime, but to a much lesser extent, and these already have been punished. The two Britons also have been punished but the three Canadians now up for trial apparently will be the real test."

Barrett in his dispatch lauds "the forthright and determined decision" of Canadian authorities to track down the criminals. He says most observers view it "as a sign that a badly-needed campaign to shock some United Nations troops into awareness of basic human decency has begun."

He adds:

"Although Korean civilians have been brutalized by troops on both sides, the hard fact of the matter in Korea is that the Chinese, waging a propaganda war as intently as a shooting war, have impressed many Koreans with the discipline of their troops. Many residents of Seoul seem to go out of their way to tell about good Chinese behavior, and specifically about public executions of two rapists the Chinese are said to have held.

Shocking Details

"Details of the crime of which the Canadians are accused are particularly shocking. The greatest ill effect from this crime is its seizure by the Koreans as a symbol of the widespread contempt held by many United Nations soldiers for the people of this country, a contempt emphasized every day in the way the Koreans are pushed around."

Here is how Barrett describes the incident:

"Those up for trial are accused of invading a Korean home last March 17 and attempting to attack two women occupants while members of the criminal party restrained the men of the house who tried to protect the women. Finally the Korean men succeeded in freeing themselves and throwing out the troops.

"As the Canadians and two British soldiers withdrew from the house, somebody threw a hand grenade inside and killed three of the occupants and injured a fourth."

Barrett says Canadian investigators roamed the front lines to get evidence. They discovered a grenade handle with the fingerprints of one of the accused on it. Also, reports The Times correspondent, a 45-calibre bullet was dug out of the clay wall of the Korean hut and was found to fit the gun of one of the accused.

Prizes Aplenty In Draws At Exhibition

Don A. McGillis went down to Morrow Park Monday afternoon to make certain of getting conspicuous space for the automobile of the Rugby Club draw. He wanted the people to see this car and buy tickets on it for the benefit of the rugby team.

While he was at the grounds he gave the directors the following valuable articles to be drawn Wednesday afternoon and evening at the Exhibition, but with stipulation that the winners must be in the grandstand.

For the afternoon of Wednesday, children's day, there will be: One CCM boy's bicycle, worth $59, and one girl's CCM bicycle, valued at $55.

School children are admitted to the Exhibition free, but for the grandstand show they are asked to pay 15 cents. And from the stand crowd there will be one boy and one girl who will each take home a brand new bicycle.

For the Wednesday night crowd, Mr. McGillis offered a man's wrist watch, worth $79, and for the women a mixmaster, worth $75.

These contributions for the promotion of the success of the "Ex" are given to the directors in the name of the McGillis family.

The official opening by Hon. W. A. Goodfellow is Wednesday night with all the rest of the show. You have to be on the stand to win either of these prizes.

As announced elsewhere, there will be 12 prizes distributed from the CPC cooking school each afternoon and evening Thursday to Saturday.

Then, for the Saturday night finale there is an 8 ft. 2 in. refrigerator, worth $414, that is to be drawn for as the gift to the Exhibition from T. J. Cavanagh Frigidaire and Appliances, Charlotte St.

But, that wind-up to the Santa Claus phases of the "Ex" is preceded by a whole series of draws in the manufacturers' building Friday at 9.30 p.m. Mr. Collins says this is specially for women, and apparently the men might as well take a walk while that is going on.

Many of the exhibitors in that building are putting on separate draws which are to be decided Friday night.

Any time you visit the Exhibition during the week you will receive at these booths tickets which you are to sign, and leave there. That is all you do. Then Friday night at 9.30 these separate draws will be made.

Finally, all the tickets that have been deposited at the booths in the manufacturers' building will be gathered up into one container from which will be picked the winner of the Cavanagh prize.

Pinching American Tourists Unnecessarily

An Ohio man vacationing in this Kawartha district has, we think, a justifiable complaint. Coming into Canada for a three-week stay he brought with him four cartons of cigarettes, enough to last out the time. At the border Canadian customs men took three cartons away from him. Although he will be able to reclaim the three without penalty at the border when he returns, he is forced to smoke Canadian cigarettes, or pay an outlandish price for commercially imported American ones.

* * *

We know that regulations sanction the importing free of duty of only one carton of American cigarettes, but we think that the strict limitation in the case of bona fide American vacationers is short-sighted and unneighbourly, penny-wise and pound foolish. True, if the tourist smokes his own cigarettes and not Canadian, our Government loses more than thirty cents on every forty-cent package he might have bought. But Americans, most of them, happen to like American cigarettes as well as Canadians like Canadian. They may also feel hurt at having to pay forty cents for a commodity they get at home for twenty, knowing that the extra money is outright tax. American tourists leave millions of dollars in this country as it is, why try to extract more, and make them unhappy? It is better to have tourists who smoke their own brands in Canada, than ex-tourists who stay at home to smoke their own brands.

* * *

Border Customs men have to deal with unwarranted smuggling of cigarettes by returning Canadians, and by Americans popping across for the day and ready to make a few dollars by selling several cartons in Canada. The Customs men should have some way to know whether an American with four cartons of cigarettes is crossing for a couple of weeks' stay, or only a couple of hours. A legitimate tourist should be treated generously. Surely the Government is not being niggardly because American tourists are open-handed in treating Canadian acquaintances to the duty-free smokes?

* * *

Canadians and Americans travelling across half a dozen European frontiers have duties waived on almost anything they bring with them. They can import a couple of thousand cigarettes if they want to. Europeans appreciate the value of the tourist dollar. So do Canadians, really; it is a pity to have this appreciation foiled by over-zealous Customs men or pinching directives from Ottawa.

Preliminary Census Figures

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics, which is responsible for organizing and compiling the ninth census of Canada, now in progress, has taken the good step of issuing preliminary reports. The first one to reach our hands gives the preliminary totals of population for some cities, towns and incorporated villages across the country. The figures are not final, but they are near enough to have validity. The Bureau of Statistics says that, as the work of enumerating, sorting and analysis advances, other preliminary reports will be issued. This is a helpful attitude. The first volume of the last (1941—the eighth) census was not published until 1944; the ninth volume (on housing) was published as late as 1949, and we believe that other volumes of that census are still pending.

The totals of population in the first preliminary pamphlet (it is only four pages) are mainly for towns and villages where the enumerating can be done quickly or which have had efficient enumerators. In this district the only town listed is Campbellford, whose 1951 population is given as 3,203, compared with a 1941 population of 3,018. The increase over the decade is slight. So is the increase in the population of villages in this district:

	1951	1941
Bancroft	1,315	1,094
Bobcaygeon	1,166	1,002
Havelock	1,123	1,113

With the exception of Quebec, few towns and villages across the country have had more than a small increase in population, if any. This is particularly true in the West and the Maritimes. There are some very large increases, due to special circumstances: a new mine and timber development, for instance.

Thus there is the town of Steinbach, Manitoba, which had one inhabitant in 1941, and has 2,144 this year. Manitoba has fifteen villages, according to the preliminary figures, which did not exist in 1941 and now have populations varying from 397 (Waskada) to 1,433 (Alona). Old established Ontario villages, like Bobcaygeon, have shown little significant change, unless they are now suburban to large cities like Toronto, Ottawa and Windsor. Portsmouth for instance, had a rise in population during the decade of only 158 from 3,393. It is evident that the back-to-the-country, village-green movement of the United States has not yet struck Canada forcibly.

The Home Newspaper

The London press floods the United Kingdom. The three or four chief London dailies have circulations of millions, covering the whole of Britain. If train delivery is not fast or direct enough, papers like the Express put out special provincial editions, printed in, say Glasgow or Manchester, mainly from mats flown to those centres from London, and carrying only a column or two of regional news items. But throughout the island, and apart from great sturdy dailies like the Manchester Guardian and the Yorkshire Post, there are hundreds of local newspapers, chiefly weeklies now, which survive despite the preponderance of the large London dailies.

The Kitchener-Waterloo Record calls attention to an article in the British Recorder by William Redpath, past chairman of the British Newspaper Conference, which illustrates the part played in local life by the home newspaper—an essential service which the metropolitan press cannot give. The writer told of a conversation with a fellow-commuter who had dropped his subscription to his home paper, which had gone up in price. He had, he felt, been economical and wise. William Redpath, the writer of the article, then said:

"Is it wise?" I asked. "I think you will find the local newspaper is more useful and valuable to your household than you think."

"Oh, yes," was his reply. "We don't need it."

As we got out of the train I had a final shot. "I noticed that you smoked three cigarettes on our journey of less than an hour. Do you realize you have smoked two issues of your local newspaper?" He seemed surprised, but noted the point.

A fortnight later when I met my friend on the train he had a confession to make.

"You were right about our local paper. We are taking it again. The girls were demanding it to know what was on at the cinemas in the district, my wife wanted to find out which of her friends had won prizes at the local flower show, Alan apparently studied the 'for sale' column every week, and worst of all there was an announcement of a modification of the local bylaws which would have saved me a lot of money."

There, in a nutshell, was a tribute to the value of the local newspaper. "Penny wise and pound foolish," I thought. You who read this no doubt have other good reasons why your local paper must be in your home.

All my life, wherever I have lived, I have made it a practice to support the local paper in the district as an act of local patriotism, to get to know the locality and the people where I live, and for its wide field of information.

As the Kitchener-Waterloo Record reminds us, the weeklies in Britain do not have the wire service which most Canadian home-town dailies have. The local daily in Canada is equipped to do things: through its reportorial staff and district correspondents (the Examiner has some fifty district correspondents) it covers local and district news; through its Canadian Press wire service it gives its readers national and international coverage.

Arthur Schnabel

Arthur Schnabel was perhaps the greatest exponent of Beethoven that consummate musicianship and technical virtuosity have ever produced. In his 69 years he recorded nearly all of the composer's work, so that music lovers who never had the opportunity to hear Schnabel's interpretation of Beethoven in the concert hall can hear the great pianist in their own homes.

Schnabel did not limit himself to Beethoven, of course, but his fame rests chiefly upon the pianoforte work of that composer. The Austrian pianist was both teacher and composer. From 1925 to 1931 he was professor of pianoforte at the Berlin State Acamedy. With the rise of Hitler and the Nazi cultural life, Schnabel was compelled with other distinguished Germans of Jewish blood to seek opportunities elsewhere. Since before the last war he made his home in the United States, host to so many great refugees after 1933 whose science and arts enrich the world.

Arthur Schnabel, born in 1882, died last Wednesday in Switzerland after a short illness. His masterly interpretations of Beethoven will continue to move and inspire the world.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Toronto is uncertain whether to keep the Wolfe from the door.

The Chicago Black Hawks have paid $75,000 for six players. No, not white slavery, but Black hawking.

A visitor to this district from England declares that he doesn't understand Canadian money. Neither do we; it goes so fast we haven't time.

We read that 57,000 Toronto school pupils en masse will greet Princess Elizabeth when she visits that loyal city. It's lucky for the Princess that she was never a school-teacher; if she had been fifty pupils would have been more than enough.

Russia's Part At San Francisco

By SEBASTIAN HAFFNER

DURING the last four years Russia has, by and large, held the initiative in the "cold war." Her diplomatic moves have usually been of an offensive character, and it has therefore become almost a conditioned reflex for the public in the West to react to every Russian surprise move with the anxious question: "Where will they hurt us this time?" The Russian acceptance of the invitation to San Francisco, where the Japanese Peace Treaty is to be signed in the early days of September, has therefore evoked widespread uneasiness.

However, it is by no means certain that it foreshadows a dangerous Russian wrecking action. During the last year, Western—and particularly American—rearmament has begun to change the world balance of power in Russia's disfavour; the diplomatic initiative has increasingly passed to the West. The agreement about the Japanese Peace Treaty—which will bring Japan back as a major factor in the Far Eastern interplay of forces—is itself a major diplomatic success of the West; and the belated and somewhat inconsistent Russian decision to appear at the party (which Russia had refused to prepare and tried hard to prevent from taking place) may possibly portend nothing more than an admission of defeat and an embarrassed attempt to make the best of a bad job.

✧ ✧ ✧

WHAT line the Russians will take at San Francisco is, of course, impossible to predict. But their chances of mischief are, at this stage, clearly limited and they will have to be careful if they want to avoid doing themselves more harm than good.

So far as can be made out, there are three lines of action which Russia can take at San Francisco.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE first—and the only one in keeping with Russia's previous attitude—would be simply to register a solemn, though ineffectual, protest "for the record." Russia has always maintained that the Japanese Peace Treaty must be agreed unanimously by the "Big Five," America, Britain, Russia, China and France. On this basis, Russia could declare that she considers the San Francisco proceeding illegal, regards the Japanese Peace Treaty as null and void, and reserves her freedom of action.

While such a course is perfectly open to Russia, it is hard to see that she would gain anything by it. Her legal argument has never been accepted by the Western Powers who deny that the Potsdam agreement about the preparations of peace treaties by the Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers applies to Japan (at the time this agreement was made, the Japanese war was still in progress, and Russia was not even a belligerent in it). With the other prospective signatories of the Japanese peace treaty, this Russian legal argument is particularly unpopular, since it would exclude them from any say about the peace terms. Similarly, Russia would incur ill-will in Japan by such an attitude because it would amount to a refusal to make peace with Japan at all, and an insistence to remain in a state of war. At the same time this state of war would remain academic, since Russia knows very well that she cannot now take aggressive military action against Japan without starting world war. Finally, this kind of deliberate verbal challenge would remind the West of Russia's abiding hostility and do considerable harm to Russia's present peace offensive.

✧ ✧ ✧

RUSSIA'S second possible course of action would be to drop her procedural protest and her boycott of the proceedings, and try to reopen the substantial questions of peace terms which have been settled in her absence, in the hope of dividing the Allies, postponing the signature of the Treaty, or at least persuading an impressive number of Asian countries to stay out from the Treaty.

To reopen discussions of terms at San Francisco will not be easy for Russia. San Francisco is not a negotiating conference but a signing conference; and the majority of participants is unlikely to agree to any change of time-table or agenda. It will be correctly pointed out that Russia, together with other belligerents, was given her chance to take part in the preceding diplomatic treaty negotiations; that talks between Mr. Dulles and Mr. Malik, about the treaty's terms had in fact begun last winter; that Russia broke off these talks of her own free will; and that she cannot now reopen issues which, at her own choice, have in the meantime been settled in her absence.

✧ ✧ ✧

THERE remains the possibility that Russia may, by playing on remaining grievances, persuade some Asian countries to stay out with her. This, though it would not prevent the signing of the treaty by the majority of ex-belligerents, would certainly be a propaganda success. But it would not be an easy success, and a price would have to be paid for it.

The doubtful signatories—India, Burma, Indonesia and the Philippines—are an ill-assorted team. India (whose attendance in San Francisco is in any case still uncertain) wholly agrees with the non-punitive nature of the treaty; her objections concern other matters—the absence of China among the signatories and the Pacific defence arrangements which are to be linked with the treaty. Burma, Indonesia and the Philippines, by contrast, object to the absence of punitive and reparation clauses. Russia will find it difficult to form a common diplomatic front with both the Indians and the other three Asian nations. She cannot back up the latter without creating deep hostility in Japan, and some of them—the Philippines in particular—might think twice before offending America by making a common front with Russia.

Altogether, then it does not appear that Russia can gain much by trying to re-start the closed negotiations.

✧ ✧ ✧

THERE remains a third possible course for Russia—which is, blandly and meekly, to sign the treaty. This, of course, would be a complete round-about turn. But such round-about turns have happened before in Russian policy whenever the calculators in the Kremlin think they have something to gain by them; and there would be some very definite gains in this case.

By signing Russia would, without any material sacrifice, greatly help her present peace-offensive. She would, at no cost at all, convince many well-meaning people in the West that she has really undergone a change of heart and seeks peace sincerely. At the same time, she would make moral conquests in Japan and keep a finger in the Japanese pie.

✧ ✧ ✧

IT is perhaps taken a little too much for granted—especially in America—that, after the treaty, Japan will necessarily remain an unconditionally loyal and dependable ally of America. Certainly, the Japanese will for quite some time remain conscious of their ultimate dependence on America—a dependence which will be the stronger the more Russia (and China) take a hostile and threatening attitude towards Japan. But it would be unnatural if Japan did not try to reduce and loosen that dependence to the best of her ability, and to regain as much freedom of action as possible. Also, her economic and trade interests make it desirable for her not to let the wires to Moscow and Peking snap entirely.

All this gives Russian diplomacy some scope in Japan provided peace and normal diplomatic relations are restored. Russia may well be realistic enough to realize that the immediate chances of conquering Japan—either by military pressure from outside or by Communist fifth column work from within—have gone, and that for the time being, she has more to gain in Japan from a soft policy than from a hard one.

Letters To The Editor

FOSSIL OF CROCODILE

Sir: On July 12 of this year Mr. Tinker and his son-in-law and myself paid a visit to the caves in Warsaw, and found what we think had been missed by most people. A large fossil, of what appeared to have been a crocodile at one time in the dim past. It is etched into a large stone at the mouth of the caves, and is about three feet in length with a well-formed head, and all the teeth showing. I wrote to the curator of the Royal Ontario Museum and told him what I'd seen but I never heard whether he went to see it or not. Possibly he has seen a lot of these things in his time. I really enjoyed your article on the Indian River and am looking forward to reading more of them.

FRED HORN

NOT ALLOWED SPARE-TIME WORK

Sir: Mr. Prudham has publicly stated that "increased production may well be the price of democracy," and we are told repeatedly that increased production is of paramount importance.

Some time ago I asked a Peterborough bank employee if he would care to do some clerical work for me, and he told me that he was not allowed to do work other than that for the bank. I was also told by a local constable at the police station that part time jobs were "taboo."

In the first case it is amazing that a bank which goes to such lengths to promote good public relations should so strive to prevent payment of "the price of democracy." In addition it is both offensive and undemocratic for an employer to dabble in the private affairs of his employees.

In the case of the police it would be of interest to know who is responsible for this deplorable attitude, the person responsible should be told by the city council to confine his influence to the betterment of his country.

I was told by a fireman that this baneful influence did not exist in their department, but that certain misguided people had complained to the City Council because it did not. They appear to be opposed to efforts to benefit the country lest they should run the risk of less benefit than others.

Some of this situation could be rectified by the City Council, and freedom to act for the benefit of themselves and the community restored to those whose freedom should be inviolate.

Yours truly,

C. W. HOLMAN

OUGHT-NOT PARKING

Sir: If my memory serves me right, we had a member of the Toronto Police Dept., Traffic Division, for a special visit here some time back and upon whose recommendations certain action was taken.

Among these suggestions was, I believe, the "No Parking" notices at street intersections, at X feet from each corner—particularly downtown.

Practically since the time upon which these signs were erected the following has taken place. At the northeast corner of Charlotte and George Streets—three, or four times per week, a trailer type truck is parked facing west on Charlotte St., and fully within the restricted zone, completely obscuring the stop light at the northwest corner, normally seen by a west-bound automobile.

The fact that alternative space is available at the rear of the George St. store is no doubt carefully avoided by the truck operator on the grounds that he (or they) would have a further few steps to walk when unloading. Yet, the Police Department no doubt in turn cheerfully condone this flagrant misuse of the regulations!

Would any of your readers be kind enough to advise how much influence one must have to enable continued defiance of the common regard for safety, courtesy, or could it be that it is time for one or two changes in those whose job it is to dispense authority?

Yours, etc.

"DRIVER"

SONG OF THE THALAMUS

Sir: This morning a feminine (?) voice trilled, over the radio, "I'm in love again"—what sort of love? With the heart or lips? Some associate love with heaven—out of this world—some songs are old, some new, some are sad.

But the song of the 'Soul' will be in harmony with "Maker" its body—not unnatural but transnatural—be lifted from the sublunar into the sublime—the song of the thalamus, of the fragrance of the garden, happy as the bird, but unashamedly God-created mamma lions; so will heaven be glimpsed, the family tree perfected; well under the frost, there will be no moon, rape, or proverb; released from the geni no patent.

How awful for those who have no song, or are out of tune with their Creator!

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the Lord your God. Ye shall do any judgements, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the Lord your God. (Lev. 18: 1, 2, 4.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying....Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. (Matt. 5: 1, 2, 43-45.)

Smoke And Ashes

(Saskatoon Star-Phoenix)

We wonder whether the idea of putting inscriptions on briquettes produced by a state-owned coal concern in the Russian zone of Germany was the brain wave of the propaganda ministry or of an unusually bright advertising executive. The briquettes are stamped with the hammer and sickle and the words "Long Live Stalin." At first glance this looks like an ingenious device to recruit one of the humblest necessities of life in the service of the Communist fatherland. But if there are any east Germans with a spark of humour left in them—and we suspect there are—they may derive immense satisfaction from watching the sacred emblems of the Kremlin turn to smoke and ashes.

Eastern Ontario To Expand Industry–Frost

OTTAWA, Aug. 21—(CP)—The 58th annual Central Canada Exhibition opened Monday amid the gleeful shouts and laughter of more than 40,000 children.

Admitted free, the youngsters swarmed the grounds. Officials expected a record crowd of more than 75,000 would pass through the gates on the first day of the week-long exhibition.

The "Ex" was declared officially open by Premier Frost, of Ontario, at a luncheon.

In a brief adress, he predicted that Eastern Ontario will be developed into one of Canada's greatest industrial areas. He referred to mining surveys made through federal-provincial co-operation which showed great prospects for the area.

He recalled that only recently an American steel company had decided to develop iron-ore deposits at Marmora, about 35 miles northeast of Peterborough.

"If there are deposits at Marmora, which is not far from you, then there are certain to be others in Eastern Ontario," said Mr. Frost. "We are just at the commencement of a great era in this portion of the province."

Senators Plan Explore Story Of Red Spy Ring

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—(AP)—Senate investigators promised today to explore fully a story that a Communist spy ring with some Americans in its ranks assured Moscow before Pearl Harbor that Japan would attack the United States.

Mitsusada Yoshikawa, director of special investigations for the Japanese attorney general, told the story Monday in sworn testimony before the Senate sub-committee on internal security.

Senator Homer Ferguson (Rep.-Mich.), a member, and Robert Morris, counsel for the group, said the entire matter will be gone into deeply at further hearings.

The case of the fabulous spy ring first was made public in February, 1949, when the US army released a 32,000-word report on the operation. Parts of that report were deleted for security reasons. It was written under Gen. Douglas MacArthur's direction. Almost immediately after making the report public the army withdrew it.

Never Released Names

Yoshikawa said Richard Sorge, whom he sent to the gallows as head of the spy ring, named the late writer Agnes Smedley as a US member of the ring. But Sorge never gave the names of a "young officer connected with the American consulate at Shanghai" and an American newspaper correspondent who also were members, Yoshikawa said.

The witness said Sorge confessed that his mission was (1) to spy on Japanese and German war plans, and (2) to induce Japan to strike at the US, Britain, France and The Netherlands, but not at Russia, if she struck at all.

He said the ring thus not only had advance information of Japanese plans, but had helped to shape them through the exercise of influence on "brain trusters" in the Japanese government.

The lean, spectacled witness, speaking in Japanese through an interpreter, described the capture of Sorge in November, 1941, a few weeks before Pearl Harbor.

He said Sorge "felt relieved that he had just about completed all the work he had set out to do" before his arrest.

Saw Message

Hoshikawa said he saw a message relayed to Moscow in 1941 by Sorge advising that a Japanese mobilization then under full steam meant an attack aimed "to the south."

He said the message did not specificaly mention an attack on the United States or Pearl Harbor, but that any power would know such a move "would necessitate going to war with America."

He said that Sorge, although a Russian agent and a Communist, also was a member of the Nazi party so fully trusted by German ambassador Eugene Ott that Ott denounced his arrest. Yoshikawa said Sorge was able to warn Russia before Hitler's invasion of that county June 22, 1941.

Bombers End 13-Yr. Drought Paste Argos 13-1

WINNIPEG, Aug. 21 —(CP)— Winnipeg Blue Bombers ended a 13-year winless era against Toronto football teams by walloping the Canadian champion Argonauts 13-1 Monday night before 9,600 fans, a record football crowd for Manitoba.

Blue Bombers, soundly whipped last fall by Argos in the Canadian championship final, outplayed the Big Four team in the air and on the ground in last night's exhibition game.

After a scoreless first quarter, George Trafton's Winnipeg team took a 1-0 lead in the second, increased the margin to 7-1 in the third and counted another six points in the final 15 minutes while holding the Dominion champions scoreless.

Winnipeg, beaten by Argonauts in the 1937, 1938, 1945, 1946, 1947 and 1950 Grey Cup finals, charged to victory on the forward passing of quarterback Jack Jacobs and the shattering line play of tackles Dic Huffman and Buddy Tinsley.

Shows His Stuff

Jacobs, who failed to show much in last fall's final over Toronto's Muck-covered Varsity Stadium, kicked second-quarter final, threw a 40-yard third-quarter forward pass to Tom Casey for a touchdown and in the last quarter shot a 14-yard touchdown pass to Johnny Stroppa. Both were converted by end Joe Aguirre. Huffman, whose continued playing for Winnipeg will depend on outcome of a court hearing Thursday, spearheaded a charging line that rushed the Toronto quarterback, Knobby Wirkowski, throughout the game.

Wirkowski completed only four of 11 attempted forwards and one was intercepted while Jacobs tried 29, with 19 completed for a total 235-yard gain.

Los Angeles Rams, Huffman's employer last year, have applied for an interim injunction prohibiting the big tackle from playing for any team but them.

Mr. Justice J. J. Kelly of the Manitoba Court of King's Bench set Thursday for the hearing. The injunction, if granted, would prevent Huffman from playing until a court hearing can decide whether to uphold an injunction awarded in a United States court.

Argonauts were without tackle John Kerns and centre Buckets Hirsch, injured as the Toronto team edged Calgary Stampeders 36-35 in Calgary Saturday. Argos' best gain was a 39-yard run in the second quarter by Ted Toogood.

At one stage Toronto advanced to the Winnipeg five-yard line but could gain only two yards on the next three plays. The easterners got their lone point when Tommy Ford was rouged after Joe Krol's kick in the third quarter.

Out At The Kawartha

This Thursday, August 23, will be the date of the two-ball match with the Busines Girls' section. A remarkably good turnout resulted when the girls gave out the "invite" for the first match in July, and now it is anticipated that the men will sally forth in equal numbers at this time when they will be the hosts. The entry list for men, posted in their locker room, will be up until Wednesday p.m. when the committee will make the draw. When the draw is posted, additional names may be entered right up to starting time, 5 p.m. Because of the shorter evenings matches will be started without delay. This may necessitate some changes in partners should some members arrive a little late. "The show must go on." Buffet supper and an interesting program will follow.

The spotlight in the club championship play is now turned on D. Vitarelli, who won over E. Hanbidge in the semi-finals, and Mel Akers who downed Jack Raine in the same round.

The President's Cup play, revitaliezd, has taken a spurt forward, with H. McLean waiting for the winner of the J. Watts-E. Gregson match; and H. Correll-E. Hanbidge, B. Moulton-V. Rawlence yet to "battle it out."

In the men's two-ball, play has been slow, but with a number of matches arranged for this weekend, it is anticipated that the match committee will breathe a little easier.

Tennis Section

The draw for the club championship match has now been posted. Some excellent matches are in the offing. These are to start immediately with th match committee requesting no delay.

Paul Remy Wins Quebec Title

QUEBEC, Aug. 21 (CP). —Paul Remy is the first Frenchman to hold the Quebec men's singles tennis championship after victories over Canada's two top players.

The 28-year-old Davis Cup veteran from France Monday showed a lot of staying power in his final-round win over Vancouver's Lorne Main, 7-5, 4-6, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Brendan Macken of Montreal, 1950 Canadian and Quebec singles champion ousted by Remy in the semi-finals, joined forces with Main to win the men's doubles title.

The Canadian pair, who represented Canada in Davis Cup singles play, disposed of Remy and Jean Claude Molinari of France 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

Earlier, Louise Brown of Toronto won the ladies' singles championship to wind up the eight-day provincial tournament delayed by rain last week.

Remy's blazing service caught Main off guard for five aces in the singles match while the 21-year-old Canadian who was seeded second countered with four. Main lost his service 14 times and Remy 12 times.

Guy Regent Scores Second, Third Wins

TORONTO, Aug. 21 (CP). — Guy Regent, the popular gelding owned by Bert H. Soper, former member of parliament from Smiths Falls scored his second and third consecutive wins to feature Monday's trots at Thorncliffe raceway.

On Friday he had started in a pacing event at one mile and one-quarter. Because his previous reputation had been established as a sprinter, the public permitted him to go to the post at odds of 31-to-1 and he led every step of the way to pay $64.10.

He came out Monday to race in two heats of the featured pacing stake. Apparently the public believed that Friday's race had taken too much out of him because he went to the post at nearly 12-to-1. He came from behind to win this time and paid $25.45.

Later in the afternoon, he won at 1 1-16 miles and paid $6.80.

Thorncliffe officials announced that another event exclusively for women drivers will be carded for Thursday.

The schedule games that were postponed on Thursday, July 26, will be played this evening.

Schedule games that were postponed on Tuesday, August 7, will be played this coming Thursday evening.

In a well-played game last evening, Ray Lewis won the novice singles competition. His opponent was Jack Freeman. This is the competition annually sponsored by the Peterborough Examiner. Taking the lead right on the first end, Lewis was never in trouble and the longer the game lasted, the better he bowled. He well deserved the honor. This series was ably supervised by Bill Jones and G. Freeman. We congratulate all.

Winners

Roy Lewis first and P. J. Griffin Trophy. J. Freeman, second; W. McCreery, third; H. Redwood, fourth.

Secretary F. Dearborn is now taking entries for the Globe and Mail doubles competition. Entry must be in writing and delivered to the secretary on or before Sept. 1.

Tennis Tourney In Second Day

WINDSOR, Aug. 21 (CP). — The 60th annual Canadian lawn tennis tournament is expected to move into high gear today with the arrival of many top-ranking net stars from the Quebec open tournament at Quebec city.

The Dominion's finest tennis show got off to a flying start on Monday, although it was without such seeded players as Brendan Macken of Montreal, Lorne Main of Vancouver, Henri Rochon of Montreal, Tony Vincent of Long Island, NY, Pat Macken of Montreal, and Pat Lowe of Toronto.

Macken, Main, Rochon and company wound up their activities in the big Quebec provincial event Monday and immediately wired local officials that they can be expected here late today.

The absence of these top-ranking players forced postponements of a dozen matches.

Do Their Stuff

Seymour Greenburg of Chicago, former US clay courts champion, and Donald B. Hodges, Regina, Sask., Saskatchewan singles champion, were the only big guns to show their stuff before Monday's gallery.

Greenberg disposed of James Dent of Windsor, 6-0, 6-2, and Hodges sidelined Scott Nelles of Toronto, 6-4, 6-2, in second-round matches.

Jacques Giguere, early arrival from Quebec city, gained the third round of the meet after winning over Dick Potter of Hamtramck, Mich., 6-0, 6-8, 6-0 and James Zeron of Windsor, 6-1, 6-2.

Paul Willey of Vancouver, Ann Freedhoff of Vancouver, and Beau Summers of Toronto were other Canadian title-seekers who turned in winning performances.

Willey defeated Leonard Johnson of Detroit, 6-4, 6-2. Miss Freedhof downed Evelyn McDermott of Winnipeg, 6-3, 6-3, and Summers easily disposed of Windsor's Ed Wood, 6-0, 6-2.

Bickford Goes Home

BOSTON, Aug. 21 (AP). — Vern Bickford, Boston Braves' righthanded pitching ace, today was given permission to go home to New Canton, Va., to rest his fractured right hand. He suffered the injury during a pre-game pepper drill in Chicago Aug. 5.

Manager Tommy Holmes has been advised by Dr. Roger Doyle, the club physician, that Bickford will be unable to throw a ball for at least four weeks. Before being sidelined, Bickford, a 19-game winner last season, had compiled an 11-9 record.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Current Hockey News comes up with a story of Frank Patrick bringing out a new, unbreakable hockey stick, once which has passed factory and playing tests. The laminated stick is in one piece and Patrick feels it will stand terrific wear and tear, thereby saving puck clubs considerable mazuma each season. The new laminated stick is made by laying sticks of different types of wood on top of each other and gluing 'em together. The laminations are some eight feet wide and the right length. After being glued, the eight-foot strip goes in a mould for shaping and strong pressing, then being sawed to standard hockey stick width. A hickory shoe goes over the bottom of each blade to prevent fraying.

* * * * * *

For many years, efforts have been made to improve hockey stick so they'll stand the strain of hard playing. All kinds of wood have been tried, and later aluminum and plastics. Patrick claims his stick is the answer, and you can't laugh off any invention of the famed Patricks. It would still have to get the NHL and CAHA okay, of course. The average NHL club is said to use from 70 to 80 sticks per player each season, because of breakages, costing the club some $4,000 at prevailing prices. Of course, stick manufacturers and sports shops might not welcome this new stick. Nor might puckists enjoy getting hit over the noggin with an unbreakable stick.

Just Two More Weeks

ORFU schedule opens Sept. 3 in our group, but the local Orfuns will start off that date with an exhibition here 'gainst Weston. Then Oshawa comes for a league game on Sept. 12. Five group jousts and two exhibitions planned for Peter's borough during the autumn, the last winding up Nov. 3, with playoffs following. If we make 'em. Teams in are Toronto Ryerson (who flay four-pointers), East Yorks, Orillia Bombers, Oshawa Raiders, Cobourg Ghosts and the Peterborough Orfuns. All games will be at Morrow Park in this city for the ORFU-ers and all will be floodlight frays. Meantime, a car raffle is on, season ducats are avalaible, and nightly workouts are being held on the gridiron.

Oever at the Bowl d'Ashburnham tonight, weather permitting, the men softballers go in a twin bill, opening at seven. It's the Orphans vs. UEW for the city championship and the Taylor Trophy. A best-of-seven serial, the team being tied now at a win apiece after two close contests last Saturday. We believe they'll go right back at it again Wednesday in two games in an effort to have a winner declared before Aug. 23, when OASA playdowns commence for the intermediate "A" representatives. Terry Woods of Orphans is liable to toss another double-header as he seems the only dependable flinger Harold Dormer has. Don't know who will pitch for Howie Dalton's club, but Reg Gordon will likely toe the slab for one tilt.

Wipper Placed Second

Mimico Mounties beat Brampton 11-8 last eve to open their senior lacrosse series, three out of five games Hamilton and St. Kitts fought it out to an 11-all draw after two overtime periods, showing how well-matched they are in their sawoffs. And Fergus Thistles ousted Toronto West Yorks 13-5 to take that home-and-home series by three goals, thereby qualifying to meet the Petes in what is actually Eastern Canada semi-finals. The OLA secretary has released a few figures at schedule's end, showing that Don McPhail of Mimico led in points with 108, over Harry Wipper with 90, though Harry had 67 goals to Don's 53. The Petes placed five high scorers in the top 10, Wipper second, Ike Hildebrand third with 82 (in tie with Dorney), Arn Dugan two back of him with 72, Curly Mason next with 68 and Russ Slater with 67. Wilf Chard led in penalties with 77 and McPhail had 73 minutes.

* * * * * * *

Fergus Thistles are slated to open their best-of-five series with Don Crowe's crew at 8:45 tonight in Miller Bowl. It was raining at this writing and Manager Bob Curtin of the Petes advised us that the game would be played if the weather cleared—and, in any case, it would not be called off until later in the day. So we don't know if it's on or not. Radio will have the info in the early eve. Should it be called off, the game will go here tomorrow night, the second game being listed for the following night (whether Wednesday or Thursday) at Fergus. Then a day's rest and the teams resume here, either Friday or Saturday night—depending on whether or not there's been a postponement. Got it? Scrappy Don McPhail and his buddies might get pretty hot in this series and give the leading Petes plenty of trouble, who knows?

Thinks Canadian Football More Exciting Than In US

By GAYLE TALBOT.

MONTREAL, Aug. 21 (CP). — If Americans think football south of the border has some razzle-dazzle, they should see the things they do with the inflated shoat-skin in Canada.

A good quarterback like George Ratterman, Glenn Dobbs, Frankie Filchock and similar "imports" can do everything except make that ball disappear and turn up later in a spectator's hip pocket.

"It is awful tough on the linebacker, trying to find where it's gone," says Lew Hayman, the little fellow who once played basketball at Syracuse, NY, University and who, since 1946 has built Montreal Alouettes into a valuable football property.

The observation was an understatement, if anything. There are five backfielders on the Canadian team; and they are not handi-

McGillis Prexy Of Eagles In Senior OHA

Don McGillis, Sr., has been re-elected president of the Peterborough Eagles Hockey Club in OHA senior "B" competition. The 1951-52 vice-president is Dr. J. R. Epping, and Horace Guppy has been returned as secretary-treasurer of the club. Ned Vitarelli agreed to take over the coaching job, after an absence of two seasons from the city. He previously coached the local Legionnaires to the provincial senior "B" championship in 1949. The Eagles were built around Legionnaires.

Mick Magee, who coached the club last year, has offered to help out in an advisory capacity this coming hockey season. New Vitarelli will name his own manager, and the executive has power to add further working officials, if required. It is expected that a much stronger squad than last year will be iced by Eagles as soon as workouts can be started early this autumn in Civic Arena. No word on a probable grouping for the coming hockey campaign has been received yet, and there has been much discussion of an amalgamation of the Eagles' and Petes' clubs for this winter. However, nothing definite to date has come of this matter.

Fans Friends Of BC Umpire

VANCOUVER (CP)—Nobody shouts "kill the umpire" when A. B. Mortimer officials at baseball games.

The 62-year-old negro, once a star player, has won the affection of fans and players alike. He was vted "most popular umpire in the Kingsway Baseball League," Vancouver's senior amateur body.

Fans and players alike know him by name and by sight. But more especially they know him by sound with his bull-throated call of balls and strikes.

He works five or six games a week and enjoys every minute. "If I wasn't working 'em, I'd be watching 'em," he says.

Born in New Westminister, Mortimer played with Hanbry Mills in the old Terminal League, hitting over .360 in every one of the four years in the league.

Then he played eight years with Kansas City Monarchs. Then came a stretch with the Canadian Forestry Corps in the Second World War.

After that he came to Vancouver and began umpiring. And everybody in minor league baseball is glad that he did.

Here And There In Sports

By The Canadian Press

Election of a commissioner in the major league club owners' meeting here again today appears unlikely, say a majority of the baseball executives.

A previous meeting August 7 resulted in cutting down the list of candidates to 11, including the following:

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Ford Frick, president of the National League, and Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds.

Brooklyn club owner Walter O'Malley said he is practically certain a commissioner will not be chosen because "we're still in the weeding out process."

Giles, a leading candidate to succeed A. B. (Happy) Chandler, also doubts that one will be named at this time. An American League club owner said there isn't a chance the election will take place.

Three Calgary Stampeder players injured in Saturday's exhibition game against Toronto Argonauts probably will be back in action within a week, club officials said Monday.

Jim Langford and Royal Copeland were carried off the field in the fourth quarter. Officials said Langford suffered a slight shaking up and Copeland an ankle injury. Dave Berry also suffered an ankle injury.

Fifty-two yearlings have been consigned by Ontario breeders to the eighth annual sale of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society Aug. 24 at suburban Long Branch race track. A sale of brood mares, weanlings and horses in training will be held earlier in the day.

At Wedgeport, NS, the Bluefins are running strong this year in the tides off this southwestern Nova Scotia tuna fishing mecca.

A total of 212 of the battling fish have been landed so far, compared to 127 this time last year.

Largest of the season was a 775-pounder boated by Ralph Dundore of Marshville, Penn., on Sunday.

A few hours after jockey Terry Sullivan died in a Vancouver hospital Monday a memorial fund was opened to assist his widow and seven-months-old daughter.

Sullivan, 24-year-old English-born rider, was fatally injured Saturday when thrown from his horse at the exhibition park race meet.

Rain late Monday forced postponement of the middleweight fight between Laurent Dauthuille of France and Eugene Hairston, New York deaf mute. The bout will be staged in the baseball stadium at Montreal tonight.

At Saratoga Springs, forty-eight youngsters sold for a total of $101,000 Monday night at the slowest session so far in the annual Saratoga yearling sale.

The highest price was $10,000 paid by W. Wilkerson of Gretna, La., for a chestnut colt by Rico Monte out of Lady Phara. The lookout stud of James H. Brink consigned the colt.

Detroit's George Kell took over the American League batting leadership last week by a slim two-point edge over Orestes Minoso, of Chicago White Sox.

Kell, who ranked third a week ago with .331, improved his average to .339. This gave him the lead over Minoso with .337.

Stan Musial is steadily building up his lead in the National League batting race.

The St. Louis Cardinal outfielder increased his margin to eight more points over Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn during the week although his average fell off a couple of points.

Musial is hitting .366 in games through Sunday while Ashburn's average is .339. Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson is third with .337.

Cleveland Pounds Senators In 5-3 Session, Yanks Divide Twin Bill

By RALPH RODEN, Associated Press Sports Writer

Dale Mitchell, a bench warmer every spring, is one of the leading lights in Cleveland's stirring drive for the American League pennant. Mitchell, who has never failed to hit .300 in the big top, sits on the sidelines down south while rookies battle for his left-field job. But sure enough, before the season is well under way, Mitchell is the regular left-fielder. This year Mitchell got off to a horrible start after all aspirants for his berth failed but he started to click and so did the Indians.

Mitchell reached the .300 mark in batting Monday as the Indians opened a crucial 18-game home stand by beating Washington Senators 5-3.

The triumph enabled the Tribe to pull a game ahead of the runner-up New York Yankees who divided a twi-night doubleheader with the Tigers in Detroit. The Tigers won the opener 6-3, but the Yanks grabbed the night game 12-5..

Ninth Homer

Mitchell opened the Indian half of the first inning with his ninth homer, only two shy of his output in four previous complete big league seasons. Before the inning ended Al Rosen boomed his 22nd homer with a mate on and the Indians never were headed. Home runs by Bob Avila in the third and Harry Simpson in the sixth accounted for the other Cleveland runs.

Husky Mike Garcia scattered 12 Washington hits in posting his 17th victory of the year compared to eight losses.

Virgil Trucks, with help from Dizzy Trout, stopped the Yanks in the opener at Detroit. Trucks, leading 4-0, left in the eighth when the Yanks tallied twice.

Pace Attack

Jerry Priddy and Pat Mullin paced the Tigers' 11-hit attack against lefty Ed Lopat. Priddy drove in three runs on a triple, double and single. Mullin contributed his 11th homer.

The Yanks tucked the nightcap away with an eight run explosion in the eighth inning on five hits, three walks, an error and fly ball. Joe DiMaggio and Yogi Berra drove in three runs apiece. Berra homered in the ninth inning of each game to boost his home run output to 20.

Lefty Joe Ostrowski, making his second start of the season, scattered 10 Tiger hits including a homer by Steve Souchock.

The remaining American League clubs were not scheduled. In the National League, rain washed out a game between Brooklyn and Boston. The other National League clubs were idle.

Mimico Defeats Excelsiors Tigers, St. Kitts Tie In Overtime

By The Canadian Press.

Senior Ontario Lacrosse Association quarter-finals opened on Monday night. Mimico Mountaineers defeated Brampton Excelsiors 11-8 at Mimico in the first of their best-of-five series. Hamilton Tigers and St. Catharines Athletics drew to a hectic 11-11 score after two overtime periods.

Fergus Thistles came back into the playoff picture Monday night by whipping West Yorks in Fergus 13-5. This gave them a 20-17 margin in their two-game total-goal series with the Yorkers for the last playoff spot. On Sunday in Toronto they dropped the first game 12-7.

With regular league play now finally ended, Mimico's Don McPhail heads the scoring parade with 108 points over the 30-game schedule. He finished 18 points ahead of his nearest rival, Harry Wipper of Peterborough. Hamilton's Jack Dorney finished in a third place tie with Ike Hildebrand of Peterborough — each notched 82 points.

Slip Behind

In Mimico Monday night the Excelsiors clung to the fast-paced Mounties until the third period. They earned a 4-4 count at half-time but trailed 7-6 at the end of the third.

Archie Dixon fired in three goals for the Mounties while Bud Stocks, Denny Peterson and Ken Dixon each got two. Singles went to H. Downer and Pritchard.

Top man for Brampton was Nick Ferri with two goals. Sheppard, Hilson, G. Chard, Gowland, Caruso and Sutherland each got one.

The Hamilton-St. Catharines contest see-sawed through regular play and into 20 minutes of overtime. The score went: 2-2, at the end of the first, 4-4 at half-time, 6-6 by the three-quarter mark and 8-8 at the end of the fourth quarter. Neither team scored in the first overtime period and both teams scored two goals in the second extra 10 minutes to make it 11-11 as the teams headed for the showers.

League secretary Chuck Rowan ordered the game played to a decisive finish but neither coach would order his team to the floor.

Tony D'Amico and Mac Woolley fired three each for St. Catharines while Cryhnuk, Bradshaw, Howes, Nelson and Oneschuk netted singles.

Blaine McDonald scored three for the Tigers. George Masters and Jack Gair each got a pair and Tommy Love, Alec Doyle, Merv McKenzie and Barney Welsh got one apiece.

Lots of Zip

The fast-breaking Thistles roared into their battle with so much zip that they held Toronto scoreless until late in the second quarter while they scored 10 goals themselves.

Frank Chambers sunk four in the Toronto net while John Lumley and Elmer Harris added three each for Fergus.

Frank King and Jim McNulty led the Yorkers' scoring with two apiece. Jack Kapasky scored the other Toronto marker.

Final regular league individual scoring:

Gray, Butler Tied For Cobourg Lead

COBOURG, Aug. 21.—Bob Gray of Scarboro and Hal Butler of Oshawa tied for first place in the pro-amateur competition of the Ontario branch of the CPGA at the local club Sunday. They carded two-under-par 70's, while their nearest rivals, Willie Lamb of Lambton, Bob Lamb of Summit, and the home pro, Lionel Ross, had 72's. Tom Williams of Toronto and Alf Hill of Peterborough had 73, while the Chinery brothers, Bill of Burlington and Clair of Chedoke, had 74's.

Bill Maize Jr. and Bill Bowen Jr. were tops among the club members with 77's.

The day was the best of the series of annual pro-members at the Cobourg club and 22 professionals competed.

Legionnaires Get Double Triumph

COBOURG, Aug. 21.—Cobourg Legionnaires, trying to clinch second spot in the Lakeshore League B have won three of their last four games.

Two youthful lefthanders hurled latest wins for the 1950 league champions.

Bryan Hart, just out of juvenile ranks, pitched Cobourg to a 3-2 win over Whitby. Hart fanned five, walked one and allowed seven hits.

Bowmanville, currently tied for the league leadership, were tamed by juvenile Stu Lingard in the second weekend game, 14-10 Lingard, a converted first baseman, fanned eight, walked three and gave up 10 hits. He also led his team at bat, getting three for four.

McIntosh, Negro import who failed to stick with Oshawa Transporters, started for the losers but was driven to cover in the fifth, Cecil Hall finishing up.

Syracuse Nips Giants 7-3, Leafs Victors

By The Associated Press.

Syracuse Chiefs and Buffalo Bisons are staging their own private battle for possession of third place in the International League.

Since Montreal Royals are firmly entrenched in first place and Rochester Red Wings are comfortably perched in second, interest currently is centred on the fight between the Chiefs and Bisons.

Syracuse registered a 7-3 victory over Ottawa Giants Monday night to move into third place by one percentage point. Buffalo, in dropping six out of its last eight games, bowed to the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-4 and fell to fourth place. It marked the first time that the Bisons have been as low as fourth since June 8.

Four-run Outburst

Art Hartley garnered his 11th victory for the resurgent Chiefs, who clinched the verdict with a four-run outburst in the eighth inning. Hartley also drove in two runs with a single and a squeeze bunt.

A three-run rally in the seventh frame provided Toronto with its winning margin. Veteran Russ Bauers went the route to gain credit for the victory. Les Fleming homered for the Leafs and Hank Biasatti slammed a round-tripper for Buffalo.

The last-place Springfield Cubs nipped the league-leading Montreal Royals 2-1 in 11 innings. The Cubs tallied their winning marker after two were out on a double by Carmen Mauro and a single by Johnny Liptak. Tony Jacobs, who relieved starter Bill Padget, was the winning pitcher.

Rochester and Baltimore were not scheduled.

Minister Tells Rotary Club Of Newfoundland

More than 100 members and visitors were on hand at the Monday noon luncheon of the Rotary Club to hear the Rev. Herbert L. Yarr, B.A., B.D., deliver a talk on Newfoundland and its people.

Mr. Yarr has spent considerable time in Canada's 10th province, as a parish minister. The capital city of St. Johns boasts a strong Rotary Club, and all luncheon addresses of the club are broadcast over the St. John's network of the CBC.

Among the achievements of the club aside from playgrounds and other recreation facilities, it has erected for the children, is the Jubilee Guild. This is a ladies organization working with the Rotary Club for the relief of conditions among the poorer families of the province. During the early 1930's almost 50 per cent of the population of the country was on what was called the "dole." This relief amounted to about six cents per days, and the government made everyone undergo a means test when applying for it.

Back On Feet

New industries coming into the country have helped to put the people back on their feet. The new pulp and paper industries now employ more than 12,000 men.

Findings of lead, zinc and copper deposits have helped establish a mining industry, and the country, under Premier Joseph Smallwood, is becoming less and less dependent on the fisheries, which hitherto was its sole means of support. Cod is the main fish taken, and is more important to the industry than the salmon found in many of the rivers.

Another beneficial result of confederation is the old age pension. Newfoundland previously had no old age pension to speak of. There was an allowance of some $40 per year, but this was very difficult to obtain. Family allowance cheques have also helped greatly, and these are now used as a "lever" to enforce school attendance.

At First Reluctant

At first, Newfoundlanders were reluctant to accept confederation with Canada. The people were proud of the fact that their country was Britain's oldest colony and the first country to be established in the Empire.

The Canadian government too, did not want to take over all the liabilities of the country. The independent attitude of the people soon gave way when they learned of the advantages that would be theirs under confederation.

"Confederation with Canada was sure to come sooner or later," said Mr. Yarr, due to the similar customs of the people, and the proximity to Canada. The last war had a lot to do with bringing about final amalgamation.

The speaker was thanked by F. B. Smitham.

Next Monday, the entire Rotary program will be under the direction of a number of American visitors, and it is expected a great many visitors will be on hand.

Exhumation Ordered For Wallace's Body

DRESDAN, Ont., Aug. 21 — (CP).—An exhumation has been ordered for the body of 37-year-old Grant Wallace, which was found in the Sydenham River on Friday, Kent Crown Attorney A. D. Bell said Monday.

The fact that the body was found floating in a vertical position led investigators to believe that Wallace was dead before he hit the water. The body will be exhumed so that police can determine the cause of death.

GODERICH, Aug. 21 (CP) — Darkness Monday night interrupted an intensive air and sea search for the bodies of two men believed to have drowned earlier in the day, 100 yards offshore at the Lake Huron bathing beach here.

Police said the missing men are Keith Gardner, 44, Colborne township farmer, and Kenneth Hazlitt, 36-year-old Goderich garage employee. Both are married men with families.

They are believed to have drowned after their eight-foot dory overturned.

His wife, formerly Minnie Rupnow, predeceased him a number of years ago.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. James Robbins and Mrs. Chas. Hall, and one brother, Wesley Hall, all of Dungannon.

Authorize Ships

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP) —The House of Representatives Monday passed and sent to the Senate a Bill to authorize Canadian ships to carry grain between United States ports on the Great Lakes until December 31. The Merchant Marine Act prohibits operation of foreign-flag vessels in American domestic trade. This ban would be set aside for Canadian grain carriers until the end of this year.

Jane Russell To Ignore New Hemline

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 21 (AP). —Servicemen, you have a friend. Her name is Jane Russell. Some friend, huh?

It seems that the sentiment of most red-blooded men, particularly those to whom the availability of feminine charms is limited, is dead set against lowering the female hemline. Lieut. Tom Hamrick, late of Charleston, SC, but now residing near the 38th Parallel, so informed AP columnist Hal Boyle.

The lieutenant assailed the dictate of French designer Christian Dior, who has sent the skirts of his new dresses lower than the value of a nickel.

When I informed the ample Miss Russell of the Dior dive, she replied:

"Horrors."

She thought the thing over and again commented:

"Horrors."

When she recovered from the shock, I asked her if she would follow the Dior decision.

No Alterations

"Absolutely not," she replied. "Down again, up again, down again. I'm through altering my dresses. They are going to stay just the way they are now. I'm not going to change them for anybody."

While rehearsing a dance number, she described her costume: "It's cut 'way up to here (pointing). It's going to look as though I'm all legs, because my legs usually look as though they extend up to my neck, anyway."

Talk of The Town.

The "burial" of US movie theatres as forecast by a national magazine....The general upturn in film business despite such pessimistic reports....Shelley Winters deglamorizing in "A Place in the Sun"....That film's Oscar chances, considered by most observers the best of the movies seen so far this year....The kiss and-make-up attitude between Mario Lanza and MGM.....MGM's pick-up of Ezio Pinza's option, although his first two films are far from hits.

REJECTS RED MASTERS — Latest of a number of Polish diplomats in Canada to seek political refuge is Zygmunt Ziemski, 59-year-old Polish consul. He said the recent purge of army officials in Communist-dominated Poland was the final factor in his decision.

FISH-WAY—Fish ladder installed on the Oak River in western Manitoba is inspected by designer Frank Ward, Manitoba manager of Ducks Unlimited. Two such ladders have been erected on the river to aid upstream travel of mullet and jackfish. Preliminary surveys have indicated sharp fish population increase above the ladders. The fish conservation scheme is tied in with Ducks Unlimited waterfowl projects on the river.

Girl, 11, Dies Under Buck Rake

LINDSAY, Aug. 21.—Crushed by a buck rake on her father's farm at Vallentyne Corners, 11-year-old Elizabeth Miller died in Lindsay hospital Sunday.

The girl's father, Lorne Miller was using the buck rake during stock-threshing operations Saturday when he felt a bump. He stopped the machine to investigate the cause and saw the crushed and mangled body of his daughter. He does not know how the girl came in contact with the machine.

The girl was rushed to Lindsay hospital by her father. Blood transfusions and treatment did not save her life and she died about 11 a.m. Sunday.

The victim is survived by her parents, and four brothers and sisters. She was the second oldest of the family of five.

Kawartha Tourist Flow Easing Off

Peterborough's and the Kawarthas' tourist season is gradually slowing down according to Junior Chamber of Commerce officials.

The chamber is basing its opinion on the number of calls made at their Charlotte St. booth and also contacts they have with tourist resort operators in the district.

Last week 570 people called at the booth making 235 inquiries.

Sunday and Monday's totals were 112 people with 34 inquiries.

DRAGGING FOR THE BODY of seven-year-old Jimmy Niles of Cobourg, who drowned Monday, started late Monday afternoon and continued into the evening with the aid of underwater lights. The search was futile, and diving equipment from Peterborough was borrowed for today's operations. Above, is acting police chief H. Pearse of Cobourg dragging for the boy's body.—(Murray Smith Photo)

Cobourg Lad Slips Off Pier Drowns In 20 Feet Of Water

COBOURG, Aug. 21. (ENS)—Seven-year-old Jimmy Niles of Cobourg slipped off the pier and drowned in Lake Ontario Monday afternoon. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Niles, who live a block north of the waterfront, the youngster had been out on the pier apparently alone.

The lad's body was recovered by a diver from Peterborough this morning. It was found wedged in a crevice between the concrete and the sunken crib work of the pier. Authorities say no inquest will be held.

Where he fell in the pier is in a bad state of repair with tilted slabs of concrete dipping into the water and slippery with green moss where the waves have been lapping against them. The water is 20 feet deep.

The little fellow was trying to hang on to the mossy cement while he cried for help. Up on shore Bobby Brown, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, heard the cries of the boy and ran out to the scene. He made a grab for his arm but was unable to get a secure grip and little Jimmy Niles sank from sight.

Told Mother

Bobby raced in and told his mother who telephoned the tragic news to the victim's parents. Cobourg fire department and police arrived with inhalator equipment; a rowboat dragging hooks and pike poles were brought to the scene.

Ed Mottershed, jail employee, dived repeatedly into the water, making his way among treacherous broken cement blocks and sunken cribbing but couldn't locate the body.

Due to the fact that much of the pier had collapsed in the water, it was impossible to drag effectively, although it was carried on under difficult conditions all afternoon and with the aid of sealed beam lights under water for several hours last night.

Mayor Jack Burnet announced last night that he had made arrangements with the lockmaster at Peterborough to use their diving equipment the next day.

THIS BOY'S ATTEMPT to rescue Jimmy Niles, 7, failed Monday. Bobby Brown, 8, tried to reach the Niles boy's outstretched hand but was unable to get a secure grip. Jimmy drowned in 20 feet of water after slipping from the concrete pier on Cobourg's lakefront.—(Murray Smith Photo.)

Carriage Worker Dies At Lindsay

Ambrose Winfield Eck, 88, believed to be one of the last carriage craftsmen, died Monday at his home in Lindsay.

Born in Oakwood, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Eck, he first worked with his father in the family harness shop in Little Britain. Later he was employed with the carriage works of the late Dougall Sinclair. In a few years he established the Eck Brothers business with his brother, which specialized in carriage upholstery work.

He was predeceased by his wife the former Mary Ann Culbert.

Burial will be in Little Britain Christian cemetery.

Prudence

The north wind shall blow and we will have snow, and cold weather and what goes with it—but not for a few months. But, and this is apparently the belief of one Ashburnham resident, you can't be too careful. Last weekend, he put on his storm windows. His prudence probably falls in the same class as that belonging to a flock of 30 Canada geese seen last week with their necks stretched southward.

This group of workmen, mud-stained and moist, are hoisting one of the larger poles into position.—(W. W. Reid Photo)

Lad's Legs Mangled By Grader

Toronto Boy Falls While Playing; Condition Said Fair

Thirteen-year-old Albert Miller, son of Irwin Miller, 639 Euclid Ave., Toronto, had his legs badly mangled Monday in Pontypool after a fall from a moving road grader.

The boy, who was visiting in the Pontypool district, was playing on the back of a road grader, police said. He fell from the moving grader and his legs caught under the machinery.

After treatment by a Pontypool doctor, Miller was rushed to the Peterborough Civic Hospital by ambulance, an hour and 20 minutes after the accident.

Today the hospital authorities described the boy's condition as "fair."

District Villages Up In Census

Campbellford, Bancroft, Bobcaygeon and Havelock have all had increases in population in the past 10 years.

This information came to light in the preliminary totals of the 1951 census released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Campbellford has increased by 185 from 3,108 in 1941 to 3,203 in 1951. Bancroft has gone up from 1,094 to 1,315; Bobcaygeon from 1,002 to 1,166 and Havelock from 1,113 to 1,123.

The released figures are not final and only a smattering of the cities, towns and incorporated villages in Canada are mentioned.

Timmins Down

Not all municipalities have been as fortunate as the four already mentioned. Timmins had a drop of 1,407—from 28,790 to 27,383 in the last 10 years. Ojibway has lost five of its inhabitants, dropping from 24 to 19. This municipality is amazingly classed as a town, as is Timmins.

Merritt, British Columbia, has increased from 940 to 1,245 and is classed as a city. It is, be it noted, smaller than the village of Bancroft.

The release also carries the reminder that "it is the duty of anyone who has reason to believe that he or she has been omitted from the census to notify the Dominion Bureau of Statistics immediately and an investigation will be made."

Province Yields Harness Horses For Exhibition Races

Harness horses from east, north south and west, have been entered in the Peterborough Exhibition races which have a total in purses of $3,200.

Race officials said that on the whole, when compared with last year, all the races are "pretty well filled." The slower classes of the trot and pace such as the 2:30, the 2:28 and the 2:27 are filled while the faster events such as the 2:15 and the free-for-all are filling quickly. By race time Wednesday all the races are expected to be filled.

Again this year as at previous exhibitions on Saturday night free-for-all will be the featured event.

Danny Direct, which has the enviable record of 1:59, owned by Alex Parsons of London is entered in the finale of the four-day racing meet. Its life record nine seconds faster than the track record, Danny Direct is still eligible for the 2:12 pace.

Victory Hi Entered

Also in the free-for-all is the home favorite in practically all races, Stan Blewett's Victory Hi, the blind horse which last year was world champion heat winner. H. Ingles of Brighton has entered Peter Aubrey, C. Hodgson of Haliburton his Silk Grattan, and W. Fowler of Apsley his Peck Abbe.

Silk Grattan, Peter Aubrey, Victory Hi are all entered in Wednesday night's fast 2:15 pace. Others included are Miss Lee Todd, owned by M. Wray of Schomberg and Chatanooga Grattan by Ingles.

Friday night's 2:17 will see Chatanooga Grattan, Jimmie Brewer (owned by F. Conlin of Oshawa), Parsons (owned by Andy Price, Peterborough) and Miss Lee Todd.

Other horses are entered from Cobourg, Port Hope, Oshawa, Brighton, Arnsprior, Port Perry, Apsley, Bloomfield, Schomberg, Beaverton, Haliburton, London and Westport.

Races for the four days are:

Wednesday (afternoon), 2.30 trot and pace, $200; (night) 2:15, $300; 2:26, $250.

Thursday (afternoon): 2:21, $250; (night), 2:24, $250; 2:18, $300.

To Fight Or Work Problem Of Saarbruecken Leaders

SAARBRUECKEN, Aug. 21—(AP)—The Saar is one west European area only 200 miles from the Iron Curtain with no army, no plan for an army and as yet no part in western defence.

Supported by Britain and the United States, France has detached the rich Saar coal basin from Germany and set it up as a partly independent country. Under its constitution foreign affairs and defence are in the hands of France.

Prime Minister Johannes Hoffman expects that sooner or later France will ask this country of nearly 1,000,000 for a contribution to rearmament.

"Of course, with all Europe mobilizing for defence," he said in an interview, "we can't hope to remain an exception."

Not Come Up

Saarlanders who follow world affairs know that their next-door neighbors, the Luxembourgers are already raising a division from a population only one-third as great as theirs. But so far the military question has not come up in the Saar.

Chief of Police Guy Lackman, a major in the French army of the Second World War, thinks his country could raise about 35,000 men.

Many observers, however, feel the Saar's coal mines and steel mills could make a greater contribution to western defence than its potential soldiers. Prime Minister Hoffmann is one of these. He is turning over in his mind the idea that drafting labor would be more effective.

Forming military units in the Saar presents a ticklish political problem. Saarlanders are Germans. Many, including several generals, served in the German army in the last war. Their training and military loyalities are German.

But the Saar government is closely tied to France. It recently dissolved a political party on the well-grounded suspicion that its leaders wanted unity with Germany.

9,000 Children In District Get Free Passes

Nine thousand children of the primary schools of the city and district have received free tickets for Peterborough Exhibition on Wednesday.

They were delivered through the co-operation and courtesy of teachers, inspectors and school boards.

Opening day has been allotted to the children, and if they all manage to attend, many of them accompanied by their parents, the Exhibition directors will be happy in an accomplishment of open house to the youngsters that involved a great deal of detail work.

The children present their tickets at the gates. Admission to the grandstand is 15 cents, and all rides in the midway are 10 cents.

Clare G. Collins, chairman of the publicity committee, is hoping that the boys and girls of Grades 7 and 8 will respond to the essay contest on the general subject of their impressions of the Exhibition. The prizes are: $25, $15, and $10.

The afternoon program for Wednesday presents the vaudeville entertainment at the grandstand, one horse race, and the display of model airplanes.

The official opening of the exhibition by Hon. Wm. A. Goodfellow, Ontario's Minister of Welfare, is scheduled for 8 p.m. There is also a parade of livestock, the vaudeville features, and two races: 2.15 trot or pace for $300 and 2.26 trot or pace for $250.

There are three heats to each of these races. For the information of the public the week's card calls for one afternoon race of three heats, and the night show, two races, each of three heats, each day.

HIGHWAY OF DEATH — This is the wreckage after a beer truck crashed into a Greyhound bus, near Alpena, Mich. Ten persons, including both drivers, were killed and 22 were injured.

High Wire Team To Thrill City 'Ex' Crowd

The sensational Kays, a man and wife team who do high wire acts, is one of the features that will thrill grandstand crowds at the Exhibition this week.

The two high wire artists are Fritz and Betty Huber, who hail from Houston, Texas. They use no net or safety device, and have played indoor and outdoor shows and fairs all across the United States and Canada.

Fritz has been at the game about 31 years, while his wife Betty was literally born into the act. Betty's father, who is 64, is still thrilling crowds in the US with his high wire act. Betty's mother, who died a few years ago won fame as "Tyana," the world's strongest woman. She worked for Billy Rose in the Diamond Horseshoe, in "Jumbo," and several other productions. Her grandparents own and manage the Brumback Circus in Germany.

Fritz is a native of Switzerland, and came to the US at the age of 22. Fritz and Betty worked with each other for 16 years at the same show, and finally married because says Betty "Marriage has a steadying effect on your nerves." "When we are in the act together, we know that if anything happens, it will happen to both of us, but I couldn't bear to stand on the ground night after night and watch Fritz up there on the wire."

Still Use Name

The name "Kays" is still used in billing because this was the way the pair were billed before they were married, and after establishing the name and reputation, they thought it better to keep the original.

THE KAYS

Fritz' partner fell from the high wire on November 1, 1949, breaking a leg wihch put him out of the act. Fritz fell at the same spot on Nov. 1, 1950, exactly a year to the day after his partner, breaking the end of his spine. This accident stopped the act for seven months, while Fritz was confined to his bed.

The Hubers have two small children, who don't seem to mind the dangerous business their parents are in at all. At least, Bobby doesn't seem to mind at all. He usually sleeps through the entire act, but maybe that is because he is just four months old.

Urges Lower Keys For Church Hymns

WELLINGTON, NZ—(CP)—Church singing is being "ruined by the absurd heights at which hymn tunes are set," in the opinion of Bishop R. H. Owen of Wellington.

"There would be a great improvement if the edition of ancient and modern hymns with tunes transposed to a lower key were more widely used by our organists," he said.

Bishop Owen said the throats of men were not made to produce sounds that could even approximate the heights laid down as necessary in the ordinary edition. Even women often found it a severe strain.

The tunes were written in the keys set because it was assumed that the singing would be done for congregation by a trained choir of boys, the Bishop said. Many were quite unsuitable for congregational singing.

Lift Price Ceilings

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Price ceilings were removed from antique automobiles Monday. The Office of Price Stabilization said it applies to all cars more than 25 years old. Such vehicles are not to be confused with ordinary jalopies of less hoary vintages. OPS said that when a car passes its 25th birthday, it enters the antique class, and usually has a value far higher than younger used cars.

Railways Offers 2 Plans For Rates

OTTAWA, Aug. 21—(CP)—The two transcontinental railways Monday filed with the board of transport commissioners a voluminous study on freight rate equalization across Canada.

The study was made by the railways on instructions from the board as part of its general freight rate inquiry. This investigation, aimed at general rate equalization, has been in progress more than three years. Public hearings in it are due to start Sept. 10.

In their long document, the railways outlined two alternate plans of rate equalization to be put into effect. However, they indicated they do not subscribe to either plan, but are submitting them only for consideration by the board.

The first was a rate revision scheme based on recommendations of the Royal commission on transportation and legislation introduced in parliament this summer, which would equalize rates right across the country, apart from certain specific exceptions.

The second was a modification of that plan, to preserve certain existing rate relationships on traffic moving between the eastern and western regions of Canada.

"The railways are of opinion that the second alternative will cause less disturbance to the rate relationships of competing shipper," they said.

In their study, the railways emphasized that neither of the outlined plans could be anything more than the basis for a new rate structure. Other rates would have to be changed to conform to the pattern of whatever new setup was decided on for the basic class rates. That would take at least six months.

The railways warned, too, of a possible threat to revenues of the Canadian Pacific Railway from an equalization plan which reduced rate levels in the west and increased them in the east.

It noted that two-thirds of the CPR's revenues on class-rate traffic are earned in the west, while the proportion is approximately reversed for the Canadian National Railways.

"The level of any equalized scale of rates," the railways said, "must be designed to continue with as little change as possible the (CPR's) existing revenue position. . . If the level fails to do so. . . the result may be to require a readjustment of the level in a further revenue (rate increase) case."

Modern Biblical Places Are Quiet

SODOM AND GOMORRAH, Ont. (CP)—That isn't the official name for these two Halton County hamlets, but it's the one residents have used for years and years.

The correct name for Sodom is Haltonville. Gomorrah—a mile and a half distant—should actually be called Moffatt.

Sodom and Gomorrah in the Bible are two ancient cities of sin. Because Lot was the only righteous man living in them, the Lord told him to flee and then destroyed them with fire from heaven.

However, the people of the modern Sodom and Gomorrah are in no danger of a dose of brimstone.

A committee recently compiled a history of the township when it celebrated its centennial. All they could find sinful about Sodom was an old observation that "several parties pretended to keep temperance houses (hotels) and sold whisky until things got too hot for them. Then they dug out."

Name Stuck

Linas MacMillan, township clerk, says somebody started calling Sodom by that name for a joke and the name has stuck ever since.

"This place is and always has been called Sodom," he says. "The residents call it by the bigger name (Haltonville) but it don't stick worth a straw."

It was the people of Sodom who first gave the name of Gomorrah to Moffit. Few of the Moffatt people knew about the Gomorrah name now, but in the old days the population took the joke in good part and helped carry it along.

An estimated more than 10,000 allied troops are believed prisoners of war. Red China's Peiping radio has been boasting of nearly 500,000 allied prisoners taken in the 13-month-old Korean war.

Here's why a further quarter of a billion dollars is being invested by Aluminum Company of Canada in

"OPERATION ALUMINUM"

Kitimat

Peribonka

Isle Maligne

Beauharnois

Aluminum is being put to so many uses these days that Canada's aluminum industry, begun at Shawinigan Falls in 1900, and already grown to giant size, is embarked on another vast expansion program.

More dams, powerhouses, smelting facilities in Quebec . . . a whole new operation in British Columbia . . . these great forward strides will further step up Canada's aluminum capacity to a total of more than half a million tons a year.

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Project as planned calls for expenditure in the first stage of $200 million; the final stage when completed will increase this to $550 million. First stage to be completed 1954.

KITIMAT SMELTER
Capacity one billion pounds of aluminum a year.

Lake, above Nechako River Dam, 500 square miles in area.

Kemano powerhouse, to be built ¼ mile inside mountain. Eventual capacity 2,000,000 h.p.

Today the names "Peribonka" and "Kitimat" mean nothing to most Canadians. Right now they head blueprints — blueprints of work in the planning stage, of work in progress with thousands of men already on the job.

"Shawinigan", "Shipshaw" and "Arvida" were new names, too, many years ago. Today they are living reminders to Canadians — and to the world — that Alcan has grown, developing this country's resources so that now it produces a quarter of the world's aluminum supply.

On the Peribonka River in Quebec, Alcan is harnessing two cataracts — Chute-du-Diable and Chute-à-la-Savanne. These will provide hydro-electric power for a big addition to aluminum output and additional power resources for the Saguenay District.

Meanwhile, up coast 400 miles from Vancouver, a whole new aluminum operation is planned. Where now stands the tiny Indian village of Kitimat, a whole new town will be built; here Alcan will construct a huge smelter. At Kemano, 50 miles away, Alcan will build a powerhouse inside a mountain; a ten-mile tunnel through this mountain will carry water from a chain of lakes down a 2,600 foot drop to develop an eventual 2,000,000 h.p. capacity.

This "Operation Aluminum" means jobs for thousands of Canadians. It means additional millions of dollars coming into this country from abroad, for much of this aluminum will be exported.

It means additional low-cost aluminum for Canada's own use — metal which a thousand plants throughout the country use to fashion everything from utensils and toys to airplanes and bridges.

"Operation Aluminum" is a big thing for Canadians and for the free democratic world. It means a further line of defence against aggression. And it means a busier, more prosperous country in which to live and work.

50 YEARS AGO
the company's first smelter opened at Shawinigan Falls, and produced 130 tons of aluminum that year. The metal was just starting to make a market for itself.

TODAY
Alcan has 4 smelters—at Arvida, Isle Maligne, Beauharnois and Shawinigan Falls—with a capacity of nearly 500,000 tons. And this light, strong, non-rusting metal has found an almost limitless range of useful jobs to do.

Says Crime Rate Low For Women

MONTREAL (CP.—There is a surprisinly low crime rate among Montreal women and girls, says Police Director J. Albert Langlois.

Women are occasionally picked up for various types of offences from driving without a licence to theft with violence. Langlois said more women were arrested for "loitering while drunk" than for any other offence, but in the recorded cases most frequent charges are shoplifting, vagrancy, disturbance of the peace and gambling and prostitution.

The police head said women are good drivers, but many are arrested for driving without a permit. Few women are charged with more serious traffic offences, such as dangerous driving or leaving the scene of an accident.

Linton-Boswell

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon in Trinity United Church, Cobourg, of June Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Boswell, Chapel Street, Cobourg, and Earl Alexander Linton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Linton, Plainville.

The church was decorated with baskets of pastel-shaded gladioli, and the Rev. E. C. Kelloway conducted the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net over white satin, with bodice and jacket of white chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil had a headdress of lily of the valley, and she carried a cascade of red roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Genevieve Boswell as maid of honor and Misses Bernice Linton, sister of the groom, and Kathleen Kimpton as bridesmaids. They wore two-tone combinations of orchid, green and yellow nylon marquisette with matching capes and hats, and carried colonial bouquets of mixed sweet peas.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Clair Harper of Fenella. Ushers were Warren Buttars, Bewdley, and Keith Burley, of Newton.

Mr. William Wickett was at the console of the organ and the soloist was Miss Ruth Hircock of Cobourg. She sang "Perfect Love" and "Because."

A reception was held at Tangmere House, Cobourg. The bride's mother received the guests, dressed in turquoise crepe with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who had chosen silver grey with black accessories and wore a corsage of pastel snapdragons.

For travelling, the bride donned a pink gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of white gladioli.

On their return from a honeymoon to Northern Ontario, the couple will live at the groom's farm home near Plainville. The bride will resume her duties as teacher at the Gore's Landing-Plainville School in September, where she has taught the past two years.

McGill Clan Holds First Reunion At Hampton

The first reunion of the McGill Clan, a pioneer family of Manvers township, was held in the ball park at Hampton, Ont., Saturday. Approximately 40 descendants and relatives of the late Joseph McGill and his wife, Eliza Pritchard, were present at the picnic where tables, dishes, cutlery and tea were provided by members of the Hampton Women's Institute.

After a bountiful pot-luck supper, a brief business meeting resulted in the unanimous decision to make the gathering an annual one. Mr. Roy McGill, of Enniskillen, was appointed chairman and also president for the ensuing year, with Mrs. James Turnbull, of Peterborough, as secretary-treasurer, and a sports committee consisting of Miss Esther Might, of Peterborough, and Mr. Gordon Might, of Millbrook, completing the 1952 executives.

A tentative date in early July was suggested for next year's reunion, with the place and details of arrangements left to the committee in charge.

To Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGill, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McGill, all of Enniskillen district, goes the credit for instigating the reunion idea and planning for the original meeting. Miss Marie Ashton, of Toronto, looked after the sports program and prizes.

The oldest person present was Mrs. H. H. Ryley, of Bethany; the youngest, Miss Nancy Might, of Millbrook; while those travelling farthest to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGill and family, of West Toronto.

With everyone present agreeing that it was a most popular occasion, it is hoped this was but the nucleus of a much larger celebration next year, when it probably will be held in the Peterborough district.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD V. KERR, the bride formerly Viola Marenger.—(Duke Studio Photo)

Kerr-Marenger Wedding

The altar of St. John's Anglican Church was banked with white and pink gladioli as setting for the wedding Saturday afternoon of Viola Theresa Merenger and Mr. Gerald Vincent Kerr. Ven. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson performed the ceremony and organist Mr. F. G. Mann played the wedding music.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Marenger, of Espanola, who were unable to attend the wedding. She was escorted to the altar by Mr. Clement Galvin. The groom is son of Mrs. S. J. Kerr, of Peterborough.

Chantilly lace was used to fashion the bride's gown with cathedral train. It had a beaded nylon yoke and was made with long pointed sleeves and a bustle effect skirt with peplum. A tiara of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of french net trimmed with lace and her bouquet was a cascade of assorted color carnations centred with a white gardenia.

Miss Leona Marenger was maid of honor for her sister and Mrs. Oliver Braley was bridesmaid. They were in identically made frocks of yellow and pastel green marquisette and wore picture hats trimmed with lace. Each carried a shower bouquet of carnations.

Mr. Fernand Proulx was groomsman and ushers were Oliver Braley and Fergus O'Brien.

The reception following was in the Empress Hotel Kawartha Room with the bride's sister receiving, attired in a gold gabardine suit with white accessories and wearing a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a dress of beige silk with navy accessories and a corsage of white 'mums.

Leaving later on a trip to various points in Northern Ontario, the bride was wearing a toast colored suit with yellow snakeskin bag and shoes and accessories in cocoa shade.

Teacher Does Many Chores For Indians

TORONTO—(CP)—Even while she was recovering in a Toronto hospital from effects of overwork, Mrs. Ida Cross planned to study 18 hours a day to become a teacher.

The 44-year-old woman's desire to become a teacher was so great that she crammed four years of high school into 12 months of study, won her matriculation and then went on to normal school.

Then Mrs. Cross, a former sergeant in the Canadian Women's Army Corps, wasn't satisfied with the prospect of teaching in towns where electric lights and modern plumbing are taken for granted. She accepted a position as tutor for 22 Ojibway Indian pupils in a Roman Catholic school at Gull Bay, in northwestern Ontario.

Gull Bay is pretty isolated, 65 miles by boat from McDiarmid and 35 miles by air from Armstrong. There is a Hudson's Bay company factor, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Cross and an Indian population of 300.

Besides being a teacher, she has become the unofficial village nurse, sanitary advisor and recreational director. She has also become the good friend of the Ojibway Indians.

Both Mrs. Cross' two sons are dead. One was killed by a bomb 20 minutes before the cease-fire sounded in Europe. It was partly to compensate for this loss that she undertook her lonesome and rugged life.

Two things contributed much to the acceptance of Mrs. Cross by the Ojibways. One was a Christmas pageant, complete with angels and mosquito-netting wings. The other was her work among the Indians as a practical nurse during a severe flu epidemic last Easter.

All Gull Bay belongs to Mrs. Cross since the epidemic. She said here she is looking for recreational interests for the Indians and would particularly like to get a gasoline-powered movie projector. She is sure they would like that.

MadocRectorWeds Agnes M. Stout Of Gananoque

A wedding of interest took place in Christ Church, Gananoque, Saturday, of Agnes Meribeth Stout, daughter of Archdeacon and Mrs. N. R. Stout, Gananoque, and niece of Miss Agnes Stout of Peterborough, to the Rev. Thomas Harvey Good, rector of Madoc Anglican Church.

The ceremony took place at 10:30 in the morning with Archdeacon Stout, father of the bride, officiating. Rev. Canon J. B. Creegan, rector of Christ Church, Belleville, was celebrant at the Eucharist following the marriage.

The choir sang the chant in the service and during the signing of the register sang the hymn "O Perfect Love." Miss Ila Carr was organist.

Given in marriage by her brother M[illegible]arth R. Stout, the bride wore [illegible]n of white tissue faille with si[illegible]es and yoke of lace, and wore her mother's wedding veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and fleur d'amour.

Miss Esther Meikiejohn of Campbellford was maid of honor and wore yellow tissue faille; Mary Ellen Keene, cousin of the bride, was flower girl in green tissue faille.

Dr. George Mullen of Madoc was groomsman and ushers were Robert and Gerald Good, both of Kingston, cousins of the groom.

The reception was in the parish hall, the bride's mother receiving, gowned in flecked grey silk with navy accessories. Miss Agnes Stout received for the groom and wore printed grey silk with black accessories.

Among the telegrams and congratulations received were ones from the groom's sister in New Zealand and from his brothers in Ireland. He is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Good of Cork, Ireland.

The bride's travelling ensemble was a navy dress with navy and white accessories.

They will live at the rectory in Madoc.

English Statue Of Nude Maiden Stirs Argument

WELWYN, Hertfordshire, England—(CP)—The 500-pound statue of a buxom nude christened "Dawn" has emerged into the limelight of controversy after reposing in the darkness for two years.

The statue by the 57-year-old sculptor David Evans represents a young girl stretching her arms above her head, her eyes drowsy with sleep. A group of local art lovers in 1949 purchased it for £150 and presented it to the district council for public show.

But so far it has never been exposed to the public's gaze.

Henry Willard, deputy clerk of the council, said there was a great danger it might be disfigured by high-spirited youths if put outdoors. So it was moved to the darkest corner of the council chamber.

Then Councillor G. Dickson protested that the statute was very much out of place there. It was fit only for a garden pool, he contended, but if left in the chamber it should be turned towards the wall.

It Had To Go

The council finally agreed that "Dawn" must go and appointed a special committee to find her a permanent home.

Meanwhile, sculptor Evans is none too pleased about the rumpus.

"I wish the town had never bought the statue," he said. "Some people might call it indecent but I think it is a very beautiful thing. It was modelled from my imagination."

The action of the council members made it clear they didn't like it, he said. "I can only object' however, that their shillyshally over where to put it is bringing my work into ridicule."

BBC Television Has Shows For Children

LONDON (CP).—Apart from its dramatic and musical programs, children's shows are considered mainly responsible for a tremendous growth in television audiences of the British Broadcasting Corporation.

Daily TV programs include such favorites as the puppet show "Muffin the Mule" and demonstrations such as "How the Chocolate Gets Around the Ice Cream."

The main purpose of the children's shows however is not to make their mouths water or to stuff information down their throats. Program directors try to stimulate the imagination and initiative of the youngsters.

Many children join the grown-ups in watching the popular ballet programs and full-length productions of the classics, while well-known personalities frequently discuss topics of the day.

Television in Britain has made great strides since she opened the world's first regular service 15 years ago. At present the BBC television covers an area with 18,000,000 population, and a new transmitter at Holme Moss near Manchester will raise this total to 30,000,000.

Typical Program

Shows in a typical day's program start off at 10 a.m. with a brief demonstration film showing the range of television activities. On one recent program this was followed by direct transmission from the test cricket match at Nottingham, then a demonstration and discussion with film star Valerie Hobson on fashions in holiday clothes.

The television screen then brought various film shorts, musical interviews and a full-length play, the latter being the highlight of the day's activities. A newsreel produced by the NBC film unit winds up the day's transmissions at 10 p.m.

British Doctors Deny Using Inhuman Tests

LONDON, Aug. — (CP) — A blunt suggestion in the British Medical Journal "Practitioner" that doctors are using human patients as "guinea pigs" in scientific experiments has provoked widespread indignation among the profession.

The article in the journal's current issue deals with forms of human vivisection and other horror practices in Nazi concentration camps in the last war. Then it declares:

"We should take a lesson from this and give careful thought to the extent to which we are tending to abuse the trust our patients put in us. Without such trust we and our patients are lost. And its loss will never be compensated by that increased knowledge that might arise from human vivisection."

The article mentions one method of investigation called cardiac catheterisation, an operation involving the passing of a fine tube through the bloodstream to the heart.

How far, it asks, are doctors justified in submitting patients to experimental procedure which may not be without risk to life?

Patient's Rights.

"The suggestion appears to be that the search for knowledge takes priority over the welfare of the individual patient," the journal adds. "Knowledge can be bought too dearly. Once the sanctity of the patients right to questioned there is no telling how rapidly the standards of practice will fall."

Doctors explained that the ethics of the profession frowned on public discussion of such matters. But they denied emphatically that experimental vivisection was practiced by them on patients to advance their medical knowledge.

"There is absolutely no truth in the suggestion that human beings are being used as laboratory animals," said a council member of the British Medical Association.

DOROTHY DIX

Children Can Be Nuisance In Visiting Their Parents

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Why is it that when children are grown and married they consider themselves guests to come unannounced at least once a week to sit at father's table and enjoy mother's cooking? Though they complain of the high cost of living they never bring any food with them. Mother would enjoy them much more if they wouldn't come quite so often, but how can it be put to them without hurting someone's feelings? I am very happy that they enjoy coming home but I also believe it can be overdone especially when mother still has several at home to feed.

Dorothy Dix

CARRIE

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Your children are paying you the highest compliment in their power. The usual complaint about married children is that they don't come home often enough! Yours still have the same feeling for home that they had before marriage. They like to come back to mother and dad; they still think mom's cooking is best. Old home ties are so strong the youngsters even forget to call and announce an impending visit!

Ask For Warning

You should ask for at least a little warning, especially if your children are coming for a meal. With all the shortages confronting us today, it is easy to explain that mealtime is not a haphazard affair but the result of careful planning, and unexpected guests may not always be adequately fed. Better still, establish a regular visiting day for your young married folk, then all your planning can be aimed at one meal. Such solutions may ease the tension on your pocketbok and nerves, but you must consider carefully whether they will offset the loss of family spirit that will come from curbing your children's impulsive calls.

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a college freshman of 18 and find I am in love with a joker. I believe he feels the same way I do but we can never get into a serious conversation. I never can tell whether he is joking or not. There are many things I would like to discuss with him, but I don't know how to approach him.

J. M. B.

ANSWER: One of the common traits of youth is to avoid a discussion of serious things by covering the situation with a joke. This apparently is your friend's attitude, and an annoying one it can be. Perhaps he is deliberately turning from serious talks with you for fear they will lead to commitments on his part. If he feels you are matrimonially inclined, for instance, a joke provides the quickest way to end any attempts on your part to carry a conversation along such lines.

Don't rush things with him. Return joke for joke, and let him make the first attempt at serious discussion.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am an 18-year-old mother of a 4-month-old baby. My husband, aged 19, has been going out with another girl for several months, and bragging about it to his boy friends, who don't think it very funny. He won't take me out at all, but goes all the time with this girl, or his boy friends. He says he's tired of being tied down, but doesn't want his freedom.

E. M.

ANSWER: The only trouble with your husband is that he hasn't grown up yet. He's far from ready for the responsibilities of parenthood and hasn't the vaguest idea how to cope with them. At an age when you, too, should be having fun with the gang, you must be mother not only to a 4-month-old son but to a 19-year-old husband.

Since his boy friends are apparently on your side, perhaps they could talk some sense into your husband. Otherwise patience is all I can recommend until he becomes adult.

Literary Content For French Plays CBC-Sponsored

TORONTO—(CP)—The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is sponsoring a new literary contest to bring more original radio programs to its French listeners.

By sponsoring the contest the CBC hopes to interest more Canadian writers in the radio markets and draw the public's attention to the creative writers of French Canada. The competition calls for original hour-long dramas in French and is open to all Canadian writers—amateur, professional or beginner.

A total of $1,750 in prize money has been set aside for the contest with $1,000 going to the first-place script. Entries submitted will be judged for their radio suitability as well as for their literary merit. They will be judged by a panel of literary figures not connected with the CBC.

Marcel Ouimet, director of the CBC's French network, who announced the contest, said he hoped it would uncover many new Canadian writers. The contest would also encourage professional writers to pay more attention to radio.

A similar contest staged by the CBC several years ago was won by Guy Defresne who has since become a regular contributor to the French network. Winning plays in the new competition will be presented on the French network in the fall. Their authors will receive a regular script fee in addition to the prize money.

Eskimo Land

A talk of Canada's "Land of Silence" is scheduled for next Tuesday on the British Broadcasting Corporation's general overseas network.

The talk, titled "Hudson's Bay Trader," was written by Lord Tweedsmuir, son of the former Governor-General of Canada. It is based of Lord Tweedsmuir's experiences among the Eskimos of Baffin Island during 1938 when he worked for the Hudson's Bay Company as a fur trader.

He found the Eskimo to be the most cheerful of all the King's subjects and quite hospitable and polite. Their year-round isolation tended to make them disbelieve the existence of any other way of life than their own.

Lord Tweedsmuir, whose full name is John Stuart Norman Buchan, was a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Canadian infantry corps during the Second World War. At one time he Commanded the Hastings and Prince Edward regiment in Sicily and Italy. He now is Rector of Aberdeen University in Scotland.

Scottish Girl Forestry Expert

EDINBURGH — (CP) — Sheila Davies, 22, has one of the most unusual jobs for women in Scotland. She is "nursemaid" to the baby trees planted by the forestry commission at Strathyre in Perthshire, and her task is to look after the neat plots of tiny fir and larch trees.

Miss Davies decided some years ago that town life was not for her, and she gave up a job in a Glasgow office to join the forestry commission to study trees and seed planting.

After a term as an observer in one of the tall fire towers in the forests she was assigned to a stretch of forest covering 10,000 acres, of which nearly half now has been planted. The part she likest best is planting young trees on the hillsides, which is done during the winter.

What's Right?

You try to make conversation with a child who is very shy.

WRONG: Ask him a lot of questions.

RIGHT: Talk along until you gain his interest and he wants to talk because he has something to add to the conversation.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Last Course On The Menu Often Given First Attention

Plenty of you people are push-overs for the dessert course too. Your letters reveal it to me. I'm gently spoofed by my family for always planning the dessert course first when a guest meal is coming up.

I do not defend my position for when the dessert is made and chilling or setting or doing whatever it has to have time to do — I can then put my whole mind on the meat course.

The two dessert beauties I am giving you for free today have my unconditioned recommendation.

A spendthrift might serve the sherbet and orange sponge cake together. I say "Spendthrift" advisedly for they would certainly be two distinct flavors neither of which needs the other. I think the Lime Mint Sherbet needs very plain cake or cookies or unfrosted angel food as an accompaniment.

Lime Mint Sherbet

Mix together in a saucepan 1 cup pineapple juice (canned), 1 cup water and 1¾ cups sugar and boil for 5 minutes. Pick mint leaves off their stems, wash them and pack into a measuring cup until you have it full. Mash these with rolling pin or potato masher and add to the syrup which is cooling by now and let stand 1 hour. Strain. Soak 1 tablespoon gelatine 5 minutes in ¼ cup water and dissolve it by standing it over steaming water until it is clear. Mix the dissolved gelatine with the syrup, add 1 cup fresh lime juice, finely grated rind 1 orange and if on hand a few drops of green vegetable coloring. Chill until it is soft, then fold in 2 stiffly beaten egg whites. Freeze. Stir twice after it has frozen to a mush. Serve in tall-stemmed glasses garnished with melon balls.

In large mixing bowl beat 4 egg whites with ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar until stiff. Add 3 egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition of a yolk. Pour in gradually 1 cup white sugar while beating constantly. Add 2 teaspoons orange rind grated, and ⅓ cup orange juice, but just fold these in. Remove egg beater. Sift together 1¼ cups unsifted pastry flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt. Fold these in. Bake in 2 layer cake tins which have been greased and paper lined, at 325 deg. Fahr. They require about 18 minutes. Put together with Orange Filling: One-quarter cup sugar, 1½ tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt are mixed together in top of double boiler. Add 2 teaspoons grated orange rind, ½ cup orange juice, 2 teaspoons butter, 1 egg yolk. Cook until smooth, stirring over boiling water, then cook for 10 minutes covered, stirring twice. Remove from heat and add 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Let cool before spreading between layers. Dust top of cake with sifted icing sugar.

Quick Baked Peaches

For six people you will need six large peaches. Peel and cut in halves and remove stones. Put half peach in bottom of six buttered custard cups. Fill cavity with 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon butter and few drops of lemon juice. Top with matching half. Top with two stiffly beaten egg whites to which you have added 4 tablespoons sugar and ½ teaspoon almond extract. Bake at 325 deg. Fahr. for about 20 minutes or until meringue is browned. Serve these at once with cheese and crackers.

He has solved it, life's wonderful problem.

And into the school of the angels
With the answer forever has passed.
How strange he should sleep so profoundly,
So young, so unworn by the strife,
